The End of a Perfect Day.

Minerva Smith was born in Huron county, O., Nov. 14, 1831. She was married on June 3, 1850, to William Ruth. To them were born three children, Fred Ruth of Shultz, Mich., Alvin Russel of Toledo, O., and Frank Ruth of New Haven, O. After eight years of happy married life, Mr. Ruth died Jan. 31, 1858.

On April 7, 1861 she was united in marriage to William G. Ward, who died in Feb. 1905. To them were born five children, Capotola Haines of Toledo, Georgia Boardman, and James Ward of Plymouth. Two daughters, Lydia and May, preceded her to the heavenly home.

For some years she has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and through the years has been a zealous follower of her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. God has permitted her to see children to a good old age, to see children of the third generation, and to live a life of great usefulness and large Christian influence.

On Saturday, Nov. 11, her family gathered at the home of her son, James Ward, to celebrate her birthday. She spent a happy day with her loved ones, and expressed the desire that the Lord would take her home at the close of the day, saying she had lived out her days, had seen her children once again, and was willing and anxious to go.

She returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Boardman, late in the afternoon, in good spirits, but weak in body, owing to the several bad spells she had passed through during her week. She requested her grandchildren to sing, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," she listened to the song and enjoyed the singing.

In a few moments she was taken ill, and within an hour her wish was fulfilled, she had fallen asleep, to awaken in her heavenly Father's home. A most beautiful closing to a perfect day cannot be imagined, and those left behind, although they cannot help but shed tears of sorrow for their loved one, do not wish her back.

She was a faithful and devoted Mother, and the world has been better for her having lived in it. There are left to mourn for her, six children, twenty-two grandchildren, and thirteen great-grandchildren, the greater number of whom were with her on her last day in earth. Fondly remembered the weary hands That toiled so long and well; And while the music of sorrow fall Let sweet thanksgiving swell.

The life-work stretching o'er long years A varied web has been; With silken threads of sorrow wrought, And sunny gleams between. How bright she always made the house; When on her face the smile of joy, Was always flecked with spots of sun, And barred with brightness o'er. The very falling of her step Made music as she went; A loving song was on her lip, The some of full content, That tolled so long and well; The spirit rose to angel bands, And whirled on earth's mantle fell. She's safe within her Father's house Where many mansions be; O pray that thus each rest may come Dear hearts, to thee and me.

CARD. ANONYMOUS

If there ever comes a time when we need the sympathies of our friends, it is when death enters our home, and takes away a loved one. We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation to the friends and neighbors who were so thoughtful at this time, to those who so kindly furnished conveyances, to Rev. Mott and Rev. Bauer for their beautiful and appropriate words, to those who sang Mother's favorite songs, and to those whose tokens of love were expressed in flowers which covered her casket.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Croninger are moving into their new home.

Miss Della Hitchcock of Spencerville, visited her cousin, Margaret and Ora Newman, a few days last week.

The Ladies' Aid Society had a quilting last Friday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Knight, and accomplished a lot of work.

Word came last Wednesday morning that Wm. H. Long died at the home of his daughter, M. E. Ransom in Detroit, Tuesday evening, Nov. 7. He has made his home in New Haven for about five years, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. His funeral was held in Lima, Wis. He died last Thursday, and he was buried beside his wife, who preceded him about 8 years ago.

Frank Ruth and family went to Plymouth Saturday to help celebrate his mother's 85th birthday anniversary at the home of James Ward. They had a very nice time, but shortly after Mr. Ruth's return home he received word that his mother was very ill, and before he could reach her again she passed away just a few moments before he got there. He and his family attended her funeral Tuesday afternoon.

A PLYMOUTH MAN GIVES EVIDENCE.

His Testimony Will Interest Every Plymouth Reader.

The value of local evidence is indisputable. It is the kind of evidence we accept, because we know we can believe it for ourselves. There has been plenty of such evidence in the Plymouth paper lately, and this straightforward testimony has established a confidence in the minds of Plymouth people that will not be easily shaken.

Free, But in Prison.

If you are a chronic stay-at-home you are in a prison. You are enslaved. People who thus keep themselves chained become narrow, lose interest and enthusiasm, and get nowhere. They get somewhere who go somewhere.

Farmers and stockmen who travel some, and keep in touch with what is going on in the big field of agriculture and animal husbandry, live in better homes, have better farms, better buildings, more friends, are more interesting to meet, and get more out of life than those who shut themselves in, and refuse to extend their sympathies and presence into the life of their time.

Men owe it to themselves and their families occasionally to break out of the little world in which they live, and establish contact with the deeper and broader currents of life that flow in big events and big centers. For most farm people in this region there is no trip offering so many advantages and opportunities as a trip to the International Live Stock Exposition, which will be held this year from the December 2nd to 9th. This great exposition comes at a time when the field work is done, when everybody is more sociable and communicative than at any other season, when people get together in the festive spirit, and when the big stores in the great city by the lake are most beautiful.

Anyone who sees this magnificent show of live stock, which represents perfection in form and quality, is broadened and inspired; his vision is enlarged, he is better "tiger man"; his interests are vivified and increased; he goes home with new energies and resolves, and he is freed from a personal narrowness.

The supreme event of the year in American agriculture is the "International Show" in Chicago, which is this year bigger and better than ever, and which it will be worth traveling many miles to see.

It is the man who gets out of his shell and sees what the world is doing and hears what it is saying, who does things at home.

How to Train Grape Vines Properly.

Have you a grape arbor in your back yard? If you have, are the vines trained so that they will produce the largest possible yield of first-class fruit? If you have no arbor and want of increasing the value of your property by planting vines, you think to be sure they are properly put in and trained. We suggest that you read the special articles by G. C. Hinemann of training grapevines, which we print in the Advertiser of Nov. 11.

Day Meant for Meditation.

The true meaning of a national Thanksgiving day is often misunderstood. To some it is merely a day for bawking a few quails, squirrels, or other wild game. To others it is a day to indulge in some recreation and enjoy a square meal. To some it is a day for recounting our material gain over our less fortunate brothers during the fleeting year. There are other various notions as to the real purpose of a Thanksgiving day each year.

Whatever may be the ideal purpose of a real Thanksgiving day, it should be one as full as possible of good cheer, but to employ the day in reciting our material achievements, gains and losses, is a sin with the blackest tint of complexion. The true meaning of Thanksgiving means no more than the duty which each individual owes to the Creator every day in the year. It is a day when each person should weigh his motives along with his ability to help his fellowman in his own individual way, and to return thanks for not only the goodness which has befallen him, but to pledge with it an effort to strive to be a greater blessing to the community in which he lives, than any previous year.—Exchange.

Drinking of Water

(By V. M. PIERCE, M. D.)
 The general conclusions of the latest Medical Scientists prove that drinking plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. It has now been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of large amounts of water each meals is often beneficial. Therefore if you want to keep healthy drink plenty of pure water (not ice water), both with your meals and between meals. ### THE PEONY AND ITS CULTURE

By C. BESTCHER.
 Few people know the wealth of beauty and perfume of the peony. Quite everyone knows the brilliant old red peony or "piny" of the old-time garden. But from that to the modern peony is a great evolution. The modern peony is superior in size, perfume and finish to the chrysantheums, with less care and more certain results for labor expended.

The requirements of the peony are simple, yet at a few periods they are very easily damaged. We have large areas to handle and cannot give them the same care one could give to a few plants.

We give the soil a thorough dressing of fresh manure early in the fall and sow to rye. In April we plow the ground deeply and plant potatoes, corn or other crops that will have good culture.

We prefer to plant any time during September, but planting may be done at any time (if well watered for a few days) from September 1 to May. We do not approve of lifting plants in the spring after they have begun already to make a rapid and tender growth.

Plants that are kept dormant by being dug in the fall may be planted until June with fine success. We have planted big clumps wien in full bloom and they grew well, but we do not advise it except when absolutely necessary.

When planting peonies in clayey ground, they should be set about four inches deep, but in light, sandy or loamy soil, five or six inches deep. Old clumps I plant a bit deeper, leaving the crown covered lightly until late when more soil is drawn over them to make the surface level.

Never use much manure the first year on newly planted peonies and care should always be exercised not to overmanure them. The best way is to cultivate them about three inches deep, then give about one inch of manure, working the ground several times before winter sets in, or they may be manured after the ground freezes and the manure worked into the soil in the spring.

Keep all the weeds out of the peonies and do not dig over three inches deep from October until the buds are as large as acorns. Many persons have complained about their peonies not blooming, and upon investigation and from observations from my own experience I found that when ever we dug deeply around plants at the time above stated the plants either came up blind or bore a very small percentage of good blooms, so we learned to employ shallow cultivation. Plant peonies in the bright sunshine away from trees that are liable to shade them or whose roots may sap the plant food in the soil where they are planted.

In lawns where peonies are planted they should be kept well cultivated to a radius of about two feet. Watering is unnecessary except in severe dry weather. Never plant peonies where the crowns are likely to be covered with water longer than a very short time. Peonies under water for several days are likely to be very quickly spoiled.

Peonies are grown from a division of old plants and also from seed. From seed they require from five to eight years to come into full bloom. The following is a short list of very choice sorts:

GROW YOUR ROSES FROM CUTTINGS

A good way to increase your stock of roses is from cuttings. Select a branch of half-hardened wood from a thrifty bush; cut into four or five-inch pieces; see that each of these has several eyes from which growth can start; trim off the leaves except a few near the top of the cutting.

Keep the cuttings in a glass of water for a couple of days. Select a sunny place in the garden, which has excellent soil. Dig it up well and put in the slips about half their length. Press the soil tightly about the cuttings, water well, and cover with a glass jar or a large tumbler. Keep the ground moist by pouring water around the glass without lifting it up.

Growth should show through the glass in a few weeks, when the plants may be gradually accustomed to the air. Cuttings can be taken as late as mid-October, put down in this way and when cold weather comes just heap the earth high over them, glasses and all. In the spring you will find that more than half have survived.

Good Markets—High Prices
 Prizes Awarded to Western Canada for Wheat, Oats, Barley, Alfalfa and Grasses

The winnings of Western Canada at the Soil Products Exposition at Denver were easily made. The list comprised Wheat, Oats, Barley and Grasses, the most important being the prizes for Wheat and Oats and sweep stake on Alfalfa.

No less important than the splendid quality of Western Canada's wheat and other grain is the excellence of the cattle feed and fattened on the grasses of that country. A recent shipment of cattle to Chicago topped the market in that city for quality and price.

Western Canada produced in 1915 as much wheat as all of the United States, or over 300,000,000 bushels.

Canada in proportion to population has a greater exportable surplus of wheat this year than any country in the world, and at present prices you can furnish the world with wheat for the producer. In Western Canada you will find good markets, splendid schools, exceptional social conditions, perfect climate and other great attractions. There is no war tax on land and no conscription.

Why She Can Outtalk You

Comedy and Pathos.

"A man looks comical when he proposes." That women mean "Less Lung Power" Than Men.

Scientist Comes Forward With Assertion That Women Need Less Lung Power Than Men.

A woman can talk longer than a man because she takes less force in speaking than the man does. A German professor has proved by actual and very delicate measurements that the burly singer uses far more energy than the slender singer, that the bass singer uses more force than either.

 An English lord was visiting friends in Scotland. One evening while attending a dinner given in his honor he met the little daughter of his host, who, though too well-bred to stare, eyed him, covertly as the occasion presented itself, finally venturing a remark:

"There's a Reason"

Six million five hundred thousand pounds of chicle, the basis of chewing gum, was imported into the United States in 1915, according to the figures compiled by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce at Washington.

In the election Nov. 7 six states voted on the question of temperance. They were Michigan, Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana, California, and Missouri. The first four voted dry by large majorities, and the latter two wet by substantial majorities.

The county commissioners were at Tiffin Wednesday where they held a joint meeting with those of the interested townships and the commissioners of Seneca county on the petition to improve the county line road from the C. Persons who allow an automobile to stand in the public road or highway at night will have their cars guilty of violating state law. This ruling was given Monday by Attorney General Turner to Prosecuting Attorney Homer of Licking county. Turner stated, however, that municipalities have a right to request that all automobiles not in motion shall display lights.

November 1 the treasury department reported a deficit of $78,000,000 as compared with a deficit of $36,000,000 on the same day a year ago. Last year we thought the Wilson administration would be successful in running the government into debt. Its new high record indicates that we shall have to acknowledge its ability to reach its own previous accomplishments when in the midst of a campaign.

Now that the smoke of the political battles is drifting away, perhaps we can get down to business and dig up a little prosperity for this community. We have whopped it up for our favorite candidates and given them the benefit of our influence and our votes, all of which they will promptly forget. If we are equally energetic in whopping it up for our local community, we may accomplish some definite and tangible results that will bring at least a semblance of prosperity to us.

Those who have in the past experienced a gratification of their curiosity in learning through newspaper publication the amount of incomes turned in for taxation by their neighbors will henceforth have to forego that pleasure. Not only does the new law make impossible the publication of income returns, but the attorney general's office interprets the spirit of the act to require that the income assessments are to be kept under lock and key by the state auditor and treasurer, never to be opened to the vulgar gaze, except on court order.

The Miller live stock feeding station at Crestline is now housing more than 800 war horses, which have been shipped there from all over the country awaiting transportation to Jersey City and then to Europe to be used for artillery and other purposes in the war. The horses were purchased by agents of big commission houses for $115 to $160 each, these being the prices fixed for the two classes of animals. The horses are carefully guarded by the agents of the commission houses to prevent any possible accidents.

The schools at Peru have been closed by orders of physicians and there is considerable apprehension felt as to what the malady is that has attacked children in that vicinity in the past week. Says the Newark Reflector, last week Saturday. There have already been two deaths, in the Lawrence and Godfried families and it is reported that the two nephews of Frank Gies are ill and another child also ill with the same malady. A post mortem on the Godfried child established the fact that the disease is not diphtheria. The children had been ill but a few hours when death ensued. Doctors so far have been baffled.

No town will become a good business center so long as the businessmen rely on a few merchants to make the effort to bring trade to town. Too often the men in a few lines of trade do not care for those who reach out after customers. Other merchants wait until these men induce the people to come to town and content themselves with trade that naturally drifts to their place. A public-spirited man should ask himself if he is doing his best to attract trade to his town. To town to trade in helping the entire business community, and no town is a success unless all those working to extend the trade as far as possible and trying to bring territory into the circle in which the town is the business.

TURPO

THE TURPENTINE OINTMENT

What to Do for a Bronchial Cold

When a cold "settles in your chest," you know it's likely to be serious. You can generally prevent a cold from going that far—by using Turpo promptly. But if you've waited too long and have a deep bronchial congestion—even then, a vigorous use of Turpo will probably drive it out. Rub Turpo in. Apply it liberally—and bandage with flannel. The turpentine penetrates; the menthol and camphor soothe and heal. Turpo helps catarrh; eases pain; heals cuts and burns; and when used after shaving helps the skin feeling fine. Buy Turpo of your Druggist. 25c, 50c, $1.00. KARL F. WEBBER, Druggist

"The greatest coffee maker in the world"

If he doesn't call you this it is your own fault

A million women can tell you that with them, the coffee problem is a thing of the past.

--that every morning their coffee makes the whole breakfast seem entirely different, satisfying, starts the day right for all.

Like these women, you will end your search for the right coffee the moment he tastes Arbutuckle's.

Arbutuckle Bros. have the largest coffee roasters in the world. Every day they roast enough coffee to supply your entire county for a week.

Make up your mind to begin today to give your husband the benefit of their experience. Give him a chance to call you the greatest coffee maker in the world. When you see how enthusiastic he is over the flavor of Arbutuckle's you will know why it has solved the problem of over a million women—why it is by far the most popular coffee in America today!

Now our feminine population will begin to feel the "pinch" of the high cost of living a little more, as it is said the $1 corsets are to advance to $1.50 and others in the same proportion.

According to the Monroeville Spectator the town has never anything she needs with the exception of a dentist, and incidentally drops the remark that there is a fine opening for one there.

Norwalk's street corners are to be rid of small groups of professional loafers. Following complaint heard at council meeting there police were ordered to keep such moving with the alternative of arrest.

Your chance to cut the high cost of living. Special cash sale—Quarters of beef 11 and 12 cents per lb. and one only beginning Saturday November 18.

HENRY BACHRACH & SONS.

A joint meeting of the commissioners of Richland and Crawford counties was held at the court house in Mansfield Monday to talk over the Metzger ditch. The petitioners have asked for larger tile. No action was taken on this.

The first of a series of dances, music for which was furnished by Gregg's orchestra of Tiffin, given in Hamilton's hall Tuesday evening, was largely attended. Many guests coming from the neighboring towns to participate in the evening's enjoyment.

A Tiffin man appeared at the police station with a report that Chief Myers phone to his (the man's) home and frighten his son into getting up. "Maybe a policeman can get him up," I said. "An enraged Chief Myers declined to assume the duties of an alarm clock."

The board of elections of Richland county completed the official count for county commissioner Saturday morning of last week. The official count shows that Amos Day won out for county commissioner over Jacob Remy by 15 votes. The official count on the balance of the tickets made no change whatever.

A deed was filed the 25th ult., transferring from F. D. Gussanull, trustee of the Honey Creek Poultry Farm, etc., 42 and a fraction acres of land in Huron county and two lots in Plymouth and four lots in Attica, to Leonard Sutton and Wayland M. Smith, to the property was bought in bankruptcy proceedings for $10,000. 20.—Attica Hub.

A net collie probably saved Mrs. Phillip Lorenz, Norwalk, from serious injury or death, last week Thursday afternoon. An enraged cow attacked the woman, knocked her down and butted her fiercely as she lay on the ground. The dog, coming to the rescue, charged at the tender nose of the bovine, at the same time pulling the animal from the woman.

George Knoeffel, fire chief of Mansfield, and widely known throughout the county, died in his home in the above city Tuesday afternoon after only a week's illness. He joined the ranks as a volunteer fireman in Mansfield in September 1865, and 2 1/2 years later was made chief, which office he had continuously held up to the time of his death. He was in the 70th year of his age.

It makes not a bit of difference who you are or what you are, this town has done more for you than you have done for it. You may be rich, or you may be poor, in moderate circumstances, but in either case your home town has done much for you that you have never recognized or repaid. It is the duty of every citizen who believes in giving as he receives, if you give it the satisfaction it deserves, you will get busy right away and do your full share towards making this a bigger and better and more prosperous town in every way.

Wanted—Plum sewing. Enquire of Mrs. Reuben Delser.

If the coal shortage has hit you, just burn the campaign literature you received.

The eagle and rooster have had their day, but the turkey is just coming into its own.

The Northern Ohio railway made a slight change in the running of their passenger trains Nov. 1 and 2 Monday morning, both now being due to pass here at 12:40 p. m. Hereafter the west bound train was due at 12:06 p. m. and the east bound at 1:13.

Warren Bevier, who some months ago purchased a drayline in Chicago Junction, and a few weeks later sold out, has again entered the employ of the Farmers Farm Co., now being engaged in running one of the caterpillar tractors plowing for the early spring seedings.

The mission of the small town newspaper is to record the simple every day events that the busy world cares little about, but which form so much of the life of the average village life. The week that furnishes his obituary, no commission of crime, no story of someone's wrong-doing, or no political scientific, is a week being-ly welcomed by the editor.

The high cost of print paper has forced another newspaper in Huron county to change its policy in regard to gratuitous advertising. The Monroeville Spectator is the latest publication to announce that all advertising notices, run as readers, must hereafter be paid for at regular rates. Hence any money being sent to be derived by the advertisers. This applies to all reading notices.

The first real snow storm to visit this section so far this season came Tuesday night, following a rain storm which prevailed pretty nearly all day Monday. The snow which clung to the branches of the trees looked very pretty sight Tuesday morning. The snow covered the ground to a depth of about two inches, but on account of the temperature being above freezing the snow melted rapidly.

Don't forget that Christmas days are again drawing near. Don't forget that merchants in this town will have the goods that you want to buy for those Christmas days. Don't forget that every dollar you spend with a local merchant, remains in local circulation just that much. Don't forget that the advertising you spend outside of this town, remains outside and decreases the money in local circulation just that much. Don't forget that the advertisement of a local merchant in the Advertiser is an indication that the merchant is prepared to "make good" or he would not resort to publicity in soliciting your trade. Don't forget the good advertiser is generally a "live wire" and his live wires are better than dead ones.

Despite the rain and darkness, Mr. Harry Lyons was on hand at six o'clock last Monday evening with a covered wagon and stout hearted team to take the Tourists to his country home, where Mrs. Lyons was waiting with a welcome. It was a regular meeting of the club, when the meeting is in the Lyons home it rises to the nature of a picnic, a happy outing, be it summer or winter. After the lessons were over and the horses trained, Mrs. Lyons, true to tradition, served a wonderful supper. The Tourists, too, somewhat tired they had perhaps done a good stunt in bringing good luck on something of that kind, when Mr. Lyons, on coming in from the woods, announced that he had a fine new calf! Heaven surely holds store contentment and prosperity for a home so full of warm hospitality.

At the funeral of Mrs. Ward, our mother and grandmother, the Rev. Mott combined with the services, a memorial for our son, and brother, Glenn, who was lost at sea, August 1916. We appreciate this greatly and wish to thank him for his kindly thoughtfulness.

Mrs. GEORGIA BOARDMAN AND CHILDREN.
The remains of Eliza Ann Bestman were brought here from Toledo Sunday morning for interment. Deceased was born in Pennsylvania, and had she lived to August next would have rounded out her 82nd birthday. Four years ago this coming June she was taken to the state hospital at Toledo, where of late she gradually grew weaker, due to old age and finally passed away Saturday evening. Funeral was held Monday afternoon, burial being made in the New Haven cemetery.

Word was received here late last week that Mrs. John Sheely, who with her husband had been visiting relatives in and about Plymouth for the past two weeks, was taken sick while en route to her home in Monticello, and at Minneapolis was taken from the train to a hospital, where she soon expired. The news to the friends here came as a great shock, although the lady had not been feeling any too well while here. Mr. Sheely took the body of his wife on to Montana, her native state, for burial.

The second number of the winter lecture course will be given on the evening of Dec. 1, at the Presbyterian church by James A. Burns, president of Oneida college, and known throughout the country as "Burns of the Mountains," and who is likened unto Lincoln. Everywhere he appears he is met with an enthusiastic reception and no lecturer is in greater demand than Mr. Burns and you'll surely want to hear him, as it is possibly the strongest number of the course.

The case of J. G. Lehtentaler, now being held under $1,000 bond charged with arson, which was set for hearing in Mayor's court Nov. 10, has again been indefinitely postponed. This delay was occasioned by the request of both the state and Lehtentaler's attorney. It is the general belief that this case will dispense with the customary hearing by the Mayor's court and will be brought directly before the grand jury. Lehtentaler was confined to his home. It is said that worry over the impending hearing is keeping him unnerved.—Norwalk Experiment.

A farewell surprise was given at the home of Ethelberger Wednesday evening. The invited guests were: John Adams, Rose and Flossie Lady, Roscoe Artz, Lawrence Siliam, Bernice Spencer, Rhona Fild, John Cox, Carl Ehret, Florence Danner, Geraldine Spencer, Coyne Champion, Pearl, Blanche, and Don Eichelberger, Ross Vandergriff, Mrs. D. Margarette McBride, Helen Donnenwirth, Helen Hatch, and Carl Hough. The evening was spent in music and games. At 12 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served. In the small few hours of the morning the guests departed, all declaring the hostess a royal entertainer.

The following named ladies entertained Wednesday of this week at the K. of H. hall: Medames S. Hottenfeld, W. A. Fenner, D. E. Hoffman, A. E. Lewis, E. Motley, G. J. Searie, W. W. Trimmer, Frank Lett. The hall, which is commodious and well appointed throughout was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, the most striking anthems predominating. Two hundred and fifty invitations were issued and the responses attested the anticipations of those who were so favored. The guests were entertained with music and readings, and the refreshments were fully up to the standard set by the culinary abilities of the hostesses. The hours were 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 p. m., and all were filled with pleasant moments for those who attended.

In the basement of her home, south of Sulphur Springs, Mrs. James Eichelberger was kept a prisoner for half an hour this afternoon when her hand was held in the room by a wriester, run by a gas-line engine, while the rolls slowly kept on turning. In agony from pain and fear she screamed repeatedly, but could make no one hear. Finally the smallest boy took a notion to run down to the cellar to see her. Nearly fainting from pain, she sent him into the fields after his father. Mrs. Eichelberger managed to loosen an adjusting screw on the wriester, and her hand from being badly crushed, but she could not free it. Seemingly a miracle she escaped with nothing worse than a bruised hand and a few abrasions of the skin.—Bucyrus Telegraph.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE

Table listing electoral votes for various states including Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

Totals 276 243

*Result in Minnesota, with 12 votes, will not be known until soldiers' vote is counted. It is possible that close states may change the total to some extent.

As there will be four members of other minority parties, a working majority for the Democrats is improbable unless some of the minority members should choose to add their lot with the administration forces.

The senate, according to latest figures, will consist of 54 Democrats and 42 Republicans, a majority of 12. The Democratic majority in the present senate is 16.

An unusual feature of the result is the election of the first woman to congress.

Prohibitionists are jubilant over the results of the election where prohibition was an issue. From Washington the legislative committee of the Anti-Saloon league issued a statement, saying:

"Prohibition has taken another great leap forward. Michigan has voted for the prohibition bill by 75,000 majority, Nebraska 45,000, Montana by 20,000 and South Dakota by 25,000. Idaho has adopted a prohibition constitutional amendment by a majority of 10 to 1. Utah has probably elected a legislature pledged to enact state-wide prohibition. Washington, Idaho, Colorado, Arizona and Arkansas have defeated attempts by the liquor people to secure the adoption of proposals which would nullify their prohibitory laws.

"In 24 states out of 48—one-half of the states of the Union—have now declared for state-wide prohibition, and over 60 per cent of the population are in favor of it. The great West and the country is now under prohibitory law."

Women Vote as Do Men.

From the general result it is clear that as the states went for Hughes, so did the women. In Illinois men and women seemed about equally divided as to preference.

In Kansas, Colorado, Montana, Washington, Oregon and California, where women also vote, Wilson was successful, but his pluralities were not sufficiently large to indicate that the woman voters supported him as a unit.

Four states that had pledged to support the Democratic managers announced their intention to demand a recount in every close state.

"All we desire is to make sure that the vote is counted as cast." This action might be taken in regard to a recount there was little likelihood of a contest being carried to the house.

How Congress Stands. Congressional election returns, necessarily incomplete as they are, show in the forthcoming administration a Democratic senate, but with five districts still undecided, the best that the Democrats could claim was a plurality of four votes in the house.

Upon the basis of revised returns the Democrats have elected 215 members of the house and the Republicans 211. In addition there have been elected one Independent, one Socialist, one Progressive and one Progressive-Protectionist.

Four districts in West Virginia, two of them nominally Democratic, and two Republican, and one district in New Mexico, are still undecided. If these districts do not change, the Democrats will have 217 and the Republicans 214, a plurality of only three.

RAILROADS TO TEST THE ADAMSON ACT

Railroads Have Filed Suits Attacking Constitutionality of Eight-Hour Law.

PRESIDENTS IN CONFERENCE

Nearly All Roads Terminating in New York City Preparing to Enter Suits; All Declare Act is Harshship.

New York City.—Practically every railroad in the country is preparing to test the constitutionality of the Adamson 8-hour day in the courts. Four western railroads have already filed bills in injunction suits, and a number of eastern roads are preparing papers in similar suits.

In addition to this, the presidents of a large number of railroads have been holding conferences in this city in order to determine the best method of attacking it.

The action of the western railroads in bringing injunction suits was discussed in detail, especially on the advantages of following suit and bringing the law to a test before it goes into operation on Jan. 1. The conference also discussed the advisability of presenting the railroad side of the matter to the commission headed by Gen. Goethals which was appointed by the law with the duty of observing and reporting the facts to congress.

One of the railroad presidents who was present at the conference stated that some decision as to the best action to take had not yet been determined.

Nearly all the railroads terminating in this city are preparing bills in anticipation of filing suits against the law. The Central of New York Central railroad said: "The New York Central will file a bill which is now under process of preparation." He also added that he understood this was the intention of all railroads.

At the office of President Truesdale of the Chicago and North Western railroad he found that the matter was under consideration, but no decision had been reached up to the present.

From another big railroad official it was learned that the railroads will file their suits independently. No concerted attack will be made upon the Adamson law by the railroad managers or any other similar organization.

WESTERN ROADS ENTER SUIT

Chicago, Ill.—What is believed to be a general attack upon the Adamson 8-hour law has been begun by two railroads in the United States district court here. The advance skirmish was opened by the Chicago-Great Western Illinois petition for a permanent injunction to restrain enforcement of the law.

Other suits designed to test the constitutionality of the law were filed in the west by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and the United Pacific railroads. Jacob N. Dickinson, receiver of the Rock Island, filed a petition in Chicago by asking instructions from Judge Carpenter as to how the road is to interpret the law and whether it is to obey it or fight its constitutionality.

The Santa Fe's bill was filed in the United States district court in Kansas City. The Rock Island's petition in Chicago by asking instructions from Judge Carpenter as to how the road is to interpret the law and whether it is to obey it or fight its constitutionality.

All the petitions join in saying that the Adamson act is a harshship, and declare: "The act is, in all respects, to conform to said act."

FARMERS TO GET LOANS

SAYS LOAN BUREAU IS TO BE ADMINISTERED SOLELY FOR FARMERS.

Washington, D. C.—Herbert Quick of the Iowa State bank has written an address before the annual conference of county agent leaders everywhere jointly by agricultural colleges and the National Association of Farmers. He declared the farm loan act would be administered in the interests of actual farming and actual farmers.

Geauga County Woods on Fire. Chardon, Ohio.—Heavy forest fires are damaging Geauga county woodland. Fire farmers fought all night a forest fire at Concord, near the B. & O. crossing.

A number of B. & O. section men were summoned to subdue the blaze. Forty acres were burned over three farms. A blacksmith's shop, house and equipment were burned. Troy residents north of Wellfield also were damaged by the fire. Firefighters are being warned against making use of fire in the woods.

SERIOUS SITUATION CONFRONTS PRESIDENT

Submarine Question Assuming Proportions That May Call for Formal Action.

Washington, D. C.—When President Wilson returns to Washington he found a most pressing problem awaiting him in the submarine situation, rendered more threatening by reports from American-Hawaiian steamer Columbia, the sinking of the Philippine steamer Lanza, both flying the Stars and Stripes, and the destruction of the British steamer Marina with a loss of six American lives.

Reports from Madrid, Spain, say a German submarine sank the Columbian. According to this information, the Columbian encountered the submarine Nov. 6 in a violent storm. The submarine compelled the Columbian to interrupt her voyage and lie to under surveillance until Nov. 8.

The dispatch also says that the Norwegian steamships Balto and Fordale were destroyed in the same manner Nov. 9. A report of the sinking of these steamships was received from London.

The Norwegian steamships Daphne and Anjelstad also have been sunk. When the Marina and the Howar were sunk, President Wilson called for a prompt and rigid inquiry with a view to determining whether the pledges given by the German government to the United States following the attack on the Sussex had been violated. While that inquiry was being made the sinking of the Lanza and the Columbian was reported.

Altogether the submarine question has assumed such proportions that the administration may find it necessary to take formal action unless the investigation of every reported attack in which this country is directly concerned shows the submarine commanders complied with the rules of international law and humanity.

Seeking Embargo on Wheat. Columbus, Ohio.—Out of 175 of the leading newspapers of the United States participating in a poll conducted by the National Association of Master Bakers to determine public sentiment on an embargo on wheat and foodstuffs, 74 favored the action, 44 opposed, and the remainder were noncommittal.

Wants Boasting Stops. Austin, Texas.—Rev. E. C. Chidner, chaplain of the 22d Infantry, stationed at El Paso, wired the state attorney general's department for permission to conduct a boasting tour on the military reservation at that place. He said a popular admission fee would be charged and all profits would go to the amusement fund of the enlisted men.

The attorney general replied boasting was against the law, but that federal marshals could assist in their work held on a government reserve.

RAILROAD HEADS AND BROTHERHOODS DISAGREE ON HOW ACT SHALL BE APPLIED.

Employers Want to Retain Mileage Basis, While Trainmen Want Hour Standard; More Suits to Test Law Filed.

MAY HOLD OTHER MEETINGS

New York City.—Danger of a nation wide railroad strike, which was believed to have been averted by the passage of the Adamson eight-hour law, has not entirely disappeared, it developed here, when representatives of the railroads and the four brotherhoods, comprising 400,000 employees, failed to reach an agreement as to the proper application of the new law.

The stumbling block, both sides admitted, was the existing mileage system of compensation.

Differ on Interpretation of Law. The announcement of the latest deadlock between the railroads and the employees came when news of an all-day conference and bringing of a national conference committee of the railroads and the brotherhood chiefs, which had been arranged in September.

At the conclusion of the night conference, railroad officials declared the conference had differences over interpretation of the new eight-hour law. "We have one idea of what the law means, and the brotherhoods have another," a statement of the new chairman of the conference of railroad managers. "No conclusion was reached. There may be other meetings of the committee."

William G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, spokesman for the employees, declared in a statement that in the event of evasion by the railroads of the Adamson law, summary action would be taken by the brotherhoods. He said the statement that in the event of evasion by the railroads of the Adamson law, summary action would be taken by the brotherhoods, was still in effect and the brotherhoods would not hesitate to enforce it if the occasion warranted it.

More Suits Are Filed. While the conference was in progress the Missouri Pacific and the Chicago Burlington and Northern railroads at St. Louis, and the Chicago Great Western at Kansas City, and the Chicago & Eastern Illinois at Chicago, filed in federal court attacking the Adamson law.

The mileage system of compensation, the basis of which is the number of miles run, is a system of work, is not the actual hours of work, is the basis of the new problem that, a railroad authority said, may result in the development of a situation similar to the one which brought into being the Adamson law.

Frankly, said Chairman Lee of the conference committee, in discussing this phase of the situation, "the trouble lies in the fact that neither the railroads nor the men knew definitely how the law should be applied."

"We have our own ideas as to how the law shall be applied—if at all, as a test to test its validity are now pending; how the brotherhoods have their own ideas."

Chairman Lee added that he could not predict the outcome of the difficulty, but that negotiations might be resumed by calling another conference.

FACTORY ALCOHOL

FORD WOULD TURN MICHIGAN BREWERIES INTO ALCOHOL DISTILLERIES.

Detroit, Mich.—Michigan has voted for state-wide prohibition, but the brewing plants in the state need not be abandoned, said Henry Ford. "Millions of dollars are invested in these plants. Economically it would be a shameful waste to have them become idle. But there is no reason why the state should not have a standard brewing plant anywhere that can be transformed from a brewery into a distillery for manufacturing denatured alcohol for use in automobiles or other internal combustion engines."

Dead Man Drove Stage. Vancouver, B. C.—A stage driver dead man drove at least nine to their death when George Smith sent a crowded motor stage through the open draw of the North Arm bridge into the Fraser river, was the theory suggested by Smith's friends. Smith suffered from heart disease.

Enlarge Steel Plants. Youngstown, Ohio.—Expansion of three steel plants, the Carnegie, the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., to be completed by July 1, 1917, is announced by the company. The proposed new units would cost $4,000,000. A program under consideration for some time and will give the corporation a total of 12 furnaces.

The Erie-Will Steel Co., on completion of its 85 by-products coke ovens now being built, announces it will purchase 100,000 bushels of steel scrap for an additional battery of 25 ovens.

Have King George and the Kaiser for Breakfast

—and Hindenburg, Joffre and Haig; have all the other fighters, too. But all the world's best fighters are not in the European war—not by a long shot!

Some are in the country—fighting for better times on the farm—for better living conditions in town—for better roads from farm to town.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer will bring the daily doings of all these world's greatest fighters at home and abroad to your breakfast table every morning.

What You Get in The Plain Dealer During the Year

The Cleveland Plain Dealer is as much your paper as it is Cleveland's. It prints the live news of your own locality, of Ohio, of the United States, of the world!

Such a paper, then, has a powerful educational influence in every home. It should come regularly to your home—and it will if you just say the word.

The Plain Dealer has its own special representatives in New York, in Washington, in Columbus—in fact, wherever we can gather news that will interest you, we do so—and spare no expense to get the best and most authentic reports.

Besides the actual news printed—there are daily features that you can hardly afford to be without.

Stock reports by Parr—who tells you when, where and how to sell farm produce to best advantage.

Cartoons by Donahy—the man who has swayed thousands by one stroke of his pen. Temple's "Sketches From Life"—drawings full of heart interest, that appeal to everyone.

And the woman's page—a big feature that women never fail to enjoy. And stirring editorials so masterfully written that they are copied far and near.

These, then, are but a few of the reasons why you will enjoy reading The Plain Dealer every morning. Remember, you get the same news at practically the same time that you would if you lived in Cleveland.

The Daily Plain Dealer costs but $3.00 per year, delivered to your door. Make the investment today.

The fight against consumption is winning out. The prevalence of the disease is becoming less year by year and the outlook is that within a generation measures for gradual repression may be replaced by measures for absolute suppression. In a certain section of Australia it has been found advisable to institute measures for eradicating consumption. Those measures, consisting in the discovery of every case and its hospitalization, except where the case could be left at home with entire safety, have resulted in wholly freeing the people of consumption. The people of those sections now look upon consumption as we look on yellow fever and cholera. Acting upon this report a similar experiment somewhere in the United States. The company is now in the process of selecting a town of about 5,000 inhabitants for the experiment, some town where the people know about hygiene and sanitation, and, at the same time, are willing to undertake the experiment. Several towns have applied and applications are still being received. Every person in the town is to be periodically examined for consumption, every consumptive is to be cared for in a sanitarium, unless he can be cared for with complete safety at home, and every home and working place is to be made hygienic.
