WAR NOTES.

German diabolism is now being shown up in a glaring light as a series of sermons being delivered by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, in the famous old Plymouth church, Brooklyn, N. Y. Dr. Hillis preached on August in France and Belgium, and has more than ten thousand copies of affidavits and photographs to substantiate his statements, and the most astute German liar cannot get around them. After the recital of such blood-curdling atrocities Kaiser Bill need not worry but his declaration that "For a thousand years no man shall speak the word 'Hell' without shuddering," will be carried out literally, Germany by her unspeakable barbarity, has committed commercial suicide, lost the respect of every nation except her allies, and probably even of them. An article "made in Germany" will be loathed as a hissing serpent for generations to come. A clock of this stamp which keeps time that is as reliable as a German promise, is now owned by the writer to be fired at the first flock of hens to make an "offensive" against his war garden next spring.

In this connection the following poem by Bertion Braley in the Cleveland Press is most appropriate:

THE REASON.

"What are we fighting for?" pacifists cry.
 "Why are we warring with Germany?"
 Well, then they give us a query like this:
 We at admit that it knocks us quite flat.
 What are we fighting for? Truly not much.
 Trivial matters like freedom and such.
 Men's bagatelles scarcely worthy of strife.
 Like decency, honor and fairness—
 And the righteousness, safety and common humanity
 Comfort, security, happiness, sanity:
 Things unimportant like mercy and truth.
 Threatened by beasts without pity or ruth.
 Silly and empty and hollow our cause,
 D. at war for unimportant and its laws.
 Merely a fight against murder and lust.
 Evil and brutishness trampling to dust.
 All that is goodly and lovely and fair:
 Doubtless it's silly of people to care
 To rescue the world from the Prun-
 Which will allow to slaughter and fatten
 fens on us—
 Some of us—most of us—manage to
 The world will be Prussian unless it
 And therefore we fight, and if need be we die.
 Because we MUST fight or be slaves—
 That is why!"

The Lure of the Khaki Glad.

There is something keenly inspiring in the measured tramp of marching soldier feet, the dun of khaki and the glint of shouldered rifles. Something that brings a lump to one's throat and a mistiness to the eyes. Something that stirs one's loyalty to the traditions of our fathers and the ideals of our country. Something that quickens the heart throbs and sets the blood pulsing at a livelier pace. Something that loosens the purse strings. Recently the fifth annual pride of Northern Ohio, held in Cleveland for the Montgomery training camp. At its head marched an escort of Spanish American war veterans. A military band played "Onward Christian Soldiers." A Boy Scout drum corps played "Yankee Doodle," and thousands cheered as they passed.

Beside the ranks marched barefoot mothers, hurrying to keep pace. Wives red-eyed and tremulous, clinging to loved ones in nervous grief. Sweethearts, some just from school, books under their arms. And although there was much cheering and clapping there was a great pervading sadness and many wet eyes.

Beside the soldiers' monument in the public square stood a veteran of the civil war. "It's a son's blood," he said, straight and grim for the moment. "If those boys could see before they were sent to France for one hour there'd be no trouble about money to send them."

And he was right. Were it possible to send up the American people along the road to France, with the khaki clad soldier boys marching to Armageddon, the need of further appeal in behalf of the Liberty Loan would vanish in a twinkling.

In Paris the enthusiastic Frenchmen fairly covered the path of the first detachment of American troops with flowers. And a thoroughly aroused American people would cheer the line of march none deeper with ten dollar bills.

If you haven't seen Uncle Sam's champions of liberty in uniform go to the nearest training camp and look them over.

The pull at your heart strings will loosen the grip on your pocketbook. It will make clearer your duty to buy a Liberty bond.

The "Gray Van" Across to Old Kentucky.

Oct. 1, 1917.

Dear Teddy:
 We've just started on the way to Hamilton, Ohio, having canned up the Sabbath in a field near Exello, three miles from Middletown. At Exello is one of the oldest paper mills this side of the Le-chamie, the day watchman showed M-arlie and I over the building and explained the process. Certainly wonderful this mill (Harding) make only direct writing paper, made of rags only. There is a man living here who used to pike about Plymouth, his name is McBride, a "windy guy" but a gra' big heart.

We had a number of callers. Expected to go through down at Amanda, a little old town on the Miami Canal, where there is a quaint old church, log house and inn but we were just over before the banks of the Canal and missed connections. Took snap shot of the locks and falls, and one of the paper mills. Exello is a beautiful spot and we could not have found a better one to stay over the Sabbath. The best water I ever drank, which we drew from an old-fashioned stone well, buckets and chains.

Just on the west line of Camp "Bockeys" was the C. D. M. R. R. The roads are great and the weather greater. I am getting tanned. New things all the time all the way. I have all my muscles developed. Don't have to work up an appetite, always with us. This was the longest high water in the country since we reached the top view paid for the effort. Can see Hamilton off in the distance, belching forth its smoke from a great stack.

Just looked out and see we are in a little town called "Overpeck," and I see by the board we are 45 miles from Plymouth, but I will mail this letter. We did not strike Richmond, but expect to cross over into Indiana. At Trenton we crossed the C. H. & D. at this place, there is a tobacco packing house.

Just now the sky looks a little lowly, but we are all O. K. if it rains, and the country needs it. We are d-d living along the Dayton and Hamilton interurbans. Marlie has one letter and I am from Plymouth, but it is almost impossible to tell so long before hand where we will be. Hub was offered a good job at the Harding paper mills at Exello, but he has not yet accepted job of his own to hold down. But looks better and is enjoying the trip immensely, so is everyone of us for now.

Oct. 4th, 1917 On the banks of the Ohio, six miles from Rising Sun, Ind., with Kentucky across the river we came in the rain to our camp place along the banks of the Ohio river. Did not put up our tent because of the wet grass. Cooked supper and breakfast in the wagon, and had a good night rest. We are retracing our steps to get a wider road about a mile back. We have had our one "kick" and are now about us taking up the whole road.

The river looks beautiful here, the rain told us that when the flood of water was in it was a good reach where we were camping, about 50 feet elevation from river. We left Lawrenceburg yesterday, came to Aurora as it was our camp place yesterday. We are going by the way of Florence, Ind. we are still in Indiana and think we will either cross the Ohio at Madison, or near the Snerm and Daisy went fishing this m. You could have got a boat and gone out to sea and fished a spell this m. We are now 3 miles from Florence, and the road winds like a snake, worse than the S. N. E. M., up to Shelby, pretty bumpy too.

How are you getting on, anything? Hope everything is O. K. in old Plymouth. We are on our way to Louisville, Ky. General Delivery.

Came 25 miles yesterday even if it did rain some of the way. Water is very scarce here, had no rain until yesterday for a long time and not any hard ones since June. The scenery is beautiful here among the hills, and the co-roads are open to all over 17 years of age, it is believed that the unusually large number will enroll a large percentage that can enter the motor age while the courses are likewise available to a large number of farmers over draft age.

Courses in crop production, soil fertility, dairying, poultry husbandry, horticulture, vegetable gardening and livestock judging have been provided under a special schedule for the short course. Military drill will also be given the students.

Don't take any chances by exposing your health to the disagreeable weather this fall and winter when you can buy a Nu-Way Sanitary Chemical Inside Toilet—the no-water sewer system for $14.50. Call or address Nu-Way Sales Co., both phones 313, at 225 E. 8th St., Auburn, Indiana.

the second road above the river, as near as we can find out Louisville is forty some miles from here.

Oct. 8th Between Hibernia and Charleston, Ind. We had a bad piece of road for a few miles yesterday, between Hanover and Hibernia. Camped in the woods. Have good roads today. Expect to reach Louisville this afternoon. We are now over half way on our way, and have been on our journey eighteen days. Cutting corn and sowing wheat, and beautiful days.

Yours truly,
 JOSEPHINE MCCLINCHY.

Letter from Charles Murphy.

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, Oct. 2, 1917.

Dear Mother and Dad:
 I have just time to write a few lines. Have been so busy the past week that I've not had time to write before, but we are fairly well organized now, and perhaps I will have more time in the evening to myself. Got my last "shot" in the arm this morning, and I guess it is not going to make me sick, as my arm is not even sore yet. Will not have to be vaccinated again.

Was awfully glad to see Ralph and Mabel, Sunday; also very glad to get the things you sent. Please thank those people for me who sent the "Comfort Kit" and contents, and say everything was highly appreciated. Am liking army life better every day, and I never felt better in my life. The "eats" are getting better than they were, but will stay a lot of improvement yet. Have had most of our clothes issued, and tonight are issuing the winter clothes down stairs, and was interrupted by a heavy rain, and get my "O. D." clothes. Have tried them on and got a dandy fit.

Will give you a list of a complete equipment of clothes: 2 pairs light socks, 3 pairs heavy socks, 2 suits light underwear, 2 suits heavy underwear, 1 pair field shoes, 1 pair tan shoes, 1 khaki coat, 2 khaki breeches, 1 olive drab wool coat, 1 olive drab wool breeches, 2 pairs leggings, 1 service hat, 1 dress cap, 2 O. D. wool shirts, 1 O. D. wool overcoat. It makes quite a bunch when you get them all together.

I am still acting as sergeant, and I guess I will hold it down for good. It is pretty hard work to beat anything into some heads, and the bunch am drilling now belong to that class I even cut the cadence in my sleep, so I was told by some of the boys sleeping next to me.

I hope you and Dad will come down as soon as you can, and be sure and bring "Bob" along with you. I hope you will be able to read this, but have my doubts, for this is a bum pen, and I am holding the table on my knee, as the "Y" was so crowded I could not get desk-room "lights" to have to clear, as it is almost impossible to get in the barracks. To Open Short Course for Farm Men and Boys.

Instruction in agriculture at the Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, for labor is least needed on the farm.

That farm men and boys may have an opportunity to study the problems of agriculture on a war time basis, the College of Agriculture of the Ohio State University, Columbus, will open a three-year course on October 16. The year's work in the course will close during the month of March so that all students may return to their home farms in time for the season's work. In this way, the college officials state, it will be possible for farm men and boys to secure the college training for their sons when they are least needed in the country.

Since farm experience is the only requirement necessary to enter, and the co-roads are open to all over 17 years of age, it is believed that the unusually large number will enroll a large percentage that can enter the motor age while the courses are likewise available to a large number of farmers over draft age.

Courses in crop production, soil fertility, dairying, poultry husbandry, horticulture, vegetable gardening and livestock judging have been provided under a special schedule for the short course. Military drill will also be given the students.

BROKEN DOWN IN HEALTH

Woman Tells How $5 Worth of Pinkham's Compound Made Her Well.

Lima, Ohio.—"I was all broken down in health from a displacement. One of my lady friends came to see me and she advised me to commence taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every morning and to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash. I began taking my medicines and took $5.00 worth in two months and I was well again. After three doctors said I never would stand up straight again. I was a mild wife for seven years and I recommended the Vegetable Compound to every man to take before birth and afterwards, and they all got along so nicely that it surely is a godsend to suffering women. If women wish to write to me I will be delighted to answer them."

—Mrs. JAMES MOYER, 342 E. North St., Lima, Ohio.

Women who suffer from displacements, weakness, irregularities, nervousness, backache, or bearing-down pains, need the tonic properties of the roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MUST NOT BOTHER EDISON

Visitors Not Permitted to Intrude on Great Inventor When He is Busy at His Experiments.

Thomas A. Edison's favorite pursuit is chemistry. Even as a boy telegraphist getting his first start towards a career, this inclination was manifest in his experiments with batteries and electric devices, and it still remains his greatest pleasure, observes an exchange.

His new laboratory is splendidly equipped. Every known substance ranging through all the kingdoms of matter from kumquat to shark's teeth and including over 200,000 specimens, is kept on hand for immediate availability. It is a collection of over 30 years' standing, this inclination was manifest in his experiments with batteries and electric devices, and it still remains his greatest pleasure, observes an exchange.

His own laboratory table is never in any circumstances, allowed to be touched. A notice posted on the door reads to the effect that Mr. Edison is not to be disturbed in the course of his experiments except for matters of the utmost importance. So fond is he of his beloved pastime that he declares his idea of heaven is to be able to continue it, and his informant says his staff are: "When I die I want my table forwarded to me by wireless."

Needed His Muscles.

The wounded Tommy writhed and squirmed as the masseuse, with iron fingertips, massaged his injured leg. At last he burst out:

"Art a mo. What d'yer think yer doing off? Ow!"

"It's all right," said the masseuse. "I'm kneading your muscles."

The Tommy gently but firmly pulled his leg away from the none too gentle grasp of his tormentor, and breathed:

"So'm I!"

Experience is what you know after making a fool of yourself.

A timid man gets his right here on earth.

OHIO'S GOVERNOR ACCORDED HONOR

IN BEHALF OF BUCKEYE STATE COX BIDS FAREWELL TO SONS OF OHIO.

GREET'S RAINBOW DIVISION

On Eve of Departure for Service In France—Men at Camp Mills, New York, Reviewed by Retables, Secretary Baker Was Present.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Columbus.—Gov. James M. Cox, of Ohio, visited Camp Mills, L. I. N. Y., and there received a most enthusiastic reception. Many persons prominent in the public eye were at Camp Mills at this time. Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, who is from Ohio, was one of the notables but none received a greeting more royal than that accorded Governor Cox.

Mr. Cox was accompanied by Brigadier General George H. Wood, Adjutant General of Ohio, and Mrs. Cox, who was Miss Margaretta Blair, of Chicago, and who was married to the Governor on September 15. Miss Helen Cox, his daughter, also accompanied the Governor.

The report reaches here that from the time the Chief Executive of the Buckeye State arrived in camp until he left for New York, he was received with prolonged and warm applause by the soldiers of Ohio, who comprise the One Hundred and Sixty-sixth Infantry Regiment.

A parade, which was reviewed by Gov. Cox, was held on the fair ground near Hempstead, and the One Hundred and Sixty-sixth Infantry (old Sixty-sixth of New York) and the One Hundred and Fiftieth Machine Gun Battalion, formerly of the Wisconsin Infantry, participated with the Ohio regiment.

Major General William A. Mann, commander at the camp, stood with the little group of Ohioans during the review and with them pleased with the comments made by the Governor. During the review Gov. Cox was affected visibly and was hard put to control his emotion. While Mr. Cox spoke to nobody directly, while they were passing, he frequently proclaimed in an undertone the pride he felt while the Ohioers marched by his side.

Later when he spoke from the adjacent to the encampment of the Sixty-sixth of New York, he gave vent to his feelings.

"Around the edges there may have been evidence of disloyalty, but Ohio is American," the Governor declared.

The Governor, in speaking to the men, said in part:

"So soon as it was known that orders to be received by the Rainbow Division, I stated that you have the honor to represent, and which is glorified by your service, dearest to me, might be some evidence of the interest in your happiness and your safety that is felt by every household back home."

"I am sure that you will be able to speak to the very edge of the ocean to speak what is in the heart of Ohio, and I wish I possessed the power of thought and the facility of speech to express the emotions of our people."

STATE CONTROL IS APPROVED.

Welfare Workers Give O. K. to Proposed Legislation.

Springfield.—Legislation for the state control of mission institutions was approved by the public welfare section of the Ohio State Conference of Charities and Corrections at a meeting here today.

The welfare workers also urge that the next vacancy on the State Board of Administration be filled by the appointment of one of their people. A fare section also recommends that a site on the campus of the Ohio State University be selected for the building to be erected by the Bureau of Juvenile Research.

Fuel Gone; School Closes.

Williamsport.—The coal famine caused the closing of the centralized school here. Ten teachers and 200 pupils are idle as a consequence.

Max Timmons notified Attorney General McChesney and by telephone received assurance that coal would be sent here as soon as possible. Local coal dealers are powerless and householders are without coal. Many engines for farm and road work are idle.

To Select Candidates.

Toledo.—Members of the Executive Committee who had charge of the campaign for George A. Murphy, candidate for mayor, who died recently, will decide on one of Murphy's late followers to take Murphy's place on the ballot.

Oberlin Receivers Named.

Canton.—Thirty real estate properties in Canton belonging to State Senator Adam W. Oberlin, who has been missing for the last month, were placed in the hands of E. C. Roberts, of Canton, and Attorney John P. Oberlin, of Cleveland, as receivers. Common Pleas Judge Pontius. Roberts is Senator Oberlin's business partner and son-in-law and Attorney Oberlin is Senator Oberlin's son. The appointment for the receivership was made by Smith Roberts, sister of E. C. Roberts.

OHIO SUPPLIES PROMISED

Relief At An Early Date Is Assured By Garfield, Who Has Power To Seize All Coal.

Columbus.—"In my judgment relief is in sight and coal will be pouring into every community of the state at a very early date." This statement was made by Attorney General McGinnis on receipt of a letter from Dr. H. A. Garfield, National Food Administrator, expressing confidence that action being taken by his department will afford Ohio the necessary relief.

Dr. Garfield said that the provisional ruling governing the prices that retail dealers may charge for coal, together with the step taken by his department to obtain better car service and preference for coal movement, he was sure would provide Ohio with what coal it needs.

In his letter to Attorney General McGinnis Dr. Garfield said: "The middle of the week, Judge Lovett (in charge of coal movement), Commissioner Clark, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and I met and arranged for co-operation in this direction. Recently the traffic and coal men attached to our several departments met with me here and I was undertaken to prepare the data upon which orders may be based which will secure to the transportation companies a sufficient supply of coal, under a fair apportionment plan, so that the present necessity of confiscation may be avoided, and in the second place a plan by which coal may be given a place of preference in the selection of other necessary commodities, but in fair proportions."

KETTERING USES AIR ROUTE.

Dayton Member of University Trustees Makes Trip In Hour.

Columbus.—A herald of the time when business and social engagements will be made by airplane as commonly as now by motor, trolley or steam railway, Charles F. Kettering, of Dayton, made a trip from his home to Ohio State University campus by airplane. The trip was made in one hour and a minute the distance being 65 miles. After the business of the Trustees had been transacted Kettering went home by the air route.

Follett Stated for Job.

Columbus.—Assistant Attorney-General Charles D. Follett, of the State Industrial Commission member, to succeed the late Wallace D. Yaple. His name is understood to be under consideration.

BUCKEYE NEWS NOTES

Springfield.—Delaware was chosen by the Ohio Synod of the Reformed Church for the next annual convention of that body in October, 1918.

Nelsonville.—Robert A. W. Piles, 22 years old, single, was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning while sitting in a field near the residence of his father, in the forenoon, passed downward, stripping the clothing entirely from the body.

Columbus.—Invitation has been extended by the local Liberty Loan Committee to former President Theodore Roosevelt to speak on the subject of bond sales. A telegram to this effect has been dispatched to the Colonel by his Oyster Bay home.

Columbus.—For the first time in Columbus tags have been stripped from the automobile of a reckless driver. Judge Ruth ordered the license tag of Lee Toepfer be returned to the Secretary of State and the owner forbidden from driving his car for a year.

Hamilton.—After many years as a trusted clerk in the Hamilton Post-office, Clinton O. Yeakle was arrested at the post-office on an order from Sheriff Frank Pepper for alleged imprisonment and locked up in the County Jail.

Cleveland.—The first day's registration here was heavier than usual. This despite fact that voters have taken thousands of votes out of the city. This deficit will be made up, it is believed, partly by recently naturalized citizens eager for their first vote and women.

Toledo.—Attorney Benjamin F. James, of Wilmett, was forced to show cause why he should not be disbarred from practicing in the United States Courts in a hearing before Judge Hollister, of Cincinnati, committee of lawyers, in a report to United States Judge Killis, adjudged James guilty of unprofessional conduct and malpractice.

Mr. Vernon.—The Tenth District Medical Association met here and elected officers as follows: President, C. D. Mills, Marysville; Vice Presidents, Howard Jones of Circleville, Chas. Trimble of Crestline, O. W. Bonner of Delaware, S. A. Platter of Columbus, and W. Blake, of Gambier.

Columbus.—Dr. S. M. Platter, of Columbus, has been named permanent Secretary to succeed Dr. George H. Matson, Secretary of the State Medical Board, who died in office. Dr. Platter was temporary secretary.

Columbus.—Since the Adjutant General's office has been deluged with requests of Civilian veterans who wished to be present at the dedication of the monument on Lookout Mountain and at Vicksburg it has been again compelled to say that there are absolutely no funds at hand for this purpose.

In the Language He Understood.

Clarence S. Kever, division superintendent of the Indiana Union Traction company, with headquarters at Muncie, reads everything dealing with electricity and electrical subjects that comes his way; so much so that he sometimes fails to keep up with public affairs as presented in the newspapers. He mentioned this to a friend the other night when the latter chided him for not knowing about an important war development.

"A man in your particular kind of business should think would always be interested in current events," said the friend, "that is if you expect to be a live wire."—Indianapolis News.

Hello Profanity.

The rule is strict against using profane language when talking over the telephone. A telephone experiment had proved a failure in Lynn, Mass. The manager called a gathering of his "wrong number" calls were frequent and he ordered the "hello" girls to call each digit separately and to insert the word "hello" after each one. The method was slow, but the climax was reached when a Lynn man was in a hurry to get a Boston newspaper office. He called a "hello" girl and she said a sweet voice at "central" say: "Beach three, dash, oh, dash, oh, dash, oh, dash."

That settled the Lynn man and he called out:

"Well, what are you cussing about?"

The order was abolished, and no more "hello" girls were said by the telephone girls at Lynn.—Buffalo Commercial.

Somewhat Hunched.

—marriage broker brought an assistant along to a conference about a bride. The assistant was to confirm his assertions.

"She is well made, like a pine tree," said the agent.

"Like a pine tree," repeated the assistant.

"She is cultured beyond words," "Wonderfully cultured," came the echo.

"However, one thing is true," hunched the broker, "she has a slight hump on her back."

"And what a hunch!" confirmed the assistant.

Faith Was Weak. During an extended drought in the land that inspires the rag-time song writers the "Lewards" George Washington called a gathering of his brethren to supplicate the Lord for rain. Before he opened his sermon the "Lewards" surveyed his congregation critically, and with increasing satisfaction. At last he laimed:

"The lack of faith of 'ee' niggers is scandalous and sinful, and makes my heart sore and weary, and afeared for your souls! Heel 'a hab gotten to be log Lord 'a stop de drought dat is burning up our fields, and dat mess us with rain 'a abundance. And one-one-no, 'nab! not one ob 'ee disgrafened sinners had faith enough to bring an umbrella to go home with!"

Concrete Is Preferable.

Steel is going up, and concrete, as a result is coming into wider use. Half-way bridges, for example, which use always to be of steel, are now often of concrete. A beautiful concrete railway bridge is being built across the James river at Richmond, Va., and it is much prettier than a steel bridge. For like reasons, concrete is replacing wood in mining structural work, where it has the great advantage of being waterproof.

CONGRESS MAKES LEVY AT $27 FOR EVERY CHILD IN THE UNITED STATES

Excess Profits Revenue at Billion, and Incomes at Nearly as Much Remain Practically Unchanged by of the Conferees.

Corporations Will Pay Their Full Share Toward the Financing of the War—New System of Grading the Amount of Assessment Adopted Believed to Be the Best That Could Be Devised.

Washington.—The joint conferees on the war revenue bill completed their draft after two weeks of deliberation. As revised by the conferees, the measure has been raised from the levy fixed by the senate of $2,416,670,000 to an aggregate of approximately $2,700,000,000.

The chairman of the senate finance committee estimated that the increase made by the conferees would approach $275,000,000.

The excess war profits tax, as agreed to by the conferees, is a modification of the senate bill, the principal changes being in the minimum and maximum rates of exemption upon which the tax is to be determined.

The senate graduated scale of exemptions ran from 8 to 10 per cent, while the house exemption was 8 per cent. The conferees adopted the graduated rate of from 7 to 9 per cent.

The definition of capital, which was a point upon which the conferees argued for days, was modified so as to provide that the actual value of tangible property paid into a corporation or partnership of individual business before January 1, 1914, shall be taken as of that date.

As to "Invested Capital." In calculating war excess profits the "invested capital" of corporations and partnerships was declared to include "actual cash paid in, actual cash value and other tangible property paid for stock or shares at the time of payment or January 1, 1914, but in no case to exceed the par value of the original securities; paid in or earned surplus and undivided profits used or employed in the business, exclusive of undivided profits earned during the taxable year."

The allowance for intangible assets includes "actual cash value and patents and copyrights paid in for stock or shares at the time of payment . . . good will, trademarks, trade brands, trade names . . . and other intangible payments not to exceed the cash value."

It stipulates that such intangible assets exchanged for securities before March 3, 1917, and other securities of the total, shall be included at a value not exceeding a fair cash value at the time of purchase.

Increased taxes on whiskey and beer were virtually retained, but on that which somewhat reduced. The tax on distilled spirits was made $2.10 per gallon when for beer and wine $1.15 for industrial purposes, estimated to raise $135,000,000. The amendment prohibiting importation of distilled spirits for beverage use was retained. Floor taxes to reach withdrawal liquors were approved. Beer taxes $1.50 per barrel additional, to raise $45,000,000. Cigarettes 25 cents per barrel over the house rate. Present wine taxes were doubled.

Taxes on nonalcoholic beverages were comprehensive. Beer, syrups and extracts the taxes graduated from 5 to 20 cents instead of from 3 to 12 cents a gallon were added. Greater sugar and drinks are taxed 1 cent per gallon, as provided by the senate in reducing the original 2-cent rate of the house.

Stamp Taxes Fixed. Stamp taxes agreed upon are: Bonds of indebtedness, 5 cents on each $100.

Parcel post packages, 1 cent for each 25 cents of the cost of transportation. Capital stock, original issues, 5 cents per $100.

Sales and transfers, 2 cents per $100. Sales of goods, 1 cent per $100. Gifts, checks payable other than on sight or promissory notes, except bank notes for circulation, 2 cents for each $100 value in merchandise.

Convoyance papers, 50 cents for each additional $500. Customs house entries, from 25 cents to $1; entry for withdrawal from bonded warehouses, 50 cents.

The conferees in the senate bill was secured from the postage, public utilities and manufacturing sales section and the new inheritance taxes.

With but few exceptions, the new taxes are effective with the passage of the act. The income tax section adopted virtually as written by the senate. The new 2 per cent normal tax on incomes of more than $2,000 for married persons and $1,000 for single persons is in addition to the present 6 per cent tax on incomes of less than $2,000 for single persons and $4,000 for married persons.

That those between the new low exemption bases and the present exemptions will pay only the 2 per cent tax, but single persons having an income of $2,000 or more and married persons whose income is $4,000 or more will pay the full 4 per cent normal tax.

The senate income provision allowing an additional exemption of $200 for each dependent child to heads of families subject to the present law was retained. The exemption for children, however, does not exceed $400 or more subject to the new reduced taxes with the $2,000 and $1,000 exemptions, respectively, for married and single persons.

Amusement taxes agreed upon provide that all persons receiving compensation of amusement fees, except employees and officials on duty and children under twelve, will pay a tax rate of 1 cent on the gross amount of the receipts thereof of the admission charge. This tax also would apply to cabarets and similar performances where the cost of entertainment is 10 per cent of the cost, such as service. Holders of annual box seats would pay 10 per cent of the annual rental. Nickel theaters and shows, rides and other outdoor park amusements with a maximum admission of 10 cents and benefit entertainments and agricultural fairs were exempted.

On or after November 1, 1917, members of all clubs, except fraternal orders, paying more than $12 annual dues would be subject to a 10 per cent tax. On excess profits the conferees agreed upon a minimum deduction of 7 per cent and a maximum of 10 per cent of the gross margin of the year as fixed by the senate. Other exemptions are $3,000 for corporations and $5,000 for individuals. Corporations, partnerships and individuals are to pay no capital stock profit a flat rate of 5 per cent on net profits in excess of $3,000 for corporations and $5,000 for individuals and partnerships.

Miscellaneous income tax amendments inserted by the senate were generally adopted, including the so-called "gross margin" tax on corporations. Income tax actually invested or employed in business or invested in federal securities after September 1, 1917, and 5 per cent of net profits retained but not employed is provided.

In making provision for administration and collection of the new and existing taxes the conferees provided that the special tax of 12 1/2 per cent on war munitions manufacturers shall be reduced to 10 per cent, and retained to January 1, 1918. It now yields about $20,000,000 annually and the senate had proposed its repeal.

Garfield Fixes Coal Prices. Fuel Administrator Announces Final Decision, Which Will Be Binding on All Dealers.

Washington.—Fuel Administrator Garfield announced regulations, effective July 1, 1917, for the limitation of the retail prices of bituminous and anthracite coal throughout the country.

The fuel administration has fixed, in the regulations, a retail price and specific price which the retailer dealer will be allowed to charge the consumer. The gross margin which the retailer dealer will be allowed to add to the average wholesale cost of his coal in making retail prices.

The retailer dealer will be allowed to sell to the consumer at a price representing an advance of not more than 30 per cent over the retail gross margin of 1915. In no case, however, will the price be allowed to exceed the gross margin of July, 1917.

If, for example, a retail coal dealer bought a particular kind of coal in 1915 at an average of $2 a ton and sold it to the consumer at $3 a ton, his gross margin was $1. Dr. Garfield now allows him to add 30 per cent to this amount, making his gross margin for 1917 $1.30, provided that is not in excess of his gross margin in July last.

If the retailer dealer now pays an average of $5 for the same kind of coal he will be allowed to sell it to the consumer for not more than $6.50 a ton. Dr. Garfield's decision in 1915 as a normal coal production year.

Power of attorney, 25 cents. Playing cards, 10 cents for not more than 50 cents, an additional 5 cents on the present rate.

Taxes on life insurance, eliminated from the house bill in the senate were amended and reintroduced, retaining about $5,000,000. Effective November 1 the new taxes on life insurance policies issued are 8 cents per $100 premium or life insurance and

New War Tax Levies as Made by Senate and House

Washington.—The war revenue bill, as finally passed on by the conferees, the senate conferees provides for the raising of approximately $2,806,820,000, as follows:

GERMAN RAIDERS IN PACIFIC OCEAN

Teuton Commerce Destroyers Prey Upon American and Allied Shipping.

Work of Destruction Is Told by Skipper Long Held Prisoner on Island.

Washington.—Two German commerce raiders, manned by the crew of the famous Seeadler which, it now develops, stranded on Mopeha island in the south Pacific after roaming the seas for seven months preying upon American and allied shipping, are operating somewhere in the south seas, according to a report received at the navy department from the naval station at Tutuila, Samoan Islands.

The dispatch, transmitting the story of Capt. Hador Smith, of the American schooner U. S. S. Albatross, and a Seeadler's victim, was sent Sept. 29, several weeks after the raiders left Mopeha island, where the Slade had been captured by the Germans. The raiders first put to sea Aug. 2 and it probably was their operations which led to recent reports of raiders in the Pacific.

Before coming to grip Aug. 2, the Seeadler had added the American schooners A. B. Johnson, Manila and Slade to the list of at least 12 allied vessels which she sank early this year in the south Atlantic ocean. In the long period from last March, when the last was heard from, the raider probably sent down other craft and countered in passing through the Atlantic around Cape Horn.

Help to Save Nation's Food Supply

In this time of high cost of living, everybody should use all possible means to prevent waste and to help save food. No one means can be more effective than a vigorous campaign to reduce the waste of food which destroys over two hundred million dollars worth of foodstuffs annually. Keep garbage in rat-proof cans, stop up their holes and burn them. Use foodstuffs with Borden's Paste, which will be bound to keep your food fresh and clean. You will usually find rat poison of every kind in your kitchen, and you should use it. Destroy mice, cockroaches and waterbugs as well.

CONFERENCE EXAMINATION

Directed by President to Collect Material to Be Used at Peace Conference.

WAR'S END NOT IN SIGHT

United States to Be Equipped With Full Information on All Matters That Are Vital to Its Interests.

New York.—President Wilson, being fully advised of the fact that the European governments have for nearly three years been gathering and collecting data, which would be indispensable at the now unknowable but yet inevitable date, when the warring nations meet to settle peacefully.

Colonel House has accepted the task of detaching and with characteristic promptitude and thoroughness has already made groundwork plans for assembling all pertinent information, historical, geographical and ethnical.

Emphasis is put upon the unalterable determination that neither professional pacifists nor confirmed militarists can be in the slightest degree useful in preparing statistics for government officials, which must be without taint of bias.

In an interview Colonel House made it plain that his appointment does not indicate any thought of leaving the peace is now being entertained by the United States government. He agrees with Lord Northcliffe in his message delivered before the congress of the peace association in Atlantic City that peace seems far off and America should beware the trickery and treachery of such impostors.

Under. In accordance with the policy that has been consistently followed since the outbreak of the war of holding aloof from European combinations except in the prosecution of the war, this government probably will not attempt to aid in the settlement of traditional European quarrels, except possibly in a matter of friendly interest if opportunity arises.

It was said unofficially that when the time comes to organize a peace conference, Colonel House, by virtue of his present assignment, would in all probability be selected as one of the delegates from the United States. It will be the duty of the government to task to gather intelligence relating to commercial, economic and political situations abroad. He will keep abreast of developments in all non-military affairs.

Colonel House will have associated with him, as has been stated, several well-known publicists, economists and specialists in commercial and financial affairs. The work he is to perform will not be connected with the peace conference, but will be the countries with which the United States is associated in the war.

State department officials, when reminded of the fact that the United States would be interested in purely European territorial questions, answered that the American army was still engaged in the United States would, of course, have delegates at the peace conference.

These data will be compiled primarily to assist the representatives at the peace conference after the war, but may also be used in the meantime to help guide the government in its foreign relations.

Must Have Data in Advance. It is important for the United States government now and will be even more so in the future, to have what is called "who's who and what's what" in the war in order that all phases involved may be properly understood by the public.

ACTIVITIES OF STATE DEPARTMENTS & OTHER HAPPENINGS

Columbus.—(Special).—C. N. Watson, Jr., 21, student and student assistant instructor in the department of psychology of Ohio State university, is held in the Columbus city jail for investigation in connection with the holding up and robbing of a bank and stationary store proprietor here. Waterman's home is in Toledo.

Must Wait to Get Coal. While the coal dealers of some Buckeye cities were predicting suffering in the homes unless relief comes soon in the coal shortage, Dr. Harry A. Garfield, federal coal administrator, stated in Washington that Ohio householders as well as manufacturing concerns must get along as best they can until the close of the lake navigation season in November or early December.

Garfield had just spent several hours in considering an appeal for relief sent by Attorney General McHugh of Ohio and in conference with Judge Lovett, in charge of priority shipments, and a group of Ohio coal operators.

Retail coal dealers who fail to do business with the government, as laid down by the fuel administration, face fines of $5,000, imprisonment and the confiscation of their business, it was announced by Administrator Garfield.

The Garfield decision that factories must get along with what coal they can get is a trouble in Ohio, in order to apply to all save public utilities, municipalities and concerns engaged in making war supplies. If a manufacturing concern is found to be using 60 per cent of its capacity for making war munitions and 40 per cent for other uses, the government will, until the present shortage is relieved, be apportioned, so far as the government is concerned, on that basis. All concerns doing government business will get sufficient coal to tide them over.

Dr. Garfield also insisted there should be no trouble in Ohio after the start of free shipments. He said he was keenly aware that until that time there was certain to be inconvenience to householders and others not now in possession of the winter's supply of coal. He does not believe, however, that the Bureau of Fuel Administration should there be a real suffering, Dr. Garfield says, an order will be issued to retailers throughout Ohio allocated to householders.

Buckeye Camp Preparer. State banks throughout Ohio are very prosperous, according to a statement issued by State Bank Superintendent Sherman Oct. 7. It was estimated more than 10,000 automobiles visited the grounds.

It was the greatest crowd that has been at the camp in a single day and probably the greatest Ross county ever has known. The policy of making the camp "home-like" and permitting all visitors freedom of the grounds is being carried out.

"Beware of the Bonfire." The state war board says: This is the time of falling leaves—and this is the time of falling leaves—and this is the time of falling leaves.

Beware of the bonfire! It is a menace to the lives of children, and to property. It is a menace to the lives of children, and to property.
