

OLD FRIENDS MEET.

Ciceronians Gather at the Guinea Church Once More.

Survivors of the old Ciceronian Literary Society of Guinea school, North New Haven, held a reunion on Thursday, Aug. 16, which was voted one of the most enjoyable of the several annual affairs they have given at the old church adjoining the school grounds.

As usual the church and grounds were hospitably prepared by Mr. Sparks, as the committee on grounds never fails to have the tables and other accommodations in readiness.

As early as 10 o'clock the guests began to assemble, many bearing generous sized baskets of the picnic dinner which was announced for noon. Fried chicken was easily the piece of resistance of the occasion and prepared as only the Ciceronian girls know how, it was fitting pride to elegant cakes, and other confectioner's triumphs that followed.

The program as arranged by the committee was as follows: Reading for the benefit of the friends of the society who were present in large numbers was given in the church.

PROGRAM.
Song—"The Star Spangled Banner." Address of Welcome. Col. A. W. Davis Business Roll Call Ciceronian Gem..... Latest Edition Short Stories, Readings and Recitations. Old Memories—The Dimm Boys—Jas. Southard The Girls of Yesterday—Our First Love—C. A. A. Brooks Closing Song—"God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

TOASTS.
Trustmaster..... D. Z. Cortiss Ciceronian Days—Their Influence on Our Lives..... G. A. Brooks The Dimm Boys..... Jas. Southard The Girls of Yesterday—Our First Love..... C. A. A. Brooks Our Teachers—God Bless Them..... Nettie Carpenter Looking Forward to the Country School?..... Mary Johns Life's Tightening Ties—Old Friends Are Best..... Hattie Loveland Young Ideas—The Teacher's Delicate Task..... Hattie Loveland

The toasts and responses were of a nature to bring back the old days when the Ciceronian Literary Society and its debates put Guinea school on the map. Incidents were recalled from the oblivion of the distant past that almost made the old boys whose hair has now silvered and the stud matrons who were the "girls of yesterday" feel young again and wish that those days still to memory-dear.

The Dimm boys, who were central figures in the school and literary life of Guinea 40 years ago, were represented by Charles A. Dimm, of Toledo who came with his wife expressly to meet his old comrades and friends touched with the same feelings. Jas. K. Southard, who in responding to the toast The Dimm Boys, warmly praised them all for their good qualities. The toastmaster, who also reminded the assembly that in addition to all that Mr. Southard had said, it should be remembered in these days of war that "Old Friends" in this land was to be purged of human slavery the Dimm family laid on the altar of Freedom, its first born, Ferdinand, who was killed in the trenches of the civil war.

Owing to the fact that Col. A. W. Davis of Norfolk, president of the society, could not attend on account of military duties, he was re-elected for another year in hopes that by that time the sword will be sheathed and peace reigning.

D. Z. Cortiss of Ypsilanti, Mich. was made chairman of next year's committee on program, and Mrs. Huldah Beck of N. Fairport, was chairman of the committee on refreshments. On account of having served so efficiently as secretary and treasurer the past year, Mrs. Lelia Hill of Wilson of New London, was again elected to those offices.

NOTES.
C. C. Palmer, who has never before addressed a Ciceronian reunion, came from Dayton to attend but was recalled by important business at home. He was greatly missed on the first line.

Only two of the former teachers were present—Mrs. Eugene Patterson of Plymouth and Mrs. Hattie Loveland of New Haven. Mrs. Patterson was obliged to leave early and did not hear the nice things said of her, and Mrs. Loveland gave a brief talk on the teacher's task of years ago, that Bert Johns of Cleveland, pronounced as the "real uplift."

Harry Sibbett talked felicitously on the subject of "Old Friends are Best" and when he passed the candy around to the members of the society all agreed that Harry understood his subject.

Mrs. Nettie Carpenter of Steuben, read a modernized version of the old Ciceronian Gem, the official organ of the society, and it was a feature of the occasion. Mrs. Carpenter has not forgotten the art of reading properly.

Dwight E. Green, who 44 years ago moved from the district to Erie county, was present and with welcome was a warm one. Dwight could speak pieces in his day in a manner that seemed to point out to him the life of a minister, but when he left Guinea he evidently left the preacher's ideas behind.

Among other present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Johns, Lakewood, O.; Mrs. Ella Rang Seiders, Akron, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Forquer of Bellevue, O.; Mayor Dawson and Attorney L. S. Wise, Chicago Junction, O.

A letter was received from I. J. Brooks of Mt. Dora, Fla., expressing regrets at his inability to be present and presenting a box of beautiful ferns and foliage plants native of the state, Fla.

A most feeling extor was also read from Mrs. Cornelia Heller Geer of Corning, Kans. Mrs. Geer was one of the early teachers, an earnest, noble woman, who thru a long absent still lives in the cherished memory and the heart of every Ciceronian who was so fortunate as to call her teacher.

Mrs. James Southard presided at the organ and greatly assisted in making the music of the program effective.

In the absence of Col. A. W. Davis, who was billed for the address of welcome, Mrs. Bert Johns extended the greeting in manners convincing that the gift of spellbinding is no longer a monopoly of mere man.

Would Surrender Policy.

Authority to surrender an insurance policy for $125 cash, is asked of the probate court by O. L. Lybarger, guardian of Alice Lucile Lybarger, by his attorney, G. W. Bidler. The guardian represents that the policy has several years to run before it matures. He says this policy was issued on the life of Orville J. Lybarger who released it to Lillie Lybarger, mother of this ward, who kept up the payments.

The guardian represents that at the death of Lillie Lybarger this policy depended to Alice Lucile Lybarger. He avers that the estate is benefited thereas, and it would be for the best interest of his ward to surrender it for $125, the cash offer.

Resolutions of Respect.

Auburn Grange, No. 956, at their regular meeting, August 17, 1917, adopted the following resolution: Whereas, the Reverendness of God, our friend and neighbor, and fellow member of the Grange, Bro. P. J. Hills, has been called suddenly to the angel of Death, to the Great Beyond;

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That in this passing of our brother, we befriend him with sympathy and recognize in him the character and upright life, a devoted husband and father and a loyal member of the Grange.

Be It Resolved: That we extend to his bereaved wife and children, and to his only sister, Mrs. Flora West, in this sore trial and affliction, our best sympathy and recognize in them to the consolation of Him who of old spoke peace to his disciple, in that our roots are the same.

Be It Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread on our minutes, a copy be sent to the family and a copy printed in the Plymouth Advertiser and Tiro World. Signed by Committee:

William Kessler.
A. R. Morse.
Mrs. D. F. Grove.

Refuse Claims of Exemption

The Huron county selective service board has completed its work of considering the exemption claims of the men whose names were drawn in the first draft and although the list had not been checked over Wednesday afternoon, it was announced that between 25 and 30 of the claims had been dismissed.

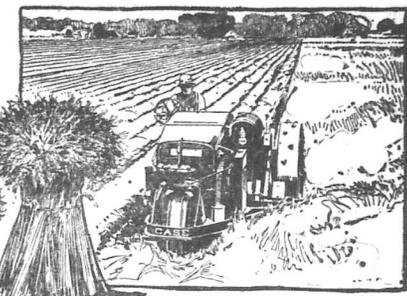

It is understood that the drafted men who have recently been married were refused exemptions. Clerks in the board's building are checking up over the list of those exempted and when completed this list, together with a list of those who were refused exemptions, will be published. The men who have been refused exemption, together with those who failed to claim exemption, will almost completely the number of Huron county men to be compelled to furnish to the new national army. It will be necessary, however, for a considerable number of those summoned on the second draft to be ready for service as about thirty of those whose names will be certified to a district board for service have claimed exemption on occupational grounds.

State Exhibit at Fair.

Richland county's annual fair, which will be held at the fair grounds Sept. 25-28, will have one of the exhibits that should prove of great interest to farmers, as well as those city residents that have joined the back-to-the-garden movement and are desirous of learning more as to how to preserve vegetables.

Secretary W. M. Shrock has received word from Columbus that the state exhibit sent out under the direction of the State Council of Defense would be sent to Mansfield.

Buy a Case Tractor--A Child Can Run It.

LOOK WHAT THE 9-18 WILL DO

On the Draw Bar—Plowing, Discing, Seeding, Haying, Harvesting, Hauling, Etc. On the Belt—Threshing, Baling, Silo Filling, Husking, Feed Grinding, Well Drilling, Etc. The 9-18 Tractor is an all around tractor—not merely for plowing. Its just the thing for discing, seeding, harvesting, in fact every operation on the farm. For further information see Ralston Hardware and Furniture Store.

This exhibit is in the nature of demonstrations of the old-fashioned method of "burying" vegetables and other foodstuff for storage. Experts will dig model trenches and pits, showing how easily and cheaply various vegetables can be buried.

This demonstration will no doubt appeal to many farmers who have forsaken the old method and want to brush up on how they formerly stored their vegetables during the winter.

Colored Population May be Increased.

It has been learned from good authority that the colored population of Chicago Junction, already a large one, is soon to be increased by at least six hundred additional negro workmen who will be sent in from the south. These men will be employed by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for work on the section.

The company has secured an option on 35 acres of ground on the outskirts of the village which site is to be used it is said, for the erection of dwellings to be used as homes for the negroes.

It was also intimated that the R. & O. contemplate increasing their yards there in the very near future and making Chicago Junction the central division point between Baltimore, Wheeling, Pittsburg and Chicago.

A New Pest.

There are many diseases and insect pests which attack potatoes and one of these that is doing considerable damage this season is the potato stalk borer.

W. H. Manss, Assistant to Vice President of the Baltimore & Ohio, in charge of the commercial development department, states that the potato borer can be easily distinguished by the nature of its injury. This insect, after hatching from the small egg, which has been deposited in the potato stalk, burrows into the heart of the potato vine. This insect can be controlled by spraying; its control lies in its prevention. The vine affected should be removed from the ground and burned. If the attack is general throughout the field, the potato tops should all be destroyed, by burning. This will destroy the eggs and thus prevent a repetition of the attack next year. This operation may be easily practiced immediately after the potatoes have been harvested.

While spraying will not eradicate this insect after it has appeared, it has been noticed that the potato stalk borer seldom appears on potato plants that have previously been sprayed.

An Old Time London Fog.
"There happened this week," says John Evelyn in an entry in his diary dated Nov. 25, 1630, "so thick a mist and fog that people lost their way in the streets, it being so intense that no lights of candles or torches yielded any but very little direction. I was in it and danger. Robberies were committed between the fog lights which were fixed between London and Kensington on both sides and while coaches and travelers were passing. It began about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and was quite gone by 8, without any wind to disperse it. At the Thames they test drums to direct the watermen to make the shore."

Germany's military hordes have confiscated the fertile farms of Belgium, northern France, Serbia and Roumania. The farmers and their sons, their wives and daughters, have been made the pitiful victims of German savagery and lust and cruelty in their most revolting forms.

Wednesday of this week a number of farmers from Plymouth and other points in this section went to Marion, O., to witness a demonstration and contest in plowing by tractors. Those who were in attendance from here were Wm. Topping, C. E. Heath, Halsey Root, Ollie Devore, Jas. Southard, Sam Fenner, D. E. Hoffman, Jay Bailey, Wm. McPherson.

Our local chapter Red Cross was honored Thursday afternoon of last week by the visit of Mrs. R. Brinkhoff, Jr., and daughter Mary of Mansfield, Miss Truesburg of Mansfield, Miss Merrick of Philadelphia, and Miss Kebrnan of Lima. Mrs. Brinkhoff and Miss Merrick gave instructions in knitting and Miss Truesburg in surgical goods. All had brought their own Red Cross knittings along and lost no time while here. Miss Truesburg resigned her position in Red Cross work at Cleveland, Mesdames Sykes, Drennan, Fleming, and Sauer, went to Mansfield Saturday, taking the completed work done by our local chapter and were pleased with the praises the latest work received. Our chapter was told to continue the good work.
N. N. Sharp, district organizer of the Knights of Maccabees, has been in Plymouth for several days past working up a reorganization of the order, so popular here several years ago. The reorganization will take place this (Friday) evening and will start off with a charter membership of 25, and a promise that many more will be added from time to time. Maccabees from nearby towns to the number of 200 or more are expected to be here on the above evening to witness the initiatory work and installation of officers, the initiatory work to be put on by the Mansfield team, after which an elaborate spread will be indulged in on occasion Plymouth should give the visitors a warm welcome and it might be well for the business places to decorate with the national colors, thus showing a national and civic pride, as it is just such little things as this that give strangers a good impression of a town.
The following taken from a California paper and sent by a Georgia Boardman, who is now on the Pacific coast, to her son, R. L. Boardman of Cleveland says: "Glenn Boardman may be a prisoner of war in Germany, as wireless operators on the Pacific coast are circulating a story that the steamer Rosnoke, reported sunk off San Luis Obispo May 9th, 1916, was in reality captured by a German Raider and taken to a foreign port. No wrecked or other evidence of the ship having been wrecked has ever been found, and it is a known fact that a German raider was operating in the Pacific at the time the Rosnoke disappeared. Its cargo of powder and wheat would have made a rich prize, and as this was long before war was declared between Germany and the United States the crew of the ship would have been interested without any possible communication with home on account of the trouble that would arise if the facts of the case were known." Glenn was the Purser on the Rosnoke, and all hopes for his return had been given up. His brother is trying to get word through from the detention camps in Germany to know if Glenn is a prisoner there.
Mayor Robt. McDonough received a telegram Wednesday morning from an undertaker at Chillicothe stating he had a body in the morgue on which he found a registration card bearing the name of H. L. Logan of Plymouth, O., and asked that his parents be notified. The telegram was turned over to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sauer, of Fortner street, who immediately got into communication with the engineering firm at Columbus, by which their son Harry is employed, and who stated that the young man had been sent to Logan Monday to look after some work being done there. Later in the day the undertaker at Chillicothe asked for a description of the body in his possession and which in no way answered that of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sauer of this city. Another thing that buoyed up their hopes that it is not their son, is that late in June he either had his pockets picked or lost his pocket book containing $30 and his registration card, and it is presumed it fell into the hands of the party in the morgue, while the only acknowledgment of their son's registration was written on a slip of paper, procured by his father after the loss of the card and pocket book. The firm by which the young man is employed promised to get into communication with the young man, but not hearing anything from them up to Thursday morning Mr. Sauer left for Columbus and will trace his son's movements from there, in which the friends of the family here hope he may find his son alive and well.
Later—Young Sauer got into communication with his parents Thursday evening and was alive and well at Logan, where he had been sent by the company by which he is employed.

REST PERIODS CONSERVE ENERGY OF WORKERS

Permitting Laborers to Decompress Fatigued Cuts Down Production.

Employers of labor have found that output may be increased, not by working a man when he is tired, but by giving him an opportunity to rest. An hour's rest for the workers is generally worth far more to the employer than the same time spent in labor.

At a recent luncheon factory men engaged in the heavy work of mending are favored by the management to rest fifteen minutes in every hour of work. The manager was satisfied that this was an arrangement good for the men and for the output. But the men objected to this long spell of rest in each hour because the work was piece-work and they thought the production would be lessened by it. The manager accordingly found it necessary to set a foreman to watch and to make the hourly rest compulsory. When this was done the output per hour was found to be actually increased.

Proper attention to rest will prevent the large per cent of accidents from industrial fatigue and prevent waste due to imperfect work.—Industrial Conservation, New York.

BRIDGING THE CHASM.

Human Note in Industry Bringing Employer and Employee Together.

Labor and capital are naturally partners, not enemies. Friction between these two important elements in industry is unnatural, but the personal relation in industry, entered into in the right spirit, gives the greatest promise of bridging the yawning chasm which has opened up between employer and employee.—Industrial Conservation, New York.

Industry's Big Gain.

Value of manufactures in the United States was $24,240,000,000 in 1914, the United States census bureau reports, announcing its preliminary statement of general results of the latest census of manufactures. For the five-year period from 1909, the date of the first census, manufactures increased $5,574,271,000 in value, or 23 per cent.

But the census also shows that manufactures have made rapid increases, but no estimate of their value for this year has been made by the census bureau.—Industrial Conservation, New York.

Came to Aid of Government.

A very large part of the credit for the success of the $2,000,000,000 Liberty bond issue is due to the manufacturers of the country, who not only subscribed liberally themselves, but in many cases made it possible for employees to subscribe without any strain.—Industrial Conservation, New York.

The first practical business use of the typewriter was made by R. N. D. Wood, who was a school teacher in the United States census. This was in 1872 at Utica, N. Y.

Are You Eating To Win the War?

This Newspaper recommends Today's Housewife to every patriotic woman who wishes to help win the great war

Today's Housewife is especially needed by every householder in the present war-crisis, because the seven Columns in Domestic Science now running in the magazine help housewives to better select, prepare and conserve food supplies, to cut down waste, and at the same time to add to the health and welfare of the entire family.

Today's Housewife is the only magazine that maintains a model home where cookery recipes, new household devices, cleaning methods, etc., are put to practical tests before their appearance in the pages of the magazine.

The monthly lesson on "Cookery, Foods and Nutrition" under the direction of Corbette Hunt of the Department of Agriculture, is alone worth the price of a ten-year subscription not only to the woman who follows each lesson but to the government of the United States in helping to win the terrific war with the Central Empires of Europe.

REMEMBER, While Today's Housewife stands in a class by itself in its practical value to housewives, it is also noteworthy for its wonderful literary and scientific content, for its special articles, for its special recipes, for its special illustrations and covers by leading artists. Over one million women across the TODAY'S HOUSEWIFE is worth every cent of the price of 10 cents per copy.

CANNED FUN FOR FOOD CAMPAIGN

Good Advice In Humorous Ditties From Washington.

PRODUCTION'S BIG INCREASE

In All Sections of the United States the Response to Appeals For More Food This Year Has Been Gratifying

Veres Issued by National Emergency Food Garden Commission. Much has been written about gardening, canning and drying of fruits and vegetables in recent weeks. This has had no more beneficial effect, as shown by recent government reports, which indicate a tremendous gain in the production of foodstuffs in every section of the country.

The National Emergency Food Garden Commission recently issued the following verses, which, in a lighter vein, urge the planting and canning of vegetables:

There was a great car in Berlin Whose subject was all Washington. In good English he said, "Daddy winter I dread Because we have nothing to eat."

The young folks of Lakewood, N. J. Said they'd make gardening pay. "We'll stick to the work. We won't dodge it or shirk. For this let's work hard to play."

A maiden who lived in St. Joe Wrote out to her Washington beau, "I can't be here in June, 'Tis really too soon. For I'm busy with dad's willard loe."

A charming young lad named Marie Wrote to Mrs. von Bismarck's dear, "I'm begging your pardon, I can't be working my garden. And can't set away for your tea."

Heid Miss Gladys Charles McTanner: "I've abandoned my player plan. Set it all very good, And let it be a garden. No I'm playing my tunes on my canner."

Mrs. Sadleigh has given up eighting At the cost of the food she's been buying. For she's got 'em all best. On the good things to eat Since she's taken to canning and drying.

High diddle diddle, this life is a riddle. For prices have jumped 'er the moon. But plant a food garden for us all. And prices will tumble down soon.

Rock-a-bye baby in the tree top, Father is hating his home garden crop. Soon he will harvest enough for us all. And high cost of living will have a bad fall.

If old Mother Hubbard should go to the shops, She'd find all the food she'd desire. For stored away there is foodstuff to spare. The product of canner and drier.

Old King Pood in his merriest mood Set 'er watching his garden plot. He can't be here to see 'er reckoned his beans. And he said: "Will we starve? We will not!"

Mary, Mary, no longer contrary, Has made a home garden grow. With turnips and beans to feed the man. And the soldiers and sailors, you know.

President Pack, come bow for our horn. Our allies are calling for wheat and corn. But the nation to work to grow turnips and peas. And well feed the whole world with our food by peas.

Pat-o-cake, pat-o-cake, baker's man, Look at the things we're going to can. Can 'em and dry 'em and store 'em away. To give us our food for the cold winter's day.

Dickery, dickery, dock, The back yards in our block Are full enough of garden stuff. Our country soldiers to stock.

"A dollar, a dollar, a ten o'clock scholar, Why do you come to dig the weeds. I've stayed at home to dig the weeds. This producing stuff is great."

Taffy was a Westman, Taffy was a thief, Taffy will not work, so he must come to the neighbors planted seeds in their yards and various things.

And sent the summer drying 'em on a charity garden plot. They're canning 'em and drying 'em and storing 'em away. If Taffy's summer seed can't have grown 'er time to play.

There was an old man and he had a wood. Look at the things we're going to do. So he bought a sack and got it planted. And raised enough cash to buy a dozen mackerel.

Drinking water, it's all in their hands. The water is all in their hands. The water is all in their hands. The water is all in their hands.

MAY CONVERT AUTO PLANTS TO AIRCRAFT

Government Call Upon Manufacturers To Thought Likely.

Detroit—Owners of automobiles, particularly those who have been accustomed to discard their cars solely because newer models have been placed upon the market, will do well to give the highest degree of care to the cars they now own.

Brigadier General George O. Squier went to Detroit, and it is understood that the purpose of his visit was to confer with the manufacturers of automobiles in regard to obtaining their co-operation in the manufacture of aeroplanes.

There are few factories in the United States that manufacture aeroplanes, and each of these factories makes a different type of craft. The aggregate capacity of these factories is wholly inadequate to meet the demands of the program of the aircraft production board, and it is therefore inevitable that the manufacturers of machinery which can be used as now made, or whose plants can be adapted most readily to making parts for aeroplanes will be requested, to give precedence to the manufacture of parts suitable for aircraft.

IS GIVING HIS ALL TO CAUSE OF ALLIES

Porter and Shoe Shiner Reserves Only Enough Daily to Keep Himself.

Sandusky, O.—Andrew Francis Patrick Mahon, sixty-seven years old, hat porter and shoe shiner for more than half a century, is "broke" from the Red Cross campaign.

"But I never was happier," says Mahon, "and until this war ends I am going to keep right on shoving across all the money I can scrape together. I am going to place it where it will do the most good."

Throughout the Red Cross campaign Mahon turned over daily his receipts for the day, less what it cost him for meals. What he set aside him from 60 to 70 cents a day. Several times he paid to the Red Cross committee sums exceeding $10.

"Now I'm going to start to save so I can buy some more liberty bonds which Uncle Sam finds it necessary to do for another issue," said Mahon. "By practicing the strictest economy I ought to be able to subscribe for several of the $100 denomination."

He was the first to subscribe. He took $1,000 worth in the name of a stevedore.

"Uncle Sam has got to win," he said. "I am too old to fight in the trenches. But I'm not too old to help sustain him. I can buy some more liberty bonds. Every penny I can scrape together over and above what it costs me to keep myself in working trim Uncle Sam and the allies are going to get."

FLAGWOMEN AT CROSSINGS.

Pennsylvania Lines, Shift of Men, New Hiring Girls.

New Britain, N. J.—John McDonough announced on the electric lines of the West Jersey and Seashore railroad between Camden and the seashore started in astonishment at a young woman wearing a trim, dark blue straw hat and large, orange colored goggles, who stood guard over the main grade crossing in the town.

The signaller is Miss Dale Ward. The first girl to take up the job at flagging trains on the Pennsylvania's lines in this part of the country. Miss Ward may soon have many women companions on other parts of the division, as the railroad officials have sent out notices to their station agents and foremen to employ women for these places wherever possible in order to free men for the section gangs, in which the railroad is short-handed.

FRUIT FOR SOLDIERS.

Colorado Woman Gives Whole Crop to the Troops.

Denver.—Miss John McDonough has given to the Woman's State auxiliary of the national guard a ten-acre tract of land on which are growing plums, cherries, peaches and apples. In order that the boys of the militia may have their bit of fruit as fast as it ripens. Lewis will be sent to pick the fruit.

Whatever the fruit will be canned and preserved for distribution among the soldiers later.

Miss McDonough has opened large tracts of land to a committee, where all fruit not consumed from the trees will be sent to the soldiers.

Copied by Southard & Houseworth, Dayton, O.

Rich in soil, picturesque topography, well watered with running streams, prairies thoroughly drained and transportation facilities unsurpassed, Plymouth and surrounding country can truthfully claim the title: "The Garden Spot of Ohio." It lies in one of the greatest states in the union, is as fertile section as is out of doors anywhere on earth, and its people the prosperous, happy and contented. The experiences of the pioneers who lighted civilization's first fires in this land and who bowed their homes from the primeval forests that covered the country have been the subjects of continued interest to all readers of American history through the many years that have elapsed since the landing of our forefathers.

The Plymouth Advertiser, with the enthusiastic aid and co-operation of our citizens, industries and business houses of this section is sending a message of pluck, enterprise and achievement. It is Plymouth's answer to the universal inquiry, the persistent question that is asked: "How is Plymouth and Surrounding Country Doing?"

And this is not an idle question. Today it stands on the solid rock of conservative progress, perhaps stronger than any other community in this section of the United States. Our financial institutions have been pillars of strength and confidence, with a clean record from top to bottom through the smacking blows of financial depression and war. Can any section in the United States surpass our record?

Again, every department of civic and social life has kept step in the march of confidence and progress. The homes of Plymouth and surrounding country are more beautiful than ever; civic helpfulness and public spirit which made Plymouth and surrounding country famous are more active and better organized and more productive and more helpful than ever before.

Our motto is: "Full Steam Ahead" and back of this motto which is in practical effect, is the solid foundation of progress, with safety and conservation. Plymouth and vicinity has great enthusiasm and great vision, but it has never in its splendid record of achievements deceived itself. Today it faces the future not withstanding still but by the inspiring spectacle of looking up and marching on, confident of power, strength, of the great ship of prosperity. An advancing army refuses to retreat. The country surrounding neither needs or wants any trenches, but a broad plain, where beyond is the great dawn of the rising sun of prosperity, progress and happiness. In the surrounding country we are not alone seeking commercial success, material progress and financial solidity, but a great deal more. We seek civic beauty, safety and the best fields for the joy of living, the inspiration of helpfulness, the enthusiasm of an unselfish public service, and an unbounded and ever increasing devotion to the public welfare.

The surrounding country has everything that other progressive American communities have and more. It is a heart, great pulsating organism, always keeping step, in fact a little in advance of the solid, material march to bigger things. It is the heart of ambition and enthusiasm that, like stirring music, inspires and quickens the step of the rank and file. This is one of the big reasons why the surrounding country today, neither boastful nor assuming a false modesty proclaims her achievements, her powerful position, her respectful self-confidence, her pride in the structure that she has created in the "Garden Spot of Ohio," armed as she has been with a great faith, a strong arm and a vision both clear and true.

The cigar from his place always have the proper moisture and he carries not only the leading brands of the American tobacco, but many more popular brands from independent manufacturers.

THE PUBLIC OWES

A Big Debt to Progressive Manufacturers—The J. D. Fate Co., a Notable Example of Successful Industrial Enterprise, Accompanied by Civic Pride—Has Added to the Growth and Prosperity of Plymouth.

In this comprehensive review of our onward progress, it is with a feeling of satisfaction and pride that we direct your attention to a local company which represents the acme of perfection in twentieth century manufacture and which reigns supreme in its field. We refer to The J. D. Fate Co., whose large and modern plant is located here in Plymouth and which is the foremost concern of the world in this branch of manufacture, owing extensive producers of gasoline locomotives and clay working machinery.

The large factory of this company represents the very last word in scientific production and is equipped with the very best of modern machinery. The J. D. Fate Co. has stood as a commercial barometer in the community for many years. As almost all of its business is transacted in a territory that is foreign to Plymouth, one might think that such a concern would take little interest in the affairs of the city in which it is located. The years have proven, however, that The J. D. Fate Co. is one of the most important factors in local commercial affairs and that its management is at all times actively interested in Plymouth's progress.

It is such firms as this one that makes a city prosperous and worth the name of an enterprise. The J. D. Fate Co. is foreign; yet this is all the better for Plymouth, as it brings foreign special line of manufacture, and one money into the local field, and it is in turn deposited in our banks, paid out to our merchants, and finally finds its way into the pockets of the many.

There is not an establishment in the county which is of greater value to us than The J. D. Fate Co. By opening up channels of trade that had heretofore been unknown to local industry this concern has now become the leading establishment in this branch of manufacture in the United States.

Quick to appreciate the value to the city of such a large progressive concern the people of Plymouth have always been loyal in their support of this institution which gives employment to a large number of men and women and which brings business and trade activity through its tireless efforts.

Meets Harry Fate and H. R. Sykes are at the head of this large concern, have always had at heart the best interest of Plymouth and have done their best at all times to serve the people to the best advantage. Under their active business direction the plant has prospered and expanded.

There can be no doubt that the local public owes a debt of gratitude and appreciation to The J. D. Fate Co. and we are proud in this review of local business efficiency and progress to point to this concern as one of the enterprises which have made Plymouth, as it brings foreign special line of manufacture, and one money into the local field, and it is

The Root Heath Manufacturing Co.

A Model Manufacturing Industry That Has Done Considerable Towards Advertising Plymouth and Surrounding Country All Over the Nation—Manufacturers of Goggles, Outfits, Shoe Lasts, Stands, Cornshellers, Crib Mills, Lawn Mower Grinders, Etc.—Under Able Direction.

It is eminently fitting that in this comprehensive review of the onward progress of Plymouth and vicinity we give due mention to the activities of The Root Heath Manufacturing Company for it is one of the best conducted and substantial enterprises of this section of the state with a record of 20 years of successful operation during which time it has been one of our most potent industrial assets.

The plant of the company is admirably located both as regards the receiving of the raw material and the shipping of the finished products to all parts of the United States. The factory is housed in very commodious buildings that are well lighted and of the modern type. These are equipped with the very best machinery (much of which is their own design) for the manufacture of their products.

The plant employs a large number of men and women. As a result, the high standard originally set by this company in the process of manufacture has been maintained for The Root Heath Manufacturing Company may well be classed among the institutions that have done more than their share in advertising Plymouth and this section of Ohio by the general excellence of their product.

This company manufactures goggles, outfits, shoe lasts, stands, cornshellers, crib mills, lawn mower grinders, and so forth. These are equipped with the very best machinery (much of which is their own design) for the manufacture of their products.

What Women Can Do. The women of this town can do a lot for it, if they will. In many American towns the women's clubs and many other organizations of women are found working for civic betterment—more parks, cleaner streets and cleaner morals. But a woman can do much as an individual just as well as a member of a club. She can encourage her husband to improve his home and to take an interest in the town.

A TALE OF ADVENTURE

By PAULINE D. EDWARDS

A number of ladies were making clothes for Belgian orphans at Red Cross headquarters. Naturally they talked as they worked.

"Come, Madeline; can't you tell us of some adventure that has befallen you?"

"My life has been very uneventful," was the reply.

"You were in Europe, weren't you, when the great war broke out? Surely there must be something interesting in your experience at that time."

"There was a romance,"

"Oh, do tell us about it!" chimed a dozen voices.

"It wasn't much of a happening, but since you want to hear it I don't mind telling you."

"You see, I was in Belgium when war was declared, but I didn't know that the Germans were going to come in such a hurry, and I hadn't seen all the sights. So I delayed getting away till they were digging French beds for them toward Paris."

"That's what I got into in France work."

"The only means by which I could travel were the ambulances carrying the wounded. I set myself up for a nurse, taking care of a load of wounded men who were being carried to the rear, till a shell exploded under it and blew it and its contents sky high."

"Wasn't you killed?" asked one of them.

"No," said the story teller; "I wasn't killed."

"What saved you?"

"I was leaning over a wounded soldier at the time, and when he was blown up his body constituted a protection for me. The shell struck the soldier, it seems to me," remarked one of the ladies, "that there is no unnecessary information given here. Go on with the story so far as regards yourself alone."

"And leave out the romance?"

"No!" shouted every woman present.

"They took the ambulance I was in to Calais."

"I thought it was blown to atoms," put in a listener.

"That was a French ambulance. It was picked up by English Red Cross workers and at Calais was taken across the channel."

"The speaker stopped short, as though she had finished her story."

"Where does the romance come in?" asked several ladies at once.

"Oh, I'm going to tell you that. Do you want to hear it?"

"Of course," all responded.

"I stayed in England a long while, caring for wounded soldiers in the hospital. At last I sailed for America in a British ship. That was when the submarines had got to work, and we were all fearful of being sunk to the bottom of the ocean. Most of us remained dressed day and night. I wore a tailor-made suit I had bought in London. You see if I got through safely I wouldn't have to pay duty on it, and if we were blown up and I was saved I would be well dressed and correspondingly well treated. If it was drowned, my corpse would be well preserved."

"How thoughtful!" remarked several listeners sotto voce.

"We hadn't heard thirty-six hours when there came the sound of an explosion forward. I knew at once it was a submarine. I went to my stateroom, got out all my jewels and put them on."

"What for?" asked a surprised listener.

"For the same reason I wore my tailor made gown. I've been asked not to give any unnecessary information. I think I won't tell any more of it."

"Go on," was the universal cry.

"Well, when I found up the companionway I went a terrible scene on deck. The officers were protecting the boats at the point of the pistol for the women and children. When one of them saw me and how well dressed I was—most of the women looked like frights—he offered me his arm and escorted me to a boat. I got in, and if we were pulled away from the sinking ship I threw him and this got me up for awhile."

"How lovely!" was the romance?

"No. I'm going to tell you about the romance now. The sea was running high, and one huge wave came along and turned our boat over. I gave myself up for lost. Fortunately my tailor made gown I told you about caught a lot of air under it, and this got me up for awhile. But the sea finally took all the air from under me, and I was about to sink when I felt myself drawn upon some boards. It was a life preserver raft. I looked up into the face of the handsomest man I ever saw."

"This raft is not capable of supporting us both," he said, "I give up my life that you may live." With that he rolled off into the water."

"How beautiful!" exclaimed a chorus.

"How women don't appreciate the effect of own adornments. There was admiration in my preserver's eyes, which no doubt was heightened by my tailor made suit and my jewels, all of which were becoming to me. I have no doubt that I gave my life to them."

"How were you rescued?"

"I was rescued by a fisherman."

PEACH SEASON HERE

These Peach Recipes Are Said To Be Delicious

Peach Foam—Grate 2 firm peaches and whip stiff the white of 1 egg with a pinch of salt. Add gradually to egg 1 tablespoon of sugar, then 1 tablespoon of grated peach, alternating sugar and pulp and beating until the "foam" has swelled to at least three cups. Flavor sugar and egg with almond and have all ingredients ice cold. Serve in cups, or spread on sponge cake and brown quickly in a very hot oven.

Peach Salad—Peaches make the salad if served with bananas, or celery and walnuts, or with chopped apples or pears. Arrange on lettuce hearts and serve with a simple French dressing.

Baked Peaches—Pare the fruit but do not remove stones. Arrange in an earthen baking dish and sprinkle with sugar. Dot with bits of butter and add enough water to moisten sugar. Sprinkle with chopped nuts. Bake until tender. Serve cold in name parished with whipped cream.

Dutch Mors—Use a sweetened shortcake batter or biscuit dough. Cut in circles with cookie cutter. On each side spread a spoonful of chopped fresh peaches or of peach jam or marmalade. Fold circles, pinch edges together and shape into half moons. Bake in moderate oven. Especially nice for lunch baskets. Any fruit may be substituted for peaches.

Soldiers and Socks.

Western manufacturers received a part of the U. S. Government's order for 3,567,200 pairs of socks, the total amount being $710,036. The average price paid was 18 1/4 cents a pair for cotton socks and 27 1/2 cents for wool socks. The latter prices are considered very satisfactory. The contracts were awarded in accordance with the recommendations of the Knit Goods Committee of the Council of National Defense.

William T. Taubel, Inc., of Riverside, N. J., received the bulk of the order—1,200,000 pairs at 18 1/4 cents, $225,000, and 380,000 pair woolen socks at 27 cents, $102,600.

Among the bidders were: Belleville Hosiery Mills, Belleville, Ill., 67,200 pairs at 18 cents, $12,096.

Phoenix Knitting Mills, Milwaukee, Wis., 130,000 pairs at 19 cents, $24,500.

Black Cat Textiles Co., Kenosha, Wis., 60,000 pairs at 19 cents, $11,400.

PAPULAR SUPERSTITIONS

If You Are So Inclined Keep Your Eye on the Calendar.

The thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth days of the moon are considered unlucky days for a child to be born.

The eighteenth day is a lucky one for a child. A child born on the nineteenth day will be wise and prosperous. A birth on the twentieth day is held to mean that the child will be dishonest.

A child born on the twenty-first day is supposed to have an unhappy disposition.

A child that is born on the twenty-second day will be handsome, good and well beloved.

A child born on the twenty-third day of the moon will have a bad temper, be a good traveler and die miserable, according to a superstition.

A birth on the twenty-fourth day means that the child will be much admired.

Born on Monday, fair of face;

Born on Tuesday, full of grace;

Born on Wednesday, sour and sad;

Born on Thursday, merry and glad;

Born on Friday, loving and giving;

Born on Saturday, must work for a living;

But the child that is born on the Sabbath day

Is blithe and bonnie, good and gay.

DRINKS THAT ARE PURE

Are the Kind that Are Produced at the Model Sanitary Establishment of Norwalk Bottling Works of Norwalk Which is One of the Largest Soda Manufacturing Establishments in This Section of the Country.

Norwalk Bottling Works at Norwalk are deserving of more than passing notice in this review of our forward progress as they are perhaps the largest producers of soda waters in this section of the state, their brands of orange cider and "Gold Rock" ginger ale being standard in quality and are so recognized by the public for a radius of many miles.

Experience in the manufacture of such goods and realizing the popular demand for pure and wholesome refreshments, A. P. Savy has gone farther than the pure food law requires and turns out a product that is entirely free from impurities as well as being delicious and wholesome.

The demand for the products of the Norwalk Bottling Works is rapidly increasing through the country.

A. N. RICHARDS AND SON

One of the Most Extensive Dealers in Grain and Allied Lines in Middlesex, Operating Modern Elevator at Chicago Junction—One of the Well Known and Reliable Grain Men of This Section.

There is probably no other dealer in this section of the great middle-western states who has won wider success as reliable and extensive dealers in grain and allied lines than A. N. Richards and Son of Chicago Junction.

Just anybody could not go into the large elevator business at Chicago Junction and give satisfaction such as they are giving their customers. It takes the services of a man of experience to satisfy in this business, and that is just the reason why Mr. Richards and Son are so successful. Their patronage which is steadily increasing they are thoroughly up-to-date on all matters pertaining to grain, seeds, meals and all of the other products that are handled at their establishment, and their prices are always right.

The farmers have come to know that Richards and Son at Chicago Junction pay the highest market prices for their grain, and hence they seek no further market but take their grain to their elevator at Chicago Junction.

We think that Chicago Junction and vicinity are very fortunate to have such progressive elevator men to serve them, and we find it a particularly pleasant task to direct your attention to the services of Mr. Richards and Son, which would by no means be complete if we omitted mention of their well known business men. Their direct business which is of great value to the development of the community in which their enterprise is located and which adds in no little measure to the progress and prosperity of this section, a fact that should attract the attention and patronage of the entire populace which they receive.

THE SMITH MONUMENTAL WORKS

Prominent and Well Known Producers of High Grade Monumental Work Who Operate a Modern Establishment at Norwalk Which is One of the Important Industrial Enterprises of This Section.

Among the manufacturing enterprises of Huron county which have been prominently identified with the industrial progress of the community is the modern monumental establishment operated by The Smith Monumental Works at Norwalk, Ohio.

This time tried industry has for years done considerable to advertise the community by the general excellence of the work turned out, which has embraced in its scope all that is artistic and enduring in the monumental work. It may well be said that few of our manufacturing enterprises have maintained during the flow of passing years a higher standard for this representative industry than the Smith Monumental Works. The modern creations of the monumental makers art. It may be pertinent to state that the establishment is not only a manufacturer but also an importer of high grade monumental work from the far famed marble of Italy, the enduring granite of Sweden and these are supplemented by the finest products of our American quarries. It carries the largest line of finished monuments in this section of Ohio. The local plant operated by McKnight is complete in all the essentials and is fitted up with all necessary

THE HOME OF THE AUTOMOBILE

That Is What the People of This Part of the State Call the Modern and Up-to-Date Garage of the Mehrling and Beelman Company Which Is the Home of the Ford, Oakland and Patterson and Is a Modern Auto Inn.

So complete in every particular is the modern and up-to-date garage is the immense establishment of the Mehrling and Beelman Co. at Chicago Junction, Ohio. The people of this section of Ohio have learned to call it "The Home of the Automobile." When they started in business in this section on July 1, 1908, the management of this popular auto inn determined to have the best that modern scientific science affords and there is no question but that they have succeeded in this determination. Then, when they were well prepared they stocked the establishment with a full line of the highest grade of automobile supplies to be found in this section. In the repair department they employ the best of the Ohio workmen and these machines are furnished with the latest and most scientific modern machinery for repairing and complete rebuilding of automobiles. No matter what make of automobile they can be repaired and Beelman and their men

The Oakland is the popular Six of the cars known to the auto industry, a fuel economy, a surplus power and a repressing appearance. It has added Messrs. Mehrling and Beelman in placing many of these Oakland in this territory. It is one of the real auto values of the day. The Patterson is a very popular car that has merited the popularity it has won. Messrs. Mehrling and Beelman will find Messrs. Mehrling and Beelman no matter how exacting they may be for they have three of the best of the cars known to the auto industry. Just let us suggest that you do well to have an early consultation with Messrs. Mehrling and Beelman for the demand for these cars is so great this year that the factory output is being taxed to the limit. The secret of the success of Messrs. Mehrling and Beelman lies in the fact that they are familiar with every feature and

C. S. MOORE

Operates One of the Progressive and Wide-Awake Establishments in Chicago Which Offers High Grade Goods at Reasonable Rates.

SHELBY'S ELITE

As Well As Those of the Middle Classes in That City and Surrounding Country Have Found More Satisfactory Even Than That of the Largest Metropolitan Cities.

When the tailor is able to satisfy the exacting demand of all social classes of people then it must be acknowledged that he has reached an enviable position. In the case of J. F. Rabold of Shelby, who is one of the prominent custom tailors of this section of the west. People of every class have made the clothes made by him as their satisfactory, most exclusive and most exclusive patterns and mixtures can be found in his complete stock. If you prefer the more moderate priced of the tasteful and approved designs of the season they can be had in his wardrobe. And no matter what price of material you select, if you order from Rabold, you will be satisfied in knowing that he has distinguished his work from that of the average tailor. Rabold, who is a man of high character, over coat but he builds your clothing to your individual requirements of your business, or for a suit or wear an air of distinction that belongs not only to the individually distinguished man, but which is so hard to secure.

You will find that the goods furnished department, maintained by the volume of his business, is equally modern and up-to-date as his tailoring. Here you will find a vast array of shirts, sweaters and other clothing essentials that pertain to the wardrobe of a gentleman. Mr. Rabold has provided a complete stock of men's wear and every article is of standard quality bearing the mark of the manufacturer whose brands are known the country over as the best on the market.

Though the commendable business methods that have marked his enterprise and the excellent quality of his work, Messrs. Mehrling and Beelman Mr. Rabold has built up a reputation that extends throughout this section and which adds to the volume of his business each year. His tailoring has become one of the features of the commercial efficiency of this section, and it is particularly favorable to the most exclusive houses of the large metropolitan cities and is a great joy to commendable mention to his business activities.

A writer in the Columbus Dispatch tells of a scene in the market there as follows: "A woman with a well-filled basket of vegetables on one arm and a bunch of flowers on the other, was looking at the flowers so intently she was unaware of the crowds about her. Her face twitched and I heard a soft gasp her lips. Then I knew the art of photography is being demonstrated. She had just seen a photograph of a child's picture, and she had gained a new interest in the art. She had just seen a photograph of a child's picture, and she had gained a new interest in the art. She had just seen a photograph of a child's picture, and she had gained a new interest in the art."

Norwalk Fertilizer Works

A Progressive Norwalk Concern Operating Under the Supervision of a Chemist Which is of Inestimable Benefit to the Community. Because of the Service Which They Render With Promptness and Dispatch.

While it is of the greatest importance that the most strict legal regulations be required to be observed, many communities are placed at a disadvantage in the enforcement of these requirements because they have no industry which is devoted exclusively to the conservation of the public health. The premises of our community is quite fortunate and in the taking up of this phase of our onward progress we wish to direct your attention to The Norwalk Fertilizer Works, of which Mr. S. Beck is the manager at Norwalk.

Because of the prompt and satisfactory service which they well have rendered they are the only company offers the public in the removal of dead stock and the able and efficient removal of the same. This enterprise is operated, D. S. Beck has won the confidence and the liberal patronage of the people. While the death of live stock is a regrettable incident always to be regretted, the immediate removal of the carcass is always desirable and should be accomplished at the earliest possible moment. The premises of our community may be how far from Norwalk you may live, the prompt attention they have given to the recommendation of many farmers and stockmen throughout this section by the prompt removal of the carcass is their care. Their service covers many miles of territory and is by no means confined to the local public. They serve this entire section of Ohio.

Many states in the union have passed legislation prohibiting the old methods of burying dead stock. While Ohio has not adopted this safe and sane law it is only a question of time until it will be passed by our law making body. In the meantime, the period in the progress of sanitation within the borders of the Buckeye state is to be commended for the very prompt manner in which they remove dead stock from the community. It is to be commended for every part of the carcass is to be utilized. Thus they not only protect the public health, but they to good and profitable use the carcasses which were formerly considered as a nuisance. The premises which should be given attention by every farmer and stock raiser and to the prompt removal of the carcass in all matters of this kind that concern their direction into competent hands. The prompt removal of the carcasses by irresponsible parties who take a profit from the disposal of the dead stock.

The Norwalk Fertilizer Works has introduced a new and improved method of all our rural and urban areas in need of the service of an efficient disposal of this kind they call upon the Norwalk Fertilizer Works. The head of this thriving and important industry is one of the prominent men of this section of the west. Mr. Beck is aiding in no little degree the progress and prosperity of this section of the west by his service to the community. The Advertiser desires to compliment him upon the enviable position which he occupies in an admirable manner in which it is operated for the benefit of the people.

SHIRLEY

Shelby's Leading Photographer Whose Electric Studio is the Latest and Most Modern and Which Has a Large Patrons From Plymouth and All Surrounding Territory.

In a review of this character it is eminently fitting that we devote some of our space to a frank testimonial of the excellent work performed at the Shirley Studio in the successful practice of his interesting and artistic profession.

The art of photography which was introduced by Daguerre, nearly twenty years ago has within the period developed from a mechanical trade to an art. The latest and most modern photography of today must be a man of advanced ideas and thorough training in his art. Mr. Shirley is the man who is now making this profession an art science. As a result of his training and his artistic profession.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS

Household Helps

Proposed to Increase Force by 1,500 Men.

HUNDREDS ALREADY ADDED.

Secretary Daniels' Recommendation
For $7,500,000 Contemplates Building and Machinery, and Large Number of Experts to Be Expected to Be Called For if Money is Granted.

Washington.—This city's greatly augmented number of government employees since the beginning of war preparations is to be still further added to should congress grant an appropriation for $7,500,000 asked for by Secretary Daniels to increase the capacity of the naval gun factory at the Washington navy yard. While the immediate need of this appropriation is for buildings and machinery, the necessary men to operate the machines will be required in due time, and it is estimated that from 1,000 to 1,500 expert machinists will be added to the present force.

To date more than 500 men have been added to the force at the Washington navy yard since the United States declared a state of war to exist between this country and Germany, and Secretary Daniels' request for a large gun factory means that a much larger force of men will be needed here.

Guns, mounts, torpedoes, mines, telescopes, optical instruments and miscellaneous ordnance supplies are to be made at this gun factory in large numbers.

The proposed work includes the construction of a six story machine shop for mines, mounts and torpedoes, a five story pattern and wood working shop, an extension to the present machine shop, a brass foundry, an extension of the steel forging plant, an optical shop, a landing tower, administration buildings, water towers, a power house, and under instruction and the extension of the yard service system to supply adequately these new structures. Estimates are estimated to cost $2,000,000 and equipment needed will amount to $2,500,000.

Daniels Discusses Plan.
Discussing his recommendation for the appropriation, Secretary Daniels said:

"The naval gun factory, possessing as it does a complete organization and a large working force, is readily adapted to increasing its facilities for production of guns, mounts and other munitions. To develop this factory into a more than just an ordnance plant, it is necessary to increase its capacity of the Washington navy yard."

LOCKED DOG IN TOWER.

He Stopped the Clock, and There Was No Time.

Roma, Ga.—The big city clock in the 400 foot tower on College hill here was stopped by a dog following him on the winding stairs, and when the timekeeper left he did not notice that he had locked the dog in the clock when he closed the door that leads to the top of the tower. For two days, without water or food, the dog whined and barked 600 feet above the city, but of course was not heard. When the police were called and the clock saw that it had stopped, and some one notified the timekeeper, who went to see what was the matter. He saw the dog lying at the foot of the pendulum, snarling savagely. A policeman brought the animal safe to earth. It was almost starved by its two days' task, but has recovered.

DRAFT NUMBERS TO BE SOLD.

Red Cross Will Get Proceeds From Sale of Souvenirs From Same.

Washington.—The original numbers issued in drawing the new national army have been turned over to the Red Cross by Provost Marshal General Crowder for sale as souvenirs, the proceeds to be turned into the Red Cross fund.

The first eight numbers and the last one, however, will be put back in the bowl and placed in Independence hall, Philadelphia, beside the Liberty bell. The bowl has been kept for this purpose by its owner, Charles R. Morris, a veteran war department clerk.

FAMILY IN SCHOOLHOUSE.

Could Not Rent Any Other Place and So Moved In.

Smith Center, Kan.—In nearly every town in northwestern Kansas, a housing condition prevails, and many families are unable to find homes to rent. So acute became the lack of houses to rent in this city that a newly arrived family, after impugning the school board was allowed to occupy the schoolhouse in one of the six rooms of the schoolhouse. Now other families seek the same privilege, and the school board may have to yield.

Forcing Laid Chicks For Winter Eggs

Chickens may be forced for early laying by feeding a large proportion of meat in their ration, and their maturity may be delayed by withholding such feeding. This largely upon corn and like fattening for hogs, a correspondent of the Rural New Yorker.

There are limits, of course, to which these methods can be safely carried, but if it is desired to make early layers of May hatched chicks they should be fed a liberal amount of meat of some kind up to their ration from the start. They will thus develop and "ripen" quickly and will lay correspondingly early.

Some poultrymen feed a dry mash containing one-fourth part by weight of the best beef scrap and keep it constantly before their growing chicks; others keep the mash dependent on what the chicks can help themselves at. If young chicks can have free range they will not overeat from boppers always open before them.

Light as Chaff

A western lawyer, it seems, had been so unobtainable as to offend a judge, a young man who had not had so much experience as the transgressing member in the practice of law.

Recently in criticizing a ruling of the court the lawyer went beyond the bounds of genuine respect. The judge, announced in a voice which was not to be mistaken for a growl, that a fine of $10 was imposed for contempt of court.

"What an honor to be fined," said the young man, leaning over the desk of the clerk. He was informed, thrusting his hand into his pocket, the attorney said: "I'll pay it. I never over a 'juster debt'."

How It Felt.

Fresh from the trenches, an English "Commy" had just arrived in London for a few days' home leave. He is usually the case, almost the first place visited was a barber shop, says the London Tri-Blitz.

The barber, after shaving away indignantly, had been so long in the shop, a few moments, made the usual inquiry: "All right, sir?"

"My good man, I've had a hard time of it, but I should be glad to attend to you, should I never have known there was a razor on my side."

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Sleepy Time Story About a Famous Race Between Animals.

SLOW POKE-CAME IN AHEAD.

In a Trial of Speed It Is Well to Keep Moving at the Swiftest Rate—How a Smart Little Beast Came to Grief by His Own Carelessness.

MR. SLOW POKE.

Once Mr. Tortoise, who carries his house on his back and is rather slow, met Mr. Rabbit in the woods. "Dear me!" exclaimed Mr. Rabbit. "You're mighty slow on your feet, Mr. Tortoise."

"Perhaps you are a little more head up from under my shell and answered, "Perhaps so, but I generally reach the place I start out for."

"Oh, ho!" jeered Mr. Rabbit. "You do, old slow poke. Well, it must take you a good deal of time to get there."

"Well," replied Mr. Tortoise in his slow way, "sometimes I get there faster than some of these very smart people."

"Go long!" Mr. Rabbit jeered. "I'll race you."

"Very well," agreed Mr. Tortoise. "Shall we start right now?"

Mr. Rabbit was a little surprised, but he told Mr. Tortoise that if they had a race there must be a prize. They settled it that whichever won should be treated to a fine dinner. Mr. Rabbit said he would have a nice juicy cabbage. Mr. Tortoise didn't care for cabbages, but he liked very hot out of the brook and juicy worms.

"Very well," agreed Mr. Rabbit. "If you can beat me you may have all you can eat for one day."

Then they started off. Mr. Rabbit leaping away ahead on his lively young legs. Presently Mr. Rabbit was out of sight of Mr. Tortoise. "Slow poke," said the rabbit. "I'll cut down and rest till he catches up with me. This is going to be too easy for me."

So Mr. Rabbit rested awhile and, when he saw Mr. Tortoise catching up, leaped ahead. Then he set down for another rest.

But this time he didn't see Mr. Tortoise coming, for his eyes drooped shut and he was morning when he awoke peacefully for him.

"I should like to have my dinner now," Mr. Tortoise said. And maybe Mr. Tortoise just didn't catch Mr. Rabbit busy digging worms and catching fish. There never was such an appetite as that of Mr. Tortoise. And Mr. Rabbit never dared to say "slow poke" again, he didn't.

Game of Garibaldi.

In playing this game it must be remembered that Garibaldi does not contain "e's"; therefore no word containing the letter "e" must be used in answering the questions asked.

All the players sit in a circle, and the game begins by one asking his left hand neighbor, "What will you give to Garibaldi?" and the answer must be given before the leader finishes waving his hand slowly three times or a forfeit must be paid. Then the question turns to the one next to him on the left and asks him the same question, and so on around the circle. For instance, one would give a gun, one a book, one a sword and a belt. This last having an "e" in it, a forfeit must be given.

When Friends Meet.

When the camera man is abroad he sees many things of interest along the way. The meeting of the two little girls.

KAISER BILLY

"True—'Baby Nick.'
"I've a word for you, alone,
Quite unpleasant, I'm afraid,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
But this truth will never show—
Hear it ring from town to town—
You must leave your royal crown,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
You must leave your royal crown,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill.

You've insulted all mankind,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
With your autocratic mind,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
By the use of submarine
"Death" submarines, more mean
Than the devil's darkest scene,
Kaiser Bill.

You will surely have to go,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
Uncle Sam desires it so,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
Every treaty you have made
Has been broken by your blade,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
Thus your honor will be laid,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill.

Then Great Germany will rise,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
For democracy must arise,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
And the whole world will agree,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill,
And the whole world will agree,
Kaiser Bill, Kaiser Bill.

BOAT CAPTAIN AN OLD FRIEND OF VICTIM

"I'm Sorry I Must Sink Your Ship," He Said—Personal Belongings Saved.

Because of the high mortality among German submarine commanders, German admirals have been compelled to impress former captains of German merchantmen into the U boat service. One such man was the captain of the British ship, the "Tortoise," which was sunk by a U boat commander.

One such meeting led to the first recorded case during the "ruthless" blockade running operations on the part of the U boat commander. The captain of the victim. For obvious reasons the name of the ship and the British skipper cannot be mentioned, but it can be said that both the ship and its master were well known in the Atlantic trade and along the Brooklyn waterfront.

The U boat had, as usual, signaled the British crew to abandon ship and row to the side of the submarine. The captain obeyed instructions under cover of the German gun. When he clambered on the submarine's deck and handed his papers up to the commanding officer, they were met with a friendly smile together in good as his word. He gave the British crew time to get back on board their vessel and sling their luggage into the boats. Then they rowed to one side and waited for a few shots from the U boat's deck gun sent the vessel down.

The U boat crew paid out a long tow line to which the lifeboats were lashed one behind the other and towed until within roving distance of the Irish coast. There the line was cast off, and the submarine submerged.

BURBANK MAKES NEW FIND.

Yield of Wheat Will Be Increased by "Plant Wizard" as a Result of His Development of a variety of wheat which will yield five times as much to the acre as the average of wheat production throughout the United States is announced by Luther Burbank, the "plant wizard" of Santa Rosa, according to a dispatch to the Sacramento Bee.

Burbank's announcement of the success of his experiment comes ten years after he began work on wheat and at a time when wheat may be the biggest factor in winning or losing the world war.

According to Burbank, the average yield of wheat was from fifty to seventy bushels an acre. If it is universally planted, he says, the production of the present average of wheat could be doubled many times.

Experiments as to the milling nature of this new variety of wheat are yet to be made.

The "Burrhead" man, who is the "plant wizard" of Santa Rosa, California, has announced that he has developed a variety of wheat which will yield five times as much to the acre as the average of wheat production throughout the United States is announced by Luther Burbank, the "plant wizard" of Santa Rosa, according to a dispatch to the Sacramento Bee.

H. P. POSTLE

A Funeral Director of Distinction and Renown Who Has Won a Large Clientele by His Efficient Work of the Highest Order—Modern Equipment Including An Up-to-Date Funeral Car.

In a comprehensive review of this character embracing as it does the most salient features of the onward progress of Plymouth and vicinity it is eminently proper that we devote a few lines to the professional status of the community and justly so to a profession so essential as that of the modern funeral director and embalmer. It is the duty of the Advertiser to call your special attention to the efficient and conscientious work that has been done in the ranks of modern funeral directors and embalmers in this section of the Buckeye state. As is well known, Mr. Postle generally is recognized as one of the most prominent and conscientious members of the profession and this distinction is well merited as the excellent service that he has rendered in the practice of his profession is testimony. It may be well to state that no one engaged in this section in the arduous profession of which he is so able an exponent has given his work closer study or is so well prepared to carry out the work attendant upon his calling as is he.

He has for years been one of the progressive forces of this community and consequently has kept in close touch with everything modern in his line. This applies particularly to the art of embalming in which he has long been recognized as an expert, operating as he does according to the latest and most scientific method known at the present time. As a result of this Mr. Postle has conducted the largest funerals held in this territory in a most satisfactory manner and his excellent facilities make it possible for him to take entire charge of funerals, thus relieving those interested of much care and worry at a most trying time.

Mr. Postle is ably assisted in this work by Mrs. Postle who by professional work of the highest order combined with courteous and diplomatic service has won distinction which is well merited.

In making this review of the onward progress of this community the Advertiser is pleased to compliment H. P. Postle and his associates upon their very valuable professional work and the modern and up-to-date equipment they have provided for the convenience of the public. It is such progressive men as Mr. Postle who make for a more prosperous and progressive Plymouth.

A man may be brave or a fool, but you don't know he is either till he is found out.

When you seek of a fellow as being a nut, do you mean to infer that he is half cracked?

No, Maude, don't ask a woman isn't she a nut? I got a cork because she roasts her husband.

Before being treated like one of the family the average man wants to be treated like a man.

CHAS. G. MILLER

Conducts One of the Leading Home Undertaking Establishments in This Section of the State and is a Modern Funeral Director and Embalmer Rendering Metropolitan Service—Possesses Either Auto or Horse Drawn Equipment.

There is no vocation requiring for its successful prosecution a greater natural aptitude than that of the modern funeral director and embalmer. It is a most interesting and important profession represented by Charles G. Miller whose establishment is well equipped and thoroughly modern. He has been identified with this valued profession for some years and through his untiring efforts and commendable methods has progressed from a modest beginning until today he possesses a clientele that extends over many miles of territory. Laundrying With the Help of Wind. Laundries are said to be practically unknown throughout the more or less frozen regions of the far north. In the large cities, however, the inhabitants have to resort to the expedient of washing their clothes with the help of the wind. In parts of Alaska, for instance, many of the miners do their own housekeeping and laundrying. To accomplish this they use a device made of an old barrel, chuck mounted on runners so that the miner can take it along to his work.

A cylinder of heavy iron bars is fastened to the axle of the barrel and the ends of the cylinder are fastened with rivets and solder to make them water tight. Two screens are made of galvanized iron of one inch mesh. One of them is suspended from the axle head by one-quarter-inch galvanized iron rods and the other is fastened to the cylinder so that the two are about ten inches apart in the middle of the cylinder. The space between the two screens is divided into two sections. The water narrows back and forth through them until they are clean, or as long as the churn is in motion, a large pin-wheel attached to the bearings furnished the turning power.

A Story of The Towpath

By OSCAR COX

It was more than half a century ago that the story of the towpath was current. That was when the towpath was the chief means of transportation in America. At one time they were called messenger boats. They, under competition with the railroads, they sank into freightage only, and now they have almost entirely passed away.

In those freight days a man named Shock drove a mule on the towpath which pulled a boat. Shock was as homely as his name. He had never had a sweetheart, and there was little hope of his ever having one, for whenever a woman looked at him she was appalled.

Now, Enoch was content of the fact that he was not beautiful. His hair was a fiery red, his nose was a bright color like his hair, and his eyes were mostly gone. Had it not been for this he might have made bold on his return trip to give his mule a rest and go to the city to get a haircut. It was, and since this was the only chance he had ever met, he was wary. He thought it better to make some headway in loving before starting to shove the lady his homely person at close proximity. So, instead of stopping when he passed again, having provided himself with a new pair of gun, he fired a wad of paper at her, which being unrolled revealed the following letter:

I seen you at yure winder yestaday and I wood like very much to make yure acquaintance.

The lady was watching for the boat on its return trip, and when Enoch fired his note at her she saw it fall near her house and going out picked it up and read it. But by this time Enoch had gone on his way.

When Enoch passed the house again he saw a large letter protruding from the house, which, though it had been originally white, not having been burnt in twenty years, was now a dull brown. The letter, being entirely visible from the canal, and Enoch read:

I can't see what you took like from yure face, but yure eyes are a fine color and if you air yur kin come and see me.

This reply was rather a setback to one who knew full well that he was as homely as a hedgehog. The communication was brief, and contained exactly what Enoch would like to prefer that it should not contain. The lady evidently was looking for a handsome man, but the message contained that she was right in not permitting him to see him close by before he had stirred up some sentiment which might lead her to overlook in a measure his homeliness.

Enoch's next love letter was written in lampblack on several boards nailed together and set up on the deck of his canoe about facing the house of his admirer. It read:

If you air a purty woman I wood be happpy to see you. Hain't got no use fer yur wimmen.

When Enoch passed the house the next day he saw all the windows closed and no living thing was to be seen except a few chickens scratching the dirt in the yard. Enoch was disappointed. It was plain to him that the lady had tended for a snub. On his next trip to write on his boards, "What's up?" which was chalked the reply, "Nothing."

Enoch reasoned that his ladylove had been misled at his previous communication, thinking that he had accepted her of being homely; but, having thought the matter over, she had seen his note in another light. He began to think that "faint heart ne'er won fair lady" and he might as well face the music one time as another. So he wiped the lampblack off his boards and wrote again:

Is she stop over?

When he passed again he was arrested in a store suit that had cost him $4. His hair had been greased with a slice of fat, and his nose had been blacked. Stopping his mule—and the boat when it had lost its momentum—he proceeded to the house of his ladylove. She had been waiting for him from a window and opened the door for him.

"You was a mardy?" was her exclamation.

Dr. Schillig says that it can be easily met by taking Chiropractic Adjustments.

Your Temporary Receiver

There is a story in the American Magazine in which a man who hasn't been able to get along on his salary installed his wife as temporary receiver. It worked wonders with him. Here is part of the story:

"What you want," said Todd, smiling, "is to go into the hands of a receiver—your temporary receiver."

"That's said Brett. You need to get into the hands of a temporary receiver. You ain't had business, but you've got yourself all backed up. You ought to go to somebody and say: 'Here! I've got my affairs all backed up, and I can't seem to pull out. Get my debts paid and everything cleared up, and I'm willing to die, and if somebody don't do something I'm going to have a nerve smash and go to the hospital. Here, you can take me over and see what you can do.'"

"Brett drew a deep breath and looked at Todd again. 'That's a success and a kindly man,' Todd would say.

"And the person to be your temporary receiver is the man, Todd, 'my wife, of course.'"

Little Acts. As daylight breaks through a small hole, so little things will illustrate a person's character. Indeed, the smallest details in little acts will characterize a man.

The Norwalk Auto Supply Company

Is One of the Most Efficient Establishments in This Section of Ohio Under the Competent Direction of Mr. A. J. Lawrence—The Home of the Wheeler and the Local Representatives for Pope Motorcycles and Bicycles.

Air Raid Reprisals Would Debase Moral Currency of International Life

By Most Rev. RANDALL THOMAS DAVIDSON, Archbishop of Canterbury

IN my belief such action as reprisals for air raids on our part, if we were so mistaken as to adopt it, would be altogether futile as a deterrent. The Germans would always outdistance us in ruthlessness.

We are determined to leave to the Germans the unenviable monopoly of an infamous disregard of that honorable and decent principle which we absolutely decline to degrade ourselves to that level.

Suppose we were to act otherwise. Suppose our righteous wrath against these outrages were to be directed to retaliating in kind either on prisoners or on the harmless inhabitants of unfortified towns and villages. Two results would follow. In the first place, history would draw no difference between the nations which had acted thus alike and had placed themselves on one level.

In the next place, if another war should come it would doubtless be provoked by outrages of this sort, as the perpetration of them could no longer be regarded as outside the pale.

THE WHOLE MORAL CURRENCY OF INTERNATIONAL LIFE WOULD HAVE BEEN DEBASED.

A Free People Is One Which Uses Its Strength For Public Welfare

By Professor FELIX ADLER, Columbia University

Political democracy and industrial autocracy cannot permanently exist side by side. A house thus divided against itself cannot in the long run stand.

A free people is not one in which strong individuals are crippled. It is one in which their strength is used for the public welfare as for their own. THEY MUST NOT THRIVE PARASITICALLY AT THE EXPENSE OF THE WEAK.

A free people is one in which the modest gifts, even of the lowliest, are released, in which the deepest, noblest energies of all circulate unhindered, enriching as they go out, enriched as they return, the life of each swelling the surrounding tide of life and lifted up by the reflexion of the tide.

This, as I conceive it, is liberty, the liberation of what is best in each. This is freedom, the free flow of life into life.

THIS IS IDEAL DEMOCRACY. WHEN WE LOOK AROUND US WE SEE VERY LITTLE TO REMIND US OF THIS CONCEPTION.

But it is our duty to keep the supreme goal always in view at however great a distance. Even the most successful effort to approach it serves at least to reconcile us to unenviable environments and to make life seem better worth living.

Dominant Section of Present Socialist Party Is Undemocratic

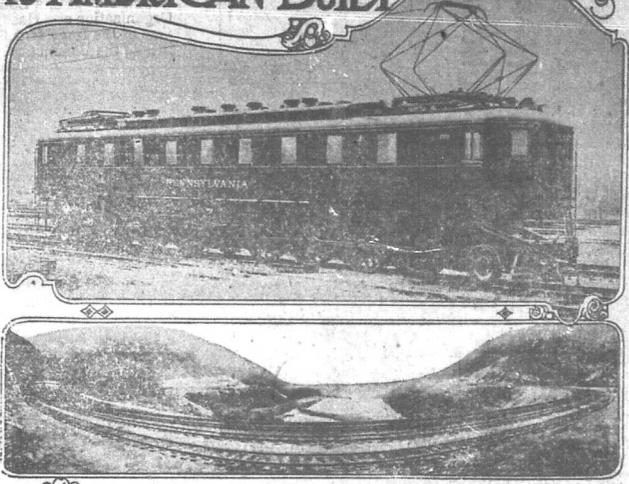

By J. C. PHELPS STOKES, Socialist

SOCIALISM appears to be doomed. By 'that I do not at all mean the great fundamental ideas which were the impulse of the movement. They are eternal truths. I mean the Socialism which is masquerading under the name today and which is as little as Socialism as it is like common sense.

THIS TRAVESTY ON SOCIALISM WILL DIE. THE REAL SOCIALISM, LIKE JOHN BROWN'S SOUL, IS MARCHING ON.

Universal military service is a fundamental Socialist principle. Since the Socialist party of America has become increasingly intolerant, with the decline of German success, of everything resembling universal service under our present form of government to enable us to meet the exigencies of the war very large numbers of Socialists have been in correspondence, exchanging views as to what could be done to protect the Socialist Party from the charge that they believe they should be most justly falling as a result of the GROSSLY UNCONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRATIC ACTS...

SINGLE TRACK LOCOMOTIVE SAFER AND BETTER

FAMOUS HORSESHOE CURVE

Once more has American genius demonstrated its supremacy in the railroad field, this time in the production of the most powerful locomotive in the world; not a freak built for spectacular purposes, but the first of a standard type of giants of the rails constructed for a definite purpose. It is capable of developing 7,000 horse power, and was designed and built by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company.

This monster, capable of exerting as much power as a string of trolley cars over half a mile long, draws its current from a wire no bigger than that used by a trolley car, or about the size of a lead pencil. It is made possible by the use of the high voltage alternating current system.

One of the things it is being placed in initial service on the electrified portion of the Pennsylvania main line extending west from Philadelphia to Paoli, Pa., including the famous Horseshoe Curve, a distance of approximately forty miles. The freight traffic over this division runs as high as 800,000 tons a day. In capacity this locomotive exceeds by more than 50 per cent. the power of the large electric locomotives in transcontinental service, popularly called the largest locomotives in the world.

The locomotive has been sent to Philadelphia, where it is being placed in initial service on the electrified portion of the Pennsylvania main line extending west from Philadelphia to Paoli, Pa., including the famous Horseshoe Curve, a distance of approximately forty miles. is said to be much easier on the track and roadbed than the steam locomotive because the weight is cabbed and the running gear is perfectly balanced for all speeds. The control has been applied to such perfection that power can be exerted gradually so as to enable the engine to start a train without jerk and acquire the speed of twenty miles per hour with a heavy train in about six minutes. This speed is fixed as desirable for the grades and curves which will be encountered when crossing the mountains.

An interesting feature is the fact that the engine will handle these enormous trains and the design of the motors, at constant speed, when operating up or down grade. When going down grade the motors automatically become generators and return power to the line, and at the same time operate the use of the airbrakes, which are simply held for emergency use and for bringing the train to full stop.

THE SHELBY FLOUR MILLS CO.

A Well Known Institution Under the Able Direction of Mr. H. L. Brandt, the Proprietor Which is Furnishing a Valuable Market For Farmers and Producing a Superior Brand of Flour.

The city that provides the farmers in the surrounding country with a market for their grain is the one that will attain the greatest measure of popularity and prosperity. The fact that Mr. H. L. Brandt, the proprietor of the Shelby Flour Mills Co. pays the highest market prices at all times for the wheat and rye which he carries in business to Shelby, Ohio, is a proof of his aid in and no small degree in making this a live and prosperous city.

The Shelby Flour Mills Co. are modernly equipped with the latest purely sanitary production of every known precaution such as the grading and testing of wheat, thoroughly cleaning and sifting, and the modern science has evolved in here into use for the production of "Silver" low and "Superior" flours in their purity and uniformity. Mr. H. L. Brandt, the proprietor of this well known milling concern, knows his business through and through. The application of progressive business methods and the sustaining of the mill's reputation for fair and above board dealings with the customers has won for him a prominent place in the milling circles of Ohio. The farmers about Shelby for miles have come to understand that at the Shelby Flour Mills Co. they can always get the highest market price; that their dealings there will be carried on in a businesslike and straightforward manner and that they will receive full value for their grain and other products and hence see no further market.

There is no questioning the fact that the Shelby Flour Mills Co. is an important factor in the commercial life of this community. It is well known that it has a most enviable reputation for fair and honest dealing and in this Special Edition of the Plymouth Advertiser we are glad to give commendation to Mr. H. L. Brandt and the commendable enterprise that he conducts at Shelby.

The Beelman Manufacturing and Lumber Co.

A Prominent and Well Known Chicago Junction Institution Under the Able Direction of Mr. Beelman Which is Serving the Public With a Vast Stock of Superior Lumber and Building Material Maintaining a Prompt and Reliable Delivery Service.

With a vision of a "Greater Ohio" always in their mind the Beelman Manufacturing and Lumber Company, under the direction of Mr. Beelman, who operates one of the largest lumber establishments in the western part of the state at Chicago Junction, have become an important factor in the material life of this community. While it has ever been Mr. Beelman's object to obtain a fair and honest profit from his extensive dealings in lumber and building material the guiding influence of this company has always been the determination to furnish the highest grade of goods at prices so reasonable that the community could procure rapidly and in great leaps and bounds.

There is no establishment in the country that has done more for the better upon the building industry. Contractors have come to know that whatever they desire their business can be secured from the Beelman Manufacturing and Lumber Co. with a knowledge that it will be of the highest grade consistent with the quality of lumber, lath, shingles, doors, windows and all other demands of the builder are furnished at the lowest prices. It is by purchasing to advantage when the market is right and employing only the most experienced workmen that they are able to offer this high class lumber at prices so reasonable so as to encourage the beautification and extension of homes and enterprises.

We are pleased in this Special Edition of the Plymouth Advertiser to give the community a better knowledge of this section of the state. His company is one of the important institutions of the state and has merited the large volume of business which it receives from the people of Chicago Junction, Plymouth and all of the surrounding territory.

One Divorce Is Six Marriages, Is Rate

For every six marriages in Ohio during the year ending June 30, 1917, there was one divorce.

This is shown in figures tabulated by the State Department. There were 53,367 marriages and 8,492 divorces granted.

Besides divorces granted, 3538 were refused and 7442 left pending.

For the previous fiscal year there were 48,260 marriages and 7923 divorces, approximately one divorce for every six marriages.

A perfect man is merely one who is as good as his wife thinks he ought to be.

C. W. SIPE

A Well Known and Reliable Piano and Musical Instrument Dealer at Shelby With An Envyable Reputation for High Grade Instruments and Honest Methods—The Victrola Representative in These Parts.

The compilation of a comprehensive review of the onward progress of Richland county reveals some firms whose long and successful service in the interests of the public has rendered their veritable landmarks in the business history of the community. A notable example of this kind is the piano business of C. W. Sipe at Shelby. One day a local farmer decided to buy a piano. Not knowing just what he wanted he asked his neighbor what kind to buy. The neighbor replied: "Buy a Sipe piano."

and most reliable retail piano and musical instrument houses in the middle west states. During the few of the pasting years he has seen many dealers and companies rise in a burst of startling publicity and then sink into the commercial oblivion that always culminates the efforts of unwise and unscrupulous business men. Mr. Sipe has always sold instruments of the highest quality and has a personal guarantee and in these parts the word C. W. Sipe of Shelby as representative of Victrola and organs is considered final authority.

Therefore, the Plymouth Advertiser, in this Special Edition, we are glad to give commendation to the veritable record of this well known and reliable Shelby business man and public spirited citizen and we wish to assure all of our readers that when they wish to purchase a high grade and up-to-date musical instrument they can be sure that they will find it at the Shelby store of C. THE DO SHARE

Cheerfully Take Places of England's Male Workers.

IT'S NOW UP TO AMERICA.

In This Crisis Confronting the United States Every Woman's Organization Should Co-operate For National Service and Every Woman Remember That It's Teamwork That Wins.

New York.—Hats off to the women who cheerfully bear the stress and burden of the day while the men, whose places they take in workshop and field, are fighting somewhere on the long battle front in Europe for home and country, says Natalie Sumner Lincoln of the Vigilantes.

If you go to England today you are met on the quay at every port by women; your luggage is handled by women; you see woman storekeepers lifting and moving heavy cargoes; you drive in taxicab run by women; you board a tramcar driven by women; a woman bellhop carries your valise; a woman clerk registers you in hotels; a woman bears the "lift." If you visit a "pub" a woman waits on you. If you inspect factories you see women working everywhere, and the managers tell you that women have improved the output 40 per cent. As you enter the country, you see women at work in the fields—sowing and reaping the harvest which enables the British government to furnish food to its fighting soldiers.

Such is the modern interpretation of "Amazon"—women are now the driving force behind the every day duties which, until recently, were assigned to men. When the nation is at "home" when the country is at war.

But Englishwomen were slow in becoming the efficient body they are today. Upon England's defeat in the war with Germany women volunteered by thousands for service, but many for the same service, and it was months before women realized that to be efficient and of practical assistance to their country they had to subordinate their desires and individualities to the common weal and accept the service assigned them.

There is one word which gives the clue to women's success in England and France—teamwork.

American women should heed England's experience. Don't all volunteer for the same line of work, but all do the work nearest at hand. And if an American woman finds that in the government work assigned to her she is a second peg in a square hole she must never complain, but square her shoulders and go to it.

In this crisis confronting the United States every woman's organization should co-operate at this critical hour and every woman remember the word—teamwork.

MESSAGES FLOATED YEARS.

One of Three Bottles Found Was Sent Adrift in December, 1914.

Washington.—Several instances of messages in bottles having floated about the Pacific for years before being recovered have been announced by the United States hydrographic office.

A bottle set adrift by Captain S. H. Burgess of the Tamba Maru (Japanese) Aug. 17, 1915, 900 miles east of Kamohaka, was recovered May 15 last near Seattle, Wash. Another bottle set adrift in December, 1914, off Cape Cortes, Mexico, was found Feb. 22 last 440 miles north of the Hawaiian Islands.

A third bottle, tossed from the schooner W. H. Marsten by Captain P. W. Hanna Feb. 12, 1915, 2,940 miles east of Chile and 630 miles west of Easter Island, was picked up Jan. 21 last four miles south of Wanganui Island, New Zealand.

ETHAN ALLEN ENLISTS.

He is Direct Descendant of Original Ethan Allen of Revolutionary Days.

Butte, Mont.—Ethan Allen, a direct descendant of the original Ethan Allen of Fort Ticonderoga fame, was accepted for enlistment in the United States marine corps here. He has been principal of a school in this city for the last three years and also taught in Ohio and North Dakota.

Allen's enlistment recalls the early days of American history, when Fort Ticonderoga was held in turn by the French and British until finally captured by Hessian troops in 1775.

It is another reminder of the fighting that of old differences between nations, apply now serving together against a common enemy.

AVIATION STUDENT DROWNED.

Brooklyn Man Falls With Plane Into Delaware River.

Washington, D. C.—Allen Ashley Smith, twenty-five years old, of Brooklyn, a student at the aviation school instituted by the Du Pont Powder company at Chesapeake Beach, was drowned in the Delaware river when the airplane in which he was flying fell into the water near Mason's Hook, Pa.

EVERYBODY SHOULD DO HIS PART IN THE WAR

Should Set For Himself the Highest Standard of Efficiency.

Washington.—When you ask the average man how he thinks the war is being handled, you will answer: "Oh, we're doing a lot. We're getting along all right."

It's an easy answer. But is it the truth? What is "getting along, all right?" says Porter Emerson Browne of the Vigilantes.

In war there is no such thing as getting along all right. There is only one thing that is right—that is, perfection.

Perfection is not human. Humanity has always and will always make mistakes. In war mistakes cost blood and suffering and human lives. Consequently to say we're getting along all right is to condone error and to condone suffering.

A senator quibbling over some political advantage may cause delays that will mean the death of his own side.

A representative too narrow minded to grasp the public weal may squabble over some silly prerogative that will mean the widow of his own daughter.

A cabinet member or department head wavering in the winds of indecision may postpone and put off and procrastinate until the price will be the orphaning of his own grandchildren.

It is for every man and every woman that will mean the death of his own side, the highest standard of efficiency possible and then to his best and most to live up to that standard.

When mistakes must be paid for in blood of those we love, the best that is in us is none too good.

WRECK OF EXPRESS IS ADVERTED BY HER HAT

Headgear of Woman is Found Beside Split Rail, and Warning Is Given.

Greenwich, Conn.—The next time your wife breaks the news to you that she has bought a new hat it might be wise not to call the hat any names until it has had time to prove what sort of hat it is.

There is a remote possibility it might be a heroine hat like the one that Mrs. Mrs. Bowen wore on the night of the wreck of an express train on the New Haven railroad near Port Chester.

Mrs. Bowen boarded a train for New York. At Port Chester she walked through the train looking for a friend. The hat blew off when she was crossing a platform. She notified the conductor. He telegraphed back, and before the Grand Central terminal was reached informed Mrs. Bowen that the hat was waiting for her in the freight station in Port Chester.

When on her return Mrs. Bowen got the hat she was told that a hotbed at the station had found the hat on the New Haven tracks.

She was informed, and reported the split rail. An approaching express train was switched to another track. The split rail was replaced.

TO AID WAR DOCTORS.

Physicians Taking Their Practice to Give One-Third of Fees.

Indianapolis, Ind.—The Indiana Medical society has passed resolutions recommending that one-third of all fees collected for professional work by physicians who remain in Marion county during the war from families who were formerly served by physicians in active service of the government be turned over to the absent physicians on his return or to his family during his absence. An effort will be made to make the new movement national in its scope.

The society has 336 members, and at least fifty of them are expected to be called soon. A number of others expect to go later.

DIVORCES QUOTED HIGHER.

War Makes Lawyers Agree to Increase Divorce Cases.

Canton, O.—Divorce decrees in Stark county are now quoted higher. Feeling the pinch of war prices, the County Bar Association has boosted the price of nearly every kind of legal work.

Formerly a matrimonially disappointed husband or wife could get a divorce for $25. Now a husband or wife of a divorcee will cost $35 if there is no contest. If a fight is made the seeker for marital liberty will have to pay $50.

EVEN-LEIONS FEEL THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

San Francisco.—Mountain lions evidently have noted the high cost of living in California. A lion was seen in the mountains near San Francisco.

THE SMITH STUDIO

At Shelby is the Local Place Where Art in Photography is Developed by Modern Methods and Which Enjoys a Large Patronage From This Community.

The true artists in photography are few and far between. What a difference when your friends remark, "Oh, that is a good photograph of you," and when they say, "I don't like that at all." There is only one way to get the artistic advantage of getting the best there is in a photograph and that is by going to a studio.

The Smith Studio, at Shelby, by the way, have you noticed the display cases of this popular studio recently. Here you will find from time to time the familiar faces of the best known people of Plymouth and surrounding country. You know the difference between good and poor photography.

The Smith Studio at Shelby and the liberal patronage that it receives from the people of Plymouth is due to the use of a good work that is turned out there and the fact that in this studio only competent and experienced artists are employed. A person must know the profession in which one is engaged and in photography one must be a true artist in the line in order to achieve success. That is why Mr. Smith has taken up the study of this section and why his patronage is ever increasing. He makes a specialty of portraits and group portraits and negatives. In this class of work the Smith Studio has advanced when
