

The Public Forum

Opinions expressed under this heading are those of the contributors, not of The Advertiser.

On Wednesday morning, October 13, one-third of the children in the 1st grade were sent home from school because they were not six years of age before the first of November. This leaves seventeen pupils on roll. Four years ago the school board made this rule and enforced it one year. Since that time it has not been enforced. Why keep children out of school who will be six before the first of the year? The room is not crowded this year. Next year it may be. The other schools in the county permit all who are six the 1st semester to start in September. Why should Plymouth be different? There are only two members on the board, who are opposed to changing the rule. Three are in favor of taking action but one was unable to be present Tuesday night. The President was asked to call a special meeting so that this business might be brought up again. He refused. According to the State Law, all who are six before the next term of school may enter school the following term. These few weeks are not only unjust to the child but also to the teacher.

Shelby Sheik Fined for Making Girls Drink

Shelby sheiks have a new one. They take girls out riding in their cars, then tell them they will have to walk back home if they do not drink.

This is the claim made by two Shelby girls, one 14, the other 16, against Bert Crager. The girls testified Crager took them to a farm house about four miles northwest of Shelby Sunday afternoon, purchased a half gallon of what he claimed was sweet wine. The girls told Mayor Glenn Mariott of Shelby they tasted the wine but did not like it.

After the alleged threat of having to walk back to Shelby, the girls drank. One of them became so ill during the night a physician was called. Her father then preferred a charge against Crager. Mayor Mariott bound him over to the juvenile court.

Crager still persisted this morning when the case was called. It is the wine he gave the girls was sweet wine. After hearing the testimony of the two girls, Judge C. L. McClellan found Crager guilty and fined him $100 and costs.—Manchester News.

James Spillettt Died In Tiro Last Tuesday

Mr. James Spillettt of Tiro, died last Tuesday afternoon, at 7:00, where he has been making his home for the past year. Mr. Spillettt was a man of about 68 years of age and was born and reared in the community in and around North Auburn. He was well known in this part of the county and was held in high esteem by a host of friends who knew him.

Mr. Spillettt resided for a few years here with his daughter, Mrs. Olive Gottfried, and only last winter moved over to Tiro.

No details of the funeral arrangements could be learned in time for this issue, and the names of relatives who survive him could not be secured.

Remains of Mrs. Julia Reed Laid to Rest Tuesday

The remains of Mrs. Julia Brumback were laid to rest, Tuesday afternoon in Greenlawn cemetery, Plymouth.

Mrs. Reed died Sunday morning at 5:40 o'clock at her home in Shelby, death being due to apoplexy. She had been ill for several years and was a great sufferer, especially in the last three weeks.

She was born April 18th, 1860, and was aged 66 years. She had been a resident of Shelby for many years and is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. George Gates of Church street. She is also survived by two sisters Mrs. Laura Kane of Columbus, Mrs. Emma Hellman of Willard and one brother Dwight Brumback of Selma.

NAMED EXECUTIVE

The will of Mary E. Lybarger, late of Plymouth, was filed Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. F. A. Gilmore, pastor of the Methodist church, Shelby.

High School to Give Show

"Minstrel Echoes," the show to be staged by the pupils of the High school at Hamilton Hall on Friday and Saturday of next week, is a show replete with music of every description suited to this type of production.

Dances of every nature done to these numbers are surprisingly intricate and in every scene furnish the finesse which is not often viewed in an amateur production.

Last but not least will be the black face comedians. There are six of these numbers are arranged and then in the 2nd act these gay fellows are to present, only this time in a training camp.

This production is entirely original and is being directed by Mr. Dorrington of the John B. Rogers Producing Company. Their services having been secured by the High School.

Seats will go on sale in a day or so and the price will be within reach of all.

A good show, a good laugh and a memory or two is promised for Friday and Saturday of next week. Let's Go!!

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN PRIZES TO STUDENTS

The National Republic, of Washington, D. C. announces a student essay contest on the subject "The American Constitution," open to all students in high school and graded schools, with grand prizes aggregating one thousand dollars.

Any student is eligible to enter, and no subscription to the magazine or other consideration is necessary.

Five hundred dollars will be awarded to the high school student submitting the best essay. Five hundred dollars will be awarded to the student in the grades up to and including the eighth grade, age taken into consideration. Prizes will be awarded to the teachers whose students are winners. Engraved medals and large American flags will be awarded the winners in each state.

To enter the contest it is only necessary for the student to send his name, home address, age, and name and class of school he attends, when particulars will be furnished by the National Republic, 425 Tenth St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

P. T. A. Plan Unique Drive

An absolutely new and unique plan for conducting the campaign for members of the Parent-Teachers Association was adopted at their meeting on Tuesday evening. Envelopes are to be members. These will be sent home from the school with the children. Parents will then enroll their names and enclose dues in the envelopes. A prize is to be offered to the room which first has every parent enrolled as a member of the P. T. A. Envelopes will also be sent to former members who are not parents. An effort will be made to solicit other non-parents for membership. It is hoped that this method will be effective in presenting the membership cause to everyone and at the same time avoiding the labor of an extensive canvass.

Preceding the meeting a short program was presented, and well received. Miss Arline Straub played "Be-cuase" from Jocelyn by Godard as a violin solo and responded with "Roses of Picardy" as an encore. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Dorothy Straub. Miss Ruth Balduf read an original short story that proved very interesting and Mrs. Ralph Hoffman gave two readings.

The work committee for this year will consist of Mrs. Ralph Hoffman, Mrs. J. A. Root and Mrs. Ed. Curpen.

Dilapidated Ford Causes Wreck of new Chrysler car

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Moushey of Mt. Vernon were motoring through Shelby to Plymouth from Mt. Vernon Saturday night when they met with an accident near the Dawson farm on the Plymouth-Shelby road.

Their machine a Chrysler sedan was crowded off the road by a hit and skip motorist driving an old model of a Ford touring car. The Chrysler was wrecked and Mrs. Moushey was cut about the face but neither was seriously injured.

The driver of the Ford never slackened his speed but kept on going although the law provides that a motorist must stop in case of an accident. The Hetrick "Get's Em" was called on to tow the Chrysler into this city for repairs.—Shelby Globe.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL

The O. E. S. chapter 23, will give a Halloween Social and Playlet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms on the evening of Friday, October 22. The public cordially invited. Admission: children under 12 years 10c, adults 25c. 14-chz.

SCOUTS OBTAIN LIEUTENANT

Mrs. Yvonne Jenkins has consented to take the place of lieutenant of the Plymouth Girl Scouts. Mrs. Jenkins is bringing youth and enthusiasm with her and will be an addition to the troop.

K. of P. Hold Installation

Quite an interesting evening was enjoyed Tuesday evening by a number of Willard men, members of Knights of Pythias lodge there, came over and held installation ceremonies in the local lodge. Four officers were installed at Tuesday night's meeting. They are: Glen Dick, chancellor-commander; D. C. W. Babcock, vice-chancellor; Horace Willett, master at arms; and Daniel Campbell, inner guard.

A good turn out by the local members helped to make the affair a lively one and everyone was pleased with both the work and entertainment.

The next meeting of the Willard lodge Friday, October 22, when work in the first and second degree will be staged. The Willard Pythian sisters will in turn visit the Plymouth sisters on the same date.

A committee has been appointed to arrange for a Halloween dance on October 22 and it is assured all members and their friends that an excellent program will be arranged for this occasion. The general public is invited.

C. of C. Banquet Next Tuesday

What is likely to prove the paramount meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held next Tuesday night when members and their wives or lady friends will attend the meeting which has been termed "ladies' night."

One of Ohio's greatest inspirational and wittiest entertainers, Hugh Diamond of Gallon, has been booked for this gathering. Mr. Diamond will surround himself with the life of the Scottishman and his mode of living, his high ideals and aims is lively.

The banquet will be served by Mr. I. A. Lombard, who recently assumed management of the Smith Hotel. The dinner hour is set at 6:30 in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and the menu is as follows:

Roast Beef or Roast Veal
Mashed Potatoes Salad
Pie Bread Butter
Ice Cream

Tickets will probably go on sale this week.

SCHOOL BOARD MET

The monthly meeting of the school board was held Tuesday night and all bills were passed and paid. Other regular routine business was given attention. Those present were J. W. McClintock, J. L. Hoffman, Mrs. Wesley Ritter and J. E. Nimmons.

I. O. O. F. ENJOY SOCIAL

The local lodge of Odd Fellows put on a social gathering Tuesday night when members and their wives attended a supper in the lodge rooms. A very fine program was rendered and those attending were more than pleased with the entertainment.

Trux Street to Get Aid For Winter

At the last monthly meeting of the village council the body appointed E. K. Trauer, as a committee of one to see what could be done in regards to the improvement of Trux street.

The bonds for the improvement of this street were to have been sold in Mansfield at a recent date, but no bid was entered, with the exception of one which was sent in by Roger Au but was rejected too late for action. It is probable that the bonds will be sold at a sale to be held in November but this date would be too late for construction to begin before winter.

Mr. Trauer states that in a recent interview with Mr. Bert Kuhn, county commissioner, he was informed that the road would receive sufficient improvement next month to take care of the winter traffic. This will be welcome news to those traveling this route and an improvement, no matter how small will greatly aid the comfort of traveling over this road.

"A Tour Around the World" Is Advertiser's New Feature

The Advertiser takes great pleasure in announcing that it has secured for its readers the services of A. B. Jordan, noted travel writer, who will furnish, beginning Oct. 28, a series of letters in several European countries.

Mr. Jordan is credited with opening a new field in American journalism. For fifteen years he edited a country week. Thus he gained complete understanding of the interest, desires and curiosities of the rural and small-town American Born of a wish to give his own readers true pen pictures of conditions in far countries, the letters produced on his first European trip shortly after the World War immediately found public favor and were warmly acclaimed by the press of his native state. Now every place finds him in out-of-the-way places digging up strong human interest stuff and observing intimate details of life on the other side.

And this is where Mr. Jordan's letters differ from the general run of foreign correspondence. Traveling Europe; he forsakes the lures and comforts of the great cities. He knows rural England and Continental Europe as the average man knows his own

P. H. S. Post Plymouth's New Paper

Will Carry School News and Other Interesting Items Each Week.

A new feature in the way of a school page will be found in this week's issue of The Advertiser. It will carry the patrons of the school should be proud of the effort and work devoted along this line.

The P. H. S. Post, edited by Marguerite Boardman, who is surrounded by an able staff, will be found unusually interesting and newsy in every respect, and will bring to you each week the happenings and other items that pertain to the functioning of Plymouth schools. It is really an organization of the school and a source for each and every department to make known its work.

It is a hard task to arrange and get up copy for any kind of paper, and the editor and staff of The Post should be given every consideration possible, both by the town and the entire school.

Thedius Keeler Passed Away at Norwalk Friday

Mr. Thedius Keeler, age 79, died in Norwalk Friday morning, death being due to infirmities of old age. The remains were brought to the Miller Undertaking establishment where they were prepared for burial. They were later removed to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Della Casbaugh.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church with Rev. Mrs. Belle Gates of Greenwich, officiating. Interment was made at Maple Grove cemetery.

The deceased leaves three children, one son, Wilbur Keeler of Plymouth, two daughters, Mrs. Della Casbaugh of New Haven and Mrs. Berry of Greenwich.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Mr. Beryl Miller of The Iron and Miller Hardware stores, was in Toledo, Wednesday attending the Winchester Hardware convention. Mr. Miller reports a very fine trip and is enthused over the fine line of hardware on display. He was accompanied by Howard Timmons of the Hunter hardware store of Willard.

Race Horse Sold

"Red Almond," famous fast trotter owned by Mr. Mack Rogers was sold Saturday to Mr. Ned Lofland. This horse has won many races and is a very valuable steed. Since coming into possession of Mr. Rogers, "Red Almond" has failed to qualify in any of the races in which she has entered. Mr. Lofland will probably use the animal as a saddle or carriage horse.

back yard. Diplomatic courtesies give him access to place of pomp and circumstance. His work is presenting rural and small-town Europe to the millions of readers of American weeklies and to this task he devotes his entire energies and talents.

With notebook and "portable," Mr. Jordan may be tonight in the unpretentious inn of a tiny village; tomorrow night a guest in a humble farmhouse whose doors open readily to his gentle friendliness of manner. Remarkably gifted in the ability to lift his readers out of themselves and make them feel they are really living with him the experiences he relates, he brings to the American family evenings of deep enjoyment as well as vast quantities of accurate information devoid of artificial coloring.

In the series which will appear in The Plymouth Advertiser, Mr. Jordan takes his reader into France, England and Denmark, the three countries whose farm life holds the greatest interest for Americans. His observations have as a background a fund of historic knowledge that few

Johnstown Flood Considered Rare Film Photography

Photographically, "The Johnstown Flood," the coming attraction at the Shelby Opera House Saturday, produced by Fox Films from an original story woven around the great calamity of the Conemaugh Valley in 1889 when the city of Johnstown, Pa., was literally washed from the face of the earth by the terrific onslaught of uncontrolled waters, is regarded as one of the outstanding achievements of motion-picture history.

George Schneiderman, photographer of "The Iron Horse" and "Bad Men," has set a new record for cameramen of the motion picture studios. From the most simple interior set used in the production, to the stupendous flood scenes the genius of the cinematographer is evidenced.

Probably in no instance has a cameraman ever been confronted with the colossal task of filming successfully, forcibly and realistically the scenes conceived for the production of the Johnstown flood.

George O'Brien, Janet Gaynor and Florence Gilbert portray the leading feature roles with Max Davidson, Anders Randolf, Paul Nicholson, Paul Panzer and Walter Perry in the pivotal supporting roles.

Heart Throbs A Plenty In Laura Jean Libbey Picture

If you want to thrill a captivating tale of a little slave, dancing like a sunbeam amid the dingy environments of a tenement, who falls in love with the pet of society—if you want to sit enthralled at the spectacular thrills with which the story has been invested, don't miss the Laura Jean Libbey masterpiece, "A Poor Girl's Romance," at the Castamba Theatre, Shelby Wednesday.

Directed by F. Harmon Weight, creator of such well known screen successes as "Druisilla With A Million" and "Flaming Waters," "A Poor Girl's Romance" is a gripping tale of love and adventure in which the leading characters are a young society maid and a poor girl. All the vivid color of society, the thrill and pound of the night life in New York, in contrast with the lives led by the less fortunate of the tenements, is shown in this picture.

Laura Jean Libbey, known for years as one of the greatest writers of romantic literature, has passed on, but her spirit of young romance still goes blithely forward.

It is understood that political speeches will not be accepted as farm relief in the corn belt. Toledo Blade

"The Isle of Retribution" Picturizes Frozen North

The lure of a woman hardened by life—the little coquette which grim experiences have taught her will arouse the passions of men and fill their senses of danger—the touch of hand—the feel of clinging lips—all these are wielded by Mildred Harris playing the role of Lenore Hardenworth in F. B. O.'s "The Isle of Retribution," to be shown at the Castamba Theatre, Shelby Saturday.

This adventure, striving to lure Nord Corbet Robert Frazer, the rich wastrel, into the net of her wiles, forgets him in a panic when their little party are cast upon the forbidding Arctic island and come under the brutal domination of Doomsdorf, the escaped Siberian convict. And realizing that her only hope of salvation lies in playing her feminine role with him, she begins to lure him on with all the evil power of which she is capable of frightened survivors; Lenore Hardenworth, relic of a decadent society, accustomed to seeing the light of passion flare up in men's eyes softly stealing her insidious way beneath his iron exterior.

Rudolph Valentino May Be Seen In "The Cobra"

Rudolph Valentino selected an excellent cast to support him in "Cobra," the modern drama in which he will appear at the Shelby Opera House, Monday. The star himself appears as an Italian Count who comes to America to enter business.

Nita Naldi, plays the part of the cobra woman—the woman with the same fascination which the cobra holds over its victims.

Gertrude Olmstead, who got started in pictures when she won an Elks beauty contest in Chicago and has been climbing rapidly up the film ladder ever since, has the best part of her career in the sympathetic feminine role. She appears as a blond, in a sharp contrast to Miss Naldi's brunette beauty.

Casson Ferguson, who will be remembered for his great performance of the young attorney in Paulist Frederick's "Madame X," returns to the screen after an absence of a year in the role of the star's best friend.

Three other beautiful women are in the cast—Eileen Percy, Claire de Loree, and Laska Winters. Hector Sarao, Rose Rosarno, Lillian Langdon and Henry Harrows complete the list.

"Cobra" was adapted to the screen by Anthony Colowdewy from Martin Brown's successful Broadway play and was directed by Joseph Henabery. It was produced by Valentino independently and will be the Paramount banner and distributed through Paramount.

Library Notes

Circulation reports for September are not so large as for the summer months. 329 books and magazines were borrowed. This decrease in numbers is due to two things, school has begun, and the canning season is at its height.

Did you know that Plymouth has twelve of the month's best sellers in its library. They are:

"Gentlemen Prefer Blondes"—Loos, "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" Erskine.

"After Noon," Ertz.

"Hangman's House," Byrne.

"Sorrow and Son," Deeping.

"Paddlocked," Beach.

"The Hounds of Spring," Thompson

"The Blue Window," Bailey.

"The Black Flemings," Norris.

Diet and Health, Peters.

"When We Were Very Young," Milne

"Six Bayonets," Thomason.

We are planning to have the Library open every afternoon and evening the last week of October. Will you please look through your books and magazines and bring us what you can spare. Money, in any size donation, will also be appreciated. We hope to raise enough during this week to pay for a magazine rack. Our book shelves are not wide enough for magazines to be flat on them, consequently the magazines soon gain a much used look from being doubled up on narrow shelves.

The Brown and Miller hardware store gave us handles for the cupboard doors. The handles are surely appreciated for the doors have swelled so with all the rain that it has been almost impossible to open them.

Please remember Library Week, October 25-29 and save your books, magazines and money for Plymouth Public Library.

MRS. H. I. JEFFREY, Librarian.

MRS. G. E. HERSHISER, Assistant

YOU ARE LATE

You seemed to form a habit To speak of this I late In so many of your movements You are found to be so late.

You are like the R. R. engineer Who failed to get in the clear The limit was on time And did hit him in the rear.

You are even late to go to bed Always late to rise The clock seems too fast, The time seems too fast.

You are late to go to church Often late to go to school, You have formed the habit To be late is your rule.

Are you satisfied with a pace While traveling in the throng, Most people walk around you Or simply push you along?

You are late to your meals You cause the cook to fret If the sun was like you It would be so late to set.

You are slow in your movements You are subject to many ills, The Doctor says to recover, Even too slow to take pills.

If you adopt modern methods, Flying will be one of the last, The gain of this movement To you seems too fast.

Girl Scout News

Those who did not attend the Girl Scout meeting Friday evening certainly missed a good time. The meeting was scheduled for seven o'clock but owing to some misunderstanding it was not published in the paper in that way, so we waited until 7:30 for late comers. In the future the meeting will be held at seven o'clock, and the formation taken up first, so please be on time.

The regular business was transacted and merit badges of pathfinder and first aid were presented to Scout Chappelle. The problem of first lieutenant has been happily solved by the presence of Mrs. Jenkins, who has consented to fill the position. We feel that Mrs. Jenkins will be an addition to the troop and hope that any of the girls who did not meet her this week will be on hand at the next meeting to give her a hearty welcome.

Our next plans include some drills, and we hope to take this up in the near future.

After the business meeting the usual good time were had and Mrs. Jenkins recited for us. The attendance for the meeting was twenty.

Radio Fans Will Get "Kick" Out of This

June brides, or any other kind of bride at sometimes desperate about that eternal job of meals. Getting something new and appetizing to surprise "hubby," especially if he had left the house a little peeved, or had a new stenographer is no easy task.

Not long ago a certain June bride with a desire to please, asked her husband to copy the radio menu. The set was new and she polished it every day, but "hubby," brave and wise as he was, got two stations mixed, one of them broadcasting physical exercises and the other the menu. This is what he wrote:

"Hands on hips. Place one cup of flour on shoulders. Raise knee. Depress toes and wash thoroughly in one cup of milk. In four counts relax left foot and mash two hard boiled eggs in a sieve, repeat six times."

"Inhale one half teaspoon of salt and one level teaspoon of baking powder and one cup of flour; then breathing naturally exhale and sit. Attention. Jump to a squatting position and beat the white of an egg in quick time. Twist sideways as far as possible and beat two eggs slowly and briskly."

Each Day New Proof of Pontiac Six Supremacy

Now rapidly approaching the 75,000 mark, Pontiac Six Production incontrovertibly proves that there was a demand for a low-priced six of high quality—and that the Pontiac Six meets that demand like no other car in the world!

In all the thirty-one years of automotive history, the greatest first full year's production ever attained by any new make of automobile did not exceed thirty-three thousand cars. Yet the Pontiac Six, introduced only nine months ago, has already more than doubled that figure.

This impressive achievement is based not only on the brilliant beauty and spacious comfort that the Pontiac Six offers at so low a price, but also on stamina, ruggedness and reliability, performance which stamp it a triumph of quality car design and construction.

OBSERVED BIRTHDAY

Wednesday being the 80th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Emma Barnes, plans had been previously made to celebrate that event at the Barnes homestead north of town and which is now occupied by her grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Payne, but on account of her son Rev. Barnes of Norwalk being unable to be present as he was officiating minister at the wedding of a former parishioner at Sandusky, the event was postponed until Saturday when the children and grandchildren gathered at the appointed place and enjoyed a festive occasion. Mrs. Barnes received many cards from friends and presents from her immediate family. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Barnes of Shiloh, Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Barnes and daughter Miriam of Norwalk, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Huston and sons, Earl John and Stanley of Greenwich, and a brother-in-law, P. Y. Barnes of this place.

CLASS MEETING

The J. T. Class held a very interesting meeting Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McBride. As this was the meeting before Halloween, several of the members wore masks and as the attendance was large, it added much toward the social part of the evening. The refreshments were very attractive, the appointments bearing out the color scheme of the occasion.

SHILOH SCHOOL NEWS

High school people are beginning to think of basketball. Already several games have been scheduled with neighboring schools.

Shiloh won her second baseball victory from Greenwich last Friday at Greenwich. This coming Friday N. Fairfield will play the high school boys on the local diamond.

Keep in mind that Friday evening of this week the Harmony Four Quartette will appear in the school auditorium under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. All indications point to a splendid entertainment for school children.

Shiloh will soon have a school newspaper if plans under way at the present time develop. Watch this column for announcements.

OBITUARY

JAMES P. GILLESPIE
James P. Gillespie was born in Plymouth, July 4, 1853, in the place known as the John Dock property on Trux street. He departed this life October 11, 1926, aged 93 years, two months and twenty-eight days.

Mr. Gillespie lived with his parents until his father died and his mother married again. He then went to Fond du Lac, Wis., to make his home with his sister. He is the last of a family of seven children, four boys and three girls.

He came back to Plymouth with a circus and was married to Celia York Feb. 22, 1862, who departed this life Jan. 9, 1924.

He had the misfortune to lose his eyesight 40 years ago. Mr. Gillespie was one of the leading business men of Plymouth, having a grocery store where the Plymouth Bakery is now located, and was helping to keep up the improvements of the town, paying toward the different churches and helping the poor of the town.

Many was the time when a basket of groceries would be found on some poor widow's door in the morning, taken there by him and his wife. They left their deeds according to the Bible: "Let not your right hand know what your left hand doeth." He gave until he had nothing for himself.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church with Rev. W. H. Gibson in charge. Interment was made in Greenlawn cemetery.

Mr. Gillespie spent his last days in the Richard county home as he had no children to care for him and no means of his own.

Platts Put the Stroller Prock In the Whippet Class

This is not the age of languid lilies, sofa complies or carriage exercise—and clothes show it. The modern Diana wears her skirts brief and flows them for action with an abundant use of platts. The back, which theoretically does not show and must be sat on, is kept plain and in one piece. For a sport frock, the light-weight flannels and camel's hair twills and jerseys are smart. Wool crepe is a French favorite, the flat crepes are nice for business and more is distinctly new. The narrow belt and buckle are very good and the collar can be worn open after a more feminine fashion.

TO GRADUATE FROM MANSFIELD HOSPITAL

Miss Edna Martelle Lofand is one of a class of four to graduate next Friday evening from the Mansfield General Hospital School of Nursing. The exercises will be held at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church and will be opened to the public with a reception afterwards at the Nurses' Home for the friends and relatives of the graduating class.

There are four nurses in the 1926 class. They are Eva Cornelia Hovey of Coneson, Ohio; Viola Mae Jones and Helen Marie Baker of Mansfield; and Edna Martelle Lofand of Plymouth.

The following program has been planned: processional—Forest J. Faust, organist and choir director of Grace Episcopal church; invocation—Rev. Arthur M. Hughes, pastor, First Presbyterian church; chorus, Boy's choir of Grace Episcopal church; address, Dr. John S. Hattery, president of the visiting staff of the hospital; address, Paul R. Tappan, president of the hospital trustees; chorus, Boy's Choir; presentation of pins, Mrs. Rose Hill Brinkerhoff; benediction, Rev. Harry Trust, pastor, First Congregational church; recessional, Mr. Faust.

SALE CONTINUES

While the rush and confusion has died down from the announcement of the sale of Elvora Taylor's, yet the bargains are there, and the variety is still good. There are many things which every household is in need of this time of year, and you should check up, and attend this event. All merchandise is guaranteed quality at a low price.

Important Notices

I wish to thank my many friends for their patronage while in the jewelry presentation of pins, Mrs. Rose Hill Brinkerhoff benediction, Rev. Harry Trust, pastor, First Congregational church; recessional, Mr. Faust.

I take pleasure in announcing that I will conduct Sam Parker's shop where I will do all kinds of light furniture, bicycle and other repairing, also filing saws. I am also prepared to do picture framing.

AFTER HOUSECLEANING—WHAT?

If your cleaning problems were ended, once you had the Hoover in order for winter, you might be willing to worry through the fall housecleaning without The Greater Hoover. But when you consider the week-in and week-out drudgery that will be yours this winter, without this most efficient of all cleaning aids, can you afford to do without its amazing efficiency?

Your rugs and carpets, with this new Hoover, will be 131% cleaner than with even the best previous Hoover model!

"Positive Agitation" is the secret of this new cleaning efficiency. It's the rug on a cushion of air. It brates it rapidly, loosens deep-buried, penetrating grit, agitating it to the surface to be suctioned away.

Let us show you this revolutionary new cleaning principle. Telephone and we'll send a Hoover out to clean your rugs, without charge obligation.

Says Crops In Bad Shape In Parts of Southern Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. McBride returned Sunday from a week's motor tour of southern Ohio and Kentucky. They report a wonderful trip and were amazed at the beautiful scenes afforded at this time of the year.

Mr. McBride states that the farmers in this section should count themselves lucky, as there are many fields of wheat in some parts of southern Ohio that has not been gathered and that the ground is not even broken for the drilling of winter wheat. He also said that the oat-crop was almost a complete loss.

THE ULTIMATE AIM OF SUNDAY LAW ADVOCATES

The Sunday law advocates who appeared recently before Congress in behalf of a compulsory Sunday observance law for the District of Columbia, stated to Congressmen that they favored a civil instead of a religious Sunday law, and a law applicable only in the District of Columbia.

"But when these men talk to their own people and write for their own papers, instead of for Congressional committees, they reveal the real object they are after. The National Reform Association representative, Rev. R. H. Martin, told Congressmen they favored a civil Sabbath law, and for the District of Columbia only; but when he discusses the Sunday law issue in 'The Christian Statesman,' he says plainly that their ultimate object is to make Sunday 'a holy day' instead of a mere civil holiday; that they are seeking through legislation to impress the 'holy and sacred character' of Sunday upon the people, and that by 'securing a Sabbath law for the District of Columbia,' they propose to prevent 'the desecration of the Sabbath at our nation's capital'."

Yet they say they do not want a religious Sabbath law. But the reasons they give for the enactment of such a law are religious reasons. They are evidently laboring under the delusion that a religious institution becomes a civil institution whenever it is so christened by the courts and enforced by civil officers.

"Dr. Martin also states that the Sunday law 'issue' before Congress is practically 'a national issue before us.' Yet when we charged at the March hearings that the proponents of the Sunday bills aimed to make this sort of legislation a legal precedent for 'a national issue' instead of a District of Columbia affair, they quickly denied it."

Want to Stop Sunday Papers

A memorial from the Methodist Sabbath Crusade Committee, headed by Noah Webster Cooper, of Nashville, Tenn., favors a Sunday blue law that will stop the sale of Sunday newspapers, and the operation of Sunday trains and mails. The memorial declares that:

"Sunday newspapers and Sunday trains and their allied Sunday business—Sunday mails, Sunday express, and the like—are literally rushing our country into the domain of the devil. They operate and patronize these businesses through every day and Sunday too, are pleasing the devil just as fully as the divorce courts, the adulterers, the murderers, the thieves, the perjurers and the liquor dealers and bootleggers that now trouble our country."

The Methodists everywhere are asked to boycott all businesses that run on Sunday, and to appoint committees to work with committees of other churches and organizations to petition Congress to pass strict Sabbath laws for the District of Columbia. For, says the memorial, "Sabbath breakers have America headed straight for God's fury and destruction."

"It further states that the absence of drastic Sunday laws is the cause of the 'growth of all the crimes, and vices, and pests, and war, and high taxes—the bitter fruit of making war against God.'"

"Yet these very men who advocate these drastic laws appear before our Congressmen and to them such restrictive Sunday observance laws are not religious laws nor 'blue laws.' Perhaps they are pleased in fooling themselves into such a belief, but they will find it a difficult task to convince the general public and common sense statesmen.

Campaign of Education Needed.

"We most earnestly encourage a campaign of education which teaches reverence for the Sabbath. Churches cannot enact the Sabbath to penalize in their preaching; but when the churches launch a campaign to penalize every one under our civil codes who does not observe Sunday in harmony with Puritan strictness, or refuses to give Sunday any sacred recognition, we say that the churches have lost their way, and are perverting the divine plan as well as the Word of God.

Congress as a body has done well to turn a deaf ear to all such religious proposals and to them that petition Congress to pass strict Sabbath laws. We have the same good sense, to follow the same worthy example of noninterference in religious matters.—Liberty.

SUCCESS NOT ALWAYS MEASURED IN DOLLARS

Success cannot be measured by money standards according to John Hays Hammond, celebrated engineer who writes entertainingly in the current issue of The National Republic under the caption "Success in America—What is It?" A man of a very successful career without amassing a big fortune Mr. Hammond declares, and he continues:

"This is so because they have rendered great service in their life's work—service to the community in which they have lived—service to their fellow-benings in general—and such service is now almost universally regarded as the criterion of a successful career.

"To this class of men, success means the service to their fellow-men, the time to the intellectual, moral and social well-being of their fellow-men. It is fortunate that this conception of success so generally obtains. It is a most incentive, a noble aspiration.

"Bernard Shaw says: 'This is the true joy of life. To be used by a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one; to be thoroughly worn out before you are thrown on the scrap-heap; to be a force of nature instead of a flesh and blood; to be so absorbed in your work that you do not devote itself to making you happy.'"

UNIFORM MOTOR LAWS

The national conference of commissioners of uniform state laws has agreed upon what is known as a 'uniform motor vehicle code.' This code includes methods for the registration of cars, certificate of title and anti-theft act, uniform motor vehicle operator's and chauffeur's license act, and uniform act regulating the operation of vehicles on highways. The American Bar association has gone through the proposed uniform motor vehicle code and approved the recommendations that the class of laws agreed upon by the State Commissioners shall be approved in all states. As a result motorists will be more likely to know "where they are at" when these plans are worked out, regardless of state lines.

"GOLD" WATCHES

The government has done a good piece of business in bringing together the manufacturers of watch cases and securing an agreement from them to stop the practice which has existed since Columbus discovered America of claiming that all except silver watch cases are gold. In late years the skepticism of the American public has been met by stamping the cases with such words as "gold filled" or "gold plated." The latest way to dodge the issue is for manufacturers to stamp on the cases as "rolled gold" and "rolled gold plate." On these some of them have stamped a carat mark indicating the fineness of gold. But cases have been found which showed that three cents worth of gold alloy was used on a case that was stamped "14 carat gold filled." The Federal Trade Commission says that this method has been used simply to boost prices. Practically all of the manufacturers of men's size watch cases, and 80 per cent of the manufacturers of ladies' size watch cases have joined hands with the Federal Trade Commission in the attempt to clean up the watch case industry.

EDITORIAL

There are two methods of decision for any question—the right and the wrong. In life, it is up to the individual to decide. One decision always leads to another, and a series of seemingly small questions moulds a character into a life. Student Council Decides Rules for Alma Mater Song

In order to keep the Alma Mater Song of P. H. S. on a high standard, the Student Council passed four (4) rules, governing its use. 1. It is to be used only for school activities. 2. It is to be respected by the act of every student standing (straight) while it is being sung or played. 3. It is not to be used in such a way as to lessen the esteem due to it. 4. It is to be used only on necessary occasions, so that the respect due to it is not lessened by routine.

Lecturer, Traveler of India to Speak at School Friday

Friday, October 22, S. Ratnakar Kasmibhai Desai, Indian lecturer and traveler, will present descriptions of life in India. His material is of social interest, as he comes highly recommended from other organizations. Mr. Desai upholds the highest traditions of Brahmin culture and his lecture is a timely contribution to educational thought. A contribution of ten cents (10c) is asked of each student.

SCHEDULE FOR PLYMOUTH HI

The schedule of classes for students of Plymouth Hi, is at last settled. It has been arranged and rearranged to meet the requirements of the majority and now is apparently satisfactory. Those having conflicts are to arrange the situation with the instructors concerned. Physical education and Glee Club work is now a part of the school curriculum, and have been included in school time.

Class Room Activities

Spelling Bee Last Friday

Friday afternoon while the participants in the minstrel show did their "daily doze" the remainder of the student masses were in the Freshman room where an old-fashioned spelling bee was held. Miss Garber took charge and teams were chosen, captained by Mary Elizabeth Himes and Betty Betschreck. The side captained by the former was the winner. All through seniors, juniors and sophomores took part, a Freshman triumphed over all self-confident spellers. Miss Garber said (and we all knew) that we needed to study them.

Six Weeks' Tests Over

Last week the six weeks' tests made their debut. Students in some classes were exempt if they had grades of B or above. But in other classes, all had to take them. Now that's over and grade-cards are forthcoming.

Mistake of Expression in English Literary Test

One straggling student failing to remember exactly the verse form lampooned by the poet, wrote the words "I am a pentameter." What does he think he is?

Occupations Class Does Research Work

Mr. Jenkin's class in Occupations has been doing very clever work. The class is divided into four teams. These give reports on art, sciences, engineering, and agriculture. Each team-member gives a report on some phase of the work which his team is studying. These include an idea of the work involved in each occupation and interesting features of it. This is very interesting work for those who are yet undecided what vocation to follow.

Program to Be Presented by Public Speaking Class

Thursday and Friday of this week the class in Public Speaking will give programs. As the students have not yet acquired much self-confidence, programs will NOT be given before the public or even the whole high school. These programs will include short stories, lyrics, humorous readings, and more serious poetry. Among the numbers chosen are "Mandaly"—Kipling, "Hat"—Noyes. This shows what varied and interesting work this class is doing. It is to be hoped that enough confidence will soon be gained to enable the students to present programs to all P. H. S. and the public as well.

Freshmen to Devote Study to 'Treasure Island'

The Freshmen, under Miss Garber are studying that thrilling work of R. L. Stevenson, "Treasure Island." After they have finished reading it they will write one-act plays on parts of the story. If any unusual talent is brought out by this work, the play which is deserving of honor, may possibly be dramatized for the class.

Orythian Literary Program Postponed Until Oct. 29th

The Orythian program, concerning the sea, has been postponed until Friday, October 29. This will include many unusual numbers and we expect to be entertained by lads and ladies in sailor costume. The program committees for the programs are as follows: Orythian—James Hines, Marguerite Boardman, Emeline Fife, Helen Becker. Olesian—Betty Bachrach, Corlaine Scott, Mary E. Himes, Ruth Baldut. Keen rivalry is predicted this year between the two societies, as the talent seems equally divided. The public is always welcome to attend the programs presented.

Athletics of P. H. S. Promising So Far

Basket-ball for the boys will begin in a few weeks, with regular practice. The first game scheduled so far is with Shiloh, an old rival, for December 10. Two other schools are listed that we know of, Lucas and Madison. The entire schedule is not completed as yet, but is under way. Besides two experienced players from last year, there is some promising material to be worked up.

The masculine population of P.H.S. numbering twenty-three, (23) is learning to march. Twice a week, these students may be seen straggling down one of the village streets with an enthusiastic leader at the head of the line. At frequent intervals, he is obliged to shout directions, many times repeated. After a 45 minute workout, the participants are ready to declare that they will never be able to march again. But in a few weeks, we are expecting to see our boys 'pivot right' in a manner worthy of the approval of the most critical leader.

In addition to marching, the boys are being introduced to a course in calisthenics. This course includes setting up exercises and an occasional hike. This work is required for basket-ball.

All the girls who are out for basket-ball will meet next Tuesday for their first practice. Much enthusiasm and interest is being shown, and we expect a good showing from the girls this year. Some of our best players from last year are with us again this year so we should have a winning team throughout the season. With Miss Ice as coach there is no doubt that P. H. S. will see a better girls' team than ever before.

The girls have decided to buy new suits this year, which will somewhat resemble those of the boys. Whether this year's boys will be hard to tell whether it is the boys' or girls' team that is in action. The girls' physical education class will meet next Tuesday for their first practice. No officers were elected. The activities of this meeting consisted of a short hike. Miss Walter has charge of the girls. We know that they will be greatly benefited by these exercises.

School Minstrel Show Unusual Advancement

Extra minutes in the school curriculum have surely been appropriated during the past week. Harry S. Durington, of the John B. Rogers Producing Co., has been coaching various groups, and individual members of the High School, for the purpose of making the show, Friday and Saturday nights, a finished product. Songs full of pep to be sung by these groups are to be accompanied by plenty of amusing action, and we sure that fun will not be lacking. If we can judge by the peculiar antics of some of the 'end men,' some of Ned Wadburn's dances are being rehearsed by six of the High School. There will be solo numbers, both unusual and artistic, and color and lighting effects will also combine in making our show a success.

So all in all, we urge you to buy your ticket NOW, and thus run the risk of missing an evening's fun, or chance to support your High School.

"MY AIR CASTLE"

Water to the left of us, water to the right of us, in fact water all around us. Only white caps can be seen in the distance. It is time to begin scrubbing the desks. We are on the second deck, pants legs rolled up and in our hands are solo numbers, both unusual and fun as we begin our tasks. Suddenly, one of my fellow sailors sits down in a puddle of water. An hour later, the first dinner gong rings and we rush for our cabins to get dressed for dinner. After dinner, we have hand practice and then we are at leisure for a couple of hours. Days that we are in port we have two hours shore leave. Tonight a storm is coming up. We are far out at sea, no land in sight. The ship lurches suddenly up and out. A streak of lightning flashes through the sky in the east followed by a rumble of thunder. This continues for several minutes, then it begins to rain. The wind blows hard and rocks the boat, causing the sailors to cling to the railings. Then suddenly the sun bursts through a cloud. How impossible at twelve o'clock at night. But, it was only a squall. I found myself sitting on the old raft at the stone quarry. It had been raining but now the sun is shining and once again my air castle fades with the storm.

SCHOOL NEWS

A P. T. A. meeting is being planned for next Tuesday evening, October 25. The program will include instrumental numbers by Reb. Rosenberry, piano solo by Miss Margaret Swartz, playlet by 3rd and 4th grade, and an address by Rev. C. P. Barnes of Newark.

The school newspaper "The Tattler" will be published next week. Members of the editorial staff are working hard to make the venture a success. They do not expect it to be perfect, but they do expect to give the people of Shiloh and community news of the school. Copies sell for 5 cents each. See teacher Stutzor or Rudy Hady and order your copy.

The date for the first number of the Lyceum course "The Dixie Jubilee" Quartette will be given November 29. The numbers in the course include besides the Dixie Quartette, the Music Makers, the J. W. Frye and Co., Magicians and H. Leo Taylor, juggler. The 5th number on the course will be furnished by the school. Season tickets for adults are $1.25 and children $1.00, making each number average only 25c each. Single admissions for the five numbers would cost $2.00. So buy a season ticket and save 75c. A house to house canvass will be made within the next week.

Additional Shiloh News

Mr. and Mrs. George Watan entertained a number of their friends Wednesday evening, October 20th at their home on the county line road. Games, music and a sociable time were the diversions of the evening. The hostess served a cafeteria lunch which was certainly enjoyed by all.

A very enjoyable trip was made Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Slinmons, Mr. and Mrs. George Watan and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Rader, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Noble, Jay Noble and Dollie Pittenger motored to Sugar Creek where they intended a surprise on Mr. Jacob Glick an uncle of Mr. Rader's, but the surprise was reversed, no one was at home. They found the door unlocked and a very yawl fire inside, so the picnic baskets were unpacked and a very delicious dinner ensued.

When the picnic dinner was over, the sweet chestnut hunting and by chance came upon a coal mine. Mesdames Noble, Rader and Howard thought they would walk back a ways to the mine, but after getting back where it was dark they became afraid and did not hesitate to get back to the entrance where they could see the outside world again. However not much coal mine was seen. Footsteps were retraced to the parked autos and about four o'clock the trip home was started. All stated that the day had been a happy one.

MT. HOPE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Lehr A. McCord, Pastor

21st Sunday after Trinity, October 24th.

10 a.m. Sunday school, Ronald R. Howard, Supt. A good many members missed something special last Sunday. You miss something every time you are absent for the officers teachers are doing their best to make it worthwhile to attend Sunday school. Show your appreciation by being present every Sunday and they will be encouraged to do still more.

11:00 p.m. Morning worship with sermon by the pastor. "What can be Joseph Faith" Much that was said here concerning the Sunday School will apply as well to the service of worship as well.

Mrs. L. A. McCord and son Ross who have been with Mrs. McCord's people, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grindle, of Springfield, Ohio, returned home Tuesday evening.

The Rev. J. A. McCord assisted at the funeral services of Mrs. Ray Harterfeld, held Sunday afternoon at the London Lutheran church. The service in charge of the Rev. Mr. Gilmore of the Shelby M. E. church, was largely attended as Mr. and Mrs. Harterfeld had lived near London church until a short time ago. The deceased was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves two small boys, besides her husband.

A quiet marriage service was performed at the Lutheran parsonage last Friday morning when Ivan Arts and Gladys Miller of near Shelby both members of the London Lutheran church, were joined in the bonds of wedlock by Rev. Mr. McCord. We understand that there is another similar event on Wednesday evening of this week of which particulars are promised for next week.

Elvin P. McCord and daughter, Hazel of Sherwood, Ohio, called on their nephew and cousin, Rev. L. A. McCord, last Friday, acting as witnesses for the wedding and staying for dinner.

Girl Scout News

The Girl Scouts met for their regular meeting on Friday evening. Tender foot pins were presented to Milly King, Thelma Kerman, Helen Dick, Madeline Smith and Mary Gebert. A contest is to be started. This contest will last until Jan. 1st at which the side that is ahead will be given a party by the losers. The following schedule of credits has been agreed upon.

- New members, 10 points each.
- Passing tenderfoot test, 10 points each.
- Passing second class test, 20 points each.
- Perfect attendance at meetings, 5 points.

Perfect deportment during formation, 1 point for each girl.

After the business meeting, at which it was decided to have the election of officers once in three months, as before, games were played until closing time.

There was an attendance of nineteen, with one visitor, Miss Meade one of the public school teachers.

E. M. SEILER, Captain

A Correction

Last week's issue of The Advertiser quoted the Knights of Pythias dance as an "open affair," and that the general public was invited. We are sorry that this mistake occurred and so take pleasure in making the correction. The dance is an invitation affair and will be held Friday evening in the local hall.

Young Wife Afraid To Eat Anything

"I was afraid to eat because I always had stomach trouble afterwards. Since taking Alderika I can eat and feel fine." (signed) Mrs. A. Howard. ONE spoonful Alderika removes GAS and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling. Removes old waste matter from intestines which you never thought was in your system. Excellent for obstinate constipation.—KARL WEBBER Druggist.

Good taste and good health demand sound teeth and sweet breath.

The use of Wrigley's chewing gum after every meal takes care of this important item of personal hygiene in a delightful, refreshing way—by clearing the teeth of food particles and by helping the digestion.

The result is a sweet breath that shows care for one's self and consideration for others—both marks of refinement.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pollock, Miss Baker and Miss Moway of Mansfield were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wentland.
