

Girls to Meet Y. W. Team

Mansfield Y. W. C. A. Outfit to Play Here Friday Night

The local high school girls' team will no doubt encounter stiff opposition tomorrow night when they face the Y. W. C. A. team from Mansfield composed of former high school graduates.

Two preliminary games will be played between the two boys' teams of the Plymouth school.

Both girls' teams are said to be in excellent condition and it is predicted the score will run well evened. Games begin at 7:30 at Hamilton hall. Admission 25c and 5c.

SHALL WE DO IT?

Is Plymouth going to have a Community Christmas this year? The American Legion would like to have the names of all worthy people whom Santa may miss—in order that baskets of good things—toys and necessities may be supplied in time for Christmas. BUT the American Legion must have help. They must have money and donations to put this across. Why not dip into that fund that Plymouth has and send a load of coal to some needy family. Let's have a Community Christmas and join in with the Legion in making our needy happy.

MUST GET PERMIT

Before work can begin on repairing Trax street it is necessary for the village to issue an order authorizing the county commissioner to have the use of state machinery. It will probably take a few days before negotiations are completed.

Grading Completed

The grading of the Bucyrus road from the Crawford county line to the edge of town has been completed and if weather conditions permit the laying of crushed stone will be started at an early date.

When this road is completed it will be the shortest route from Columbus to Cleveland, and no doubt will carry heavy traffic through the spring and summer months. It is an 18-foot pike.

DOG LICENSES NOW ON SALE

Richard County Auditor, John A. Howard, makes the statement that dog owners may now secure the necessary licenses as blanks and other papers are now on hand. The last year licenses were issued for 5069 dogs in Richard county.

SOLD OUT

Fred P. Waite, who has operated a meat market in Shelby for a number of years, has sold out to Fred J. Anderson of Elyria. During the time Mr. Waite was in business he had many friends through his courtesy and effort to please the public.

RID OF KENTUCKIANS

Manager Cruzens of the Ohio Farms Co., who owns and operates a 4,000 acre tract of land near town, makes the statement that all Kentuckians have left the farm and are no longer employed. It is presumed by a number of persons that the Kentuckians are still in the employ of the company. There are quite a few families located near the Ohio Farms company, and it is probable that this caused the belief that they were employed on the farm.

ALTAR SOCIETY TO MEET

The next meeting of the St. Joseph's Altar Society will be held at the home of Mrs. D. Hancock, Jan. 12, 1927, at 2 o'clock. Every woman member of St. Joseph's Catholic church is a member of this society, and it is earnestly requested to attend this meeting. Please bring your thimble with you as a comfortor will be held, which after being finished will be donated to the Society by the Hancock family, and presented to the president to dispose of as she and her husband see fit. Either sold out right or chances sold.

There will be no lunch served, the money being used instead for lining, cotton, thread and yarn. Dec. 16-Jan. 5.

LUNCHEON AND BAZAAR

Over a hundred people enjoyed the Luncheon in the Lutheran Church Parson Tuesday. Creamed chicken with home made biscuits and pumpkin pie with whipped cream for dessert were the attractive features of the menu. During the afternoon the Ladies Aid conducted a Bazaar at which many beautiful and useful articles were sold. The children came in for their share of the enjoyment in the evening at the Fish Pond. The ladies report a profitable day.

PLAY TO BE GIVEN

A Dramatization of Dickens' Christmas Carol will be given by the Seventh and Eighth grades of the Village Schools on Tuesday evening December 21, at Hamilton Hall. Since the choir of the Lutheran Church is giving a cantata on the same evening, the play will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will last about one hour thereby permitting those who wish to attend both an opportunity. The price of admission will be the same as other entertainments given by the school, 10 and 15 cents.

MARSHAL FRIGHTENED

Dave Burkett, town marshal, is generally known for his fearlessness, but while standing in front of a coal store Tuesday night in a local restaurant, he was scared to the extent of turning red in the face and making about a 3 foot plunge when the stove gave an impromptu "puff." Dave says the only thing that was needed to finish the job was the sound of a pistol report.

FORMER PLYMOUTH PROFESSOR DIED

Word has been received in Plymouth of the death of Mr. J. L. Lasley, Tuesday, at his home in Carey, Ohio.

A number of years ago Mr. Lasley was a professor in the local high school, and will be remembered by the older residents of Plymouth.

His wife who before her marriage was Miss Molly Shoemaker was a Plymouth girl and was well and favorably known also. Their friends here will regret to learn of the professor's death.

Didn't Know She Was 75

Mrs. Sarah Moon celebrated her 75th birthday Saturday, Dec. 11, by forgetting she had one until at supper time when a member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Moon, made the discovery that Mrs. Moon was 75 years of age.

Mrs. Moon has resided in this vicinity for the past 45 years and is widely known and held in high esteem by a host of friends. She is unusually active for her age and enjoys the best of health. There are seven children living, Frank, Charles, William, John, Louis and Reuben Moon, and Mrs. Frances Myers, also Lawrence Moon, who died some years ago.

Mrs. Moon has been spending the past week with Mr. and Mrs. John Moon, east of New Haven.

The Foote Trio to Render Musical Program On Monday Night

The Lyceum Course starts on Monday Dec. 20th, at 8:00 p.m. with the Foote Trio.

You are still in time to start at the beginning of the Lyceum course. Buy your season tickets now at the local drug stores.

Hamilton Hall will be well heated all day Monday in order to insure comfort to those coming to enjoy the splendid program which will be given by the famous Foote Trio.

The musical program ranges from the classical to the lighter numbers of the day, given as solos, duets and trios. There is an interesting playlet, cleverly woven about the painting talents of Mr. Carel Pell, introducing his rapid water color sketches, and very effectively acted by him and his associates, Mr. Clifford Foote and Miss Marcella Franks.

Then follows a dainty Chinese musical comedy, given in the rich costumes of the Orient, with catchy tunes and lyrics and a delightful theme. Then comes the American Indian group of songs, also given in costume, and always unusually effective because the Indian characterizations are particularly well done. Then comes the songs of Sunny Spain, with costumes of brilliant hue, the click of the tambourine and tambourine and Spain is visualized before the eye.

PLYMOUTH'S XMAS TREE

Thanks to the thoughtfulness and kindness of the Twentieth Century and Tourist Clubs, Plymouth is to have a magnificent Christmas tree community Xmas Tree this year.

Sometime last spring the clubs conceived the idea of planting a pine tree in the triangular park on Plymouth Street, to be used as a community tree during the holidays, and also as a memorial to the clubs, as well as adding to the scenic beauty of the small park.

Since that time the tree has grown to be about 10 feet high and makes quite an attractive appearance. The clubs have now purchased a large star, to be hung directly over the top of the tree, it being too slender as yet to bear the weight.

The town is showing its co-operativeness by furnishing the power for the star to be lighted during the week between Xmas and New Years.

No plans for decorating the tree in holiday garb have been made but the general public is invited to join in and make this a real community Xmas tree in any manner they wish. Hundreds of autists going and coming thru the town no doubt will be cheered on their way by this expression of the holiday spirit.

Fords Remain Unbeaten; Another Fast Game Tonight

Over 100 Attend P.T.A. Meeting at New Haven

More than one hundred persons attended the regular monthly meeting of the New Haven P. T. A. last Tuesday evening. The program included selections by the school orchestra, vocal solos by Miss Cook and Mr. John Cook, songs by the girls and boys of the fifth and sixth grades, trombone solo by Ralph Duffy, a humorous song by a quartet of young people from Celeryville, and readings by Lucille Lofland and Miss Agnes Kuris Silliman.

The school orchestra, supported by the P. T. A. is proving a worth-while investment. The music furnished by the Celeryville community is always enjoyed. It was Miss Silliman's first appearance before a New Haven audience but we hope it will not be the last. The numbers furnished by pupils of the school were well given. The association decided to install hot lunches in the school. This is a much needed improvement. The association is also planning to buy a piano for the township hall. It was decided to change the time of the meeting to the second Friday evening of each month.

Mansfield U. B. Church to Meet Local Here On Floor Team

Tonight the Fords will meet the United Brethren from Mansfield. This is one of the fast Church League aggregations and should give a good account to itself. Come out and see a good game.

The Local Russel and Reynolds Ford Basketball Team played another game that had every one standing up and holding his breath during the last few minutes of play when they met the Blue Jackets from the Mansfield Friendly House last Thursday evening on the local floor. At the end of the first quarter the score stood even 11 to 11. In the second quarter the local cagers took a good lead. Not much scoring was done in the third frame but in the fourth the Blue Jackets broke loose and scored the ball through the basket until just two minutes before time was up the score stood; Fords 35, Blue Jackets 41. Then the Becker Brothers got busy and snapped the big pill through the hoop four times in two minutes making a final score 46 to 35. The visitors played clean snappy ball. Their passing was superb. Their chief difficulty seemed to find the basket on a strange floor. They pleased every one by their gentlemanly conduct.

Brother of Mrs. E. A. Chappell Dies at 91

Word has been received in Plymouth of the death of Mr. Cyrus Emery Russell at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Howard Stickle at Oil City, Pa., on Sunday, December 12, after illness of several days.

Mr. Russell figured in an auto accident December 1 and while at the time he seemed to suffer no serious injury, due to his advanced age, he no doubt hastened his death. Accompanied by his daughter and grand-daughter, they were motoring from Mansfield to Oil City, when the auto skidded into a nearby field turning over four times. None of the occupants received serious injuries.

Had Mr. Russell lived until February, he would have been 91 years of age. He was born in 1835. One of the remarkable features of his life was that he enjoyed an active life practice until he was 85 years old.

On March 15, 1873 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Chappell and to this union were born four children, two having preceded him in death.

He leaves to mourn his death one son, Francis E. of Urbana, Ohio, and one daughter, Mrs. Howard Stickle, with whom he made his home since the death of his wife some years ago, and three grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock and the body placed in the Mausoleum until Spring when it will be removed to Mt. Pleasant, Mich. for interment.

Mr. Russell is a brother of the late Mrs. E. A. Chappell and is well known by a large circle of Plymouth people, having visited here on numerous occasions. A poem written by Mr. Russell on his 90th birthday was published by The Advertiser in Feb. 1925.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT BELLEVUE

Fred Tyson, formerly of Plymouth, died at the family home in Bellevue late Tuesday night after a few weeks' illness.

Mr. Tyson was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Tyson and has a large circle of friends in Plymouth and vicinity having resided here a number of years.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, one son, Harry, three sisters, Mrs. J. C. Brewbaker, Mrs. Frank Smith and Mrs. Ida Jump and one brother, Mr. Frank Tyson, all of Plymouth, besides a number of nephews, nieces and cousins. Mrs. Emma Curpen of Plymouth was also a sister, and preceded her in death about 18 years ago.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at the home in Bellevue. Interment will be made in Greelawn cemetery here.

Deepest sympathy is extended the bereaved ones.

DEVELOPMENT AT MIFFLIN

A party of Mansfield capitalists has been incorporated for $100,000 and will begin extensive improvement in the vicinity of Mifflin in the early spring. Three small lakes will be turned into one large body of water, a golf course, playgrounds and other developments are to be made. It is probable that a state fish hatchery will also locate there.

Make 'Em Laugh,
The Philosophy of Hoot Gibson

A sense of humor is man's greatest possession. That is the theory at least of Hoot Gibson, and he is quite qualified to speak for his ability to view himself and his surroundings with amusement, coupled with a natural ability as an actor, an equal ability to ride any horse that ever lived and a likeable personality with it all has made him a rich and famous movie star.

But for all these things, if he hadn't possessed the sense of humor, he probably would never have risen to his present position on the screen and "The Buckaroo Kid," his latest Universal-Jewel production which is to be shown at the Shelby Opera House Monday is a splendid example of the potent results of mixing humor with western melodrama and thrills.

Hoot, even after he had won prizes as a champion rider and signed up as a Western star, probably would not have risen to any particular prominence had not his natural abilities as a comedian asserted itself.

Ray Griffith Thinks
"Clothes Make a Man"

Harold Lloyd and Charlie Chaplin have to adorn their faces before starting into work. Harold isn't himself without goggles and the same goes for Chaplin sans moustache.

Raymond Griffith, Paramount's comedy star, leaves his features alone and concentrates on the clothes he wears. Evidently having heard once upon a time that "clothes make the man," Ray has adopted a silk hat as standard equipment. In addition to this, he usually wears a natty cravat, cutaway coat, patent leather shoes and spats.

This, it is believed, is the world's hardest costume to wear and still be funny. Why? The minute it loses its freshness and spotlessness, a new outfit has to be bought and put on. But while wearing it, Raymond Griffith has developed to such an extent that he is now a full fledged star with a producing unit of his own.

When one of the Griffith pictures is announced, both exhibitors and public alike, welcome it with open arms. "Wet Paint," the latest Griffith comedy, arrives at the Shelby Opera House Saturday, and if advance reports can be taken as meaning much, it promises to be better than anything the comedian has yet done.

Extra! Bebe Acquires Cement
Complexion Down Floriday Way

Bebe Daniels never wants to see another bag of cement. The greater the distance between her and all dry forms of this building material, the better she will like it.

Her aversion dates back to a recent experience in Biscayne Bay, about 1,000 yards east of the municipal pier of Miami. Director Erle Kenton, during the filming of Miss Daniels' new starring picture for Paramount, "The Palm Beach Girl," needed a flat barge for his cameras, so that the waves from the speed boats used in the scenes would not injure the photography. He spotted a barge tied to a tramp steamer, from which was being

The Ironrite DuFold Ironer

IS THE MACHINE YOU HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR. BOTH ENDS OF ROLL AND SHOE ARE OPEN. SOMETHING HERETOFORE THOUGHT IMPOSSIBLE.

Not a big, heavy, bulky ironing machine, but a small neat compact ironer, yet large enough for the largest family. When not in use it folds into a dust proof cabinet.

The Ironrite DuFOLD IRONER gives to you all that any other Ironer Can Give You Plus Many More Features.

Race control so that both hands are free to guide the garments. Underfed so that you can see the garments as they are ironed and to carry away the moisture or steam to the rear of the machine instead of to the front or under the feed board. The highly polished alloy metal feed board does not become sticky from heat or moisture which tends to slow down rapid ironing.

We cannot attempt to do justice to this wonderful labor and space saving machine with mere words. We cannot describe its ease of operation, its compactness, and its remarkably fine work.

OUR FREE TRIAL OFFER

If you have been under the impression that electric ironers are difficult to operate, and are too bulky and unwieldy for the home, you will be agreeably surprised when you see the IRONRITE DUFOLD demounted. Call or phone us when your next ironing is ready and we will send an IRONRITE DUFOLD to your home on free trial. more than two years ago, while making a personal appearance in Pittsburgh, and placed him in a wheel chair.

Now—strangely enough, it has made that same wheel chair the medium of his return to the studio.

The "grand old man of the screen" Cigar and all, is back in pictures. He comes to the Shelby Opera House Sunday in "The Cat's Pajamas," starring Betty Bronson and Ricardo Cortez—in a wheel chair!

Betty's role is that of a girl, working in a fashionable New York gown establishment to support her invalid father. Cortez plays a temperamental opera singer, pursued by admiring women, one of whom is Arlette Marchal, magnificent French actress whose last appearance took place in "Born to the West."

unloaded thousands of bags of cement. The captain gave him permission to use this.

Miss Daniels was seated in the stern of a motorboat which conveyed the camera equipment out to the barge. She sat there while the cameras were being hoisted to the barge, waited for them to focus, and got the speed boats tused up.

In the meantime a derick was dropping the cement bags into the barge above her head in bunches of a hundred or more at a time. A brown cloud of dust was blowing landward.

Five Thousand Enter Hospital Each Year

Editor's Note—This is the first of a series of articles that will appear each week in this newspaper dealing with Ohio's problem of increasing insanity. These articles are sponsored by the Ohio Association for the Welfare of the Mentally Sick, which, has but one objective, namely, more scientific and more humane treatment of mentally sick patients in state hospitals and the rapid rehabilitation of these unfortunate.

Behind the gray walls of 300 asylums in the United States (eight in Ohio) today will be found 300,000 persons who were respected members of society yesterday. Sixty years ago, there were in the United States only 60,000, but in the last 40 years this number has been multiplied again and again, all out of proportion to the regular increase in population.

If you were to visit one of these asylums, go back on to the ward and sit there for an hour attempting to absorb the whole atmosphere, you would realize that these mentally sick brothers and sisters of ours are indeed "God's most neglected people."

DUE TO SOME DISORDER.
And yet the only difference between the man or woman who is mentally sick and you is that he has suffered from some disorder which has caused his mind or soul to be unable able to express itself, as you do, in words and actions.

The lunatic is not a representative of any particular group. There are as many doctors among the lunatics as there doctors in society, proportionally; so, likewise, there are as many lawyers, ministers, business men, laborers as there are proportionally those same classes in society. Neither is the lunatic illiterate, for there are as many college graduates, high school graduates and common school graduates in our state institutions for the insane as there are proportionally college graduates, high school graduates in society. Likewise, there are as many men and women in our state institutions as there are proportionally men and women in society.

CROSS SECTION OF SOCIETY.
Our state hospitals, then, encompass within their walls a cross section of society, but very seldom do we find two members of the same family in any given institution. Occasionally, it is true that we find one or more members from a given family, but it is very, very exceptional. Twenty-five per cent of these so-called lunatics give a history of having some mental or nervous disorder in the family tree, while 75 per cent give no such history.

There are being admitted annually into the state hospitals of the United States 125,000 people who pass from citizenship to lunatics every year. About 3,000 are from citizenship to lunacy in Ohio annually.

THE ASSOCIATION'S PURPOSE.
The general apathy now present in society on this great problem is truly indicative of our lack of information on the subject. To enlist the interest of the people of this state in lunacy is the object of the Ohio Association for the Welfare of the Mentally Sick, under whose auspices these articles are being written.

The primal object of these heart-to-heart talks will be that of first showing that the person who is mentally sick is human; secondly, that he is sick, and third, that as a sick man he must be given every care and consideration that our present-day knowledge permits.

REMOVED TO HOSPITAL.
Mrs. Sarah McIntire was removed to the Shelby Hospital, Tuesday morning in the Postle Invald Coach. Mrs. McIntire underwent a x-ray examination to determine whether or not her hip was fractured due to a fall on Monday morning.

RUTLEDGE, MURDER TRIAL THIS MONTH
Judge Carpenter has Decided to Start this trial December 28.

Clayton Rutledge, colored, of Willard is under indictment for first degree murder in killing James Smith, another colored man of Willard by stabbing and slaying.

Thursday morning Rutledge was brought into court and entered a plea of not guilty, whereupon the court fixed the date of trial for early as it well could be taken up, December 28.

The murder was a result of a quarrel over cards, Mr. Smith objecting to card games in his home. Smith was terribly cut and almost disemboweled. Prosecutor E. G. Martin will represent the state in the trial and Young & Young will defend the prisoner.

Charles Johnson, also colored, is under indictment for participation in this stabbing affray, it being alleged that he held Smith while Rutledge did the stabbing. It was said that the slain man was holding his own against Rutledge until Johnson took a hand.

LIBRARY BOARD CHRISTMAS PARTY

Last Thursday, the members of the library board met at the home of Mrs. Hershel for their Christmas party. Decorations appropriate to the season had been placed about the house. The centerpiece of the luncheon table was a Christmas tree.

At one o'clock a delicious three course luncheon was served to the seven board members. The afternoon was occupied by games and contests of various sorts. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. BeVier. Mrs. Davis read a story of Santa Claus at the North Pole. Then the hostess assisted by little Gene BeVier, distributed the Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Doyle will be hostess to the members at their next meeting, which will occur in January.

LUTHERAN CHURCH
 REV. A. M. HIMES, Pastor
 Sunday, December 19, 1926.

10:00 a.m. Sunday School. Lesson "The Saviour's Birth"

11 a.m. Morning Worship. "The Peace of God."

"Keep these dates in mind!"

Tuesday evening, December 21. The Church Choir will offer a Christmas Cantata entitled "Peace on Earth" by E. K. Heysler. The choir has been hard at work preparing the solos, duets, quartets and choruses of this beautiful cantata. The entire evening will be devoted to music. There will be no admission and no offering. This is the choir's contribution to the Community's Christmas spirit.

Friday evening, December 24. The Sunday School will give its Christmas Program. There will be recitations, songs and exercises by the primary and intermediate departments. The young people will put on a Christmas number entitled "A Night in the Orient," the Christmas story in word and song.

RINGING OF CIRCUS FAME DIES SUDDENLY IN FLORIDA

Charles Ringling, circus man, financier and railroad builder, died at his home Saturday in Barabota, Fla., after a short illness of a few weeks. Death was unexpected as physicians believed he was recovering from a heart attack. Charles Ringling was one of the famous Ringling brothers who organized a wagon show several years ago, later developing into one of the world's largest circuses.

Our Weekly Sermonette

(By Dr. G. R. Monte)

Unconscious Drifting Is Dangerous.

Life has been compared again and again to a fast flowing river, and as such it never returns to its beginning but keeps flowing down the valley until it is lost in the great sea of eternity.

The students of social and moral conditions of the race will agree with me that the general trend of life's stream is not toward God, but rather in the opposite direction.

The general environment and condition of our advanced life, are not very conducive to an unflinching faith. Any young man and woman will bear testimony that when once removed from home surroundings and home restraints, life's stream rather leads away from the sanctuary of the living God, than toward him. There are so many powerful currents in the stream of life, retarding our spiritual advancement, that if any young person wishes to succeed in life, if the desire of the soul is really Godward, a firm resolution must be fostered to breast the current. There is a peculiar social atmosphere, certain intellectual problems, acting upon the very elect at times, that the question springs up whether or not the nominal Christian, one who attends Church in the morning and the Movies at night, is drifting unconsciously away from God. Is my idea of Sabbath observance puritanically wrong, are the foundations laid by godly parents as to what constitutes real Religion erroneous? I do not believe that they intended to mislead us and endanger our eternal welfare, disappoint us, defeat us in the game of life.

Drifting with the tide is of deadly peril to any one who does not exercise enough will power to keep in the right channel; for after all has been said pro and con it would be folly to deny that Religion is not a certain posture of the worshippers, nor a belief in orthodox creed, but rather the attitude of the soul toward the great I am that I am.

I can not make myself believe that observance of all the rites and ceremonies a church may prescribe will save a soul, only personal contact with the living Christ can impart life. There is danger that strict observance of doctrinal ceremonies will blind the soul as to God's real demand respecting our helplessness and sinful condition. Let us breast the storm of criticism and worldliness, lest we drift with the tide, away from God.

WOMEN INVADE

SMOKING CAR
CHICAGO.—Women are invading the smoking cars of the Illinois Central's new electric trains in such numbers that men are complaining to the railroad management.

One of the complainants, a University of Chicago professor, reported that he had counted thirty-two women in a crowded smoker.

He and the other men protested so vigorously that officers of the railroad may have to find a way to preserve the smokers' sanctity.

All the women do not come into the smoker to smoke, according to one complainant.

He pointed out that only one in twenty light up after taking a smoker seat.

Men have to stand up or go into other cars. If they stay to smoke they are glared at.

Girl Scout News

The ladies of the Tourist Club invited the Plymouth troop to be present at their annual Christmas party, which was held at the home of Mrs. Walker on Monday evening. Eighteen girls with Capt. Sells and Lieut. Jenkins were present. The troop contributed to the entertainment by singing several Christmas carols and recitations were given by Scouts Zella Ruckman, Phyllis Mumaw and Jane Bachrach, and a reading by Lieut. Jenkins. Santa Claus had not forgotten the young guests of the club and there was a gift for each of them and a Christmas wreath, and something for both the captain and lieutenant as well.

This week the regular Scout meeting will be held on Friday evening as usual, but after this the time will be changed to Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock as basket ball and other activities have conflicted with the Friday evening hour.

Annual Xmas Party

The holiday spirit of good cheer and happiness prevailed at the annual Xmas party of the Friendship Class of the Methodist church held Tuesday evening at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Holtz on North street. Christmas bells, wreaths and crepe paper artistically arranged together with a Christmas tree glistening with its many ornaments added to the festivity of the occasion.

Forty-eight members and guests enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses who were Mesdames S. S. Holtz, Geo. Ervin, Frank Morrow, Mrs. Pigley, Ira Haindel, and Mrs. Nye.

Roll call was responded with Christmas scripture verses and following a short business session, the evening was taken up with radio music and a program consisting of readings, songs and both vocal and instrumental music.

The quartet composed of Mesdames Mary Price, Davis and Phillips rendered a very pretty number. Miss Mary Becker favored her audience with several piano solos, while Mrs. Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Gleason and Miss May Fleming read appropriate Xmas stories.

As the annual Xmas exchange is in progress, the Xmas spirit was present in the scene with his pack of Christmas packages and every guest was present.

PIE AND ADVICE
 By W. H. Fetters

Every body has a liking.
 It is true of human race,
 Changed my mind many times,
 But have retained a pie face.

When hungry can eat anything
 Since a boy, I never forgot,
 To make it all taste better,
 The pie has a special spot.

I am now past sixty,
 And just a little bit,
 I always liked my pie,
 And will take a piece yet.

As our families get larger
 And we eat our meals in haste, Mother cuts the pie in more pieces,
 And we scarcely get a taste.

I hope the time never comes
 When pie won't taste good,
 I am sure I will not desire,
 Any other kind of food.

Before I popped the question
 To be sure I was just right,
 I managed to eat a pie she baked
 It was relished with delight.

Since then she has baked many
 Not a gainst my will,
 She never had to junk them
 They tasted so good to Bill.

The trouble in marriage,
 As I see it in this day,
 The Mother does the baking,
 While Daughter, the piano play

Soon after the marriage,
 Comes the real proof and test,
 She cannot even bake or cook
 Or care for their little nest.

Here an important question,
 I will answer it, or try,
 Before you pop the question,
 Try her cooking, and a pie.

If not fully satisfied
 Before you close the deal,
 Call again when mother is gone,
 And stay for another meal.

GROW BLACK WALNUT TREES

A valuable tip to farmers in the upland hill sections of the South, the Ohio River basin, and the Central Mississippi regions, has been issued by the United States Forest Service. The Bureau advises farmers to plant a bushel of black walnuts this fall. It says that it will prove a good investment. There are about 1,500 nuts in a bushel, and the farmers are told to plant them about two inches deep in waste strips, in corners or along fence rows. The bulletin on the subject goes on to say that the walnut is a tree that requires good soil and the land it should be planted in shallow, dry or poor land. If hogs or squirrels are running over the land the nuts should be buried in a soil pit or kept in a damp cellar until spring and then planted.

Walnuts is one of the two finest cabinet woods known to the world, and it is widely known that logs or stumps have a market value of from $150 to $200 a thousand feet.

CHRISTMAS
By W. H. Fetters

What would you like for Christmas?
The time is drawing so near.
Can think of so much needed,
And no money to buy, O dear.

Had I the means of so many,
Many hearts I could make glad,
But my present circumstances
It makes me feel so sad.

More blessed to give than receive,
Is a saying of the Bible so true,
Owing to my limited possession,
I see but little good I can do.

It keeps so many of us guessing,
To pay our bills and live,
We will have to choose the latter,
Say better receive, than give.

One thing about Christmas,
It comes at a time of the year,
When business is the dulllest,
And everything so dear.

In receiving of the presents,
This fact do bear in mind,
The friends who remember us,
Are certainly good and kind.

How many set at your table,
Loaded with the best food,
And eat until in misery,
Because it tastes so good.

Do you think of the hungry,
Of the many suffering cold,
If they had what you waste,
A different story might be told.

If we all possessed an abundance,
And enjoyed the pleasure of thrift,
We might do ourselves an injury,
Better be humble, appreciate a gift.

We should keep this day sacred,
We know how it got the name,
The sacrifice was for humanity,
Out of love, and not for fame.

Weather
Snow for Xmas.

May your holiday season
be a happy one!

EDITORIAL

At this time of year, the Holiday season of Xmas and New Year's, a discussion usually arises, over-writing the Christmas Spirit of the Past and Present. As to every question, there are two sides. One argument is, that in this modern world of rush and worry, the good old Christmas feeling is dying out, and in its place steps the attitude of the Spirit of Give and Take. Urged on by the affairs of the day and business, the modernists refuse to stop only for a short time of common pleasure.

The other side is stated thus; that even in this day of the modern Era, there is still the sacred spirit of Christmas; that the world is not as bad as it appears; that the old ideals have been continued and adopted in new form.

The question, which after all, must be finally settled by the individual, is not so prodigious as it would at first seem. Perhaps it can be satisfactorily answered by the opinion of the Youth of Today.

If you were to ask any average student who thinks for himself, for the decision, is this not the answer, you would receive?

"In the hearts of youth there is a feeling of reverence, towards the sacredness of the Christ season. The remembrance of the first Christmas brings a quiet and peace as ever before. Self is forgotten."

Is not this the Spirit of Christmas, that lives today as it has always lived?

Parodies to Be Presented By English Lit. Class

Sometime after the holidays, Miss Gooding's class in English Literature will entertain the High School with parodies on the works of various English authors. These burlesques will be worked out by the students themselves. It may be possible to use costumes and settings for stage settings.
At any rate, they should be unusual and entertaining. Some of the works now under discussion are: Jonson's "Silent Woman," Marlowe's "Passionate Shepherd in His Love" and Dickens' "Oliver Twist."

New Classics Studied In Miss Garber's Classes

The Sophomore English class, having completed their study of "Lady of the Lake" have turned to George Elliot's "Silas Marner." The Freshmen are now industriously and assiduously reading "The Ancient Mariner." At least it is to be hoped that they attack it in such a manner.

Special Edition of P. H. S.
Post to be Issued Jan. 14

During the week of Jan. 14, a special edition of the P. H. S. Post, will be published, separate from the weekly Advertiser. This is our first attempt in this line, but we're going to do our best to make it a success.

A review of the past semester will be presented including Basketball, Literary Work, advancement in class work, as well as plans for the next four months work.

We are asking the Public for cooperation in advertising and circulation, as that is necessary for any success. If you are interested in your school, show your attitude by the cooperation we ask you.

If this experiment proves to be the success we hope for a second separate edition will be published at the close of the school year.

Public Speaking Class Turns to Debates

Such questions as the advantages and disadvantages of the styles in woman's dress today as compared to other times; the comparison of auto travel and electric and steam transportation; and such like have been discussed pro and con by this group of students. The two questions mentioned were quite hotly debated, the now and then the humorous side would crop out.

News of Junior High

The Seventh Grade held an interesting party in the Home Ec. room on Wednesday, Dec. 8. At the close the lunch served was as follows: Sandwiches, pickles, hot chocolate and cake.

New seating arrangements have been planned and the one possessing the highest grade occupies the honor seat for six weeks. Every one is of course striving to bring their grades up and to keep them there.

CHRISTMAS PLAY

A Christmas play is to be given by the Seventh and Eighth Grades, entitled "Dickens Christmas Carol." It will be presented in Hamilton Hall.
Exact date will be published in a few days. A small admission will be charged.

PLYMOUTH SHARES DOUBLE
BILL WITH SHILOH HIGH

The week-end proved another opportunity for basket ball fans to see the teams of P. H. S. in action.

Thursday night the local quintet met the country lads of Weller Township and due to the failure to get the ball into the basket they came out on the small end of a 20 to 12 score.
However, the boys played a good clean game and showed the prospects of a winning team later in the season.

The line up was as follows:
Myers c.
Hatch l.f.
Hills r.f.
Root r.r.
Lebold l.g.

Substitutes were Cramer for Hills,
Hills for Cramer, Cramer for Myers, Bechack for Hatch, Hatch for Cramer.

Friday night both the boys and the girls journeyed to Shion and divided a double bill. In the preliminary contest the Plymouth girls outplayed their old rivals and came out on the long end of a 16 to 14 score. Captain Becker was the outstanding star of the game, scoring 12 points. Fate and Sheely shared the forward honors with a basket each. On the defensive end of the team Steele, Straub, and Hale played a good brand of basketball.

The line up was:
Myers c.
Becker f.
Frome f.
Sheely f.
Steele g.
Straub g.
Hale g.

Moser was the high scorer for the Shiloh team.
In the last half of the game Fate substituted for Frome.
The boys were not as fortunate as the girls for they were sadly defeated.

We're wishing you a Merry
Xmas and a Happy
New Year!

Although they played good they were outclassed, in every point by the Shiloh team and when the game ended the score stood, Shiloh 43, Plymouth 12.

The line up was:
Myers c.
Hills l.f.
Hatch l.f.
Lebold l.g.
Root r.r.
Cramer substituted for Myers.
The Shiloh line-up was.

RUGS
Ed. Channing vs State
Ed Channing, who recently tried to secure a new trial on grounds of error, was recently turned down by the circuit court and below is the finding of this tribunal.
Edward Channing was indicted and charged with the offense of forcibly breaking and entering into a certain dwelling house of C. E. Heath with intent to commit a felony upon Nora Dorian, by unlawfully and purposely attempting to commit rape on said Nora Dorian.
Channing, in the Richland Common Pleas, pleaded not guilty. He was placed on trial and found guilty of said charge, and was sentenced according to law. Error was piped out from this judgment of conviction and it was claimed that the indictment which was predicted on 12437 GC. was faulty and invalid because it undertook to prescribe what is not a felony nor a crime in this state. It was also claimed that the particular felony alleged to have been committed is fatally defective because the pleader alleged that Channing "attempted to commit rape on said Nora Dorian," and it is argued that no such crime as an attempt to commit rape exists in Ohio. The Court of Appeals held:
1. Sec. 12437 GC. provides that one maliciously and forcibly breaking and entering an inhabited dwelling house in the night season to commit a felony shall be imprisoned, etc. If an indictment under this section so charges, it charges a crime without any description of what the person charged did after entering a dwelling house.

2. It was sufficient therefore to allege that Channing so entered a dwelling house to commit a felony for an avowment in the language of the statute that the accused attempted to break and enter with intent to commit a felony is sufficiently definite and from the very nature of things in many instances, such intent could not be more particularly or certainly stated." 80 OS. 351 at 362

3. Had the pleader stopped after reciting that the breaking and entering was to commit a felony, there is no doubt but that a good and valid offense under the statute would have been alleged.

4. As to the contention of Channing that he was charged with "an attempt to rape," 90 OS. 196 holds that under 12415 an attempt to commit the offense defined by 12414 GC. is an all of Mansfield.

MOORE'S HEATERS offense.
5. But whether this allegation was a mistake or otherwise, the view taken in this case would render this avowment immaterial.
Judgment affirmed.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
W. H. GIBSON, Pastor

A two weeks meeting at New Haven closed Sunday night. While interest was not up to expectation, those who attended were blest in their effort. Sickness in some of our homes made it impossible, and the lateness of corn harvest prevented others. The splendid service rendered by members of the Plymouth choir was greatly appreciated.

We awoke this morning to the fact that Christmas is but a few days off and much to do before the glad day arrives.

The choir will render a Christmas Cantata on Sunday evening, next Dec. 19, and the regular program will be given on Wednesday evening, Dec. 22. The White Gift offering will be divided between the Elvira Home for the Aged, and the Children's Home at Worthington. These are worthy institutions caring for the helpless little ones who are beginning life with a serious handicap, and the aged, who are at the sunset of life, waiting in the twilight for the call hence. What could appeal to our sense of responsibility more than these worthy causes. The White Gift represents our kindly feeling toward the helpless at the beginning and close of life's journey. So, may we not lay aside a generous offering in money for this occasion.

The usual morning worship and sermon at Plymouth at 11:00, Bible School at 10:00 and the Cantata in the evening at 7:30.

Mrs. Don McVivker, accompanied by her father, were at home in Plymouth, O., over the week-end. Mrs. McVivker will continue teaching in the home school for the term. Mr. Mc-

Vivker has a position with the Fair-Road-Heath Co.

The New Haven ladies visited the Parsons on Thursday of last week and helped Mrs. Gibson on her quilt. They brought their baskets, and a sumptuous dinner was served at noon. Mrs. Frank Kenenrick was a guest for the day. Mrs. Gibson desires to thank the good ladies, both of New Haven and Plymouth, who have been so splendid in helping her with her quilt. Quits a number have "put in a stitch," and she has enjoyed the social part fully as much as the work.

Unless something prevents, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will spend Christmas with their daughter and family, in Toledo. Mr. Gibson will return Saturday night, to be here to preach at New Haven and Plymouth on Sunday, 26.

TRIAL STARTS DEC. 20

George W. Thoma, will go on trial Monday Dec. 20 for the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Nettie Greenwald, Mansfield residents. Thoma is indicted on charge of first degree murder and is being held without bond in the county jail. This trial will give Richland county people to hear the fourth murder case inside of a year.

Faulty Elimination

Should Be Corrected—Good Elimination Is Essential to Good Health.

If you would be well, see to your elimination. Faulty kidney action permits toxic material to remain in the blood and upset the whole system. Then, one is apt to have a tired, languid feeling and, sometimes, a toxic backache or headache, and often some irregularity of secretions, such as scanty or burning passages. More and more people are appreciating the value of Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, in this condition. For more than forty years Doan's have been winning favor the country over.
