

Lizzie Takes Us Home

Experiences Encountered On An Overland Trip From Florida BY ELSA M. SEILER

Chapter 17—More Troubles
The next morning we rose early and when I stepped out on the little porch outside our room I had a beautiful view of the sunrise. The little brook was singing on its way and I could hear the sheep and cows from where I stood, calling for breakfast.

We went downstairs and had breakfast, cereal, bread, coffee, pancakes with maple syrup and fried eggs. After breakfast we packed up, gave Bob some breakfast, the gift of our host Lizzie's radiator, and started out. The wind was cold, but we were dressed warmly, and we hoped to be well on our way toward home before night, but as it used to say in the films "nobody was ready for us."

We drove on over hills and before long reached Elkriver, where we stopped to have Lizzie's oil drained and repaired. Evidently there had been a game of cards at the filling station in the back room the night before, and I missed myself when I was solitary while Lizzie was getting her drink.

We drove on and soon the sun came out, and if it had not been for the attention we attracted, as people turned and looked at us out of the back window of their cars, we would have enjoyed ourselves immensely. We seemed to be attracting a great deal of attention, and we concluded it was our Florida license, and the baggage we carried. I began to feel as though we were freaks, or traveling oddities, and the way the natives stared.

We were just approaching the village of Garret, when a most uncanny sound began to issue from Lizzie's "inards." I said to the Boss, "Great Scott, what is that?" and he replied that it did not sound, but added that he thought it would be well to find out. Lizzie's insides clanked in a dreadful manner, and as we were within a hundred feet of a garage we stopped and got the mechanic out to see what was the trouble.

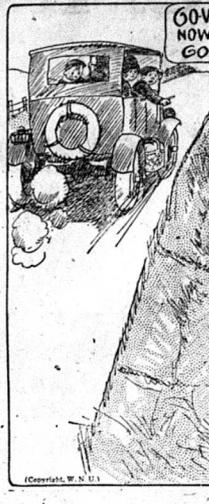

They hauled poor old Lizzie into the garage and at first said it was a connecting shaft, which was nearly an all day job to repair.

There was no use crying, and we were lucky to get the car started. The Sun dogs had been a little more pleasant. I took Bo and went into the garage office, and a small boy was told to start a fire in the stove. It was in the soft coal region and everything was covered with coal dust. He hid down behind the stove, and we went to sleep after I had shoed away a couple of small boys who wanted to play with his ears, and I sat down in the only chair the place afforded. I prepared to kill some time.

I had nothing to read, and there was not so much as a hand bill in the office. I sat there for a while, and from the way the small boy stuck to me, I first thought it was the case of love at first sight, however, he was no restless, and would pick up some drops that fell with a crash that made me jump, and the rest of the time he occupied between the window and the coal bucket, where he would spit, as he was chewing tobacco, and it finally dawned on me that he had put there to watch me, for fear I would walk off with the garage, or part of it.

I thought I would relieve him for a while and said that I would take a walk into the town. I started out and that town could be said to have a heart. There was an abandoned hotel one bank, a railway station, a drug store, and a couple of groceries, and the only thing open was the station. I went over there and tried to travel, but the American Express traveler's checks I carried but I tried they did not have any money. I told the grocery which had just opened and they looked at me as though I was trying to work a solid brick off on them, and finally finding the drug store empty, and seeing I prevailed on him to open the store, and sell me a magazine, and after some talk he said he would "take a chance" and cash my

Ohio State Camp Meet To Be Held at Mount Vernon August 5 to 15

Of all the great religious meetings held in our state through the summer season, there is none of greater importance. The Ohio State Camp Meeting, which is held in Mount Vernon, Ohio, is one of the greatest religious gatherings in our country. People come from hundreds of miles to be in this great meeting. The singing from this meeting choir catches every ear and inspires every soul. Many say the young peoples meeting is the greatest they have ever seen. Three hundred tents, several large buildings with from 25 to 36 rooms nicely care for several thousand people. A fine artesian well, a large boarding hall, full free salvation and a great spirit of good fellowship brings encouragement to everyone. Hundreds of people who attend for the first time plan at once to attend the following year.

LET'S DO IT

Of course everyone who enjoys the band concerts are appreciative, but do we express any appreciation? It has been very noticeable during the past few concerts that very few applaud after the selection.

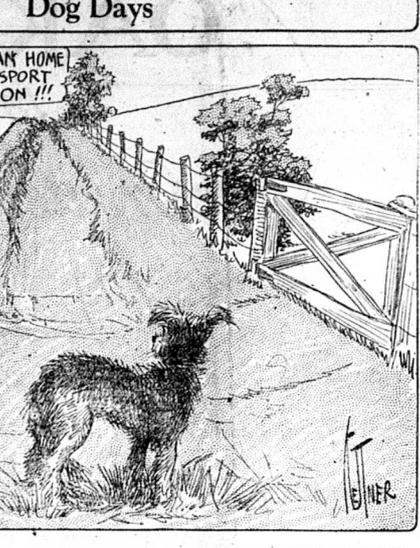

Now, you people who love good music, let's not forget to give the band boys a hearty applause in the future. It makes them feel that you are appreciative, and it is the only way they will ever know.

DIVORCE RECORDS SHOW NO CHANGE

Huron county's rather unfavorable divorce record shows no improvement. If anything, the percentage of divorces is increasing. Since the first of the month, eight divorce suits have been commenced in Norwalk. The common pleas court obviously has adopted a new policy in the handling of divorce cases. Judge Irvin Carpenter has instructed the court stenographer Rex Bracy to take testimony in unconfessed cases. The assertion is made that those found guilty of giving perjured testimony will be liable to prosecution.

Essay Tells How Declaration Has Helped Influence World

The winning essay for Richard county was written by Marguerite L. Boardman in a contest held recently by the Ohio Sesqui-Centennial. The essay, upon which she will be found unusually interesting: HOW HAS THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE INFLUENCED THE WORLD? Marguerite L. Boardman

It has been stated by Charles Bancroft in "Footprints of Time" that on July 4, 1776, the thirteen United Colonies gave an immortal state paper, the Declaration of Independence to the world. More universal than any pertaining to the new nation; it is representative of the ideals of any race under tyranny, of dreams of those suffering for freedom.

Primarily, the Declaration gave to the world a new country, built on the principles of Democracy and God, and which has manifested the influence in its leadership of society, politics, business and religion. And thought expressed in that paper inspire progress in the nation today.

The Declaration of Independence advanced two radical principles, new to the belief of that age. 1. It destroyed their age of "Divine Right of Kings." 2. Proclaimed equality of humanity; the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

As all life and advance in the world today old restrictions abuses return in new form. The one sure answer to these wrongs is found in the truths expressed in the liberty doctrine. "People have been made to realize the equality of all, in the eyes of the law and in the opportunities offered to life. These joys and always shall be, minds like that of George III, endeavoring to impose will and authority upon others, but always has the Declaration proved its influence by conforming them with the existing government.

Governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. People are forced to see the importance of respect to equality of mankind. (1) The observance of sacred honor (2) Through the principles of the Declaration, and their influence every phase of life that obedience. Because of it, the importance of obedience to law is emphasized. All rights are based on that obedience. It affirms "the prompter the obedience to the spirit of the law, the less the need for laws of restraint. The world is listening and observing that declaration of law.

The Civil War of the United States proved the influence on the American people of the Nineteenth century. It was influential in giving to the slave a free standing among mankind, by the statement "that all men are created equal" the statement Lincoln immortalized. And following the Civil War, the influence of Democracy shown in the settlement of the West, by the people of the Nineteenth century. The Declaration of Independence has been an incentive to the declaration of rights made by many nations of the world. It began a general movement in favor of republics and self-government. Seeing that the United States of America, has proclaimed successfully the new doctrine, and correcting the result of such action on their part, colonies and monarchies then took the step that led them to the right to self-government. People, who had been Marches and Popular Numbers Will Please Music Lovers.

The regular program will be given here next Saturday night beginning at 8 o'clock by the Reformers band. The concert last week drew many comments, and much praise was expressed for the musicians.

When Bandmaster Beemer picks up the baton at 8 o'clock local music pours forth for one and one-half hours. Several specialties are given during the program. Following are the numbers for the concert Saturday night: National Emblem March - Basley Light Guard; March - Gibson; Poet and Peasant Overture - Suppe; Songs from the Old Folks Selection - Lake; Boston Common March - Carter; Our Glorious Flag March - Oberauer; Sweet Home - Popple; Gems from the Overtures - Grand Opera; Enchanted Night - Waltz Selection; Devout - Herzig; Napoleon's Last Chariot - descriptive march - Paul; Stars and Stripes March - Sousa; Star Spangled Banner - Ke.

Two Fined $1,000 Each For Possessing Liquor

Steve Tegolich was fined $1,000 and costs by Mayor E. K. McCormick at Willard Saturday night on a charge of possessing liquor. Deputy Sheriff Frank Adelman and County Road officer Harley Vinson working with state agents conducted the raid at the home of Tegolich about a mile south of Willard on the New Haven road. It was necessary to force entry into the house where two pints of whiskey and several other glasses were found. Later Adelman decided to stage another search which revealed 14 quarts under the floor behind a trunk in an upper room. Tegolich conducts a gasoline filling station on the highway in the second edition. In Probate Judge Bechtel's court Saturday morning Anthony Dammiller, who lives south of Havana on the Willard road was fined $1,000 and costs for possessing liquor. It is said that Dammiller has been selling liquor to youths. A gallon was found when the raid was made by officers.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Phillips and family were most pleasantly surprised last Friday evening when a large number of friends in the neighborhood gathered at their home. The affair was in the nature of a farewell party. The Phillips family has resided in this city for a number of years, and also conducted a filling station for the past year which was recently vacated.

They have enjoyed the friendship and sociability of the entire neighborhood, and although they will still reside in Plymouth for the present, their friends regret to see them leave. Their surprise, the family proved charming hosts and hostesses and a social evening enjoyed by all. A dining luncheon was served at a seasonable hour and later were presented with a conside set.

TEBBE TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION

HAS BEEN CONNECTED WITH LOCAL PLANT FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS

After serving eleven and one-half years as assistant treasurer of the Fate-Roth Health Co. Mr. C. E. Tebbe has tendered his resignation to become effective Aug. 1.

Mr. Tebbe states that his future location is not certain, but that the probability of his return to Cleveland with his family, where they were born, is not far off.

Mr. and Mrs. Tebbe have made friends who will try to hear that the wife will make Plymouth their home, but wish for them the best of success in their new location.

6 Present at C of C Dinner Tuesday Eve.

Officials of A. C. & Y. Were Guests of Chamber of Commerce.

Characterizing to the fullest, the monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was one of friendliness and sociability, when about 67 representative citizens of Plymouth and officials of The Akron, Canton and Youngstown Railway gathered for a banquet held at the chamber rooms Tuesday night.

The affair was pleasing in every respect, and the many features throughout the evening proved very enjoyable. Musical numbers were given by Rex Himes and his orchestra, the sumptuous dinner served by ladies of the Lutheran Church, and addresses by visiting officials proved delightful to those in attendance. President Brown, who presided, made known the program committee, turning the evening over to Mrs. J. L. Pickens, who introduced the A. C. & Y. railroad officials. Several short talks were made by L. L. Garner, vice-president, M. H. Hines, general agent, and President S. J. Witt, general freight agent who delivered a most interesting address on the subject of Watkins, freight solicitor and J. L. Soykowski, industrial agent, were also present.

SHOULDER BROKEN WHEN CAUGHT IN HUGE FLY WHEEL

YOUNG MAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE ON LAKE BOAT

Clarence Gregory of Sandusky, an employee of the Maley Transportation Co., suffered a painful injury Sunday noon in the engine room of his boat, in some manner while around the engine a sleeve of Gregory's shirt became entangled in the fly wheel, whereby his shirt was torn from his body and he was liberated from the fly wheel.

Upon examination at the Samaritan hospital it was revealed that Clarence received a broken left shoulder and several cuts on his head. Young Gregory is a nephew of Mrs. Lemuel Hale and has numerous relatives in town who regret to learn of his misfortune.

Walter Donnenwirth To Attend Gathering of Y Men In Wisconsin

The Mansfield Journal of July 12 has the following to say about Walter Donnenwirth, assistant at the Young Men's Christian Association to I. G. Maxwell, physical director, and H. M. Caldwell, boys' work supervisor, who will attend a two weeks' summer training school for association workers at the University of Wisconsin.

"Being particularly interested in boys' work and physical education, Donnenwirth has selected a course of study which will better fit him to handle the duties of these two positions."

The Large Geneva summer school is a college camp on Lake Geneva, Switzerland, which the association college of Chicago for secretaries of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian associations, pastors, laymen and leaders in religious education."

Walter Donnenwirth has many friends here who are delighted to know that he is meeting with splendid success in his line of work.

Dance Law to Be Observed in Huron

Probate Judge J. M. Bechtel announced that a strong effort will be made to enforce the state law in Huron county which requires that persons less than 18 years of age who patronize the dance halls be accompanied by their parents or guardians.

NEW SLAUGHTER HOUSE BEING PLANNED BY C. OF C. IN AUGUST

An event is being planned for the month of August which will likely receive the approval of the entire community. It is a picnic to be held under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

It is suggested by members of the committee in charge that barbecue will be the main item on the menu, with the accessories to be furnished by individual families. Other entertainments will be announced later, as well as more complete details.

The committee is composed of R. T. Chappell, Fred Clark and P. H. Root.

NOTES ON NEW EFFICIENCY IN THE NEW SOUTH

By Edna Rowe

Effect of Prohibition on the Coffee Addict! For the first time, the Volstead Act has roused my personal indignation. Innumerable Southern hotels are using obsolete punch-glasses to replace individual cream-pitchers. They don't pour properly; and my disposition, before being bolstered by coffee, is weak. "But see, Miss," pleaded one manager, "you No'thners are always preachin' efficiency. Well—we got a pantry full of punch-glasses, and they just nat'chly do no' conform to hip pockets, ma'am!" Then, for my consolation, he added: "Anyway, they'll soon be bust up!" Then, I fancy the year 1927 will behold the honored old punch-bowl, itself, enfolded in the center of the cafe, and each guest smugly self-serving himself to a ladle of cream.

In a fraternity of feeling based on adjacent cherry-phosphates, a tired but twinkly-eyed sales person and myself waxed chummy at a drugstore counter "somewhere in Florida."

"It's telling you," he confided, "the man who comes down here from the Middle West with a wife and child, and no experience in real estate, soon gets tangled up in a problem worse than 'How old's Ann?' If he's a farmer, say—like lots of us were—he don't know where he's at, with all this here arithmetic—this addition, subdivision—"

"—and at least twice plus-fours," I gurgle through the straw.

He grimed, "I got the answer, though, slater! 'Guessed it."

"Always poor at figures," I confessed.

"One down! And two to carry! I'm starting back Sunday with the wife and boy—back to the trusty Indiana cornfields."

One of the most efficient motor-clubs in Florida I found "manned" entirely by women. They handle all memberships, licenses, wayside assistance and emergency calls. Their touring bureau gives swift and accurate road information to the tourist, and that, too, though it encounters problems beyond the ken of the machine bureau. For, in addition to the steady flow of mile age and detour statistics, I heard the clerk with naturally-curly hair tactfully respond to an envious woman with straggling locks who asked where she got her "permanent wave!" At five-fifteen, pert hats were deftly pressed over business-like yet feminine coiffures as, one by one, alert young husbands drove up to the entrance in gay, little cars—proud product of their joint earnings—and whisked their wives away to cool, suburban homes. Just like high-school days and your "best heat" waiting at the classroom door to carry your books after a stimulating day of problem-grappling. I liked that! And I liked this!

On each floor of a hotel distinguished for excellent service, this "code," neatly printed and framed hung beside the elevator, lets the guest into the secret of its deserved reputation. "To those who Serve our Guests. The service of this organization must always reflect a spirit of hospitality which does not fluctuate with the size of the business transaction."

Such advertisements as these, flashing along the highway, do most truly intrigue the imagination of the motorist: "Groceries, fertilizers, coffins and caskets"—"Eat Tate's Dogs"—"Gergle's Drugs"—"Footie's 10-cent Store"—"Nothing Over a Dollar."

And to prove that Southern courtesy, even in business, is no myth, I quote you, from a parking beside a cash-register: "It was fortunate to find your purchase is free." (With all the anticipatory thrills of a wild fling at Tia Juana, I tendered my dime. But courtesy won. And I lost!)

"Cash and Carry" translated into rural Georgian reads "Pay and Tote."

CHANGE IN ANNOUNCEMENT

An important change is made in announcing the Quarterly Conference at the M. E. Church on evening of July 21. Dr. Alton has arranged to be with us for a 8 o'clock service, with the business session at 9 o'clock. This is possibly the most important conference of the year, as it has to do with arrangements for the next year to come, as well as to accept reports from all departments of the church for the year past.

Every one interested in the welfare of the church should plan to be present. Heads of families who have reports written, ready to submit to the proper time. This includes Stewards, Trustees, Class leaders, S. S. Supt., E. L. President, Missionary societies, Ladies Aid, all including in their financial report any items of interest or importance.

A regular Church service will be had at first, with sermon by Dr. Alton. So all who can arrange to do so will plan to attend, Wednesday evening, July 21, at 8 o'clock.

W. H. Gibson.

Several familiar faces were seen in the congregation Sunday morning, of those who have been vacationing. Glad to see you, friends, and you look well in your accustomed places. The Church will take its turn after July 25 for the first two Sundays of August. We trust all will be glad to resume work for another good year's accounts from vacation to the next.

Our young folks are having a fine opportunity for training, since Mr. L. Z. Davis has kindly consented to help them, and they did quite well at their first appearance Sunday evening July 11. It is planned that they are to form the choir on Sunday evenings. The senior choir has done unusually fine work these last few Sundays. Their faithfulness is appreciated by all. Sometimes we forget to say "Thank you" but now we would mind you if you were not to spend.

Mr. Gibson expects to head a part of his vacation in W. Va., visiting some relatives whom he has not seen for several years. The remainder, will be spent at Lakeside, where he is needed for any special occasion, he should be notified before July 25, that his plans may be interrupted, or that they may be changed to suit all interested.

To stand in front of the church and look, is a joy with church and parsonage newly painted. Almost done at this writing, and we are quite proud of the job. The one-piece metal panel on the closed bodies curve gracefully upward to the roof, resulting in a modish appearance and to be made in near future, that have been held up for no important reason, but we will be glad when all is finished.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Miller, of Old Ford, Ohio, visited with the Gibsons from July 3 to 5. Mrs. Miller was close neighbor with Mr. Gibson in childhood days. He had the pleasure of officiating at the marriage of these folks in Wheeling, W. Va. some years ago. We find great pleasure in talking over old times with those whom we have known thru the years.

CHURCHES

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH Sunday July 18, 1926. How we love to forget everything in order to be in God's great out-of-doors. It's great! It's thrilling! It's wonderful! But let us find a place for an hour a week in God's great INDOORS.

The race is not yet won. Hold on to the finish. Help the Church reach the top. If you Christianity is not sufficient to keep up your interest during summer, it is not Christianity, at all. Loyalty is what we need. Loyalty to things worthwhile! Loyalty to Church! Loyalty to God!

Be loyal next Sunday! You will find strength and refreshment!

In the past few days several parties from Celeryville have been cherry pickers on the farm of A. O. Brooks of Plymouth, rural.

Celeryville won her sixth game last Thursday. A good game was played up to the fifth, then Celeryville went for eight runs making two more in the sixth and at the end of the game having 12 runs to the High School 1.

The High School made several errors which gave several runs to Celeryville. The High Schoolers were usually sure of getting on base.

Celeryville made several clean hits. Bill Burma made a home run, driving one man in ahead of him. Cline went into the pitchers box in the fifth inning, and the High School was unable to score on account of his speed and outs. Several batters were hit during the game.

"Rustling for Cupid" Stars Talk of South Seas in Desert Heat

George O'Brien, Fox Films star, and Anita Stewart, who play opposite him in "Rustling for Cupid," had a South Sea fanning bee in the heat of the desert along the Mexican border while they were on location making this screen version of Peter B. Kyne's romance of the West, to be shown at the Castamba, Shelby, Sunday.

"While I was making 'The Roughneck,' the most entertaining friend I made was Makumaku, a little five year old islander who always followed me into the sea when I took my morning dip," said O'Brien. "In spite of her baby years she insisted on following me into the deep water and one day we were a half a mile from shore but she never missed a stroke and finished as strong as when she started."

"My best friend among the South Sea Islanders," replied Miss Stewart, "was the little daughter of the Princess Tutotura, who was my hostess during the making of 'Never the Twain Shall Meet.' I called her Patapata because she was always playing in the sand, building castles, and her little hands were always busy patting the sand into shape. She was a regular water spaniel and whenever I went in for a dip she was with me until I came out."

Other than O'Brien and Miss Stewart, the cast of the picture "Rustling for Cupid" includes Russell Simpson, Edith Yorke, Herbert Prior, Sid Jordan and Frank McEllynn, Jr.

Buck Jones Latest Starring Picture is 'A Man 4 Square'

"A Man Four Square," the latest William Fox production with Buck Jones, to be shown at Castamba, Shelby, Saturday. This story, which deals with western life, gives the popular Fox star a picture full of suspense and action.

The picture was directed by William R. Neill from the story by William McLeod Raine, one of the foremost writers of western fiction.

"A Man Four Square" deals with a westerner who goes to Chicago for a whirl at life. But after experience with synthetic gazes and artificial friends, he realizes that his heart is really in the West where his true friends are. He returns to the West just in time to help a friend who is in trouble and also breaks up a gang of cattle rustlers who are operating in the country. He makes a spectacular rescue of the girl with whom he later falls in love. This picture gives Jones an opportunity to show the West as it really is.

The supporting cast includes Florence Gilbert, Harry Woods, William Lawrence, Jay Hunt, Sidney Bracey, Marion Hatian and Frank Beal.

Kiddies Day at Seccaium Park Will Draw Crowd

Seccaium park is arranging for Thursday of this week a special day for the kiddies. The Management has reduced the prices of the rides, the Merry-go-round, the pony race track and the kiddie Airplanes to five cents a ride, all the children will be admitted to the swimming pool for the day if they bring their own suits. Each child entering the pool will receive a ticket on the price offered, a bathing suit. The Great Edwards will give a special entertainment on the wire and Oeselia's troupe of trained dogs will more than furnish amusement for the children. Five hundred new pennies will be given away in the big penny scramble and hunt and an additional price given the boy or girl that gets the largest number of new pennies. Several of the fraternal organizations are arranging to furnish coats to bring the kiddies to Seccaium for the day as they are assured by the Management that they will not have a dull moment all during the special day of "Kiddies Day" which is from 10 in the morning until six in the evening.

"My dear young lady" said the clergyman in aggrieved tones, as he listened to the extremely modern young woman tear off some of the very latest jazz on the piano—"Have you ever heard the Ten Commandments?"
 "Whistle a few bars," said the modern young lady, "and I think I can follow you."

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The Girl Scouts met on Wednesday, July 7th with eight members present and two new recruits, Lois Teal and Ellen Anderson. After these girls have attended three more meetings they will be eligible for their tenderfoot test. Miriam Donnerwirth and Lucille Pugh passed their tenderfoot test on July 7th, and Jane Bachrach on July 9th, making a total of seven girls ready for registration. I hope to get at least one more this week so the troop can be registered at headquarters and I can obtain the tenderfoot pins and present them to the girls who have earned them.

I will be glad to help any girl who wants to study for this test and will make an appointment with any one who comes to study or take the test.

Some of the older girls wish to form a patrol to meet in the evening and I hope to be able to report more fully on this soon. Any girl who is interested in Scout work and cannot attend a day meeting may call me, and we will arrange for an evening to talk the matter over and form a patrol.

Four girls have ordered sashes thru Captain Frome, as I cannot obtain supplies until the troop is registered, and I believe it will not be long until the entire troop will be in uniform and ready to drill.

Captain Frome is forming a class for second class work so any girl who wishes can study for this test under her guidance, which will be a great help, as Captain Frome has had special training in this work.

I hope to see more new members at the next meeting, and nothing would please me more than to have a full troop before long.

The question of dues will come up at the next meeting and we are trying to lower the dues to $5 each meeting, and pay the year amount.

Local Stores Undergo Many Improvements

The spirit of progressiveness has certainly hit Plymouth. Many improvements have been made in various business houses here. The seating capacity of Hale's Restaurant has been increased with other changes to come. Myer's Harness Shop is receiving extensive improvements including a coat of white paint on the interior and the rearrangement of the stock of harness. Mr. Myers has moved the major portion of his harness stock upstairs where customers will find it much easier to make selections, thus giving more space to the repair department.

DeWitt's Bakery has undergone a coat of paint on the exterior, giving it a very attractive appearance. Fred H. Clark has partitioned off his store and a complete rearrangement of the merchandise makes it possible to serve customers with greater speed. It is likely that more improvements will be noticed in the village in the course of a few months.

"So your wife is sick?"
 "Yes."
 "Dangerous?"
 "No, she's too weak."

Interesting News From Shiloh

Contest Closes Sunday
Mt. Hope church school will close its contest Sunday morning, the school convening at 9:45 a.m. The Red side with Captain Glen Swanger was in the lead last Sunday with the faithful Blues following their captain Thomas Ruckman close behind.

A special program has been arranged for July 18, by opening the school with congregational singing accompanied by the orchestra. After the prayer the following program will be given. Soprano solo—Miss Arvis Spangler of Shelby; Song—Audience; Contralto Solo—Mrs. Clarence Stout of Shelby; Lesson study and closing march for the primary department. Report of the church school secretary followed by reports from the contest secretaries Misses Margaret Behegy and Mildred Mellick; Song—Nellie Patterson; Saxophone solo—Thomas Ruckman; also solo from Miss Spangler and Mrs. S'ropu, and the closing services. Don't forget the time for opening the church school 10:45 and as the program will start right on time every one is urged to be present. This contest has been a very interesting one from the start, the right spirit and harmony has prevailed, and as there must be a defeated side, that side will accept it graciously, so that the general results will be lasting. To Ronald Howard is due much of the honor as the work has been under his careful leadership.

Attends Anniversary Services.
Rev. and Mrs. L. A. McCord, and Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson attended the services of corner stone laying celebration of the fortieth anniversary of St. Lukes church at Mansfield, Sunday. The pastors of all the Lutheran churches in the city, also Rev. Paul Keller, president of the Synod of Ohio, and Rev. W. M. Hackenberg, superintendent of missions took part in the services which were very impressive.

"Resolution of Thanks"
"Whereas," the "Red Team" of the Lutheran Sunday school, Shiloh, Ohio wish to extend our sincere thanks to all who in any way has, and will cooperate with us in the victory of the Red team.
"Resolved," that this Red team does not urge any person from any other Sunday school, only upon their own free will. "Be it further resolved," that any person wanting to join our outfit, be present at church Sunday morning 9:45. Ask for a red ribbon. "Be it further resolved," that every Red get into the harness and bring them in this Sunday as this is the end of the contest.

Shiloh Methodist Church
Sunday school at 10 a.m. followed by Sermon. Subject: Jacob at Bethel Gen. 28.

We were glad to see so many new faces at church and Sunday school last Sunday. We hope you will carry for permanent attendance if not enrolled at some other church and school. Next Sunday will be the greatest go to church day in Cass township every church member in the Sunday school and every scholar stay for church will be the slogan.
The illustrated lecture on the Philippians last Sunday night was a rare treat to the people of Shiloh. You were absent you will certainly be the loser. It is almost miraculous to see the changes in the islands since our nation has taken possession of this former Spanish possession.
We would impress upon every one, willing to listen, that when we survey the boundless ocean of God's promise every way seems to join in the song of the ages: God is Love.

Now what can we do to return in threefold measure the love which we receive? We all know that our purest services will not all one iota to His glory and majesty. No matter what we do, it is impossible to add to the glory light shining thru the world's darkness. We might as well attempt to add to the blaze of the sun at its meridian height, by lighting a taper or drop water into the boundless ocean to increase its volume.
Yet do you know that from this soul of ours, there may roll forth a revenue of glory which He who loves the broken and contrite spirit "will not despise." Listen. For herein is my Father glorified, that we bear much fruit, was spoken for our consideration. With these few thoughts we bid you welcome to the church of the glad land.

Society to Give Bake Sale

The Loyalists and Queen Esthers met in a joint session at the home of Miss Mary Durley, Friday evening, July 9. The Loyalists decided to have a bake sale this Saturday at Brown and Miller Hardware store. The sale will begin at 2 o'clock sharp. Cakes, pies, doughnuts, cookies, potato salad, baked beans, etc. candy will be sold. The class will also have a lawn fete for the members and their friends on the beautiful lawn of the Harry Brook's home just west of town on Friday evening, July 30, 1926. Members bring a friend and enjoy the evening.

If possible the class will send two members to Lakeside this summer to the Epworth League Institute.
Marguerite Boardman gave a very interesting report of the Queen Esther Conference at Elyria some time ago.

The main event of the evening was a mock wedding at which time Margie Emaline (Zeita Brooks), became the bride of John Free (Evelyn Durley). The attendants were Helen and Marcella Durley and Max Miller were best men. Francis Durley and Betty Brown were flower girls, Wilma Skinner was ringbearer and Mrs. Stacy Braun tied the knot.

After the ceremony the happy couple took an extended honeymoon to parts unknown.
All the guests congratulated the newly married pair and wished them many happy years of married life.
Two kinds of wedding cake and ice cream were served by the mother of the groom, Mrs. A. B. Durley.

Get Somebody Else

(Adapted From Paul Laurence Dunbar)
The Lord had a job for me; but I had so much to do I said: "You get somebody else, or wait till I get through."
I don't know how the Lord came out; no doubt he got along; but I felt kind o' sneaking like! I knew I'd done God wrong.

One day I needed the Lord—needed Him right away;
But He never answered me at all, and I could hear Him say
Down in my accusin' heart: "Child I've got too much to do;
You get somebody else, or wait till I get through."

Now when the Lord has a job for me, I never try to shirk;
I drop what I have on hand and do the Lord's good work.
And my affairs can run along or wait till I get through;
Nobody else can do the work that God has marked out for you.

Lizbie Takes Us Home

$10.00 check, but I am quite confident it was the smiles with which I showered him which turned the tide rather than his absolute faith in the value of the check.

I went back to the garage and to the office, where the small boy immediately took up guard duty again, and read and dozed a little by turns.

After dinner the garage man, and his son, came back and with them a little girl who relieved the boy, and sat with her hands clasped in her lap and stared at me.

After a while the proprietor's wife Mrs. Sweeney, came over and with her a baby boy about a year old. She managed to talk to me a little but soon announced that she "was getting company" and a man, a woman, a girl about sixteen, a boy about fourteen and sundry other children like steps of stairs swarmed into the office, and we were packed in like sardines.

The women evidently were close friends and had not seen each other for some time, and they began to quire about all the mutual friends, who they had married, and the number of offspring of each. A few scandals were told, and also the good advice given to an unmarried daughter before she went away to work. I do not think there were many topics that they missed during the afternoon
