Linsburgh flew from New York to Paris. That's all the news we know this week, and judging from the papers it's going to be news for the next few months.

So while our farmer friends read the daily papers we'll try and print all the happenings around town and country, but no doubt it will lack the thrill you get from reading the adventurous trip of the world's most beloved hero.

Dr. Motley has changed the name of his dog. It was formerly named Lady Mae but now bears the title—Hey, Doc, what's her name?

Saturday night looked mighty good in Plymouth. There was a good crowd here and many open air conversations were held. Some of us are wondering about the band for the summer, and so are we.

One of Shiloh's Grand Old Men

SHILOH—This appellation is given to Mr. P. Y. Barnes not only for being a member of the G. O. A. R., but because of the Christian characteristics which predominate his life. While teaching school in his native county of Jefferson in 1861, a company was being recruited for the army and he volunteered and in the third day after enlistment the company was ordered to Columbus, was called Company G, and put in the 52nd regiment, and he was in the army in 1862, '63 and '64. The division to which Mr. Barnes belonged was assigned to Sherman's army just a few days before the battle of Missionary Ridge, and he was with him through many battles until they reached Atlanta when he was seriously wounded and incapacitated for service.

He was sent to various hospitals enroute to his home in Jefferson county, which he reached on the days of Lincoln's assassination.

An interesting war reminiscence of Mr. Barnes is the following: "It was during the time just after Atlanta was taken by Sherman that Hood sent a division under Gen. French, to take a fort at Altoona Pass in the mountains where Sherman's supplies were located, which were held by Gen. Cowart with a brigade of about 2,500. Sherman was following close and from Lost Mountain 10 miles away sent a signal over the rebel forces in the valley to Gen. Cowart: 'Hold the fort for I am coming.' Gen. Cowart said to the sergeant: 'Were the answer back by thy great we will.' That gave the key years after to the great evangelists, Moody and Sanky to write the great gospel song, 'Hold the Fort,' which was sung everywhere."

Many interesting experiences and stories are told by Mr. Barnes as his own personal conflict in nearly all the principal battles makes it possible for him to do.

For over 40 years he has been Adjutant of our local Post, and although 85 years of age last January he is actively engaged in aiding the Legionaries to make the 30th day of this month a real memorial to his comrades and the many who have sacrificed for their country.

Mr. Barnes was appointed Rural mail carrier January 15, 1900, and after serving for almost 20 years was retired on annuity August 20, 1920. From the "War Reminiscences," written by Mr. Barnes, we quote his words:

"May this nation continue to increase in power and influence and extend its educational Christianizing, civilizing principles to all the world, and may the flag continue to wave in the ladder of fame among the nations of the earth, and with all the flags of all nations revolving around as a May Pole with representatives pointing to the flag and exclaiming, 'Oh, beautiful stars and stripes, emblem of liberty, justice and freedom, perfect in war, perfect in peace, and may it continue to gain perfection by the direction of God, to wave on until the end of time.'"

Services Held For Accident Victims

AMAGIAH CLELAND DEAD

Amagiah Cleland died at Toledo last Wednesday, May 18, at the age of 79 years. Mr. Cleland had been ill for several months but well known in Shiloh, his old home, and was a life-long resident of that vicinity.

The remains were brought to Plymouth by Chas. G. Miller. Funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ora Gilmore on Sandusky street. Burial was made in Mt. Hope cemetery at Shiloh.

Two daughters and one son and a number of relatives are left to mourn his passing.

Funerals of Three Women Attended by Hundreds of Friends.

One of the most horrible and tragic accidents that has happened in years in this section occurred Saturday afternoon about 2:45 when a Miller Chrysler sedan 50 driven by Mrs. C. A. Crum of Greenwich, crashed into a big elm tree on a curve on the New Haven-Plymouth road, instantly killing Mrs. George Cheesman, Sr., and Miss Delois Baker, occupants of the car, while Mrs. Crum died as a result of the accident, in the shed by Memorial hospital.

Between New Haven and the New Haven cemetery on the curve Mrs. Crum attempted to pass another machine. The driver of that car is said to have made his statement that he was running 60 miles an hour when the attempt was made to go around him.

As the Chrysler was in the act of passing this machine at this terrific speed the fender must have scraped the fender of the other car or Mrs. Crum lost control of the car. The car struck and crashed into a big tree three feet in diameter. The machine was reduced to a mass of wreckage.

Mrs. Cheesman and Miss Baker were thrown clear of the wreckage and were dead when picked up. Mrs. Baker made the statement that the steering wheel was still living. She was unconscious and was rushed to the Shelby Memorial hospital where she died Saturday night at 7 o'clock. The remains of Mrs. Cheesman and Miss Baker were removed to the Shelby Memorial parlors and prepared for burial. Mr. Miller had charge of both funerals.

Judges to have received from Harkness as a receipt for the money. But Harkness has double crossed. An offer of $100,000 for the land grant from Mark King (David Torrence), a capitalist representing a rich power company, proves too strong a temptation for him. King procures the grant and holds it as a whip over the heads of the homesteaders to make them vacate the 125,000 out of which Wade has been homesteaded in safe in the pocket of Harkness, and Wade finds himself forced into outlawry to save himself from lynching at the hands of his former friends.

He is captured, and about to be hanged when his pal Lem Spooner (Tom Kennedy) forces the ranchers at the point of two guns to bring him back to town to stand a fair trial. How he escapes and goes about the country as the 'mysterious rider' warning the ranchers to hold their ground 'till they get a hearing in a court of law, and how he finally saves the situation makes a story packed with the thrills that the Jack Holt fans have learned to expect.

FASHIONS CHANGE WHEN PEOPLE DO

The trend in women's fashions will not change radically until the people themselves change," thinks Esther Ralston, star of Paramount's "Fashions for Women" which reaches the Shelby Opera House on Sunday.

"The style in clothing," she continues, "has today reached a point near perfection, and such further alterations as are made, will be purely psychological.

"Thirty or forty years ago, the women of America affected hoop skirts, high-necked waists and sleeves reaching to the wrists. That was not pretty proper because the age was one of reserve.

"Today, skirts reach little below the knees, waists are cut low and sleeves, if any, are usually very short. The reason for this of course is explained by the fact that we are now enjoying a period of freedom.

"Until the people themselves change, fashions will remain practically the same.

"So often do we hear of new styles that one is almost led to believe fashions have undergone a radical change in the past few years. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

"Take a high class fashion magazine of 1924 and one of 1927. Open both to the fashion pages and lay them side by side. You will be amazed at their similarity. True, skirts may be longer or shorter or pockets cut a little differently but the styles are identical."

Ellnar Hanson and Raymond Hall lead Miss Ralston's supporting cast. Dorothy Arner directed.

The Public Forum

Opinions expressed under this heading are those of the contributors, not of The Advertiser.

Where is the committee who put a clean-up campaign on? Ask the people to place all their rubbish on a front street, which they did, but the more rubbish has been laying there for a long time. It makes the town look worse, instead of better. We want it removed. This is the voice of many.

Why not pass an ordinance to tack up the many sign boards laying at the foot (or somewhere near the foot) of the many poles on public corners in town. It will save strangers the trouble of stopping and turning the sign board over to read them. Why buy signs if it is not possible to place them. Only a few nails and someone to drive them is needed.

Why burn the street lights long before dark? Who pays for them?

One Hundred and One Graduate From New Haven Since 1902

The third annual Alumni Banquet of the New Haven High School was held Saturday evening, May 21, at the town hall. The banquet was in charge of the Parent-Teacher association and was one of the most delightful affairs ever witnessed in New Haven. The hall was beautifully decorated in orange and blue, the school colors and the tables were most attractive in decorations of the same color scheme, and in lovely bowls of sweet peas and roses.

Nearly half of the entire number of alumni were present, many of whom brought with them wives or husbands and a most happy gathering was enjoyed by all. A particularly happy event was the presence of Miss Beaulieu L. Snyder for more than twelve years a teacher in the New Haven schools, and now employed in the science department of the Marion High School.

The alumni president, Francis Long welcomed the members of the class of 1927, and Ralph Duffy, president of the class, gave a fitting response. The other members of the class are Rachel Snyder, Treva Stahl, Grace Cline, Helen Gleason, and Clarence Vogel.

A spicy program of addresses, readings, and music was given, with Jesse Ruth as toastmaster. Mr. E. A. Bell, County superintendent of schools, in the course of his talk suggested the value and power of an active alumni association.

In all, one hundred one have graduated from New Haven High School. A complete list follows:

Girl Scout News

Girl Scouts met for their regular meeting on Monday evening with only twenty-two present, several of the troop being out of town, as the vacation period has begun.

Sewing was taken up after the formation and the latter part of the evening with bean bags and other games. Please do not forget that we need help in teaching sewing. It is almost impossible to give each girl the attention she should have, with only two to supervise, so if any one wishes to devote an hour to this sort of work, it will be a great help to the Scouts.

On next Monday, Decoration Day, the Scouts will march in the parade, and any girl wishing to take part will meet at the Scout rooms at 8:45 a. m. for formation. Girls having uniforms are requested to wear them, or white, or near white dresses. Any light dress will do.

FAMILY GETS A SURPRISE

The family of August Longyear of Norwalk received quite a surprise last Thursday when they picked up an edition of The Toledo Blade and saw an illustration showing how the U. S. government is replacing the wooden crosses with those of stone in the military cemetery at Suresnes, France. It showed a picture of a workman placing the new monument on the grave, the wooden cross headstone of which showed plainly in the picture the lettering:

Carl C. Longyear
Pvt. Co. B. 2nd M. G. Dn.

It just so happened that the photographer pointed his camera at that particular spot.

News From Delphi

Corn planting is on the first page for importance.

Ben Franklin Highway west of Delphi to Sibbett's corner has been improved by widening on the south side by adding stone and tar.

David Gumbert and wife of Cleveland will spend a couple of weeks vacation at the home of R. L. Barker.

H. A. Jacoby, wife and son of Shiloh were callers on friends in Greenwich and Ripley last Sunday.

Jacob Truxell of Toledo was in Delphi last Saturday dining up his father's monument. Mr. Truxell lives in Toledo, is hale and hearty, is a civil war veteran and 86 years old and draws his $72 per month.

Miss Etta Barr of Willard is spending a short vacation in Delphi.

Miss Clarice Tooker, teacher in the Monroeville schools is home for her summer vacation.

Orlando Smith who has been working in Fairfield township will be at home a few days.

Wm. Simmons and wife of Toledo are spending a few weeks with their son Lucius and wife on the farm. Mr. Simmons has not fully recovered from his auto accident.

Earl Croshaw, wife and daughter of Willard, were guests of the parents, T. G. Campbell and wife Sunday.

Myra Fahn is doing a great work in distributing good literature. She is busy selling leading magazines and papers.

L. A. Goon and wife had for their over-Sunday guests their daughter Ruth and husband and a granddaughter from Toledo.

Accidents away from home only receive a passing notice. This sad and fatal accident occurring at the big elm tree in the crook in the road, south of New Haven opposite the Ralph Snyder building, brings sadness and sympathy to the people of Ripley and Greenwich, blotting out the lives of Mrs. Chas. Crum of Greenwich, Dessie Baker of New Haven township and Mrs. George Cheeseman of Plymouth.

They were making arrangements for a social gathering Saturday evening, when they were returning at a high rate of speed to the Tom Sibbett home where Dessie Baker crossed house and takes care of her orphan nephew. Mrs. Crum leaves an adopted daughter and husband and Mrs. George Cheeseman leaves a husband and grows up children. Their speed was estimated at 75 miles an hour and passing their autos, they went head on into the tree, killing Mrs. Cheeseman and Miss Baker instantly. Mrs. Crum died at 10 o'clock in the Shelby hospital. Funeral Monday.

Laundry Passes 21 Year Mark

Little acorns make great oaks, and so it is with C. K. Moles, who, twenty-one years ago started a one-man laundry in Willard and has enjoyed a tremendous growth, serving many towns and communities with one of the best laundry systems in the country.

Not only does Mr. Moles deserve credit for building up a business of this kind but he also deserves praise for the manner which his employees look upon him. To be frank, The Ideal Laundry is just one big family institution, and each and every individual feels the responsibility of serving its patrons to the fullest.

In last week's issue of The Willard Times the following article appeared: "May the 11th was the twenty-first anniversary of the establishment here of the Ideal Laundry which has grown to be one of the town's main business concerns and whose service is extended into many of the surrounding towns."

"C. K. Moles came here from Lorain where he had been in the laundry business and opened in the cement block building on east Emerald street now occupied by the Shelby Lumber Company. The Baltimore & Ohio Y. M. C. A. at Willard opened at the same time and their work was the first that went through the laundry. At the beginning the laundry employed but four girls in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Moles. Now there are twenty-one employees and a payroll of $400 a week.

"Twenty-one years ago people did not believe so much in laundries. They might be all right for laundrying Sunday collars and a shirt now and then but the old family wash tub was still considered the thing. New machinery, new ways of doing things and education of the public have changed the order of things and the work of The Ideal Laundry has expanded until general washings have become the main business rather than collars, cuffs and shirts. Several hundred family washings are done a week and they come from many surrounding towns to which Ideal Laundry trucks make regular trips. Recently, the Shelby office was moved from a side street to a location next to the Citizens bank on Main street.

"In 1911 Mr. Moles built the brick building at the corner of Woodbine and Pearl streets, but this soon proved inadequate and in 1924 built the fine laundry on the opposite corner. The laundry now, in equipment and in the excellent building which houses it, is exceeded by few in the state, even in the largest cities."

MUCH DAMAGE DONE OVER STATE BY HEAVY RAINS

COLUMBUS, O.—Just how much damage has been done to Ohio farmers by the recent heavy rains is hard to estimate. The state department of agriculture has started a survey to find out but it will be some time before data is available. It is certain that thousands of acres of corn which has been planted will have to be replanted, the seed having rotted in the ground during the excessive rainy weather of the past several weeks. All fruit is being delayed as well as farm plowing and other work. Not more than one-half the potato crop has been planted in Central Ohio at least. Other years most of the planting is completed at this late date. The demand already for farm help is in excess of the supply and with a few weeks good weather this demand is bound to increase that the farmer may get his crops in with the least possible delay.

METHODIST CHURCH

Memorial Sunday, May 23, at 11 o'clock, the Rev. J. W. Miller will preach the sermon at the Methodist church. A mistake in announcement was made last week, and is hereby corrected.

In the evening at 7:30, W. H. Cook will be present and speak on his experiences as Prison Evangelist and some other incidents of his life. We are sure of a good hearing, and of an interesting talk. All parents of the community should hear him. All young people will want to hear him. Business men are assured of some interesting facts, that may save them some embarrassment along their business career.

We were somewhat disappointed Sunday morning in not having The Rev. H. K. Hilberry with us but in his place we had Mr. L. E. Converse, a business man from Cleveland, who spoke acceptably in the interests of St. Luke's Hospital. When completed this will be one of the best equipped hospitals in the country. We are indeed fortunate to have with us such a man of such an interesting and useful life. We can rest assured that our loved ones who have need of such service will be under the care of specialists along different lines of medicine and surgery, and a corps of nurses who go from our churches, equipped with Christian training, as well as in the science of nursing. Often an atmosphere, such as is at St. Luke's does as much for the speedy convalescence of a patient, as the care by the doctors.

Sunday morning, May 29, at New Haven a Memorial sermon will be preached by the pastor, W. H. Gibson. Service begins promptly at 9:30.

The Man Who Came Back

By W. H. Cook, of New York City

One of the most notorious crooks in the history of Chicago and New York City will provide the feature number on the program next Sunday night at the Methodist church. For twenty years W. H. Cook was one of the master minds directing the operations of gunmen, gamblers and crooks of the underworld of the larger cities. He became widely known as the result of his many clashes with the law enforcement agencies of metropolitan cities and his final escape with federal officers.

He was arrested and faced trial fifty-six times and was convicted twelve times.

Twelve years ago he was converted at Memphis, Tennessee.

He was wounded 17 times while connected with the Canadian army during the world war. He was in base hospitals eight times and decorated with four war medals. Since his return from the war he has spent three years in prison without being convicted.

For nearly five years Cook has devoted his entire time to public speaking. His work is endorsed by hundreds of civic clubs who have heard him with unabated interest and pleasure. From his personal experiences of the lives and operations of crooks that is most valuable to business men.

 At the town and county committee meeting Friday evening, request was made of Governor Donahay asking why appropriation of support of state library was withdrawn and noting the loss to our public school unless some way is found to keep the library open.

The First Band concert on Saturday evening, June 4 and the county Sunday school convention on June 7 will bring many visitors and it is hoped that everyone will do what they can to make their residences and business places as neat and inviting as possible.

CLASS OF 1927 GRADUATES
 A capacity house greeted the four-year young men and women Thursday evening, at the commencement exercises of Shiloh H. The class with their caps and gowns made a very impressive picture as did also the stage setting which was composed of the high school faculty, members of the board of education and the three. The orchestra with instructor Rosenberry were at their best and as usual were appreciated.

The salutatory and valedictory delivered by Madge Wells and Mildred Mellick were nicely and plainly given and were a credit to the class.
 The class address given by Supt. A. W. Elliott of Mt. Vernon schools on "Elements of Value in Shiloh" was interspersed with good humor, his illustrations were fine and he recognized and emphasized the value of years of training.

In his presentation of the diplomas to his class, Supt. Ford spoke in a splendid manner, words of benefit and encouragement. Rev. Mentie, chapel instructor as on the previous year, gave each of the class a memento which were accepted by each one in a thankful manner.

The class roll of 1927 is composed of eight boys and six girls who will be received into the Alumni Saturday evening. They are Edward Brumback, Roscoe Shatzer, Donald Hamman, Rudy Rader Jr. Pres, Eugene Dickerson, Merle Barnard, Thomas Ruckman, Harold Higgins, Mildred Mellick, Leola Hamman, Dorothy Kissel, Sec., Lillian Furney, Madge Wells and Elizabeth Wilson.

INTEREST AND NUMBERS INCREASE
 Interest in the Mt. Hope church school, Sunday morning was much increased when an orchestra composed of the three Ruckman boys, Margaret Swartz and Jane Bushey, with Miss Rose at the piano accompanied the school singing. The Ruckman brothers are naturally gifted, and being blessed with a music trained mother who encourages the art and expression in their music which appeals to, and impresses an audience. Miss Swartz favored the school with a piano solo, and Rev. McCord gave a vocal solo in his rich voice which was appreciated by all. Mr. Lloyd Bader and Miss Rose gave another inspiring duet. Next Sunday Miss Ethel Copeland and the orchestra will furnish special numbers. All absent members are missing a musical treat.

OVER THE TOP
 The I. T. class of the M. E. church school, of which Mr. H. S. Maring is instructor, gave a demonstration of real missionary spirit at their Sunday morning session when a collection was taken in the class for the foot sufferers, which amounted to $15 and that certainly shows hearty cooperation.

PROOF OF BEING SQUARE
 Eight members of the D. Square club with three visitors greeted their hostess Mrs. F. C. Dawson at her home Wednesday forenoon.
 The usual appetizing pot luck dinner was enjoyed and some very important business was transacted, which is worthy of example and publication. $7.50 was given to the foot sufferers, $7.50 for the high school orchestra that the splendid progress which it has been making the past year might not be regarded during the summer months as the community needs an orchestra on so many social occasions. Herein hope for more money can be secured for this purpose.

GOOD REPORT
 A good attendance, and interesting meeting, and the social time spent together at the home of Mrs. Arthur McBride made a happy afternoon Tuesday, for the member of the Thrift club. Fine refreshments were served by the hostess.

BIG PICNIC
 About 200 people joined the P. T. A. in a picnic dinner Friday at the auditorium. A short business session and program made the day interesting. But the happiest part of all was when Shiloh defeated Shelby at the ball game in the afternoon. The score being 3 to 1 in favor of Shiloh.

SHILOH WINS CUP OF THE RICHLAND COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL LIVE STOCK JUDGING

Between picked teams of three from each school having a department of Vocational Agriculture in Richland county, a series of live stock judging is held, and meets at each of these schools, at which time one class of live stock is judged.
 Judging contests are held annually at those farms in this section which are noted for the quality of their stock and the ability and success of the farmer or manager.

This year under the direction of State supervision is a great educational factor in promoting interest in raising better live stock and developing the ability to select good animals.
 A silver cup donated by the Richland county vocational association goes to the winning team.

The Shiloh team consisting of George Dick, Harold Fletcher and Herschel Hamman with Elwood Kuhn alternate, won with a total score of 489.9 points, with Madison High, Lucas and Lexington finishing in the order named. The silver cup and place ribbons are on display in the poultry room of Mr. George Page.

The aid and encouragement of the following was appreciated by the members of the winning Shiloh team: George Page, Dewey Hamman, Bloom Buck, A. McBride, F. Franzens, Geo. Wolever, V. D. McClellan and Russell Reynolds.

Classes judged with the place of each team were:

Shiloh Madison Lucas Lexington
Poultry 1	2	3	4
Hogs 1	2	4	3
Sheep 2	1	3	4
Dairy cows 1	2	2	4
Beef cattle 1	2	4	1
Horses 1	2	4	3

The livestock men who helped to make this work a success by the use of their stock and time were: Black's Raemelton Farm, Mr. Cooke, Mgr. Black's Short horns.

George Page, H. L. Mitchell, and Battery D. O. N. G.—Mr. Noeth.
 Here is a question for this community—"Are we going to send this team to enter the state wide contest at the State Fair?" All honor of Prof. J. H. Bacon who has hazed the trail for agricultural development among the young men in this county to such an extent as to receive recognition in some of the leading farm journals, besides bringing laurels to his home school through his untiring efforts with the young people.

MEMORIAL DAY

Before we celebrate with our own pleasures of the day let's pause and reflect what it all means to us, decorate the memories of those who gave themselves, that we might have union, peace and happiness, and offer up a silent prayer that those, who are still left, may remain for many years to come.

For economical cooking the Perfection Oil Stove simply stands in a class by itself. Compared to other methods, the Perfection hardly costs anything. And another beauty about it is that it's so easy and clean to handle.

Plymouth is a fine looking town. Why not help beautify it by fixing up the lawn this spring?

The hottest flame you ever saw--this Perfection Oil Stove. You can get a meal in a jiffy--and a jiffy is a mighty short space of time, you'll have to admit.

Have you dug up your peas yet to see whether they've sprouted?

Hot days are coming. Be prepared with a Wagner Electric fan. They are not expensive and last for years. Drop in and see these fans. We will be glad to demonstrate them.

A Thomas juar for the hay field, the picnic, the auto trip. They're a handy thing. Keeps the contents either hot or cold. We have them in gallon sizes at $1.50 each.

Gardening is a splendid exercise. It takes the kinks out of your back and sometimes provides a few vegetables.

Our store will be closed all day, Monday, Memorial Day.
