

No Improvement For County Line

In a letter from Forest Smith at Columbus, addressed to C. M. Lofland, information concerning the improvement of Inter-County Highways is given. Inasmuch as a petition has been signed for the improvement of the County Line Road, this information is printed for those who are interested in the project. The letter in full follows:

"Director of Highways, G. P. Schlesinger, has announced that the Department will not hold any hearings for the designation of additional state highways.

"The new highway law, known as the Edwards-Norton Bill, which went into effect the first Monday in January, provides that two hundred miles will be added in any one year. However, this law differs from the old law in regard to the designation of state roads in important respects. The State Road General, in an opinion rendered under date of February 15, 1928, has ruled that an attempt must be made to carry out the provisions of the new law with respect to the notification of property owners within one mile of either side of the proposed road.

"The law also carries a provision that 'appeal may be taken from the final ruling of the State Road General to the court of common pleas in the county or counties where same are situated.' This, in his opinion, would subject the State to expensive litigation either in the way of appeals from the decision of the Director of this Department or from injunctions served on the Department if it attempts to expend any funds in the improvement of roads designated as state highways. The old law contained no such provision for appeal and it requires notification of property owners.

"If an attempt were made to operate under this law, it would mean the employment and organization of an additional force of employees to handle the same. The time of the present personnel is taken with the work of the Department in carrying out the biggest construction, grade elimination and maintenance program this year in the history of the Department and it would be impossible to spare any of the men to assign to the work of hearings in connection with new Inter-County Highways. It is pointed out that the Department is spending about two thousand miles of additional state highways on file. Furthermore, it will be impossible to fund any of the new state roads as all funds available are required to maintain the existing system of eleven Inter-County Highways.

"Following are the last two paragraphs of the opinion of the Attorney General:

"In stating my conclusions as aforesaid, I agree with you that section 1189, supra, is in many ways defective, especially in not making more specific provision as to the persons to whom notice should be mailed and providing the time in which an appeal should be affected and the procedure for such an appeal.

"As we learn the defects of this law from experience, these matters should be properly presented to the next Legislature for correction.

"To conclude, the Department is desirous of the opinion that it would be to the best interests of the state not to hold any hearings for new state highways under the present law but to wait until after the next session of the Legislature when the law can and, undoubtedly, will be corrected and revised to the former state.

"There may be a few exceptions to this general policy such as short changes in location and abandonments of existing state highway."

IT'S AN ILL WIND, ETC.

Saturday was a windy day. Ford cars capable of doing fifty miles per hour were slowed down to eight miles. Roofs rumbled, and every old loose board made a clatter. In fact we thought it was one of those ill winds, and we venture to say that Roy Lofland thought so, too. While returning home after getting a load of hay from Albert Eckstein, the team was heading north on the New Haven road, and just at the curve in front of Snyder's barn a little puff of wind unloosed the hay from under the load. It was blown down the wagon, overturned, but all I found did was to fife it and continue on his way, leaving the hay for a better day. That last sentence is a bit poetical, but we're wondering if it was good luck or bad, especially on such a windy day.

P. S. Jake Myers can also sympathize with Lofland for he had the same experience.

Edw. G. Lewis Sentenced to Pen

Stock job promotion schemes may get the money but in the long run they also get a little letter with the name of Edw. G. Lewis, who a number of years ago was going to build a modern library on the McElfish road with the aid of local assistance, but instead of carrying out plans, absconded with the funds.

Lewis, as he will be recalled, operated out of St. Louis under the name of The Lewis Publishing Co. He was added in Plymouth by a few people who thought the project very good, and solicited money to carry it through. As a climax, Lewis got all the money, and as a result Plymouth is still waiting for the library to be built.

Mrs. O. A. Brooks, who has a friend in St. Louis, and who is visiting in California at present, sent in the following clipping which will be read with much interest and satisfaction:

Los Angeles, April 12.—Edward G. Lewis, Atascadero development project promoter, and Major Henry L. Kramer, his general manager, today prepared to settle their affairs before starting prison terms, May 1.

Lewis was sentenced by Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick to serve five years in a United States penitentiary and pay a fine of $14,000. Kramer was sentenced to one year in prison and a fine of $12,000.

No appeal was planned. A stay of execution until May 1 was granted by Judge McCormick on personal bond.

Lewis was convicted last September on another mail fraud charge and was sentenced to six years in prison and a fine of $15,000. He appealed.

Lewis is credited with having obtained more than $50,000,000 in scores of promotion ventures.

BANK PURCHASES VILLAGE BONDS

The Peoples National Bank was the successful bidder of the bonds offered by the Village of Plymouth which included bonds for the improvements of McLaughlin Ditch, Bell Street, sewer, Fortner Street and North Street, road. The bonds totaled $13,785.75 with accrued interest, and were sold to the bank for $13,932.27.

While the bank was not the highest bidder it was considered however as the best bidder inasmuch as the bonds were accepted.

TWO DRUNKS ARRESTED

Monday evening early, Marshal Burket arrested Cecil Gibson and Howard Hitchcock and charged them with disorderly conduct and drunkenness. Gibson was fined $35 and costs while Hitchcock got $5.00 and cost. Gibson had trouble in raising his fine and will probably be turned over to Mansfield authorities. The men are said to be from Marion.

ON WAY HOME

Word has been received that Mrs. Alma Marvin, who has been spending some time in California, left there April 15, and will probably arrive in Plymouth today.

UNLUCKY FOR HIM

While some people aren't superstitious there will be one Friday the thirteenth that Elmer Markley will well remember for. It was on this day that he lost two fingers while at his work at the Fate-Root-Health Co., when he caught his right hand in a joining machine taking off the index and middle finger. Markley is employed as box pattern maker at the shop and has been here about a year and is a valued employe. The injury will probably keep him from his work about a month.

He has been making his home at the Tourist Inn but until the injured hand is healed he will be with his family at Bucyrus. Markley will be missed by his many friends for he is considered a jovial fellow, always in good spirits and keeps the party filled with happiness. Friends where they were prepared for shipment to Kansas City for interment. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reed accompanied the body to Kansas City.

Mrs. Fannie Mills Goes to Reward

Mrs. Fannie Mills died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Baxline after a lingering illness. Death came quickly and quietly at night. Mrs. Mills was 85 years, six months and ten days at the time of her death, and with the exception of a short period in which she lived at Norfolk and Milan, she had made her home in Plymouth, where she won for herself many admirers of her high ideal christian character. She was a member of the Lutheran church here and was active in its affairs until age 80.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Rev. A. M. Himes of the Lutheran church officiating. H. B. Postels was in charge of arrangements.

Anna Francis Lofland was married to Wellington Mills of Pennsylvania. To this union were born two daughters who survive, Mrs. Alma Baxline, of Plymouth, and Mrs. Wilcox, who is residing in Georgia. Ned Lofland, a brother, is the last surviving member of a family of eleven children.

The passing of Mrs. Mills takes another one of Plymouth's pioneer residents and her kind influence and presence will be greatly missed.

Those out-of-town attending the last rites Monday were Mrs. Henry Baxline, Mrs. Anna Horton and Mrs. A. W. Lombach of Vermilion, Mrs. Wm. Hoffman, A. Kinney and Mr. and Mrs. W. French of Norfolk, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hossler of Greenwich, Mrs. Nellie Randall, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kinshell of Shelby and David Cockburn of Shiloh, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Parson of Wooster.

Interment was made in Greenleaf cemetery.

NEW HAVEN CLASS PLAY TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

The first performance of the Senior Class play, "Cyclone Sally" will be presented this evening at the Town Hall in New Haven. It will also be repeated tomorrow evening.

This is an Eldridge production written by Eugene Hafer and contains a laugh in every line. You can't afford to miss seeing "English Reggie" who is too slow to catch cold, and is utterly unable to see through American puns. Jack Webster, threatens to tame "Cyclone Sally" who insists upon raising cabbage next to the front lawn of his estate, but instead gets a taste himself at the hands of the Cyclone.

J. W. McIntire Heads C. of C.

The continuance of Plymouth's only civic organization was assured for another year Tuesday night when about forty citizens met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and pledged their support to the organization. The meeting was filled with enthusiasm and everyone present felt that the town should have a representative body inasmuch as there are various matters that come up at different times of the year that command attention.

The election of officers for the new year was held and the following were chosen:

President, J. W. McIntire.
Vice-President, Stacy Brown.
Secretary, G. W. Picken.
Treasurer, C. M. Lofland.

A board of directors consisting of five members was also chosen. They are: James A. Root, Ott Kinshell, Rev. A. M. Himes, J. W. McIntire and Stacy Brown.

The discussion of band concerts this summer as well as the half holiday was up before the body and a committee consisting of Chas. Miller, N. B. Rule and W. M. Johns, was appointed to look after the concerts and half holidays as well as arranging for the next monthly meeting which will be the third Tuesday in May.

Fine review of this book in the May number of the McClain Magazine under "THE BOOK OF THE MONTH." You older folks who are fond of family history will enjoy "The Grandmothers."

RELIGIOUS PROFESSION

The beauty and happiness of the life of the religious was set forth in an address Tuesday morning in the chapel of St. Francis home, Tiffin, Ohio by the Rt. Rev. Samuel Stritch, D. D., Bishop of Toledo, after the closing of six young women as members of that community. One of the six was Miss Alma Dorian of Plymouth. The chapel was crowded with their relatives and friends.

Miss Alma's name in religion is Sister Mary Annunziata.

The Dorian family of this place and Miss Mack of Cleveland attended the ceremonies.

OPERETTA PLEASURES

Travel over the Atlantic will take on a new setting after June 1st according to the latest news from England. A huge dirigible to be known as the R-100, will be ready for trial next month. It is described as being twice the size of the Los Angeles or Shenandoah with a capacity of 100 passengers, a crew of forty-two and 16,000 pounds of freight. It will contain lounging decks, dining rooms and other accessories of ocean travel. The builders of the ship say it will make the western trip in sixty hours and the eastern trip in twelve hours and that it is the first of 100 such ships to be built. The report does not say, however, whether it will be equipped with life preservers or parachutes.

Every bettment that one hopes to attain must begin within the individual—we cannot reform ourselves by starting to work from the outside in. A prominent Detroit judge in speaking before a group of club women recently had some pertinent remarks pertaining to this subject in which he said: "The solution of crime if we are to keep it to a minimum, is not in law but in developing in the hearts and minds of the people those ideals and capacities that teach self-control. This is a task of the homes, schools and churches."

The hit-and-run season of baseball and prize fights will soon be about to arrive.

It has been decided by the committee which has the corn borer appropriation in charge that if a federal appropriation for corn borer warfare is made this year, at least ninety per cent of the taxpayer must about his part in paying for cleaning their corn fields. In a hearing the fact was brought out that when the government inspectors and jobholders went into the cornfields to perform this task, it cost the government anywhere from $12 to $15 per acre. This is the usual spread between service performed by government agents and citizens in private life. There has been considerable objection to any appropriation at all for borer warfare. But if it must go on to help the farmers themselves battle the borer, that is done. This will save the nation the travesty of having non-farmer inspectors ride up and down the country in government owned sedans to tell real farmers how to do it.

A Nebraska mayor has issued an ultimatum that any girl caught flirting will be subjected to an old-fashioned spanking. Now half the male population of the town have volunteered to be the official spanker.

Although the next million dollar prize fight date has been set for July 17th, the bigger task is to figure just about how much the average fan can save by that time so the magnates can set the price of admission.

The name of Peaches Browning has been seen again on the front pages, of course, us on the sidelines will say "Well the papers have to fill up the space with something, don't they?"

Returning robins have for some time been acting in the capacity of advance agents for the month which really marks the beginning of the North Atlantic spring—irrespective of what the almanac may have to say about it. The next thirty days will afford an opportunity for homekeeping people to get abundant exercise for their larynx in this form of sport and there's quite a few good stories being told by those participating. HAROLD LLOYD DELIGHTS IN "SPEEDY" COMEDY

Performances Typical of Actor-Producer; New Tunes Featured.

Agath Harold Lloyd has registered a big success as a comedian and film producer. His latest Paramount released comedy entitled "Speedy" will be shown at the Shelby Opera House, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, April 22, 23, 24 and from all accounts it surpasses anything yet attempted by the versatile film star—if that is possible.

Characteristic of all Lloyd comedies and perhaps the biggest factor of the screen comedian's success lies in his ability to inject good, wholesome and novel situations into his films. With "Speedy" Harold has come up to his standard, and many new and hilarious sequences are features of the picture. Everything is new, and treated in a typical Lloyd manner.

The bespectacled comedian is said to be a stickler for authenticity in his pictures, which leads us to believe is the reason for the many interesting scenes of New York City incorporated within the film. Transporting an entire company New York for the sake of authentic atmosphere is ambitious (to say the least), and helps swing the picture along in a delightful smooth manner.

One of the surprises in this latest Lloyd effort, is the appearance of Babe Ruth himself, who figures in one of the baseball sequences. His appearance and subsequent performance adds to the already bright luster of the comedy.

The great laugh in store for all those who see the picture, is the highly amusing sight of a horse drawn street car traveling through the heavily congested streets of New York with Harold at the helm, or in this case, the driver's reins. The antiquated mode of transportation is the subject around which Harold has built his bright story.

Ann Christy is Harold Lloyd's new leading lady, and an accomplished actress she is. There is every reason to believe she will fulfill all that is expected of her in the future.

To anyone who would pass up this new Lloyd comedy, little could be said, unless it would be "quite incomprehensible!"

For Congress

Thomas W. Latham

Former Republican State Senator, Erie, Huron, Sandusky, Seneca, Wood Counties.

Platform

Regard and respect for President Coolidge and his most gracious wife, unexcelled in the history of the White House.

TARIFF: A protective tariff that will retain the present high level of wage, with a just return to capital.

FARMER: A protective tariff supported by the government, brought the industrial world into civilization. The same agency can bring forward the farmer, and place him also in the sun. This district is agricultural, not industrial, therefore, as the farmer prospers, you prosper. The farmer should consolidate his societies into a mighty molding union as does organized labor, cementing that which is good for purse, family and freeds. Unionize, and push the St. Lawrence Canal, also.

A merchant marine. Support the McNary-Haugen bill, remember it does not fix the price, it protects the price.

TAXATION: Maintain a sound balance in Federal Treasury by a minimum reduction of the rate. The cycle of business may hang low in the future, hence this caution. In the state tax all things of record, according to their income and their ability to pay a tax, with a high of 15 per cent to the end that things invisible may feel the touch of a tax receipt.

18th AMENDMENT: Support of the amendment with party endorsement. Increased fines and penalties with more hide bound immigration laws. The amendment has been a success, when it is considered the real complexion of the commonwealth as of today, and in the days of the season. Down in your heart you know this to be true. Picture conditions without this law, consider the tranquility of the home, the multitude of happy women and children, and the thousands of moonstruck autists running amuck on the highways, were this law modified.

Proceed from the stamp, more prohibition and less politics. Demand party indorsements, for any law that is a part of the constitution should be worthy of indorsement. Failure to do this is the very thing that makes more difficult the enforcement of the law. Do not lose faith by reason of violations, which are emphasized by the enemy. Remember the Ten Commandments are violated repeatedly, but who is there that would be in favor of repealing them on this account.

PENSIONS: A National Mothers pension law in conjunction with the states, also an adequate pension for the boys of the World War, with increased pension to civil war veterans. All have earned and deserved it.

CHAIN STORES: A sale tax on all mail order houses, including chain stores, that these foreign establishments may contribute to the cost of local government, as well as the local merchant.

ECONOMY: No more Boulder Dam business, until the 25,000,000 acres of abandoned farm land is put under the plow. Use this money to pay pensions, and to pull the farmer out of the mud on all cross roads.

BANKS: Revamp the Federal Farm Bank to the end of lower interest rates on lands, as it is their terms are similar to those of insurance companies, who do not enjoy the word Federal in their copyright. Some of these banks earn 14 per cent on capital stock. If you are going to help the farmer, help him so he can feel it.

ACROSS THE SEAS: No signing of a bond that would bind America to defend territorial lands across the seas, and that all foreign tardy debtors be civilly, but firmly informed to pay up. Efforts to outlaw war are commendable, but since this country is a treasury of one-third the money of the world, and is located on the Western Hemisphere, it would appear well, to have on hand for the moment, a goodly number of gun boats and flying machines. America stands ready to administer to the ills of the world, but reserves the right to use its own medicine. This is the true spirit of Independence and of America.

LIMITATIONS: Limit the sessions of Congress to four months, include the Ohio Legislature. Limit cost of party expenditure to the minimum. Limit combination of capital to a fair return on investment. This is our policy. If our candidature, we will defend it to the end, whether we receive a single vote or 40,000.

We solicit your vote. Cordially,
THOMAS W. LATHAM

Roger Au Sued by Michigan Firm

The Standard Accident Insurance Company of Michigan has filed suit to municipal court against Roger J. Au, alleging $933.74 with interest is due the plaintiff.

Two causes of action are cited. The Michigan concern, through Attorneys McBride and Wolfe, states that the plaintiff executed bond of $15,000.25 for Au in connection with the paving of the Fredericktown section of the Mt. Gilead-Mt. Vernon road in Knox county.

The first cause of action states that the bonding company paid a bill of $15,311 to the Metropolitan Paving Brick company on May 30, 1927. This is alleged to have been the unpaid amount of a bill against Au held by the brick company.

Editorial News

A Cardinal says the Pope is not interested in American elections. Just like our eminently prominent American citizens.

At a time when the average citizen is engaged in a presidential year, it is not to mention local elections, and his private business affairs, we are urged to bestow attention and cash on another international enterprise. A special cable from Paris exhorts Americans to send a large delegation to Havre, France, where an international conference will be held next month for the extermination of rats. Above all, says the appeal, all nations must make large appropriations of funds for the enterprise.

Like attorneys who fight each other in court and walk down street arm in arm, political differences are forgotten in death. Such was demonstrated in the death of Senator Willis. Not only Republican, but Democratic politicians, who had fought the late senator bitterly, dropped their hammers and paid tribute. Newspapers, alike, all over the country, who had previously swung a bitter pen toward the senator, reversed their sentiments and paid high tribute to the senator who was nationally known to have a treasure of courage in his convictions for anything which he thought to be right.

KINDLY READ LATHAM'S PLATFORM IN THIS ISSUE

Senator Tom Latham's congressional platform appears in this issue. The fact that Tom in the Senatorial contest a few years ago, carried all the counties in the district at the primary proves that he is popular with the voters. When all counties had candidates and in the subsequent election carried the district by over 2500 overcoming a previous Democratic majority of 6500, makes him a strong contender for the nomination at the August primary.

Turn to the platform and read it over for it will refresh many things in your memory.

Mr. Ford gave the State Eighth Grade examination in Geography, English, History and Arithmetic to all Eighth Grade pupils of Bloomington township Monday.

ATHLETIC BANQUET SUCCESS
Shiloh celebrated its first athletic banquet April 17th, at the school auditorium. About seventy-five were seated for the banquet with Mr. Floyd Dent as chief speaker. Other talks were given by Supr. Ford, Mr. Busbey, Mr. Roselle, Miss Cuggy, and the captain of both teams. Due to the fact that no certain person held the permanent position as captain of the boys' team, Paul Ruckman was elected honorary captain and made a very first speech. Jeanne Firestone represented the girls team. Athletic letters for basketball were presented by the Athletic Council to the following members on each team. Those on the boys team receiving letters were:

SMITH HUGHES NEWS

The Smith Hughes department had a very interesting trip Friday to Cleveland. The party consisted of thirteen students and though it was Friday the thirteenth the trip was enjoyed by all. We journeyed to the city by the way of Mr. Moser's Star, Mr. Hetrick's coupe and a 1914 Ford touring which was in good condition.

After the stock yards were packed we were taken through Swifts Flocking House where we saw cattle killed, dressed and packed. After dinner the students in the Ford touring left for home on a few cents and three gallons of gas. They got home that night at ten o'clock with one blow on the head. The rest of the party explored the city and enjoyed a very good show at the Ohio Theatre, after which we left for home.

TEACHER CONVENTION

Last Friday, April 13th the teachers convention was held at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. The teachers could go to the convention or to visit some other school. Mr. Ford and Mr. Roselle were the only two that went to the convention. Miss Cuggy wanted to be herself so she went to Mt. Vernon. Mr. Hetrick and the Smith Hughes class went to Cleveland to visit the stock yards and Swift plant. Miss Water and Mrs. McBride visited schools in Oberlin. Miss Busbey and Mr. Pittenger went to Norwalk. Mr. Busbey stayed at home on account of sickness. Several of the students visited other schools.

CHAPEL

Chapel for April 18th, opened with song, Janita, by the school. This was followed by a recitation by Mary Downend which had been given at The Delphian Literary program. Then Rev. McBroom told how a boy often weakened his character by committing several dishonest acts on the baseball fields. He took a new hold on himself and went straight thus winning the respect and confidence of everyone who knew him. Mr. Ford made a few announcements.

BASEBALL GAMES

Shiloh High School had their first ball game this spring at New Haven on Thursday, April 12th. We had trouble in getting a full team organized owing to the fact that three of our players were out of school. We made a run in our first inning but lost in New Haven's half of the third inning three runs were made due to errors made by our team because of very little practice.

In the fourth we tied the score and in the fifth we made two more runs. When the game had ended the score was 3 to 5 in favor of Shiloh High.

Bob Brumback's two bagger was the best hit of the day.

Hamman in the box did very well for the first game and Brumback back of the plate played a good game as catcher. The schedule has been revised and arranged in the following manner: April 20—Madison at Shiloh. April 27—Shiloh at Belleville. May 4—Shiloh at Madison. May 11—Butler at Shiloh. May 18—Weller at Shiloh.

THE MESSRS. SHUBERT TO PRESENT "A NIGHT IN SPAIN"

The New York Winter Garden Spectacle Coming to the Hanna Theatre, Cleveland, O.

The Messrs. Shubert will present "A Night in Spain," a colorful and international New York Winter Garden revue, at the Hanna Theatre, Cleveland, beginning Sunday, April 22nd, after a year's engagement in New York and twenty weeks in Chicago.

"A Night in Spain" is a perennial mixture of beauty, pageantry, music, buffoonery and dance. It is all things to all people. It is a department store of amusement; having entertainment for every taste. The settings are gorgeous with a background of old Spain, the most picturesque country in the world. The costumes are elaborate beyond description and the cast made up of the best stars of the musical comedy stage.

One of the features in "A Night in Spain" and one that is entirely new is the appearance of two groups of dancing girls in the one production including the celebrated Gertrude Hoffman Girls and the Famous Casino de Paris girls. Rivalry runs high between these two well-known troupes which makes the chorus of this new revue the fastest stepping company of dancers ever seen on any stage.

The following cast will be seen in "A Night in Spain": Ted Healy, Aileen Stanley, Geneva McCormick, Cortez & Pecky, Fud Brown, Bob Stanley, George Anderson, Glen Dale, Mabel Ash, Kaye & Roche, Tito Coral, Bobby Pinkus, Sam Braun, J. Colvin Dunn, Larry Pine, Lillian Smith, Barbara Vernou, Andreine Trio, and Helba Huars, the sensation of Spain and South America, the foremost troupe of Spanish character dances, and scores of others who contribute their share in the proceedings.

The music of "A Night in Spain" was written by Jean Schwartz. Lyrics by Al Pyral, staged by Gertrude Hoffman and Charles Judels, with dances by Ralph Reader.

Mr. Adam Weaver was given a pleasant surprise, Thursday evening, April 15th, when his children and grandchildren met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weaver on Sandusky Street to celebrate the seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of Mr. Weaver.

The evening was spent in music, games and conversation, and a delicious lunch was served. Mr. Weaver was the recipient of a beautiful chair in remembrance of the occasion.

Mr. Weaver was a former resident of Shelby, having made his home there twenty-six years ago. He has been a resident of Plymouth for the past ten years, where he has made a host of friends, who with the relatives extend their congratulations and best wishes for many more happy birthdays.

The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Fred

Weaver and family of Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Weaver and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Weaver and son, Victor, of Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis, of New Haven.

"FEEL MY PULSE" WITH BEBE DANIELS, A HIT

When it comes to providing excellent motion picture entertainment and a steady series of laughs Bebe Daniels, Paramount star, has no equal among comedienne.

Funny situations, fast action and many thrills go together with Miss Daniels and this production is no exception. It is a combination of "Senorita," "Swim, Girl, Swim," and "She's a Sheik," her recent successes, all rolled into one and, although the story is different it is refreshingly so and is real entertainment from the start right through to the finish.

In the opening reels one is led to believe that the Paramount star will be given little chance to show her athletic prowess for she is shown as a young American girl who is interested in nothing else but her health. One tiny germ disrupts her day. She goes to a sanitarium of which she is the owner, on a desolate island and there finds it in possession of a gang of bootleggers who are using it as a base of operations for their work.

At first Miss Daniels is led to believe that the "patients" are legitimate but it soon develops that she has landed in the midst of a tiny war between the bootleggers and the hit-jacks. Here it is that the star is given ample opportunity to demonstrate just how healthy she really is. The finish is fast, furious and highly amusing.

"Feel My Pulse" will be shown at the Shelby Opera House, Sunday, April 22nd.

Sleet Storms

Such as we have just experienced cost a telephone company thousands of dollars. Yet this is a part of the cost of operating a telephone plant — a cost which cannot be covered by insurance.

You can readily see this cost now after the recent storm, yet a telephone company must lay aside a reserve each year to meet this cost in addition to the regular operating expenses necessary to render you service.

It costs a lot more money to give you service than is apparent at first thought.

"LOVE" BRINGS TWO BIG STARS TOGETHER

John Gilbert and Greta Garbo, Who Scored as a Team in "Flesh and the Devil," Triumph Anew in This Edmund Goulding Picture.

John Gilbert and Greta Garbo, who as a team scored one of the sensational successes of the year in "Flesh and the Devil," and whose real-life romance immediately following furnished gossip for film fans the world over, appear again before the camera for the first time since in "Love," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's spectacular filmization of "Anna Karenina." Tolstoy's classic of Russia, which comes Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 22, 23, 24 to the Temple Theatre, Willard, Ohio.

The new picture, one of the most gorgeous and spectacular film romances of the season, presents both in roles that perhaps fit them better than any others that could be imagined. Gilbert, splendidly unformal, is seen as the debonair and romantic Count Yronsky, a role that recalls his great bit in "The Merry Widow," with Miss Garbo in the role of the tragic Anna, who sacrifices all for love, only to be dogged by a strange and sinister doom.

Edmund Goulding directed the new picture, which was staged on a lavish scale. The cast is notable, including George Fawcett, who played the king in "The Merry Widow," as the Grand Duke; Brandon Hurst as the husband, Count Karenin; Philippe De Lacy, Emil Sitton, and others of note.

Among the players are several interesting characters: Prince Youca Troubetzkoy, playing a staff officer; General Michael Pleeschoff, former Russian army commander, who fled from the revolution, and General Theodore Lott, another Russian refugee, as generals on the Grand Duke's staff.

Spectacular reproductions of Russian castles, a great cathedral, a thrilling series of maneuvers of the Russian officers and other elaborate detail form a background for this vivid story of the love between a young count, and the heroine of this vivid play. The picture is one of the most pretentious productions of the new season, and one of the most interesting screen dramas of years.

"THE HARVESTER" BY GEORGE STRATTON-PORTER

To Show at Temple Theatre, Willard, Friday and Saturday, April 20th and 21st. Great Cast Directed by Leo Meehan.

"The Harvester," an FBO picture adapted for the screen from the late George Stratton-Porter's novel of the same name, comes to the Temple Theatre on Friday and Saturday with a cast of players who truly bring to life the characters of the book, so often familiar to a wide circle of readers.

Further adding to the realism of the picture is the fact that it was produced under the direction of Leo Meehan, who is the son-in-law of the author, and through familiarity with the story was enabled to select players who exactly typified the characters she had visualized.

Baby Chick Troubles and Mischief and Their Control

by G. S. Vickers, Field Manager, Ohio Accredited Hatcheries

Literally millions of chicks die or are killed every year in Ohio from causes that are preventable. Great losses are due to outbreaks of diseases, most of which could be prevented by careful management. In this article we propose to discuss largely the factors causing losses other than diseases and worms, since we took up this phase in our previous article.

Diarrhea
There are two kinds of diarrhea, and this fact has caused and still causes a great deal of confusion in the poultry business. One form is caused by a diarrhea, and is known as bacillary white diarrhea. Just how much damage and what the best methods of control are for this disease is not definitely known, and the United States Department of Agriculture, the Ohio State University, and the Kansas Agricultural College are now starting a very comprehensive series of experiments on this subject, and when finished should give us pretty definitely the status of this very important problem in the poultry business.

The other form of diarrhea cannot be distinguished from the bacillary form except by laboratory examination, and may be caused by a number of things such as chilling, overheating, improper feeding, spoiled feed, etc.

In cases of this kind it is always helpful to give a slight purge, such as Epsom salts in the drinking water at the rate of about three-fourths of a pound to about four gallons of water. Where the feed is suspected, it should be removed immediately and fresh feed given. Feed held over from one season to the next may be musty or moldy, and great care should be taken to see that none of this kind is given.

Chicks once badly chilled or overheated are seriously damaged and it is likely heavy losses will result regardless of the treatment. Good brooding equipment will largely prevent this trouble.

Crowding
Crowding may be caused by a number of things to begin with, but once started, quickly becomes a habit which is very difficult to stop. At the start, crowding is usually caused by one of the following chilling, overheating or fricht.

When chicks are cold, they naturally crowd together to keep warm, and if they get cold enough will likely trample a lot to death. If this condition exists a few times, the habit is likely to be established. When too hot, they naturally all crowd as far away from the heat as possible, and this is usually in the corners. When frightened from such causes as sudden loud noises, dogs, or children running around the houses and banging the doors, windows, etc., the chicks naturally huddle together for protection. If any of these things happen a few times, the chicks soon crowd on the slightest pretense, and then it is almost impossible to stop them.

"The Harvester" is Orville Caldwell, who has alternated between screen and stage for the past seven years, and who is perhaps best known through his appearance for two and one-half years as "The Knight," the leading male role in Morris West's great stage spectacle, "The Miracle." Appearing opposite Caldwell in "The Harvester" is Natalie Kingston, formerly principal dancer at the Winter Garden in New York, lately featured opposite Harry Langdon in many pictures, and more recently seen as leading lady for Milton Sills.

Jay Hunt, veteran actor and director on both stage and screen, and well remembered for his playing of the title role in the screen version of "Lightnin'," appears as Dr. Carey and the role of Dr. Brad Jamison is in the hands of Will Walling, another veteran with a record of thirty-seven years, as an actor.

Other well known players who are members of "The Harvester" cast are Lola Todd, Edward Hearn and Fanny Midgley.

LEGAL NOTICE
Notice is hereby given that Lucia A. Howell of Plymouth, O., has been duly appointed and qualified as administratrix of the estate of Edwin Howell late of Plymouth, Richland County, Ohio, deceased.
Date March 31st, 1928.
C. L. McCLELLAN,
Probate Judge of Richland County, O. 5-15-28.

The following procedure should be taken: Have a good brooder house of sufficient size and a good self-regulating stove so that there are no extremes in temperature; don't overcrowd the house with chicks because there is a limit to the amount of space in a house where the chicks will be comfortable; don't shake the stove too much before going to bed, and see that there is a good bed of coals before retiring at night; use good grades of fuel so that the fire will burn good all night; get the chicks roosting as soon as possible; round off the corners in the houses with boards, etc.; if they start to crowd it may be necessary to spread them out after dark; be very careful not to frighten them while they are small.

Toe Picking and Tail Picking
This is a trouble which causes lots of losses and worry when once started. It is largely habit, but may be caused by poor rations. It occurs mostly when chicks have been confined to the houses for long periods. Injury to a chick may start it, and after blood is once tasted there seems to be created an almost unlimited craving for more blood and meat. Chicks standing in the sun which causes the toes to shine may start it, or growing feathers which contain blood may be picked, etc. Lack of anything else to do when confined to the houses for long periods usually results in picking of some kind.

The toes and tails are the parts most generally picked. When once started the picked should be immediately removed and the picked parts painted with tar or some other distasteful material before they are put back in the pen. If they can be gotten outdoors on good range it will help greatly and if pieces of raw meat or green feed, or even pieces of cloth can be hung on strings for them to jump at and pick it will help give them something to do.

And Ladies—Did you ever hear your husband remark about the nice appearance of some friend or neighbor's surroundings? If so, your husband's plan it was due to a few trillises or possibly a pergola. We have the Lattice and other material needed to make these, but if your husband does not prefer to turn Carpenter, we can furnish you with some nice six and eight foot fan-trillises all ready to put up.

It'd be enough to drive a car in the rain but a lot worse to park it out doors, night after night, especially when a good garage can be built for so little by our plan. Come in and let's talk it over.

And yes, we have the material for that Garage. Come in and let us show you our Garage Doors and Garage Door Hangers.

Now that House Cleaning Time is here it would be a fine time to lay that Hard Wood Floor. Just call 304 or better still call at our office so that we may become better acquainted and place that order. We can send that floor also with our new Floor Surfing Machine.

No, we have an Spring tonic or other medicine to offer you but just the same we are Spring time specialists in helping you forget the long Winter and "fix up" for Spring. It's building time, it's painting time, it's wire

How about those gates that you are in need of? We have White Pine Lumber which is ideal for that purpose. Also the "Can't Sag Gate Steels". Harvest time is on the wing. SHILOH NEWS

MRS. SARAH DARLING

Passed away at Home in Shiloh Monday Morning at 10:10.

Mrs. Sarah Darling of Shiloh, widow of W. S. Darling, passed away Monday morning at 10:10 in the family home in Shiloh, as the result of severe injuries received from burns while lighting a fire.

Mrs. Darling was born November 28th, 1853, and was 74 years old. She is survived by three daughters, Miss Pearl Darling, at home, and Mrs. J. E. Hodges and Mrs. Frank Williams of Cleveland.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family home, and was conducted by Rev. Lehr McCord. Burial was made at Plymouth.

Truly Mrs. Darling was one of the community's most beloved women. Her kind and gentle disposition gave those who came in contact with her a desire to live a clean and wholesome life. Her influence for the betterment of the community was felt far and wide, and news of the tragic accident cast a gloom over the entire village.

MRS. ALVERDA HUNTER'S DEATH

An ideal citizen, a wonderful wife, mother, friend and neighbor, passed away early Friday morning. She was a glorious woman whose kindly smile was dispensed to all and whose generous hospitality made a home of happiness not only for her immediate family but to all her friends, and they were legion. A man of the cadaverous, loyal and love a friend of which was seen in the great offerings and large attendance at her funeral which was conducted at her late home Monday afternoon by Rev. L. A. McCord with very impressive services. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at home.

INSTRUCTIVE INSPECTION

The inspection of Angels Chapter O. E. S., Wednesday evening by District Deputy Grand Matron Mrs. Beale Speelman made a delightful affair for the chapter and visitors. The work was done exceptionally well and deserved the complimentary remarks given them, by the deputy and matrons, and patrons from visiting chapters. The floral wrist bands composed of sweet peas and ferns tied with dainty ribbon, and presented to the officers were an effective innovation and were the gifts of the worthy matron, Mrs. Ethel Russell and the conductress, Mrs. Elma Stevenson. The vocal solo "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer," sung by Mrs. Fannie McBride was not only appropriate, but an inspiration for this particular evening, and was much appreciated. The pot luck supper preceded the inspection was enjoyed by all. Guests in the East were worthy matron Marie Kaylor and worthy patron, Crystal Seton of Ripah chapter and worthy patron Lester Obermiller of Harmony chapter. Other guests included seven from Shelby and five from Crestline.

Who said Leap year? Rev. G. R. Mente had a very pleasant visit on Wednesday from Floyd B. Sutlin, Gordon A. Schwan, Miss Harriet Sibbett and Miss Dorcas A. Hawn, all well known folks of this community; after a prolonged session it developed that the wedding bells were about to ring out, and Mr. Floyd R. Sutlin and Miss Harriet Sibbett took their places before the dominie, Mr. Schwan acting as best man and Miss Hawn as lady of honor. Dr. Mente in his pleasing planner proceeded with the solemn rite of the church, the young people then exchanging most beautiful platinum rings, while the Dr. explained the oriental mysteries concerning this ceremony. The young couple thus pledged themselves for life, the Dr. pronouncing them man and wife under the laws of the state. After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Mansfield, Sturgis Ave., 47.

PIGS IS PIGS

If any customers call at Art Moser's hardware store and don't find him in, just keep on going until you get to his house. There you'll find him busily occupied with building a queer structure. This not an addition to the residence or a hot house, but it is simply a building for guinea pigs. Art has gone into the business and we wish him success. We've never eaten any, and doubt if they're good to eat. But anyway, we understand the hospitals over the country need them and Art is going to try and supply the demand. If they taste anything like Geo. Page's ducks Moser won't have to make any outside shipments.

Just heard that George Thomas was interested in this guinea pig raisin, and maybe he could give us some light on this subject. Anyway, Art will probably be charging 10c per person to view his pigs in a few months and then he won't need to sell the little pigs.

New Way of Getting Next to Bootleggers

Willard—A prohibition stunt caused the arrest of John Costeln, proprietor of the Arlington restaurant here on a charge of selling liquor. Costeln was fined $1,000 and costs by Mayor E. K. McMorris and was sent to jail when he was unable to pay the fine. The stunt was pulled when a man was arrested for drunkenness. He was asked if he could get more liquor. He said he could and was given an empty bottle by police, who followed him. The man was seen to enter the Arlington and he emerged with a bottle of liquor which was used as evidence against Costeln. Upon his arrest, Costeln pleaded not guilty, and is being a hearing which resulted in his conviction. The man who collected the "evidence" was fined $5 and costs which were suspended.
