H. S. SMITH IS NEW SHERIFF

Harry D. Smith of near Steuben is the new sheriff of Huron county, succeeding Edward P. Gregory, who recently resigned because of his personal life. Deputy Sheriff E. H. Shimmann and Ralph Eldridge to take some confiscated liquor from the basement of the Huron county jail with the intention of selling it.

Mr. Smith, the new sheriff, was appointed at a meeting of the Huron County Commissioners held Tuesday morning. It is understood, and will serve the two year term which Gregory was elected in November, 1928.

Mr. Gregory handed his resignation to the commissioners on Monday morning. While the members of the body expressed regret, they accepted the resignation without a dissenting vote.

As to whether a charge will be brought against Gregory in connection with the removal of the liquor from the jail is not known. However, it is generally felt that little if anything can be done. Prosecuting Attorney F. C. Martin declined to talk along this phase of the case when he was questioned Monday morning.

The liquor that had been taken by Shimmann and Eldridge was that which had been confiscated from a man by the name of Shulte from Cincinnati, who was arrested on a charge of transporting liquor. The liquor was stored in the basement of the jail and it was the intention to destroy it as soon as Shulte was convicted. Gregory stated that Shimmann came to him on Wednesday night of last week and made the remark that it looked like good alcohol and ought to bring a good price. He then asked if he could take some of it. Gregory stated that he did not remember just what reply he made but admitted that he indicated that it would be O. K. Gregory was then asked if any specific terms were proposed for a split in case of a sale. He replied with an emphatic "No."

The liquor was removed from the jail at 11:30 Wednesday night through a side door, and it is understood that none of the deputies knew anything about it.

The two men, Shimmann and Eldridge, were arrested between one and two o'clock Thursday morning by Deputy Sheriff Bob Doble, of Sandusky County. They were driving a Buick sport roadster and it is stated, forty gallons of the liquor was found in the car. The deputy sheriff first observed the car just east of Bellevue. He then followed it into Clyde where it stopped for a traffic light. Doble took advantage of this opportunity to examine the car. He discovered a sawed off shot gun laying on the ledge of the car behind the seat. He also discovered the liquor.

Shimmann did the talking for the pair. He was inclined to pour the liquor into the water. He disapproved of the Huron county deputy sheriff badge and a state prohibition agent's badge. He explained that he was on official duty. Doble was not satisfied with the story and a further investigation revealed that the men had been strapped around their waists with three large police flash lights. Shimmann stated that the liquor had been abandoned by a bootlegger near Bellevue and that he was taking it to the Federal Court at Toledo. This did not ring true with Doble, who felt that if such was the case the liquor should not be taken to the Federal court but should be taken to the county seat. He then took the men into custody.

Sandusky county officials immediately got in touch with the sheriff's office at Norwalk. Gregory admitted that Shimmann was a Huron county deputy sheriff. However, State Probation Director J. W. Beatham stated that Shimmann had not been connected with the state department for five months.

Gregory stated that the liquor had been taken from the jail and that he knew that Shimmann had a key to the basement.

All that time it was not supposed that Gregory was in any way implicated in the affair. However, no doubt being that Shimmann and Eldridge would tell how they had been permitted to remove the liquor, he decided to make a clean breast of it.

WE WILL PRINT EARLY NEXT WEEK

Next week the Advertiser will be printed on Monday afternoon. All copy must be in by Monday noon.

Our reason for this early printing is, of course, due to the fact that Christmas, the greatest of all holidays, coming on Wednesday and by getting the paper out of the way early in the week we can properly celebrate the day.

We feel confident that our readers and advertisers will bear with us on this occasion and will endeavor to get their copy in early for the next issue.

Remember, we print Monday afternoon, and all copy must be in by noon on that day.

Improvements At Hough Meat Market

The large front window at the Hough meat market at this place has been set out to the side walk. Also a new display shelf has been constructed just inside the window. Carpenters were busy with this work the forepart of the week.

His shop window, unlike those in the front of the other stores in town, was set back in a few feet. This left a sort of "landing" in front of the store. The elimination of this will afford considerable more room in the store.

Health Commissioners Inspect Business Places

With the advent of the Christmas season, during the period when the buying and selling of candy and confections is at its peak, Dr. T. R. Meyer, Richland county health commissioner, has sent sanitary officers on tours of inspection through stores, calling attention of proprietors of establishments to the Ohio health act which stipulates that all candy and confections must be covered and guarded from dust, dirt and unwholesome contact with persons, he announced.

It is the intention of this department to make inspections of all places where candy and confections are sold, at regular intervals. Dr. Meyer stated.

"This is a measure of protection which must be resorted to in order to protect the health of the community. All foods which cannot be washed or cooked should be covered in a sanitary manner," Dr. Meyer urged.

Lippus Will Furnish Shades For New School

H. J. Lippus, proprietor of the Lippus Dry Goods Store at this place, has been awarded the contract for the furnishing the window shades at the new high school building in Plymouth. This was the decision at a recent meeting of the board of education, and it is understood that the Lippus bid was the lowest of those received.

Mr. Lippus stated Tuesday afternoon that the shades would be installed sometime during the Christmas vacation, as it is expected that the building will be ready for use when school reopens on January 6th. He states that a good substantial shade will be used by one of the many types made by the Columbia Mills. Mr. Lippus will install the shades personally.

The installing of the shades will be no small task since a total of forty-three will be required for the new building.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The annual congregational meeting of the First Lutheran church of Plymouth, Ohio, for the election of officers and receiving of reports will be held in the church on January 2, 1930 at 7:30 o'clock.

June (examining his hat)—"I must have this hat rebalanced." "Dave—Oh, just put it on your head—It'll be all right."

FUND LIKELY TO REACH GOAL

Contributions are pouring in daily to the Plymouth Library fund, and at the time of this writing it seemed apparent that the goal of $150.00 would be reached on Christmas eve.

On Wednesday it was reported that a total of $134.67 had been contributed. This is only a little over fifteen dollars short of the goal.

The ladies of the Library Board announced the following contributions: Plymouth Chp. No. 115 R. A. M. $25.00; Tourist Club $10.00; Twentieth Century Club $10.00; W. M. Johns $5.00; Pythian Sisters $5.00; Eastern Stars $5.00; The Holder Co. $5.00; American Legion $5.00; N. B. Rule $5.00; Lions Club $5.00.

The following gave a total of $131.25. These were all in smaller donations: Slacy Hotel, Roy Hatch, Mrs. W. Trimmer, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Ed. W. Lett, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Volard, John Beeman, Robert Nimmons, Roy Kate, Mrs. Norris Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Kate Taylor, Hough Meat Market, Mrs. Alex Bachrach, Miss Grace Ernst, Mrs. E. T. Carter, Mrs. W. Ellis, Miss Helen Preston, Dewitt Bakery, H. Beckwith.

A total of $43.52 was realized from the Library Benefit Bridge Party that was held a few days ago. All of these sums make the total of $134.67. The library board wishes to extend its thanks to all those who have given and to those who patronized the bridge party.

An appeal is made for all others in the town and community to help in order to assure the goal of $150.00 being reached and passed.

As has been announced the Library will be moved from its present location in the room on Sandusky street to the new headquarters in the north room of the Beaver property on Plymouth street. This removal will be made soon after the first of the year.

This room will be used solely for library purposes and will offer more and better advantages to the library than is true at the present.

This drive for funds was necessary if the library was to continue at all and at the same time it will assure a bigger and better library. With these things in mind the people of Plymouth have given very liberally.

Plastering Completed At New School Building

Work on Plymouth's new high school building continues, with the workmen putting in overtime to speed up the work. The forepart of this week the plastering was completed. The auditorium and the rooms in the upper floor are nearly finished.

The biggest end of the work yet to be done is the plumbing and the installing of rest room and lavatory fixtures. It is understood that a part of these fixtures are not yet on the ground.

School officials still entertain the hope, however, that the building can be occupied on January 6th, when school will reconvene after the Christmas vacation. It is planned to move some of the equipment from the old building that will be needed in the new building, during vacation.

One thing is certain and that is the auditorium will be used for the basketball game between Plymouth and Shiloh on next Friday evening, December 27th.

A formal dedication ceremony will be held at the building later on in the winter. For that event it is expected that the State Director of Education will be present to make the principal address.

MARCELLING on Saturday of this week and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday by Miss Oa Waters, in the home of Mrs. Penrod on Birchfield St. Price 50c. Call 36 for appointments.

NOTICE
The Library will not be open Christmas eve and Christmas evening nor New Year's eve and New Year's evening.

SMASH-UP NEAR PHILLIPS HOME

An automobile accident occurred on the New Haven road near the Lewis Phillips home, a mile and a half north of Plymouth about 7 o'clock Tuesday evening when two Motel T Ford coupes came together.

Mrs. L. G. McCullough of New Haven was driving the one car while a man by the name of Lux from Willard was driving the other. Mrs. McCullough was returning to her home from Plymouth, while Lux was driving south. Owing to the fog and rain the road was indistinct and Mrs. McCullough stated that she was blinded by the lights of the other car. She had, however, pulled off the main road on the Lux stub to the middle of the road. The Lux stub caps on the front wheels came together.

The Lux car was thrown off the road and turned over in the ditch. Mrs. McCullough's car remained right where it was and was seriously damaged. The other car was more seriously damaged. Lux stated that he had insurance on his car. There was no insurance on the McCullough car.

Mrs. McCullough is a teacher at the local school southwest of Plymouth. Neither driver was hurt in the accident.

WILL RETIRE FROM GROCERY BUSINESS

G. G. Paine, who has conducted a grocery store at this place for a past more than one year, expects to close out the store and retire from the Grocery business; according to an announcement made Tuesday morning.

Mr. Paine is now conducting a close out sale of his large stock of staples and fancy groceries at greatly reduced prices. He states that this sale must be completed within four weeks.

Upon being asked just what he expected to do in the future Mr. Paine could not state definitely. However, he says that he expects to continue to live in Plymouth. It is entirely possible at a future date he will go into some line of business, but it will not be the grocery business.

Mr. Paine opened his grocery store here in October, 1928, in his present location on the north side of Broadway just west of the square. Accordingly he has been in business about fourteen months.

It is with regret that it is learned that Mr. Paine is closing out his store here, but at the same time it is a pleasure to learn that he expects to continue to live here.

K. OF P. LODGE HOLDS MEETING

The local K. of P. lodge met in regular session Tuesday night with a good attendance. Ora Williams was present and gave the report of the second degree at the meeting.

A lunch was enjoyed by all members present.

The lodge will install officers at the first regular meeting night in January. The new Chancellor Commander will be Dan Campbell. The present Chancellor is Jesse Ruth.

TAX PAYMENT TIME EXTENDED

The Huron county commissioners have extended the tax payment period from December 20th to January 20th. This decision was reached Monday December 16th.

The action was taken in accordance with a long established custom. The period allowed by law is December 20th but the commissioners have the power to extend the time until January 20th.

Deadly Tarantula Found In Bananas at Local Store

Probably everyone has heard of the deadly tarantula, the poisonous spider like insect that lives in bunches of bananas, but probably few have ever seen one.

The forepart of the week one of these death-dealing spiders was found in a bunch of bananas at the Red in Front Grocery at this place. They now have it in captivity in a glass fruit can in that store.

Arthur Cornell, who is employed at the store was cutting off an order of bananas for a customer. In turning over some of the fruit he saw the tarantula "looking straight at him," as he expressed it. He recognized it at once and naturally there was a little excitement in the store when it was recalled that the tarantula is a fast traveler since they can jump fully ten feet through a hole in a wall. The tarantula was brought into use and the deadly insect was guided into the fruit can and there made a prisoner.

The sting of the tarantula is certain death unless medical aid is obtained at once to prevent the blood from coagulating by stinging in the body. Unless deadly insect was kept at once death will result within three hours.

The tarantula that was found at the local store is about two-thirds grown. It has a small body with long legs and a common spider. It is brown and black and appears to be covered with soft hair. When full grown, it is stated that they are yellow in color.

It is understood that they will sting only when cornered or about to be injured and apparently will try to get out of the way before they will pierce themselves by stinging in the skin. All bunches of bananas are carefully inspected before being sent out, it is stated, but the tarantula that is in the bananas at the local grocery apparently was not noticed.

School Will Have Two Weeks Vacation

The young people in the Plymouth school will enjoy a long Christmas vacation this year. School will be dismissed Friday evening, December 20th, and will not open until Monday morning, January 6th.

This means two full weeks in which to enjoy the new Christmas presents and to recover from the effects of too much Christmas candy and the other holiday sweets.

Since it happens that Christmas falls right in the middle of the school week, and then New Year's Day, another holiday, coming in the middle of the next week, will be the only practical way was to have two complete weeks in which the school doors will be closed.

When the students in the junior and senior high schools walk out of the door tomorrow afternoon it is entirely possible that will be the last time. If at all possible it is hoped that after the two weeks have passed that the students of the six upper grades will assemble in the new building at the north end of town. In any event, of course, the children in the lower six grades will return to the old building on West Broadway.

Snow Will Help the Christmas Season

After waiting for two weeks to snow those who feel that it is essential for the Christmas season were awarded on Wednesday when a light fall of snow covered the ground. It is expected that this snow is one of the necessities of a perfect Christmas season? Now that the weather is somewhat colder and the snow is here the spirits of the people will change and they will fall in step with the true spirit of yuletide.

It can be expected that this week end and the forepart of next week there will be witnessed an unprecedented amount of Christmas shopping. It may have been a little slow up until now but make way for the next four shopping days. The people are going to make up for it then.

Lighted Candles Will Bring Carol Singers

The Plymouth girl scouts will sing Christmas carols on Christmas eve if you wish to hear them it is requested that you place a lighted candle in the window.

FAST GAME FOR DEC. 27

In what might be termed an informal opening of Plymouth's new school building the basketball teams of Plymouth and Shiloh high schools will come together in the new auditorium here on Friday evening, December 27th.

The new high school building, as has been stated in a previous issue this game can be played in the new auditorium only through the courtesy of The Hetrick Construction Co., contractor for the new building. Mr. Hetrick has very graciously allowed the high school athletic association the use of the building on that night. It is understood to be entirely his own action since, of course, the board of education will have nothing to do with the new building at that time.

The building will not be under the supervision of the board until entirely completed and turned over by the Hetrick Co.

At the same time this game, or rather two games, since both the boys and girls will play, will be the opening of basketball in Plymouth for the season. The first basketball game will be called at 7:30. Plymouth and Shiloh adjoining communities and it is only natural that there is keen rivalry between the two schools. This double header should decide the basketball supremacy.

A temporary board walk will be constructed at the board school building in time for the game, according to Supt. R. E. Miller. The walk will be four feet wide and will be used until next spring when a modern concrete or flag stone walk is constructed.

All fans are urged to come to this first home game of the season. Plymouth high school has thirteen games yet to play on their schedule. Of this year ten are at home. This means at least one home game each week. The home games are as follows:

- December 27—Shiloh.
- January 3—Weller.
- January 10—Lexington.
- January 11—New Washington.
- January 22—Willard.
- January 24—Lucas.
- January 31—Aadoro.
- February 8—Monroeville.
- February 14—Madison.
- February 21—Ontario.

On Friday evening of this week the teams go to Chatfield for a double header. After that there are but two games away from home. One is on January 17th with Madison, and the other is on February 15th with Lexington.

All of the games played on the home floor are double headers, and in the most of them the Plymouth girls team will play. If the girls do not take part in a double header than the Plymouth reserves will play.

Season tickets are being sold this year for all home games. The tickets are priced at $2.50 for adults and $2.00 for students. They are good for the entire season. By paying 50 cents extra Supt. Miller advises that the tickets can be reserved. Thus by paying $2.00 in the case of adults and $1.50 by students the same seat can be had for each of the ten games. These season tickets are now on sale.

The single admission price for home games will be the same as in past seasons, that is 35 and 25 cents. Plymouth bids fair to have two good years for all home games. There is good material in both squads and there is the most of the future games on the home floor both the boys and girls teams should make an excellent showing.

So far this season the boys have played five games. They have won one for all home games. The girls have won one out of two. While that record does not seem so good it should be remembered that the locals have encountered some very hard opposition against Monroeville, Willard, Shiloh, Ontario and Weller.

It can be expected that this Friday night was close in the game that first Willard is a much larger school than Plymouth.

AUTO PLATES ARE MOVING SLOW
 The 1930 automobile license plates are moving rather slow at the office of Paul Russell, the local distributor of plates, according to information received at that place Tuesday afternoon.
 This despite the fact that it is generally known that the plates can be put on machines on this Saturday and used in place of the 1929 plates. The law says that the plates can be used on and after December 21st. Furthermore, the law goes on to say that the plates must be on January 1st.
 At the time this is read automobile owners will have less than two weeks in which to get the plates if they want to use the car on New Year's Day.

All auto owners in the community are urged to buy their plates now if they want to avoid that final rush during which it is practically certain about 800 auto owners will want to get their plates in two or three days time.

As a final word of caution see that you have a bill of sale properly recorded. See that it is stamped "Licenses Issued for 1929," or if you have changed cars since the first of the present year see that it bears the stamp "Transfer Issued." It must show one stamp or the other before you can get the 1930 plate. Another thing, get your plates in person. Do not send someone else for them, as they will not be issued to a representative. Still another thing: If you and some other person owns the car in partnership, both of you must call to get the license. All these are rulings made by the State Motor Vehicle License Bureau at Columbus and Mr. Russell or any other deputy commissioner has no right to change them.

 There is absolutely no reason why anyone should wait until the last day of the year to get an auto license. They are exactly the same price whether purchased early or late. If you get them now you will not have to stand in line for perhaps two or three hours. Do both yourself and Mr. Russell a favor by getting the plates within the next day or two.

RUM-LADEN AUTO SEIZED LAST WEEK

Vern Wynn, aged about 40 years, and claiming a residence in Wisconsin, was arrested Wednesday evening of last week on the Columbus highway near Bellevue on the charge of transporting and possessing liquor. The liquor included five cases of whiskey and three cases of port wine.

When arraigned before Judge Irving Carpenter at Norwalk a fine of $500 and costs was imposed on him. The defendant is to stand committed to the Toledo workhouse until he pays.

Deputy sheriffs arrested Wynn while he was driving southward in a Model T Ford coupe with a wife. When he was stopped and the liquor found in the car Wynn appeared very much surprised. He stated that when he left Port Clinton a man handed him a package and told him to deliver it in Marion. He said that he did not know the contents. He testified that he and his wife were enroute to Marion to help his mother celebrate her birthday.

The car was confiscated and taken to the Mart on E. Seminary street in Norwalk. It is reported that the liquor is probably of synthetic make, although it was done up in a rather propoosing style.

Huron county has been doing a land office business in the booze department. Harry Schults, the young Cincinnati man who was arrested on the Benjamin Franklin highway recently with eighty gallons of liquor paid the $700 fine imposed by Judge Carpenter and then went on his way.

Harry Newman, alias Noon, driver of the booze car that burned up in the ditch just west of the Jay Woodward home on Route 17, paid a fine of $500 and was turned loose. Newman's two companions were released. The car driven by Newman contained 100 gallons of liquor.

Huron county has proven a somewhat thrilling district for liquor runners since the first of the year. A number of big hauls were made by officers on Route 20. Then it seemed that the stream was diverted to the Benjamin Franklin highway. Now, it is believed, the Columbus Pike is selected by the runners as their main route through the county. County officers have been given to understand that Port Clinton is a big distributory point for illicit liquor in this part of the state.

FAMOUS RAILROAD CONTRACTOR DEAD
James J. Ryan, aged 51, a celebrated contractor who superintended double tracking operations for the B. & O. railway and who at one time was the owner of a farm near Greenwich, is dead at Philadelphia.

He was born in Ireland and came to this county when twenty years old. He with a partner purchased the old Lan Kniffin farm near Greenwich under the belief that Greenwich would grow to be a large town and that the land would be sold at a profit. In time the land was sold to Alexander Luxton. According to news received from Philadelphia he laid many branch lines for railroad companies including the laying of the tracks into that city for the B. & O. In addition he built the Reading terminal there.

January 20 Dead Line for Dog Tax

The dead line for dog license tags in Huron county is January 20th. After that date the new 1930 tags must be worn by the canine population of the county or they will be taken into custody. That is, unless the owner still wishes to buy a tag, and in that case there will be a penalty of $1.00 added.

The dog license fees for 1930 will be the same as those of the present year, it has been decided by the Huron county commissioners. The fees are as follows: Male and spayed female dogs $1.75; female, $5.25; Kennels, $17.50.

Dogs taxed during 1929 were: Male

2294; spayed female 681; female 199. This was a total of 3084 dogs. In addition there were 11 kennels licensed. The total revenue was $6,166.19.

Reports received from the various boards of trustees of the county at the commissioners office state that 224 sheep were killed in the county during the year by dogs, while 63 were injured. The trustees approved claims in the sum of $2306.60. However, this figure has been pruned to $2294.10 by the commissioners. When witness fees of $106.05 are added the total amount is $2400.15. These claims will be paid after the new dog tag license funds start to pour in.

That the total volume of claims is less this year than last is due, very largely to the efficient work of P. B. Clark, county dog warden. This year Clark has required many dog owners to bear the burden of damages inflicted on sheep by their dogs.

Commits Crime While Posing As An Officer

Police Chief F. R. Remington of Norwalk, reports that Arthur LaValley, about 22, of Norwalk, paroled not long ago from a reformatory, has been arrested this week on the charge of committing a statutory offense in that city a few weeks ago. The prosecuting witness is a girl only about 12 years of age.

The police tell an interesting story of how LaValley palmed himself off at a school house as a parole officer. To a school principal it is related he said that he had been detailed to look into the status of 11 delinquents in Toledo and that he was also engaged in similar work at Norwalk and Sandusky. He said that while he was not authorized to do probation work among the girls, he would be willing to obtain work for a young Norwalk girl he mentioned. This girl, or her sister, was prominently involved as a prosecuting witness in the last grand jury investigation. LaValley was not given a position for the girl with the Myers Pump Company at Ashland. The school teacher approached by LaValley was impressed by the fact that the young man did not appear as old as the average probation officer. LaValley will be brought back to Norwalk and probably will be returned to the reformatory.

It is known that fewer hunters this year than last, but more have been issued in Plymouth at the same time says that it is more than any previous year and this is able that more have been issued at likely true in other places. It is thought that there has been about two thousand licenses issued in Huron county this year. However, there are no exact figures available.

What Is Required of Census Enumerators

G. W. Lawrence of Norwalk, census supervisor of the 13th congressional district has received a letter from W. S. Steuart, director of the Bureau of Census of Washington. This outlines the question of what is required for enumerator service and is as follows:

During the next two or three months blank applications and test schedules will be mailed to all persons making application for employment as enumerators. These applications and test schedules must be returned to the Census Bureau in Washington where they will be examined and later sent to the supervisors, who will be responsible for the selection and appointment of enumerators. The work of enumerating the population will begin April 2nd, 1930.

Persons appointed as enumerators must be citizens of the United States, possessed of at least a common school education and able to write the plain and with reasonable rapidity. The work of an enumerator requires that he or she be an active, energetic person of good address. It is preferred that the enumerator be an actual resident of the area in which employed. The districts assigned to census enumerators in a city will be small enough to occupy their time for about two weeks, and in rural areas for about thirty days. An enumerator will be expected to devote his entire working time to the census during the period of enumeration, working ordinarily eight hours each day. The enumerators in rural areas will be required to obtain schedules for the farms as well as for the population. The compensation will be at a stated rate per person enumerated on a population schedule, plus another stated rate per farm schedule filled out. These rates will be such that the enumerator can earn with reasonable industry from five to eight dollars per day. Each applicant will be given a practical test—consisting of the filling out of a sample schedule—to determine his fitness to perform the duties required of him in the event of appointment.

FEWER HUNTING LICENSES IN NORWALK
Huron county clerk J. R. Berry at Norwalk reports that he has sold about 700 licenses this year, which is about 100 short of the number issued

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

What does Christmas mean to us? To the little children it means that Santa Claus will bring his gifts. To his brother and sister it means that something they have been wishing for will be given them. To mother and father it means the expenditure of money for gifts. To the children in the schools it means a few days freedom from study and in most churches suitable programs and services will be arranged.

The real meaning of Christmas is too often lost. It is the day in memory of the birth of Christ but in late years, due in a large part to advertising propaganda, it is too often the time for a contest in giving presents. "Give to him that asketh thee," is one of the rules given by Christ to his disciples. How often is this disregarded in our time? A poor, hungry beggar goes to the house of a rich man for enough food to keep him from starving. He is given means more than he would spend a large amount of money on one of his own children or relatives in order to give them a suitable Christmas gift.

True Christmas spirit does not demand expensive gifts. The spirit in which the gift is given means more than a mere consideration of the value of the present given. A gift, which has no value when expressed in dollars and cents, if given by a poor person, may mean more than a gift whose value can be expressed in several figures, if the giver is financially able to spend many times this amount.

If we are unable to compete with others in the matter of Christmas gifts let us not worry. Remember that widow who gave the mite and received a greater reward than he who gave a large amount of money.

P. H. S. RESERVES

The P. H. S. reserves played a preliminary game at Willard last Friday with the Willard High reserves and it was "some game," both teams fighting hard and battling for every point. Willard having larger and more experienced men, but quite an advantage over the smaller and less experienced men of P. H. S., so Plymouth came out on the very short end of a 26-4 score. Doan with nine points and J. Miller with six, led the Willard scoring while St. Clair and Einsel each tallied a field goal for Plymouth.

WILLARD GAME

"Did you hear what happened last Friday night?" "No." Well it was the thirteenth and a very unlucky day for P. H. S. The boys teams and a few local basketball followers journeyed to Willard. We had hopes of bringing home a victory but failed (we haven't given up hopes for our basketball team though.) With a Webbers as captain and center for each team, it was sure to be an interesting game. The score was 11 to 4 at the half but a surprising increase was shown by our boys in the last half. The beginning of the last quarter showed a tie 12-12. The Willard people began to get a little worried for they realized it was no easy task to keep up with the Plymouth boys. But alas! The game ended too soon. The final score proved to be 20-15 in their favor.

But folks don't give up. Wait until we get in our new schoolhouse and see what our boys will do.

Don't forget we have a big game at Chaffield tomorrow night and you can help to win the games by supporting the teams.

ART CLUB NEWS

The members of P. H. S. founded another club on Wednesday, December 11, 1929, the "Art Club."

The following officers were elected:
 Supervisor—Mr. Derr.
 President—Harry Briggs.
 Vice President—James Shepher.
 Secretary—Donald Anderson.
 One of the projects the club will take up is the securing of pictures for the new P. H. S. building.

THE HARDING MEMORIAL

It is my good fortune to have seen the Harding Memorial. This beautiful monument is built on the Haring highway just outside of Marion, Ohio. It is built on a corner lot about six hundred feet back from each side. Except for a wide cement walk, it is entirely surrounded by green lawns. The monument consists of a tall, circular Roman architecture. It is circular with huge marble pillars. The front is open but the back is closed off with marble.

As you approach the monument, if the wind happens to be blowing, you hear a rather sighing noise and, looking up, you see a weeping willow tree which sighs and whispers.

The center of the structure is a circular plot of ground on which the graves were placed, marked by marble slabs and with a wreath on each grave. Around the graves is planted a beautiful vine with small blue flowers. As there is no roof over the graves are subject to all the elements of nature; wind, rain, snow, etc. Altogether, the vine, the tree, the stateliness of the monument make a very beautiful picture. The keynote of its beauty lies in the simplicity of it. There is nothing gaudy or cheap.

This monument was built by the school children from all over the United States and they certainly have something to show for their efforts.

THE LIFE OF

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

William Shakespeare was born, perhaps on April 23rd, 1564. His father was an apparently well-to-do tradesman—wood-comber or glover—but there is evidence that he fell into reduced circumstances while his son was yet a boy. William, the eldest son, was sent to the grammar school at Stratford where, according to Ben Jonson, he acquired "small Latin and less Greek." Tradition says that he was for a time an assistant in his father's shop. But of the youth and early manhood of Shakespeare nothing is known, except that six months before he had entered upon his nineteenth year he was married to Anne Hathaway, a woman some seven years his senior, whose home was at Shottery, a village nearby Stratford.

When about twenty-three, Shakespeare left Stratford for London. He soon became connected with the Metropolitan theatre. At all events, it was not long before he was regularly installed as "playwright" to the company. As part of his duty was undoubtedly that of "touching up" the works of others; but it was not long before he began to produce original dramas. He also bore a part in the representation of his own plays. Though he lived in familiar intercourse with the nobles, the wits, and poets of his day, he looked forward to the time when he should retire to his native town, and with this clear view he purchased "New Place" the principal house in Stratford, with more than a hundred acres of ground attached. He was evidently a shrewd man of business, farming his own lands, disposing of their product, and looking to it that the purchasers paid what they owed, for in 1604 we find him bringing action against Philip Rogers for about forty-five dollars for "malt sold and delivered to him."

He died somewhat suddenly in 1616 of a fever, and was buried in the parish church, where a contemporary bust of him still exists which must be regarded as the best proven likeness of the poet. His wife survived him seven years. His only son, Hamnet, died at the age of twelve; his two daughters, Susanna and Judith, both married and one of them had three sons, but they all died so that a quarter of a century after his death, Shakespeare had no living descendant.

A DESCRIPTION OF

A FRONTIERSMAN
 As he opened the rude door and stepped into the small room, we could see he was a tall rugged frontiersman with a weather-beaten face. His long Kentucky rifle was strapped across his back, and his buckskin jacket and pants were dusty from travel. He stepped into the room with a long stride and seated himself and proceeded to tell of his fight with a band of Indians. After doing so he ate a hasty supper of venison and was soon on his way again.

LOCAL SPORTSMEN KILL 2 FINE DEER

The first part of this month A. E. Devore of this place and Elmer Markley, of Bucyrus, but now staying at the Tourist Inn, enjoyed a trip in Pennsylvania in quest of the elusive deer that live in the wild mountain region of the central part of that state.

Both Devore and Markley received credit for killing a deer each, but according to the former the law in Pennsylvania is different than the Michigan law. In Michigan the law permits a deer to each man. In Pennsylvania the law permits six deer to a hunting camp.

In the particular camp where Devore and Markley were a part there were fifteen gentlemen gathered from various parts. They remained in camp for one week and at the end of that time they had the six that the law allows.

Devore shot his deer, that is he supposed he shot it, one day when the entire camp was out "driving" through the underbrush that abounds in the deer country. The deer was sighted and immediately fully a half dozen rifles blazed out. In the confusion of war which followed it was decided that Devore should receive the credit. Getting credit for shooting a deer means that that person gets the head. All the meat is used in the camp or is equally divided among all.

Markley also received credit for a deer. It is understood that both heads are at Mansfield and will be brought back to Plymouth within a few weeks.

Devore says that he had a great time on the hunting trip and says that if all goes well he expects to go again next season. The hunting of rabbit and squirrel, he says, will be left to the sportsmen of Plymouth but as for him he will go forth to a spot where nature is untouched and pursue the fine footed deer. Perhaps, he says, he may find a bear, for it is true that there are a few of that wild game yet in the Keystone state. Also wild turkeys. Indeed people can put their trustworthy piece on their shoulder and go forth like the pilgrims of old and at the end perhaps enjoy a roast of wild turkey.

The local men were in a camp near Mt. Roy, up in the Allegheny mountains in the central part of Pennsylvania. That country abounds in a thick heavy underbrush known as buck laurel. On this the deer feed throughout the winter, as the leaves remain green the entire year. This is so tough that it cannot be broken off, and it is necessary to force your way through.

Devore says its great sport living in one of these hunting camps. One day he says that he was not feeling so well and told his companions that he would remain at the camp and do the necessary work around the place. In a short time he heard a herd of deer coming. Taking up his rifle he hurried out hoping that he might get a buck deer single handed. Imagine his disappointment when he found that the entire herd was does, and the law forbids the killing of a doe.

In that particular case Devore had two things in mind. One was he wanted to get the deer single handed and give the rest of the camp the merry laugh, the other was he did not care to miss if there was a buck deer. It should be understood that it is the unwritten law of the camp that if a man misses a buck deer he gets worse than a merry laugh. He gets several swift kicks administered to him. It's tough on the man who misses a deer. Ask Mr. Devore to explain this more fully.

All in all, it is interesting to hear him tell about the hunting of deer in Pennsylvania. It makes some of these conquests of rabbit and squirrel seem tame indeed.

That there will be a considerable amount of road improvement in both Huron and Richland counties during 1930 is indicated by the fact that county commissioners of both counties pledged large sums of money for this purpose at the conference held with Governor Myers V. YOUNG MAN DRINKS ACID

A tale of suffering and poverty that ends in tragedy even in this land of merry Christmas season and apparent abundance comes from the city of Gallon over in Crawford county.

A young man, aged 24 years, married and the father of two children committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid in a cell in the prison of that city. In an adjoining cell his young wife was unable to get to him while he suffered unspoken agony.

As the story goes it seems that the young husband had been out of work for some time. They had come to Gallon from another city some months ago. A few weeks ago the bread winner of the family was discharged from his position. The family had been reduced to poverty and they needed money for the necessities of life. Clifford McClusick, for that was the name of the young man, gave his wife a check which she thought was genuine. She presented it at a store for merchandise and it was accepted. However, an investigation proved that the check was worthless. The young woman was immediately arrested and jailed in the jail.

She told that her husband gave her the check. He was then arrested, but maintained he was innocent of any wrong doing, declaring that the check had been given to him. However he was arrested and placed in the jail. With him he had smuggled a small bottle of carbolic acid, which was not found when he was searched by the police. He drank the contents of the bottle during the night and died within three hours.

He left a note confessing that he had forged the check. The confession note also told the story of the suffering of his family while he had been out of work. He declared that his wife was innocent of the entire matter.

The young woman was released the next morning to return to her two fatherless children.

stated that a total of $452,700.00 would be spent in the county during the coming year. Of this amount $392,000.00 would be spent for county roads, $135,700.00 for township roads and $10,000.00 for other improvements.

The Richland county commissioners stated that a total of $314,400.00 would be spent in the county. Of this $41,400.00 will be spent on township roads and other improvements.

This would indicate that in both counties by the end of next year all of the main highways should be in excellent condition, and a large number of the by-ways should be "out of the mud." Certainly the two counties should by that time have a system of highways of which they can be proud.

All of this is a part of Governor Cooper's endeavor to cooperate with President Hoover to stabilize business and industry. The governor requested that as many as possible of the contracts for this work should be placed at once. This will have a tendency to relieve any unemployment that may exist.

As a result of the conference which was held at Columbus between the governor and the state highway director on the one hand and the commissioners of the various counties on the other it is expected that contracts in the amount of $85,000,000 for highways and other public works will be let several months earlier than usual. Contracts for state highway work in the amount of $15,000,000 are expected to be let during the first six months of the year, and orders for supplies and equipment are being placed immediately.

WARNS OF FIRE HAZARDS AT CHRISTMAS

A warning against fire hazards, which are always more pronounced at the Christmas season, was issued by Ray B. Gill, state fire marshal, in an effort to prevent loss of life and property during the holiday period. "Christmas displays and Christmas entertainments always attract the fire fiend," said Mr. Gill, "and he lurks in Christmas crowds."

Fire Marshal Gill issued his warning in the form of don'ts as follows: Don't use lighted candles. Employ electric light bulbs instead. Don't hang paper or inflammable material on wires or around lights. Don't smoke in stores or around Christmas trees in the home.

Don't use inflammable material for garlands. Everything used in Christmas decorations and costumes should be of non-inflammable materials or else treated with non-inflammable solutions.

Use only non-inflammable films in motion pictures.

Don't place the Christmas tree or other decorations near an open fire.

Don't smoke in stores or around Christmas trees in the home.

Fire Marshal Gill called upon Santa Claus to distribute toys made only of materials that will not readily ignite.

The first report of a Christmas fire came to Fire Marshal Gill pointed out that enclosed windows in which lights are burning become hot and means for ventilation should be provided.

"It is our hope," said Mr. Gill, "to make this as near a fireless Christmas as possible."

TAXI MAN WINS SUIT

Edward Vogus, of Norwalk, taxi line proprietor, received the verdict of the jury in the $15,000 damage suit brought by Robert Adriano, aged 3, through his father, John Adriano, also of Norwalk.

According to the suit it was claimed that the child last April was run down by an automobile belonging to the defendant but driven by Bonnie Snyder. The accident occurred near the child's home where he was playing near the street.

It was maintained in the suit by the plaintiff counsel that the defendant should be held responsible for the acts of his agent.

H. D. Smith Succeeds Gregory

the whole affair and hand in his resignation.

This was done Monday morning at the meeting of the commissioners. In a moment of silent tenseness he tendered the resignation, stating that he had made a fool of himself and stated that he wished to get the entire affair off his mind. He added that he felt he could no longer serve the county after what had happened.

As stated the commissioners accepted the resignation and at once took up the problem of selecting Gregory's successor. No decision was reached at the meeting on Monday, but was again taken up at the Tuesday morning meeting. At that time the decision to appoint Smith was reached.

Smith is a farmer and is said to be fifty years of age. He is a republican, and has always been considered a leader in party circles. He is well known in Plymouth by a number of people. Tuesday afternoon the general expression around town seemed to be that he should make a good man for the office. He is a large man physically, which should come in handy in the office of sheriff.

Gregory was serving his third term as sheriff. He was first elected in 1922 and was reelected in 1924. He was succeeded in 1927 by Charles Trimmer. Gregory was again elected in 1928 by a majority of 1250. He is also a republican.

One of the chief features of Gregory's record has been the amount of liquor which his administration has brought into the county from liquor law violations. It is an odd fact that this earnestness on his part was the ultimate cause of his being practically forced to resign.

It had not been generally known that Shimmman was working for the office of the sheriff as a deputy. It is understood that he was employed upon the recommendations of Prosecutor E. G. Martin. Of Eldridge, the man who accompanied Shimmman in the liquor escapade, there is little known. Shimmman is aged 30 years, while Eldridge is 32. They were held in the Sandusky county jail Thursday and Friday morning they were given a hearing. Both men asked for a continuance in order that they might consult an attorney, and asked that bonds be fixed. This was fixed at $1,000 each. The required amount was furnished by a man by the name of Dave Wittenberg. Both men were then freed. They immediately left town, the county seat of Sandusky county, and nothing could be heard from them. There is a feeling in that city that nothing will ever be heard from them and that they will simply forfeit their bond.

It is understood the new sheriff will be given a free hand in appointing his deputies, although nothing has been learned as to who he will appoint or if he will retain the present deputies. Sheriff Smith will serve until January 1st, 1931.
