Marion M. Parsons, Former Shiloh Resident, Celebrates 88th Birthday

There's a number of our readers who will recall the once famous shoe store proprietor of Shiloh, M. M. Parsons, who for over thirty years conducted a shoe business in that village. Mr. Parsons has had a colorful life and his activities have kept him in health and happiness. The story below is taken from Saturday's issue of the Sandusky Register and will be of interest to our readers:

"ATTICA, O.—If you've ever done much hanging around the Attica hotel, you've seen a white-headed, white-haired old man who is Marion M. Parsons. He probably was swapping stories with other old cronies and Sunday, St. Patrick's Day, he was swapping more stories between the congratulations of his friends, for on that day Marion M. Parsons reached his eighty-eighth birthday.

"Going to the hotel daily, walking a distance of three blocks from his home to the postoffice three times a day, has kept Mr. Parsons in the health of a youngster and it is probable that he will exceed the life span of his brother, Warren Parsons, of Steuben, Ohio, who is now 90 years old.

"Mr. Parsons spent his birthday at the home of his daughter and her husband, Mr. F. H. Miller with whom he has lived for the last 11 years.

"Everything that Mr. Parsons can talk about is interesting whether it's politics, war, railroads, the shoe trade or early Ohio, for he has participated in the pioneering movements of almost every incident in the country's history.

"Mr. Parsons was born in a log cabin in the virgin forests of Huron County. The hardy pioneer was still working the exploits of Redder

Francis Marion, famous fighter of the Revolutionary War, and when baby Parsons came along he was named for the great soldier.

"As the namesake of a great fighter, it was only natural that Marion Parsons should enlist in the Civil War. He took his place in the Union ranks on June 22, 1863, and was mustered out a little more than two years later on July 7, 1865. His service consisted of guarding those southern gentlemen who were prisoners at Johnson's Island in Sandusky Bay. He visited the island May when Sandusky's Johnson Island chapter of the Daughters of Confederacy held services for the dead there on Memorial Day.

"When General McPherson was buried at McPherson cemetery near Clyde, Ohio, Mr. Parsons was one of the squadrons who fired the salute or the grave. With the memory of that funeral still clear in his mind, it was interesting to Mr. Parsons to be able to attend the centennial of General McPherson's birth held in Clyde last year.

"In politics Mr. Parsons has always been Republican. He cast his first ballot for Abraham Lincoln and he has not missed an election since that time.

"Mr. Parsons' trade in life has been the shoe business. After the Civil War he learned the trade of shoemaking and made many pairs of boots and shoes for people in the community of Steuben, Huron County. Later he resided in Shiloh, Ohio, for more than 40 years and conducted a shoe store there for 30 years.

"Mr. Parsons has the distinction of being the oldest Civil War veteran in Attica and, perhaps, the oldest in Seneca county.

ENLARGE WELL AT WILLARD

The board of public affairs of Willard recently decided to put down another ten inch well for the city's water supply. Instead of drilling a new well they will enlarge the old well down to 121 feet making it larger and deeper. It will probably be sunk to a depth of close to 200 feet which will give an excellent flow of water, the well drillers believe. The old well is now about 85 feet deep.

The board has also decided to purchase a new boiler feed pump. One large enough to take care of the present two boilers and a third on, should another one be needed at some time in the future, will be bought.

This reminds you that Plymouth was to have pure drinking water about three years ago, and since that time nothing definite has been done in spite of the fact that the State Board of Health demand immediate action. Wells in Plymouth should be given a report before a filtration plant is erected, and we suggest that an investigation be made into the matter.

Palm Branches Under the Shadow of the Cross Is Subject At Presbyterian

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, and Rev. J. W. Miller of the Presbyterian church, makes an announcement in the church notice that a special service will be held at his text: "Palm Branches Under the Shadow of the Cross." Rev. Miller has traveled in the Holy Lands and his knowledge of the customs and habits of the present day people who reside on the Jordan around will add considerably in making this talk a most interesting one. The public is cordially invited to attend this service which will be held at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning.

ROME WOMAN DIES AT AGE OF 91

Mrs. Elizabeth Burrows died Monday at her home in Rome aged 91 years, February 18th. Mrs. Burrows was born in Franklin County, Pa. When married came with her husband to the home where they lived together for 64 years. The funeral services were held at the McQuate mortuary Wednesday afternoon with Rev. O. R. Bente officiating, and the burial was made in the Rome cemetery. Mrs. Burrows leaves her husband and four children.

BUYS INTEREST IN GROCERY

A. F. Cornell has purchased the Vern Waite interests in the Red Front Grocery and will become associated with his son, Arthur, Cornell. Vern Waite will be connected with the Economy Wall Paper Store at Mansfield, which is operated by his father, Dell Waite. The Waite's are moving to Mansfield this week.

Mr. Cornell and his son Arthur, are well known in the community, having been connected with the Johnson Oil Co. for a number of years, and the best wishes of the community are extended to them in their new business venture.

Plymouth regrets that the Waite family will no longer be among us, but the sincere wishes of the town go with them in their new home and new business and trusts that they will enjoy prosperity and happiness in their new home.

SHILOH ATHLETIC BANQUET FRIDAY

State Athletic Director H. R. Townsend will be the principal speaker at the annual banquet of the Shiloh High School, to be held in the school auditorium Friday evening, March 22nd. Tickets can be obtained from members of the Athletic Council or by calling the school office. Patrons of the school interested in athletics are urged to attend and bring a ticket and come. This is not strictly a school affair but rather a community banquet. Tickets are 50c.

This is the first time State Director Townsend has been in Shiloh and members of the athletic council are very fortunate in securing him for Friday evening. Mr. Townsend is the man who has charge of all athletics for the state of Ohio. He has been Ohio's athletic director since the organization of the State on the present basis.

Get your ticket early or at least have it reserved for you, or you should know in advance the number of plates to prepare.

ON WAY HOME

Dr. and Mrs. George Searle, Sr., who have been spending some time in Florida, are expected to arrive home Friday. However, with the recent heavy rains and floods over the southland it is very probable that they will be delayed on their trip north.

Hundreds have expressed wonder—'It marvels—the sound and talking at the Gastamba. Now as good as the best.

MANSFIELDER ON COMMITTEE

Hon. W. J. Blisman, Mansfield, has been selected as Chairman of the Mansfield County Committee which will make plans for the District Child Welfare Conference to be held in Mansfield, Tuesday, April 23, at the First Methodist Episcopal Church under the direction of the Division of Charities, State Department of Public Welfare. The counties participating in this conference are Richland, Ashland and Knox.

The meeting in Mansfield will be the sixteenth of a series of 28 District Conferences to be held in various parts of the State in the Spring of 1929, according to announcements made today by Miss Nell Grove, Superintendent of the Division of Charities, Columbus. District Conferences, 11 in number, held for the first time last year in Ohio were attended by more than 3000 persons. These conferences are primarily for the citizens of the community and subjects of general interest will be discussed.

The purpose of the conference is to create greater interest in social problems. The vast amount of juvenile delinquency and dependency in the state has led the Division of Charities to believe that conditions merit the serious consideration of the people in every community and the building of a preventive program. The importance of preserving the integrity of the home as an institution for the prevention of juvenile delinquency and dependency will be stressed. The existing conditions, the present resources and the needs of every county will be outlined at the conference.

Among several noted speakers from over the state will be Miss Bell Grove, Division of Charities, Columbus. Round table discussion of local problems will be a feature of the program at the conference which is open to the public. Public officials, representatives of the American Legion, members of service clubs, ministers, educators, club women and social workers will be in attendance at the meeting.

Miss Beatrice Minich of the Division of Charities, Columbus, who is in charge of the organization of the District Conferences, was in Mansfield recently making plans for the conference.

THIEVES VISIT SHILOH HOME

SHILOH, O.—Sometime between 10:30 and 11 o'clock Sunday evening, burglars gained an entrance to the cellar at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hagar and secured a large quantity of canned fruit. A couple of suspects are already being watched.

Junior Dept. Renders Beautiful Operetta at Presbyterian Church

The Operetta rendered by the Junior Department of the Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening was well attended and highly appreciated. The operetta illustrated man's right attitude toward time. It was full of movement, rhythm and harmony. To give a clear idea of the very interesting operetta, its movements and scenes, a brief synopsis of the operetta is given.

With his sickle keen, Father Time appears, singing, "I am Called the King of Time." The Days of the week follow. Each day has its own special duty to perform, and its peculiar difficulties to overcome.

Monday is washday. Solo—"Rub, a Dub, Dub." Happy, Minutes Chorus follow. Tuesday is ironingday. Duet "The Secret," by Tuesday and Miss Duff. Wednesday is mending day. The Sewing Circle meet, and the stitchers appear singing, "Stitch, Stitch, Stitch." Man's work is from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done.

Thursday is shopping day—the day we love. Pianologue—"Shopping Day." Friday is Sweeping Day. Solo—"Sweeping." Little seconds appear. Duet and chorus—"Tick, Tack."

RADIO SHIPPED BY TRAINLOAD

Brown and Miller, local dealers for Majestic Radio, will participate in "National Majestic Week" March 24 to 31. To assure Majestic Radio Dealers of stock for this nation-wide event the Cleveland Majestic distributors have received this week the largest single shipment of Radio receivers in the history of Radio manufacture—a solid trainload of from 45 to 50 cars of Majestic Radio Sets.

Radio manufacture has become the 4th largest industry in the world! To give an idea of the immensity of the industry it is necessary to employ 700,000 men in the manufacture of Majestic Radio. Cabinet work for Majestic Receivers alone, during the season which ended January 31, 1929 amounted to more furniture than the two largest furniture manufacturers in the world produced during the same period of time. Majestic Receivers utilize more than 73000 miles of wire per day! 25,000 pounds of tin foil are used in Majestic receivers each working day. At this writing the production of these receivers is greater than 4000 per day! With such huge production, of course, exceptional values are possible. In conclusion let us quote Mr. Arthur Brisbane—"A home without a Radio is like a home without a window, it is out of touch with the world."

INFECTION CAUSE OF DEATH OF NORTH FAIRFIELD MAN

D. W. Stevens, a well known resident of Huron county who passed away Thursday night at Memorial hospital in Norwalk, was the victim of infection caused by an ulcerated tooth. He would have been 70 had he lived until May.

Mr. Stevens never married. He is survived by his sisters, Mrs. N. D. Hakes of the Ridge Road, Miss Helen Mott, of Chicago, and a brother, L. E. Stevens of Detroit.

Mr. Stevens was a paper hanger and painter. He was born in North Fairfield and spent most of his life there. Funeral services were held Sunday from the Disciples Church at North Fairfield and interment was made in North Fairfield cemetery.

LAST CALL FOR TRACK MEET

On Monday, January 18, the first call for track candidates was issued by Coach Jenkins. There was a response by eighteen members with prospects of more in the future. Track practice was to have started Tuesday but due to unfavorable weather had to be postponed.

Meets have been scheduled with Shelby and Mansfield in addition to the N. C. O. meet and the Meet at Ada. There will also be meets with other schools scheduled.

The newly elected track captain is Wade Leiber, a senior of P. H. S. and a miller, half-miler, discus man and key man in the relay.

He will also be a team composed of infeasible by Mr. Reed. To furnish competition for the regulars.

H. P. L. 31

"Tick, Tick." Time is fleeting. Saturday is menu planning day. Solo—Pianologue—"The Minister is Coming to Tea tomorrow." Children of Time appear and Great Father Time. Solo and chorus—"Children of Time are we."

Patience appears—solo, "The Voice of the Flowers." She is followed by Hope and her Flowers, singing "Dew-drip in the sunlight."

The Thief of Time now appears, singing her bewitching, mocking song, "I am the Thief of Time, Ha, Ha, I'll Sing You a Merry Rhyme, Ha, Ha." With wily ways, and winning smiles, she tries to induce the children of Father Time to follow her to the groves of the Fairland of Idleness. Suddenly, from out the dell Miss Day, the friend and protector of the little children appears singing, "We Cannot Go With Your Deceiver. We travel the road of 'Be Gone!' With a disgruntled look, the Thief of Time returns on her heel and is gone. The children of Time are pleased.

Sunday appears, "Day of All the Rest of the Best." The climax of interest is reached when Day, Hour, Minutes, Seconds, appear and sing ensemble, "O Worship the King, All-Glorious Above."

REMAINS LAID TO REST HERE

The remains of M. W. Griffith, well known Plymouth township resident, were laid to rest here Saturday afternoon in Greenlawn cemetery. Mr. Griffith passed away last Wednesday night week at the home of his son, Mr. W. Griffith, in Greenlawn, as a result of a stroke about two weeks before his death. Funeral arrangements were in charge of H. A. Postle.

He was born December 19, 1852, and was aged 75 years, 2 months and 24 days when he died. He was born in Greenlawn and resided there with his parents for several years. In 1861 the family moved to the farm where he resided until his death. With the exception of two years spent in Kansas he had lived there ever since.

He was united in marriage October 14, 1877 to Miss Amanda A. Morse and to this union were born four children all of whom with the mother survive. The surviving children are: Frank M. Griffith of Tiro, Mrs. Harry Ornduff of Shelby, Mrs. George McConnell of Tiro and Harry A. Griffith residing at home.

Mr. Griffith was well known and highly respected by all his neighbors and many friends. During the long years of his residence in Plymouth township he was called upon by Plymouth township people to serve them in the capacity of justice of the peace holding this office for twenty years. This brought him in touch with the people of the entire township and they had every confidence in the man selected to dispense justice in their home township.

Startling Scenes-In the "Canary Murder Case"

Startling scenes shows scores of scintillating beauties on the stage of a Broadway theatre. This is "The Canary Revue" in which Margaret Odell has a leading role and is known as "The Canary." Hence the name of the story.

Beautiful gowns which will be announced from the Paris salons a year ago, were worn by Louise Brooks and Jean Arthur in several scenes.

Gripping, swift-moving action. All the thrills of a man-hunt portrayed so graphically that the audience can grasp each clue as it is presented.

"Surprise in the solution. The same story which thrilled millions in book form."

The Town Doctor

The DOCTOR OF TOWNS

SAYS

MANY TOWNS ARE SO CLOSE TO THE PICTURE THAT THEY CAN'T SEE THE FRAME

The town that cannot be improved upon just isn't! Yet in every community there are "acres of diamonds" that have never been mined.

Mr. Newcomb Carlton, President of the Western Union Telegraph Company says: "The advantages of a community for both business and real-estate are often lost sight of by its citizens. The very obviousness dulls their perception by becoming CONTEMPTIBLY FAMILIAR."

It is only natural that to that which we are most familiar we pay the least attention. A stranger notices the growth of a child much more so than do its parents; candy is no treat to a confectionery store clerk, and a rose in your own front yard is much more attractive to the man in the next block. The great on the other side of the fence always looks the greatest; the other fellow's business appears to be a "snip"; some other town offers greater possibilities as long as you stand so close to the picture of your town, your community or your neighborhood that you cannot see the fullness thereof.

"Contentment familiarity" works both ways and therefore we have tickle cities, callous communities, it's towns, bagdad habits, and hundreds of vanishing villages; the citizens of which go on about their daily tasks apparently totally unaware of their condition.

The old saying that "There's a little bit of bad in the best of us and a little bit of good in the worst of us" applies to towns and communities as well as to individuals.

What is GOOD about the community where you live? What is BAD? What is there that INVITES? What REPELS?

No town can be all good or all bad, therefore, RECOGNIZE that which is good, and capitalize on it—recognize that which is bad, and personally do something to eliminate it!

Don't think that what YOU do won't make any difference for it will! Everybody doing something sets things done; sitting back "letting George do it" never gets ANYTHING done. Your town is your business. Who are you?—whatever you do—IT'S GOOD business on your part to do every little thing you can to make your town and community a better place in which to live, work, play, and make money. IT'S POOR business to become oblivious to anything that invites business or repels it.

YOU can't make money unless your neighbor does; you can't get an increase in pay unless the firm does more business; and thus can't do more unless a sales or community group progresses with the times—no exceptions. The community can do none of these things efficiently when "contentment familiarity" with its advantages and disadvantages.

GIVE TWP ROADS A SQUARE DEAL

"I am long on ideas but short on time," said Thomas A. Edison on his recent birthday anniversary.

Lacking the flaming genius that inspires Edison, most of us are short on ideas as well as on time. Hence it might be imagined that new ideas would be as welcome as they are unusual. But experience teaches otherwise; indeed, some scientists even declare that after man reaches the age of forty, his mind automatically rejects whatever runs counter to the fixed grooves in his brain.

A New Goal in Road Construction
Be that as it may, America's most conservative magazine—none other than the Atlantic Monthly—has recently championed a new idea. That idea is, that our goal in road construction should be nothing less than the improvement of every road. All of them—even the neglected and usually forgotten rural roads.

Examining the road map of the United States, this writer discovers that of the entire 3,000,000 miles of roads, only about 575,000 miles are surfaced highways. A well-known fact—but he strikes a new note by his proposal that the nation shall do something about the 2,500,000 miles of mud roads.

By improving this vast stretch of rural roads, he declares that transportation on main highways will be relieved; and further, that America's marvellous scenic attractions will be made accessible to all. These unimproved roads lead to rural homes, yet they are more than a local problem. Through the ubiquity of the motor car they have ceased to be a matter of mere local concern. We are all car owners, and we are all interested in all the roads, all the time.

Our 40,000 Miles of Mud Roads

Heretofore road building has followed the line of least resistance. In Ohio, for example, we have 11,000 miles of main State highways, connecting the larger cities and towns. But opening off of these highways are the dirt roads, passable with discomfort in dry weather and closed in wet weather. Motorists avoid them at all times, except those bordering on them; and these residents use them—when they can—to get to the main highways.

The improvement of rural roads has been held in check by the fact that they are not much used. To turn that around, they are not much used because they are not improved. There are nearly 40,000 miles of these mud roads in Ohio, most of which are township roads. Their improvement is the problem of the hour, and it is a problem which can no longer be evaded or ignored.

Farmers Would Appreciate Reciprocity

The townships have been taxed to help build the State highways; the farmers have paid the gasoline tax to help build the State highways; the farm lands have been assessed to help build the State highways, yet, even when the farm was an entire mile distant from the improved road. Hence it would seem only just that Ohio should now devote a small portion of the gas tax revenue toward improving the township roads, so that the farmer can drive his car out to the highway which his car has helped to build.

Yet there is some opposition at the State capital to the prospect that a fraction of the gasoline tax revenue should be given to the townships for road improvement. The chief reason for this opposition is the selfishness of a small group of men who do not expect to drive their own cars on the township roads, and who are willing to let the other fellow stay in the mud.

And no doubt part of the opposition is due to the reluctance, previously commented on, with which new ideas are received by certain types of mind.

Improved Rural Roads' Spell Prosperity

No vision of a dreamer is this idea of improving the State's township roads. Pennsylvania is already pointing the way, and Ohio will not always lag behind. For Ohio's prosperity depends upon the prosperity of all her people. It depends in no small measure upon the welfare of the 20,000 farms located on her mud road.

By improving these roads, the economic gain to the State will be incalculable. Not only will the farmers have the great benefit of modern transportation and ready access to city markets, but city dwellers will likewise have ready access to farm markets.

For the farms are markets for the city merchant and the city man, just as truly as the cities and towns are markets for the farmer. If the farm cannot readily sell to the city, then the city cannot readily sell to the farm.

If one-fifth cent of the gas tax revenue is given to the townships, the General Assembly will have done an act of simple elemental justice. More than that, it will have done something practical toward farm relief, toward increasing the prosperity, the welfare and the happiness of the people of Ohio.

If you are interested in this problem, why not ask your Representative and Senator in the General Assembly to help solve it?

NOTE ORDINANCE
AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NOTES BY THE VILLAGE OF PLYMOUTH, IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF ACQUIRING AND PURCHASING AN AUTOMOBILE FIRE TRUCK AND DECLARING THE NECESSITY OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR SUCH PURPOSES.
WHEREAS, this council has requested the Village Clerk to issue his certificate as to the estimated life of the improvement to be constructed from the proceeds of the bonds heretofore referred to and of the notes to be issued in anticipation of said bonds and the Village Clerk has certified to this council such estimated life as exceeding five years and has further certified the maximum maturity of such bonds as ten years and such notes as two years.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE VILLAGE OF PLYMOUTH, HURON AND RICHLAND COUNTIES, OHIO

Section 1. That it is deemed necessary to issue the bonds of the Village of Plymouth in the principal sum of $4000.00 in order to provide a fund for the purpose of acquiring and purchasing an automobile fire truck for the Village of Plymouth and the inhabitants thereof.

Section 2. That said bonds of the Village of Plymouth shall be issued in said principal sum of $4000.00 for the purpose aforesaid. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of $500 and shall be dated April 1, 1929 and shall bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October of each year until the principal sum is paid and shall mature in their consecutive serial order as follows: $500 on April 1, 1931 in each of the years from 1931 to 1938 both inclusive, which maturities are hereby determined to be substantially equal annual installments.

Section 3. That it is necessary and this council hereby determines that notes shall be issued in anticipation of the issue of said bonds.

Section 4. That such anticipatory notes in the amount of $4000.00, which sum does not exceed the amount of the bond issue, shall be issued bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable at maturity, such notes shall be dated the 1st day of April, 1929 and shall mature on the 1st day of July, 1929, provided, however, that such notes shall be redeemable at any interest period. Such notes shall be executed and delivered in such number and such denominations as may be requested by the purchaser of such notes.

Section 5. Such notes shall be executed by the Mayor and Village Clerk and bear the seal of the corporation. Shall designate "Automobile Fire Truck Notes" and shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the Village of Plymouth, Ohio; they shall express upon their face the purpose for which they are issued and that they are issued pursuant to this ordinance.

Section 6. Said notes shall be first offered to the Sinking Fund Trustees of the village and so many of the same as shall not be taken by said Trustees shall be sold at private sale by the Village Clerk, but for not less than par and accrued interest, and the proceeds from such sale, except any premium and accrued interest thereon and the amount thereof necessary for the payment of interest prior to the maturity of said notes, shall be paid into the proper fund and used for the purpose aforesaid for no other purpose. Any premium and accrued interest and the amount necessary for the payment of interest prior to the maturity of principal and interest of said notes in the manner provided by law.

Section 7. Said notes shall be the full general obligations of the Village and the full faith, credit and revenue of said Village are pledged for the prompt payment of the same. The par value to be received from the sale of the bonds in the payment of notes and any excess fund resulting from the issuance of said notes shall be the extent necessary fund used only for the retirement of said notes at maturity, together with interest thereon, and is hereby pledged for such purpose.

Section 8. During the year or years while such notes run, there shall be levied on all the taxable property in the Village of Plymouth, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually not less than that which would have been levied if bonds had been issued without the prior issue of such notes.

Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, levied and extended upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers, in the same manner and at the same time that taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in preference to all other items and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said taxes hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund which, together with the interest collected on the same, shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the principal and interest of said notes of the bonds in anticipation of which they are issued when and as the same fall due.

Section 9. The Village Clerk is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor.

Section 10. That this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Immense Fire Scene Feature Of "Ramona"

A Hollywood fire recently razed over 100 Indian homes to the ground and provided the film city with one of the biggest thrills of the year.

In a short space of time, over $100,000 went up in smoke, attracting thousands of motorists from the highways to the scene of the blaze, several miles from the center of Hollywood.

Fire engines from the film city were on the ground, their hoses stretching over a half mile to the nearest water connection.

The fact that the giant blaze was staged for an episode in "Ramona" now being released in motion picture form, did not matter a particle. Even the oldest old-timer, hardened with all the thrills the movie city offers daily, stood with the crowd and agreed it was a real, not "reel" conflagration.

Edwin Carewe, directing "Ramona," starring Dolores Del Rio, engaged three hundred Indians to participate in the scene. Over one hundred Hollywood cowboys were included in the massacre which showed the whites demolishing an entire Indian village and raising it to smoldering debris.

The shrill cries of the Indians, aided by the excitement of the scene, combined with the roar of the fire engines and the movie generators, could be heard for many blocks, attracting countless autoists, all eager to rush to the fire, few of them suspecting it was staged for a motion picture.

Old-Timers compared the scene to the giant settings which D. W. Griffith erected for "Intolerance" and other films of nearly ten years ago. The filming was continued into the early evening hours and the flames leaping skyward, provided a most spectacular effect.

Carewe and a corps of assistants made all precautions against accidents. The fire apparatus was needed only after the cameras stopped clicking, to sprinkle the smoldering buildings and to put out any hidden flames. No casualties were reported. The fire, truly recorded by the Inspiration Pictures-Edwin Carewe cameras, will form a brilliant part of "Ramona" when it arrives at the Temple Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

Organize Class

SENIORS ARE CHAMPIONS
Wednesday night, March 13th the Seniors and Sophomores played the final game of the inter-class tournament. Both teams were determined to win the championship for their class. The teams started out with a lot of "prep" and "pepp". The Seniors started the works with Barber scoring the first basket and from then on, until the final whistle blew, they were never out of the lead. The Sophomores gave them a real battle, and there were some "close shaves," when it looked as though the Sophomores were going to overcome the Seniors. When the final whistle blew the score stood: Seniors 21, Sophomores 21, with the Seniors winning the championship for their class.

PARSONS COLUMN

It is true as was stated in this column last week that in all ancient religions the Father was considered the high priest of the family nevertheless the mother has always played a primary part in the spiritual development of the child. Her mental and spiritual attitudes even before the child's birth play a large part in the establishing of the child's disposition and those close contacts which the child has with the mother in the home during the early formative years largely determine the general attitude of the child toward God and religion.

If you have a wholesome and normal faith in God, which helps you to bear the burdens of the home life and meet its problems without fret and worry; if you teach that child of yours in a commonplace natural way that the Heavenly Father cares for all his children yourself included, that child will just naturally grow up with a consciousness of God which will be wholesome and helpful.

Although his mother died when he was just a little lad her character was so beautiful and her faith in God so evident, that Abraham Lincoln often said, when he had attained a man's estate, "All that I am I owe to my angel mother." What a wonderful mother she must have been to have in so few years stamped her ideals upon the boy's heart, that they stayed with him and guided him amidst all of the vicissitudes of later life.

Susanna Wesley had drunk so deep at the fountain heads of spiritual control that one who knew the family said: "Her children always accorded her the utmost of obedience but never with the attitude of fear." In spite of the fact of her large family and the heavy duties of the rectory she always took a half hour each week for religious training and discussion with each one of them and when the boys went away to the universities she continued to use the half hour designated for each one for prayer in their behalf. No wonder she had such illustrious sons.

Mother, it lies in your power to develop in the child a sense of God, which will follow it all of its days. Such a sense of God will many times fortify the soul in time of great temptation and dire need. At one of our penal institutions for boys in their teens a group of twenty boys was selected who had come from good homes, some from the city, some from small towns and country, and certain questions were asked them. Among these questions was this: "Were you taught to pray in your home?" Only three had been, the other seventeen had never even been taught "Now I lay me down to sleep." Such an absolute neglect of the fundamental of religious training must of necessity produce careless if not criminal youth.
