

LETTERS TO BE BIGGER THIS YEAR

Eleven communities will hold Farmers' Institutes again this year. The wide spreading influence of these community meetings reach more rural people than almost any other rural activity. They afford a place to discuss community problems, as well as receive suggestions on principals and practices which others have experienced.

Last year nearly 7,000 people were reported as attending the fifty-five Farmers' Institute Sessions held in Huron County.

The following is a list of communities holding institutes this year, with the dates of the meetings, officers in charge, and speakers selected.

Building Endangered

A chimney which caught fire some time during the night of December 26th, endangered the Chappel Cream Station and the entire block.

Mr. F. Stout of Shiloh, hauling cream for the station, discovered the fire about 6 o'clock Monday morning and extinguished it.

No estimate has been made of the damage. There is no insurance covering the loss.

A valuable dog, a spaniel belonging to Mr. Chappell was suffocated by the smoke and heat, but no part of the room or furnishings were buried.

The chimney probably caught fire about 1 a. m. and was almost completely burned out.

Hand Injured

C. A. Robinson, who has been employed at the shops here in Plymouth for about eight years recently received a severe cut across the back of his hand.

Robinson is a machinist. He will probably be able to return to work in a week, unless further complications set in. Dr. Walker is attending the injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Snyder and family moved Wednesday to the Della Hill house on Frank Street.

Mrs. Hill who arranged the home for the families, will continue to reside at the Della address.

O. E. S. Class Holds New Year Service

On New Year eve the E. E. Class of the Presbyterian S. S. held a New Year's Service in the auditorium of the church. A six o'clock dinner that would satisfy the hunger of the most hungry man, was served in the dining room in the basement of the church. The arrangement was planned to have each family seated together at the table. Including the husbands and children, seventy-six sat down to eat the last meal in the old year. After a social hour, a very attractive and entertaining program was rendered in the auditorium of the church by the children of the E. E. S. families. Even the youngest child had a part on the program. Among the many interesting features of the evening's program was a New Year's drill by six young women, led by Ellen Anderson and Lois Teal. The little children rendered a pleasing playlet, in which some humorous scenes were enacted. The elder members took a musical trip around the world, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

At the close of the program, Santa Claus climbed out of an improvised chimney and presented each child with a New Year's present. The program closed with the thought, "Get your direction before you try for disaster."

A group of young men remained until twelve o'clock and rang the old year out and the New Year in.

NEW PLAN TO AID TAXATION

Columbus, Ohio—A proposal looking to a revision of the treatment to be given to delinquent taxes is one of the first received by the Governor's Committee on Taxation. The proposal is grounded on the assumption that inasmuch as taxes are a first lien on real estate, ahead of mortgages and all other liens, taxpayers who happen to find it inconvenient to pay promptly should not have extortionate interest and penalties assessed against them when it is or should be practicable for the counties to borrow money at current rates against the tax obligations of taxpayers.

It is suggested that taxpayers should be given a reasonable time, say 30 days, to pay taxes, and on the expiration of that time, without further notice to taxpayers, the claims of the county for unpaid taxes should be sold as to speak to the bank or bank. Was the county willing to advance the money at the lowest rate, the bank to be secured by the tax lien.

It is thought that after such sale the tax bills should be turned over to the bank, purchasing the same, and that taxpayers should be given the right to go into the bank or the county treasurer's office and pay their taxes at any time, plus the rate of interest charged by the bank, and that the end of say eighteen months, the county should take up and pay the bank for the unpaid tax bills, together with interest.

Instead of selling tax claims and state titles to "sharks," it is proposed that at the end of eighteen months, the county treasurer shall be required to commence an ordinary foreclosure suit for the enforcement of the tax lien, and that this enforcement suit should be made simple and summary, and that upon the commencement of such a foreclosure suit, and not before, taxpayers should be charged penalties approximately the cost of foreclosure.

It is suggested that this revision would give taxpayers relief from extortionate penalties, the disgrace of selling tax claims to sharks will be done away with, and a prompt and efficacious procedure will be set up to prevent the accumulation of delinquent taxes.

This proposal is intended only as a skeleton or outline for the purpose of directing the attention of the Governor's Committee on Taxation to the problem of providing a remedy for extortionate interest and penalties charged to taxpayers and the problem of preventing the accumulation of delinquent taxes.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. R. spent New Year's Day with R. T. Niles and family, at Marion, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Reese and family were in Cleveland from Tuesday until Sunday of last week, visiting at the home of Mr. Reese's mother.

SHILOH CITIZEN DIES SUDDENLY

This community was shocked Friday afternoon when friends and neighbors heard of the passing of John C. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson was a life long member of this community. He was born in Indianapolis in February, 1862. His mother's death occurred when he was six weeks old. He was brought to the home of his uncle and aunt, Thomas and Mary Downend where he grew to manhood.

Mr. Wilson was a quiet, industrious man, a kind neighbor and friend, and was much beloved to his home life.

He was married to Rosa Nothacker and one son was born to this union, who preceded his father in death by a number of years.

He is survived by his widow, one adopted daughter, Mrs. Frank Bailey of Youngstown, two brothers, William Wilson of Shelby and Arthur Wilson of near Shelby, two half sisters, Mrs. William Bowie of Mansfield and Mrs. Maud Ferris of Shelby and one half brother, Fred of California.

Mr. Wilson was an employee of the Fate-Rook-Heath Company of Plymouth for a number of years.

He was a member of the M. E. church and his funeral services were conducted at his late home by his brother, Mr. E. B. McBroom, on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The burial was in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Those attending the services from out-of-town were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailey of Youngstown; William Wilson, Arthur Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Ferris, Mrs. Mary Dick, Jay Dick, Charley Wilson, Robert Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Merl Monday and two children, Allen Dick and Mrs. Harry Armstrong of Shelby; Mrs. William Bowie of Mansfield; Mrs. Elizabeth Mosler and Mr. and Mrs. Park Miller; Mrs. Wilber Hulber and Mrs. M. Local Couple Wedded 63 Years

Sixty-three years ago, on Christmas Day, Miss Elizabeth Crall and Mr. Ezra Kochenderfer were united in marriage by Rev. Tom Downing. The ceremony was conducted at the home of the bride's parents in Verona, Ohio, in the presence of the immediate relatives.

Celebrating the wedding which occurred in 1866 the following guests were entertained on Christmas Day at the holiday dinner given at the Kochenderfer home on Plymouth St. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Devoy and children, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Snapp of Greenview and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Anderson and children of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Kochenderfer are the parents of six children. Mrs. Irene Scrafton of near Greenview, Mr. David Kochenderfer and Mrs. Dora Willitt of Harrisburg, Pa., Mrs. Eva Devoy of Greenview, Mrs. Mayme Sykes of Cincinnati and Mrs. Ruth Anderson of Plymouth.

There are seventeen grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren living with the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Kochenderfer is making her home with the Kochenderfers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kochenderfer started their housekeeping on a farm near Shelby. When they first came to Plymouth Mr. Kochenderfer operated a mill and later pressed and grounded the business for forty years. He passed his 86th birthday on September 1st, 1928.

Mrs. Kochenderfer will be 83 years on February 7th.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Sykes, a granddaughter living in Clinton, was solemnized at the Kochenderfers celebrated their anniversary.

Mrs. Kochenderfer, as a bride, was gowned in a light blue dress worn over hoop skirts. Puff sleeves were a feature of the costume. She carried no flowers, as it was not customary at that time.

Mrs. H. Fenner, Mrs. Delancy and her son, were in Mansfield over Christmas with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Rula, Lavonia and Wayne, were Christmas Day guests at Mt. Gilead, with M. D. Gier and family.

PLYMOUTH HIGH WELDS TO ATTICA

Not so successful in the clash with Attica High, Plymouth High celebrated New Year's Eve, by dropping both games to the opposition. The boys lost 36-19, the girls 29-21.

A one must have slipped somewhere in the boy's team, as at the half the Pilgrims were leading 17-12. Attica, seizing opportunity when it knocked, and pepping up, made 24 points in the second half, to Plymouth's 2.

Webber was put out on personals in the first half, Snyder substituting, followed by Briggs. Hale was sent in for Mumea in the second half, after the latter's personal fouls were counted. A complete second team was run in during the second half.

The Pilgrim girls rallied at the second half bringing their score from 7 to 21, allowing Attica to run from 17 to 29. Attica's lead was maintained from the beginning.

Pugh was again high scare woman, and Snyder for the boys.

Capital of Attica, ran the high field score for the 12 girls, making nine field goals.

Capt. Anderson, Plymouth, was not in the game.

Only one injury was sustained during the game, Fortney, Attica player, made a hard fall.

We are hoping Plymouth finds a lot of pep before January 3rd.

Undergoes Operation

Mrs. Ollie Lamoreaux, resident of Greenview, is reported to be improving nicely after the serious operation she underwent last Thursday at Memorial Hospital in Norwalk.

Her convalescence is as fine as could be expected, considering the length of time she was on the operating table.

If no unusual complication sets in, her complete recovery is assured.

Louise Lamoreaux, a daughter, has returned to her duties at the Bowling Green Normal School.

Leaguers Hold Watch Party

With the ringing in of 1930, the watch party given by the local Epworth League, in the church parlour for the Shiloh League, ended, every one calling greetings for the New Year.

Reverend Everal McBroom was in charge of the party, assisted by Glenn and Robert Baltzell, Louis Ross, Zetta Brooks, Mrs. McBroom and M. Boardman.

The guests arrived soon after eight o'clock, and were started on their good time by the program committee. Lively games were chosen for entertainment. There were several spills during the course of the evening, but the good humor and civility of the party could not be broken.

At ten-thirty a hot luncheon was served of wafers, sandwiches, hot chocolate, pickles and cake. Mrs. McBroom is to be thanked for the super-visual of this step in the program.

Shiloh after eleven, the twenty-five present adjourned to the auditorium of the church. After a song service of requests by those present, and silent prayer, Rev. McBroom spoke concerning the year just ahead.

"There is a full year approaching. No matter what the failures, the year will end in the new year. It is best to forget them and look forward to the new, as did Christ's apostles. There may be sorrow or happiness ahead, but the ultimate goal is the same.

The meeting was closed with the selection "One More Day, Work for Jesus," while the word "year" was substituted for "days."

At exactly midnight, the ringing of the church bell told the town that 1930 was here.

Christmas Cantata

On New Year's evening the combined choirs of the North aFriedrich church presented their Christmas cantata at the Methodist church, New Haven.

Rev. Henderson, pastor of the North Fairfield Methodist church directed the cantata.

The songs were sung to a full house.

Steele Files Cross Petition In Suit

Luke Steele, defendant, Tuesday afternoon brought action against Otto Copeland in filing an answer and cross petition to the allegations of the plaintiff.

Copeland, a minor, through May Hartland, charged that Steele was the cause of an accident on the Plymouth Shelby road in leading a team of horses to pasture without display of light.

While acknowledging the accident, and the date on which it occurred, Steele denied every other charge in his answer.

Further, he asks $200 damages for the death of one of the horses which was struck by the plaintiff's car. It is claimed that the light from the home and barn served to light the road sufficiently for Copeland to see, and that the horses were at one side of the road.

Another listed charge against Copeland is that he was driving at an excessive rate of speed.

Huston and Huston, Mansfield and C. Anderson, Shelby, are counsel for Steele.

HOSPITAL WILL BE READY SOON

WILLARD, O.—Willard citizens and officials are all pepped up over the opening, within the next two months, of their new $60,000 hospital.

And that is as it should be, for they will then possess the second municipally built and municipally owned village hospital in Ohio.

Funds for the project were provided in a bond issue passed at the 1928 November election.

Since then, practically ever fraternal organization and social club in the village has added its bit in furnishing the institution with the latest inventions of scientific comfort.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, largest single taxpayer in the community, chipped in with $5,000 "to be used for whatever the committee think best."

Room for a Lot of Patients
The hospital has fifteen single private rooms, 62 bed rooms and 23 bed wards, large enough. Its designers figure, to care not only for Willard patients but also those from the surrounding territory.

The building is to be $55,000, exclusive of extensions for sun rooms, is located on Woodbine Street, just inside the village's southern limits. Each of its three stories is nine feet high and is built of sound-proof material.

The furnishings when they're all in, will cost about $20,000.

A novel feature will be individual radio receiving sets in each room. They were made possible by Robert Smith of the Smith Electric Service. The B. & O.'s $5,000 will go to the purchase of a steaming apparatus and equipment for the laundry.

The top floor of the building is devoted to the major operating room, sterilizing and delivery rooms. The second floor is turned over to patients' quarters.

The hospital workshop, service rooms and emergency operating rooms are on the ground floor.

Plans for the operation of the hospital are up to the Council that takes office Wednesday.

The only other hospital of this type is in Bedford, Cuyahoga County. It is $18,000 and was put into operation six months ago.

Wadsworth also boasts a municipally owned plant, but it was constructed from private funds and donated to the city.

Finger Mangled

Frank Weck, who suffered an injury to his left index finger Tuesday, will probably return to work today or tomorrow, as the hurt proved to be minor.

Weck, employed in the assembly room, caught his finger which was pinched and broken open. However the opening was not large, and will soon heal over.

Dr. Seagrave cared for the injury.

Mrs. Marguerite Drew has been at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dew, of Attica since Sunday.

TELLS OF TRIP THRU SOUTH

We are advising the citizens of Plymouth not to walk down town after reading the following letter or the south bound trains will be crowded.

The description of our Square during the past week if sent to the visiting Plymouth people, would serve to prolong their stay in Florida.

However, the letter from Maurice Bachrach is very interesting, and we get a glimpse of the southern sun from it.

"No knight of other days functioned more perfectly than did the Willys-Knight which brought us to Florida the land of sunshine, flowers and what have you?"

"Leaving Plymouth on Saturday, December 7th, we traveled by easy stages, driving on an average of 200 miles a day, a total distance of 1238 miles. Aside from a couple punctures, caused by persons carelessly leaving nails along the road, the trip was serene without the machine giving us serious trouble of any kind.

"It was necessary to drive very slowly, with our headlights turning on several mornings, due to dense fog, after which time we were rewarded by gorgeous sunshine.

"Our reference to the fog is not in the nature of a complaint, especially not when we were told that just two weeks previously the roads were so slippery—the first time in forty-five years. We were informed that seven persons were killed in a single day in coming over the mountains.

We left the good old Buckeye state, entering Kentucky via ferry across the Ohio river, there began our real journey southward on which we followed the Daniel Boone trail for miles and miles. The scenery was beyond

Plymouth Victor In Close Contest

Plymouth initiated her new basket ball floor Friday evening by scoring two hard earned victories over Shiloh High.

Expecting much opposition, Plymouth received it. The Shiloh teams appeared, ready to tackle a man-sized job, but were scored down 14-10 by the Pilgrim girls, and 22-21 by the men.

In the first game, played by the girls, Pugh was the high scorer for Plymouth, totaling eight points. Her game was consistent and good. Becker raised the remaining six points, playing fast. Anderson and Fenner showed a good game at guarding.

Fouls were called closely by the referee, C. A. High of New Washington.

Anderson, of Plymouth, and Dushay, of Shiloh suffered minor injuries from spills during the course of the game.

Llunep; Becker, rt.; R. Root, lt.; Pugh, c.; Shaver, cf.; Fenner, lg.; Anderson, rg.

The second game, expected to be anybody's game because of the score of the last Shiloh-Plymouth conflict, was about as nerve-racking as a fan would want.

The score was divided rather equally. D. Bachrach and Mumea handling in six points each, with Ross Pugh, totaling eight points. Her game was consistent and good. Becker raised the remaining six points, playing fast. Anderson and Fenner showed a good game at guarding.

Fouls were called closely by the referee, C. A. High of New Washington.

The score balanced first in one team's favor and then switched. At the half Plymouth stood at 12, with an advance of one basket over Shiloh.

Shiloh-up: Ross, rt.; D. Bachrach, lt.; Webber, c.; D. Bachrach, rg.; Mumea, lg. Snyder for Webber, Myers for Snyder.

And so the P. H. S. players dedicated the new building with a thrilling victory.

New Walk Way

There has been a new board walk completed to the door of the new school building from Sandusky street.

Antes will still use the Maple street entrance, where a road and path have been constructed with cinders.

The high school boys have been very generous with their time and help, and with some extra assistance, suitable temporary entrance has been made possible the games in the new building.

Will Rogers Picks
A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

YOU hear all kinds of tales about things that are supposed to happen on the movie lot. Most of them never happen, of course. But they're good stories, just like the Ford jokes used to be.

They talk about a shooting scene where the director was having some thing realistic, the way he thought things really are. But he hardly ever got anything right, because he didn't know, somehow, what things really look like.

Well, the actor that was to do the shooting pulled his pistol and fired, and the other fellow toppled over on his face.

"Terrible!" yells the director. "Don't that man know nothing about how a guy falls when he's shot? I never saw anything so dumb. Get up and do that over again, the way fellows really do it when they're shot."

"He can't get up," says the shooter. "I done forgot and shot him dead with that gun!"

outstanding screen successes, has a career which trails across this world of ours... leading into prize rings, mining camps, war trenches, onto vaudeville stages... and now to stardom in talking pictures; in fact, truly "colorful."

We cannot imagine a better type for that unfortunate Captain Flagg of "What Price Glory?" than McLaglen. Happily, Fox Films feels the same way about it and he is again "Flagg;" this time in the all talking Movietone picture of more strenuous adventure, "The Cock Eyed World."

McLaglen, born in London, spent his boyhood in South Africa where his father was a bishop, and cousin of General DeWitt of Boer War fame. Victor, then fourteen, pleaded to join the army. Refused, the youngster fled to London. Here his great physique enabled him to enlist in the Life Guards. Later wanderlust sent the lad to Canada, where he mined silver in the Cobalt country. Then began his career as a wrestler and boxer. When the town burned down Victor proceeded to Ontario, where he acquired the Eastern Canada boxing championship.

Next he joined a side show, meeting all comers. This was followed by a turn in vaudeville. In Vancouver he fought a six-round bout with Champion Jack Johnson. Then, with his brother, Arthur, he joined the gold rush to Kalgoorlie in Australia and almost died in the desert.

At the outbreak of the World War, the brothers enlisted in London, being joined by four other brothers. All returned but Fred, who died in East Africa. Victor then went to Mesopotamia with the Royal Irish Fusiliers. After facing Turks and Arabs he received a Captaincy. Later he was made provost marshal of Baghdad.

The screen lured him to Hollywood and therein fame and wealth resulted. He will be seen in "The Cock Eyed World" Thursday, Friday, Saturday at Castamba, Shelby.

The Alpha Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Derringer on Porter Street. Mrs. S. Trauger and Mrs. Aslakson are associate hostesses.

The SPORT
BAROMETER

By Barber

Plymouth Hi boys had their initial practice in the new Gym Monday afternoon. With the aid of their new floor their offense should show a decided improvement.

Plymouth vs. Weller. It seems to the writer that the local masculine aggregation should out-score their Weller opponents by at least ten points. He further ventures to predict that the final score will be 32-21.

The battling sextet of Plymouth Hi showed a real fighting edge last Friday night, handling Shiloh their first defeat. That's putting it over, girls!

The boys' defeat at Atlica was due mainly to the fact that they failed to change their style of offense. Their offense functioned smoothly the first half, but was solved, and completely out thereafter. How about a little variety, boys?

The feminine outfit from P. H. S. got away to a poor start, but during the second half, they fought a great battle. They were sadly out-sized, which in this humble opinion, is the reason for defeat. Alright, girls how about strutting your onions this Friday?

Shiloh faces Lucas in a gala affray Friday night at the former's gym. This should be a mighty battle, for both teams are usually out for all there is in it.

This lad, Snyder, although a senior, is playing his first season of basketball. The boy is playing a bang-up game, and is proving a great asset to the Pilgrim squad. You have our cheers, fellas!

McINTIRE - PHILLIPS CASE
J. W. McIntire, against whom a verdict of $5725 was returned by the Huron-Co. Jury, is fully covered by insurance.

Edward Phillips, plaintiff, charged McIntire with careless driving on the highway, after the latter's car struck Phillips wagon and horses, which had been driven onto the road from the driveway.

The case will probably be appealed to a higher court.

Mrs. Henry Cole entertained the following guests on Christmas Day: Miss Margaret Cole, of Athens, Mr. Howard Cole, of Greenville, Tennessee, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cole, and son James of Akron, Dr. and Mrs. A. Cole and children, Arch Jr., Mildred and Patricia, of Louisville, Kentucky, Mrs. Josie Cole, Misses Helen and Lois Cole of North Airtfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leddick and daughter, Blanche, and Mrs. L. Hale spent Christmas Day at Shelby with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harty.

Mrs. Olive Gottfried, who has been in Bucyrus for some time, spent Xmas Day here with her family.

WELLER GAME
To the score of 21-16 Plymouth boys lead Weller-twp. Centralized School in the last game which was played November 26th.

In the entire game there was no danger zone for Plymouth, and with the home team all pinned up from the new building. On Friday night, there should be a game for the boys on January 3rd. However, as there is many a slip between the plans and the scoreboards, (with apologies to Mr. Maxim.) it wouldn't be wise to miss a good game this Friday night at the new building.

Though the Weller girls have been champions of the county for the past two years, they were beaten by the Shiloh team this year. As Plymouth took the game from the Shiloh girls, there is a big chance of a double victory tomorrow night.

The pre-Thanksgiving score was 24-14, in favor of Weller with Becker high scorer.

A large delegation is expected from Weller-twp. as the enthusiasm is quite high with both graduates and in the school.

The probable line-up for the boys is given as follows: Ros, r.; J. Bachrach, l.; Webber, c.; Mumes, rg.; D. Bachrach, lg.

There is plenty of parking space in the rear of the new high school building, and can be reached by the Maple Street entrance. Outdoor paths have also been made to the auditorium from Maple street.

Miss Fenner was in general charge of the affair, and proved very capable. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Henry Fenner, and her sisters, Ruth and Doris.

The evening was passed by dancing, cards, and games. An orchestra was arranged, composed of piano, cornet, trombone, and banjo-uke.

The entire group sang several times during the course of the evening, the favorite selection being "Am I Blue?" Those attending the basketball game at Atlica were invited to the party after the game, and quite a delegation arrived late.

The quietest minutes of the evening were those around midnight. Shortly after the entrance of 1930, a supper was served of chicken sandwiches, a gelatine vegetable salad, two kinds of cake, sherbert, fudge, marshmallows, and apples.

Near two o'clock, on January 1st, the party was adjourned.

The following, not all belonging to

herd, Walter Grimmer, Vance Snyder, Junior Bachrach, Harry Long, Thomas Webber, David Bachrach, Walter St. Clair, Don Ehsel, Jr., Walter M.

Carson-Harbaugh Nuptials

A distinctly modern tone, secured by pleasing simplicity, colored the beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony, performed Sunday afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. J. W. Miller when Miss Agnes Carson was united in marriage to Mr. John Harbaugh.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Carson, Plymouth and Mr. Harbaugh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Harbaugh, Akron.

The church was effectively decorated with arbor-vitae and cathedral candles.

Miss Ruth Balduff played the beautiful Lohengrin wedding march. The ring ceremony was used. The bride and groom wore unadorned Akron.

The bride was gowned in a rose beige afternoon dress, and carried an arm bouquet of pink tea roses. Her hat and shoes were of a pleasing shade of green.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Harbaugh were honored by a reception held in the parlor of the church. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. C. Cramer, Mrs. H. Ruckman, Mrs. Grover Bevier, Mrs. Luther Fetters. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. D. Shields.

Immediately after the reception, the bride and groom left for Akron where they will reside. Mrs. Harbaugh will continue her teaching at Loyal Oak, and Mr. Harbaugh will resume his duties at Akron bank.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents.

An altar was arranged at one end of the large living room at which the vows were exchanged. The entire house was decorated with the appropriate colors of Christmas, green and red.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, meeting the bridegroom at the altar, where they were awaited by Rev. Kapp.

Miss Elizabeth was dressed very simply in an ensemble of green broadcloth, and wore a corsage of white roses and lilies.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Corwin will reside at 8861 Orren Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

Just sixty-three years ago, on Christmas day, the bride's grandparents were married.

Do you ask to be the companion of the noble? Make yourself noble, and you shall be. Do you long for the conversation of the wise? Learn to understand it, and you shall hear it. Thought rules the world. What are you thinking about at the beginning of the New Year? Have you thought of Him whose Birth we celebrated a few days ago? Communion services next Sunday, 11 a. m. As a prelude to this service, an interesting program will be rendered in the Bible School.

Grand Rush on Auto Tags

After a wait that made officials think that auto drivers were going in to a decline, the sale of license tags was finally pushed at last minute.

Up-to-date, over 400 plates have been issued by Paul Russell, to Plymouth and the surrounding country.

The reason motorists neglected to buy their auto tags until the last minute, which was midnight, December 31st, is traced to the old habit of procrastination.

The general condition of business seems to be having no direct effect on the sale.

However, Paul Russell thinks that a good many drivers had made bets with Dave Cameron, his agreement with Uncle Sam to stop all cars with 1929 tags.

Plymouth will enforce the ruling as rigidly as possible, and all people contemplating driving with old tags should take warning.

Russell's Garage will be open all day New Year and in the evening until 9 o'clock, so that license plates can be purchased.

A number of the surrounding towns and cities have reported a slow sale of tags, so that Plymouth is not exceptional.

Huron County Court News

NORWALK—A jury returned a verdict of $3,500 in favor of the plaintiff in the death claim case of Jacob Forney, administrator of the estate of the late Herman Forney, who was fatally burned and shocked by electricity while picking cherries near Bellevue last summer.

The defendant was the Lyme Mutual Light and Power Co. An agreement was reached out of court before the jury reached its decision as to the amount of the verdict.

Wine Default Verdict
C. A. Selter, who lives near Bertine Heights, a former Plymouth attorney, was returned a $1,500 default verdict against G. E. Hamilton and the Universal Transit Co. The defendant failed to appear in court. Selter was hurt and his car was wrecked in a collision with a vehicle operated for the defendant corporation. A judgment of $10,500 was asked.

"Another sight which impressed us greatly was an old railroad locomotive called "The General," which figured conspicuously in the Civil war, in the National Cemetery are buried James J. Andrew and his companion who captured this locomotive at the Shanty on the Western and Atlantic Railroad, while the locomotive was in service attempting to burn bridges and cut the Confederate army from its base of supply. They were overtake and eight were executed as spies, six were paroled and eight escaped from prison.

"This took place April 12th, 1862.

"All along the route there were highly interesting sights well worth writing home about. Passings through Macon, Georgia, our thoughts naturally turned to Plymouth, as we remembered that our Editor was a former Maconite. It is a real city.

"We finally landed in Clearwater after a most delightful journey, and were given a cordial greeting and welcomed by our old Plymouth friends the Shufflers, whom we found well, prosperous and happy.

"The weather here is simply ideal.

Roses and poinsettias in profuse bloom while people are picking strawberries. However, we are not permitted to ship fruit out of the state. This is a preventative measure on account of the fruit insect which with Florida is contending.

"Clearwater is one of the highest points in the state along the west coast—a wonderful place in every way—a veritable fairy land, as it were, but, of course, in many ways it does not compare with the cities back in dear old Ohio.

"We are comfortably located in a nicely furnished bungalow at 808 Drew street, just two mile ride from the Gulf of Mexico, where the bathing is fine. We have made quite a few trips to St. Petersburg to fish, but we hesitate to tell you the result, because it might sound like we were expert fishermen.

"We would love to send each and every one of our Plymouth friends a "wish you were here" card, but as this is quite impossible, we are greeting you through the columns of the ADVERTISER.

We wish you all a most happy and prosperous New Year.

Maurice Bachrach.
