LOCAL BANK HAS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

At the close of business 1929, the Peoples National Bank state they have had one of the most successful years and that prospects for the coming year are bright.

The semi-annual dividend has just been declared on January 1st, and the officials are well pleased with the year's report.

"Judge a Bank by the Men Behind It," is the bank's slogan and the men behind this bank have always adhered to the soundest principles of banking and are well deserving of the patronage that has been extended it the past year.

While rabbit hunting the last day of the season with two of his neighbors, Roy Mellott, who had tried in vain to shoot a rabbit all season, even trying to sneak up on two or three settings, had the pleasure of bagging his only rabbit.

Here's how it happened. The dog found an old three-legged rabbit, but being a soft-hearted dog, he let the rabbit go unharmed. But Roy, who had not found any luck all season, thought a chance had turned up. He took a steady aim at this speedy tripped three-legged rabbit and missed.

He ran the rabbit down. Bringing it over to the other fellows he said: "There, I got one!"

And how!

Wedding Ceremony of Plymouth Girl Is Held Saturday

In the Plymouth Lutheran church, beautiful in the simplicity of the decorations, Miss Mary Josephine Fato, daughter of Mrs. Anna Lawton Fato, was married Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock to Mr. Joy A. Herbert, of Mansfield, son of Mr. Ella Herbert of Elyria.

Rev. A. M. Himes, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. Beautiful arrangements of white and pale pink carnations were on pedestals at the altar. The aisles were lined with tall white cathedral candles, the bases of which were looped together with white ribbons.

An organ prelude was played by Miss Marie Fatters, after which John P. Root, cousin of the bride, sang: "I Promise You." A second selection by Mrs. Root was "Transmutation." The words of this poem are by Christopher Hastings, while the music was composed for the occasion by Miss Fato.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her uncle, Mr. John Root. She wore an afternoon gown, fashioned with long skirt and sleeves of old ivory chiffon. The hat was of brown lace, and the shoes were of slightly darker shade. Bridal roses and lilies of the valley composed the shower bouquet carried.

The maid of honor was Miss Emma Fato, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were Miss Toby Ehrlich of Mansfield, and Miss Helen Burns of Elyria.

"Their gowns were of beautiful coral chiffon, with brown hats and shoes. Arm bouquets of pink rapture roses were carried.

Lohengrin's "Wedding March" was played by the organist at the beginning of their ceremony. Miss Fatters carried a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mr. McClendon, Lexington, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Richard Horan of Elyria, and Mr. Walter Steyer of Detroit.

Mrs. Fato wore a gown of navy blue chiffon with a corsage and the gown of Mrs. Herbert was of black chiffon with corsage.

A reception was held at Hill Top Inn, Steubenville, after the ceremony. 100 guests being present. A buffet luncheon was served. Mr. John Root and his son, John Root, Jr., gave several selections, piano and violin.

Mr. Herbert's musical ensemble was of brown. She threw her bouquet before leaving, which was caught by Miss Mildred Fato, a cousin, of Urbana.

After a honeymoon in Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert will reside at 150 Carpenter street. Mr. Herbert is a business manager for the Ohio Public Service.

Mrs. Herbert graduated from the Plymouth High school, after which she attended Lake Erie College, Painesville, Ohio, and the Spencerian College, Cleveland, also studied hard at the voice in New York.

Miss Fatters and Mrs. Herbert have lived near each other since childhood, and completed all their school years together.

LIBRARY MOVING TO NEW HOME

The Plymouth Public Library will be open to the service of all readers Monday evening at the new location on Plymouth street.

The north room of the Bevier residence will be completed for occupancy this week, and the majority of the books have already been moved.

During the evenings of this week there will be an attendance on duty both at the Plymouth street location, and at the room on Sandusky street, so that if books are not listed at one room, they will be found at the other.

It is estimated that around 1500 books will be moved. This is an astounding number when one considers the number out of which the library grew—two small cupboards of books in the old Girl Scout room.

Several of the school boys have volunteered assistance in the transfer of the books.

Four new cupboards will be put into Mrs. E. Drennan Geer of Galton, gave two cases to the library last summer, which are so tall that two cupboards are made from each.

The division of the books will be made as usual. The new location, however, will enable the non-fiction volumes to be listed and arranged in a more satisfactory system.

The library will be open five nights a week, as usual, from 7 to 9 p. m. The service may be a little slow at first, authorities say, as an acquaintance of the system and shelves must be made.

Books from the Ohio State Library, as well as the Mansfield Library, will now be used.

Yes, Salesman Sam!

Friends the other day found Harold Lippert conversing with laughter in the back of his store. After throwing ice water in his face, and rubbing his wrists, he began to whisper before breaking into a second spasm.

"An old lady came into a dry goods store and asked to see some blankets. The clerk, one by one, hauled down the goods for her inspection, spending a weary half hour noting the qualities of the merchandise. After a long wait, the old lady fingered over the blankets again, and said: 'You see, I was just looking for a friend.' The exasperated clerk glanced up at the shelf and spied one lone blanket. He said: 'Lady, if you really think your friend is in that one, I'll get it down.'"

Rain and Sleet Are Big Factors In This Week's Weather

A great deal of comment has been made lately about the weather, and more than one prediction has been made concerning the effect of the melting snows and the thawing ground caused by the temperature of last January 1, 2 and 3.

It is not necessary to go very far south in the state to find some of these effects.

The Medina road, about three miles east of Wellington, the highway was covered with water so deep that guards were placed on duty to warn motorists.

Traffic was impeded in the swale, and some cars detoured because of the soft and a half water that treated them to splash the motors. Landings were placed on poles on each side of the road, and the guards flagged the traffic with additional lights.

The road is a state highway, and it is felt that something should be done about the hazard that is always met in that district after a thaw or heavy rain.

Rush Weavers Of New Haven Twp. Hold Meet Friday

Have you noticed the many kinds of stem like plants that grow in the marshes and other wet places.

In the early ages men learned how to utilize these plants by tying and twisting together the leaves as they were the twisted strand into firm chair seats. This process was how rush weaving started, but its popularity has continued until today it is possible to go into most homes and find pieces of furniture of which rush forms a part.

Ladder back chairs are found in many homes in Huron county. Many of these chairs are old and the seats will be replaced by weaving with rush.

BUCYRUS SUICIDE

Milo Goodwin, 25, committed suicide January 2, after seriously wounding Miss Rose Ulmer, a former sweetheart.

Miss Ulmer's right shoulder was shattered by shotgun slugs. She was taken to a Bucyrus hospital where physicians stated that she would recover.

According to reports, Goodwin accosted Miss Ulmer, who was walking to work with Miss Mary Fisher and when the girl refused to ride to work in his car Goodwin cursed her and fired with a single-barreled shotgun. Driving a half-square away, the would-be murderer placed the gun over his heart and pulled the trigger. He died 15 minutes later in a local hospital.

The real motive for the shooting is not known. Parents of the two are unable to enlighten the police about the affair, though both were hysterical when informed of the tragedy.

This firm has been established in Plymouth for the past few years and has made many friends.

A complete wall paper stock has long been needed in Plymouth so that now we appreciate the service extended.

COURT CLOSES BUSIEST TERM

Formally completing its records on Saturday, January 4, the Richland County Common Pleas Court reported a banner term.

The total number of cases for the September term was 232, 214 of these being civil matters, leaving 44 criminal cases, according to the records of Assistant Clerk Charles A. McKinley. All were taken care of.

Judge James W. Galbraith and Clerk McKinley were both of the opinion that this was the star term of all that the county court had held.

"Largely because of the peculiarity that a great number of cases as signed for hearing during the term were settled before they were brought before the court, this unusually large number of cases has been disposed of," Judge Galbraith declared.

The system used in the courts at the present time, also affects the amount of time needed for settlement. During the past terms, a much longer period between the filing and hearing of the controversy was taken.

The January term of the Common Pleas Court opened Jan. 6, with approximately 220 cases up for hearing.

INCOME TAXES

Income taxes for 1929 will be received by the U. S. Government after January 11, when forms for filing returns will be available at offices of collectors of internal revenue and branch offices.

A cut from 1 1/2 per cent to one-half per cent has been made on the rates on normal $4,000 incomes in excess of the personal exemption and credits.

On the next $4,000, the new tax is 2 per cent instead of 3, and on the balance 4 per cent instead of 5.

Returns for 1929 incomes must be made before midnight of March 15, 1930.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors and people from a distance for the beautiful flowers, fruits, cakes and candy and the many Xmas greetings sent me through my recent illness. I was surely very much pleased as they came like a ray of sunshine on a cloudy day, and I have found all through life there is always kind people who are willing and ready to lend a helping hand if we but reach out and meet them part way.

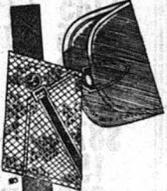

So "Thanks Again!" to the ones who helped to make a long suffering glad in many ways.

Silent working is God's own way of doing things. When He weaves the woodland foliage and the panned carpets of the parties and the flower robes of countless gardens, who will hear the hum of His looms? Is not silence God's workshop? Is this why we think of Him so little, and at times scarcely think of Him at all?
SILENT WORKING will be the theme for next Sunday's service, 11 a.m. with special music by the choir and a special number from the orchestra. Prelude to this service, one hour of information, instruction

BRADLEY DEATH

Prof. Glen D. Bradley, 45 member of the faculty of Toledo University, who died January 4, at the Robinson Hospital, Toledo, was well known in Willard, and had friends in Plymouth. Bradley had been a close friend of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Frye, of Willard, and each fall he visited them while hunting game in this district.

Funeral services were held in Toledo, on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ira Garner mortuary, Rev. Stephen K. Mahon officiating. Burial was made in Memorial Park Cemetery. Death resulted from an operation for a parasitic tropical infection, which developed after a trip to South America last summer.

It takes only two minutes a day to keep an accurate record of business transactions on the average farm.

Kellogg Peace Fruits
To Boom Good Times
When a Man Scribbles
Think of Mexico

China says Russia's attack on her Manchurian possessions, seizing the railroads, killing civilians, setting fire to their homes, etc., is a defiance of the Kellogg peace pact.

Britain and America will talk that over and see what can be done about it. Henderson, foreign minister in Paris, will take part in the discussion. Japan asks no one's advice and the only thing that could be done about it would be to fight Russia.

It would be interesting if the first fruits of the Kellogg peace pact should be the fact that the country that was called Japan, highly intelligent, would send a few "observers," as in the big war, and do nothing else.

Britain would be too busy with other things and too "fed up" for any more fighting. Uncle Sam would be in your face part. Have the country more decency to attend to this matter.

Innuit of Chicago, Cortelyou of New York and Owen D. Young of Europe, New York and everywhere have seen the President. The industrial stars promise the President to cooperate in his admirable undertaking, promotion of new enterprises, wise spending of money and creation of jobs.

Their promise is no small one, for they agree to spend fifteen hundred million dollars on one program.

What the country needs if it really needs anything beyond common sense, is to spend part of the money we have, and we have hundreds of billions of it. In that case, this country has stood petrified, unable to move, like a man watching his horse burg down, unable to use his legs or hands.

You might buy of autograph dealers a signature of Herbert Hoover on a sheet of paper with many little geometrical diagrams scratched on the paper while listening to a visitor. These diagrams usually mean that the man making them is not listening "very hard."

If Rockefeller or Ford called to tell the President of a plan to put ten million men to work at good wages, he would listen and wouldn't do any scribbling as he listened.

When you talk and a man scribbles, make it short. He isn't much interested.

It was a distressing slump in Wall street, but think of poor Mexico. That country has had not a slump but a downward cataclysm.

Papers prepared by L. F. Herbert, authority on Mexican securities, show the national and railroad securities in Mexico with a par value of $55,925,156 are now selling on a basis of $37,000,000, or about six and a half per cent of par.

Suppose you could buy $100 worth of government bonds or best railroad stock for $6.50. That would be wacky.

And the simple-hearted Mexicans have not been dumping out new stock, 20,000,000 shares at a time, either.

Business men that know what it means to take an inventory of a godsend store will shudder when they hear that Doctor Shapley of Harvard has a plan for taking an inventory of the universe or "an index," as he calls it. Men are very far down in that inventory, about as important as a shoestring in a wholesale dry goods store.

In the cosmos everything is to be listed in its place, from electrons to "super galaxies." The difference between a super galaxy and an electron, just which millions of miles as perceived around their nucleus in the corner of the eye, is quite a difference.

Consider that the molecules in a pint of water, placed side by side, touching, would go around the earth two hundred million times; that our sun is a million times as big as the earth; that here exist other suns, one million times as big as ours, and you can imagine what a cosmic inventory would be. But men will make it, including everything within the telescope's reach.

Underground near the marshy shore of the Bay of Biscay old Clemenceau would be interested to hear that the German newspapers say, "We should have won the war if we had had the greatest Frenchman since Napoleon."

E. E. Free, able engineer, says 1930 will see electric houses, lighted with artificial sunlight, weather arranged as prescribed by the doctor, like a baby's modified milk, no windows, soundproof and electrically ventilated. The soundproof suggestion is welcome and the rest, not.

Huron County Court News

82 PER CENT OF 4-H MEMBERS FINISH UP
Eighty-two per cent of the 26,051 Ohio boys and girls who enrolled in 4-H club projects last year, or 29,622 completed their projects. That is they did the work, kept records of the work and finally exhibited, in public, the work and the record at the end of the season. The percentage of completions is the same for 1929 as it was for 1928.

Thirteen counties of the 44 in the state in which club work went on this year, had completion averages of more than 90 per cent. Adams County was highest in the list, with 97.5 per cent of its club members finishing up their work.

Girls were more persistent in their projects than boys, according to reports to the state club department at the Ohio State University.

Boys, however, showed the greatest improvement over their record for the preceding year, since there was a gain of 41.3 per cent in the number of boys undertaking the work, and a gain of 32 per cent in the number finishing.

Huron County's record this year shows 499 members starting, and 408 completing, their projects, or 81.8 per cent.

Sues Estate
Mrs. Hesse Smith of North Fairfield asks a judgment of $416.75 from F. E. Hines, administrator of the estate of Joseph Willis of Greenwich. The plaintiff alleges the sum of the judgment is due for services rendered and articles furnished the deceased for some time previous his death.

MORALE IN OHIO PRISONS HIGH

IS emfyeztaonahrdvubkqjbbk Columbus, O., Jan. 9.—While other prisons are creaking under the strain of recent outbreaks, Ohio penal institutions are beginning the new year with no apparent disturbances ahead and the morale of prisoners high. Hal E. Griswold, state director of public welfare, said today after a survey of the institutions.

"Although our prisons are slightly more crowded than a year ago, the spirit is good and there is no sign of an immediate upsurge. The total population of penal institutions at the beginning of this year was 8,830 compared with 8,250 on January 1, 1929. The increase cannot be considered alarming as it is nearly in proportion to the increase of population of the state during the year. Mr. Griswold said.

Prisoners show the greatest increase in number of prisoners to be at the Ohio State Penitentiary, where 4,681 were registered this year compared to 4,182 last year. Due to the transfer of prisoners, a slight decrease is seen at the London Prison Farm. A total of 950 were confined there January 1, 1929, compared to 940 at the present time.

The Ohio State Reformatory showed an increase from 2,771 to 2,811, while the Reformatory for Women decreased from a population of 446 to 398 at the beginning of 1930.

An attempt to cut the idleness in the penal institutions to a minimum during 1930 was announced today by J. E. Clark, superintendent of manufacturing and sales for the Department of Public Welfare, and J. D. Braze, chief agriculturist for the department. Through an extension of prison industries and by increasing the number employed on the various state farms, this program is expected to be carried out.

The total population of all institutions under the State Department of Public Welfare on January 1 was 22,696. This includes state hospitals, penal and correctional institutions. The boys' Industrial School had 1,100 inmates, a decrease of 39, and the Girl's Industrial School had 529, an increase of 14 prisoners.

Thirteen counties of the 44 in the state in which club work went on this year, had completion averages of more than 90 per cent. Adams County was highest in the list, with 97.5 per cent of its club members finishing up their work.

THE GOOSE STEP

Toledo schools will celebrate, formally and officially, the 10th anniversary of the "victory day" of national prohibition, next Friday. This has been decided by the board of education.

It simply means that our children will be forced into the educational goose step, willy-nilly, no matter what their own opinions on this debatable topic may be, no matter how their parents may feel toward prohibition.

By a coincidence, citizens of Boston have just held a meeting in Faneuil hall where they protested the murders of three smugglers. It was official killings, pupils in Toledo school history classes may have been taught, which were responsible for the famous meeting in Faneuil hall some 155 years ago, preceding the American revolution.

Superintendent Meek, in order somewhat to soften the blow to bewildered parents, says that "nothing of an objectionable nature" will be included in the W. C. T. U. jubilee program in the schools.

Mr. Meek, as well as the board of education, displays a singular blindness as to the objectionable nature of injecting propaganda on any political topic into the school curriculum. When children take pennies to their classrooms for the Red Cross or the Community Chest, when they engage in safety campaigns, health campaigns, cleanup campaigns, or any other campaigns, their parents are not minded to protest, because the objects of these campaigns are generally accepted and approved by the community. There is no controversy over them. The board of education may even refuse the school platforms to one of the world's most noted pacifists, and there is little outcry.

But now the children are not only to engage in a two-hour jubilee over the passage of the prohibition amendment. They are also to write essays on why prohibition is a good thing. But their teachers will be supplied with statements which the children will be told to accept as facts, concerning this. Under no circumstances will they write why it may be considered a bad thing.

Perhaps some teachers do not believe it is a good thing. But their lips are sealed. They have no choice but to peddle the propaganda of one side of this disputed question. The propaganda comes, of course, from the board of education.

Perhaps the board of education members do not share a unanimous view of the blessings of the prohibition era. Or perhaps they do. Perhaps their views, tho all in favor of prohibition, differ radically as to what prohibition is and as to what it should be. It is to be assumed, of course, that each and every one of them looks upon the use of intoxicants as a sin.

But whatever the board may think of prohibition, whatever the teachers may think, whatever the individual pupils may think, is entirely aside the point.

The grievous wrong that the board of education is about to do to the pupils in the public schools consists in betraying and destroying the confidence of those pupils in the educational system.

As they go along in school, with alert and open minds, the children are bound to learn a great deal, outside the classroom, about prohibition, a great deal that they cannot possibly square with the "facts" supplied by the board of education.

Children's minds are normally honest.

Once they have discovered that under this guise of truth mere opinion has been foisted on them under the direct sanction and approval of the school authorities, their complete and childish faith in school authorities will be destroyed. And faith is something that, once blasted, does not grow again.

It is not merely the seeds of prohibition propaganda that the board of education is about to sow in Toledo schools.

It is the seeds of disillusionment and disrespect.

The children will perform the goose step, willy-nilly. They will not now question the authority that commands it. When they do begin to question, they will question not only this authority, but all authority.

By permitting political propaganda to enter Toledo classrooms, the board of education strikes a dire blow at the prestige of our public schools.

The SPORT BAROMETER
By Barber

The Battling Sestet kicked the dope bucket completely cockeyed Friday night, sending the county champions, strided thus for two years, down to bitter, stinging defeat.

The Pilgrim basketballers produced a somewhat improved offense against Weller. Keep digging, gang.

Speaking O'n'ralls, how d'ya like the way Becker chalked up the points in spite of a bum ankle? Great stuff, hey? That little forward made Weller look like an invalid.

What d'ya say we deal with comparisons for awhile. Friday, Jan. 17, Lexington makes its debut into our thriving metropolis. We find that Ontario defeated Lexington 21-19, while the Plymouth-Ontario score was 11-8. Therefore, the logical deduction is that Lexington is on par with Plymouth. Ah, but we don't agree. In fact, we differ greatly. We even go so far as to say that Plymouth is the better team by 15 points. The score should be 22-26 because Coach Jenkins will probably use as many substitutes as possible because of the Saturday game.

Let's peer into the dope buckets and find out the contents. New Washington and the Pilgrims have met a common foe in Chatfield. Pilgrim cagers nosed out a 18-16 win, while Dutch-town proved victors on an equally close margin, 14-11. Although the scores were both close, records show that the Jenks' men overcame a 10 point lead while holding their opponents to 2 points, in the latter part of the game. This, according to the dope, proves that the Pilgrim five has an edge over the Dutchtown quint. Alright fellows, let's see you uphold the dope.

The Jenks men have been fairly successful thus far this season, winning four, losing four, and tying one out of nine games. The have eleven scheduled games yet, with the odds greatly in their favor.

Dame Rumor has informed us that there is to be an independent team. It seems that they have intentions of traveling to Ontario. Perhaps they do not know that Ontario has vanquished such teams as the Chevrolet "flying five," and the "Gallon Struggler," or perhaps knowing, they do not care. Anyway we wish them luck.
