

AUTO WRECKED ON SHELBY ROAD

Deryl Stork Uninjured As Sedan Is Overtaken in Ditch After Sideswiping Parked Truck

Sideswiping a Ford truck parked in the center of the road without lights, Deryl Stork turned a Studebaker sedan into the ditch, rolling completely over.

It is considered an absolute miracle that the driver escaped with his life, or without serious injury, as besides the shock no hurt has been discovered. The Studebaker is the property of Mrs. Alex Bachrach, for whom Stork was being driven for several months. The accident occurred early last evening, near the Gilger farm, about one and a half miles south of Plymouth, as Stork was making the return trip after driving Miss Leah Bachrach to Mansfield.

After assuring himself that no one was injured the Plymouth driver drove with a salesman to town, returning to the wreck with Marshall Dave Burkett. The driver of the truck, Delmar Jewett, of Richwood, Ohio, and a companion, Fred Searson, of Cleveland, were found to be intoxicated and arrested by Burkett. At the time of the accident the driver was attempting to fit the lights which had fallen.

The truck was not damaged to any extent but the Bachrach car was completely demolished. The engine was the steep ditch. The lights were held, the case being brought before Mayor Derr this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Searson, enroute to Akron, met Jarow who proved to be an old war time buddy, who was on his way to that city.

The rain of the afternoon served to make the roads unusually slippery, and as Stork came upon the truck suddenly an accident was inevitable. A call was sent by some passerby for Miller's ambulance which arrived on the scene but found no one injured. The Post Repair Shop wrecker removed the damaged car.

Rev. Wilson was sick only a few hours and death was caused by a lingering indigestion. He was with Rev. Wilson will be remembered as the pastor of the local Presbyterian church from Feb. 1894 to Feb. 1896, and came to Plymouth from Hicksville, Ohio. During his pastorate here the church flourished and many members added to the church roll. LAD KILLED BY FALLING PLANE

Grover Croxton Struck By Plane At Attica Fair Grounds, Instantly Killed

Franklin Croxton, 11 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Croxton, of Attica, met death instantly late Thursday afternoon when struck by a falling airplane at the Attica fair grounds. The plane was piloted by Howard Burras, of Olena, who has been partially cleared of the blame. A companion of the boy, Lyle Kaufman, Jr., son of Supt. and Mrs. L. Kaufman, of Attica, was also injured by the plane, suffering cuts and bruises of the neck and head, but has recovered and will return to school.

The two lads were seated on the race track, when the engine of the plane, piloted by Burras, carrying Frosland Peo and Virgin Mowery, of Willard, failed, and caused the loss of control. All three escaped injury. Raymond Kaufman, brother of the injured boy, dropped from the fence as he noticed the ship falling and avoided the crash. The ship fell from a height of 25-30 feet.

Burras and his companions had not carried passengers, and had not been starting, but had noticed that the engine did not respond at the take-off. Sheriff Burkett, of Seneca county, reported. The plane, a Waco, had been flown from Willard and the three young men were enroute back to the home port. The accident was witnessed by thousands of persons in the grandstands and near the race track. The pilot is reported to have about 500 flying hours to his credit, and is a graduate of the Universal Flying School at Cleveland.

Burras, Peo, Mowery, and Fred Van Allen, of Willard, John Reiter, of Kenton, pilot owners of the plane, equipped with a Curtis OX-5 motor, made for use in the World War. The flying conditions were unfavorable at the time of the accident.

Further investigation is being made by the state aviation commission, and by W. M. Robertson, inspector for the commerce department of aviation who will report to Federal authorities. Funeral services for Croxton were held Sunday at the Attica Lutheran church.

Mrs. Emma Anderson Passes Away Tuesday; Services To Be Held Friday Afternoon

Mrs. Emma Anderson, resident of Plymouth for many years, passed away Tuesday morning, October 7, at 5:30 o'clock, at the Toledo State Hospital. Death called at the age of 67 years, ten months, after a serious illness which has been suffered for the past year.

Mrs. Anderson has not enjoyed good health for over ten years, but until recently had been able to amuse herself in all activities of the Methodist church, of which she was a member, and in which she was always interested.

Left to mourn her death are three sons, Bert, Floyd, and Earl, all of Plymouth, three daughters, Mrs. Nora Hatch, of Plymouth, Mrs. Inez Dowling, of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, and Mrs. Bernice Frakes, of Plymouth, a sister, Mrs. James McLaughlin, of Tiffin, a brother, Clem Hills of Plymouth, and eleven grandchildren.

She was born in Crawford county, the daughter of Clinton and Biddie Hills. October 2nd, 1879, she was united in marriage to Benjamin F. Anderson, of Plymouth, O., who preceded her in death. The family home was made in Niggs, the local residence being on Riggs avenue.

In the forepart of September, Mrs. Anderson was removed to the State Hospital for treatment. She was to be brought home by her children on Tuesday, but death prevented. The body was brought to Plymouth in the Postal ambulance, and taken to the Postal Funeral Home for preparation.

Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Four generations were present Sunday when relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Babcock to observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The affair was planned by their sons and wives and was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Babcock. Glenn Babcock, a son from Willard, was the first arrival and after exchanging greetings stated that his mother better prepare dinner early as he was enroute to Ashland. Beginning her dinner, great was her surprise when relatives numbering thirty-five arrived with well filled baskets and made the day one that will be long remembered by the immediate family.

It was quite a coincidence that four guests who attended the wedding fifty years ago were again present for the golden anniversary. These were Charles Furniss, Mrs. Rose McDonald, Mrs. Edith Godfrey, all of Norwalk, and Sergt. John D. Furniss of Cleveland.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Babcock are in their 73rd year and well and enjoying life. Mr. Babcock was born Oct. 3, 1857 at Centerton and Mrs. Babcock, Mar. 3rd, 1857, at Havana.

The couple were married Oct. 6, 1876 at the bride's parents' in Havana and resided in Bronson township on a farm until ten years ago when they came to Plymouth to make their home. The day following their marriage, the young couple, in company with other young people attended the Plymouth Fair, which was quite an event in those days.

To this union were born two sons, Glenn of Willard, and Carl of Plymouth. Two foster children, Mrs. Rose Hoffman, now of Detroit, Mich., and W. Northworthy, of Lorain, were reared by Mr. and Mrs. Babcock as their own.

The guests who were from Cleveland, Norwalk, Willard and Plymouth returned to their homes after expressing their wish that this venerable couple may enjoy many more years of married life, to which is added the best wishes of the entire community.

EDITORIAL

Which one of us, then, does most to fortify the morale of the school and strengthen it against its enemies? He who, first of all, protects its ideals. He who keeps to the fore the positive, not the negative, aspects of our common life; the things we have rather than those we lack; the work we can do rather than that we cannot do; the success of our common efforts rather than our failures; the achievements of many law-abiding generations, as well as the grievances that invite further progress.

He does most for the morale who is alert to discover and commend the good work of his colleagues; who shows pride in the achievements of other departments than his own; who staves his personal prejudices; plays the game, refuses to take offense; hangs up the receiver when the talk is mean; harbors no grudges, asks nothing for himself that he does not ask for all his co-workers; and who complains, if at all, directly to the responsible person.

In the school corps, he is the good soldier, the staunch defender of morale, who carries no concealed weapons of malicious gossip and enemy propaganda; who refuses to listen to disloyal talk; who sees afar off the enemy in ambush—the sneaking politician. He is the good soldier who packs up his troubles in his own kit-bag; who whistles most cheerily when the battle goes wrong; who meets reverses with redoubled determination; whose spirit triumphs over ingratitude and stupidity and slander, as if they were no more than the necessary chill and mud and vermin of trench warfare.

The latest Scotch song is "Just a Little Closer."
The old man writes a crazy "fig," but it's powerful on a check.

High school student to shoemaker: What do you make shoes with?
Shoemaker: Hide.
Student: Why should I hide?
Shoemaker: Hide! Hide! The cows outside.
Student: Let the old cow come, I ain't afraid.

Teacher: Fools ask questions that wise men cannot answer.
Squid Long: I wondered why I flunked that last test.

Hooley: What's a skeleton, Don?
Don: A lot of bones with the people rubbed off.

Mrs. Bachrach: "This is my son, Dave. Isn't he a bright little fellow?"
Dave, (accustomed to being shown off in public): "What was that bright thing I said yesterday, mother?"

"Kenneth Joslin Jones," piped the little girl, "I'm going right over and tell your mother what you said!"
"Huh," snorted the terrible tot, "My mama's in Paris and by the time you see her again you'll be my step-sister, if you know what I mean."

JOKES

Bob Bachrach: Step up Bill, it's time to kiss the bride.
Bill Root: You're wrong. It's time for me to quit.

Jim Root: Dad, you are a lucky man.

Father: How is that?
Jim R: You won't have to buy me any school books this year. I have been left in the same class.

"Oh, George, do you realize it's almost a year since our honeymoon, and that glorious day we spent on the sands? I wonder how we'll spend this one!" "On the rocks."

Doris Hatch: "Do you believe in dreams?"
Ben S: "What say?"
Doris H: "I say do you believe in dreams?"
Ben S: "I don't catch you."
Doris H: "I say, have you ever known what it is to sink into the downy depths of a spring-mattress and drift away into the land of fairies and elves?"
Ben S: "Of course! Why didn't you say so in the first place?"

First golfer (telling fish story): He was about as long as that last drive of yours.
Second golfer: Oh, really!
"Yes, so I threw him back."

Cop: Hey there, collegian, where to with that good looking coed?
Collegian: I'm taking her to a lecture of finer.
Cop: Who's giving a lecture at four o'clock in the morning?
Collegian: Her housemother, officer.

Service is my motto.
Miss me, darling.
I didn't say anything about serving you.

Soph: What is the difference between a Freshman and the president of the United States?

Fresh: (after puzzling several minutes): I don't know.
Soph: Why, you concited little Jackass! You get ten ticks for that.

Sweet young thing (after breaking glasses): "I've broken my glasses, do I have to be examined all over again?"
Optometrist (sighing): "No, just your eyes."

Helen: "What are you knitting, Alice?"
Alice: "Something to cheer up the boys."

Helen: "Why, the war was over long ago."
Alice: "This is a bathing suit for me, dear."

Little teacher of our hearts
With a winning smile so sweet,
It never fails to greet you
When you meet her on the street.

She will help you through your troubles
When in Latin you get stuck,
She will help you in your English,
We wish her all your luck.

May some handsome Romeo
Win this dainty winsome miss,
C cherish her and love her,
Make her life long years of bliss.

DELPHI NEWS

Reverals begin at The Full Gospel church, Guinea Corners, Sunday evening, Oct. 12, at 7:30.

W. F. M. S. will be in all day session this Thursday, with Mrs. Hugh Huffman, hostess.

The young ladies and gents of the Young People's Class in the Delphi Sunday school sprung a complete surprise on Mr. Earl Shilman in honor of his (his) birthday, Friday night at the home of his parents. At the close of the P. T. A. Friday night the parties were purposely slow in getting started for home. Giving the young people a chance to get 25 guests nicely seated to receive Earl in his own home. The surprise was complete. No guess work.

The P. T. A. and teachers reception was one of our splendid townshill gatherings we have had since last year. A fine musical and literary program followed by a dainty luncheon of ice cream and crackers, closed the pleasant gathering. Mrs. Lesta Young is the president.

The Harrington sale was well attended, drawn largely by the offering of property variously priced at between $200 or 70 years ago, sold at less than $200 by auctioneer H. E. Van Buskirk. Remember this is no criticism on the splendid auctioneer. Much junk made up his offerings. People from surrounding towns were seen at the sale.

Here is one of the finest heart string church invitations we have read for some time. It seems to sense a splendid revival. Here it is, read, think, and act. Come! Come! Come!

Our fellow townsman and brother and former mail carrier, F. E. Craig now confined to his home with the distressing cancer and who has practically gone to the end of the road in seeking a cure for the dreadful malady has given his cure over to Dr. Bird of North Fairfield and Steiner of Willard for experimentation and the trying out of a very newly discovered remedy and who will give generously of their time and care to the experimentation on the patient for the information of the profession and for the possible good of sufferers with the malignant disease. Our wish and prayer is that F. E. Craig may be rewarded by a real cure for himself through his generosity.

George Howard of Tiffin was a recent visitor in Delphi.

Mrs. Flora Case Ward was numbered with the sick a few days last week. Ray Chandler of Toledo, was a Sunday guest of his wife and son.

Mrs. Rogers was presented with a number of beautiful presents. Guests from Plymouth included Mesdames M. F. Dick, Howard Smith, G. A. Artz, Frank Davis, G. T. Gaskill, W. W. Trimmer and Miss Grace Trimmer.

Why Wear Imitations? Here's the Genuine . . .

THERE are many imitations of the Arch Preserver Shoe. They may look like it . . . perhaps even claim a feature or two; but no imitation can duplicate the combination of features that makes the Arch Preserver Shoe so wonderfully foot-satisfying. Look for the Arch Preserver trade-mark on sole and lining. It identifies the genuine. The season's smartest styles now here. Come in and see them.

CORRECTION

In last week's issue of the Advertiser, there was printed a legal notice to the effect that in the coming November election the voters of Plymouth Village School District will elect the master of an extra tax levy to provide for the operation of the Plymouth Village Schools. Through a clerical error, the amount upon which the vote is to be taken was stated to be three mills whereas it should have read "one and four-tenths mills." The notice is printed correctly in this issue. There will be enough issues of the Advertiser before election to insure the correct legally required number of insertions.
