ADVENTURES OF NEBRASKA

A. J. Pettit Recalls His Outing With Snakas, Indians, Blowouts, In Earlier Days

By request I am writing a sketch of my own experiences in the Eighties.

In 1857, while we were living in Nebraska, the Sitting Bull tribe of Indians were making raids in northwestern Nebraska along the Little Blue River. These raids, in distance from the community in which we lived, the people were somewhat stirred about it. Some prepared their guns and axes and made ready for battle. Fortunately the Indians did not bother in our locality.

However, I had a longing to see where they had been. The place was northwest, and was called Ball Hill. Ball Hill is very high, almost a mountain. Mr. C. A. Radenbaugh and I set out. We took a team and a spring wagon, horse feed, a barrel of water, food for the cows, blankets, utensils, and also guns. We were prepared to get part of our living along the way.

The first day we had some trails to lead us. We stopped where we had to. We almost always had to kill rattlesnakes before making our way to the grass. The South Platte river is also near the town. The river we crossed had little water, but the North Platte was on a rampage, as there had been heavy rain further up the stream.

After passing over both rivers we had to find our way across the prairie as best we could. We traveled all day and saw no person. We killed a wild chicken, also a rabbit. The next day we had to pilot our way, not seeing anyone. Toward evening we found a straggling herd of buffalo, some a strange sight, as there were spears and lances placed under the ribs of the animals, the dry skin being used for cover. We did not disturb them.

We traveled on until late that evening, then to our surprise we discovered an old house, with a sign Post Office. The folks told us that the letters in the carcass belonged to the cowboys. There was at that time a man carrying mail from Hiram to Paxton, on horseback, who left the mail at the carcass of the dead horse.

The following day we reached Ball Hill. Mr. Long, a friend of Radenbaugh, operated a ranch near the Hill. We had reached our destination.

We climbed to the top of the hill. There before us were visible seven lakes. The district was a great place for cattle raising. There were no fish in the lakes at that time, but plenty of duck and geese. Long had a boat, and you can bet we used it. At the outer edge of the lake the ducks made nests, and I would say we gathered a bushel of eggs.

A feature of Ball Hill is that it has a 'blow-out' on top. The wind coming in contact with an upper current of air, causes a whirl, similar to our whirlwinds, which digs a great hole in the earth and piles the material at one side. The blow-out on the Hill is very deep, and the dirt is a very light loam, and white sand.

At the base of the hill there were cherries, about the size of red cherries grown here.

Now, I will say more about the Indians, spoken of before. The Indians seemed to have a particular spite against the cowboys, and often caused the latter to retreat to the top of Ball Hill. There they had a cave, with a long hallway. The Indians approached, and as they tried to enter, were shot down by the cowboys. The Indians would retreat with their lead, only to return the next day. In the meantime the white men had deserted the cave. The Indians forced their way into the opening, and were met only by disappointment.

So ends the experience, leaving much unsaid.

CELEBRITY MAY HAVE COMPLETE GRADE SCHOOL

A canvass has been made of the residents of Celeryville and it is believed that sufficient financial support can be secured to insure the establishment of a Celeryville School.

The Holland people will emphasize the faith of the Christian Reformed Church, along with the regular school subjects. The evolution doctrine will be banned.

The first four grades of school are taught at present in the colony, and after the reorganization, all grades would be taught to the ninth. The older pupils are now enrolled at the eleven school. Some time ago a large portable school building was purchased by the Celeryville people and moved from the Central School grounds to the rear of the church. The structure can be used, though the school would not be a parochial school. The parents of the children attending would manage the school affairs.

PLYMOUTH PEOPLE ESCAPE INJURY IN AUTO WRECK

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Blosser of Plymouth, escaped serious injury and possible death, Saturday when their car was wrecked a few miles north of Haldeman, Kentucky.

The highway was responsible for the skid and the crash in the ditch. The Blosser suffered minor injuries. The car was repaired in a nearby garage. Mrs. Blosser was enroute to Haldeman on a business trip for the Pate-Root-Heath Company.

E. E. BALDUF DIRECTS B. & O. GLEE CLUB

The initial appearance of the Willard B. & O. Men's Glee Club, under the direction of E. E. Balduf, of Plymouth, was given Monday evening in the Willard school building, at a reception for employees, and their families. More than 200 guests were present.

Miss Leora Drinkwater is the accompanist. The Glee Club is composed of thirty-five voices and scored quite a hit. The club has been practicing throughout the winter but Monday night's event marked the first appearance of the singers.

Stunts and short addresses entertained the visitors until dinner was served by the ladies of the church.

CONDITION SERIOUS

Word has been received by Plymouth friends that the condition of Mrs. W. H. Gibson, who has been quite ill at her home at Sandusky, Ohio, for some time, is critical. Local friends are sorry to hear of her serious condition.

Washington's Birthday

In honor of the birthday of the first president of the United States, the following themes were submitted by the school children of Plymouth. In the hearts of all youth, George Washington will always remain a hero. And not only does Washington's life and character inspire childhood, but serves as the example for men of today. The Father of our Country accomplished a task that few were equal to—that of freeing a people from tyranny and binding those same people together with laws of a common government. He faced warfare with a physical courage second to none, and he faced the problem of internal strife with the courage that only a high soul could possess. We again describe him with the immortal sentence, "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

ABOUT A HATCHET

Once there was a boy named George Washington, who had a hatchet. He would go every place and chop. One day he went out in the orchard. He saw a little tree and chopped it down. His father asked who chopped down the little cherry tree. George walked up to his father and said, "I did it, I did it." Then his father said he would rather lose a hundred red cherry trees than have his boy tell a lie.

Dorothy Garret, 3rd Grade

GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington chopped his father's cherry tree with his new little hatchet. Then he went into the house and after a little while his father came in and said, "Who chopped down my cherry tree?" George said, "I can't tell a lie, Father. I chopped down your cherry tree." George's father said, "Come to my arms, my dear child. Come to my arms." When George was about 14 years old he was all ready to go to sea. But when he found out his mother did not want him to go he stayed at home. Later he became the President of the United States of America.

Betty Briggs, 3rd Grade

THE LIFE OF GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington was born February 22, 1732. When he was eleven years old his father died. When George was 14 years old he wanted to go to sea. His oldest brother, Laurence Washington came from Mt. Vernon and forced George to stay at home.

When George was older he wanted to be a surveyor. Lord Fairfax hired George to survey his land. That is how George got his start. When he was a man he was the first President of the United States of America.

Ruth Himes, 3rd Grade

GEORGE WASHINGTON

When George was a boy he and some other boys played soldier. They always wanted George Washington to be the captain. When he grew to be a man he had to go to war and this war lasted several years.

If it had not been for George Washington America wouldn't have won the war. When he came back they made him president twice.

He was born February 22, 1732. He died December 14, 1799.

Gene Cornell, 3rd Grade

GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington was born February 22, 1732, in Mt. Vernon, Virginia. When he was eleven years of age his father died. At the age of 16 he became a surveyor until the French and Indian war, then enlisted in the army and later resigned and married Martha Curtis, the eldest daughter of Delmar Kennard, a member of the class, was unable to attend.

Those attending were: Harriet Babcock, Emma Holt, Pauline Fox, Marjorie Duffy, Robert Lewis, Henry Chapman.

Two visitors, former members of the class, Ona Waters and Jennie VanZoest were present.

Mr. Black was presented with silver monogrammed belt and buckle, as a birthday reminder.

Wittenberg College Choir Gives Concert

The initial concert of the Wittenberg College Choir of Springfield, Ohio, was given Friday evening in the auditorium in connection with the dedication of the Physical Education Building.

The choir which is composed of ninety-five voices and directed by Prof. Williams of the University, was heard by 5000 guests. The solo work was taken by Prof. Lindsey, a former Willard teacher and well known in Plymouth. He also acts as manager of the organization. Mary Elizabeth Himes and John Root, Jr., students, are both members of the choir.

The choir has been doing extensive work and study the past two and one-half months, and while there are no public engagements at present, it is their intention at a later date to make several tours. This is the first year of the organization.

The programs of the concert stated that Mr. Root and Mrs. John Root of Plymouth were sponsors of the choir while a recent issue of the "Wittenberg Torch," the college paper, contained an article that Mr. and Mrs. Root had also endorsed the Choir of Choir Master.

Members of Plymouth who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Root, Rev. A. M. Himes and Deryl Cramer.

COUNTY MEETING OF K. OF P. HELD TUESDAY

Huron Lodge No. 480, Knights of Pythias, was host at a county get-together meeting of Knights, Pythian Sisters and friends on Tuesday evening, February 18, celebrating the sixty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the Order.

Judge Charles L. Justice of Marion, Ohio Grand Chancellor of Ohio and Colonel O'Dowd of the Uniform Rank gave very interesting talks for Pythianism.

A good number of men from all four lodges of the county were in attendance.

SOCIAL AT TRAUGER SCHOOL

A pie or box social will be held Friday evening, February 2nd at 8 o'clock at the Trauger School. A patriotic program by the children will be given, supervised by the teacher Mrs. McCullough. The public is invited and a good time assured to all who attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman spent Monday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thrush.

MRS. TUBBS RECEIVES LETTER ABOUT QUILT

It is quite a coincidence that that Mrs. Frank Tubbs, who recently reported the completion of the Audubon Quilt, should receive a letter from Miss Fanny Trengo of New Washington stating that she too has just completed hers. The birds are worked in as near their natural color as possible and completed in a shade of blue. She also states that the Lutheran Ladies Aid did the quilting.

Miss Trengo has begun another quilt and is planning to have the designs furnished in the Plain Dealer. Mrs. Tubbs reports that she is working on her twelfth block of her 'Flower Garden.' It is quite evident that these ladies have much in common.

"ONCE IN A BLUE MOON" BY WILLARD GLEE CLUB

OHIO STATE REFORMATORY REACHES 3,000 MARK

The number of prisoners confined in the Ohio State Reformatory has passed the 3,000 mark for the first time in its history, according to a statement made by Superintendent T. C. Jenkins.

H. E. and Margaret and P. M. Nimmons to Henry M. and Minnie G. Huffman in Plymouth $1.00.

Charles E. Hughes to Take Office as Chief Justice on Monday

Charles E. Hughes will take office on February 24 as the chief Justice of the United States. He will be the eleventh man to hold this position of honor given to those men in whom the nation puts its trust.

The senate approved the appointment with a vote of 82-15 after four days of debate. The opposition, which denounced Hughes as the personification of "big business," was not strong enough to withhold the office from the statesman.

On being formally notified of the approval of the appointment, Mr. Hughes stated: "The ideals and principles relating to public service which I entered public life twenty-five years ago, and which I have tried to exemplify in public office, I hold unsaltered."

Hughes was nominated by President Hoover after the resignation of William Howard Taft, which was received a week ago Monday by official. The opposition which arose after the appointment was a surprise to all concerned with the present congressional session, and centered chiefly around the statesman's economic views.

Those opposed in the history of the United States; that of Chief Justice Tanney, and that of Louis D. Brandeis.

SENIOR CLASS GIVES PARTY FOR SUPT. BLACK TUESDAY

The Senior class of New Haven journeyed to Shiloh Tuesday night, to surprise their Supt. Mr. P. L. Black with a birthday cake and a sumptuous dinner. Games and radio furnished the entertainment.

Two visitors, former members of the class, Ona Waters and Jennie VanZoest were present.

SOHIOANS TAKE MANSFIELD 31-27

Colored Sharpshooters Lose to Plymouth Despite Their Fast Floor Work

The Plymouth Sohioans won their first game on the home floor Monday night over the Mansfield colored Sharpshooters by a score of 31-27.

The big contest, which was on one minute during the four quarters did the interest of the spectators or the players flag. The colored team was one of the fastest that has played on the Plymouth floor and their team work was hard to surpass. Their shots were not as accurate during the last half, however, and the Sohioans ran around them with a high hand.

The Plymouth court, Backenstow, ran riot in the third and fourth quarters and summed up 14 points, all totaled from field goals. He was topped by the color team, which was given by both forwards and guards.

When Plymouth would like to see a game of the finest kind of basketball, this town team should be followed up. The Sohioans play real basketball whether the score is up or down.

The SPORT BAROMETER

By Barber

PLYMOUTH LADIES ROMP TO VICTORY

Led by Mademoiselle Tommy Becker, the Pancost women simply ran away with the coed maidens from Madison. Becker seemed to make every thing and anything, while, Pugh and Root didn't seem to regard the Madison guards at all. Pilgrims guard simply outclassed the Madison force so badly that it was not even funny.

LEXINGTON TAKEN INTO CAMP

The Jenkins crew took a little jaunt over Lexington way and after a little friendly scuffle finally emerged victorious by score of 17-16.

LXINGTON GIRLS PUSHED OVER

The Pilgrim sextette went down to Lexington and had a little fun at the Lexington ladies' expense.

MADISON BITES THE DUST

Whoopie! Wow! Zowie! and the other spontaneous exclamations of joy. What a game! What a victory! Words simply fail to do justice to that hectic affair. The Pilgrims battled like demons never once letting up until the final whistle. The score went up 6-6 first quarter, 13-15 at half time, 17-17 third quarter, and 19-11 at the termination of the playing period. In the three minutes overtime the Pilgrims sunk a basket and a free throw to win 22-19. The tilt was featured by close guarding, hard following and fast breaking. In short, it was a real basketball game. There were surprisingly few fouls for so fast a game, proving both teams exceptionally clean.

SIDELINE CHATTER

Taylor's Sobloans traveled to Galion on last Saturday night for a game. Some claimed it was basketball and others declared it was a comic exhibition of polo and hockey, while still others remain neutral. We agree with all of them. The brave lads fought gallantly and led up to the fourth quarter, when suddenly—swish and Calendar was running wild. When the smoke cleared up our Sobloans were staggering under the burden of a 35-19 score. Tough.

Last Monday a group of my colored brethren dropped in our midst. They traveled under the name of "Sharpshooters"—they endeavored to prove it—and what's worse, they almost did. But to their sorrow the Sobloans had other views on the subject, and although the "Sharpshooters" shot keenly, the Sobloans shot more accurately and my brethren were sent back to their beloved home in defeat. How woeful!

At this time, folks, we shall take a little space to introduce each member of both teams together with his or her respective ability.

Captain Tubby Webber, a fighting center, and as a guard is no slouch. Vance Snyder, a defensive demon, and an offensive ace.

June Bachrach, a fast ham, and handles the old pill in great shape.

Dave Bachrach, a well balanced player, showing real offensive and defensive ability.

Porky Ross, who has an uncanny eye for the basket.

Pug Myers handles himself well on the floor, and shoots with no mean ability.

Squid Lonk, who is fast proving himself a cool, self-possessed player.

SORE THROAT? DON'T GARGLE

This Doctor's Prescription Gives Quicker, Better Relief

Don't suffer the pain and discomfort of sore throat. Use a doctor's prescription called Thoxine guaranteed to relieve you the very first swallow. Gargles and salves are too slow and if they do relieve, it is usually only temporary.

Thoxine has a double action—it relieves the soreness and goes direct to the internal cause. It contains no harmful drugs and is safe and pleasant for the whole family. There is nothing better to stop coughing due to irritated throats. Just ask for Thoxine, put up ready for use in 35c., 50c., and $1.00 bottles. Money back if not relieved. Sold by Webber's drug store.

Dick Munnis, who plays a whirlwind of a game.

Jim Shepherd, who cranks into the lineup now and then, is a slick dribbler, and as clever a floorman as can be found in all Plymouth Hill.

Edna Munnis, who is a fine player, and White Briggs, who are sophomores should sometime in the near future, exhibit their groceries in great style.

And As for the Girls

Captain Cleo Anderson, the greatest little guard in the county.

Tommy Becker, who struts her onions in much the same manner as her brother Pink. Nud. sed.

Ruth Fenner, a fighting fury, and a real guard.

Lucille Pugh, the feminine whirlwind, who chokes up points with treat ease.

Eloise Shaver, who rates as a co-sideline guard.

Eleanor Snyder, the lady demon, who strikes terror in the heart of her forward.

Mary Anderson, the sharp shooting forward.

Lucille Moore, who has that ole fight.

L. Hackett, who masks 'em sit up and take notice.

Ruth Root, the pivoting freshman, who handles the apple like an old veteran.

Now, folks, we have the teams of championship caliber. Let's give them a big hand.

ENTER ONTARIO

Tomorrow night, Ontario and another league foe, will arrive all primed for action. In their first encounter with the Pilgrims, they managed to nose out the P. H. S. outfit 11-7.

Since then the Red and White gang has been chasing around with blood in their eyes, and vengeance in their

PAINFUL CORNS

Loosen—Lift Out

A little known Japanese herb, the discovery of an eminent German scientist (Dr. Stickle) instantly soothes the corn, callos or wart, then loosens it so that shortly you can lift it right out. This new discovery called "Corn Fly" excites the white blood corpuscles to action and granulates the corn at its root so that it drops out and leaves no trace of scar or soreness.

You will also find "Corn Fly Foot Bath Powder" a boon for sore tired or perspiring feet.

"Corn Fly" for corns, 35c., "Corn Fly Foot Bath Powder" 25c., and "Corn Fly Sunion Remedy" 50c. (all three—$1.10 value—for $1.00), are sold under a positive money-back guarantee by Hi-Gen Co., Newark N. J., or local druggist.

hearts, declaring that they'll push over the down country lads or perish in the attempt—and they don't mean perish. Naw suh! Dope aays—Pilgrims 27, Ontario 18. Thank you.

TARANTULA—ALLIGATOR EVERYTHING BUT BANANAS

A tarantula was presented to the Wellington High school Biology class by T. M. Pfeiffer, merchant. The deadly insect was captured in his store Saturday night. Miss Mary Shelton, the instructor, stated that the spider would be kept alive for instruction.

Some time ago a small alligator, was found tied with several stalks of bananas which were shipped from the south to the Lorain Fruit Company.

of Lorain. The little animal was kept for a pet.

NORWALK RECLUSE DIES IN COUNTY HOME

Julius Frazier, a recluse living near Norwalk for many years, died at the Euro-co. home Friday night. He had entered the home after becoming suddenly ill and required medical attention. Funeral services were held Monday. Frazier was a former Jeweler and conducted a shop in Norwalk. He retired from the business and became a recluse, living in a small house a mile from the town. He has no known relatives.

TOO MUCH COLLEGE ATHLETICS

It is hard to visualize literally that old idea of the tail wagging the dog, but the present relation of college athletics to college gives a pretty good idea of what is meant by the picturesque expression.

Football, for instance, started out as a game to give the over-worked and over-confined students a little needed exercise; to bring back a little color to their pale cheeks, and to restore their waning physical strength. But now a college is described as something attached to a football stadium. Many a college would not be known beyond the county lines were it not for its football team; and many another would not know what real money looked like were it not for the flying tackles, forward passes and line-bucking of their hard-muscled athletics. Their fame rests upon the game, and their dough comes from the show.

It is little wonder that the intense rivalry, added to the intrinsic excitement of the sports themselves should have tempted athletes, managers, trainers, alumni and even school authorities to do things unethical—not to say dishonest. What they have done to win games forms "the deepest shadow that darkens American college and school athletics," according to the Carnegie Foundation's famous Bulletin 23 of last November.

The excitement following the Foundation's revelations of commercialized college athletics and subsidized athletes was remarkable for its smallness. Few schools took the trouble to deny, and the general public seemed to be little interested. The Association of American Colleges, representing 400 institutions, at their annual meeting at Washington approved the Carnegie report which, they agreed, dealt with the situation "moderately" and gave a conservative view of college athletics. It then recommended that each college clean its own house, and that intellectual and cultural aims be emphasized a little more. There was no opposition, no debate, and everything was agreed to so carelessly that there was a general laugh about it.

The only school to be punished for proselyting, recruiting and subsidizing athletes was the University of Iowa—and that was done last May, before the Carnegie report had been heard of. Iowa was then sentenced to be dropped from the "Big Ten" of the Western Conference beginning with 1930.

At a meeting of the National Collegiate Athletic Association in New York President Day of Union College advocated the abolition of gate receipts, professional coaching, scouting, subsidizing, directing from side-lines, and a return to strict amateurism. He especially condemned the idea of paying coaches $18,000 a year, and in his audience was Coach Little just retained by Columbia university for that sum.

President Lowell of Harvard has made the more drastic suggestion that there be only one intercollegiate meet a year in each sport, after the manner of the ancient Greeks. The object of the Greeks, he said, was the cultivation of physical excellence, while the object of the Romans—whom we seem to imitate—was to entertain the spectators. This bold suggestion was made in face of the fact that football alone in 1929 put $619,000 into Harvard's purse.

A little light on the subject from the players' point of view was shed by a star player of the University of Nebraska, "Buddy" McBride. "Football takes all your afternoons and evenings in the fall and spring," he said. "You can't take engineering or law or any technical courses. They would take too much time. Here I am a senior with a fair football record. But I haven't learned a thing that will help me earn a living when I get out. I am forced to practically write off the years I spent playing football." Some of the football stars play basketball and baseball too.

A tiny start in the direction of reform has been made by Yale, Princeton and Harvard. They have agreed to play their annual baseball series next spring without the assistance of coaches.—The Pathfinder.

RESSURECTION

Like the corset manufacturers, the suspender manufacturers are advocating the use of suspenders as a means of supporting trousers for the male species. . . . The corset manufacturers faced bankruptcy when the female discarded this means of correcting the shape and the belt supplanted the suspender for the male. In fact the corset business was so bad that it drove one man in New York to commit murder to collect insurance money. Now the suspender people are making a desperate effort to remodel men's clothes so that suspenders will be necessary.

THE NEW CHIEF JUSTICE

There seems little doubt that President Hoover has hit upon a popular choice in the appointment of Charles Evans Hughes as chief justice of the United States to succeed William Howard Taft. Editorial expression of newspapers thruout the country bear out this statement, the many took occasion to point out that the liberals or progressives could expect to gain little by the appointment since Hughes, like Taft, leans toward the conservative view of things. Hughes is one of the most brilliant and outstanding figures in public life today. His failure to defeat Woodrow Wilson for the presidency in 1918 did not retire him to comparative obscurity as similar defeats, have done to so many others.

Women in a style convention in Chicago wore dresses that came below their knees. However, nobody was shot.

Quality of American manufactured products continues to improve. Many of them last long after a man gets thru paying for them.

The man who really knows himself may not know so much after all.

"Report shows drops in plane fatalities," says a current newspaper headline. And it is usually a drop that causes the fatalities.

A Chicago woman has brought suit for divorce and charges among other things that her husband permitted four saxophones in the home. This ought to come under the ban against cruel and unusual punishment.

WASHINGTON SAVED And NOW We SPEND!

In the days when Washington was leading a ragged, ill-equipped band of colonists against the most impressive army in the world he could not afford to waste a crust or a cartridge. He had to make every shot, every cent COUNT. He did it, and his success is mirrored in the rich nation which he helped to found. The economy of yesterday brings the riches of tomorrow.

OUR SCHOOLHOUSE
 For after long our old school building has stood here, furnishing a place for those who wish it, a chance to receive an education and a chance to go out into the world fit for many higher duties of life.

The building, though still very solid and good for years to come, is not a place suitable to give the younger generation an education that will fit them the best that they are capable of being. And so it has been the dream of all the younger and also the parents, to build a school here in our community to satisfy the demands of education, to have a suitable place for all scholars to be able to be educated to their fullest capacity. Now the dream of all who are interested, is realized to the fullest extent. And we are now located in our new building which opinion conference is available to better the education of all. But, as we now have it, students, and parents, how are we going to treat it? As if it were a place to raise trouble, or as the place it really is, a place to concentrate and learn everything possible.

Are we going to tear around thru the building at any time, tearing up everything in our way as we go? Surely not, but we will treat it as the wonderful building that it is, and use it for the purpose for which it was built. And given to us so generously by the taxpayers of our small community. So students, and all others, that have occasion to be in our building, at all times, let us respect the gift and cooperate with the teachers and everyone to make it the finest and best school in the county, at all times and in every one's opinion.

DEDICATION
 The formal dedication and opening of the new high school building, will be Friday night, March 21. This date has been chosen because it is the time upon which Mr. John L. Clifton, the State Director of Education, can be here as the speaker. The program will appear later.

Mr. Frank Bingham, a well-known citizen of Plymouth, recently presented Plymouth High School with a silk American flag, with golden eagle, fringe and base.

Although Mr. Bingham was not present at the time the flag was presented, Superintendent Miller made a nice presentation of the flag in Mr. Bingham's absence. The school body was called together, and sang "The Star Spangled Banner." A special number, "The Flag of the Stars," was sung by the girls of the Glee Club. Since Mr. Bingham has started this we hope that it will be followed by many of our other citizens.

FLAG PRESENTATION AND PROGRAM
 The public is invited to the new High School building, Friday afternoon, February 21 at 2:30 p.m., to witness the presentation of a large flag and appropriate ceremony conducted by the D. A. R. This flag is to be flown outside the new building and will be a fit companion to the new silk interior flag recently presented by Mr. Bingham.

MOVING
 The task of moving into our new building was completed in record time. On Thursday morning, February 6, a squad of boys gathered for the moving. The desks, tables, chairs, and all miscellaneous articles, were loaded on a large truck and transferred to the new building. Most of the actual moving was completed by Friday evening, leaving Saturday for the arrangement in the new school. Due to the combined efforts of teachers and pupils, everything was in readiness for a full school day on Monday. Thus only two school days were used.

MADISON BOWS TO PLYMOUTH
 When the final gong sounded Friday night, the Pilgrims had given Madison their first defeat in 15 games.

The teams seemed evenly matched and the score at the half was 15-13 in Madison's favor. The last half was the fight for supremacy. If one team made a basket, the other tied it. When the gong rang the score was a 19-14.

In playing out the ties, during the last minute of the game, Snyder of Plymouth slipped in a neat basket. The boys all played a great game. Snyder was high scorer with 19 points.

PILGRIMS DEFEAT LEXINGTON
 After defeating Madison the night before, the Pilgrims, rather tired from their strenuous game, played just hard enough to win. At the half, the Pilgrims were leading by several points, but the Lexington players gained a two point lead, later in the game. Again, in about the last minute of play, Snyder tied the score and then won the game, by a free throw. Snyder was high scorer with 17 points. The final score was 17-16.

P. H. S. GIRLS WIN AGAIN
 Displaying a fast offensive, and also a very good defensive game, the P. H. S. girls again took Madison across to the tune of 31-18.

PLYMOUTH GIRLS NOSE OUT LEXINGTON
 Playing a fine game of basketball despite the handicap of the "cheese-box" in which they played, the girls again showed their ability by nosing out the Lexington girls by the score of 21 to 14.

The girls were handicapped by not being able to use their basketball, which has done so much for them so far this season, because every time they tried to pass the ball, it went out of bounds. Pugh led the scoring with 15 points, while Boggs and Stiffler led the scoring for the losers.

TOURNAMENT NEWS

SCHOOL LUNCH ROOM

There will also be a copy of the menu posted on the bulletin board of each school with a plank for pupils desiring lunch to sign. Signatures must be on not later than 8:45 daily. The charge of each article will be five cents, the same as last year. Serving will be supervised by Mrs. Harasim.

 Miss Pacion: Eleanor, you mustn't laugh out loud in the school room.
 Eleanor S.: I didn't mean to do it. I was smiling and the smile burst.

An Irishman once was mounting on a mule, which was kicking its legs rather freely. The male finally got his foot caught in the stirrup, when the Irishman excitedly remarked, "Well, begorra, if you're goin' to git on I'll git off."

Mr. Reed: "Can you tell me what steam is?"
 "Yes sir," replied David B. Steam is—wherever it's water that's gone crazy with the heat.

Lady (at summer resort looking at tree full of apples): "Why is that tree bending over so much?"
 Farmer: "Well, madam, you'd bend over too, if you were as full of green apples as that tree is."

FIRST GRADE NEWS
 The First Grade pupils have finished the Primer and begun their First Reader. The little folks certainly enjoy having the entire room to themselves.

The crowded condition made it both hard and unpleasant for them. The Valentine box on Friday, February 14, made the little folks very happy, it being their first.

Thursday, February 13, was the birthday of Junior Laesch, a first grade pupil. His mother, Mrs. J. A. Laesch, pleasantly entertained, his teacher, some school mates and little friends from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. at the Laesch home in honor of the occasion. Nice refreshments were served and Junior received many presents.

P. H. S. GIRLS DRUB NEW LONDON GIRLS

Playing a fast offensive game the P. H. S. girls completely subdued the husky New London team by the score of 27-25, despite the fact that the former was shot, at eight o'clock, and allowed the game to go overtime (unbeknown to any one from Plymouth.) Pugh started the scoring with a field goal and a foul followed shortly by Becker with a field goal. The half ended with the score 12-11. This game marked the reappearance of Capt. Anderson and he played a fine game, as did Shaver, who surely held down the husky center, Thomas Pugh and Becker led the scoring with 14 and 11 points respectively, while Converse and Thomas showed best for the losers.

 Pay your doctor bills
 Throw away his pills.
 We can cure you with
 With laughter!
 Why don't you take your tear drops
 One by one, before it gets to late?
 Hide them with a smile
 And they will evaporate.
 When the troubles start

 Of laughter!

AT THE THEATRES

LONG A BROADWAY NAME
 Raymond Walburn, who has supported some of the greatest Broadway stars on the legitimate stage, plays a role in Ruth Chatterton's newest picture, "The Laughing Lady," in which she is starred in the title role.

Walburn played the title role in the London and Chicago company of "The Show Off." In addition he has supported such prominent personalities on the stage as Walter Catlett, William H. Crane, Madge Kennedy, Henrietta Crossman, Henry Miller, O. P. Heggie, William Courtney and Ina Claire.

"The Laughing Lady" comes to the Ohio Theatre, Mansfield, on Thursday for a three day run. Victor Schertzinger, who made "Redskin" and "Nothing But the Truth," was the director. Clive Brook is the leading man for Miss Chatterton and heads the supporting cast which includes Walburn and a number of other Broadway celebrities.

COSTUMES HAVE SCREEN TESTS FOR 'SALLY' IN COLOR

Film costumes have now reached the importance of "screen tests." The entire wardrobe of "Sally," the First National and Vitaphone singing and dancing special at the Majestic Theatre, Mansfield, now, starring Marilyn Miller, was photographed before the picture started by color cameras, so the director could see how the garments "registered." For the picture is an all-color production, and it was necessary to know the effect of the various hues and their possible clash on the sensitive color sensitive.

Marilyn Miller plays the starring role of the little waitress, the same part she took in the original Ziegfeld stage production. Alexander Gray, Pert Kelton, Joe E. Brown, and Sterling T. Roy Barnes, Maude Turner Gordon, and Jack Duffy are prominent in the cast.

HOT TIME IN VIC'S LATEST

Put on your asbestos rimmed eye glasses when you take a peek at some of the more scorching scenes in Raoul Walsh's successor, "Hot Cock Eyed World," namely, "Hot For Paris," which, as you probably know, is the further adventures of the erstwhile Capt. Piagg Victor McLaglen, at the Castamba Theatre, Shelby, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Assisted ably by the talented comedienne Pia Dorsey and Polly Moran, with El Brendel of the Swedish accent, Raoul makes "Hot For Paris" as thoroughly enjoyable as its predecessor. What was trunch humor in the past is now flavored with salt spray, but marines and sailors talk the same language and have the same amorous pursuits. But whether the fun be earthy or salty the result is solid entertainment.

Consider the primary situation: McLaglen and Brendel, are making the bounding billows, headed for Havre, a port with many plausant, if somewhat flamboyant, memories for the pair indeed, they suspect the postcarderie would very much like to lodge them at the city's expense. Meanwhile McLaglen on several occasions is about to lose or destroy a ticket he purchased yesterday previous on the Calcutta Sweepstakes. Brendel's Swedish thrift alone saves it from destruction. And, strangely, enough, it's the winning ticket.

P. T. A. MEETS TONIGHT

PATRIOTIC PARTY

A patriotic party commemorating the birthdays of McKinley, Lincoln and Washington was given Friday night in the Legion hall of Shelby by members of the Daughters of Union Veterans Camp No. 57. Three guests, Mrs. Bertha Droz, Miss Harriet Beck and Mrs. McCracken, all of Mansfield were present.

The program in charge of Mrs. Riley was as follows: Two piano duets, Mrs. Beattie Phillips and Mrs. Ida Trimble; Sketch of McKinley's life—Miss Harriett Rogers; Vocal duet, "How Betsy Made the Flag," by Mrs. Fannie McBride and Mrs. Phillips; Sketch of Lincoln's life, Mrs. Anna Bricker; Lincoln Quotations by Mrs. Eva Parley; vocal solo by Mrs. Riley; Miss M. M. Lerch and Mrs. W. C. McFadden then added a very clever sketch in costume, entitled "Mr. Hatchet and Mr. Cherry Tree," which was very amusing. Refreshments suitable to Valentine's season were served at the close of a bewildering cross word puzzle which, when solved, gave the invitation to go to the dining room. A Valentine grab bag concluded the evening's entertainment.

Members from Plymouth attending were Mesdames W. C. McFadden and Edith Phillips. Misses M. M. Lerch and Harriett Rogers. Shiloh members were Mrs. A. McBride and Mrs. Reynolds.
