LUTHER STEELE DIES SATURDAY

Well Known Farmer and Friend To Many Taken By Heart Attack At Late Home.

Death Saturday ended the active and influential life of Luther S. Steele, at the age of 61 years, at his home on the Shelby road.

The news of his sudden death was a shock to the communities of both Shiloh and Plymouth, where many friends and associates had known him, and found him a friend. He had suffered failing health for some time.

Mr. Steele was stricken with a sudden severe heart attack as he and his daughter, Elsie, were about to leave in the family car to deliver groceries and necessities to needy families in the vicinity of Plymouth. With the assistance of other members of the family, the daughter attempted to take her father to the house, but death came before other aid could be summoned.

The last rites were conducted on Tuesday afternoon, with brief private services at the late home, followed by services at the Presbyterian church at 1:30, with Rev. J. W. Miller officiating. The church was filled with those who loved his life, and wished to pay their last respects to a noble man who made in the Mt. Hope cemetery, of Shiloh. Arrangements were in charge of the McQuate service, Shiloh.

Those who survive to mourn his loss, the widow, Mrs. Nannie Nelson Steele, two daughters, Elsie, at home, Mrs. Clarence Kalo, of Shelby, two sons, Raymond Steele, and Floyd Steele, both of Plymouth, a sister, Mrs. Frank Guthrie, of Shiloh, and a brother, Mr. Claude C. Steele, of Mansfield.

Mr. Steele was a well known farmer of the district, moving from near Shiloh to Plymouth with his family around five years ago. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of Plymouth township, and active in other affairs.

150 LOCAL PEOPLE IN COLLEGE PLAY

College Comedy To Be Staged On Thursday and Friday, February 19 and 20 at School.

On next Thursday and Friday nights February 19th and 20th, the modern comedy "The College Flapper," will be staged at the school, under the auspices of the Pythian Sisters. It promises to be one of the biggest events ever staged in this community, and includes a cast of over 150 local people. It is a modern, up-to-date college comedy with a thrilling football story. Everyone who has seen the show claims no one can afford to miss it.

The star football player of Bala Bala College is supposed to be at a special football practice, but instead is in the Sorority house making love to his girl which is entirely against the rules laid down by the coach. The coach, played by R. G. Brown, sends Monk, the trainer, played by Harry Griffith over to the Sorority house to find Jerry. Jerry sees him coming and knows he will be expelled from the team if caught there and in order to sneak out of the Sorority house puts on the housemother's clothes but in trying to escape is discovered in the outfit, and mistaken for the housemother. Jerry's attempt to escape from his predicament so he can play in the game brings on a series of extremely funny situations.

Huron County Teacher's Institute Is Well Attended on Saturday

Noted Speaker on Program At Norwalk Meet.

Dr. E. L. F. Williams, Dean of the Department of Education, Heidelberg College and Professor Lawrence E. Cole, Ph. D., Department of Psychology, of Oberlin College were the speakers at the Huron County Teachers' Institute at Norwalk, Saturday.

Dr. Williams' first address was on "Clear Teaching." "The high school students of the North Central Association voted that the best teachers are those who get students to understand," said Dr. Williams. We must not depend entirely upon the dictionary to give meanings to words. It may confuse rather than clarify a child's idea. It helps to classify but only after he has some idea of what to look for. Text books usually give better definitions. Children's ideas are often hairy because they are unconnected. Some things we have gone over until they have become so clear to us that we forget about the young and retarded. With them we must deal more with things than with ideas.

There are many ways to give clear ideas of things. The most direct way is to use objects of the things we are teaching. The next best thing is a model, also pictures, slides, and the blackboard. Moving pictures are excellent, but the attention of students should be directed to what they are expected to see before they begin or much will be lost in the rapid process. The same is true of the use of the phonograph in appreciation.

Concrete aids in teaching abstract ideas are maps, diagrams, charts, blue prints, graphs and drama.

Christian Endeavor Record Smashed at Farmers' Institute

Anniversary Service Plans For Sunday, February 15th.

Sunday night, February 15th, at 7:30 o'clock, the Christian Endeavor society of the New Haven church is planning a special anniversary church service.

The topic for the evening will be "Christian Endeavor," and the theme will be carried out by short talks and songs. The report about the speakers from Norwalk will be present and assist in the service—Mrs. I. T. Beck, county president, Mr. L. L. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. John Kuback.

Eleven members of the C. E. attended the county rally given at Peru last week. The report about the speakers from Norwalk was extremely good. The following attended from New Haven: Misses Mary Moon, Florence Snyder, Bertha Hoy, Lucille Hole, Lucille Rong, Ruth Slesman, and Helen Rowan, of Plymouth; Alice Stevens, of Oshorn; Clarence Hole, Harold Sama. The Endeavorers are planning for a box social to be given at the town hall, Tuesday, February 17th. Remember the date and come. Music and entertainment.

The regular social meeting will be held Thursday, February 21 at the school house. A good time is in store for all who come. The social is under the leadership of Alice Van Wagner, and games under Dale Osborn.

There will be no C. E. meeting next Sunday night, church service planned instead. Every one is urged to come.

McKINLEY CLUB MENU FOR THURSDAY, 12TH

The ladies of St. Peter's church, Norwalk, will serve the dinner at the annual McKinley banquet to be held Thursday evening, Feb. 12, in the high school here.

The menu follows: Cherry fruit cocktail, tenderloin pork roast, candied apples, mashed potatoes, brown gravy, noodles, scotch sauce, lettuce salad, rolls, cream, custard, island dressing, ice cream, cake, coffee.

Children can discern differences two years earlier than likeness. Analogies, outlines, classifications, and applications are useful but the most important is the example. You have no useable knowledge until you can give an example of a definition or idea. A responsibility should be put on students to get thru' Have an open mind but not open at both ends. There is no better way of learning the truth of a conclusion than by acting upon it.

As some educational fallacies or near fallacies, Dr. Williams named: The Fallacy of the Average? We think in terms of the average instead of the individual. Fallacy of Partial Truth. Facts show we learn more by taking tests than any other way. We now have a new notion of freedom for children. For years the other extreme prevailed. There should be a balance between the two. Another fallacy is that of tolerance, we should be intolerant of some things. The "catching up" is overdue. Do pupils catch up from seeing pictures on the wall?

Many things are valuable just to know. They are not to be child-centered, or teacher-centered, but truth-centered. Prof. Cole's address on "Psychological Quackery" revealed that many things commonly attributed to the field of psychology do not belong there. He warned his audience against the "char-ge" of the psychologist, memory and self improvement advertisements.

Those attending the institute from Plymouth were Miss Jessie Cole, Miss Oona, Miss Glennia Baitrell and Mrs. J. H. Baitrell.

Record Smashed at Farmers' Institute

Farmers Of Richland and Huron Counties Attend Meet.

Smashing all previous attendance records, Farmers' Meet was held at the Ohio State University, February 2 to 6, and attracted farm people from every county in the state last week, according to an announcement from the college of agriculture.

Drought problems received the attention of visitors when they heard talks on unusual behavior of crops during the drought, some lessons from the drought and the low honey market, and various talks on farm crops, fertilization, and the feeding of livestock under drought conditions.

Thousands of visitors enjoyed hearing the reports about the agricultural situation, factors influencing agricultural prices, volume of business and farm profits, ways of securing volume of business, the dairy outlook, and the poultry outlook, the hog and beef outlook. Taxation problems were discussed.

Considerable interest was also shown in such topics as marketing the fruit crop, marketing poultry and eggs, ways of selling farm produce, direct to the consumer, the efficient marketing of dairy products, recent trends in cooperative marketing, and the economical marketing of livestock.

ESCAPE BAD INJURY IN ACCIDENT ON ICY W. BROADWAY TUESDAY

A head-on collision between a Pontiac sedan, driven by Mr. J. Schreck, and the tractor of the Laundry Ford truck, of Willard occurred Tuesday shortly after noon, in front of the O. Tyson residence on West Broadway.

The accident, which could easily have resulted in fatalities, was due in the most part to the icy street. Mr. Schreck sustained injuries to his right wrist, and knee, while Mr. James LeBarge, the driver of the truck, suffered chest injuries caused by the pressure of the steering wheel.

The Pontiac was traveling west on Broadway, while the white laundry truck was east towards the Laundry Square. A slight swerve by the Pontiac to avoid collision with the Ford, caused the car to slide, and head into the truck which had been turned again to the right side of the roadway. When witnesses arrived both cars were locked, the tractor of the laundry truck, with room on both sides for auto to pass. Both were covered by insurance.

SANDRA HEATH TAKEN BY DEATH

Child Dies in Hospital After Contracting Typhoid, Rites Are Held Sunday Afternoon.

Sandra Heath, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heath, of Plymouth street, was taken by death Friday evening, at the age of three years.

The child had suffered severely with typhoid fever for a period of two weeks and death occurred at the baby's and children's hospital, in Cleveland. Sandra was taken ill at her home, but was removed to the Shelby hospital where treatment was given. She was later taken to the Cleveland hospital, but all effort was unavailing.

The body was brought back to Plymouth Saturday afternoon. The last services for the little child were conducted by Rev. J. W. Miller at the Heath home at two thirty o'clock Sunday afternoon. Interment was made at Greenview cemetery. The Postle Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Sandra is survived by her parents, two brothers, Halsey and Spencer, and a sister, Martha Grace, and other relatives. During her brief three year life, the little girl had made a host of friends, and she was known to practically everyone in the community. When a young life is taken, the tragedy of death is doubled, and its power of separation is made more vivid. The old words of a wise man must be remembered—that a few young flowers should be cut with the sheaves of harvest.

The sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved parents, and the loss will be felt by many.

LAST HOME TILT PLAYED FRIDAY

Plymouth Meets Attica Champs For Last Home Game; Prizes Given To Lucky Numbers.

There will be six lucky numbers at the basketball game Friday night. Plymouth will defend her record on the home floor, February 13, and the Plymouth merchants predict the game to be the best of the season.

The Plymouth Bakery, Rule Clothing Co., Karl Walker, Lippus Dry Goods, Brown and Miller Hardware, and the Plymouth Advertiser will give prizes to those patrons who hold the lucky numbers, given to them before the game begins.

With the Attica tilt, Plymouth local patrons will see the last game played for the season on the home floor. Both boys and girls will play. As Attica was the champ of Seneca county last year between the Pilgrims and Attica.

The Plymouth boys have been making new records this season as to basketball victories and also scores, and they should be given a splendid goal for their last home game. Such as team has been put out for some years, and has attracted quite as much attention as the 1925-26 team. There can be no definite star designated, as the players seem to alternate in shining, and almost give 100 per cent support at their last home game.

The girls, who begin the season a little limp, have of late been playing extremely fine games and much is expected of team tomorrow night. Pugh and Moore have been totaling up the points, and much interest is being taken in just what the final total of their points will be. Shave coaches, guards, although some close guarding has been shown by all in that position lately. A recent crowd is expected at the doors at 7:30 at the high school auditorium.

Adm. Day Reaches Ninetieth Milestone

Renowned Man Once Lived Quiet Life in Plymouth.

A boy, who at one time called Plymouth his home town, is now known as Rear Admiral Benjamin Day, and is well known in official circles in the United States, as well as remembered by old friends.

Recent sketches of the life of Admiral Day have been given in a number of dailies in the east, and in this vicinity, and his colorful life could furnish the basis for many a story. He celebrated his ninetieth birthday recently at his winter home in Roanoke, Virginia, and is the second oldest admiral in the United States.

The old Day home, in Plymouth, is the present property of the Curpen Jewelry store. The Day family were residents of here for a long period. The career of Day, in the service of the U. S. has brought him many adventures. It is recalled that at one time he landed his ship safely in a western coast city after a typhoon had felled him on the Pacific for days.

The Admiral was ordered to sail to Easter Island in the South Seas, and in the second oldest admiral in the United States. He recalled that at one time he landed his ship safely in a western coast city after a typhoon had felled him on the Pacific for days.

The Admiral was ordered to sail to Easter Island in the South Seas, and in the second oldest admiral in the United States. He recalled that at one time he landed his ship safely in a western coast city after a typhoon had felled him on the Pacific for days.

In company with two other former Plymouth Advertiser writers, the Civil War, in which he served, was present at the theatre in Washington at which President Lincoln was assassinated. He recalls that an actress of the day, Laura Keane, appeared on the stage, announced that the president had been shot, and everyone was asked to leave the house.

Not only has Benjamin Day distinguished himself. A cousin, Mathias Day, founded the city of Daytona, Florida, and established the first hotel there, now called the Palmtoe House. His father, a prominent merchant, was covered by an old Spanish land grant, and the investment was lost. Two brothers, S. B. Day, who passed away in Mansfield a few years ago, and Calvin Day, a Civil War veteran, are buried in the Plymouth cemetery.

Admiral Day survived, without injury, a recent fire occurring in the hotel at which he was living in Roanoke, showing great presence of mind, and agility.

PRESENT BILLS UP BEFORE LEGISLATURE

Property owners will benefit if the bill passes in the legislature, setting aside fifty per cent of the share of gasoline tax funds going to municipalities, for the purpose of re-improvement of streets.

Another bill would permit cities to use the gas tax to clear and clean streets. Compulsory dimming on auto headlights is sought in a bill introduced in the house. Other bills would make practically every violation of the election code a felony, punishable with from one to three years in the penitentiary, and other bills, voters to register or vote at any time within 24 hours immediately preceding an election; providing an appropriation of $50,000 for relief of destitute school children, to abolish post of state welfare director; to remove automobiles from personal property duplicate and increase license fees.

The famous "Yellow Dog" bill has bobbed up again, the measure providing that any contract between a firm, association, corporation or individual, made on the basis of willingness not to associate with a labor organization, is void.

PLYMOUTH JAIL IS PRAISED BY COUNTY

Plymouth village has been commended by its city jailer, as an exchange station. "The county board of visitors praised Plymouth to the skies." The regular report submitted by the Board gives severe criticism of several village jails, and other community and county buildings. The Plymouth Herald (Norwalk) states—Plymouth has done herself proud in fixing up her jail. A new coat of paint last year, with running water and a few benches and chairs make it very much more comfortable with little expense." "The county board of visitors were also commended. However, the Greenwell jail was "too terrible to write about." The building used is not disreputable, and was criticized in many points.

MUNICIPAL TELEPHONE SERVICE
The suggestion that we have a real telephone service under municipal ownership is quite amusing. I do not see how our present service could be improved, but if it was operated like the usual small municipal utilities, heaven pity us. How many dollars would it take off our tax valuation? Does not the village use some of the telephone company's poles?

Someone suggests lowering the rates for electric current so we could use electric ranges. Private companies would have had an electric range rate long ago. They would keep their lines free of tree limbs to save loss of current and prevent radio interference. Would they trap their water pumps in old fire hoses such as we have? Would they have waited all these years before improving the water supply? No, but everybody's business is nobody's business, and what a rat we are in.

Belasco's Comedy, It's A Wise Child, Comes to Ohio at Cleveland

David Belasco's New York comedy success, "It's A Wise Child," comes to the Ohio Theatre, Cleveland, for one week starting Sunday, February 15, as the first offering of a series of New York dramatic successes at popular prices. This new idea has proved so popular in Detroit that it has been decided to extend the plan to Cleveland as the first stop on a tour that will include Chicago and other cities. The new prices are less than one half those generally charged for similar attractions. The new schedule calls for three week-day matinees, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

With a year's record to its credit in New York at the Belasco Theatre, "It's A Wise Child" is a comic adaptation of the theatre written by Laurence H. Johanson. It has been the talking of a white lie girl tells in an effort to break a distasteful engagement. She plunges the whole family into something of a mess by telling it, but decides to let the story go the limit when she discovers that not one of her family or friends doubts her announcement of impending motherhood. One by one the male members among the girl's friends come under the searching eye of suspicion. Their predicaments supply most of the comic situation in the play.

A notable cast is headed by Frances Dale, as the young lady and Russell Hicks, as the man in love with her. Douglas MacPherson is the ice-man; Tires Loring, a dumb and funny maid; Ann Winslow, a shrewish wife; Albert Phillips, the town banker; Alice Fleming, the mother-in-law; Marion as the naughty boy Willie; Annie Coghlan, a young bank clerk and Johnny Carmody, a henpecked husband.

NEW CALENDAR IS SUGGESTED IN PLAN

An International Conference on Calendar Simplification has been placed on the agenda of the next General Conference on Communications and Transit, by the Assembly of the League of Nations, meeting this fall, with the United States participating, to take definite action to secure calendar improvement.

In the United States there are two major plans under consideration,—by International Fixed Calendar which proposes a thirteen-month year, and The World Calendar which proposes a twelve month year. The "Swiss Plan" favored in Europe and The World Calendar are fundamentally the same, as the halves and quarters are equalized and a perpetual calendar is effected in each; the arrangement within the quarters is different.

During the coming months, there will be current discussion concerning the Calendar.

Conveyors Carry Ford Car Parts

Trains unload in the plant. Bodies starting through the shop.

Conveyors carry wheels with mounted tips over a line on which cars pass to completion. The most important part played by conveyor systems in all Ford Motor Company manufacturing and assembly plants is graphically shown in the above three pictures taken in the recently opened Edgewater, N. J., plant. The first picture shows how parts may be unloaded from freight cars within the plant only a few feet from the various assembly lines. Another picture shows automobile bodies starting their trip on a conveyor while the third view is of the conveyor system used to bring wheels to the chassis which are also moving on a conveyor. As indicated in the picture, a constant flow of wheels on which the tires have already been mounted, moves around and over the chassis assembly line. At a chassis enters the section, workers, in groups of four, each take a wheel from the hooks and fasten it to the chassis.

DOUBLE PARKING SHOULD BE STOPPED

The fact that Sandusky street is a part of State Highway Route 61 makes it dangerous for the continuance of parking on both sides of this street especially in front of the High School. Driving at night is risky enough, but when a motorist goes into traffic of this nature, and also passing cars at this point, the danger is highly increased. As a rule those parking cars in the evening in front of the school building also fail to observe the parking light ordinances which is supposed to be in effect.

One may observe the traffic congestion at this point when a basketball game or other entertainment is going on in the school and which the public in general attends. With the parking space in the school yard, and one side of the street, there should be ample room for those attending any public gathering at the school to park their car without endangering the lives of passing motorists.

Several of our prominent citizens have spoken of this habit and we mention it with the hope that the Mayor and Marshal will do all within their power to relieve the danger at this point.

WORSE THAN WAR

That is the title of a 48-page booklet containing statistics of automobile accidents in this country for the year of 1930. The amazing fact is that 32,500 people were killed, 925,325 injured in automobile mishaps in 1930. Collisions totaled over $35,250 for the year. Glance over these figures, again, please. Can you imagine, war, with all of its destructive machinery, destroyed in an 18-month period 50,510, while in the past 18-month period automobiles have taken a toll of 50,900. Why?

It is no wonder that the traffic problem is becoming national in scope and that national and state officials throughout the nation are planning safety drives, in the way of better roads and various surveys that will prove beneficial. The statistics we have at hand give every detail as to the cause and time of the greatest number of accidents.

That night driving is becoming more prevalent and therefore may be taken as one reason for the increase in automobile accidents, deaths, and injuries in 1930 is indicated by the record of mishaps as to the time of day. Nearly 53 out of every 100 persons killed during the year were involved in accidents during the presence of daylight. Five persons out of every 100 were killed in accidents which happened in the twilight zone between the passing of daylight and the fall of night, while 42 out of every 100 fatalities occurred during night time. The statistics are only slightly different when it comes to an analysis of the non-fatal accident victims, slightly more than three-fifths of the injured toll of more than 960,000 being hurt in daytime accidents, 4 per cent during the falling of dusk, and 35 per cent at night.

It will no doubt take an educational course in which to better prepare drivers of cars, especially in city traffic, and in time to come the license drivers law will be effective throughout the nation, and until some drastic change is made in the present motor world, we will be faced by these enormous figures in fatalities caused by the automobile.

OUR TELEPHONE SERVICE

In our "Public Forum" column the telephone company occupied the front seat the past week. One writer suggesting that the village go into the telephone business, and criticizing the service. This week, another contributor defends the company and service.

A newspaper office, we believe, uses a telephone more than any other kind of business, and we have noted a splendid increase in the efficiency of the service during the past year. Frankly, there are no criticisms to make, other than cranking the handle to get "central." This feature is amusing to strangers who happen in town, and we know that some of them can't believe that such a system is in use today. However, at the turn of the crank, central gives us a prompt answer, and we get connections without any delay.

One must realize, whether business is privately owned or a corporation, that the net earnings determine the service. There is no prospect of Plymouth ever becoming a city of any size, and thus, we realize, and investments and plans are made accordingly. This, the telephone service is about as efficient as one may expect for this size of town.

As a fair example of home-owned telephones, we suggest that those who have complaints to investigate the conditions of our neighbor, the Village of Greenwich.

It is true that subscribers may have a right to kick about the distance of their lines, for as a whole, the system takes in Plymouth and a mile or so of rural population. Other than that, we pay a toll, and this, as we see, is the only just complaint one could make.

ABANDON DRILLING FOR GAS AND OIL NEAR TIRO

The drilling for gas and oil at Tiro has been abandoned. After attaining a depth of 300 feet on the Cummins farm, the trial was given up. The work will not be resumed at point, and no drilling will be done in the near future. The Tiro Gas and Oil Co. was composed of Tiro residents, and had secured leases in Crawford and Richland counties.

Surprise Birthday Party Is Success

Mr. F. P. Ford was quite surprised Monday night, when he walked into his home on West Broadway and was greeted by a big "surprise" given by friends from New London, in honor of his birthday. The plans worked perfectly and the guest of honor did not suspect a thing.

All appointments for the birthday party were brought by the surprise guests, and tables were arranged for bridge. After a lovely evening, that will not soon be forgotten, first prize was given to Mrs. Frank Gilbert, while Mr. Bert Palmer won the first gift for the men's high score.

A progressive luncheon was then served at the Ford residence, and at the close of the following left for their homes in New London. Mr. and Mrs. C. Eleven young ladies were entertained Monday evening by a charming hostess, Miss LaVerne Sommerlot, at her home on Park avenue. Bridge was planned for the evening, and each guest found her name on the back of ladies that portrayed the valentine story.

The colors of the evening were red and white in keeping with the season. A more thoroughly enjoyable evening could not be planned, the guests inched the hostess after a two-course luncheon was served, the valentine colors and designs again being followed. After the bridge scores were collected by the hostess, it was found that Mrs. Paul Shepherd had won first prize, while Mrs. George Eby followed closely and was awarded second.

The guest list included Mesdames Eby, Shepherd, Harriet Farrar, Opal Lehman, Irene Sommerlot, Phelina Bussard, Misses Mary Shepley, Marguerite Boardman, Grace Dickson and Marie Fetters.

The Silent Dozen Checker Club

Fay Ruckman of Franklin St., entertained the dutiful boys at his home last Thursday evening. Pollinger, of Willard came over all cocked and primed to clean house, first he ran into our hard-boiled Scotty and down he went. Last game was with Joe Lasch, and Joe just shut him out. All sports was playing a fine game, but Markley stepped on him. Flopper wasn't seeing the game especially when the Fish Man met him. Paul Shepard played an even game. His Majesty Munn, and Mr. May, played the whole evening on one game. Munn said he didn't bid to sing for Rev. Miller or go to the party and chose the latter. Munn said, with his vicious moves, that May couldn't simulate everything. A good story was told about the Royal Yacht Club of Hoboken, New Jersey.

Basket Ball History

In glancing over the basketball records at P. H. S. we find that for the last five years (from 1926 to 1931 inclusive) Plymouth has with the exception of two years been on the winning side of the ledger. In 1926, when the Pilgrims at the present writing are riding on the crest of a wave with well over a 750 percent and with but four more games to be played before the tournament the Jenkinsons are at the top of the county loop and well on their way to hanging up a real mark for future Plymouth basketkeeters to shoot at.

The present record of fifteen wins out of seventeen starts is the most successful that Plymouth has ever enjoyed. A well high perfect season has been turned in, only one game having been lost in the county league.

Table with columns: Year, Won, Lost. Rows: 1926-27 (2-13), 1927-28 (5-9), 1928-29 (12-7), 1929-30 (18-7), 1930-31 (15-2)

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The major sport in Plymouth is basketball. The young children of the community, as soon as they are old enough to understand the game, enjoy watching the high school teams play. Then they start at the game themselves. They tack up a hoop and toss a ball through it. Children at the grade building organize teams in their grades and play in the old gym. Then when they come into Junior High school they continue this plan under supervised coaching.

Mr. Wolfe, instructor of boys in the Junior High physical education class at the start of the basketball season he chose four boys from the seventh and eighth grades to act as captains of teams. These boys then chose others to all out their teams. These four boys are: Ben Smith, captain of the Lucky Strike

DO they harass you by day and keep you awake at night? Don't neglect them. They'll ruin your charm and beauty, alienate your friends, interfere with your business and social success. When you're nervous, take Dr. Miles' Nervine. It's the prescription of a successful Nerve Specialist put up in convenient form especially for people in your condition.

Plymouth Settlers Bump Weller Team

Wednesday 4.—The strong Weller quint bowed low to the men of Jenkinsons. To give the Pilgrims their sixth straight win and with tournament time drawing near the Jenkinsons are booming into the home stretch at the top of the county league.

The Jenkinsons pulled the game out of the fire for another of their last half victories. The evenness of the teams in the first half was shown by the score 8-8. It had the spectators on the edge of their seats. The third quarter found both teams letting up from the strenuous pace of the first half. As a result not much scoring was done by the Pilgrims until the last quarter and then they sloped in baskets from all angles to have the game well in hand at the final ball 35-22.

The game was of Muma who also led for scoring honors with six markers was the high light of the game.

CHAPEL SERVICES

Chapel was opened last Wednesday morning with the singing of "O Come All Ye Faithful." We then repeated the Lord's Prayer.

Mr. Jenkins was our speaker. He gave us a very interesting talk on "The Origin of Basketball." This told us how first played basketball, how it was played and why they played it.

Mr. Miller then presented his announcements. We sang "The Marching Song" and "The Star Spangled Banner." Chapel was then closed with a salute to our American Flag.

Whit B.—"What steps would you take if you saw a ghost suddenly rise in your path?" Harry B.—"The longest I possibly could."

team; Bill Root, captain of the Panthers; Boyle Taylor, captain of the Sophomans and Bob Bachrach, captain of the Redmen.

These teams play during their physical education periods. They have two periods a week. There is one game played a day and each team plays once a week.

On the Lucky Strike squad we find Captain Smith, Darline, Willford, Davis, Dawson, Page and Burman. The Panther team consists of Root, Moore, Scott, Shaver, Masele, Cramer and Briggs. The Sophomans include Captain Taylor, Ross, Trauger, Pritch, Moore, Grodin and Lybarger. The Redmen have Captain Bachrach, Hackett, Cornell, McQueen, Page, Fenner and Coe.

In the first game of the season the Lucky Strikes beat the Panthers 14-5. The Sophomans drubbed the Redmen 17-1. The Redmen then beat the Panthers 16-9. The Lucky Strikes lost to the Sophomans in a close game 6-5. The Panthers took over the reins and beat the Redmen 6-4, while the Redmen beat the Lucky Strikes by the same score. The Sophomans beat the Panthers 11-5 and the Sophomans beat the Redmen 12-6.

This leaves the standings as follows: Games Won Lost Pct. Sophomans 4 3 1 .750 Lucky Strikes 4 3 1 .750 Redmen 4 2 2 .500 Panthers 4 1 3 .250

Bill Ross leads the pack in individual scoring with twenty points followed by Scott with fifteen. Bachrach has eleven and Smith and Darline with ten each. The Sophomans lead in team scoring with thirty-nine points, the Lucky Strikes second with thirty-three, Redmen next with twenty-seven and the Panthers with twenty-five.

The schedule will be played in two rounds of four games to the round. The first round is finished. Maybe the league will produce some stars for Plymouth high team of the future. Who knows? Wouldn't it be interesting to follow these boys and see if they do develop into stars? Well we certainly wish them all the luck in the world.

The towns have one main pipe, usually running between the sidewalk and road, and from it, the individual house pipes are run. In case of fire at a house, the gas company can turn off the gas by the means of a small gate protruding from the line to the surface of the earth. The gas is measured by a meter that is run by 2 bellows, that go in and out, allowing the gas to filter through, and each one turn is measured by a small hand in a circle on the outside of the meter. To read the amount of gas consumed in a month read the hands from left to right and add on two zeros to the amount, then subtract this from last month's reading. The gas companies are very considerate of the consumer's service and are on the watch for any inconspicuous that might crop up.

GIRLS GAIN ANOTHER EASILY WON VICTORY

The Plymouth girls took Weller into camp to the tune of 29-20 on the local floor last Wednesday night. This is the fourth victory in the last five games for the P. H. S. lassies.

After leading 6-4 at the quarter and 16-12 at the half, the Pancoast crew put the game on ice in the third period to allow some of the subs to play. "Squeak" Moore led the scoring for Plymouth by gathering seven field goals. McPadden was the Weller ace with five shots from scrimmage.

The highly touted Atlas girls will be opponents for the local girls in the last home game of the season and incidentally the last home appearance of seven varsity players who are seniors, namely: Moore, Pugh, McFarland, Hackett, Dornenwirth, Shaver and Mary Anderson. These girls are all well known to the fans and will be greatly missed next year.

Come to see these stars make their exit! Lineup of the game:

ADARIO BOYS MUST EAT SALT PORK

ADARIO BOYS MUST 1931 Friday 6—It was of explaining that heading, the Adario cage crew must have been slightly cocky. One of their team was heard to remark in a complacent voice before the game that they would "make Plymouth eat pork."

It turned out that the lads from Adario must eat so much pork back home that they were in a bad way before the second half was over. But give them credit they held a 5-4 lead as the first quarter ended. At the start of the second half however the H. S.ers creaked on a few tip-off plays and hit the basket so many times the rest of the half they bruised it and led by the substantial margin of 9 points, 14-5 at the half.

They continued their deadly assault on the basket in the third quarter and led 19-9 as the last period started. In the closing minutes of play the score continued to rise and the game was in the bag 23-13 as the final minute ticked away.

Bachrach and Ross tied in the scoring race, each getting 8 counters. Egner with 5 was the best Adario could do.

Teams—P. H. S.: Ross, 8; Briggs, 4; Gleason, 2; Bachrach, 8; Muma, 6; Webber, 1; total 23.

Adario—Blaney, 3; Paramore, 3; Egner, 5; Fair, 3; Glenn, 0; total 13. Referee—Becker.

RESERVE GAME

The Reserves chalked up their 3rd victory out of 4 games Friday night when they beat Adario Reserves. Mr. Murlin (the coach) ran in 2 teams. The first team playing the first half ran up a 15-6 score and at the end of the game the second team had made it 19-6 in favor of Plymouth. Munn and Scott were high scorers for Plymouth, netting 13 points between them. Both teams played good basketball and the victory was well deserved.

The Reserves play Willard Reserves Friday night. "Good Luck Reserves." The scoring line-up: Plymouth—Scott, 4; Munn 9; Root, 4; Gleason, 2; total 20. Adario—Murlin, 1; Coe, 1; total 2.

The new Ford is an economical car to own and drive

Low first cost, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation mean a distinct saving to every purchaser

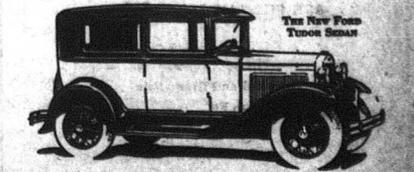

THE NEW FORD is a splendid car to own and drive because of its attractive lines and colors, safety, comfort, speed, reliability and long life.

There are, in addition, three other features of importance to every far-seeing automobile owner... low first cost, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

During the life of the car, the day-by-day economy of owning a Ford will amount to considerably more than the saving on the first cost. You save when you buy the Ford and you save every mile you drive.

The reasons for this economy are simplicity of design, high quality of materials and care in manufacturing and assembling. Many vital parts are made to limits of one one-thousandth of an inch. Some to three ten-thousandths of an inch. Throughout, the new Ford is an outstanding example of fine craftsmanship in automobile engineering.

The more you see of the new Ford—the more you talk to Ford owners and experienced mechanics—the more certain you become of this fact... it brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

Prices of Today and Yesterday Compared From Old Receipts

Prices Paid For Coal, Salt, Rye, Are Higher This Year.

Just for a comparison of today and yesterday, we looked into a few old receipt books of the old Plymouth Elevator, that records the names of the active farmers of that time. Some are yet well known farmers of this community, and some will be remembered only by the older folk of the country.

On Jan. 4, 1894, the elevator paid $25 1/4 to the Gallon City Mills for a barrel of flour, while today $5 is paid. Middlings were then $15 for three ton, and are now $25 a ton. For an employee, for work on pike, tilling, hauling, unloading two cars of middlings and salt, cost $4.20, while today the unloading would total about $12 in.

1894 the elevator paid Frank Myers $2.50 for unloading 2 cars of coal, and the same work today would bring $30.

In 1895 the freight on one car of coal was $27.75, and is now $125. Mr. Zimmerman was then paid $1.25 per day for labor. R. Heath received $66.05 for 25 bbls. of flour, while one barrel today brings $5. Wheat was then 65c a bushel, and bill heads, now priced at $2.75 were $1.50 for 500.

C. C. Frost, in June 1896, paid $5 for a ton of coal, now valued around $14.75. On July 18, a Mr. Cheesman received 15c bu. for oats, 31c being paid now. A car of salt for J. H. Wason that cost him $39.50 would now be $270. Oats were then up to 15c bu. in October, when Mr. D. Kinzell made a sale. W. F. Goldsmith was paid 55c bu. for rye, and would receive 60c today.

In 1902, the Sunday Creek Coal Co. received $94.35 for coal, while today for the same amount $250 would be charged. Other names found in the old book included W. R. Ross, S. Bevier, P. Croninger, H. Trauger, W. Champion, W. Cuykendall, Geo. Preston, F. Chapman, D. E. Clark, John Ludwick, Wm. Kirkpatrick, M. Ellis, Geo. Tomelson, W. Hobbs.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED BUT WILLARD WOMAN PAYS $100 AND COSTS

The sentence of 18 months imprisonment in the Richland county jail, given Mrs. Rusey Williams of Willard, has been suspended temporarily.

The woman paid a fine of $100 and costs following trial last Thursday night in Mayor Derr's court. She was arrested early Wednesday night by Marshall Burkett after she had crashed into a car owned by Miss Lucile Fenner, which was parked on Sandusky street, near the school building.

She was found to be intoxicated, and it also was discovered that driving permit had been suspended by Mayor Derr last June. Mrs. Williams was held under $300 bond.

The Ford coupe which she was driving and Miss Fenner's car were badly damaged.

Says City Water Not Fit For Use

Supplementing the water controversy of the past month or so, E. W. Heath, who was interviewed this week on the question, states that he is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Meyer of Mansfield giving a report on four samples of water taken from the city water spigots in the Heath home, and which water comes from the village supply.

The securing of the samples was un-der the personal supervision of Dr. Meyer. The conclusion of the Division of Laboratories, State Department of Health, Columbus, was to the effect that all four samples were very unsatisfactory. Dr. Meyer and his two assistants came to Plymouth a week ago last Saturday in response to a request by Mr. Heath for an immediate investigation. Several samples of water were also secured from local restaurants, pool rooms, and everyone has been reported unfavorable. And as dishes, glasses, etc., are washed in city water, typhoid fever can easily be spread in this manner.

Upon the investigation so far, Mr. Heath is convinced that his daughter contracted the fatal disease, typhoid fever, from the city water supply.

It is stated that the condition of the city water is not fit for human consumption, there being several toilets emptying into the creek within less than a mile from where the city water is pumped into the tank. Dr. Meyer pointed out that a tourist or stranger coming into town has no protection whatever in the presence of the contaminated water, and that sufficient warnings should be posted to protect the public. Proper precautions have never been taken by the village in warning the public of this danger.

ELEVATOR PURCHASED AT NEW LONDON, OHIO

The New London Farmers' Exchange has been purchased by T. W. Messenger, of Findley, and will be managed for a time at least by W. C. Poots, of Norwalk.

Messenger is present manager of the brick and tile concern in Findley.

CROUSE CONVICTED IN NORWALK COURT

After a trial which lasted three weeks, Milton Crouch, junk dealer and owner of an auto wrecking plant at Norwalk, was convicted of larceny of an automobile by a jury in common pleas court at Toledo before Judge Martin Thursday.

Crouch was convicted some time ago but was given a new trial and was acquitted in the second trial. It is stated he may be paroled.

WILLARD PRODUCT SHIPPED TO WEST

A large shipment of Euro-eka peat has been shipped to a concern in Pasadena, California. The new product is manufactured at the Willard plant of the new company, and the foundation of the material is peat taken from the marshlands west of here.

At the best, it will be weeks before the village will have suitable water, and as there already has been three positive known cases of typhoid fever, some immediate action should be taken by the village to safeguard the immediate health of the citizens and children. Owing to the continued drought every effort should be taken to safeguard the health of the citizens, for it is likely that when the spring thaw and rains come there will be opportunity for a real epidemic of disease, including typhoid fever. An ounce of proper prevention now may save several lives later.

DEATH TAKES THOSE KNOWN IN PLYMOUTH

Mrs. Florence Kistler, 52, passed away Saturday morning at the residence in Willard. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Presbyterian church, with burial in Greenhaven cemetery in Willard. Mrs. Kistler was raised in the vicinity of Plymouth and is well known by the residents here. She is survived by her mother, and two daughters.

Services for Conrad Longley, 55, of Shelby, were held Tuesday morning at the Most Pure Heart of Mary church. Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery. Death occurred Sunday. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Shafer, of Shelby, and Mrs. Roland McBride, of Shiloh.

John M. Sherman, 71, born in Huron county, died Friday at his home in Fremont. Death followed a stroke. Sherman began a banking career in New London as collector and janitor, and rose finally to the position of leading banker in Fremont. He was president of a number of important civic and national organizations.

150 People in College Play

College played by Maurice Bachrach, while attending the homecoming visits to the Sorority house and falls in love with Jerry thinking he is the house-mother. The Butter and Egg Man promises to give the college one half million dollars, but makes two conditions for the fulfillment of the promise, that Beta Beta college win the football game, and that the house-mother goes to the game with him and eventually like him well enough to marry him. This puts Jerry in an impossible situation because how is he going to sit in the grandstand with the Butter and Egg Man and still play in the game. Also, how is he going to report to the coach to play in the game without telling where he has been, and thus be expelled from the team. Jerry's effort to work out of the difficulties brings about many hilarious situations. He hobbles with the coach while pretending to be the house-mother and learns the secret signals for the game, and just as the game is ready to start he runs out on the Butter and Egg Man, makes his appearance in the last minute on the football field, persuades the coach to allow him to play and wins the game.

There are many other funny situations. Jerry's girl, Jean, played by Gladys Fetters, gets mad because he makes love to the other Sorority girls, especially Nellie, the little freshman girl, played by Genevieve Griffith. Professor Gaddis played by Jason Murlin, who has been in love with Dean Howard, played by Carrie Gebert for thirty years forsakes her and proposes to Jerry, as the housemother. George, 35c.

CRESTLINE WOMAN'S SENTENCE SUSPENDED

The three year sentence imposed on Mrs. Edna Nelson, of Crestline will not be served. The woman was found guilty of double marking ballots in the 1929 August primaries. The court of appeals gave the above ruling Saturday.

B. E. KUHN TO SUCCEED L. STEELE

B. E. Kuhn has been appointed trustee from the township to succeed the late L. S. Steele.

played by Leroy Brumbach and Monk, the football trainer spend a lot of time running after Jerry trying to get him over to the football field to play in the game.

The College President played by Vic Mann and his wife played by Mrs. Jennie Hill, add dignity to the cast, and the two freshmen Bill and Eric, played by Walter Dawson and Carl Fetter, complete the cast. The Butter and Egg Man is so well pleased over the game that he forgives Jerry, and donates the college one-half million dollars. Professor Gaddis also forgives him and marries his first love, Dean Howard. All in all it is a screaming college comedy.

The hit of the show, the Flapper Chorus consists of twenty-eight college men, who portray famous college girl types such as Peaches Browning, Sorority President, Spinster School Teacher, Cleopatra, famous movie stars and many other such prominent characters. The flapper chorus of leading prominent business men will be the sensation of the show.

Besides the Flapper Chorus there is the Alumni Glee Club portrayed by eighteen business men who open the show, and give a lot of entertainment singing old time songs, that everyone likes to hear. These men portray the modern college type, and are dressed in knickers, sport sweaters and various college styles.

Another big feature of the show is the Curtain Raiser entitled "The Baby Pageant" in which over 150 children between the ages of five and ten take part. The special dramatic reader is Agnes Stillman. She gives the reading and the children furnish a very effective background by providing some of the lines and playing parts in pantomime. The Baby Pageant is something new in entertainment and exceptionally good.

In addition to this there is the girls' choruses of 25 high school girls, all costumed in special costumes to make the show very pretty and effective. The Milkmaid Chorus in special bright colored costumes, the Collegiate Chorus, and the Sailor Evening Along Chorus are some of the features by the girls, all specially costumed.

A full list of all the characters will be found in an ad in this issue of the paper. Look them over. It promises to be one of the biggest shows ever staged, and is going to be well worth the price of admission. Tickets for reserved seats may be exchanged at Webber's Drug Store, on Wednesday, February 11th. Admission charge is $1.00.
