

CIVIC PIONEER ANSWERS CALL

C. F. Root, 73, Dies Sunday After Short Illness; Career As Manufacturer Began Here in 1895.

On Tuesday afternoon, last rites were held for Mr. Clayton Floyd Root, from the Lutheran church, the Rev. Bruce Young, D. D., of the Lutheran church, Shelby, officiating. Interment was made in the Greenlawn cemetery, the Miller Mortuary in charge.

Death brought to a close on Sunday, February 22, at the late residence on West Broadway, a life active in affairs of community and business life, and important in the friendships of many. Mr. Root, during his years in Plymouth, had formed many acquaintances through business activities and through his interest in others, and he will be long remembered for his fairness and his true spirit.

He was 78 years of age, when death came. For some time, Mr. Root had not been in the best of health, yet the word of his passing came as a shock to many.

Clayton Floyd Root was born January 1853, at Sharon Center, Medina County, Ohio, and departed this life February 22nd, 1931, aged 78 years and 28 days.

He united in marriage with Miss Harriet Keeler of Malone, New York, on October 5th, 1878, from which union five children were born, Mabel E., John A., Percy H., Halsey P., and Bess F.—the last two named being twin brother and sister.

In 1891 Mr. Root and his brother George A., formed a partnership under the name of Root Brothers to manufacture Hardware Specialties. Geo. A. Root was succeeded by Chas. E. Heath, who married C. F. Root's daughter Mabel, and in 1896 the business was moved to Plymouth, Ohio, and continued under the name of The Root-Heath Manufacturing Company. Mr. Root remained president of the Company until he retired in 1911. In 1919, the Company, of which Mr. Root and his brother were the founders, was merged with The J. D. Fate Company and is now known as The Fate-Root-Heath Company.

Mr. Root's wife preceded him in death in 1899 and his daughter Mabel in 1927.

On December 24th, 1905, Mr. Root was united in marriage with Miss Charlotte Taylor of Plymouth, who, with the three sons and remaining daughter, Bess Beck-Kraeger, and one brother, Wallace F. Root of Medina, Ohio, survive him.

While living in Medina, Mr. Root united with St. Paul's Episcopal Church, of which he was a faithful member. After moving to Plymouth he made the Lutheran Church his church home until his death. Mr. Root had unbounded faith and love for God and his fellow men. Quite and unassuming, he was always ready to help the needy and afflicted. His kindness and consideration for others endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. To know C. F. Root was to love him.

Mr. Root was a firm believer in a future life. Just a few days before he died a poem was found in his desk which has been copied from "The Churchman's" a New York publication. On the back of the poem, in Mr. Root's own handwriting was the following notation:

"I want this fine poem repeated at the beginning of my funeral sermon. It voices my belief exactly."

It is entitled: (Signed), C. F. Root.

THE GREAT CHANGE
I think of death as "Change of Circumstance."
Enraptured as a bird upon the wing
The sick, raised up, will laugh and sing
And those who have been thwarted in life's chance
Shall see their hopes come to their blossoming.
Love shall be his who never knew love's glance.
Those who have fainting in the glare and heat
Shall lie at rest beside some cooling stream;
Those who through darkness groped their seeking feet
Shall know the dawn-dusk and the sun's warm beam.
Come in a moment, at the heart's last best,
To reach me perfect than they dared to dream.

SUCCUMBS AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Mary Ames, Well Known Resident, Passes Away At Her Home Thursday Morning.

Mrs. Mary A. Ames, long a resident of the community of Plymouth, passed away at the home on West Broadway Thursday morning, February 19th. She had observed her 89th birthday on February 1 of this year.

Services were held on Saturday afternoon from the late home, with Rev. R. H. Balmer, of Canton, Ohio, officiating. Rev. Balmer was a former pastor of the local Methodist church, and was called at the request of the deceased to preach the funeral discourse. Burial was made in Greenlawn cemetery.

Plymouth has been the home of Mrs. Ames since the year 1892, when, following the death of her husband, Mr. Henry Smith, of Ripley, she made her home with her parents on West Broadway. In 1906, she became the wife of Florian Ames, of Plymouth, who preceded her in death in 1914.

She is survived by a brother, Lester P. Ames, of Columbus, and two sons, Edward and Wilson Ames, of Dunkirk, New York. She has been under the care of Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell of West Broadway for the past four years.

Mrs. Ames became a member of the Methodist church in 1872, and has since been an active worker, until health prevented. She was born in Ruggles, Ashland county, in 1842, and was one of the oldest residents, not only of Plymouth, but in the county in which she had made her home.

Plymouth Will Not Use State Fund Here

Need More Urgent Elsewhere For Distribution of $50,000.

Plymouth will not take advantage of the $50,000 recently released by the General Assembly, and Governor George White to furnish relief to needy school children.

At a recent meeting it was decided by the school board and Supt. R. R. Miller that Plymouth would not petition for the fund, but would let it go elsewhere where it was more needed. So far, those school children who have been in need of clothing have been supplied, and lunches are being prepared by the Home Economics department.

The school, in the past, has been well supported by the community and will be in the future. The instructions for securing the aid state that the petition should not be made unless "the need is acute and cannot be cared for by other agencies."

However, the school lunch room does need help at the present time and in applying to the Plymouth citizens for assistance. The serving of hot lunches to needy children cannot be continued unless some outside help is given. With the splendid cooperation given in the past, it is thought that assistance will be given soon.

DAY OF PRAYER IS OBSERVED HERE IN METHODIST CHURCH

About forty people attended the afternoon prayer meeting held in observance of the World Day of Prayer at the Methodist church last Friday.

The afternoon was divided into three periods with Mrs. A. E. Willitt, Rev. J. W. Miller and Mrs. J. H. Baitzell, as leader. Those who assisted the leaders in carrying out the international, interdenominational program were Mrs. Charles Wentland, Mrs. B. Bowman, Mrs. E. Willitt at the piano and Mrs. E. Willitt at the piano and a duet by Mrs. J. L. Price and Mrs. J. Dawson with Mrs. L. Z. Davis accompanist. These were enjoyed very much by the audience.

Mrs. O. M. Peoples was general chairman and as a desire was expressed, near close of afternoon, that a like program be carried out next year, all present voted unanimously that Mrs. Willitt be made chairman for next year to see that this program be planned.

ALMOND BLOSSOMS ARE EVERYWHERE IN WEST

Have you ever wanted to leave these cold, pre-spring days behind, and begin the trek to some warmer climate? If you have, we advise you not to read the following bit of exquisite description, but to read "Almonds," written by Mrs. Lottie Murphy, formerly a resident of Plymouth.

Stockton, Calif., Feb. 18, 1931.

The almond trees are full of bloom and next week they will be adding their almond blossom festival at Okdale about 13 miles from Stockton, and it is well worth while going miles to see them. They have an Almond Blossom Queen, who is selected by popular vote and is escorted by her throne under a canopy of pink and white blossoms, as delicate and lovely as a rosy morning cloud. After the "queen" is seated they put on quite an elaborate program in a natural amphitheater in the center of this great orchard of acres and acres of almond blossoms, and in all the blossoming world, there is nothing more exquisite than an orchard full of almond bloom. They are first to come, then the apricots follow closely after, and then the peach blossoms.

It is wonderful to drive through the country at this time of the year, and see the miles and miles of great orchards of almond, apricot, peach, plum and pear trees all in bloom, and the air heavy with their wonderful fragrance.

LAST RITES HELD FOR FRANK TUBBS

Final Taps Sounded For Plymouth's Beloved "Grand Old Man" Who Served Country.

Flats on the Plymouth square were lowered to half mast on Wednesday afternoon, in the memory and honor of B. Frank Tubbs, one of the last of the Civil War veterans. The last rites of the old soldier were held from the late home on Mills avenue at 2:30 o'clock, and the body was laid to rest in Greenlawn cemetery. The local American Legion conducted the military rites and the deceased was accorded full military honors.

Rev. J. W. Miller, of the Presbyterian church, spoke the last words of respect, and the Miller Mortuary was in charge of arrangements. The messages of old friends and neighbors beautifully expressed in flowers, and by the presence of many at the service, expressed the esteem and honor given Mr. Tubbs during his life in Plymouth.

Death came suddenly and swiftly as the man sat quietly reading in his home Sunday afternoon. He had passed on before medical aid could be called. The death was a shock, but it was a beautiful and peaceful way of leaving this life for one better.

Surviving in this world are the widow, Mary Willam Tubbs, two daughters, Mrs. Irene Ervin, of Mansfield, Mrs. Guy Boyer, of Toledo, three sons, Mahlon Wilson of Salt Lake City, Utah, Albert Wilson, of Richwood, and Mack Wilson, of Detroit, five grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

He was born in Huron county on the farm now known as the Ellis property, west of Plymouth. While yet a boy, he, with his parents, Henry and Ebby Tubbs, moved to Plymouth where he attended school. His trade was that of a carpenter.

His wife, Lois Green Tubbs, of Plymouth, passed away in 1890, and one daughter, Belle, also preceded him in death. In the year 1892 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Mary Wilson. His home has been on Mills avenue for many years.

The Sons of Union Veterans were the pall-bearers at the funeral, and the Boy Scouts and Girls Scouts also formed a part of the funeral procession.

Mr. Tubbs was a member of 19 Ohio Division at the beginning of the Civil War, to be mustered out by the Grand Commander. Before the Division saw action, Tubbs and others were transferred to the West to quell a Mormon uprising. While in the western territory, then now country, the soldier saw much action, and frequently met the Redmen on the warpath.

This soldier, who was ranked as a corporal, has been an important part of the Plymouth Memorial services for years, and will be greatly missed this year. Though he will not be seen again on Plymouth streets, he is one that will be long remembered.

County Tournament Opens This Evening

Plymouth Boys Play Butler At 7:40 P. M. At Mansfield.

According to reports from those who should know about basketball, Plymouth has a chance this season for the county championship title.

Competing favorites are Madison and Waller. The tournament is to be held Thursday and Saturday at the Mansfield Senior high school gym, and will be attended in full force by Plymouth fans.

The record made this year by the Plymouth boys' team is quite good, bringing Plymouth's average to near the top in the county league. There really is little reason why Plymouth should not make a fine showing, and the boys are expected to prove their mettle.

Plymouth meets Butler tonight at 7:40 o'clock, and the winner plays Waller the same evening. One of the favorites will be eliminated this evening. There will be no games Friday, and the tourney will be continued on Saturday afternoon.

The sectional joust is at Crestline.

TAX LEAGUE ASKS REDUCTION OF 40%

All but four townships were represented when the Huron County Tax League met Saturday evening in common pleas court, Norwalk.

The opinion was suggested that the league ask a reduction of 40 per cent of farm property valuation and for 10 per cent more of the gasoline taxes for the townships. It was also decided to assess the members a minimum charge of 50c on a basis of 50 acres, and a cent an acre for all land area more than that figure, to finance the work of the league.

The league also is expected to oppose the proposed charter referendum that would abolish the township trustees and place the control of the county in a county governmental unit.

FAMILIES ASK FOR FOOD, FUEL, DRIVE CARS TO NORWALK

Because they drove to the county seat in cars and asked for food and fuel, residents of the mucklands west of Plymouth, were refused aid from the Huron county Red Cross Saturday.

The Red Cross is furnishing some food for the destitute of the region, and township trustees are allowing $2.00 a week to each family.

Three families of Kentuckians drove to Norwalk, where they learned that those who could afford to drive cars could afford to earn and save.

See our papers before you buy—All patterns reduced in price. Lippus Dry Goods, Plymouth.

HURON-CO. TOURNEY HELD THIS WEEK-END AT NORWALK SCHOOL

The Huron county basketball tournament will be held at the Norwalk high school Friday evening, February 27, and Saturday afternoon and evening, February 28.

Seven teams will compete—New Haven, North Fairfeld, Wakeman, New London, Monroeville, Greenwich, Townsend, and there will be six tourney battles.

The teams favored are New London, Wakeman, and Monroeville. Monroeville holds the best record, but is met, probably in the semi-finals, by New London, which has improved greatly since the opening of the season. The Wakeman team is the best in the history of the school.

MRS. LILLIE B. LOCKWOOD PASSED AWAY AT CHICAGO

Mrs. Lillie Bowly Lockwood, a former Plymouth resident, passed away Feb. 18th at the home of P. F. Mittenbuhler in Chicago, Ill. Burial was made at Dixon, Ill.

GERMAN POLICE DOG HUNTED NEAR HERE

A large German police dog is being searched for in the territory between Plymouth and Willard. Farmers in the vicinity should be on the lookout for the animal.

It has evidently reverted to the wild state, and has attacked and wounded many dogs in the county, then getting away from pursuers to the mucklands. It has not as yet been wounded by the bullets of the farmers' guns.

General Assembly Sets Record In Passing Resolutions and Bills

Members Vote 905 Bills, And 104 Resolutions, 341 In One Day.

Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—The members of the Ohio Legislature can now take time out to consider the various measures which have been introduced during the six weeks since the law makers have been in session and the deadline records for the avalanche of same. Records were smashed when 341 bills were tossed into the hopper in one day and the total reached 905, with 104 resolutions, possibly setting an all time record for the Ohio General Assembly.

The proposed legislation covers a wide variety of subjects, touching on almost everything imaginable, from penalties for robbing hen roosts to taxation problems, about a half to hundred of the latter being a part of the program and which includes an income tax of one per cent on individuals and corporations; exemptions allowed would be $1,000 for single persons, head of a family $2,000 and $300 for each minor dependent. Another provision a general sales tax of 1 1/2 per cent on the retail price of all goods, merchandise or commodities, farmers to be exempted. One effecting gasoline tax would raise same from four to seven cents per gallon, personal property tax on automobiles, abolished, and the license registration tax reduced to one dollar a year.

Other bills provides funds for mothers' pensions, county police bill, to take equal off the song bird list, to tax chain stores, to provide for pint liquor prescriptions, create state board for chiropractors, motor traffic bills, fishing license bills, regulating trapping and killing of fur-bearing animals, changing divorce laws, changing tax (Continued on Page Four)

Jenkinsmen Drop Tough One 25-24

Stick around folks and don't lose all hope, even though the Pilgrims suffered a 25-24 setback at the hands of the Wellers. It doesn't prove a thing. The Wellers five was composed entirely of seniors who were playing their last game; they were on their home floor and were inspired to do their best. They ran up a lead of 7 points in the first quarter by rushing the Pilgrims right off their feet. But before the half the Pilgrims had recovered from the shock and at the end of the second quarter the score was tied 12-12.

The last half started with a bang and before they knew it the P. H. S.'ers were trailing by a score of 16-23 and with only five minutes to go. Then they woke up for the first time and started to do a little basketball playing of their own, and in five minutes rallied to score 9 of the 7 points they were behind, and were fast overcoming the lead of Wellers and undoubtedly would have forged ahead but the gun put a stop to further activities.

WIN AT WELER

The Pilgrim girls marked up another victory, 26-33 at Weller Wednesday night. Again the two Lucies showed their basketball ability by scoring fourteen points each.

Although the girls haven't won every game of the season, this makes the eighth county game they have played, and the fifth one they have won.

SENIOR NEWS

In interviewing more of our Seniors we find that some are still undecided as to their future work but we will do the best we can in telling what would be quite suitable to them.

When we were asking Raymond Brooks about his future, he said that he had made no plans. For this reason we will prophesy his future by saying that due to the fact he is always arguing with one of his teachers we think he will make a great success as a debater. We admit that it would be rather amusing to see Raymond's name in big headlines in the paper challenging someone to debate with him on some great question of the day such as we have read about in our literature and history books. If he does plan this career we hope he will come out on the winning side in all of his debates.

Doris Lutz has said that since she is of German descent, it would be no more than right for her to take up teaching German in some well known High School. We find it quite interesting to hear Doris talk to us in German although we are all in the dark as far as knowing what she is saying to us unless she is good enough to tell us in our own language. In proving that Doris can really write German we will ask her to write some at the end of this piece. There is no doubt about your making a big success Doris, so keep on with your plans. Ich hoffe ich kann eine Deutsche Lehrerin werden und euch deutsch lernen. Deutsche ist sehr leicht und eine gute sprache. "Fiehlisch" werde ich deutsch in Plymouth High School lehren.

Shiloh Downs P. H. S. in Rare Decision

Yes! Shiloh won, sad to say. The game started out as fast as any game played in the county this year, the Pilgrims ran up a 9-4 lead in the second quarter and held it all through the first half but it seemed as though it wasn't in the books for the Plymouth crusaders to win from Shiloh two games in a row.

The second half started disastrously for the Pilgrims, Shiloh sank three fouls right off the bat making the score 9-7. Then the Jenkinsmen who were slightly worn out, due to the game with Norwalk St. Pauls the night before, and the heart-breaking one point defeat at Weller, but two nights before that, proceeded to lose their heads and the game "went empty" after a manner of speaking. The six-point defense that held Shiloh to one field goal in the first, cracked and the game ended 25-15 Shiloh.

P. H. S. BASKETBALL SEES A GOOD SEASON

Folks, Plymouth has certainly had a successful basketball season this year. Of course both teams have lost a few games, yet they have won a great number.

Many teams have gone down in defeat at the hands of the Plymouth ladies and lassies. Their motto for most of the games should be, "We came, we saw, and we conquered," for that is what they did at most of the games. Our girls are third in the county in the percentage of games won and lost. And that is surely something to be proud of.

Our boys are going to do their best at the tournament and we hope that their best will be good to win. Let's all go to the tournament and see Plymouth shine.

PLYMOUTH GIRLS DO THE UNEXPECTED

In the last game of the basketball season the Plymouth sallorettes did the unexpected and by real classy basketball playing ended the season as a success by tripping up Shiloh to the tune of 40-44 win. This game incidentally knocked the Shiloh girls out of the Richland county championship for girls.

The game started out with Plymouth leading up a 4-12 lead. L. Moore used a nice jazzie play by which she accounted for 10 of the points. Shiloh came back strong and the score at the half was tied.

The entire last half was a nip and tuck affair, but the Plymouth crew finally coaxed out to top the game by a small 4 points.

The high scorer for Plymouth was L. Moore who rang up a total of 21 points and has a total of 150 points for the season.

Pugh was next marking up 13 points which makes her a grand total of 209 for the year.

HERE AND THERE AT PLYMOUTH HI

Mr. and Mrs. Murtin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. Fite. Betty Brown returned to school Monday after a two-weeks trip in the south. Ben Smith, Jim Root, Bob Bachrach, Paul Root and Robert Cornell attended the Castamba Theatre in Shelby, Sunday afternoon.

Many of the students are absent from school this week with sickness. A large number of Plymouth people, mostly students of P. H. S., attended the Shiloh-Plymouth basketball game at Shiloh, Saturday night.

CHAPEL

Chapel was opened last Wednesday with "Love's Old Sweet Song." The Scripture lesson was read by Lucille Pugh. This was followed by the Lord's Prayer. Mr. Miller then presented his announcements and chapel was closed with the song "Lucia."

SIR ISAAC NEWTON

Sir Isaac Newton was born in 1642 at Westhorpe, Lincolnshire. He was a philosopher and inventor of the binomial theorem and the method of tangents. Tradition says that the sight of a falling apple in his garden influenced him to further research concerning the attraction of the earth, which resulted in his discovery of the earth's gravity in 1680.

In 1668 he turned to optical research and resolved white light into colors. In 1668 he invented the reflecting telescope, and, lecturing before the Royal Society in 1672 read papers on prismatic experiments and phenomena due to the interference of light rays known as Newton's Rings. He was president of the Royal Society from 1703 until his death. In 1689 he drew up a treatise on the calculus for mathematics. He died in 1727 and was buried in Westminster Abbey.

A MOUNTIE'S MISTAKE
 A mountie was once returning from the far north after investigating a fur stealing case. He had succeeded and returned the furs to their rightful owners.

He was weary from his long journey and decided to stop at the first cabin he came to. In a short time he came to a cabin at the edge of a clearing. He drew up, unhooked his dog team and knocked on the door. All was as still as death within. After a few minutes of waiting he entered the cabin. Hot coals were still in the stove indicating that somebody had been there a short time before. He put an armful of wood in and sat down to get warm. As his eyes wandered around the room he noticed a huddled form in the bunk. He walked over and felt under the old blanket cautiously. His hand came out wet with blood! This was enough. He stalked out of the cabin, quickly hitched his team and proceeded to the nearest trading post which happened to be only six miles away. It took only an hour to get there. He hastily summoned a posse and started back for the cabin. One stayed to watch the dogs and the others entered the cabin cautiously. One man a little braver than the rest pulled back the blanket. To their utter amazement the form in the bunk was not a man but a freshly skinned bear.

LETTER OF 1861 IS PRIZED BY A. PETTIT

Letter Written From Germany To Grandmother Tells of War.

Mr. A. J. Pettit, of the Bucyrus road, has in his possession a letter written by his great-uncle, who lived in Germany, near Struburg. The letter was written to his grandmother, and after the death of Mrs. John Pettit, his mother, the letter came in his possession. Mr. Pettit prizes the letter very highly.

Shrewsbury, Germany, Dec. 7, 1861. Dear Sister:—I received your letter last night and was glad to hear from you once more in this world. We haven't heard from you for years. We thought you had left for other parts. Now I will write you a long letter. I am the youngest daughter are alone. She is in her twentieth year.

My dear husband was gone to war. He is first lieutenant in a company and draws $106 per month, and James is in the same company. He is first sergeant and he draws $25 per month. It seems very hard to me for them to be out when the cold weather comes. It often seems that it could not be possible, but it is, both father and son gone to the army.

I was able to see them last week, and they seemed to be very well satisfied there. I ate supper with them. They have plenty to eat and drink. James is married and has two sons. Margaret is married and has three children, two girls and one boy. We live in sight of Shrewsbury, and we have a church on the same spot where the old church stood. We have not far to go to church and worship at the same place you did in years gone by.

When I think of the years that have passed since that day, I feel as if I were a child, many who that gathered at her home, the Saturday afternoon, in honor of her daughter Jeannette's seventh birthday.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM U. S. CONGRESS

Some pearls of wisdom cast by United States Congressmen before an unappreciative public:

Representative Sloan of Nebraska: I were I speaking of the mountains, I should have called her Penelope and not a lame duck. I should say of the dashing matron from Illinois (Mrs. McCormick) that she was Diana the huntress, rather than a lame duck. Illinois lost its great opportunity when, instead of electing the first lady senator, it traded her for a mess of pink whiskers.

Senator Caraway of Arkansas: Mr. President, I doubt the good taste of the statement I am about to make, but I shall make it nevertheless. Mr. O'Connor of Oklahoma: I learned to talk before I learned to read, so I do not read as well as I speak.

Senator Norris of Nebraska: The President has been assured by the Secretary of Agriculture that they will give the farmer sympathy, anyway, even if he starves to death.

HURON COUNTY HAS HIGH INDUSTRIAL FATALITY IN JAN.

The total time loss was 18,465 days. In December the county had 27 accidents, with one fatality, and 6,636 days time loss. January was the worst month as regards fatalities of any month in the year.

FIESINGER MEMBER OF 72ND CONGRESS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 26.—Judge William L. Fiesinger, Congressman-elect from the 13th Ohio District, arrived in Washington today from Sandusky preparatory to induction into office.

Judge Fiesinger succeeds Congressman Joe E. Baird, Bowling Green. Judge Fiesinger will be sworn in as a member of the 72nd Congress next Wednesday along with six other Democratic representatives from Ohio.

For the present, Judge Fiesinger will have his headquarters in the congressional offices of Congressman Charles A. Mooney, from the 26th District in Cleveland.

Congressman Baird, retiring member of the House, will return immediately to Bowling Green after adjournment at noon on Wednesday, accompanied by his secretary, Homer L. Brady, former newspaperman.

TAX RETURNS ARE GOOD IN HURON CO.

The tax collections of Huron county for the first half of the year were but five per cent below normal. County Treasurer Curt Woodward expects that much of the drop will be made up before long.

Considering the rumors of depression, the tax returns were considered quite satisfactory by officials.

NORWALK BUS CO. RECEIVES CONTRACT

The Norwalk Bus Co., will receive $394 a year for the carrying of mail between Norwalk and North Fairfield, a distance of about 10 miles. Under the contract with the government the company is to carry the mail 18 times a week.

RICHLAND AND HURON TO RECEIVE HONORS

Among the 112 township and community Farm Bureaus of Ohio, that were honored for outstanding achievements in Farm Bureau activities during 1930, were Richland, and Weller, Milton, Mantos, and Worthington, and Huron, with Ripley, Greenfield, and Greenwich, and were given leather-bound record books.

Wall banners were awarded the second-year units, including Richland. Franklin and honorable mention was given Richland for Perry twp. Springfield township in Richland was honored for the hundred-member organization.

RUPTURE

Don't submit to avoidable operations or the use of antiquated trusses, as they all set where the lump is and not where the opening is. The opening is seldom larger than a dime (no matter the size of the rupture), and all cases can be retained with the end of a lead pencil.

The Spermatic Shield-Complex in combination with the Retainer-Simplex (Patent No. 747247 and other systems pending)—a scientific achievement in a highly specialized art. It will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Infinitely superior to any instrument method of operation and producing results in no other way obtainable. All cases are secure a lifetime as against further trouble or expense. Large or difficult cases or incisional rupture (following operations) especially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions of any distinguished personal patrons of all nations.

THE COLLEGE FLAPPER A GREAT SUCCESS

One of the outstanding events of the year was the "College Flapper," sponsored by the Pythian Sisters, which took place on the nights of Feb. 19th and 20th, with crowded halls each evening.

Great praise is due the cast, all the choruses, and the baby pageant, for the manner in which they conducted their parts, together with the able assistance of Miss Myrtle Lee Weaver, the coach, representing the Universal Producing Company, of Fairfield, Iowa.

The College Flapper was one of those riotous, laugh-producing musical comedies, which recruited the services of 160 local comedians with their own material.

It maintained a gay liveliness throughout the evening. The Flapper Chorus, as the Paramount Fun Maker, Jerry, the Football Coach, as master of ceremonies, especially in the character of the House Mother, together with the excellent cast supporting her, the girls' dancing choruses between acts, the Baby Pageant with the song recitation, attracting its share of attention, the show proved without parallel to be the greatest musical comedy ever presented in Plymouth. It had so much of the so-called audience appeal so many returned for the big second night's performance.

The Pythian Sisters wish to extend their thanks and express their appreciation for the services rendered their order to every person who took part in the show, and who so faithfully co-operated in the labor required to make this big production such an unusual success.

Due to the present flu epidemic, there are more students absent from classes in both the grades and the High School, than have ever been recorded at one time before.

The slightly warmer weather enjoyed recently was the cause of most of the illness, and an epidemic of colds and influenza spreads rapidly.

The Emmons Bill and Taxation

Taxation is the most urgent matter before the legislature of Ohio. The shoulders of the taxpayers are heavily burdened and will continue to be so unless there are progressive steps taken to relieve this condition.

The Emmons' bill for sterilization is a humanitarian measure which has been highly endorsed throughout Ohio and which will help to remove a considerable portion of the load of the taxpayers.

The Ohio Association of Probate Judges, the superintendents of Ohio's feeble-minded and epileptic, the Association of Assistant Physicians of Ohio State Hospitals, 650 ministers of all denominations, and from all sections of the state, and the Ohio Race Betterment Association, an organization composed of leading citizens of all sections of Ohio have given their unqualified endorsement to this forward-looking measure.

The bill safeguards the rights of both the individual and society, and gives security and protection to both. The operation, under present day methods of surgery, is very simple and harmless.

The increasing number of feeble-minded and epileptics has become and will continue to be a most dangerous menace unless progressive steps are taken to check their multiplication. Ohio's institutions for the care of the feeble-minded, now crowded to overflowing, could be relieved; many, now listing day to January list, each year and tax paying days to April list and October list, gerrymandering to redistricting by congressional districts, to license architects, preventing fraud in advertising, exempting homesteads of former service men, to change terms of county commissioners from four years to two years, with three members coming up every two years, to election, to increase terms of county clerks, treasurers and prosecutors to four years, to permit use of dip net in catching minnows, taxing yellow oleomargarine ten cents per pound, providing all school children shall be transported to schools, abolishing the two-mile limit and other bills regulating almost everything.

To become laws proposed bills are first passed by the branch of the General Assembly in which they originate and are then sent to the other branch where they are acted upon and if passed are signed by the president of the senate. They are next sent to the governor who has the privilege of signing or vetoing; if he takes no action at all within ten days they become laws without his signature.

When signed by the governor they are taken to the Secretary of State where they are filed. Emergency measures become effective with their filing unless some specific effective date is incorporated in the measure by the General Assembly. All other laws become effective 90 days after the day in which they are filed, at the close of the General Assembly two years ago. 200 laws were filed with Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown. 22 had been vetoed by Governor Cooper. Out of the 905 measures to be considered by the General Assembly the number which may become laws is of course problematical.

Frances Willard Program Friday
The Plymouth W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Jason Mulin, Thursday afternoon, Feb. 19, for the Frances Willard Day program.

Mrs. O. M. Peoples read the Scripps lesson and Mrs. J. W. Miller led in prayer.
During a short business session, Mrs. E. E. Markley, who recently came to Plymouth from Bucyrus, was made treasurer. Mrs. Markley was transferred to Plymouth W. C. T. U. from the Bucyrus W. C. T. U. by a letter from the corresponding secretary of that union with words of regret at their loss but glad for us at our gaining her.

It had been voted in a special business meeting prior to the regular meeting, Thursday, that the Union would carry out the plans of the county W. C. T. U. as rapidly as money came in that could be used to do this work. The president was glad to report that all petitions to U. S. Congress and the Ohio legislators had been sent in.

Topics in the program were given out by Mrs. J. W. Miller, Mrs. E. E. Markley, Mrs. Murlin and Mrs. Bernice Morrow.
A letter from Miss Delma Stoudenmire, expressing her appreciation for the clothing and gifts of home-made candy at Christmas, for the children of miners, was read. She also says she is in the midst of a large revival, when a hall which has a seating capacity of 300 fails to hold the crowd that attends nightly. She says, "Every bit of clothing sent in wins souls for Christ," and that "people walk 12 miles each way for the bowl of soup she gives."

Brightening up the home

By Dorothy Sawyer

RUDGERY and housework are no longer the synonymous terms they were in the old days before the advent of electricity and other modern wonders.

At least this is true to those forward looking women who keep their homes modernized up to the moment. Such women are the ones who accomplish the most in life with the least effort because they make use of all the inventions and modern equipment intended to bring them comfort and speed in their work.

However, it is surprising that there are still hundreds of thousands of homes which are without modern conveniences—no bathroom, no running water, no plumbing fixtures of any kind or heating systems. Millions of gallons of water are carried into homes by women and waste carried out.

"In many cities where there are water and sewer systems," says a report of the research department of the Kohler Co., "thousands of homes have failed to take advantage of the facilities afforded. For instance, in a typical city it has been found that: 38 per cent of the homes have no plumbing fixtures; 10 per cent do not even have running water."

"There is no excuse for the American housewife who makes a slave of herself today," the report remarks. "Even to the rural woman every modern aid to housework is available, and today she can enjoy the comfort and help that can be furnished by expert plumbing and electrical appliances."

"Woman's housework can be made Washington's birthday. Supplementing the lunch, bridge occupied the guests and with totaling of scores prize awards went to Mrs. Roy Woodman and Mrs. Herbert Foulk, both of Bucyrus.

OBITUARY

MARY A. AMES

Mrs. Mary A. Ames was born in Ruggles, Ashland County, Ohio, February 15, 1829, at the age of 93 years and 18 days.

She was a daughter of Ira and Lydia M. Paine. Most of her life was spent as a pioneer resident of Huron County in the vicinity of Plymouth.

On February 25, 1876 she became the bride of Henry Smith, of Ripley, from whom she was separated by his death in 1892. She then moved to Plymouth to the home of her parents, where they then resided on West Broadway street. About two months after coming here her father passed away leaving an invalid wife for whom the daughter cared for the next 15 years, when her mother joined her husband in the great beyond.

July 23rd, 1905, Mary Smith became the wife of Florian W. Ames of Plymouth, Ohio. They resided in the same home where she had come to live with her parents. October 20th, 1914, death called Mr. Ames and she was again left a widow. With the exception of a few months, Mrs. Ames had made the house in which she died her home since 1892.

Mrs. Ames' own record states that in 1855 she was "baptized above" in a Methodist Protestant revival meeting, and the same year she united with a Congregational church. In 1865 she became a charter member, with seven others, forming the Ruggles Methodist Episcopal Church. On moving with her parents to Ripley in 1872 she became a member of the Greenwich M. E. Church. On moving to Plymouth in 1876 she presented her letter to the M. E. Church where her membership continued until her removal by death.

For 75 years Mrs. Ames was a member of the Church, an active worker and a willing, benevolent supporter of it.

FORD COMFORT

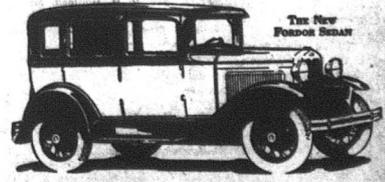

Every new Ford is equipped with four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers

ONE of the fine things about driving the new Ford is the way it takes you over the miles without strain or fatigue. No matter how long the trip, you know it will bring you safely, quickly, comfortably to the journey's end.

The seats are generously wide, deeply cushioned and carefully designed to conform to the curves of the body. Every new Ford has specially designed springs and four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers. These work both ways — up and down. They absorb the force of road shocks and also provide a cushion against the rebound of the springs.

Other features that make the new Ford a value far above the price are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, extensive use of fine steel forgings, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, torque-tube drive, Rustless Steel and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

In addition, you save many dollars because of the low first cost of the new Ford, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

DEFENDANTS REQUEST JUDGMENT OF COURT

In the case of Elmer H. Stein vs. P. C. Dintinger, Bertha Dintinger, and P. C. Moore, separate answer has been filed. Atty. T. R. Robison represents the defendants in the case concerning a former confession of judgment on a note.

The answering defendants admit the execution and deliverance of the note and allege that C. C. Moore was the owner and holder of the note at the time of its maturity.

The cross petition states that the defendants in the case concerning the note referred to the sum of $369 which they claim is due for work performed and material furnished.

The $369 claim is alleged due and payable, and the court is asked to confirm a judgment in favor of the answering defendants for the amount claimed.
