TAX LEAGUE TO HOLD MEET

New Haven Tax League Will Meet With School Board and Township Trustees.

There will be a meeting of the New Haven Tax League Friday evening, April 24, at 8 o'clock at the school building.

The school board and township trustees have been asked to meet with the members of the league at this meeting.

Each member of the school board is a member of the tax league and it is believed that by intelligent cooperation the league may be able to help the board with the readjustments that weigh heavily on their shoulders.

One thing, however, is perfectly clear, and that is that economy of the most rigid form must be practiced. In view of the greatly reduced resources of the taxpayers who pay these townships' expenses it would seem only just that those on the public payroll submit to a proportional reduction in their incomes for the time being.

Well, do we know that every dollar of public money that is spent must be raised in the form of taxes? It would seem only just that those on the public payroll submit to a proportional reduction in their incomes for the time being.

It is the desire of the league to bring to the minds of the tax payers and the people that the day is here when expenditures must be cut down, thus relieve the distracted taxpayer.

In response to an invitation extended by the president of the county organization, Mr. Clarence Burke, Ohio county representative, has expressed his willingness to be present at their meeting at Fitchville, Saturday evening, May 2.

Mr. Burke's talk and it is believed that the people of the county should take advantage of this opportunity to acquaint themselves with the very popular subject of the present time, that of taxation.

DR. CLIPPENGER TO SPEAK AT TIRO

Dr. W. C. Clippinger, president of Otterbein College, the United Brethren school at Westerville, will be the speaker at the tenth annual commencement of Tiro Consolidated High school on Thursday evening, May 21, according to an announcement made by Sup't. H. L. Shihler, head of Tiro schools.

Twenty-one young people will graduate from the school this spring and is the largest class in the history of the school. The motto of the class is "Tomorrow" and the colors are blue and silver and the flower is the red rose.

TOURISTS ARE WARNED ABOUT DRINKING WATER

H. G. Southard, M. D., director of the State Department of Health, issues timely warning to tourists who will soon be camping along the high-ways, that a survey of roadside water supplies reveals that a very small percentage of them is safe to use for drinking purposes. If you contemplate making a trip and intend to spend the nights in camp, stop only at camps which can show a clean bill of health.

SERVICES HELD FOR DR. MOTLEY

Well-Known Dentist Succumbs to Lingering Illness; Death Came Early Sunday Morning.

Last rites were held Tuesday afternoon at the home for the late Dr. E. Motley, whose death occurred early Sunday morning following a lingering illness of the past year.

Dr. Motley was well-known in this community, having spent the past thirty-five years here where he practiced dentistry. Born in 1864 at Scottsville, Ky., he graduated from the high school there, later entering the State Normal School at Bowling Green.

Following his graduation he acted as instructor for a two-year period at the Normal School. Dr. Motley received his medical training at Nashville, Tenn., and followed this profession six years. He received his degree in dentistry at the University of Louisville.

In 1892 he was married to Nettie Ernest, of Attica, and they moved to South Dakota, where Dr. Motley was connected with the medical corps of the Indian reservation. Returning east he settled in Shiloh for a short time, later moving to Plymouth where he has followed his practice for the past thirty years, and where he made many warm friends for himself.

The deceased was a member of the Attica Baptist church, and was up until a few years ago active in Masonic and Knights of Pythias fraternities. During the course of his career he won many warm friends for himself, and the respect of the community was shown Tuesday when business was suspended for an hour, and by the number that paid their last respects.

The beautiful floral offerings showed in a small degree the esteemed height in which he was held.

He is survived by the widow and one sister, Mrs. N. S. Gay of Scottville, Ky. Rev. Hinman, of Loudonville, a long-time friend, paid a beautiful eulogy to Dr. Motley, and the life and work. Interment was made in the mausoleum in Greenlawn with H. B. Postle in charge.

PARKS CAR—REPORTS IT "STOLEN"—THEN FINDS IT IN THE BACKYARD?

Joe BeVier was a little disturbed Sunday evening. He and Mrs. BeVier after returning from Canton stopped at the C. K. Watson home to inquire the outcome of a golf game. At the conclusion of the game, Watson, which was in an automobile theft, Joe started for home. Upon opening the front door of the Watson home, he held, his machine was missing. A thrilling, heated sensation, almost a fainting spell overcome BeVier. Immediately the investigation was started, as well as rustling in the office of the village marshal. Not trusting their ability in finding stolen cars, Joe commandeered Sterling Ford's machine and they criss-crossed the country between here and Shiloh. After a search of a few hours, when Joe and friend Wife started the lone walk home, Mrs. BeVier, inquisitive like, said to Joe: "Are you sure you looked good in the backyard at Watson's?" And Joe, thinking that if the second look would make things better, replied, "Yes, but I'll look again." And so he did, and behold, when Joe and C. K. took a second look, there was the car, and Oh, Boy, wasn't it a grand and glorious finding.

No, it isn't true, the story that was circulated Sunday evening, for there was a trick to the matter, and we believe that some day Joe will make him pay.

VON SMITH NOW WITH DININGER'S GARAGE

Announcement is made this week to the effect that Von Smith, who has been operating a repair station in the old Ford Sales and Service room, is now connected with Dininger's Garage, where he will be glad to have his friends and former patrons call on him. CONCERTS THIS SUMMER BY HOME TOWN BAND

Summer band concerts for Plymouth are again to be a Saturday night feature for the town, as evidenced by a solicitation of funds secured by a committee composed of H. J. Lippus, Frank Ford, and J. W. Hough. Contributions run about the same amount as last year, and the majority of the business houses have responded in a splendid manner. It is stated that those that have not been solicited will be given an opportunity this week-end to subscribe to the band fund.

MYSTERY IS STILL UNSOLVED

Skeleton Found Near Here Not Human But Those of Animal.

Bones believed to be the skeleton of a man were unearthed late Friday afternoon by workmen plowing just west of New Pittsburgh, and excitement ran high here for a time.

It was reported the bones were those of Ezra Moore, who resided in that vicinity, and who disappeared 30 years ago after killing William Smith of Willard and firing at John Conklin, deputy sheriffs, when they went to the home to collect payments he was said to have owed Plymouth dealers for a buggy.

Moore went into the house, ostensibly to obtain the money, but instead reappeared with a shotgun and started shooting.

The bones were covered by about six inches of soil. The land had not been cultivated for several years.

Huron county officials were notified and started an investigation. Saturday morning, deputy sheriffs and a physician examined the bones and declared they were bones of an animal, not human.

CLIONANS WIN TROPHY CUP

Third Successive Victory Gives Permanent Possession of Literary Cup.

The annual cup contest between the Clionan and Orythian Literary societies was held at the high school auditorium Thursday night, April 16, 1931. The contestants performed before a goodly audience. Enthusiasm ran high as the Clionans had won this cup the last two years and a third victory would give them permanent possession of the cup. When the roll was called, almost the entire roster of both clubs answered.

The first events were the Declarations. Hulda Davis was the Orythian entry and Jane DeWitt the Clionian participant. The subject of Hulda's Declaration was "1492," which according to her is one of the important dates in the world's history. Jane's subject was "A Modern Mother Hubbard." Fifty per cent was given for memory and fifty per cent for delivery.

Then came an excellent dual with orations between Eudora Shaver, the Clionian, who talked on "Good Listeners," and Betty Alaskon who gave as an oration a eulogy of the recently deceased Knute Kroeck. Next on the program were two very well written short stories by Dick Webber for the Orythians and Doris Cramer for the Clionians. Jane's oration, the Orythian entry was Ethel Beard and the noble defender of the Clionians was Leola Hackett. Last came the big event, the debate, always saved until the last and is never the least and is generally the deciding event. In the debate, the Clionians had for defenders the star debaters Raymond Brooks, and his colleague, Thelma Fox. The Orythian side of the question was upheld by Lucille Pugh and William Root. The question debated was "The Modern Youth More Reliable Than the Youth of a Generation Ago." There are plenty of angles and twists to this question so the writers of this article will not announce the winners as it might cause some argument.

The contest was held under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association and for judges they selected Superintendent Crouch, Mrs. Crouch and Miss Jessie Cole, all of New Haven. These judges, after all was over totaled their score sheets, and found that the Clionians had come through and had won permanent possession of the Literary cup by getting 1233 points to the 1210 points of the Orythians.

OTT CURPEN'S FORD IS STOLEN—WHEELS MISSED

Ott Curpen's Ford coupe was stolen early Sunday morning, and when later found two wheels were missing. The car was parked out in front of Grandpa Koehne's home, Plymouth street and some time between 3 and 3 o'clock when Mr. Curpen started for home, he discovered that his car was missing.

Passing motorists reported the car being seen near the Arthur Adams home where it had been abandoned by the thieves. In taking the machine the thief released the brakes and let it coast down hill to the Point Filling station before starting the engine.

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION

The Junior-Senior reception that was held in the Plymouth High School Auditorium Friday evening, April 17, 1931 is now just a burning memory to those who attended. Yes, a memory but one of the finest yet known.

The color scheme carried out was that of Black and White, and the Senior class colors. So different were the colors from any ever chosen by a Senior class before many people thought the Juniors would be very successful in attempting to make anything of them, but really I wish you could have had one glimpse of the reception room.

Modernistic paintings in black and white, drawn by our artist, Harry Briggs, hung from all four walls of the room. Across the stage was placed a city sketched in black and white. Lights that flashed first red and then white enhanced the beauty of the scene immensely and the red velvet curtain that fell in beautiful and graceful folds as a background looked very much like the sunset in the west. Wind shadows played across the curtain as the lights flashed on "The City." It was suggested by the young man at my right that that was to be Plymouth in 1958 but it seems hardly likely for that was certainly a most beautiful scene.

Tables that formed a "U" were gaily decorated with the place cards of white with several black streaks across them which looked ever so much like the hard work of some poor spider. Little favors, also in black and white, filled with little dainties, and "nifty" little programs were placed at each place. Along the inside edge of the table was placed a tea rose at each plate; the Senior class flower.

Perhaps, if I were a boy, I would say that that was nothing compared to the four course dinner served. You know they say the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. If this be the case the cooks certainly won the heart of many a handsome youth that evening for it was one of the most delicious dinners I have ever tasted. The service given was also the finest available. Eight Sophomore girls-dressed in white dresses with small black tea aprons and a band of black and white about their heads, eight boys dressed in black pants, white shirts and black bow ties tended the wants of each fair maid and handsome gentleman.

An interesting program was presented by several members of the Junior class and the faculty. Each selection rendered was very interesting and clever. All in keeping with the evening.

An orchestra blared forth dance music for those who cared to dance and for those who did not there was other entertainment offered.

The bright colored gowns of the young ladies and the dark blue suits of their escorts added just that necessary bit of color to the beauty of the banquet.

One selection rendered keeps running through my mind "The End of a Perfect Day." Yes, it was the end of a perfect day and I shall always think of the Junior-Senior reception when I hear the strains of that delightful song and I pray that it will bring back those enduring memories in a very picturesque way in after years.

Ho: "Did you ever find who took your Austin?"
Hum: "No one took it, my kid brother took the tires off and was running it around on his train track."
Julius: "I hear Aurelius was struck by one of the new chariots."
Caesar: "Hit him hard!"
Julius: "I dunno what the down payment was."

Plymouth Loses to Monroeville 79-38

Saturday 18—The Plymouth tracksters only collected four first places in the dual meet at Monroeville against the eight taken by their opponents. Plymouth held their rivals on even terms in the early events and showed an undoubted superiority in the field events, but were woefully weak in the runs, the distance runs in particular. Three of their four firsts were taken in the field. The only first on the track was taken by Harold Ross who topped the high sticks in 21 flat feet without being pushed. In the field Muma took the javelin with a heave of 134 feet, 7 inches, a good mark in a class 'B' meet. He also came in second in the 100 yard dash. The track broad-jumper of Plymouth, H. Long, leaped 18 feet 9 1/2 inches to clinch a first, placing third in the 100 yard dash and the high jump as well. Another good mark of the day was made by Webber who tossed the shot an even 40 feet, and placed second in a fast 220 yard dash, the time was 22.5 seconds which is mighty fast. A new find was discovered in the form of a pole vaulter, J. Dick who copped the bar at 8 feet 1 inch to take a second against the veterans of Monroeville. As this is the first time Dick was ever in a track meet he shows great promise.

The absence of Briggs, the half mile ace, who has never lost a dual meet and Bachrach, 440 and 100 yard dash man, further weakened the P. H. S. squad. One big handicap that looms large however, is that the school has no regular track to develop promising material and consequently only the field events (in which the team shows great strength) can be worked on properly.

Point collectors for Plymouth were Muma 8, Long 7, Webber 9, Ross 5, Dick 3, Henry 2, and Storck, St. Clair, Fox, and Bidinger each scored 1 apple.

100 yard dash Boehler (M) first; Muma (P) second; Long (P) third. Time 11.2.
220 yard dash, Boehler (M) first; Webber (P) second; Shug (M) third. Time 22.5.
440 yard dash, Wangler (M) 1st; Heyman (M) 2nd; St. Clair (P) 3rd. Time 57.6.

1 mile run, Grimmer (M) 1st; Underhill (M) 2nd; Bidinger (P) 3rd. Time 5:19.
220 low hurdles, Schuy (M) 1st; Derringer (M) 2nd; Henry (P) 3rd. Time 27.4.
120 high hurdles, Ross (P) 1st; Schuy (M) 2nd; Henry (P) 3rd. Time 21.2.

Shot put, Webber (P) 1st; Stots (M) 2nd; Underhill (M) 3rd. 46 feet.
Discus, Underhill (M) 1st; Newberger (M) 2nd; Webber (P) 3rd. 98.9 feet.
Javelin, Muma (P) 1st; Schuy (M) 2nd; Underhill (M) 3rd. 134.7 feet.

High jump, Schuy and Derringer (M) 1st; Long (P) 3rd. 411 feet.
Broad jump, Long (P) 1st; Derringer (M) 2nd; Heyman (M) 3rd. 18.9 feet.
880 yard dash, Wangler (M) 1st; Heyman (M) 2nd; Fox (P) 3rd. Time 2:14.
Pole vault, Coburn (M) 1st; Dick (P) 2nd; Storck (P) 3rd. 8:10 feet.

P. H. S. SOCIABLES

Mr. and Mrs. Murlin attended the Castamba Theatre Sunday afternoon. David Bachrach motored to Yellow Springs Saturday.
Karl Gleason and Vincent Taylor were in Norwalk, Sunday.
Jane Bachrach was a Columbus shopper Saturday.
Loise Grabach was in Willard Sunday.
Ruth LeBold and Doris Hatch were in Shelby at the Castamba, Sunday afternoon.
Eleanor Snyder of New Haven visited Helen Williamson over the week end.

THE SCHOOL LAWN

I suppose everyone has heard about the school lawn, but if they haven't, they will.

Last fall, rye was planted on the ground in front of the high school. Rye, as you know, is a very good foundation for lawn seed and so the school board decided to plant rye and did plant it. While the snow was yet on the ground, Mr. Frank Davis took up on himself the job of the task of sowing the grass seed.

Well, a week or more ago, the grass began to grow. The school board was then confronted with the problem of a lawn mower. They decided to buy a new power lawn mower. Which they did and they got the kind of mowing the lawn to our honorable janitor, Chris Sheely. Mr. Sheely very kindly accepted this position and has broken in the new lawn mower all ready. As the rye is steadily growing it looks like Chris will have a busy season ahead of him.

CLUBS

The Latin, Science and Commercial clubs met last week. No program was given at the Latin club, but further development was made towards the play for the coming year. The science play will be given Wednesday morning in chapel, and it is in Latin dialogue. The Science club consisted of further plans for a program, and some of the boys worked with their radios.

Two reports were given in the Commercial club, by Marguerite Drew and the other by Freddie Keeler.

MAY DAY INVITATION

To the people of Plymouth we extend an invitation.

For one and all, to a wondrous celebration.

The May Queen is coming, with attendants to gay.

The Fairies, Brownies, Flowers and others are on their way.

They'll dance and sing for your delight.

They'll frolic and skip on May first night.

So come to the high school auditorium and hear the most wonderful entertainment of all the year.

MAYFLOWER NEWS

April 23, yes today is the 23rd, and it means only three weeks until the biggest and best little book of the year will be here on sale. Anyway that's what the Seniors' think and they have sufficient reason to think so because they have worked hard to make it the greatest in P. H. S. history. This book contains pictures and writings which you will be proud to show to the generations to come.

If you are ever asked what Plymouth high school does during the school year just advise anyone to buy a Mayflower from any Senior and it will give them a complete synopsis of what has happened in 1931. Our object will be to have our book as much yours as it is ours and for you to become as interested in the activities of the pupils as they are themselves.

Don't forget we will be looking forward to seeing a Mayflower placed in your possession around May 15.

CALENDAR

Week of April 13-18:
Monday—Latin II test.
Wednesday—Chapel.
Friday—The Junior-Senior banquet.
Saturday—Track meet at Monroeville.

GIRLS SPORTS

During such nice spring weather, why wouldn't one wish to take a long hike? The high school girls took a hike Thursday but it wasn't such a long one for you know our physical education period is rather short.

On Thursday volleyball was the physical education activity. Two teams were chosen, one named "A" the other "B." Well anyway, the "B" team won 10-6. There were no outsiders, but everyone seemed to enjoy the game for there was much yelling being in the gym.

Opal Sourwine, who will be a Senior next year, was elected captain of the girls' basketball team for the coming year. Opal proved to be quite a star this year and we certainly hope she continues next season.

Most of the 1930-31 squad will graduate in May but we still have a few players left but only two who played on the first team. They are: Captain-elect Opal Sourwine, that swift forward, who seemed to cover the whole floor and drop in the baskets besides; and Betty Aslakson, a speedy little guard who intercepted so many of our opponents' passes. Then there is Ellen Anderson whom we saw quite a bit of this year. She has the size and has she got an eye for the basket!

To sum up everything we expect to have a good team next year, we may be county champs! Who knows? Let's hope for the best anyway. What'd ya say?

Elmer: I could die dancing.
Pete: Excuse me while I speak to the orchestra leader.

JOKES

Guide: "Why didn't you shoot that tiger?"
Timid One: "He didn't have the right expression on his face."
One: "And to what do you owe your success as a salesman?"
Two: "Is your mother in?"
Jim Root: "If your brakes failed to work going down hill, what would you do?"

Mr. Murlin: Whew! That hoking I just gave you tired me all out.
Scotty: Yeah! But you can sit down and rest.
Miss Pancoast: Pupils, you will please note that the first two verses of my poem are laid in a cemetery!
Harold Miller: Yeah! That's where the poet should be!

Interesting Sidelights of Delphi Happenings as Told by G. C. Catlin

Much Activity is Noted Among Our Farmer Friends; Post Office Changes Effective May 1; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCullough Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary.

Sowing oats and making garden is our greatest concern. S. C. Howard is laying the blocks for the John Hankamer garage in North Fairfield this week.

C. G. Howard built a two story hog house last week. The upper story to be used for feed storage purposes.

M. T. Huff has all material on the ground for the erection of a double garage to take the place of his barn, recently destroyed by fire.

Contractors from Attila will begin the erection of a large bank barn and covered barn yard for W. C. Gleason, May 1st, 1931.

In our journeys over the township we noticed the hotbeds of G. T. Scane, Harry O. Pittenger, Hündel and son and Carl Blacker are showing great activity in sprouting seed and growing garden vegetables for early use.

Section Foreman Everett Perry moved his family from the Delphi corners to the former Myers property east of the center of Ripley. We feel sorry to have our splendid neighbors go from our midst but our loss will be others gain. Good neighbors are all over Ripley.

So it goes, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Branner have moved into the home bought of Mr. Perry and are already helpful citizens. May great success be theirs at the Delphi gas station.

This item should be carefully noted that all subscribers of papers and magazines and correspondence of what ever kind should notify the editors this week and they will see to it that there will be no hitch in the prompt arrival of your papers May 1st.

There will be two routes out of Willard into Ripley. We understand the patrons living on the route from Congers corners to Duffy's south thence through Delphi around the old route to Boughtonville east and north to the Fairfield line and west to Congers will be R. D. one. The R. D. 2 will come into Boughtonville from the west and pass out over the Greenwich, road. Boughtonville remains a post office. Should any mail come there for you the postmaster and carriers will arrange for you to get it.

Mrs. Flora Case Ward is moving her household goods from her Mansfield home to her recently remodeled house on south Main street, Delphi. She will rent her Mansfield property.

Miss Gertrude Silliman, who recently graduated from the Oberlin Business College, has accepted a position with a Norwalk firm. She left for the county seat Monday morning. We wish her success.

We trust our friends will not forget their personal property tax questionnaires. There is a penalty and a forfeit of the $100 after May 1st.

Stark Brothers Nurseries are now making their spring deliveries of very fine quality stock.

An old style debate was on the program at the last meeting of the P. T. A.: Resolved, that modern improved machinery was the cause of the present financial depression and unemployment. The arguments were finely drawn, practically hair-splitting and interesting on both sides. Speakers, affirmatively, Sara Belle Fife and S. C. Shumann; negative, Belle Cole and S. C. Catlin. Decision in favor of the neg.

Fifty years of married life was celebrated by Joseph W. McCullough and Eliza Reed McCullough Saturday, April 18, 1931. A sumptuous feast was served by the children. A gala day was spent.

At The Churches

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Maynard Stull, Pastor
Sunday School 10 a. m., Harry Davidson, supt.
Morning worship 11. Sermon by the pastor, "Duty as the Christian Sees It."

Choir practice Friday, 7:30 p. m. Interesting indeed in such conditions as we find facing us at present are these words from the farewell address of Washington: "Of all the dispositions and habits, which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism, who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of men and citizens." The church has always been looked to for the highest contributions to the moral and religious life of the nation. Let's give it our cooperation and assist it in answering the needs of our present world.

PLYMOUTH M. E. CHURCH

The regular monthly meeting of the W. H. M. S. has been postponed from Friday, April 24th, to Friday afternoon May 1st.

Norwalk district conference will be held at Huron, Ohio, forenoon and afternoon only, May the 5th. A representation of laymen is desired.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

J. W. Miller, Minister
Sunday, April 26

Our conception of value depends upon our viewpoint. Regarding man as an atom in the immeasurable universe or his three score years and ten as a mere moment in the great eternity, we must explain with David, the Hebrew poet, "What is man that Thou art mindful of him, or the son of man that thou visitest him?" If on the other hand, we see man as a master of the universe, setting upon his secret forces and making them his servants; to all but infinite heights of mental achievement and moral excellence; living now again and again a life of self-obliteration and triumphant heroism, and standing amid the contending forces of human history to drive the chariot of progress over toward the goal of better things; then do we not realize that Jesus was right when he implied in the words of the Scripture that infinite stretches of value intervened between the worth of a man and the worth of a sheep? "The Worth of Man," will be the subject for next Sunday's service at 11 a. m. Bible School at 10 a. m. with special features.
