At a continued meeting of the regular monthly session held on Monday afternoon the village council voted to accept the settlement of $1700.91 offered by the Fidelity & Casualty Co. of New York in the case of Albert E. Marvin, former village clerk.

RED CROSS DRIVE GETS UNDER WAY

The Annual Red Cross Roll Call is under way in Plymouth. Once again the people of our town are being invited to assist in the care of the needy, the rehabilitation of the homeless, the relief of flood and disaster victims.

The workers who have reported so far are a welcome reminder wherever they go. The response has been so great that some of them have had to return to headquarters for additional materials. These signs indicate that once again Plymouth is going to go over the top, exceed its quota and thus do its share to keep Richland County at the banner counties in the State and nation.

Open your hearts to the call of the Red Cross. You cannot invest a dollar in a more worthy and worthwhile cause.

AKERS FUNERAL HELD MONDAY

Well-Known Resident Dies Suddenly Friday Morning Following a Stroke Late Thursday Afternoon.

There always comes the hour when the picture is finished, and the brushes are put down. On Friday, November 10th, 1939, Lafayette Akers, at the age of 75 years, quietly closed his eyes and was at peace.

He was born on May 17, 1864 on a farm in Auburn Township of Crawford County the son of Nancy Juliette Wood Akers and Alexander Akers. He spent his boyhood in the country, and later when a young man, attended Ada College, at Ada, Ohio.

On the date of March 20, 1890, Bertha Adele Ross became his wife, and the young couple began their housekeeping at a farm home in Crawford County. To this union were born three daughters, and three sons.

At an early age Lafayette united with the McKendree Church of Methodist denomination, which was located west of Plymouth, and which has since been united with the Plymouth Methodist Church.

Twenty-two years ago the family moved to Plymouth and took up residence at a new home on West Broadway and where the deceased lived until taken by death. While a citizen of the community Lafayette Akers maintained an active interest in all local civic activities, and his circle of friends in the village was large. He served the community as a member of the Plymouth Council, and at one time was Plymouth's only photographer, being well known for his fine photo enlarging.

His ardent love for the Arts enriched many lives besides his own, and his paintings hang in many homes where his memory will never die. Through his art and his painting he has taught that the artistic and the beautiful and the common neighborly life are lived together. In his earlier years Lafayette also took part in many debates at the Beswood school, debating being one of the higher accomplishments of youth, and in which he excelled.

For the past five years his health has declined steadily, although he tried to be active among friends. However, his heart became affected by an asthmatic condition, and death followed a stroke.

Leaving him in death were two children, Oma M. Akers Pettit, and Teddy Akers, and one granddaughter, Irene Pettit Somerlot.

Surviving is his widow, Bertha, two daughters, Mildred E. Chorpensing, of Ashland, Helen, at home; two sons, Donald, at home, and Byron A., of near Plymouth. He is also survived by nine grandchildren, and one great granddaughter, besides numerous relatives. Paul Chorpensing, near Chicago, who is attending Drake University at Des Moines, Iowa, was unable to be present at the services Monday. Mr. Chorpensing spent two summers here, and was intimately attached to his grandmother.

To his family and his friends, Lafayette Akers "is not dead. He is just away! With a cheery smile and a wave he has wandered into an unknown land."

And let us dreaming how very sad it needs must be, since he lingers there. And you—oh, you, who the wild-cats are, who are the wild-cats. For the old-time step and the glad return.

Think of him faring on, as dear in the love of There, as the love of Here. Think of him still as the same, I say. He is not dead—he is just away!

BRINGS HOME THE GAME

It is not only boys that like hunting, but girls have a weakness for the sport. After some target practice, Miss Jane Lippus, sophomore in high school, prevailed upon her father, H. J. Lippus, to get her a shot gun and hunting license and take her along on a hunting trip, which he did.

And did Jane shoot rabbits, out of the first three shots she killed two rabbits, and her father, H. J. Lippus, to even an experienced hunter would envy such luck.

CORRECTIONS ON THE ELECTION

Cemetery Levy Failed to Carry the Proper Majority of Votes; Must Have 65 Per Cent. The one mill levy which was voted on Nov. 7, failed to carry, as the law requires 65 per cent of the number of votes polled. The total votes polled was 569. The number voting for the one mill cemetery levy was 286, while 242 voted against the levy. A total of 369 votes was needed to pass the levy.

Inasmuch as the issue failed to receive 65 per cent of the popular vote, the levy will not become active. However, it is presumed that the issue will again be put to the voters in 1940.

In the rush to compile election figures the race for Village Treasurer was overlooked. The office, for which three candidates were seeking, was filled by Mary Chappell, present incumbent. The tabulation of the race is as follows:

Pre-Pre-Total	Pre-Pre-Total
Mary Chappell... 136	83
May Fleming... 107	117
Mrs. Seasholtz... 65	36

The biggest excitement came, however, when Pat Williams of Mansfield, handed Ryan a defeat. Ryan also gave an exhibition of checker play, winning and losing. He took on five players, including two of those who had previously drawn with him, and played four games, winning every one.

About 100 checker fans came to the meet from Willard, Plymouth, Mansfield, Ashland, Spencer, Elmira, Wellington and New London. Two of the players were ten years old, Russell Keith of New London, and Benny Wildman of Birmingham.

Plymouth Clinches Victory In Blaze of Glory as Season Ends

LOCAL LADS OF THE GRID-IRON MAKE RECORD SCORE IN TOUGH TUGGLE WITH NORTH FAIRFIELD.

On Tuesday, Fairfield's strong aggregation of football players came to Plymouth to play the final game of the season for both teams. The score of 31 to 6 with Plymouth on the long end of the score, does not indicate the intensity of the play, as each team did itself credit with its line plunging, passing and tackling.

At the outset, Hough won the toss and chose to defend the South goal. The following is a play by play description of the game.

Fairfield kicked off to Hough on the five yard line, who turned the ball to Plymouth's fifteen yard line. A long pass, Hough to Kitchin, netted the first touchdown. Try for extra point failed. Score at the end of the first minute Plymouth 6—Fairfield 0.

Plymouth kicked off to the 5 yard line and the ball was returned to Fairfield's 20 yard line. Fairfield's pass was good for a 15 yard gain. A run was the basis of the struggle. Moore was blocked and recovered by Plymouth. Cunningham lost 1 yard through center. Joe Moore was stopped at the line. Miller then passed with no good because of being caught in the end zone. Fairfield took the ball on downs on their own 3 yard line. Jenny made no gain on the line. Miller gathered 3 in a line plunge. Miller then punted out of bounds on Fairfield's 30 yard line where Nick Hough's pass was intercepted. Hough's pass was intercepted by Jenny who returned it to Plymouth's 37 yard line. Miller passed to Plymouth's 10 yard line, where another pass was grounded. Jenny then made 3 yards through center. Miller then passed to Seiple for a touchdown. Try for point failed. Score Plymouth 6—Fairfield 6.

At this time a complete new team was substituted by Fairfield. McKee then kicked off to Kitchin who returned to Plymouth's 25 yard line. Hough then passed to the Fairfield 22 yard mark. Hough then scampered to the 15 yard stripe. A pass, Hough to Martin failed. Hough then lateral to B. Moore who ran to the 10 yard line. Another pass was grounded in the end zone. Fairfield then took possession of the ball on the 30 yard line where a pass was attempted and the pass was lost the ball, having been tackled by three red and white garbed men.

The second quarter showed Plymouth on Fairfield's 5 yard mark. At this point a fumble was recovered by Fairfield. Funk made 3 through center. Funk passed to Charney who fumbled on being tackled. Cunningham recovered. Hough then carried to Fairfield's 10 yard line. Cunningham skirted end for 5 yards. A pass was invalid in Plymouth was off side. A Hough to Huffman pass was no good. Cunningham then scampered around right end for a touchdown. The try for extra point was good. Score Plymouth 13—Fairfield 6.

Kitchin then propelled the ball to the Fairfield 10 yard line, which he carried back to their own 30 yard stripe. Seiple gained 5. A quick kick caught Plymouth off guard and was grounded on Plymouth's 20 yard ribbon. Kitchin then returned the compliment, where the ball was grounded on Fairfield's 20, where a bobble by Fairfield was recovered by Plymouth. Hough then gained 3. Moore's fumble was recovered by Fairfield. Jenny's pass was grounded. Fairfield then punted to Plymouth's 20 yard line where Hough received interference and side stepping went up the East side of the field for the 3rd touchdown. Extra point failed. Score — Plymouth 19—Fairfield 6.

Plymouth then kicked off to the 25. Miller carried to the 33. Jenny advanced 3 more followed by a pass good for 30 yards. Another pass good for 5 yards was registered. Two passes were knocked down. Miller then carried to the 4 yard stripe and then to the 5 yard line. Miller's pass was intercepted by Cunningham who ran to his own 10 yard line. Kitchin then punted to the Fairfield 40 yard stripe as the half ended.

SECOND HALF
Plymouth kicked off to the 10 yard line and the ball was returned to Fairfield's own 22 yard line. Borge then gained 2 thru the line. A pass was incomplete followed by another which was knocked down by Hough. Miller then kicked out of bounds on Plymouth's 38. A pass was incomplete and Cunningham bobbed on the next play. Kitchin then booted to Fairfield's 15 yard line. A Miller to Burdige pass was good for 20 yards. Another pass was attempted and failed. Miller then skirted left end for 12 yards. Two passes failed and the ball went to Plymouth. Plymouth passed but did not connect. R. Myers entered the game and ran 12 yards around left end. Kitchin then quick kicked to Fairfield's yard stripe. Fairfield then gained 15 by the aerial route. Miller then gained 3 more. Miller then punted to Hough who returned the ball for a touchdown. The try for extra point failed. Score—Plymouth 25—Fairfield 6.

Kitchin then kicked off to Miller who returned to the 30. Two passes failed. Fairfield then booted to Plymouth's 20 yard line. Kitchin then booted to the Blue and White 20. Jenny then booted to Plymouth's 5 when it was returned to the 15. A pass was incomplete, and then Moore made 10 through center. Hough then made first down as the quarter ended.

FOURTH QUARTER
Hough's pass was intercepted on Plymouth's 38. Borge made 3. Jenny plunged for 6 more. Borge's pass carried the ball to Plymouth's 10 yard stripe. Another pass was intercepted by Cunningham. He then carried the ball to the 35 yard line. Moore lost 5 yards and then Kitchin booted to Fairfield's 30. Fairfield then tried 3 passes after which Plymouth took the ball on downs. Hough then twisted, turned, sidestepped and ran for another touchdown. The attempt for extra point failed. Score Plymouth 31—Fairfield 6.

Kitchin then kicked to the Fairfield 5 and the ball was returned to Plymouth's 30 yard line. Jenny made 5 and once more made 8. Myers then intercepted a pass. Kitchin then booted to the Blue and White 10 yard stripe. Miller's pass failed. Jenny then made 5 around left end. Several passes failed and the ball was taken by Plymouth by way of interception as the game ended.

Final Score—Plymouth 31. N. Fairfield 6.
Each player on both teams did themselves credit. If the boys on the line do not receive as much publicity as others, it must be remembered that they must take the bumps, and keep the opponents from interfering with the backfield each deserve a pat on the back for their efforts and above all their cooperation. Coaches teach and train the boys, but it is the boy who plays the game. All honor to the boys and their instructors for playing good, clean, and hard fought games. We appreciate very much the loud speaker furnished by Mr. Ed Ramsey, and the announcing by James Root. It was very inspiring and we want you two men to know the school is very grateful. We know you enjoy clear sports.

To Rev. Wolf we extend our thanks for his work as umpire and headman in our football games. We know you appreciate good clean sports and your attitude inspires us.

We thank the business men and patrons who have allowed us the privilege of playing this game. We heartily thank you. Thanks a thousand times.

RICHLAND TO EXHIBIT AT LIVE STOCK EXPO.

Entries from Richland County for the 1939 International Live Stock Exposition, to be held at Chicago, December 2 to 9, were made this week by Maxwilton Farms, of Mansfield, and by Carl Strander, also of Mansfield. Maxwilton Farms, nationally known for their herds of purebred Shorthorn cattle, will exhibit in the center for this breed, as will Mr. Strander.

A record-breaking entry in all classes is predicted by the management when a final tally of exhibits is made later in the month. They report that the advance entry has set the heaviest in the history of the show, with exhibits listed to date by exhibitors from 45 states and four Canadian provinces. High prizes exceeding $100,000 will be paid to exhibitors this year in contests featuring 30 breeds of live stock. The total entry is expected to be well over 12,000 animals.

One of the big features of the exposition is the International Grain and Hay Show, which will be held for the 21st time this year according to the officials of this event, which includes competition for corn, small grain, seeds and other entries will be accepted until November 20 and are made free of charge to the grower.

A BOOKWORM'S NOTATIONS

October is over — October, the month of gorgeous colors, falling leaves, bonfires, smokes, trailing lazily across the blue sky. And October is also the month the Plymouth Library can count about for during the autumn days the number of books leaving the library shelves kept coming up and up until the final day 1939 was the total circulation. And that is a record of which to be proud.

Parents! Teach your children the value of the children's table and book rack in the library. There is already fine circulation of children's books but too often the parents do not appreciate just what a good collection of juvenile reading material there is at hand. Out of a total of 60 children's books the library retains on the reading table an average of 12—these are enriching some growing mind. And I'll whisper this—these children's books are quite interesting even for adults to look over. It shows what an advance has been made in the field of juvenile literature.

Are you tired of reading about Hitler in the newspapers? Why don't you read what he has to say about himself? His book "Mein Kampf" is at your service at the Plymouth Library, and a great many people are prophesying his next move from his statements in this book.

For Movie Fans—"Footnotes to the Films" is the promise of an entertaining evening.

"Christ in Concrete" by Pietro Di Donato, whose work with bricks and concrete and the people who labor with them inspired the writing, is highly recommended.

Stefan Zweig, author of a number of famous biographies, one of them being "Marie Antoinette," is now offering for your fiction list "Beware of Pity," and the reviews praise this work as highly as his earlier writings.

Well, the Bookworm will crawl on until some other week when it will again report of the mental vitamins in other volumes.
