

HURON COUNTY MUSIC FESTIVAL WILL BE HELD AT NEW HAVEN

The annual Huron county musical festival presented by the seven class B High schools of the county, will be held this year at New Haven High school, located at the intersection of Routes 224 and 61, on Friday, Dec. 6.

Prof. Carl O. Lenz, instructor of the orchestra and band at the Monroeville High school, has been engaged to direct the grouped orchestra composed of approximately 108 musicians from the seven schools. There will be several numbers presented by this large orchestra and fifteen students will represent the Monroeville school in this division, according to Superintendent W. J. Alexander.

The massed chorus selected from the boys and girls grade clubs of the schools will render several vocal numbers under the direction of Prof. Winkler of Oberlin. Last week Mr. Winkler visited the seven participating schools and conducted rehearsals of the individual groups.

The schools each year strive to win the attendance banner, given to the school bringing the largest audience from the respective towns. Schools that will take part in the festival are Greenwich, Monroeville, New Haven, New London, North Fairhead, Collins, Townsend and Wakefield.

Presbyterian Choir To Present Cantata

The car struck the side of a Northern Ohio train at the crossing in North Auburn.

The driver received minor injuries and the car was badly damaged.

COL. WILLIAMS SPEAKS HERE

To a small but appreciative audience Col. Williams spoke in the high school auditorium last Friday evening. The speaker came to Plymouth from Toledo. Some of the points of interest substantiating his Theory of Aviation might be given as follows: Men flew for the purpose of trying out their ideas and proving that his theory was correct. Few of our funders of aviation could conceive of it as it is at the present time. Too many people just see the airplane going through the air and call it aviation. Aviation to the flyer and industry is an industry and men must be trained to perpetuate this work. Men must be trained for ground work as well as flying for every private or civilian there must be seven persons employed; for each commercial aviator there must be seventeen; for each transport pilot, twenty must be employed; and for each pilot, thirty must be employed.

Our problem in America is not one of securing pilots, but training men sufficiently to keep these pilots in the air, whether they are flying 200,000 men and women who are trained and skilled in aviation. Danger seemingly has passed in aviation as well as other transportation methods. In the 21 months prior to the accident at Salt Lake City, which was caused by faulty radio beam, and the Washington accident, which was caused by lightning, 640,000 passenger miles were flown without one single accident. Speed is no item in the air. There is no reaction to it as nothing appears to gauge your speed.

Col. Williams has made 64,000 take-offs and landings; has been in the air 15,000 hours and has carried 68,000 passengers in his life. In his flight to Rome from Maine in 1929, the only question in his mind was whether he was flying and that is the reason why the national government, knowing that he was ready, has chosen him as its personal flight instructor in streamline training carried on in Toledo.

As keepings with the United States government's desire to place as many young people as possible in this industry, the Williams Aircraft corporation has set aside the majority of its program for the time being, to bring aeronautical education to the entire nation. The coordinator today and tomorrow.

RELEASE XMAS CLUB CHECKS

Three hundred and sixty-five million dollars are being distributed to more than seven and one-half million Christmas Club members by approximately forty-eight hundred banking and savings institutions and other organizations during National Prosperity Week, which started Monday, Dec. 2, according to an estimate given out by Herbert B. Rawll, founder and president of the Christmas Club, a corporation, sponsors of National Prosperity Week.

The total distribution for 1940 is about 4.3 per cent in excess of 1939. The estimates are based on a statistical number of reports received from institutions operating the Christmas Club plan in different sections of the country. The average distribution per member amounts to $48.50 as against $48.80 for 1939. Locally, approximately $4500 in Christmas checks were placed in the mails over the latter part of the week by The Peoples National Bank of Plymouth. A big portion of this amount will find its way into business channels for Christmas purchases; some will go into permanent savings, while portions will be used to pay the year-end bills, taxes, insurance premiums, etc.

The Peoples National Bank announces that new clubs will be opened next week, raising the total to $5 or $10 per week. Those who have enjoyed the advantages of systematic savings will no doubt be among the first to again open their clubs.

THREE MEN GET THREE DEER ON TRIP

Leaving Plymouth on Monday morning, Nov. 25, three Plymouth men, E. W. Heath, Wm. Root and Paul Root, motored to Manitou Island, Mich., on what was described as "topps" in the way of deer hunting.

Manitou Island is privately owned, and has been plentifully stocked with deer for the past several years. It was necessary for the party to get to the Island by plane, taking off from Traverse City.

Tuesday afternoon was the first time out, and only two hours later Wm. Root, who proved to be the expert marksmen of the trip, had bagged a 10-point buck, weighing 70 lbs. Root had made a clean shot that found its mark right between the eyes.

Paul Root and E. W. Heath had difficulty in getting their deer. Several times they failed to get their buck, but in the end, each of them finished the hunt with a doe; Heath's weighing 125 lbs. and Paul's tipped the scale at 140 pounds.

Heath, who says this is his first hunting trip for some time, stated that Wednesday afternoon he took a shot at a buck, but it did not prove fatal. Accompanying him was an Indian guide, and both of them started to track the wounded deer. All afternoon E. W. kept ahead of the Indian guide, who at sundown, was just at the point of exhaustion. After hours of weary walking the guide finally overtook Mr. Heath and in a disgruntled manner said to him: "Hu, you Indian, too!" The Indian stated that of all the white men he had guided through the forests, that Mr. Heath was the fastest walker of them all, and offered him a place on the camp staff as a guide.

Paul Root and E. W. Heath had been eye and a steady nerve. stated that the several shots he missed was no doubt due to his nervousness, for as he sighted his gun and saw the impression on the deer's face, he closed his eyes as he pulled the trigger. This accounts for missing several fine deer.

Heath in all the trip was a delightful one, and local sportsmen took a great delight in looking over the deer.

City of New Orleans Likes Its Fireworks In Christmas Season

have benighted himself the day before, firecrackers have taken a great drop in price. He must have a new supply because they are cheap.

Now the juveniles grow restless. Whole packages of firecrackers go off at one fall blow; those who were firecracker boys yesterday are skyrocketers today. At night comes on, the streets seem ablaze with explosives and colored rockets.

The second morning after Christmas the streets are strewn thick with burned pieces of fireworks; but the air is clear. The acrid odor of fireworks is again replaced by the perfume of Christmas trees.

Sugar and Water Stops Fall Of Christmas Tree Needles

It's easy to stop the fall of Christmas tree needles. Saw off a portion of the tree's base—enough so the fresh wood will be exposed. Set a shallow pan of water beneath the base of the tree, in which the base should be immersed. A teaspoonful of sugar should be added to the water. The water provides needed moisture and the sugar nourishes the needles, giving them strength to hold on longer.

French Village Portrays

Story of Christ's Birth Les Baux in France, a village of shepherds, puts on one of the most dramatic Christmas celebrations in the world, and has done it yearly for over a thousand years. The peasants set out the whole Bethlehem story, Joseph and Mary drive into the "City of David" with real oxen. Thousands of visitors come every Christmas eve to see the event.

CHARM OF CHRISTMAS

The chief charm of Christmas is its simplicity. It is a festival that appeals to everyone because everyone can understand it. A genuine fellowship pervades our common life—a fellowship whose source is our common share in the world's greatest gift which was given to the whole world—Kimball.

Christmas without firecrackers, just isn't Christmas down in New Orleans.

"If anybody not got no firework 'n mighty po," say the Creoles gayly. The more the fireworks, the better the Christmas on the lower side of Canal street.

While other people are shooting off fireworks on July 4, New Orleans is sweating under intense heat. Outside activities are out of the question.

With noisy July 4 festivities out of the question, it was easy to begin celebrating Christmas, instead, with the firing of skyrockets, Roman candles and firecrackers. Once started, there was no stopping it.

Shooting starts several weeks before Christmas, and every night the tumult increases. Parents consistently caution their children to save the firecrackers until the twenty-first, because they won't get any more. The boys and girls refuse to believe this prophecy, but feel that Providence will not allow them to go crackleless.

Even the almost penniless have firecrackers, but the more wealthy buy the envy of others with their rockets.

Enthusiasm is not limited to the young boys, but it is shared by the entire family. Boys and girls parade up and down the streets at night, making a racket with tin trumpets and "instruments" they picked up on the way. They ring doorbells, then run away with joyful laughter. The sky is lighted up with rockets and firecrackers best a constant staccato.

The fun begins again the next morning, with greater enthusiasm than ever. Although a boy may Address—Dr. Russell V. Bollinger, head of Psychology Dept., at Ashland College.

Reading and approval of the County Teachers' Constitution, Mr. Wickliffe, Lexington school.

The program committee, consisted of Mr. Joseph, superintendent of Shiloh school (chairman), Sherman Molt, of Plymouth, and Miss Florence Wareham of Butler schools.

F. F. A. NEWS

The F. F. A. wishes to express appreciation to Mr. Joseph for recommending to the school board for the purchase of two dozen new chairs for our room.

These chairs were badly needed and we feel they improve the looks of our agricultural room very much. They are Al quality, consequently they are fine chairs and will last many years.

CHAPEL NEWS

We had a good chapel program last week on Wednesday afternoon. The band played as we entered the auditorium. We sang two hymns after which Miriam Hoffman read the Scriptures. Rev. Wintermute then gave us an interesting talk entitled: "Sowing Seeds." We then sang a hymn. Then the band played as we left the auditorium.

This week Mr. Edgerly, superintendent of Bellville High school will be our guest speaker.

TEACHER ILL

It seems as though our teachers are having a streak of ill health. Last week Miss West was home sick and now Miss Hamly is home seriously ill. We all hope that Miss Hamly will soon be back with us.

FROSH!

The 9th grade English class has elected officers again! They are as follows:

President—Frank Cline.

Vice president—Clyde Myers.

Secretary—Harold Bricker.

These officers will serve for a month. The program Friday was a topic on his experiences or an invention. There were some very interesting speeches.

7TH GRADE NEWS

The members of the seventh grade English class have been busy watching their grammar for the last week. "The Fastest Speech Week," which ended last Friday, was won by Doris Garrett's team. The winning team had a total of 59 points against Edward Clark's team, which had a total of 48 points.

Beginning this week, our English is not only checked, but also the number of times we talk out loud out of turn in the class at home room. This contest will end on Thursday, Dec. 19, when the losing team will give a party for the winning team. The captains are Harry Meek and Billy Halliwell.

This contest has been very successful so far and we all are learning to watch our choice of words as well as our talking or whispering too loudly.

HOME ECONOMICS CLASS TAKES A TRIP

On November 27, the Home Economics apartment was to buy a variety of materials from which they might see the different kinds of materials from which they might decide what kind of a dress they want to make. We applauded the talks of different clerks at different materials. Visiting 5 and 10 cent stores was also great fun.

We wish to thank Miss Pettit for this opportunity and appreciate her kindness for finding a means of transportation.

CHEER LEADERS

After the chapel program Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 27, we had try-outs for cheer leaders. There were twelve candidates who tried for the position. They performed very well. The Athletic Association then elected the new cheer leaders who are Kathleen James and Janice Moser. There were close results and the members of the Athletic Association voted three times before the two winners received the majority. We see the role of a cheer leader has to receive the majority of the votes before they are considered to be elected. The candidates were as follows: Doris Reynolds, Janice Moser, Marcella Clark, Charles Seaton, Donna Hoffman, Joan Hoffman, Delbert Carrick, Billy Halliwell, Joan Guthrie, Mary Benedict, Margy Benedict, and Kathleen James.

Let us assist the new cheer leaders in cheering our boys to victory.

P. T. A. NEWS

The P. T. A. had their annual meeting Monday evening at eight o'clock, Dec. 2. A very interesting and entertaining program was given. The program was as follows:

Band Music—Mr. Sqirk.

Music Selections—Shenandoah Male Quartet.

Music—Marilyn Joyce Peters, Mansfield, Ohio.

One Act Play—"Grounds for Murder"—Senior English Class, Miss West, director.

Music—Fidler Boys.

Musical Selections—Shenandoah Male Quartet.

Music—Marilyn Joyce Peters Community Singing—Mrs. Wolfenberger, Chorister, Miss Floy Rose, pianist.

After this program the business meeting was held. The P. T. A. extends a welcome to anyone who wishes to come to their meetings.

SENIOR CLASS NEWS

Several members of the Senior Class gave a play at the P. T. A. meeting Monday night, Dec. 2nd. The play was "Grounds for Murder," and the meaning behind it was: "Always be courteous!"

The cast was as follows:

Mother.... Grace Guthrie
 Father.... John Haden
 Flo.... Miriam Hoffman
 Wade.... Chas. Harrington

The play was a big success and the rest of the class are very proud of the cast. We have been studying One Act plays and were glad of the chance to show our parents just what we have been doing in English.

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves held their November meeting, Nov. 28, at the high school auditorium. We had a very interesting program. Doris Reynolds and Leona Wine had charge of the program. Our guest speaker was Mrs. Middleton from Mansfield. She gave a talk on the origin of Indian songs. She told many interesting tales about the different songs she played and sang. After refreshments we all gathered at the piano and sang the different songs with her. All of those present enjoyed her very much and hope to have her out again.

Eileen Miller also played her clarinet and the whole program was enjoyed by all.

SHILOH DRUMMER BOYS OPEN SEASON WITH WIN

On Friday, Nov. 29, the Drummer Boys opened their season with two wins by beating North Fairfield.

The Shiloh Reserves took an easy one from North Fairfield by the score of 19-6. In this game Coach Richards used a number of boys trying to find a combination that would click during the season. The different combinations used were able to defeat the North Fairfield reserves.

The first game was quite different than that of the Reserves. Both coaches used a number of different combinations. The North Fairfield aggregation led Shiloh up to the last three minutes of play when Shiloh forged ahead with the score of 20-22. This lead was unchanged during the remainder of the game, giving Shiloh the opening victory.

It was quite evident that the short practice period between football and basketball caused the boys to play a ragged game of ball. After Mr. Richards has a chance to polish off rough edges we hope to see a smooth running team. More power to you, boys!

It seems Miriam Hoffman does not know how to shoot a gun for in play practice, "Grounds for Murder," she fell when she shot her victim.

Christmas Week Offers Chance to Predict Weather

Weather prognosticators have found means of forecasting most of the coming year's weather by cocking an eye at the sky during Christmas week. You may not believe them, but here are a few of the varied—and conflicting—beliefs about Christmas weather:

If the sun shines through the apple tree on Christmas day, there will be a good crop the following year.

If ice will bear a man before Christmas, it will not bear a mouse afterward.

Thunder and lightning Christmas week means much snow in the winter.

We causes more damage than frost before than after Christmas. If it snows Christmas night, the hot crop will be good next year.

At Christmas meadows green, at Easter covered with frost.

If windy Christmas day, trees will bring much fruit.

Christmas wet gives empty granary and barrel.

A green Christmas makes a fat granary.

A warm Christmas, a cold Easter.

A green Christmas, a white Easter.

BREAKS WRIST

Mrs. Alton Becker had the misfortune to fall on the ice on the pavement in front of the Lutheran church, Thursday, and fractured the bone above the left wrist. The fracture has been reduced and she is getting along nicely.

Temporary Employment Is Under Social Security

Workers who find temporary employment in stores and other commercial establishments during the holiday season, are covered by the Social Security Act, and must have account numbers.

This statement is made by Robert G. Mish, manager of the social security field office in Mansfield, Ohio. Employers will save time and trouble by making sure they get the numbers of all temporary workers before the latter leave their temporary jobs, Mr. Mish added.

Commenting on the subject he said: "A worker who gets holiday employment in a store is covered under the old-age and survivors insurance plan, which includes all employers of one or more. Any one who has never had a social security number may obtain one through our office. Postmasters have the applications which are used for this purpose."

"Any one who has had a social security number at some time in the past, but who has lost his original number and card should get a duplicate. Under no circumstances should he get a new number as this may delay payment of benefits to which this individual or his survivors may be entitled later. In applying for a number those who are seeking duplicates should be sure to indicate this fact."

"In cases where a married woman has a card bearing her maiden name she may obtain a new card bearing her married name, but here too a duplicate number should be issued, and not a new

RED CROSS ROLL CALL REACHES ITS QUOTA

The response of the people of the village of Plymouth and of the township in the last week of the Red Cross Roll Call resulted in glorious achievement as the first time in many years Plymouth oversubscribed its quota.

The quota for the village and township was $260 and the response to the roll call brought in $272.95. Of this amount $65.10 came from the township and $207.85 from the village.

The large measure of praise for the success for the Roll Call rests with Mrs. W. C. McFadden, chairman for the village and Mrs. Marjorie Ehret, chairman for the township and their corps of workers. In Plymouth the workers have been Miss Elizabeth Weber, Mrs. Kenneth McGinnis, Mrs. Beryl Miller, Mrs. Mable McFadden, Mrs. Willard Ross, Mr. Frank Pitzen, Mr. J. E. Nimmons, and Mr. James Root. These are the folks who gave their time and labor to make our Roll Call the success it has been. Plymouth is proud of them and of its success.

AN OPEN LETTER

TO THE INCUMBENTS AND INCUMBENCES IN OFFICE UNDER THE NEW DEFL—

Plymouth, Ohio, Dec. 2, 1940

Kind Friends et al:

I am addressing this missive to you with that becoming and specific gravity due from one of the uncommonly common people when he desires to give the low-down to the higherups.

I wish to call your attention to the wants and needs of a few of my rural patrons who hope for better things and I sincerely hope you may assist them all.

Mr. Timo'y Field (not related to Cy'as W) says that since rep'r, every time he turns over a n... leaf the grasshoppers eat it.

Barney Yoder has a bad case of mixed hay fever & shingles and a shortage of fat hogs when the prices are high.

Sandy Soyle asks if you could see you rway clear to plowing under a few jackasses instead of so many shoats.

Otto Traylor suggests that the government furnish enough hog and corn money that he can take his stock and feed along to Florida each winter, so he will not have to drive back every two weeks to do chores. Once, last winter, while he was busy with the chores, his radiator froze up and he had a heck of a time.

Sam Hill wants the compensation issued in weekly checks with grocery order attached, as he always loses all his money in the first game and so has an extra dent in the depression till the next divy.

And Ben Davis says he has lost faith in the Brotherhood of Man since some one stole all his apples after they were picked and sorted. He got so mad that he accused the local pastor of everything from simple simony to Simple Simony because it happened in his parish. I suggest you send one of the war chaplains to pacify him.

And let said Chaplain also call on Noel Lyttle and explain to him why it happens that whenever he tunes in on a bright Sunday morning, hoping to get sweet music he always gets a program from the Tower of Babel.

Please don't forget poor Chester White, who is so heavily in debt to the Poland-China money kings that he absent-mindedly sowed wild oats in his field of taxes and got too much compensation.

And, lastly, on my own account, I would ask that Capitol punishment be meted out to the convicted punsters and all others committing mayhem on the English language.

Yours as ever,
YE OLD TINKER.

The bride is a June graduate of the Bucyrus high school.

JEFFERSONIANS MEET

Tuesday, Dec. 3rd, was a cold day, but it did not deter certain members of the Martha Jefferson club from foregoing at the hearthside of Mrs. Alva Holtz on the Plymouth-Shelby road for their monthly meeting. This was an all-day affair with pot-luck, and it was a bad time to start dieting, take it from one who knows. Chicken, dressing, 'n' everything. And just to remind you, we failed to get the recipe of that fine fruit cake, during the current events.

The matter of election having been settled some few weeks ago in a perfectly satisfactory manner it seemed, other weighty problems came up for their session of discussion and fixin'. However, Mrs. Downend in calling the meeting to order, turned our thoughts to more serious consideration. Mrs. Ruckman provided the questions for the Christmas tree, which is always enjoyed, regardless of the I. Q. ratings.

Late in the afternoon, the lunch baskets and knitting were gathered up, the goodbyes were said for another month, and the guests very reluctantly departed to meet again in another month, Jan. 7th, to be exact, at the pleasant home of Marjorie Elbert in the same vicinity for another all-day meeting. And, remember, it's another pot-luck, and there's a surprise in every basket.

ALPHA GUILDS HOLDS CHRISTMAS MEETING

A Christmas program directed by Mrs. Bartholomew and Mrs. Bruce Myers, entertained members of the Alpha Guild, when they held their meeting Tuesday evening in the Lutheran church annex.

The program consisted of, "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem," by the group; "Sharing Christmas," Mrs. J. T. Gaskill; Christmas carols (violin) Mrs. Arlene Shreck; "How Uncle Sam Celebrates Christmas," Mrs. Myers; "A Christmas Reading," Dickens by Miss Virginia Fenner, and solo by Rev. Wolf.

At the conclusion of the business and program the hostesses, Mrs. Albert Feichtner, Mrs. B. O. Blanchard and Mrs. Chas. Wentland, served refreshments to the twenty-four members and three guests.

The January 7th hostesses are Mrs. Bartholomew, Mrs. Voisard, and Mrs. Louis Gebert.

Wilma Eshelberry, who has been visiting in the home of her grandfather at Republic, O., during the illness of her brother Bobby, returned home Sunday.

Around The . . . SQUARE

By Phineas Whitloseed Monday morning we entered our second week of winter weather. Last week we had rain, sleet, snow and ice. This week it looks like a repeat order.

How many days until Christmas? Well, I know it will be here before I'm ready. And I won't be the only one in such a predicament.

Had a very short but sweet visit with John Kirkpatrick in Cleveland last Thursday. John, as you know, is one of those small town boys who made good, etc. He is now sales manager of the Chandler & Price Co., manufacturers of printing equipment. Naturally, we talked about many of the old-time residents of Plymouth, and like all former Plymouthites, he still thinks of the old home town quite often, but his visits are very infrequent.

Another pleasant surprise happened last Friday afternoon when Messrs. Harry Kirtland, John Q. Williams and Mr. Lewis of Toledo paid us a visit. Mr. Kirtland revealed to us the fact that he edited the Advertiser when it was under the management of J. Frank Bedman, who spent his vacations at Lakeside. Harry told of one incident in which he was short of news one week and wrote a half column obituary about a well-known dog passing away. The following week, one of the better known residents died just at press time, and it was impossible to get in more than a brief paragraph. As a result, the widow came up with a club and Harry had to make an exit through a window.

So this proves that as far as newspaper history is concerned, there has always been the "ups and downs." Just recently we have had the news of holding personal animosity against one of our subscribers, when an article appeared on the back page, and it should have made Page One. An oversight on the part of the make-up man, but we'll have a hard time passing the buck. Haven't seen ED WIN Childs lately. Wonder if he might be ill, or is he afraid of the cold weather? Some one told me the other morning that Clayt Bliss really knows how to sharpen a "cross-cut." What's more, he can really swing one, too. The men of the Delphi Methodist church certainly did a swell job of frying chicken and serving a piping hot supper last Friday evening. A large attendance turned out, and we'd call the event quite a success.

Drafts May Now Get Social Security Numbers At Mansfield Office

The questionnaire which draft boards are now sending to men whose names are among the first on the selective service lists asks for the social security numbers of these men. If any persons receiving this form have lost or misplaced their social security account number cards, duplicate cards can be obtained from the Mansfield field office of the Social Security Board.

This statement is made by Robert G. Mish, manager of that field office. Duplicate account cards may be readily obtained by filling in a simple application which may be secured from any post office or through the Mansfield field office, which is in the Richmond Trust building.

"I strongly urge any young man who has lost his account number, and who needs it for his selective service questionnaire, to be sure he gets a duplicate of his original social security lists asks for the social security numbers of these men. If any persons receiving this form have lost or misplaced their social security account number cards, duplicate cards can be obtained from the Mansfield field office of the Social Security Board.

BEHIND THE SCENES OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—BUSI-

NESS—Decks cleared after a November in which four holidays or semi-holidays—one every week—caused some slow-downs (Election day, Armistice day and two Thanksgivings), retail trade is plunging optimistically into a four-weeks drive leading to the top holiday of them all, Christmas. Many experts are predicting the period from now to Yuletide will see the heaviest buying rush of its kind in ten years. Expanding payrolls and increased employment, primed by the increased United States and British spending for arms, set the stage for a very busy December. National Retail Dry Goods association, surveying 5,700 leading stores, estimates cash registers will ring up $1,350,000,000—an increase of eight per cent in dollar volume. Experts estimate that 2,000,000 persons previously unemployed have found jobs since the beginning of the year, and predict that at least that many more... probably a bigger number... will find work in 1941.

WAR AND THE FARMER—

What is the European conflict doing to agriculture? A whole continent of markets for U. S. farm products is being annihilated... but America will spend five billion extra dollars on defense next year, and farmers expect added payrolls in defense industries will boost buying power tremendously and help sell many more bushels of apples and pecks of spinach right here at home. Losses in foreign markets are further offset by the increased efficiency of America's domestic surplus-disposal machine. An increasingly effective cog in this machine today is the "producer-consumer" drive as conducted by chain stores to help market crop excesses. Marketing reports show "producer-consumer" drives staged by mass distributors at the request of the growers have helped boost consumption of some farm products as much as 25 per cent during emergency periods in the first eight months of 1940.

BITS O' BUSINESS

Thirty-four of the country's biggest department stores surveyed the likelihood of draft calls affecting their personnel; found that, on the average, 15.3 per cent of all employees were eligible. Of these, 5.9 per cent were men between 21 and 26 without dependents. The South is beginning to lose its fear of the economic effects of the mechanical cotton picker, which next year, will be produced in considerable quantities. Labor shortage, acute in some spots this year, may grow sharper as defense drive takes welcome replacements for human hands. Retail sales of automobiles continued through November the brilliant pace of October, many makes setting all-time highs; Chevrolet has already hit the 300,000 mark in production of its new models. Daniel Willard, who will be 80 next January 28, handed in his resignation as president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad the other day—for the tenth time in ten years—and as usual it was declined. He's been prexy since January 15, 1910.

BUSINESS TURNS AMBASSADOR

Private business in the United States is taking an ever more active part in fostering better understanding among the American republics. While the state department's "division of cultural relations" has been distributing thousands of American books to the Latin nations, efforts of private business firms are trying to do the same. A general effort to acquaint South Americans with their Yankee neighbors. Examples: Schenley Distillers corporation has begun publishing a magazine describing interesting features of life in the United States for its customers in the southern hemisphere. Readers Digest has inaugurated a Spanish edition for the South American trade, and the radio networks are increasing their volume of short wave transmissions to the Latin nations following surveys which showed a tremendous listener interest.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR—

Square milk bottles—no cardboard ones, but glass. Latest sortie in the battle of the glass bottle industry to hold the milk trade, these are said to effect a 39 per cent saving in space, 20 per cent in weight and can be used on standard filling machines... Pocket flashlights that can be recharged by plugging into an ordinary electricity outlet... because they use storage battery instead of customary dry cells; a special design prevents spilling battery water... Glass airplane wings! Well, not solid glass, but fused glass fibre is proposed as wing covering... Glass fibre also is coming into use importantly as type for electric wire insulation—won't burn out as happens so frequently with ordinary electric cords on irons and toasters... An electric coffee-maker with built-in switch that automatically shuts off the current when the water passes into the upper bowl... Canned French-fried potatoes... Chewing gum using southern pine pitch as a base instead of the hard-to-get chicle from Yucatan.
