METHODIST WOMEN TO ORGANIZE TODAY

When the Methodist Protestant, the Methodist Church South and the Methodist Episcopal churches united under the name Methodist, it of course brought about various changes in the methods of work. The change most greatly affecting the former Methodist Episcopal church is the change in the women's work.

There is to be no longer a mission-society or a ladies' aid in the Methodist church, but a woman's society of Christian service.

The plan of work is most challenging and brings high hopes for the women. The ladies of the local church are urgently requested to be present at the home of Mrs. Elmer Markley on Thursday at 2 o'clock to become better informed about the new work, make plans for and organize the local society.

On Wednesday of last week the Shiloh Methodist ladies had a good attendance with much interest shown when they organized their society. A very excellent group of women are planning for their society with Mrs. A. W. Spear as president. The complete redecorating of the sanctuary and church school rooms of the church, which is now in progress, add to the joy of working for the local church.

APPLE TREE BLOOMS FOR SECOND TIME

The world in general is in such confusion that even the seasons are becoming upset, and an apple tree evidently forgetting that it blossomed once this year, put forth its second crop. On the same limb as the blossoms, good-sized apples from the first series, are maturing.

Proof of this freak of nature was brought to The Advertiser office yesterday morning by Mr. John Hough, who stated he found it on the Matt Brown farm at North Fairfield.

The work of registration will be light in Plymouth as there are estimated about one dozen unregistered citizens here. The job of filling in the blanks is quite complicated, and those in charge of the work are glad they do not reside in a metropolitan area.

FLY FREE DAY

IS SET AT SEPT. 24

Fly-free day in Huron County was set as Sept. 24, according to information from the office of County Extension Agent, Guy Hummon, and all farmers are urged to refrain from planting wheat until that date.

Those who plant before fly-free day run the risk of having crop infestation by the Hessian fly. The parasite lays eggs in the root of the plant. These eggs hatch in the spring and during early stages of development, sustain themselves by eating the root, resulting in death of the plant.

After Sept. 24 the egg-laying season of the fly will be over.

News Briefs

LOLITA SOMERLOTT, DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Somerrott, reports that she has a "batch of trouble" which takes in four new-born kittens. Having had previous experience with other "batches" she is running around with "cat-minded" friends to take them off her hands, and is seriously considering offering a kitten with each bowl of soup at her Dad's restaurant, but fears that business might drop off. "Now, what would you suggest?" she asks.

PITY THE POOR PENNY!

His lot is a sad one. Many folks won't even stoop to pick him up if he falls. When a thing is of little use, people say "it's not even worth a cent." He is indeed scorned and maligned.

It's time the penny got a break. He really is important. Many successful savers, knowing full well that ten pennies make a dime, ten dimes a dollar, etc., keep track of every cent.

The old saying is still very true, that if you take care of your pennies, the dollars will take care of themselves. So don't let small sums trickle away; put them, instead, in this bank.

The Shame Of • Ohio Highways • Under Bricker

Do you remember the fine condition of the State roads, when Martin L. Davey was Governor? Roads were repaired promptly. Weeds and grass were kept mowed. Detours were the least consideration. There were no bad holes and bumps, or dangerous edges. Snow was removed as fast as it fell. Icy places were covered with sand or cinders. Muddy water was not allowed to stand on pavements. The highways of Ohio were maintained in the highest order, under Davey.

Well, suppose you live in your town a fine smooth-running factory, and a new president were elected. Suppose that the first thing he did was to fire all the competent experienced employees, who knew how to run the expensive machinery, and to turn out good production at low cost. Wouldn't you think that sort of president was crazy? That's just what Bricker did to the State Highway Department as soon as he became Governor. He fired the experienced help, including men retired, who had been under Civil Service for years. He made the same mistake our claim that this was done for purposes of economy and efficiency.

What hypocrisy! Almost immediately he hired a flock of new employees, Bricker politicians, who did not know any more about highway maintenance than an Eskimo knows about raising beans. The result has been tragic. The State roads of Ohio have never been in worse condition as they are now. Thousands of miles are full of holes and rats and bumps. The edges are going to pieces. Grass and weeds have not been mowed until it is too late. Many accidents have resulted. The damage to motor vehicles from bad roads has been terrific, and the patience of the public is near the exhaustion point.

Bricker delayed the snow removal promptly. Men had to plow through snow-drifts if they could. Travel was slow, and dangerous, and costly.

Brickly allowed the snow to remain on the highways and melt when it stood. The pavements heaved up from the freezing for hundreds of miles of Ohio roads.

The damage resulting from this neglect has run into many millions of dollars, and you pay for it.

The standing water seeped down under the pavements—and there was more. The pavements heaved up from the freezing for hundreds of miles of Ohio roads.

The damage resulting from this neglect has run into many millions of dollars, and you pay for it.

The cement trust has the present State Highway Department by the throat. Nearly everything is corrupt, in spite of the fact that Ohio produces nearly all kinds of building materials and equipment. The Bricker administration has gone wild on fancy jobs, stretching the budget to the breaking point. What a waste!

Ohio has over one thousand miles of highways in the State system. Nearly all of this is being neglected under Bricker, while they revel in the luxury of a few expensive projects.

What Ohio needs is a vast program of cheaper construction, with some reasonable exceptions, and a fine job of good maintenance, so that we may benefit.

Harry S. Duffy Takes Bride In Ceremony at Canton

In a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in First Methodist church, Canton, Miss Helen Louise Barbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Barbour of that city, was married to Mr. Harry S. Duffy of Granville, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Duffy of Willard. Rev. Clarence LeReu performed the ceremony at the altar, which was banked with ferns and decorated with two seven-branched candelabra. The custom of open church was observed.

A short interlude of music by Mrs. Clyde Stiner, organist, and Mr. John L. Crites of Morgan-town, W. Va., vocal soloist, preceded the ceremony.

The former Miss Barbour, escorted and given in marriage by her father, was gowned in ivory faille. The dress had a long full skirt and tight bodice the neck of which was trimmed with eyelet embroidery. The sleeves extended five points over her hands and also were trimmed with eyelet embroidery at the wrists. Her fingertip length veil of ivory tulle fell from a halo of tulle embroidered with a leaf design of seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and swansons.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Luke B. Cochran of Wheeling. Her gown of raisin faille was made for the bride's and a cluster of Johanna Hill rosebuds in her hair matched those in the colonial bouquet which she carried.

Mr. Charles L. Taylor of St. Clairsville attended Mr. Duffy as best man and ushers were Mr. John D. Barbour of Youngstown, brother of the bride, and Mr. Hugh Kelly of Salem.

Mrs. Barbour, the bride's mother, was gowned in burgundy print and the mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of rose.

Both wore corsages of daffodils.

A room for relatives and intimate friends at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Miss Betty Jones and Miss Jean Goodman presided over the bride's table which was centered with a wedding cake banked with swansons. White tapers in crystal candelabra were used at either side.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffy later departed for a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a suite of brown faille with brown accessories. The couple will reside in Granville. Both are graduates of Dennison university, Mrs. Duffy has been a teacher in Bellissimo School and is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority and Junior Sorosis club. Mr. Duffy is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Out of town guests at the wedding included beside Mr. Duffy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bond, Mrs. Mary Bryn, Mr. William Bryn, Mrs. Bert Gray, Miss Marie Gray and Mr. William Brown of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McVeey, Mr. J. R. Mc-

LEAD ARSENATE KILLS WHITE GRUBS IN LAWN

Within the next few weeks white grub injury to lawns will probably again be conspicuous, warns C. H. Neiswander of the Entomology Department of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

The eggs of most species have already hatched, and the tiny grubs are starting to feed on organic material in the soil. This feeding soon begins definite injury to roots of plants.

The best time to kill grubs in the soil is when they are still young. Applying lead arsenate to the lawn at the rate of 10 pounds to 1,000 square feet of surface will kill these young grubs. A good way to make the application is to mix ten pounds of lead arsenate with a bushel of dry earth or sand and scatter this amount evenly over 1,000 square feet of surface. The lawn should be sprinkled with water immediately after the application has been made in order to carry the arsenate down into the soil to help to prevent injury to the grass.

The treatment has an additional value in that injury from moles and earthworms is prevented. Inasmuch as one application is effective over a period of probably 10 years for all three of these pests, the treatment is well worth while in areas where injury commonly occurs.

BREVITIES NEWS

W. B. CONRAD OF LARNEY, Kan., has figured out how many grains of wheat are in a 60 pound bushel: 480,000. Conrad didn't count them all — just the number in the first ounce, then resorted to multiplication. If you remember this number it might come in handy sometime at a fair or guessing contest.

WHEN A RESCUE PARTY IN THE RECENT HURRICANE found an old colored woman in the loft of her inundated cabin in Beaufort, S. C., with a 150 pound pig in her lap, she explained: "Ah bin rough de storm of 1893 and me and ma family most starve to death, so dis time Ah ain't mean to starve."

THE UMBRELLA BUSINESS folded up, according to its responsible says a Baltimore manufacturer. Baltimore was once a major umbrella-making town, but demand has fallen off now. Even Neville Chamberlain and appeasement didn't help. In former days, the manufacturer was not only fashionable, but necessities because of poor transportation. Telephones, automobiles and men aren't afraid of sun tan these days.

FARMERS ARE WARNED NOT TO BUY AN "HYBRID" SEED wheat. Out-of-state seedsmen are in Ohio selling what they call "Hybrid wheat." It is said by those who know, that wheat and oats plants are self-bred, and it is impossible to produce hybrid stocks of these grains. Farmers, remember the Bohemian Oats and Redline Wheat swindle 50 years ago?

ONE LOCAL MAN WHO RECENTLY went on a vacation, found to his dismay that his wife also took a vacation from her duties as keeper of his wardrobe and laundry. She had packed away up in Vermont, sans coat and stockings. The nekkie was an easy matter to solve simply by borrowing one from his companion, but the coat was a necessity in that the weather was cold and disagreeable, and he came home with a perfectly new sweater which will probably be a constant reminder of his northern trip.

CHARLIE BROWN, 40, KENTON onion broker, has been hit by lightning eight times. Physicians said the effects of bolt which struck him last week forced his colic at night. McCaffey. He was told to rest two weeks. Gosh! Hate to think what would have happened if he had been a dealer in Garlic instead.

F-R-H Shop News

So often we wonder what has happened to our clay machinery representative, Mr. Anthony Nakken of Holland, who visited the United States about a year ago. He was scheduled to make a return visit about the time Hitler invaded the Netherlands, and since that time we have not heard from him.

Our Tennessee Silver King representative, Mr. L. M. Dawson, has been in the office this week, and reports that interest in our tractor is very high in his territory.

The young men in our company who may be affected by the conscription are taking this possibility with extreme good humor. Many of them are inquiring into specialized fields in their endeavor to gain as much as possible from compulsory military training.

Mr. C. B. Cramer, who was injured in an automobile accident in November, 1939, has been assigned to the St. Louis territory to represent F-R-H in the sale of locomotives. Our very best wishes go with him in his new venture.

Mrs. H. F. Root, daughter Bonnie, and son Bob, and Mr. Bud Green, left Sunday from Vermilion for a fishing trip into northern Canada.

THINGS WE LIKE The smile, human-equality and down-to-earthiness of Wendell L. Willkie.

The fact that although political machines are powerful and can force a candidate on the public, the people can upset the machine by electing their own running mate. It still takes the vote of a majority of the American people to elect him.

That an overwhelming majority of Americans are against a third term.

The fact that so many dyed-in-the-wool democrats are turning republicans.

The F-R-H Company is represented in London, England, by Mr. P. W. Heller and a Dr. Felix Singer. A short time ago, we heard that Mr. Heller had been taken to a concentration camp in England. However, because Dr. Singer was quite well known internationally as a consulting engineer, he was accepted by English people and was not interned in a concentration camp.

After an exchange of cables between the company and Mrs. Heller by which we established the fact that Heller represented us, last week we finally received a cable which was signed by Mr. P. W. Heller himself, and we are thus assured of his release, although we have not as yet received a confirmation of this fact.

Advertising is ROMANCE

YOU READ THE ADS. As you read, visions come, and a desire for better things.

Do you see dresses? You picture yourself of a summer evening in this drifting white chiffon, softly printed with delicate blossoms.

Hats? Your mind's eye frames your face with a pastel shaded halo.

Foods? A cool, jolly dinner, with exciting news of the family's day.

Sporting goods? A slashing tennis game. A well-hit drive from the tee. A hard-hooked fish and a screaming reel.

Some people say that all enthusiasm should be taken out of advertising. In books and speeches they crusade for bleak little ads that give nothing but thread counts—strength and chemical tests, dimensions and prices. What a pity if they had their way!

Advertising is one of the welcome voices that directs our eyes upward. It has worked wonders in raising our standard of living. Let's encourage it to continue on its inspiring way.

SOMEONE CHANCES TO GAS HEAT

A DAY BY DAY TRIP TO THE WEST COAST AS SEEN BY J. C. MURLIN

(By J. C. Murlin)

AUGUST 9:

Our life today was not very exciting. I stayed at a Standard, Inc. Station while they serviced the car. As this was a complete service it took most of the morning. This was on Wilshire Blvd., near the Cocoanut Grove, Ambassador Hotel. The ladies were shopping in some of the nearby stores and were permitted to look in at the Grove. One of the stores was that of Malmaison and Co., a very exclusive place. We ate at the Silver Drive-In. Stations near here had all of the good fried chicken we could eat for fifty cents. We then drove on out to Santa Monica and called on Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith. Mrs. Smith is the aunt of J. C. Fife. Mr. Smith is a mechanic at the Douglas Aviation plant here. I picked a lemon from a tree in the backyard. The fruit varies from buds to ripe fruit. While at Santa Monica we went down to the public beach. It is certainly great sport to battle the waves. No one swims here as the waves are too large. As we left the city for Los Angeles we took a short cut past Pat O'Brien's home. His mail box is a replica of the house. Mr. Smith knows him quite well. He says that Pat is no snob, but treats everybody the same. We then went to Olvera Street by way of Sunset Blvd. This was at night and was very beautiful scene. Many places were above Beverly Hills and Hollywood. Their neon signs and other lights was a sight one cannot describe. Between Santa Monica and Beverly Hills, is a place called Westwood Village. This is quite thickly settled and we were quite surprised to find that about eleven years ago it was a grain field and the owner had to sell it to pay off a wager.

AUGUST 10:

Mrs. Murlin and I went shopping today in uptown Glendale and the rest of the party took an eight hour bus trip through Los Angeles. The facts I relate below were taken from notes made on this trip. Los Angeles has a population of 1,495,000. There are 844 churches, 600 schools, 72 playgrounds, and 10,000 teachers. There is one auto for every two and a half people. On Piquero street they saw the home of the Mexican after whom it was named. They passed the coliseum in Exposition Park where the Olympics were held. The place can accommodate 105,000 people. Near here they were shown the homes of the late Fatty Arbuckle, and the founder of the Western Auto Supply Co. At Culver City they were shown the setting of "Gone With the Wind." Mr. Cul-specially for Forest Lawn Memorial. Forest Lawn offers complete undertaking service and all forms of interment in one sacred place, under one competent management, with one convenient credit arrangement for everything. Land comprised nearly 300 acres of land with paved roads, miles of underground water system and drains, 28 buildings and 20,000 trees and shrubs. Employees vary in number from 400 to 500. On the day preceding our visit the park had 20 funerals and nine weddings.

SEPTEMBER 15 DEADLINE FOR TENANT LOAN

There is still time for Huron county farm tenants and laborers to apply for loans to purchase family-size farms. Under the FSA tenant purchase program, it was explained here today by Paul C. Williams, county Farm Security Administrator supervisor, that equal consideration will be given to all loan applications received up to September 15, 1940.

Federal tenant purchase loans funds for 40 years at three percent interest. Any farm tenant or farm laborer is eligible to apply. However, since a relatively small amount of loan funds is available, only a limited number of applications will be approved. Approval will be based on experience and character of the applicant, and productivity of the farm. All applications received up to September 15, 1940, will be considered by the Huron County Tenant Purchase Committee for possible loans this year. The committee will make recommendations to the FSA.

In explaining the tenant purchase program, Mr. Williams said that loans would be made only for the purchase of family-size farms.

"If the farm is small enough to be operated by the family, but productive enough to earn a decent living, it will necessitate less debt on the part of the borrower," he said. "In addition, less will be required per family, making more farms available."

He called attention to the fact that the family-size farm idea is contrary to the present trend toward larger units. But this trend, he said, is partially responsible for the increasing number of displaced farm families.

"However, the family-size farm creates some problems of its own," Mr. Williams declared. "Under the tenant purchase farm program the farm has a triple job: to meet the financial needs of the family, enable them to repay the loan and provide additional income for future reserves."

Let's Explore Ohio STATE PARKS

ZALESKI STATE PARK

Ohio's newest State Forest finally opens this Spring. It is the 22,400-acre Zaleski Forest near Zanesville. Ohio. Zaleski has been a 3,400-acre Zaleski State Forest since 1932. Recently the Government added 19,000 acres, in which were built the park facilities. The recreational area is near Hope on State Route 272, in N.E. Vinton County, with Ranger headquarters at Zaleski Ohio.

There are 14 attractive vacation cabins. All have running water, electric lights, modern plumbing, window screens, kerosene stoves, ice boxes, cooking utensils, dishes, bedding and towels. Groceries, kerosene and ice may be obtained at the caretaker's lodge. Each cabin is equipped with a shower bath and has normal sleeping accommodations for four persons, though as many as eight and eleven persons sometimes are set aside according to a sliding scale based upon the number of occupants and the period of rental. Weekly rates for small cabins start at $20.00 per week for two persons with $2.00 added per week for each additional occupant. Rates for large cabins start at $22.00 per week for two persons and an increased charge of $3.00 per week made for each additional person.

COURTESY THE STANDARD OIL CO. (OHIO)

Application for the cabins should be made to the Zaleski Forest Ranger, Zaleski, Ohio, or to the Division of Forestry, Wooster.

The cabins, themselves, are located on forest-covered hills, close by a 120-acre lake which has been plentifully stocked with fish. On the shore of the lake is a bathhouse, 92x40 feet, with diving boards built to Olympic specifications.

For those who wish to visit the park for a swim, or a day's outing, there are tables and fireplaces for picnic use scattered throughout the area.

The Zaleski Forest derives its name from Peter F. Zaleski, a Polish immigrant who organized the Zaleski Mining Company in the early 1850's.

On one of the hilltops overlooking the surrounding countryside

Zaleski Castle was built, a prehistoric brick house made of brick which were molded by hand and fired in a kiln in a pit near the new Zaleski school.

In spite of his preparations for making this his home, Zaleski never came to Ohio but remained in Europe.

The State Park is built around the nearly 100-year-old Zaleski holdings.

DO NOT CROSS
YELLOW LINE
WHEN IT IS ON YOUR SIDE OF CENTERLINE

A thousand signs with black lettering on a white background, are to be erected by the Ohio department of highways at strategic spots over 8,000 miles of primary roads, bearing the legend: "DO NOT CROSS THE YELLOW LINE WHEN IT IS ON YOUR SIDE OF THE CENTER LINE".

This is but one more step in the highway department's endless drive to make the roads of the state safer for motorists, just as the use of the yellow "no-passing" paint stripe on the pavement was designed to help the automobile drivers protect themselves.

These signs will be spotted wherever a primary road of the state system crosses a state line, as a guide to out-of-state motorists, and just outside all municipalities 500 feet in advance of the first no-passing zone so that drivers of vehicles leaving a city may be apprised.

Whenever the yellow no-passing is on the driver's side of the white or black center line on the pavement, it is a silent command not to cross the center of the highway, but where the yellow stripe is on the side of the center line opposite to the traffic lane in which a motorist is driving, then it may be crossed, providing opposing traffic does not interfere.

The no-passing zones have been created wherever sight distances are 500 feet or less.

SOCIETY

MARTHA JEFFERSON CLUB
ENJOYS COVERED DISH
DINNER

A pot luck dinner was served to eighteen members and guests of the Martha Jefferson Club at the pleasant country home of Miss Florence Mittenthaler on the North Street road on Tuesday last. This proved a very enjoyable affair. The house was prettily decorated in home grown garden flowers, a product of Miss Mittenthaler's own cultivation.
The food? The kind you'll always find at a Jeffersonian affair.
Second to none, and plenty.

Mrs. Downey presided over the business meeting in the afternoon. The usual routine business was transacted. A letter from Catherine Carter, president of the Federated Democratic Women of Ohio, relative to the meeting and luncheon of the federation which will be held at the Neil House in Columbus, Sept. 5 and 6, was read by Mrs. Downey who also conducted the question second.

After a second visit to the dining room and an inspection of the front yard and garden, and gardening of chit-chat rooming floriculture, the ladies went their way homeward, grateful for the sun that had not failed them, and the spirit of friendship and unity that pervades at their meetings.

The next meeting will be held with Miss Ollie Zeigler in Shiloh on October first.
