The first, "Peter Rabbit," will be presented by the first four grades. This operetta is based on the fairy tale of Peter Rabbit. As Peter visits McGregor's garden, disobeying his mother, the vegetables perform for him. Of course he escapes safely and all ends happily.

Easter Tidings

Easter comes again! "No news that," you say. "It comes every year." And yet it is news, good news. It is news not because it has never happened before but because of what it signifies.

True, for some it may mean only the traditional eggs, bunnies, candy, new clothes and a grand parade. For many have learned to put their trust in these material things, and if we look for the satisfactions on this level we must be content if the newness soon wears away and the memory of the parade is forgotten.

But for countless millions around the world the message of Easter is LIFE. We see it gloriously revealed in the newness of nature, with grass and flower, bird and tree, all speaking it forth. But the Life which Easter brings is deeper than that. There is the Life of the Spirit made new again in the heart of man because Christ rose from the grave. He conquered sin and death. That is the message of Easter for all who will accept it. By His help at this Easter time may we be victorious over our temptations and sins, and may we find New Life in Him.

Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!

Sons of men and angels say, Alleluia!

Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!

Sing, ye heavens, and earth reply, Alleluia!

COMBINED CHOIRS OF PLYMOUTH CHURCHES TO PRESENT CANTATA

"The Seven Last Words of Christ," a sacred cantata by Theodore DuBois, will be presented by the combined choir in the Lutheran church this Sunday evening at 8:00 p. m.

The combined choir is composed of the three Protestant churches of Plymouth and brings together a chorus group of about fifty voices. Last year this same choir presented this same cantata at the High school auditorium to a large audience. The work of this year's chorus surpasses that of last year by far both in power and polish.

The soprano solo parts will be sung by Mrs. Robert Brook of Mansfield, who is well known in this territory under her maiden name of Miss Jane Weutrick. Mrs. Brook is soloist at the First Presbyterian church in Mansfield and has sung in almost all of the major musical presentations of that city. The tenor solo parts will be sung by Mr. Nelson Griest brother of Mr. R. Byron Griest, director of music in the local schools, who will direct the combined choir. The baritone solo parts will be sung by Rev. Richard Wolf.

All who heard this expressive cantata last year will be eager to hear it again. It is the type of music which never grows old but rather grows upon the listener the more frequently it is heard. Since the capacity of the Lutheran church is limited to approximately three hundred it is suggested that those who want seats for the program should come a bit early.

The combined choir has been practicing regularly each week and will practice this evening after the Holy Week service in the Lutheran church. The copies have been rented and some other expenses are involved in the presentation of this cantata and to defray these expenses a silver offering will be asked from those who receive the ministry of the choir on Sunday night.

Easter Services in the Lutheran Church

The Lutheran church will open its celebration of the blessed Easter Day with the beautiful Dawn Service at 6:30 a. m. Each year this Dawn Service has called forth more and more worshippers to sing the praises of the Risen Lord. This year the service will be graced by the singing of the three choirs of the church. The senior choir will sing "Hallelujah! Christ is Risen," by Simper and "The Heavens Respond" by Beethoven. The young peoples choir will sing "The Strife is Over," and the junior choir will sing, "We Will Carol Joyfully," by Marks.

The Dawn Service will be traditional manner by Mr. J. W. Lansing singing the great "Open The Gates of the Temple." The Easter Sermon will be preached by Rev. Wolf on the theme, "Halle-

FARMER HURT; FINE TRUCKER

Donald Ebersole, 29, Route 1, Willard, is recovering in Municipal hospital from injuries suffered in a traffic accident Saturday afternoon at the intersection of State Routes 194 and 99 at the eastern end of the Willard city limits.

According to state highway patrolman from Bellevue, who investigated, a truck operated by Clarence W. Durkin, 30, an electrician of New Haven, failed to give right-of-way to the car driven by Ebersole. Damage to both car and truck amounted to $250, patrolman said.

Ebersole, a farmer, suffered a fractured jaw, facial lacerations and a cut ear. His condition was not regarded as critical by hospital attaches. The car had to be lifted when Ebersole was pinned beneath it as it overturned in a ditch.

State patrolman arrested Durkin and he was taken before Justice of the Peace Ray Snook of Willard, where he was fined $5 and costs on a charge of failure to yield right-of-way.

MIXED CHORUS WINS HONORS

The Plymouth High School chorus earned the right to participate in the state chorus contest to be held at Columbus Friday, April 16, by earning the second highest rating for Class C choruses at Bellevue in the district contest last Saturday.

Singing two numbers "Swedish Evening Prayer," by Geijer and "Ave Verum" by Mozart, the chorus was commended especially for its steady flow of rhythm. The judges gave very helpful criticisms with the hope that some mistakes might be corrected for the betterment of the group in future competitions.

This is the first time in many years that an honor of this sort has come to Plymouth High school. It is hoped that it shall not be the last.

The high school girls' glee club also competed for honors with three other groups, but even though they received as high a rating as the mixed chorus they were unfortunate enough to rank third. Only two groups from each division were eligible for state competition.

Members of the mixed chorus are as follows: Sopranos, Margaret Bradford, Jean Derr, Marilyn Earnest, Margaret Ellison, Helen Gowitzka, Edna Hackett, Betty Kendig, Jane Lippus, Phyllis Miller, Evelyn Moore, Betty Pickens, Dorothy Sourwine, Leona Taylor, Mary Alice Wellie, Thelma Hough, Genevieve Jacobs.

Alto—Zanetta Briggs, Arlene Ford, Janice Hoffman, Barbara Pickens, Maxine Ream, Audrey Stotts, Anna Mae Steele, Luella Vandervort, Juanita Ruckman.

Tenor—Jim Cunningham, Robert Martin, Bob Ross, Willard Ross.

Bass—Edwin Beeching, Ray Ford, Joe Hunter, Roy Marshall, Dick Ruel.

The piano accompaniment was played by Mrs. Willard Ross, mother of two members of the chorus. Together with the twenty-six girls who made up the treble division of the chorus, Martha Jean Boor and Ruth Ann Burger comprise the girls' glee club. Adeline Pump is a member of the group, but because of illness was unable to accompany the group to Bellevue.

Sherman P. Moist, La Mar Fleagle and E. L. Bailey accompanied the chorus and their director R. Byron Griest to Bellevue via school bus to last Saturday's contest.

CHANGE OF RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis moved Monday from their home on Sandusky street, to their newly-purchased property on West Broadway, known as the Siskin-house.

Mrs. Wm. Rowe and family will be the new tenants in the Davis house.

Axis Powers Protest U. S. 'Custody' Of Ships Seized in American Ports; Jugoslavia Aims at National Unity In Program of Anti-German Activity

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the author and not necessarily those of the newspaper.

AXIS SHIPS: Protective Custody

Protest from the Axis powers was not long in coming following seizure by the United States of some 60 German, Italian and Danish merchant ships docked in American ports...

According to federal officials the ships were seized for "protective custody" on the grounds of sabotage...

One explanation of the action came from Herbert Gaston, assistant secretary of the treasury, who said the move was "protective and aimed to prevent the further wrecking of a damage which would constitute a menace to American ships and traffic being carried on in the harbors of the United States."

ROOSEVELT: Hits Out

President Roosevelt took time off from a fishing trip off Florida to hit out at antagonists of freedom, liberty and the pursuit of happiness...

Here a Nazi soldier and Rumanian sailor are shown on guard duty on the Black sea.

If a general Balkan conflict results from the Jugoslavian defiance of Hitler Germany might have to contend with Russia, which, like Rumania, has a border on the Black sea.

with aid from the British and the United States, though promised, entirely problematical, going to stand up to the Nazi threat of armed invasion, not only from the west, with German troops, but from the north, also, with the Fascist legions?

Early in the diplomatic move there was evidence that the people were wholeheartedly in favor of the United States and Britain—that they were not willing to ally themselves with the Nazis.

The President warned that the threat of Nazi and Communist doctrines were drawing more tightly around the American nation day by day.

He said he was gratified that Americans are heeding the nation's determination that, with all America's resources and power, it should help those who block dictators in their march toward domination of the world.

The occasion was the President's Jackson day address. He made it the occasion of another defiance of the dictatorial powers in Europe.

He also took occasion to call attention to the manner in which, he said, the Communists are attempting to undermine American free labor.

He warned the people that hard days are ahead. He said that everyone would have to labor shoulder to shoulder in the national defense wheel.

The broadcast was made from the wardrobe of the presidential yacht Potomac. Only only a bright blue separate suit jacket from the Nazi freighter Aracua which was chased into Port Everglades harbor in December, 1939.

From the Potomac, as he broadcast, the President could see the Nazi swastika flying from the stern of the Aracua, as he pointed out to his nation over the airwaves what sort of a world it would be if democracy did not prevail.

He said in part: "The decision we the United States have reached is not a partisan decision. The leader of the Republican party, Mr. Wendell L. Willkie, in order and in will join in this patriotic American movement by rising above partisanship and rallying to the common cause."

JUGOSLAVIA: Challenge

The sudden and almost bloodless upset in the government of Jugoslavia was a challenge to popular imagination. In the briefest of intervals the people rose against the Vienna-aided Axis pact...

Yet there was not an immediate turnaround, and though the British and American press welcomed the overturn with joy, it was evident to close observers that it was too early to toss hats in the air and to say that Hitler had been outfaced.

The Nazis immediately, it is true, demanded a clarification of the Jugoslav attitude toward the action of the predecessor government, nay, the Nazis handed it out in the form of an ultimatum.

Yet there was deep doubt over the whole situation. How sincere, demanded the watchers, were the Jugoslavs in their abject awe?

Was the nation frightened about three sides by hostile powers, and was there any room for maneuver?

The secretary of the navy and the production manager of the nation's defense had charged that the Allies-Chalmers strike, which broke out in the teeth of the mediation board, was the result of fraudulent balloting.

The union refused to go back to work, throwing a defy in the teeth of the mediation board, while $45,000,000 in defense orders lay idle in the factory.

There was no question but that the Allies-Chalmers walkout was the crux and heart of the whole American labor situation, stormy and severe.

It rested the whole government hope on the success of the mediation board without cracking down on labor in some drastic fashion, without robbing labor of its hard-won gains over a seven year period.

Again, the issue was not one of union membership, one of those technical issues which left the general public cold to the mass for which the strikers were fighting.

It was a case where union men were accusing both government and employer of falling in line.

It was a case where not only made in mediation but fashioned also in the labor laws of the New Deal.

It was an issue that all American eyes all Europe watched with growing intensity.

ITALY: Almost Out

Defeated at Cheren and with Harar in British hands it was apparent that Italy was left in the British campaign in Africa except to mop up the faltering legions of Mussolini.

Not only that, but London was claiming that the British navy aided the Greek units and the Royal Air Force had made the rapidly drifting Italian fleet away from its bases and had badly shattered the remainder.

The British claims included one Fascist warship sunk and one battleship, and a destroyer badly damaged. Apparently this was the major engagement of the war in the Mediterranean.

The victory at Cheren was previously forecast as the last stand of the Italians. On this, it was confirmed, the whole campaign in Eritrea hinged. It seemed that the forecasts were well founded, for hardly had Cheren fallen than two events occurred.

The naval defeat was said to be the last straw. The British asserted that they lost only one bomber.

MISCELLANY

The Chinese silk industry, badly hit by war, will be re-established by the creation of a "silk village" near Kunnan. A rumormongers that has been investigated, it was said.

Pittsburgh: Carlo Colombo, well-known restaurateur, was frightened away by a merrymaker, according to a coroner's report. The proprietor, said to have been on the verge of a nervous collapse, was told by the merrymaker, one of his best customers, and died of a heart attack.

STRIKES: Menace

When deputy sheriff's were sent to guard the CIO-striking International Harvester Co. plants at Richmond, Ind., they equipped themselves with football helmets and strong clubs, shoes above.

As a deep base profound background to the President's talk was the American strike situation, and there was little doubt that the Chief Executive's blasts were headed in that direction.

The great Allies-Chalmers strike, laid in the lap of the Dykstra-headed mediation board, was ordered settled pending negotiations, but on the reopening day, after some 800 employees had fired up the furnaces and had prepared their heat-treating equipment to handle the vital defense metals, less than 1,250 out of 7,800 workers on the first shift turned out.

But the mediation board was rolling up its sleeves. Even so the Allies-Chalmers workers voted a continuation of the strike, claiming that Knox and Knudsen had worked a conspiracy against them, the walkout at Flathead, N. J., was halted.

The secretary of the navy and the production manager of the nation's defense had charged that the Allies-Chalmers strike, which broke out in the teeth of the mediation board, was the result of fraudulent balloting.

NEW YORK.—Our old friend Ben Lucien Burman, the author who became the leading impresario of rivers, is off by clipper to take a look at West Africa.

On Career, Won a change—on writing assignment. One of his most exciting traveling adventures was promoting five cents for the subway.

Mr. Burman's first river book, "Steamboat Round the Bend," became the last film in which Will Rogers appeared.

"I quit my job as a reporter on the Morning World to write stories. I wrote plenty of them and they kept on making extraordinarily quick work of my copy publishers."

After the banquet, I sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and went home pondering various plans for making a fresh start in life.

"My dime was gone, and while the buns had bucked me up a bit, I was too weak to walk to the magazine office. There just wasn't that much in the country for me."

"She said it looked like a good bet, but she, too, was short on capital and she had seen the stamps into a five-cent piece at a stationery store, and bought a magazine for four cents."

Mr. Burman was badly wounded in the war and was with a cane and crutches for several years afterward. He returned to Harvard, and was graduated in 1920.

Speaking of SPORTS By ROBERT McSHANE (Released by Western Newspaper Union)

WORLD'S Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis has lost much of his championship. That was painfully evident late in March when one Abe Simon, a 254-lb pound brawler whose right hand punched traveled thirty under false pretenses, weathered 12 full rounds against the Bomber.

Indeed, "Shadow" Simon was only a couple of rounds away from being even on points when Referee Sam Hennessey stopped the fight. Abe was figured to go no more than two or three rounds. He was to be just another victim in Louis' "bum-month" club.

This wasn't the first poor exhibition he walked up against in Louis. A couple of recent matches the Bomber didn't live up to the killer label attached to him early in his career. He didn't have too much trouble winning, but he couldn't very well.

Up-to-the-Minute Easter Costume Calls for Gay, Tiny Flower Hat

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

MYRIADS of provocative little flower hats will "top" spring suits and ensembles this season. Why not climax your Easter costume with a gay flower chapeau? You'll not only be "right in fashion," but you will be joyously "in tune" with spring.

This is a season which calls for "prettiness." No matter how simple the frock, the suit or the ensemble, you should give it lovely-lady airs by enchanting accessory details—flowers, perfumes, veils, decorative handkerchiefs, frothy fragile neckwear, an intriguing handbag or colorful gloves.

Flower hats this spring are as bewildering in type, color and design as a garden of flowers. Some of the floral headpieces seem not much more than a cluster of posies anchored to the head by a labyrinth of ribbons and bandeau devices. They finish off with a cloud of misty, colorful veiling arranged smartly.

While flowers of every variety are in fashion, there is particular emphasis on roses. You will see roses on hats, on bodices, on handbags, on sheer party dresses, and even under the wide brim of felt hats. The la Her may match the rose worn at the wrist as a bracelet.

Even handkerchiefs are apt to yield to the sway of flowers this season, in that they have posies embroidered or painted on them to match those on one's "Easter bonnet."

Above to the right in the picture is a lovely black satin hat, trimmed with two waxen white roses. A veil of black fishnet subscribes to the slogan "with every hat a veil this spring."

Centered in the picture, a young lady of high fashion wears one of the tiny pompadour hats so smart this season. Note the glorified rose splashed on her handkerchief. These handkerchiefs come in a series of flowers, so you are sure of getting a "hankie" to match your flower hat.

You will be wanting a red hat this season to keep pace with fashion, or at least one trimmed with bright red flowers. The little hat shown in the upper left corner is gaily flowered with bright red poppies. Wear it to set off a navy blue costume. Add a smart red under-arras bag.

Pastels are popular for headgear. A beguiling soft rose colored felt beret is shown below to the left in the group. The shoulder length veil emphasizes romance and coquetry. A swatch of pastel silk on a tall black felt turban is pictured below to the right. A hat of this type calls for a shimmering lavender veil.

It's a two-piece and makes the best of all school dresses. With it you'll not doubt want to wear a sunny sailor hat, and perhaps shoes with turned-back midley designs. It is an easy dress to make.

Silk, Rayon Printed Suits

Taking Fashion by Storm
New and exciting in the spring style parade are suits that are tailored of silk or rayon-mixture pairs with exactly the fine nicety and simplicity one expects of well-tailored suits. The long-jacket suit with an all-round pleated skirt is a favorite. The jacket has revers and a one-button or two-button fastening.

You will find in the stores stunning redingote styles as well, tailored like cloth, fitted meticulously at your long topcoat, the dress underneath styled in a fetching one-piece manner. These new print tailors are starting a vogue that is taking the fashion world by storm.

Tiers, Ruffles, Peplums

Add to New Silhouettes
The newest silhouettes call for tiers, ruffles and peplums. And the real news about these styling details is that designers are handling them so adroitly that they in no way destroy the straight slim lines that fashion demands this season.

Very good looking are the new dressmaker coats cut on princess lines to above the knee, at which point a wide pleated flounce carries on to the hemline.

Prints and Plain

A new and very helpful aid in selecting prints and plains to "go together" is the manner in which materials are being displayed this season in the stores. It is the custom this season to show a print and the plain material all side by side in colors that correlate perfectly.

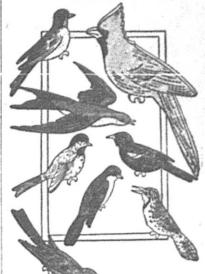

Flower Bracelets

The newest fashion wrinkle is to wear a flower or boutonniere attached to a ribbon bracelet, the cuff of your glove, or the edge of the sleeve at the wrist. Of course the flower should match the flower trimming on your hat.

Designers Defy Rains

In London, dressmakers keep on dishing out their normal supply of work, in spite of air raids. Clothes are made on a sort of ambulating schedule, workers shifting from the basement shelters to the upstairs workrooms and back again.

GOOD THINGS FOR THE EASTER BREAKFAST (See Recipes Below)

EGGSTRAORDINARY!

With the passing of winter and the arrival of spring comes the joyful Easter season, bringing with it new life and new hope . . . Why not express these good tidings in the traditional Easter Sunday breakfast?

Make your Easter breakfast the No. 1 breakfast of the year—the time when the whole family, and guests, too, perhaps, gather leisurely round a gaily decorated table laden with their favorite early-morning dishes.

For color-plashed eggs be the centerpiece. You can use those that the children have "discovered" in their traditional pre-breakfast egg hunt.

Pile them high in the center of a grass-filled Easter basket. Then, to complete the scheme, mark each person's place at the table with an egg cartouche—Uncle Sam, an Indian Chief, Mr. Rabbit or even a pet young lady.

"While they're still 'oh-ing' and 'ah-ing,' serve 'eggs in nests'—just to keep the theme in mind. To complete your menu, you'll of course want glasses of cold fruit juice, crisp ham slices, baked curls and steaming popovers. It's taken for granted that you'll make plenty of hot coffee. They couldn't ask for more!

'Eggs in Nests. (See picture at top of column) 1 egg 1/4 teaspoon salt Butter 5 bread sticks Separate egg, placing white in small, deep bowl and retaining yolk in one of the half shells. Beat egg white until stiff and slightly dry (when dry, it will have a slightly coarse appearance). Pile egg white in oven-proof cup or dish in which 5 bread sticks have been arranged. Drop yolk into depression made in center of egg white. Bake in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.) until bread tips and egg white are delicately browned (about 15 minutes). Season with salt, pepper if desired, and a lump of butter dropped on yolk. Serves 1.

Just in case you're wondering how the bread sticks are made, here are directions. Because of their dainty arrangement in the serving dishes, I call them Bread Buttercrepes: Remove the crusts from a loaf of uncut bread. Cut lengthwise slices from the loaf. Trim the slices so they are about 1 1/2 inches wide and the ends pointed. Brush with an egg and milk mixture and arrange in baking cups. It is best to brush the tips with a little melted butter so that they will brown more readily.

'Pop-Overs. 2 eggs, beaten 1/2 cup milk 1 cup flour 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/4 teaspoon melted fat

Combine eggs and milk. Pour over sifted dry ingredients. Beat with a rotary beater until smooth. Add butter. Beat. Pour batter into hot greased muffin pans, filling one-third full. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 35 to 45 minutes. Dry in oven about 10 minutes with LYNN SAYS: Eggs join with other foods to fill your needs and produce your health. They are among our best sources of the muscle building proteins. They are high in iron which is needed to build good red blood. They supply phosphorus which forms a part of every active cell of the body.

When "poiling" hard-cooked eggs, crackle the shells, then wrap the peeling at the rounded end of the egg. Holding the egg under running cold water or dipping in a bowl of cold water helps to ease the shell off, leaving a smooth, unbroken surface of white.

heat turned off. Yield: 10 large Pop-Overs.

And now a word about the cleverly decorated Easter eggs that appear in the basket above.

You'll agree that even the most aristocratic rabbit should be proud to claim these original eggs. Decorating them is both easy and inexpensive. You'll need large white eggs, a package of dyes from the 'Five and Ten,' a spoon-shaped wire hook with an end to use as a handle (for dipping eggs into the dye), rubber cement and stickers.

Buy gold and silver stars, dots in various colors, small red hearts, linen reinforcements that are really meant for loose-leaf notebooks, four- and six-inch stamps, and red and blue legal seals. Most of these come in several sizes, but the small ones are the easiest to glue on a curved surface.

After the well-known hard boiling process you use your imagination about covering the eggs with stars and dots. Then try arranging hearts in four-leaf clover patterns, or turn the points outward and stick them around a center dot, as flower petals. All-over designs of blue legal seals and stripes of the red ones, pasted so closely that they overlap a bit, are quite effective. There are endless arrangements, and you have the advantage of being able to soak off and replace designs until you are pleased, without wasting an egg.

What to do with the Easter supply of hard-cooked eggs? I'm coming to that . . . Coarsely chopped or sliced hard-cooked eggs, with onion in superbly seasoned cream or white sauce becomes CREAMED EGGS. They will give luncheon and dinner menus a twist. When served on crisply fried cornmeal slices, potato cakes, or waffles.

With eggs and cheese such boon companions, and cheese a prime favorite, too ESCALLOPED EGGS and CHEESE is another use for Easter eggs—after Easter.

Creamed Eggs. 6 eggs, hard cooked 4 tablespoons flour 1 1/2 cups milk 1/4 teaspoon pepper 1/4 teaspoon salt Dash of cayenne or nutmeg

NEW IDEAS
for Home-makers
BY RUTH WIRTH SPEARS
Do YOU remember how old-fashioned comforters used to be tufted? They were made of two layers of fabric with cotton between and every four inches or so in rows the three layers of material were caught together with a stitch of wool yarn double which was then turned and clipped to make a fluffy tuft. Well, that is exactly the way many of today's smartest chair covers are made. A cover of this sort resembles this old rocker and revealed its hidden charms. The cover is plain, medium green glazed chint tufted with dark green yarn and three inch dark green fringe is used around the bottom. A long zipper makes a center back closing. Each section of the cover was fitted on the chair in the manner shown first and these pieces were used as patterns for cutting the chint, also the cotton which was trimmed to be 1/4 inch smaller all around. After the pieces were tufted, as shown at the upper right, the seams were stitched up. Long slits were then made on the inside to catch the edges of the cotton in place.

NOTE: Are you planning to make slip covers this Spring? Mrs. Spears' Books 1 and 3 tell you exactly how. Book 1 gives directions for fitting and finishing slip covers for chairs and divanets. Book 3 shows you how to make a pattern first and also how to arrange openings in covers for chairs of unusual types, and how to make slip covers so they will stay snug in place. Books are 10 cents each. Send order to:

A DRESS that's complete in itself and smart for general wear. A jacket that transforms it into a street ensemble. And both carefully styled, accurately sized, to fit large sizes perfectly. All that, surely, is a good deal to get in one easy and inexpensive home pattern. Yet that's just what you get when you send for this one—No. 8886. That high-cut front panel has a magically diminishing effect upon your waistline and hips. Beltless, to accentuate height, the dress is gathered for correct fit over the bust. Broad shoulders give a slim look, too. The jacket, made with pleats drawn in by a tie-belt at the waistline, opens in the front to show the crisp frill and buttons that

TIPS to Gardeners

CHOOSE BEANS WISELY

The gardener should be well acquainted with the many available varieties of stringless beans, if he is to get the most from his bean crop.

If earliness is the principal interest, the gardener should select either Bountiful (green-podded) or Golden Wax (yellow). Bountiful is excellent for use when small, in shoe-string size. It is also a good choice for home canning, for it produces abundantly.

The gardener interested in yield over a long season should select both a bush bean, and a pole bean, and a pole bean. The pole beans begin producing when the yield from the bush beans tapers off.

Kentucky Wonder is one of the best all-purpose pole beans. It provides good quality snap beans. When past the snap stage, the pods may be cut up, and cooked southern style. Later, this bean may be used in the green shell stage. In the more mature stage the beans may be used in baking or in soup.

ASSISTS SCOUTS

Deryl Daugherty Will Be Assistant Scoutmaster.

Deryl Daugherty has offered his services to the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 1, Plymouth, and formal recognition will be made at the regular troop committee meeting held tonight in the Boy Scout headquarters on North street.

Due to the increasing number of Scouts and the coming of Spring, which makes possible more outside activities, it was necessary that the local troop have more leadership and Mr. Daugherty will serve as assistant scoutmaster, along with Scoutmaster R. C. Wolf, and Assistant Scoutmaster Don Einsel, Jr.

At the present time plans are being made for a "Green Bar Patrol" sealed order hike, to be held in the very near future. The "Green Bar Patrol" is composed of the troop leaders, that is, patrol leaders Wayne Ross, Quinten Ream and Ellsworth Ford. Assistant patrol leaders Douglas Willett and Junior Marvin, and Scouters R. C. Wolf, Don Einsel, Jr., and Deryl Daugherty. The main purpose of this hike will be instruction for the patrol members and all hike directions will be sealed in envelopes, to be opened by the boys at various spots on the way.

Troop No. 1 has received its new charter and formal installation will be made in the very near future. We would like very much to have the parents of the boys attend this meeting. Watch for the time and date.
The date of the next Board of Review will be announced in next week's paper.

Rural Women To Hold Achievement Meeting

The Huron County Achievement meeting for rural women interested in extension work will be held on April 15, at 1:30 p. m. at the United Church in North Fairfield.

SHILOH SCHOOL NEWS

FFA NEWS
The FFA boys of this school have been pruning trees. They enjoy this part of their course immensely.

The boys under the able assistance of their instructor, Mr. Nesbitt, go to the orchards of farmers and prune the trees.

Since this is very important in the raising of trees, it is necessary that the boys gain mastery of the art. Thus far they have done well at it.

The pest feed which the Union FFA boys are giving us because we won the pest hunt, will be around the first of May.

CHICKEN SUPPER

On Monday morning the teachers looked rather different. They seemed very drowsy about something. They could hardly navigate. Here is the solution to the problem.

On Friday night the teachers went out to Mrs. Oswald's house for a chicken supper. I guess every teacher indulged too much. You can still see the chicken and gravy reflecting in Mr. Joseph's eyes.

Every year the teachers are invited to Miss Pettit's house for a turkey supper. Every year they go to Mrs. Oswald's house for a chicken supper. Miss Pettit furnishes the turkey at the turkey supper and Mrs. Oswald furnishes the chicken at the chicken supper. The other teachers furnish the trimmings.

After the highly delectable supper the teachers settle down to some games for recreation. The men are proud to announce that they won more games than the women. This seems impossible but it is true nevertheless.

The students wish to pass along a little advice for the teachers. Please don't overload your stomachs again.

The committee in charge of this supper consisted of Miss Harnly, Miss West, and Mr. Spirk.

DESHLER CELEBRATES ITS 25TH YEAR FOR MUNICIPAL PLANT

"Here's a story that may prove interesting to those Plymouthites who are interested in a municipal light plant, and even those opposing may agree to some extent to the statements in the article. The story is taken from a trade paper magazine and is reprinted without any editorial changes:

"For many years, the Diesel-operated municipal plant at Deshler, Ohio has been referred to as an outstanding example of successful municipal operation. Now after 25 years of operating its own electric light and power plant, this enterprising little city has recently held 'open house' to celebrate its silver anniversary.

The occasion for celebration was the completion of a plant modernization program that began in 1938 after a fire at the power plant. The fire, which did damage both to the building as well as to some of the equipment, provided the necessity which has now resulted in a safer and more efficient Diesel power plant than the city had previously enjoyed.

In the latter part of 1938, a new 690 hp. Diesel generating unit was installed, replacing one of the original semi-diesel units. The engine cooling water system for the plant was completely modernized. Copper coils and headers in the base of the chimney-type cooling tower provide a heat exchanger that is easily cleaned of scale from the hard water that is used over the year. A small basement was constructed in a portion of the plant that had never been utilized previously. Into this basement were moved all of the centrifugal circulating water pumps that had been used with the older engines. Two large new pumps, furnished with the new engine, together with the old pumping units provide sufficient pumping capacity for at least 1,000 hp. of Diesel engines when operating at full load. Adequate reserve pumping capacity is available on either the soft water or raw water circuit since one of the large pumps can be used on either circuit.

The basement also contains the oil cooler for the new engine, as well as a lubricating oil cleansing and purifying system which was designed to serve the entire plant. The major elements in the purification system consists of two oil filters and a batch-type lubricating oil purifier.

History of the Plant
The history of the Deshler plant is most interesting. The present distribution system was built in 1916, at which time electricity was purchased from a light and traction company that had power lines running through the town. This arrangement was not satisfactory, and in 1923 a contract was entered into with Fairbanks-Morse & Co. for the furnishing and installing of three Diesel engines, two of which were rated at 150 hp., while the third was 180 horsepower.

In 1924 the village constructed a municipal waterworks system. The waterworks pumping station was installed at the front part of the light plant so that one operator could care for both plants.

The original three Diesels carried the entire load for the village, serving some rural lines as well as several small industries in town, until March, 1932. By that time the plant was completely out of debt and had established the reputation of giving its customers Christmas presents consisting of free lights for the month of December.

The peak load grew consistently. In 1932, when a 450 hp. Diesel engine was installed, many people thought no additional equipment would be needed for a long time. Five years later an alpha-grinding plant was built in Deshler and was served electrical energy from the municipal light plant. The additional load overtaxed the plant, so in 1938 the need for greater generating capacity was translated into action when the 690 hp. Diesel engine was purchased.

During 1940, total energy generation at the plant amounted to 1,412,400 kw.-hr., which was 158,670 kw.-hr. more than in 1939, an increase of over 10 per cent. The benefits of the modernization program are evident in more efficient plant operation and better regulation in both frequency and voltage. The new large engine carries the brunt of the load during the peak-load season of the year. After the alpha-grinding season, the load can easily be carried by the 450 hp. engine during the day time and evening, when the load is well below the 900 kw. rating of the new engine. After midnight the 180 hp. engine, now 18 years old, is placed on the line and carries the load until 6:00 a. m., when the load again goes over the rating of the small unit.

Electric Rates
Rates at which energy is purchased in Deshler have always been competitive. When adjustment is made for the free street lighting, free lighting of all public buildings, free pumping of water for the water-works plant, (around $6,000), as well as donations for the construction of a new city hall and many other services rendered by the municipal light plant, one can safely say that electricity costs less in Deshler than in many towns of larger size, served by the large private utilities.

The Deshler rates in 1923 and in 1940 are as follows:

Minimum	1923	1940
First 15 kw.-hr.	$1.00	$0.70
Next 30 kw.-hr.	0.12	0.07
Next 40 kw.-hr.	0.10	0.06
Next 45 kw.-hr.	0.08	0.05
All over 100 kw.-hr.	0.06	0.03
All over 150 kw.-hr.	0.02	0.02
Discount, per cent.	5	None

As an example of the reduction made between 1923 and 1940, consider a householder whose monthly consumption is 200 kw.-hr. In 1923 this amount would have cost him $16.40 and in 1940 the cost would be but $6.70.

New rates are now being established so that the average consumer will enjoy a further reduction of about 20 per cent.

The plant investment has been paid off by plant earnings. The present value of the electric system is $165,000. Of the last issue of $50,000 revenue bonds, $28,000 has been paid off.

Deshler is proud of her modernized Diesel Power Plant. Mr. A. J. Cluff, superintendent and his staff of loyal and capable operators know that their plant is well equipped to render top-notch service to all its customers at low rates.

This year, Deshler, Ohio celebrates its silver anniversary. Twenty-five years of successful municipal ownership. Their formula for success used is a typical local example of successful public utility — good machinery — good, honest management — plenty of public support.

This Week In Plymouth

(By Phineas Whittlesed)

"EVERY TIME that we allow ourselves to be penetrated by Nature, our soul is opened to the most touching impressions. Whether Nature smiles and adorns herself on her most beautiful days, or whether she becomes pale, gray, cold and rainy, in Autumn and in Winter, there is something in her which moves not only the surface of the soul, but even its inmost depths, and awakens a thousand memories which to all appearances have no connection whatever with the outward scene, but which, nevertheless, undoubtedly hold communion with the soul of Nature through sympathies that may be entirely unknown to us, because her methods seem to be beyond the touch of our thought." —Maurice de Guerin

HARRY SILLIMAN wound up the sap-season with two hundred gallons of maple syrup. Harry's formula for making the sweet stuff must be pretty good, for he has put up the "sold out" sign.

CHRIS WEBER, Don Ford and J. W. McIntire were appointed as a committee at the Business Men's meeting Monday to confer with New Haven, Ripley and other township trustees concerning the improvement of the County Line road. If the township trustees will turn over their part of the County Line road to Huron county, there is a prospect of getting needed improvements through county aid. Richland county commissioners have already expressed themselves as favoring the improvement.

DONT GET impatient The street committee of the village council has a street improvement program coming up just as soon as the weather permits. While alleys, sidewalks and roads have been somewhat damaged by frost during the winter, you will find a lot of solace by visiting Ashland, where every street is damaged almost beyond repair. It seemed as though that city had been visited by an earthquake which twisted and uprooted the entire system of roadways and walks.

OTIS MOORE, village marshal, is still enjoying his vacation.

YEP! THE SQUARE and streets have been swept. And now comes the housewife with the mop and bucket... spring cleaning, of course!

"ALL AIN'T GOLD that glitters" according to Senator Nye, who is wondering what's going to become of the country's financial status. Why should he sit up nights worrying about it, when there are 120 millions that don't—with the exception of one or two Plymouth men, who still remain skeptical despite the upturn in business.

TOM WEBBER who operates Webber's Rexall Drug Store, is going to have a One-Cent Sale pretty soon. As usual, you double your purchases for only a penny. In other words, Tom says "it's going to be a penny serenade."

WHENEVER I hear Jim Schreck, talk I wonder why he doesn't sing bass in a church choir.

THAR'S RUMBLINGS in them thar resolutions the village council passed concerning the construction of a municipal light plant.

DICK HAUTZENROEDER, able engineer in the tractor division says there is no such thing as "balanced power", referring to an advertisement we wrote about the Silver King. Well, Dick has n't anything on President F. D. R., who says there isn't any such thing as a balanced budget.

PROSPERITY... that's what used to be around the corner. It should be in Plymouth now, with 400 men on the pay roll at the F-R-H plant.

ABOUT THE only change we've seen in Plymouth, especially around the Square, is that white way posts now take the place of the old hitching rails.

CHANGE OF RESIDENCE Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burren and family moved Wednesday from West Broadway to the Guadayino property.

Wilson Day Takes Bride

In a quiet ceremony Saturday at 5 p. m. Miss Marian E. Pope was united in marriage to Wilson Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fortney on North Street. Rev. R. C. Wolf, pastor of the Lutheran Church read the service in the presence of the immediate family. The bride's brother, George F. Pope of Cleveland and Miss Annabel Ryan of Ashland attended the couple. The bride was attired in a light blue suit with white accessories; a corsage of pink Good-time rose intermingled with white spirea, completed her costume. The bride's maid chose a navy blue suit with white accessories; and her corsage was yellow time roses intermingled with Johanna Hills roses and yellow spirea.

Immediately following the ceremony a dinner at the Fortney home was served with covers laid for fourteen guests. The centerpiece at the bridal table was a three-tiered wedding cake beautifully decorated in pink with pink tapers, while bouquets of pink sweet peas graced the small end tables.

Mrs. Day is the daughter of the late A. F. Pope of Greenwich and is employed at the Fortney Night Club. Mr. Day is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Day of Plymouth; is a graduate of the local high school and is driver of one of the school buses as well as substitute mail carrier.

Following a short wedding trip, the bridal couple returned to Plymouth and at present are making their home at the Tourist Inn. Those in attendance at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pope, Cleveland; Miss Annabel Ryan of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Day and family, Rev. Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fortney, son Robert and daughter Francine.

METHODIST WSCS HOLD APRIL MEET

The housing situation in Plymouth is becoming quite acute. Seldom a day passes without inquiry made at the Advertiser for small houses, furnished rooms or suitable for light housekeeping. However as an extra service the Advertiser will gladly list and file names of all local parties who have rooms for rent, those suitable for light housekeeping or houses for rent. Just phone or send in your item and it will be placed on the list for future reference.

MOVING DAY IN PLYMOUTH

Significant in the hearts and minds of children was the "moving day" Monday, when the pupils in the old grade school building were transferred to the high school, where they will finish their school term. There was no sadness in their souls for they knew that with the opening of the fall term of school they shall enter a new building designed and planned with the modern advantages which they have so long been deprived.

The old stairways with creaking noises will be gone; gloomy, dirty, dingy rooms will have been transformed into new, brightly finished halls of study, with modern lighting that will relieve eye strain. Yes, Monday was a joyous day for the children, and it should be a day to remember, as far as Plymouth residents are concerned, for it marked another step on the milestone of progress.

And, yet, it is like parting with an old friend to see the present grade school building pass into oblivion. There is something sacred about it for many of our older residents; and the memory of the building will live long in the hearts of those who entered its portals in their happy school days.

But time is a healing factor. Within the short years to come, we will often wonder how we had courage enough to send our children into such an ungodly building as that afforded the youngsters for these many years. And as we gaze upon the new modern structure, and inspect its cheerful atmosphere there will come to us a feeling of pride and satisfaction in knowing that Plymouth has progressed to the extent of giving its children the best.
