

LOCAL FARMER HAS FINE SUCCESS WITH FLAX CROP; A NEW VENTURE

BURR KNAUS READY TO HARVEST 60 ACRES; YIELD VERY FAVORABLE

With wheat restrictions and other curtailments likely, Burr Knaus, well-known local farmer, turned his knowledge and experience early this spring to the planting of 60 acres of flax.

The yield is estimated at from 12 to 15 bushels per acre, and the market price is around $1.90 per bushel.

Years ago a few farmers in the community raised flax, but for the past decade it has not been planted. Only 120 acres of flax were sowed in Huron county this year.

Those who have never seen flax grow will be interested in knowing that the stalk or stem grows to a height of approximately 14 to 16 inches, and the seed is found in a cluster at the top of the stem.

Each pod contains a flax seed, and there are scores of pods in a cluster.

Mr. Knaus is about ready to combine the 60 acres of flax, and states that it is tougher than oats or wheat, but that he expects to do the job with little difficulty.

In choosing flax as a crop, Mr. Knaus stated that he did so because he considered it one of the best spring seeding crops. It requires 42 lbs of seed to the acre, and after early planting takes a minimum amount of attention.

Besides the seeds, the by-product of flax is linseed oil. There is also a market for the long stem which is manufactured into linen cloth.

The 60 acres of flax have been carefully checked as to expense, etc., and after the harvest the detailed accounts will show whether or not it can be called a successful money crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Knaus and son Kent returned to Plymouth Saturday night after spending some time at Fredonia, Kansas.

While there Mr. Knaus was interviewed by the editor of the Fredonia Daily Herald, and the following is what the editor of that paper says of Mr. Knaus:

"Prophecies of future farming appear as rugged facts with such scientific usages as 'productive factor,' nitrogen and lime ratios, etc., etc., terms that causes the uninitiated to wince if he is discussing atom smashing or bomber wing contours, instead of soil production in just casual conversations with Burr Knaus, man who with his wife and son are visiting relatives in this vicinity."

"Book farmers," as fellows like Knaus were called several years ago, were ridiculed by the city-bred sons of the soil until the young upstarts began producing, not only crops and livestock, but profits as well.

"Burr is a member of the American Association of Farm Managers (something never even suspected in southeastern Kansas) a vigorous and hard-headed group of young men and middle-aged men, all college graduates, who

DIES AT WILLARD HOSPITAL FRIDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Flora Burdge Rogers, 65, were conducted Monday afternoon in a burial in Greenlawn cemetery, Willard. A lifelong resident of Willard, Mrs. Rogers passed away Friday night at the Willard hospital following an illness of the past seven months.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Carl Doerfer, and Mrs. Charles Jones, both of Willard; a son, William Canton, seven grand children, eight great grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Myra McElfish, Willard.

VISIT STATE FAIR Approximately forty-two students of the local schools took advantage of the free trip to Columbus Saturday to attend the opening session of the Ohio State Fair.

The group was taken in the two buses, properly chaperoned, and left the Square at 8:30. After a day of real enjoyment the group returned to Plymouth at 9 p. m.

have been given talks to be accomplished back east.

"There, one gathers from conversation with Knaus, not only wealthy business men buy farms, but farm corporations are formed, and capital is invested and the management of the acreage turned over to one of these farm managers, who lasts just as long as he produces profits.

"It is refreshing, however, to learn from the visitor that these hard-headed business men who invest money in farms, are sufficiently progressive to realize that a constant drainage of soil productivity eventually produces ruin, and it is the task of the manager to not only produce profits, but to invest capital in conservation, fertilizer, and careful planning of buildings and fields to effect farm efficiency."

Knaus has been manager of the Ladow farms for a number of years, and his theory has been working very satisfactorily on the farm west of Plymouth.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME WEDNES.

A blaze of undetermined origin damaged the Cliff Sourwine residence to the extent of approximately $500 dollars, counting the loss of contents.

The blaze was discovered shortly after 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and quick work of the fire department prevented further damage to the structure.

The blaze started in a clothes closet on the second floor of the home, and spread rapidly throughout the attic.

Defective wiring could have started the blaze; spontaneous combustion could be the other cause. The closet was filled with winter clothing, and practically the entire supply of clothes for Mr. and Mrs. Sourwine and the children was a total loss.

The house and contents were covered by insurance, but the home will be disarranged for some time, due to necessary repairs.

Neighbors, at the first sign of the blaze, quickly removed all the contents downstairs, and as a result prevented water damage to most of them.

RECOVER BIKES

Two bicycles stolen more than a week ago off the Public Square were returned to the owners by the free picture show, have been located.

The bikes, belonging to Edward and Robert Croy, of the 11th and Shelby roads, were the theft and this week police notified them the thieves had been apprehended. Two youths, cousins, by the name of Brown, one living in Shelby and the other at Plankton, were in possession of them.

One of the youths had sold his bike for $5.00, which led to the discovery of the wheels.

After a severe lecture by Judge Huston of Mansfield, the youths were to return the bicycles this week to the rightful owners, and placed on probation.

BIG LABOR TAX FREE WHEAT ASSOCIATION DAY AT NEW LONDON

Plans are nearing completion for the new Homecoming and Labor Day Celebration at New London on Monday, Sept. 1.

Past years have amply proven the success of this affair and this year promises to be no less inviting. A full day's program is being planned with the usual mid-way attractions for young and old.

In addition there will be the usual pulling contests, between some of the finest matched teams in the country. Pony Races will be one of this year's feature attractions with a large number of entries already in, and more coming.

A series of bicycle races have also been booked, and your entry is urged if you ride a bike.

Then, to add to the day's excitement, Claude Wheeler, intrepid ballplayer, who has thrilled many New Londoners in the past, and who is well known all over the country, will again be here.

Winding up a full day, at 9:00 p. m. there will be a gorgeous display of fireworks.

The grandstand seats will again be erected for the ball games and the fireworks display in the evening.

This year's celebration promises to be the best ever, and will be well worth your attendance.

A new gate and driveway has been built, making it possible to have a continuous flow of traffic in and out of the park, thus avoiding any jams.

One of the stellar attractions of the day will be the baseball and softball card that has been scheduled. In the morning, the fast-stepping Wellington Merchants will engage the Columbus Root-Heath nine of Plymouth in a furious hardball game.

In the afternoon there will be a pair of games that will doubtless prove to be the highlight of the entire day, when the pacesetter Faultless Rubber softballers match their wits against the wizardry of the State Amateur aggregation from Columbus. Both of these teams have a real reputation and this game will be worth coming to see. Then, to climax a thrilling bill, the Mansfield Merchants will play the Ranger Athletic Club Girls of Cleveland.

Then, between the hours of 8 and 9 p. m., the merchants of New London, are staging a gorgeous stage and style revue. Entries are coming in fast and this event along with the stage show and the balance of the program of several employments from the plant. The plant employs approximately 325 men of which a number are members of the Independent Cycle Workers' Union.

A number of men from Plymouth and vicinity work at the Shelby plant.

A strike vote called on Wednesday by the Shelby Lodge No. 1527, International Association of Machinists (AFL) for Shelby employees, was approved by the Shelby Cycle Company, resulted in a large majority in favor of the strike.

Organized recently, the union has disputed the dismissal of several employments from the plant. The plant employs approximately 325 men of which a number are members of the Independent Cycle Workers' Union.

A number of men from Plymouth and vicinity work at the Shelby plant.

Funeral services for Charles S. Huber, Sr., 53, of Shelby, were held Friday afternoon at the Bankfull funeral home with the Dr. A. B. Allison, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial was made in the Oakland cemetery died Wednesday at the Cleveland Clinic after an illness of the past eight months.

Surviving are his wife, Pauline; two sons, Charles S. of Lima, and Henry of Buffalo, N. Y.; two daughters, Mrs. Harriet Mitchell of Wichita Falls, Tex.; his father, J. F. Huber of New York City, N. Y., and three sisters, Mrs. Percy Miller of Eggertsville, N. Y.; Mrs. Marvin Bues of Keenmore, N. Y.; and Mrs. James Grant of Williams ville, N. Y.

RECALL OLD DAYS Mr. and Mrs. L. E. A. Krisko of Madison, Wis., called at the home of Dr. G. J. Searle, Saturday.

Mr. Krisko is professor of Electric Engineering in the University of Wisconsin. He spent the last few days in Greenwich at the home of D. O. Payer, a cousin of Mrs. F. Erwin.

Dr. Searle and Mr. Krisko greatly enjoyed a chat of old times and when the Plymouth high school went to Greenwich to play football. The captain of the local team was a Mr. Clark who also was the superintendent of the school. The result of the games was 6 to 0, in favor of the Plymouth boys. So-o-o football still lingers in the hearts of the oldsters-youngsters.

STORES, BANK AND POSTOFFICE CLOSED

Plymouthites, along with the rest of the country, will take to the roads for a last fling to get their feet back on the ground as soon as possible and crowd everything in that last minute vacation over the last double holiday of the season.

The local bank, post office and stores will be closed all day Monday, Labor Day, so when you are making your grocery purchases Saturday, remember to buy sufficient to last over the double holiday, Sunday and Monday.

When the wheat quota bill was voted throughout the country only thirteen out of every one hundred farmers were permitted to vote and written into that law is the word "corn", undoubtedly with the view of taxing it next.

Farmers are beginning to devote enough time and attention to their industry to realize that everything they buy from a hoe to a tractor or combine, has cost of production as a basis for the price they have to pay, and are wondering why they today shouldn't have cost of production and protection from too much imported wheat instead of being penalized for raising what they can.

Along the Atlantic states a recent survey shows that the grain elevators are using 95 per cent Canadian wheat in their commercial feeds, while domestic farmers in the United States are using 95 per cent of their own wheat without paying the 40c penalty or storing their excess wheat under bond, if they have produced more than their quota.

A farmer in the United States being penalized for raising wheat when unlimited quantities are admitted from foreign countries is a situation entirely opposite to the principle upon which this country was founded.

Times have changed. We are living in an age of machinery and organization. We can't go back to wooden plows and oxen by Ohio is keeping pace. The Tax Free Wheat Association is progressing—it is an organization of the farmers, for the farmers, and by the farmers—to resist a penalty on wheat and to refund to the farmers these taxes already collected.

Identical or similar organizations have been formed in other states and a national organization has been formed with a board of directors made up of two members from each wheat growing state.

It is not a political issue—it is an industrial one with all important industry or agriculture at stake.

Mass Meeting AT WOOSTER Russell Kiko of Canton announced a mass meeting at Wooster, O. C. will be featured at the mass meeting of the Tax Free Wheat Association at Wooster on Monday.

The meeting is open to all in the county and a number from Plymouth and vicinity expect to attend.

OUT OF THE CUPOLA

SOME CLEANINGS THAT ARE COLORFUL - SOME ODORIFEROUS - BUT ALL FIT TO PRINT . . .

WE NEVER KNEW IT TO BE A positive fact, but had always surmised that F-R-H had a bunch of "iron men." This was proved the past week when the "tug-o-war" contest was staged at the Richland county fair in Mansfield, and our local boys out-pulled 'em all. There were teams entered from eight townships; the second pull was with Montgomery township, and the third and final pull was with Craner's Team of Crestline. The events were staged for three days, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and attracted much attention, as well as a lot of fun for those who participated. The local team was composed of Bernard Van der Bilt, Joe Barty, Bernard Weaver, Leo Barnes, Clancy Roe, Carl Kirkpatrick, Ernest Egan, Wm. Ervin, John Van der Bilt, and Wm. Rowe. Rumors are afloat that the locomotive division is planning to do away with the cranes and use this "manpower" team.

I've often wondered what kind of polish our Supt., D. E. "Nip" BeVier uses. He's getting a brighter shine all the time, and it won't be long before he's a regular "glamor" man.

RUNNING A SHAPER LOOKS like an easy job, especially when Clayton Williams is doing it. Clay has operated the one out in the machine room so long, until he's getting almost perfect. Perfect to the extent that if one thousandth or five has to come off—he merely sets the old knife right on the don't-starters, and it's done. Sometimes he'll think—the counts the stroke of the arm to pass the time. There is one thing I'd like to say about Clayton: He knows his machine and can get out a lot of work in any one day.

THERE ARE SOME NEW FACES in the various clerical departments. The young ladies who have joined the staff during the past six months are Mrs. Zella Clark, Misses Virginia Coe, Audrey Stotts, Florence McGinty and Betty Briggs. They were all a bit shy at first, but they are gradually becoming to feel at home a little.

RAIN DROWNED OUT THE BIG game scheduled last Sunday night at 8 o'clock between the Plymouth Locomotive team and the Keller News of Norwalk. The game will be played tonight at Norwalk and a good attendance is expected.

The line-up is as follows: N. Buzard, cf.; H. Kyler, ss.; G. Beach, 2b.; D. Weber, 2b.; F. Buzard, if.; K. Nesbit, 1b.; D. Dawson, c.; R. Moore, rf.; Owens, p.

The Plymouth Locomotives will also play Wellington at New London on Labor Day. The game is scheduled at 10 o'clock at the fairground. This is New London's one big day of the year, and we hope the home boys can make a real showing by winning the game.

"Boy Friend (on the phone)—"Whoa don't Sattidy night!" "Gotta date."

"An' next Sattidy night?" "Gotta date."

"Anna next Sattidy night?" "Gotta date."

"Well widdle my moustache, woman, doncha ever take a bath?"

Dick H. to Henry: "Is your married life happy?"

Henry to Dick H.: "Yes, I married the woman of my dreams. She's as beautiful as the day I met her. Her hands always soft and white, her hair is never unkind, and her dresses are always neat and clean."

Dick: "So you don't regret it?"

Henry: "No-o-o, but I'm getting pretty tired of eating in restaurants."

No news is good news, so if you haven't smiled, just pretend you are. A blank space. That's the way blue prints look sometime—kinda blank.

RUSSELL McMANIS HAS SEEN MANY CAMPS, GAINING MUCH KNOWLEDGE SINCE JOINING "UNCLE SAM'S" ARMY

One of "Uncle Sam's" volunteers, Russell E. McManis, son of William McManis of this place, was one of the first to offer his services for his country.

Russell was called from the southwest and has been assigned to various work. At Ft. Sill, Okla., Ft. Benning, Ga., Fort in Western Louisiana, Ft. Polk, La., and then he was sent to Ft. Knox, Ky., to school, to take a clerk's course.

They went to school from 8:30 to 11:30 and 1:00 to 4:30. On August 19, they finished school, graduated and received their diplomas. Russell received good grades all the way through, receiving an 88 average in all subjects. The highest in the entire group was 91. Some of the work he has done was chauffeur for a commander, ambulance driver and attache for a doctor, and was also in the Infantry.

He has been sent back to Camp Polk. Excerpts taken from a letter to his father: "I'll be glad to get back to Camp Polk. I like it there better than up here. The climate is so much nicer. I sure have been sweating for the last few days. I would like to be transferred to the west coast, I like it there. The ocean air feels pretty nice and cool. I talked to Billy Wharton of the officers training camp and he is coming at the officers training camp. The fellows from Fort Benning are leaving tonight. The boys from Pine Camp, N. J., are leaving Thursday, too. This place sounds like a boiler factory. Everybody is packing up and getting ready to go. We all got lockjaw shots this morning. There was from 180 to 200 men here. "There was a guy sleeping over here and somebody painted his nose with iodine. That will look pretty on the train, won't it? This bunch is always playing tricks." In a letter of Aug. 7, he wanted to know how the crops were this year, and he hoped they came out all right. At present, his address is 205 4th Street, Regt. (M) Camp Polk, La.

Mt. Vernon Native Welcomes Every Opportunity to Recommend Ton Jon No. 3 to Prostate and Kidney Sufferers

States That He Suffered from Serious Prostate Trouble. Had Given Up Almost All Hope of Ever Getting Well. Had Difficulty in Getting Started and Had to Draw It Sometimes. Was Badly Constipated and in a General Rundown Condition.

TONJON No. 3 is the only one of the many medicines I have ever tried for prostate trouble that gave me relief," declared Mr. C. G. Snow, life-long resident of Mount Vernon, now residing at 128 Hamtramck street, a member of the B. P. O. E. lodge.
"I could hardly get my urine started and sometimes I had to draw it. Along with that I was constipated so badly that I had to take a laxative at least twice a week. These harsh laxatives would upset my whole system making me feel miserable all the time.
"Getting up at night to relieve my kidneys was common and because I didn't get proper sleep I always had a rundown sluggish feeling."
"I had suffered so much that I had almost gotten to the place where I didn't think that I would ever be well again."
"When I first heard about TONJON I was skeptical because I had been disappointed so many times before. I was not in the least disappointed but delighted with the results I received from TONJON. I am telling all of my friends about my wonderful experience with TONJON. I welcome this opportunity to recommend it to every sufferer with prostate trouble."

Happy is the man or woman who enjoys good health. This is possible with TONJON, which is not just one medicine, but numbers 1, 2, 3. The TONJON Health Representative is daily at EDDY'S PHARMACY, 800 BROADWAY, LORAIN, OHIO

IMPROVING THE COUNTY LINE

Work has started in earnest on the improvement of the County Line Road, east of Plymouth, and residents will appreciate it very much this winter. It was through a committee of the local business men's association, composed of J. W. McIntire, Donald Ford and Chris Weber, that the work got under way and the county departments of Huron and Richland counties are cooperating splendidly in getting the highway in shape for winter travel.

This week scrapers and ditchers have been on the job, and the drainage system of the road is well under way. Through the efforts of Chris Weber and the cooperation of Clyde Moore and other officials, Plymouth was able to secure the surplus dirt which was placed in a fill at the Mary Fate Park.

It seems that the village street committee overlooked a good opportunity to get the town's portion of the County Line improved while the county highway department had its equipment on the job. Certainly the drainage could stand another going over, as well as the grading and surfacing of the stretch. The corporation line extends quite a distance out on this road and the time will come when the town will have to spend money for improvement. If it's not too late, the street committee should get in touch with those in charge of the county line project and get this improvement done at a low cost.

And while we're on the subject, it wouldn't be out of the way to invite the State Highway department into Plymouth's Public Square, especially after a rain. It shouldn't be hard to get the state to put Route 61 in shape through Plymouth, if the condition of the thoroughfare is brought before the proper officials.

THE WHEAT QUESTION

Opposition to the government's wheat program is steadily gaining, and there is a possibility that Washington will take the matter seriously when the farmers begin to make a louder noise. A recent issue of The Ohio Farmer carried many letters from real dirt farmers, giving good and sound reasons why they should be given a fair and square deal on the control problem.

We have been doing much reading on this subject, and the opinions expressed are worth summing up to this point: That the farmer as a whole had the wool pulled over his eyes, and that before the question is thoroughly settled to the satisfaction of all, there will have to be some "tall" explaining by the boys in Washington, and drastic changes made in the wheat control laws.

In the last edition of The Pennsylvania Farmer, we heartily agree with an editorial printed therein, and we reprint it here, so that our readers may have the opportunity of knowing how the other fellow feels about an imposition thrust upon him, and which is causing undue hardship to many. The editorial is as follows:

"The Rights of Farmers. Protests continue to come in against the current wheat program. All the protests are earnest but some of them indicate insufficient vision. This because they deal largely with the extent of the marketing penalty and fail to emphasize the vital principle, the maintenance of constitutional rights. We hold that it is the right of any farmer to feed any wholesome product of his farm to any of his livestock regardless of the ultimate disposition of the animals or the products thereof. We hold that it is his right to sell any wholesome product of his acres and his labor without partial or entire confiscation by any agency of the federal government. We believe that since the farms and the commodities on them are not now in interstate commerce, and may never be, the federal government has no constitutional authority to impound the commodities or impose penalties on their use or sale or put liens on them. Still further we believe that the federal government has no constitutional authority to discriminate in favor of farmers who have 15 acres of wheat or less and against those who have 16 acres or more. There are other constitutional questions that should be raised and will be, for some of the funds subscribed are to be devoted to the determination of them. No matter what is done about the present penalty, or any other detail of the program, all these vital questions must be settled."

LABOR

Built A Nation

LABOR

Shall Sustain It ♦ ♦ ♦

A man went into the forest, felled trees, cleared land and built a cabin....and thus a nation was born. He continued to fell trees, clear land....and a nation grew, became strong. He built our cities. His muscles let loose a power that enveloped a new continent. His energies made food grow where before there was stone, made light grow where before there was darkness, built a haven out of a wilderness. That was Labor! Today, Labor still carves a future for our nation.

With pride in the strength of American Labor and its services to our welfare, we publish this tribute.

"Let's Explore Ohio" FORT STEPHENSON FRENCH The Gun at Work, from "The Siege of Fort Stephenson" (1815) Old Betsy is on the library lawn at Fremont. FAMOUS OHIO BATTLEFIELDS A 21-Year-Old Major and Old Betsy Defend a Fort THE SIEGE OF FORT STEPHENSON-1813 A controversy between a 21-year-old boy and a future president of the United States set the scene for one of England's most humiliating defeats in the battle for the control of Ohio. The characters were General William Henry Harrison and George Croghan, already a Major in spite of his youth. The controversy revolved around the abandonment of Fort Stephenson, outpost of Fort Seneca, by the Major and his 160-man garrison. Fort Stephenson could not be defended, the General believed, and ordered Major Croghan to return to Fort Seneca with his men. The Major believed Fort Stephenson could be defended, and refused to obey. A squadron of cavalry sent to bring Major Croghan and his garrison back to Fort Seneca was ambushed by the "warriors of a powerful Shawnee Chief and a word of command, a withering musket volley swept the enemy. Then "Old Betsy" spoke. Loaded to the muzzle with grape and slugs, she completed the execution. Outside the walls the red-coated soldiers lay in tortured windrows. Canteens of water were lowered over the walls to the wounded. Others of the wounded were carried into the fort for medical aid. Dismayed and discouraged by their bitter, unexpected defeat, the British and Indians withdrew, leaving Major Croghan the victor and a hero. "Old Betsy" stands today on the lawn of the Fremont Library, at the very spot on which she achieved fame. With the repulse at Fort Stephenson, the British gave up hope of conquering Ohio by land. Their next attempt was on Lake Erie. Next Week - A British naval squadron lowers its colors in defeat for the first time in history.

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED AT OPEN CHURCH CEREMONY

Lovely in a wedding gown of white satin, Miss Henrietta Vander Bill walked down the aisle of the Celeryville Christian Reformed Church Tuesday evening to become the bride of William Van Loo. The single ring service was solemnized at 7 o'clock before an altar beautifully decorated with a profusion of greenery and baskets of garden flowers. Rev. Van Laar, pastor of the Celeryville church, officiated.

The bride's gown was fashioned along Princess lines with a sweetheart neckline and a row of tiny buttons down the back. Her veil was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a white leather Bible with streamers of silver ribbon entwined with roses and orange blossoms.

Preceding the service, nuptial music was played by Mrs. Thomas Shaarda, Jr. The bride was attended by Miss Henrietta Blankespoor of Iowa and Miss Marie Verburgh of Fredericksburg, Va. whose gowns were fashioned along similar lines with tight bodices, square necklines and long full skirts. Miss Blankespoor chose a peach colored mousseline de soie and Miss Verburgh was attired in a blue shade of the same material. Both carried colonial bouquets.

The best man was Gerald Van Loo, brother of the groom. Escorting the guests to their seats was Mr. John Van Laar.

Following the service which was attended by many relatives and friends, a reception was held for 175 guests at the Plymouth High school auditorium, where a lunch was served and a program presented.

Later in the evening the couple left for a trip to Niagara Falls and Rochester, N. Y. For traveling, Mrs. Van Loo wore a blue plaid wool suit with black accessories. Upon their return they will reside on West Broadway in the furnished apartment of Mrs. Eva Smith.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Van der Bill of west of Plymouth and has been employed as a clerk in the local Kroger store. Mr. Van Loo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garret Van Loo of Celeryville, is interested in the growing of celery.

MEIERS OBSERVE 64TH ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR WEDDING

On August 23, 1877, Otto Meier, a native of Switzerland and Lella I. Lybarger of Shiloh, Ohio, were married in the Wiler Hotel in Mansfield by Rev. George Miller of the Lutheran church of Shiloh.

On Saturday they had the rare privilege of celebrating their 64th wedding anniversary, which they very quietly observed at their home, 57 North Second street, Shelby, where they have resided for many, many years.

The event was marked by the receipt of lovely gifts, letters, cards, flowers and social and telephone calls, all of which made the day a very pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Meier are 88 and 84 years of age respectively, and are the parents of four living children, Mrs. J. O. Purdy and Mrs. B. W. Williams of Shelby, Mrs. A. R. Holt of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and Harry J. Meier of Mansfield.

The honored couple hereby wish to express their appreciation of every courtesy which was so thoughtfully, lovingly and graciously extended, respecting their 64 years of life together.
