

DRIVERS' LICENSE GO ON SALE MONDAY; LIST REQUIREMENTS

To correct erroneous impressions, Cylon W. Wallace, registrar, Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Ohio Department of Highways has issued a detailed statement of provisions of the new driver's license law which goes into effect Sept. 6.

Drivers licenses go on sale, Sept. 8, at 800 stations in the state and all drivers must have the certificate by midnight of Sept. 30. The questions which Mr. Wallace has found, which are causing misunderstanding are as follows:

Q—How can I make an application for a 1942 driver's license?

A—By being 16 years of age or over, and at present be in possession of a 1941 Ohio driver's license, which must be presented at the time the application is made, at any deputy registrar in the state.

Q—What if I have lost my 1941 Ohio driver's license?

A—It will be necessary for you to make an application for a duplicate 1941 license at a deputy registrar. The duplicate license will be mailed from Columbus to you and on receipt of same you can present it to a deputy registrar and obtain your driver's license. If you do not get your duplicate license before Sept. 30, 1941, you can not drive until you get same and present it for a 1942 license.

Q—What if I do not have a 1941 Ohio driver's license and am at least 16 years of age?

A—You can make application to a deputy registrar and obtain a temporary instruction permit.

H. ROSS TAKES OVER STATION

HARGOLD ROSS TAKES OVER STANDARD STATION WEDNESDAY

Another business transaction was consummated here Wednesday when Harold "Porky" Ross leased O. L. Taylor's gas station through the Standard Oil Co. The deal was completed Wednesday and Ross has already taken over its affairs. He will be in charge of a few days by Judson Morrison of the Standard office in Mansfield.

Young Ross, who has been employed at the Fate-Root-Health Co. since 1936, resigned his position there to take up his new work. Starting on the tractor assembly line, Ross worked in that department until three years ago, when he went to the paint department of the locomotive division. While employed there he made an enviable record for himself.

O. L. Taylor took over the Standard Station on Sandusky street from E. L. Hester 13 years ago. During this time he has enjoyed a fine growth and his business increased throughout the years. He has resigned his position who will regret to learn that he will be no longer associated with the station.

Last June Mr. Taylor became employed as a carpenter on the Plum Brook ordinance near Sandusky, and he states that when construction work there is finished he expects to continue to be associated with the munition plant. He will remain a resident of Plymouth and will commute to his work.

In speaking of the change, Mr. Taylor expressed his desire to thank his friends and patrons for the splendid support accorded him during his 13 years at the station, and that he assures them that he is associated with the munition plant. He will remain a resident of Plymouth and will commute to his work.

GANGES BAND TO PLAY HERE

CONCERT ASSURED FOR THIS COMING SATURDAY NIGHT, SEPT. 6

Chairman Robert Echeberry of the band committee of the Steuben Men's Association, stated Tuesday that arrangements have been made for the Ganges Band to play in Plymouth Saturday night, Sept. 6.

Echeberry pointed out that the Belleville band had been secured for last Saturday's concert, but that the engagement was cancelled at the last minute and he was unable to contact any other band for the program.

The Ganges Band has been furnishing concerts in Greenwich this summer, and many of their acquaintances in this vicinity will be glad to welcome them once more this season. This band is one of the oldest organizations of its kind in the state, and they have a real record behind them. So plan to come to Plymouth this Saturday night and enjoy an old-fashioned band concert, the way only Ganges can give it. Lots of parking space and friendly treatment is assured. Don't let anything keep you away from Plymouth Saturday night.

IGNORES THREE HONOR PENSION LIST

State Declines to Name Any Of Trio Certified For Manager's Job

Ignoring three recommendations of the county Republican central committee for the county aid for aged manager's post left vacant by the death of David S. Heland last month, Tom McCaw, head of the state division, had informed the committee that the new manager will be named from a civil service eligible list.

Examinations for the post probably will be held in October. McCaw said until the new manager is named, it is expected that Howard R. Neuman will continue as acting manager. Neuman was appointed by McCaw soon after the county was organized.

The G. O. C. committee, however, may get a chance to recommend an applicant from the civil service list this fall. The committee endorsed three applicants from a list of 14 on Aug. 2. They were C. L. Shoup, Plymouth, and John C. Friday, Mansfield, former investigators for a division, and Ray Hines, Mansfield sewer inspector.

Mrs. Josephine Rogers of Long Beach, Calif., Will Take Alaskan Cruise

Life for Mrs. Josephine Rogers of Long Beach, Calif., former wife of Plymouth, seems to be just one thrill after another—she should we say, one trip after another. Having already toured the U. S. from coast to coast and border to border, she writes us this week that she is off to Alaska for a wonderful twelve day trip.

Mrs. Rogers left Long Beach Wednesday, Sept. 3rd for Seattle, which she hopes to reach by Friday morning. Leaving Seattle at 10 a. m. the cruise will take the group down the beautiful Puget Sound by daylight and out into Canadian waters, off the shores of British Columbia, by Saturday.

After a 657 mile trip the first Alaska port, Ketchikan, will be reached by Sunday. Their itineraries then takes them through a 80 mile cruise of the Clarence Straits, northward to the famed Wrangell Narrows, to Petersburg for shore leave. Tuesday will be the day for the cruise and then on into Sitka where a full day will be devoted to this fascinating city.

OUT OF THE ... CUPOLA

SOME GLEANINGS THAT ARE COLORFUL — SOME ODDIFEROUS — BUT ALL FIT TO PRINT ...

GEORGE KIRTLY WILL appreciate it very much if some one in the engineering department will go into detail and tell him just exactly what a "draw-head" might be. There is such a thing on Plymouth locomotives but GK didn't know it.

TWO WEEKS AGO WE NOTED

in this column that E. W. Heath had returned from Washington where he spent some time in the interest of F-R-H. Nothing definite was given out at that time. But we are happy to say in this issue that our firm has received an order for 30 five-ton diesel-powered locomotives. The order comes through the government as part of the Lend-Lease program to aid England. The locomotives will be exported to Egypt and will be used in operations on the desert there. The entire number of locomotives are scheduled to be delivered in four months from date of order. This will insure work for the locomotive division, as it carries so much work that no delay should be encountered in securing materials.

ANTIQUHUNTING IS A NEW

hobby which is being enjoyed by three of the office girls. And I do mean antiques!

IT IS RECORDED THAT WE cannot be certain that we have in for the column this week, giving full and complete details of a little party. We are trying to conduct this column in a manner so that we bring smiles and relaxation to all, and no one's one or a few individuals. Let's try and keep it that way, and I am certain every one will be more interested.

DID YOU KNOW WE HAVE A fan dancer in our midst? Yes, it's true, but she isn't quite ready for a Broadway contract. In fact, her first appearance didn't turn out so well. Tuesday morning Jerry R. was tripping down thru the hallway, when she stepped right into an electric fan which was on the floor. She didn't get the wall. Jerry was frustrated for a few moments. The fan blades scared her. er... shall we say... limb or leg? Well, any way she rushed over to the first aid department of which Vance Snyder is chief. Vance looked at the injury, and slowly he saturated a swab with iodine and handing it to Jerry, said: "This is as far as I go."

HAROLD PORKY ROSS, WHO has been doing a big job in a big way... painting locomotives and doing the business, has taken over the Standard Oil Station on Sandusky street, formerly operated by O. L. Taylor. Ross has been on the job here for many years, and his co-workers regret to see him leave. Yet they wish for him much success in his new venture. Clint Moore, superintendent of the loco, div. paid Ross a fine tribute, when I think it worth repeating here. Moore said: "I never had to worry about Ross, for when there was a job to be done, he had it finished on time."

LOCAL YOUTHS ELIGIBLE FOR NEWLY NAMED DEFENSE CENTERS

The announcement by Leo B. Jacobs, Ohio National Youth Administration chief, that all Ohioans of NYA age are eligible for NYA's resident defense-training centers brought word from the NYA director James T. Bolan, at Toledo, Ohio, that interviewing schedules for applicants to resident centers of this area are as follows: Wednesday mornings, City Hall, Bellevue, Ohio, from 11:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon. Wednesday afternoons, Ohio State Employment Service, Norfolk, Ohio, from 1:30 p. m. to 2:30 p. m. Mr. Bolan stated that the only requirements for the new defense work are citizenship and willingness to take the oath of allegiance. "Of course, we want boys who are willing to work and study," the area director added. "And the new short period means a boy must be ambitious and show aptitude for early placement in a defense industry job." OPN's defense-training director, Colonel F. J. McSherry, recently conferred with Jacobs and other officials in Columbus, mapping the new program which coordinates state departments of education with state employment services, and NYA, and sets definite training time schedules for young workers and their placement in defense industries.

National Youth Administration resident training centers of Ohio have been classed as Defense Industry Training projects and thrown open to all Ohioans between 18 and 26, with approval of the Office of Production Management. Leo B. Jacobs, Ohio NYA administrator, announced the new system after conferences with OPN officials. Jacobs also ordered limiting training periods to 3 months, stressing machine-tool operation as the chief work for youth in the centers, which are at Mansfield, Carrollton and Xenia. Pictures show: One: Machinists of tomorrow being prepared for defense industry. Two: Exercises are being developed, too, in archery and other sports. Three: "The Gang" off to play in a public night ball-game. Four: Quiet hour at Resident Center when shop crews have washed up for dinner and someone's sister is waiting for him, talking to supervisors on the office porch.

11 PLYMOUTH STREET

Around the Square

(By Phineas Whittlesseed)

LABOR DAY IS OVER AND weren't you tired Tuesday? It was rather a quiet day, though around Plymouth; a few visitors, and a number attended out-of-town events and places. But it's time to think about business and school again.

J. W. (JAKE) McINTIRE LOOKS a little "old-maidish" while he sweeps the walk in front of his store.

I THINK THE BOYS AROUND the Square should give Donald Akers a BOX of cigars for being the father of a TEN pound boy!

JAKE MYERS AND WM. WECH-ter had a bit of excitement on Monday afternoon. The local pair were out in a boat, owned by an Ashland physician, with the doctor and another gentleman from Shelby. They were doing his of fishing around the pier at Huron, when Myers saw a speedboat making a short turn, completely astir. The boat was occupied by two couples from Mansfield, one of the girls being unable to swim. The Ashland doc steered his boat hurriedly to the rescue, but was unable to make contact in the first attempt. However, lifelifts were cast to the unfortunate couples and a few minutes later Arthur, Bill and the rest made a rescue. No one was seriously injured, but it proved a bit of excitement for all concerned.

MR. AND MRS. RAY DININGER Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur DeWitt formed a fishing party Sunday and tried their luck on the Lake Erie reefs. Wind from the south, and well-fed fish were given as the reasons for not making a "catch." However, Mrs. DeWitt is enjoying a very nice sunburn from continuous exposure. Better luck next time.

LOUIE DERRINGER MAKES A daily trip around the Square, and his many friends are always glad to say: Hi, Louie!

DR. LABARRE LABORED ON Labor Day by doing some "finishing touches" on his new office which will be located in the Cheeseman building. Doc, as you know, recently purchased the structure from Miss Ida Cheeseman, and he has been busy doing over the interior. The offices will be modern in every way, and will have all the equipment necessary to make tooth-work easy and painless.

THE FAMILY WASH PROVED a little expensive to Mrs. Arthur Myers Tuesday morning. She bumped her glasses and as a result, it will require a new lens on the left side. Jake says: "It would have been cheaper to let the laundry do it."

YOUNG "DOC" BABCOCK HAD the misfortune of wrecking his Dad's car last Saturday night. Doc slipped the machine out of the car unbeknown to his Dad, and as a result he had an accident. His whereabouts are unknown.

SOME HOW OR OTHER THE joke failed to materialize and the jokers disappointed. Returning home Wednesday from several days' vacation, Bob Lewis found a large paper notice pasted on his barber shop window advising the world that "this shop will be sold at sheriff's sale." Calmly inquiring whether or not everyone had seen it, he removed the sign and lodged it in the waste paper basket—and that was all there was to it.

DOG BITES CHILD. Fourteen stitches were required to close the wound when a large police dog attacked Dan Van Wagner of New Haven, Wednesday noon. The child is the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Van Wagner, and had gone to the home of a new playmate when the dog, which was tied, jumped at the youngster, inflicting severe gashes on his face.

ELI WHITNEY AND HIS CRITICS

Critics who wail unjustly about imagined slowness in America's defense production would do well to remember the story of Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin and father of the mass production technique. If they don't, they'll find themselves in the same embarrassing position that his critics did.

In 1798 the War Department granted Whitney a contract to make 10,000 muskets within two years. At the end of that time he was criticized because he had produced only a few hundred guns. But he had done something far more important—something the critics didn't know about. He had invented machinery that could make interchangeable parts for those guns, and make them in quantity.

Up until that time gunsmiths had made each part of each musket individually. Whitney's method of making identical parts that could be used in one gun or another was revolutionary. It took longer to begin doing, but once the tools for making the parts were finished, they produced muskets in greater quantities than anything that had been known before. Whitney's critics were confounded by the facts of the case. Criticism sprang from ignorance of what was going on.

Today those who know the scope of industry's job know that these defense preliminaries are necessary and they hail the speed with which they are being completed. Mr. Knudsen has just announced that our gigantic task of tooling up is almost over. Such is the genius of industry, however, that even while it has been going on arms have been rolling from factories in quantities that were thought impossible a year ago. When in the near future it is finally ended, we have it on Mr. Knudsen's authority that "America can write its own ticket on war material, and that ticket can, as far as I am concerned, be twice what anybody else's ticket is."

IS AMERICA SENILE?

There are those who say that America as we have known her is finished. They say it won't take a Hitler invasion to bring to an end the era of freedom, opportunity and growth which have characterized this nation in the past.

America is mature, they say, and we must now change our whole concept of her.

Let us see if we are so mature that we can no longer grow. It is important to know what kind of a country we are arming to defend, and what potentialities it may have for progress after the smoke of the present world chaos clears.

A country, like a man or woman, grows in many ways. A man or woman may be physically "mature," and cease growing in stature at 21 years of age, or before. But in the mental — intellectual — sphere growth may continue throughout life. Thomas A. Edison was still growing when he died at 84. The same is true of many other men and women.

America's physical frontiers did close a few decades ago, and in that sense the country is mature. But science and technology—the new mental and intellectual frontier—are just in their infancy. It is they which will create the opportunities for tomorrow—new jobs, new industries, the demand for new industrial plants, new raw materials, new goods and improved services.

No, indeed, America is not senile. If we demonstrate the qualities of character that made possible our admirable physical development the only limit to our continued growth will be our fertile imaginations

Keep in mind that you have a certain duty toward Plymouth, and when the re-organization of the Civic Club gets under way, you will have an opportunity to do your part for the community. There is a vast need for such a club and it will take complete cooperation on the part of every one.

One trouble with many of us white folks is that we haven't developed a working philosophy like that of the fat negro cook down in Houston, Texas.

She was asked what was the secret of her calmness and freedom from care. Her reply was thorough and complete:

"Well, hi'ts disaway. When I sits I sits loose. An' when Ah stah'ts to worry, I falls asleep."

NEW LAW LETS PERSONALS

TWP. TRUSTEES IGNORE BIDDING

Under a new law which took effect Saturday, township trustees will be limited only by their treasury resources in the construction and improvement of roads without competitive bidding.

A trustees' lobby obtained legislative enactment and executive approval of the measure after Gov. John W. Bricker had vetoed a similar measure because it curtailed the competitive bidding feature.

The first bill vetoed by the governor only permitted township trustees to proceed without competitive bidding in the construction or reconstruction of roads to $3,000 per mile.

The bill which was finally approved recognized no bound, while the measure requires the trustees to obtain bids on projects involving more than $1,000 a mile they may reject them without giving any reason and proceed to do the work themselves.

The new law also authorizes trustees to trade in old road machinery for new.

Miss Mabel Hanna of Bucyrus returned Monday to her home after several days' visit with Miss Edith Kenestrick.

Mildred Irene Woodworth left Wednesday evening to assume her work at the Mansfield General Hospital after a three week's vacation.

Misses Iva Budd and Merle Mosher of Cleveland Heights were Wednesday visitors of Miss Ethel Major.

Miss Mildred Irene Woodworth spent Friday at Old Homestead, guest of Mrs. Earl Heath and family at their summer cottage.

Labor Day callers at the home of Miss Edith Kenestrick were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Horveth, son Alexander and daughter Dorothy of Elyria.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Ward spent the week-end and Labor Day at Ruggles Beach.

HINTS TO HOMEMAKERS

by PAULINE SCHOFIELD

"The Saints Preserve Us"

The "Saints Preserve Us" must indeed be a phrase meant for this year's fruit crop because the housewives are still busy putting the top of the crop in jars for their family's all-year enjoyment.

Do you know the difference between jams, preserves, conserves, and butters? There isn't a great deal but in general.

Jams—are made from crushed fruit cooked with sugar until the mixture is thick.

Preserves—resemble jams but are made from whole small fruits or pieces of larger fruits cooked in sugar until the syrup is clear.

Marmalades—are fruit jellies with pieces of fruit suspended in them.

Conserves—are made from two or more fruits, one of which is usually a citrus fruit.

Butters—are made from soft flushed fruits put through a food chopper and sieved.

Peach Preserves

2 C. sugar

1 lb. peaches (sliced)

Cook sugar and water together until a thin syrup is formed. Add peaches and cook until peaches are clear and syrup is thick. Pour into jars or glasses and cover hot preserves with paraffin at once. Makes about 1 pt.

Carrot Marmalade

12 raw carrots

4 C. sugar

1 tsp. ground cinnamon

3 lemons

1 cup. ground cloves

1 cup. ground allspice

Grate carrots, add sugar, and let stand one hour. Add lemon juice and cook slowly for 1 hour. Turn into sterilized jars and seal.

Jam Sessions

If you have thought of your jam cupboard as furnishing just a degree of food and an occasional meat relish, here is an idea that's just a little bit different.

Coconut Brambles

3 C. sifted cake flour

1 tsp. salt

1 C. sugar

1 C. cream

2 Tbsp. milk

2 tsp. baking powder

4 egg whites

1 tsp. vanilla

1/4 tsp. almond extract

1 C. blackberry jelly

Cocoanut

Sift flour once, measure, add salt and 1/2 C. sugar, and sift again. Add cream, milk, and baking powder to egg whites, and beat with rotary egg beater until mixture thickens; then add flavoring and remaining sugar. Fold in flour gently. Bake in two greased pans, 8x8x2 inches, in moderate oven, 25 degrees, for 25 minutes, or until done. Cool. Put layers together with blackberry jelly. Cut into 2-inch squares or diamond-shaped pieces, cover each square with boiled frosting, and sprinkle with cocoanut. Makes 25 brambles.

Polish Tartlets

1 recipe standard pastry

1 jelly (any flavor)

Roll pastry 3/4-inch thick and cut in 2 1/2-inch squares; wet edges and fold toward center, pressing lightly. Chill. Bake in hot oven, 350 degrees, for 20 minutes, then decrease heat to slow oven, 300 degrees, and bake until done. Press down center and fill with jelly.

CROP LOANS NOW READY

Emergency loans for the production of winter wheat and other small grains, for the purchase of feed for livestock, are now available to farmers in Huron county. Applications for these loans are being received in Norwalk, at the office of county agent.

These loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers whose cash requirements are small and who cannot obtain a loan from any other source, including production credit associations, banks or other private concerns or individuals.

As in former years, the money loaned will be limited to the applicant's actual needs for growing 1941 winter grain crops, or purchasing feed or livestock, and in no instance may exceed $400.00.

Borrowers who obtain loans for the production of cash crops are required to give as security a first lien on the crop financed, or, in the case of loans for the purchase of feed for livestock, a first lien on the livestock to be fed.

Inquire of your county Agent regarding this loan.

Crops Need Well Rounded Diet Same as Do Livestock

CHICAGO.—Placing plant food within handy reach of growing crops is as important to farmers proper as setting feed within easy reach of hungry livestock, according to a statement issued here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee. "Crops need a well-rounded ration the same as cattle," the statement points out. "A farmer's re-responsibility does not end merely in supplying his soil with fertilizer. His job is effectively done only if he places that fertilizer where it will do the most good.

The practical value of correct fertilizer placement has been demonstrated by thousands of corn growers throughout the Middle West.

Ten years ago many corn growers applied all the fertilizer broadcast or past in row and part broadcast. But the rapid improvement in equipment for applying fertilizer near the row or hill and the higher yields resulting from this method, have encouraged farmers to adopt this system of placement.

BUY FERTILIZER NOW TO BE CERTAIN OF NEEDS, FARMERS TOLD

Transportation Systems Face Highest Traffic Peak.

CHICAGO.—With rising defense demands confronting the railroads and truck lines with the heaviest traffic volume in years, farmers were urged to purchase their fertilizers earlier than usual this year to help ease the strain on the nation's transportation systems.

"By so doing," says a statement by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, "they can avoid the possibility of delays in delivery later on and assure themselves of adequate supplies of fertilizer at planting time."

Car Construction Lags.

"The ability of the rail and truck lines to handle the constantly growing volume of freight depends much on the cooperation of farmers as it does on industrial shippers. Every car and truck load moved now will help relieve the carriers of extra burdens when traffic reaches its peak a few weeks hence."

The transportation problem is complicated by the fact that new freight car construction is lagging behind schedule, according to the statement, which quotes from a recent address by Ralph Budd, transportation commissioner of the Council of National Defense.

Victory or defeat of America's defense program, the statement concludes, depends as much on transportation and farm production as it does on the output of guns and planes.

Farmers Can Help.

"The transportation systems need all the help they can get in meeting their problems. Farmers can cooperate by placing orders for fertilizer and other supplies running into tonnage now instead of waiting until later on. They can reinforce their own food producing efforts as well."

"In the vital job of growing abundant crops for defense needs, the productivity of the soil is of No. 1 importance. By combining sound fertilizer practices with the use of fertilizers containing nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, farmers can increase the per acre yield of their crops and improve the all-around fertility level of their soil."

Federal Judge Al Dayton To Conduct Trial On Penalty Protest Suits

Dayton, O.—Two suits attacking constitutionality of the government's wheat marketing restrictions will be heard by a three judge federal district court if the trial is held at Dayton, Federal Judge Robert R. Nevin announced in his September 19 for arguments on motions attacking the suits.

The motions filed by U. S. Attorney Calvin Crawford, contended among other things that the local court had no jurisdiction because Secretary of Agriculture Wickard, one of the defendants, was not a resident of the court district. The suits, brought in behalf of Amox Mattix and George Mikell, Freble county farmers and Roscoe C. Filburn, of Montgomery county, declared the government had no right to impose a penalty of 49 cents a bushel for wheat when sold in excess of quotas.

WILL HOLD CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS AT SANDUSKY

Washington, D. C.—Congressman A. D. Baumhart, Jr., has announced that a competitive examination for appointments to West Point and Annapolis, from the Thirteenth Ohio Congressional District, will be conducted by the United States Civil Service Commission on October 4, 1941.

The Federal Building (Post Office) Sandusky, Ohio, has been designated by the United States Civil Service Commission as the place where the examination will be held.

The examinations are restricted to residents of the district and the nominations will be made according to the grades certified by the U. S. Civil Service Commission, provided the applicants are otherwise qualified as to character, residence, etc.

The boys who reside in the district and who desire to participate in the qualifying examinations on October 4, should communicate with Congressman Baumhart, Room 339, House Office Building, Washington, D. C., immediately and not later than Sept. 10, 1941, so that the necessary authorization may be sent to them with instructions as to when and where to report for physical and mental examinations.

Each candidate should specify whether he seeks admittance to the Military Academy at West Point, or the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Each applicant is required to pass a preliminary physical examination given by Army and Navy examiners before he is eligible to participate in the mental examination of the 13th district competition.

ANDY'S JALLOPY MAKES COMEBACK

Andy Hardy's famous jallopy, given away for lost after Judge Hardy smashed it up in "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary," has been recreated in "Life Begins for Andy Hardy" starting at the Cambria Theatre, Sunday for 3 days.

After Lewis Stone bought Miekiey Rooney a new car in the last picture, it was thought that its old crate was finished with its movie career. So Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's transportation department used its parts to repair other machines on the lot.

But the script of the new picture called for Andy to go back to his first love in closing scenes. The result was that every mechanic in the studio was turned loose to find the missing parts and reassemble the jallopy.

Learning HOW for Defense Work

Prof. Barnwell of Stevens Institute Praises Youngsters' Enthusiasm - Experts Helping Thousands to Learn Machine Tool Procedure.

At Stevens Institute of Technology, George W. Barnwell, Professor of Production Practice, has been instructing and turning out some very fine young engineers for a number of years. Some of them today are occupying important positions in the National Defense program. Just ahead of him is perhaps an even more important task—aiding thousands of men of all ages who heretofore have been unable to obtain instruction, to acquire a sufficient knowledge of machine shop practice to make themselves of real value to Defense industries.

Professor Barnwell has compiled and edited a book that fills a great present industrial need—the New Encyclopedia of Machine Shop Practice—a 576 page volume, in practical, understandable, non-technical English, with nearly 1000 illustrations and covering 2800 separate items. It is within the reach of everyone, for it will cost less than two dollars.

"It has been my experience that many young men are better off and happier with a combined use of their hands and their heads, rather than merely using their heads alone to earn a living," remarked Professor Barnwell. "Throughout the country, youngsters today are enthusiastic about getting into Defense industries and are showing a splendid patriotic spirit."

"In the past, one of the greatest handicaps to ambitious, mechanically-inclined boys was that books on the subject they needed most were too costly. Within the next ten days this new book will be published and many who live in places where elementary training is not available, will be able to learn a surprising amount from it. Knowledge that will enable them to advance much more rapidly when they obtain jobs in industry, there is an appalling shortage of machinists and trained men. Wages are high. Many companies welcome applicants who have some basic knowledge and desire further practical training." The book to which a score of practical experts have contributed, and which is published by Wm. H. Wise & Co., 50 West 47th St., New York, opens with what is in effect a complete home-study course in one chapter on the use of hand tools. It then covers the whole area of metal working by modern machinery—machine tool operations, turret and automatic lathes, thread-cutting, milling, planing, shaping, gear cutting, jigs and fixtures, punch press operations, forging, welding, cutting, brazing and foundry practice and the use of precision instruments in the shop.

SLUMP IN LICENSES

NORWALK—The big slump in marriage licenses here closely following the greatest rush in local history to obtain them, is attributed largely to the new law requiring a blood test. The marked increase in the cost of getting married is also a cause, but not by any means as important as the other factor.

No marriage license has been issued here in two weeks. One application has been made in that time but the license has not been granted. Another factor causing the great reversal in inclination to become wedded, is the belief that the government will not take as many men for army service as before.

TO DEDICATE BALL PARK AT WILLARD ON SUNDAY

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 3450, Willard, will dedicate their new ball park, Sept. 7th, at 1 p. m., with special flag ceremonies.
