PARSEL DIES IN AIR CRASH

Helen Becker Joins Navy

FIRST IN COUNTY TO JOIN NAVY; NURSES ARE CALLED "SAILORS IN WHITE."

Mrs. Helen Becker, a Plymouth girl, has the distinction of being the first registered nurse from Richland county to enlist with the naval forces of the United States since the declaration of war.

Two weeks ago we reported her assignment to Bethesda, at the Naval Medical Center, Maryland, near Washington, D. C., and now we are proud to announce that she has been commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Navy. This ranks second only to that of a lieutenant in the Army. The nurses who have enlisted and who have been accepted are known as "Sailors in White."

Miss Becker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Becker of Park Avenue, Plymouth, and until her enlistment has been doing private duty at the Mansfield General Hospital, Mansfield. She graduated from the Mansfield Hospital in 1930, and was supervisor of the private pavilion for several years. After taking a post-graduate course at the University of Michigan she spent two years in California, following her profession.

Helen graduated from the Plymouth High School in 1927, and was well-known for her athletic ability as well as scholastic rating. She captained the Girl's Basketball team for two years, and in 1927 the team won the county championship. Swimming was one of her favorite recreations while in Plymouth, and lacking a swimming pool, Helen and her friends swam in the local stone quarry.

Every best wish in the world is accorded Ensign Becker from the friends back home.

AAA ERRORS IN CHECKING YIELD ALLEGED IN SUIT

MISTAKE KEPT WHEAT OFF MARKET, FARMERS TELL U. S. COURT

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fackler and Sam Fackler of Plymouth, Russell Kiko and R. R. Fawcett of Canton in addition to five representatives from Stark County, Ohio, have returned from Topeka, Kansas where they attended the law suit against the AAA attacking the constitutionality of the marketing quotas.

The suit was tried last Thursday and we reprint the article taken from the Topeka State Journal who covered the case. The farmers, plaintiffs in a suit attacking constitutionality of the AAA wheat marketing quota, testified today in federal district court Thursday they were not allowed to market their grain after local AAA committees had allegedly miscalculated on harvest acreages.

H. H. Hoffman, of Abilene, a voluntary co-operator in the AAA program, said he had no excess wheat and was not subject to the 49 per cent penalty. He was unable to get a marketing card until he paid a $3 measuring fee, he claimed he was within his marketing rights when he tried to sell his grain but was kept from it by the local committee. "The committee overestimated my wheat harvest," he declared, adding he did not get any satisfaction when he attempted to appeal.

These and other witnesses introduced as evidence franked letters they said they received from the department of agriculture telling them how to vote in the wheat referendum last May.

They were among the nearly 300 farmers seeking to recover more than $80,000 penalties and measuring fees they claim were wrongfully assessed against them.

The 3-judge court decided to hear the arguments despite government attorney's appeals for more time to prepare their case.

A similar case in Ohio, in which the 49-cent bushel penalty was held invalid, is pending in the United States Supreme Court.

William Lemke, former North Dakota congressman who is representing the farmers, said he purported to show that the wheat penalties were unconstitutional and that "the agriculture department, thus the AAA, was not wanting to increase prices and aid the farmer, but to hold him back."

RED CROSS CLASSES TO BE DROPPED

The American Red Cross Classes in first aid for men only announced for Tuesday evening April 7th was poorly attended that L. E. Brown instructor states they will be dropped.

The classes were to be held in the School Auditorium twice a week, with two hour classes, and a number had stated they would be glad to attend. However, many local men turned out and three from Willard, making the number insufficient to begin classes.

Mr. Brown is an authorized Red Cross Instructor and receives no compensation for his work and does it at a great sacrifice in his off hours. He has been in great demand in Willard and also Mansfield but felt that Plymouth should come first, however, the turnout was so unsatisfactory that those who came Tuesday evening will probably be transferred to another of his classes.

Flyer Had Seen Action Since Outbreak of War

The war strikes home in Plymouth in the announcement made late Wednesday night of the death of Captain Elmer L. Parsel, who died for his country while on duty in the vicinity of Karachi, India. Death came to Parsel on Thursday, April 2, when he figured in an airplane accident. Mrs. Parsel, the flier's wife, who resides in Macon, Ga., was officially notified late Wednesday, and she telephoned to the family here informing them of the tragic mishap.

Captain Parsel's death came just two days after he had written a letter to his father on March 30th from Karachi, India. The letter was received here Tuesday, April 7th, being brought across by a "ferry commander." The fact that Captain Parsel had stated in this, his last message, that he was doing very little flying, but acting more as an instructor, seems to substantiate the story that his death was caused by being involved in an airplane crash.

The grand jury will also take up charges against Harry W. Bedell, former Norwalk garage man who was released recently from prison after serving a sentence for falsifying an automobile certificate of title.

March 30th, was received by his father on Tuesday of this week. The letter was sent by Ferry Command, and now that the Pan American brings mail to India he hopes to hear more often from the home folks. To date he had not received a letter from this country since the outbreak of the war.

Excerpts taken from the letter states: ". . . it surely seems like a long time since I've been in the U. S. and I don't seem to be getting much closer. At present we are organizing a new outfit to be called the 7th Group because we have three squadrons of ground personnel. The flying crews are in Australia so ours will all be new. We train them here to a certain point. I have a staff job now, second in command of the group, so I'm not flying so much, I guess. I surely did my share for a while tho. Major Combe is here too, the group Commanding Officer—he is my old C. O. from the 19th you know. He was ordered here and asked me to come with him. We get along swell as we have been side by side right from the start of the war and know pretty well what to expect. One couldn't have a better C. O."

"Don't worry about me. We are doing things as safely as possible and seem to be doing fairly well, so far anyway. I won't be in actual combat so much any more, either. They seem to have other plans for me. For some reason they think I know enough to help others more by staying on the ground. Sometimes, I'm glad of it, but I do still like to fly."

THE JAPS AREN'T SO TOUGH, ALL WE NEED IS LOTS OF AIRPLANES AND EQUIPMENT.

"When writing my address is Capt. Elmer Parsel, 7th Bomb Group, P. O. Box A. P. O. 836, N. Y. City, N. Y. My letters will be mailed without stamps hereafter for army purposes.

"Tell me how the winter was. I haven't been where it was even cool except high up in the mountains as most of our bombing was 25,000 feet or higher and good to us probably have been. I think I'll be working here or out of here for sometime but one is never sure you know. I've been everything from a bushman in Australia to a wild man in Bornea, among other things. We have had some fun tho."

"Bye, bye, and lots of love. ELMER"

"ARSENIC AND OLD LACE" COMING TO HANNA, CLEVELAND

"Arsenic and Old Lace" comes to the Hanna Theatre, Cleveland, for five days only, beginning on Tuesday evening, April 14.

Written by Joseph Kesselring and produced by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse, this hilarious farce comes as an established Broadway success. Featured in the cast are such eminent players as Laura Hope Crews, Enrich von Stroheim, Jack Whiting, Ethel Shannon and Forrest Orr. Others are Artie Adaman, Herb Shriner, Harry Kader, Herbie Rosner, Al Webster, Harold Gray, Henry Buckler, Richard S. Bishop and Otto Sheridan.

The play was staged by Bretagne Windust and the setting is by Raymond Sovay.

By this time the unique story of "Arsenic and Old lace" has become pretty well known. How two elderly refined ladies named Abby and Martha Brewster live in a shady lane in Brooklyn and carry on a very, very shady bit of business commonly called murder; how they do away with no less than a dozen old gentlemen who come to rent rooms of them; and how all this is turned into what has been termed "the most riotously hilarious comedy of the season"—are but feeble suggestions of what goes on. There are numerous other characters, such as a nephew who imagines he is the late "Teddy" Roosevelt; another who vies with the sisters in their amusing avocation and has his face lifted every time he knocks off a victim; and still another who tries to be a same dramatic critic despite his lack of understanding. There is also a young love story, but it is a pretty rocky time of it amidst the turmoil which includes a policeman who fails to discover a dozen murders right under his nose because he is intent on writing a play that will knock people dead.

Shiloh Merchants Basketball Team Wins 25 Out of 33 Games For Season

Although the Army and Navy have taken a number of the original members, the Shiloh Merchants Basketball team came thru the season just ended with a choice second place seat in the Willard League. The Shiloh merchants team has been active for the past four years, and there were many exciting games staged this past season.

Out of the 33 games played the Shiloh boys won 25 of them and lost only eight. During the four seasons basketball the Shiloh merchants have scored a total of 2184 points while their opponents chalked up 1789 points in 63 games. Out of the 68 games the Shiloh Merchants have won 47 of them, losing 21 which isn't such a bad record.

It was in the Fall of 1939 when a group of ambitious young men who wanted to keep physically fit decided to organize an independent basketball team. Shiloh and its immediate vicinity has always been a "basketball community". Having no funds to buy suits and equipment the team turned to the Shiloh businessmen for support, and they received it. Before the list of business men could be gone over, they had been promised ten suits and the only stipulation was that the suits should carry the name

This year when the basketball season rolled around we found ourselves surrounded with a list of eighteen or twenty boys capable of playing. Out of this batch ten or twelve boys came to the first meeting and selected Roy Shaffer as their coach and Alvin Garrett as business manager. Then it was discovered we had invitations to join two nearby city leagues, The Mansfield Class B league or of the firm which donated it. Those who contributed are as follows: Huston's Dairy, Patterson's Grocery, Moser Hardware, Stan Moser Trucking, Williams Market, Don Hammann's Quality Coal Co., Frazier's Confectionery, Page's Hatchery and McBride's Dairy. The present ten members and we are sure the boys who have played in the past, take this opportunity of publicly thanking them for the much needed support of the team.

Each year has been a success as far as winning games has been concerned. The first two years the team elected Stanley Moser as their coach and with what records we have left we won fifteen games while losing ten. Last year Robert Moser was elected as coach, with our side winning ten games only losing three.

NEW HAVEN CLASS PLAY

STUDENTS HAVE WORKED HARD TO MAKE IT A REAL SUCCESS.

The New Haven Senior Class play, "Midnight," a mystery-comedy in three acts, will be given Wednesday, April 15, and Friday, April 17, at 8:00 P. M., in the New Haven auditorium.

"Midnight" takes place on New Year's Eve. The Greenwood house is deserted, supposedly. Lights go on and off unexpectedly; people walk in and out of the place—appear and disappear sometimes mysteriously and sometimes for perfectly good reasons.

There is a mystery in the play which centers around a secret of room, which only three people know anything about.

Humor is added by the colored chauffeur of Miss Julia Greenwood.

However, the play also has its love angles. There is happiness ahead for Joe and Ellen and for Bob and Claire. And when rewards are due—and some deserve them—they are forthcoming.

So come one! Come all! And see why a peanut plays such an important part in "Midnight," although in every day life it has no special significance.

And now for the characters:

Julia Greenwood	... A spinster of 50	Velma McGinty
Claire Greenwood	... Her Niece	Bernadine Stevens
Bob Morris	... Claire's Friend	John Van Laan
Samuel Hardman	... A Lawyer	Masie Vander Bilt
Ellen	... Miss J. Greenwood's Maid	Margie Wise
Leonard	... Miss J. Greenwood's chauffeur	Leonard
Joe Howard	... Ellen's Boy Friend	Orvel Stevens
Hugh Nichols	... A Friend of Joe's	William Wyandt
Miss	... A Mysterious Visitor	Maxine
Paula Ward	... His Companion	Frank Burman

Don't miss the opportunity to see "Midnight," a mystery-comedy in three acts!

Mr. Power

Food—the most important interest of the American family, the most vital weapon of defense—takes the spotlight in Plymouth for two days as "The Great American Food Fair" is presented here. What to eat for better health and more energy—how to serve it more attractively—how to economize on food budgets in the face of rising prices—these are some of the many important subjects which will be covered in the programs of this timely food event. They will be presented in an interesting and entertaining manner by food specialists in programs packed with dramatic thrills and sparkling dialogue, built around a patriotic theme keyed to the times.

Opening program, "Keep The Home Fires Cooking," begins Monday at 8:00 on the stage of High School Auditorium. Doors open at 7:00. Another program on Tuesday at 2:00 P. M. You'll not want to miss one minute of this spectacular food show.

AROUND The SQUARE

Now that Easter is over and all local churches were full to overflowing with many present, perhaps, who will not go again until next Easter, we issue this invitation in behalf of the churches to attend next Sunday. It is quite time and is taken from the Carroll News . . .

It is better to go on your two feet than to be carried by our friends. Besides you will be of little use to the church or the church will be after you are dead.

Come Sunday meet your neighbors and friends there and receive the inspiration and help that come from fellowship with general companions.

A hearse is a mighty poor thing to come to church in.

Why wait? Come now!

I would much prefer holding services with you than over you. This the church sometimes looks to the pastor when he goes into the pulpit

Any pastor would just as soon preach to a woodpile as to empty benches.

There is no inspiration in vacant pews. This is what thoughts look at every service and will teach him himself bring a friend or relative.

The best way to toppe up the preacher is to hide the empty benches with people. If you have never taken time to consider this be sure you pastor would be happy to see you at your church next Sunday.

Of Schine Circuit

BUFFALO, N. Y.—U. S. Attorney George L. Grobe said yesterday that the government anti-trust action against the Schine theater circuit would be brought to trial in federal court here late in April.

The government asks that the Schine, which operates 290 theaters in New York, Toledo, Kentucky, Indianapolis and Milwaukee, be prohibited from acquiring any more theaters, and requests an order dissolving the corporation.

G. A. A.

All members of the G. A. A. spent a pleasant evening Monday May 25 attending the Girls All-State game at Ashland College. We ate supper sooner than others we looked the town over. And at the end of the game we were entertained to refreshments at the college which we enjoyed very much.

We wish to thank Mrs. Seaton, Miss Southwick, and the two Mrs. Brooks for driving and taking a load of girls.

The Sophomore Class and the Home Economics Class enjoyed a roller skating party at the Skating rink at North Lake Park in Marion Friday evening, Mar. 27.

THE SNOPER !!!
We wonder if Ann has gotten lost in any more stores.

There certainly were a lot of people hastily combing their hair and powdering their noses and applying fresh barn paint when Mr. Joseph announced that individual pictures were to be taken Monday afternoon. It came as a surprise to everyone.

Mr. Joseph has kindly consented to teach several students after school is out. Of course, it couldn't be that these pupils were serving detention. They wouldn't skip school on a lovely spring day in March, would they? Or would they?

It seems that Mr. Spirk is taking no more chances with "Bessie" (his car). He is now walking and what's more he likes it!

It seems to be a regular habit of Elmer Montgomery to miss school every Monday. Could it be that the little redhead at Butler is too much for him?

It seems that Jane is getting the old "ole rush" from quite a number of the opposite sex. How about it, Jane, which one is it?

If you've never seen Miss West and Miss Southwick really hungry you should have been along to Ashland with the G. A. A. last Wednesday. They were so starved they were ready to eat the napkins and silverware. They're still a little weak from under-nourishment.

At a recent party for the Juniors held at Mary Brook's home, the class was playing "Going Out West" with Mary acting as leader. Mary said she was going to take her automobile with her and Dorothy Dinninger said she was taking herself. According to the rules of the game the remaining players had to do with what they took along just as Mary did with her automobile. You can imagine Dorothy's confusion when Mary stated she was going to fix her carburetor.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Class had a party at the home of one of our members, Mary Brook, last Friday night. This was the party which the losing side in our stationery campaign had to do for the winner. It was a great success. It was windy and rainy, everyone had a good time and the whole class wants to express their thanks to the best you've ever seen.

CHAPEL

Chapel for Monday, March 30 was in charge of Dramatic Club under the direction of Miss Southwick. The program was as follows:

The Student Council deep in plans for the Annual. Don't forget to bring in your pictures of boys in the service and give them to Margy Benedict. Also bring in your humorous pictures of girls and boys or teachers in the school. We plan to dedicate this year book to all the boys from our community who are in the army, navy, or air corps.

PICTURES TAKEN

Mr. Summers, a representative of the Huntzinger Studios, came to our school Monday afternoon and individual pictures were taken of all students in the school. These pictures will be placed in the annual and the student will also be able to buy as many as they care to. Two poses were taken of the teachers and the Seniors.

At the close of the Chapel program on Monday the Eighth Grade presented an Emblem to the school which they earned by selling 138 Old Glory Pins. This emblem is four feet high built in the shape of a red and white striped shield with a gold eagle perched on top of it. It has five service flags across the top of two red, one blue silk tassels on each side of the shield. This is a great asset to the school and the whole school wishes to thank this class for their worth-while presentation.

At a recent party for the Juniors held at Mary Brook's home, the class was playing "Going Out West" with Mary acting as leader. Mary said she was going to take her automobile with her and Dorothy Dinninger said she was taking herself. According to the rules of the game the remaining players had to do with what they took along just as Mary did with her automobile. You can imagine Dorothy's confusion when Mary stated she was going to fix her carburetor.

These things were served at a party which was held in the first grade room that afternoon. You probably would be surprised to know that first grade students could do such good cooking but never-the-less the cookies and pudding were delicious and they enjoyed making them very much. They will make excellent cooks some day.

TROUT SEASON

OPENS SOON

TROUT fishing in Ohio will officially open April 15 and continue until Sept. 15. Commissioner Don Waters of the Ohio Division of Conservation and Natural Resources announced today.

Many rivers and its tributaries offer the only free trout fishing in the state. Large numbers of anglers have been using these streams since the Conservation Division began its trout-stocking and fishing-easement program several years ago. Brown trout five pounds have been netted in past years.

Trout are probably the only game fish that breed in winter. Their nesting time is in January, February and March. By opening date trout have had time to finish breeding.

SHILOH NEWS

Funeral Services For Mrs. Benton

Mrs. Lorene Koerber Benton, 73, died on Easter Sunday morning at 5 o'clock at her home in Columbus, following a long illness.

She was born and reared in Shiloh and was the daughter of William and Ann Cockburn Koerber.

She was united in marriage to Elba L. Benton Oct. 13, 1891 and they resided in Willard where he was owner and editor of The Times. He died in 1933. One daughter, Helen, was born to this union.

Mrs. Benton then returned to her teaching profession which she had followed previous to her marriage. She was a successful teacher in the Shiloh schools a number of years. She then went to Columbus where she made a success in the business world.

She united with Mt. Hope Lutheran church, Feb. 7, 1886 under the pastorate of Dr. J. A. Hall and later transferred her membership to the Methodist church near her home in Columbus, where she was a faithful attendant.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Lindenboll funeral home in Columbus. Rev. Green of the Methodist church officiated.

The body was brought to this place Wednesday morning and services were held at the McQuate funeral home at 1 o'clock. Dr. C. P. Barnes of Willoughby officiated. Burial was in Mt. Hope cemetery.

A Christian woman, a fine mother and true friend has passed on.

Surviving are the one daughter, Mrs. Ed McDowell, five grandchildren and one great granddaughter all of Columbus.

Five sisters, Mrs. Ida McBride, George W. Shafer and Mrs. O. T. Dickerson of Shiloh; Mrs. C. P. Barnes and Miss Avis Koerber of Willoughby, also survive.

POINT OF INTEREST FROM THE SOUTH

Activities of our residents when on vacation or spending several months in other states, are news which is always welcomed by the home folks.

From the St. Petersburg Tourist Club we learn that Miss Ada Gedney supervised the contract and Five Hundred group at the "Victory Party" held on Thursday night in the lounge and parlors of the Dusenbury hotel.

Standing in silent beauty with its silken stars and stripes resting in a beautiful standard our American Flag seemed to give out fresh courage and promise of greater achievements and future peace.

A Patriotic Tea was held Tuesday afternoon at the hotel, at which time Miss Gedney was one of the hostesses. The decorations and all appointments were in patriotic motif.

The International Retired Teachers association held their annual luncheon Wednesday last at the Hotel Concord, and Miss Gedney was chairman of the arrangement committee. There were over 180 present. At this meeting the president of the Chamber of Commerce assured the guests there would be ample gasoline for their return trip. There were also some of the hostesses at the Spring fashion matinee and musical sponsored by the Tourist Society in cooperation with the Fine Arts department of the Women's Club, which featured prominent artists and was held in the parlors and gardens of the Huntington Hotel.

In the Evening Independent of Feb. 26, Miss Gedney's picture is one of three notable in the annual luncheon of the I. R. T. A.

The Tourist Association meets every first and third Friday afternoons in the assembly room of the Tourist Center building.

Derived From Scapagoat
The origin of the expression "to make one's goat," comes from the word "scapagoat." Under Biblical law, if a man committed a sin placed upon the head of a goat which was permitted to escape into the wilderness.
