

Bonus Given To Employees

A TOTAL OF $38,000 DISTRIBUTED TO EMPLOYEES OF FATE-ROOT-HEATH.

The Fate-Root-Heath Company, in accordance with their custom for the past two years, have just paid a bonus amounting to a little more than $38,000.00 to their employees, including men who were called to the service during the past year.

This bonus was based on five per cent of the total wages paid to employees during the past twelve months.

In addition, Christmas gifts of $10.00 was sent to every man who previously was an F-R-H employee and who went into the service. According to the F-R-H Honor Roll there are now 81 former F-R-H men in the service.

In a letter to each employee accompanying the bonus check the Company said: "It is a source of great satisfaction to our Board of Directors to be able to pay you this bonus, the same as we have done for the past two years, and which was made possible through your splendid and wholehearted cooperation."

Soldier Killed

DIES NEAR GREENWICH ON WAY HOME TO SEE HIS WIFE AND BABY

Pfc. Vernon E. Culin, 23, of Akron, was killed instantly at 4:00 a. m. Tuesday when the car he was driving crashed into a cement abutment on U. S. Route 22 at Delphi, northeast of Plymouth.

Pfc. Culin was enroute to Akron to visit his wife and eight-month-old son, who were going to the depot to see him off for the AAF flight to make their home.

The driver evidently went to sleep while driving the car, patrolman said. A truck driver saw the wreck and phoned for an ambulance. Pfc. Culin was dead when authorities arrived.

In Willard Hospital

Mrs. Rolla Van Wagner of New Haven is a patient in the Willard Municipal hospital suffering from a badly injured right knee.

Last Friday Mrs. Van Wagner went out to the field where her Danny's pony is kept, and after catching hold of the bridle, the pony reared up, forcing Mrs. Van Wagner to side-step. She turned her ankle and fell with such force that a number of bones in the right knee were crushed. She was removed to the hospital where it will be necessary to place a cast on the injured limb. It will be several weeks before she will be released.

Rebate Light Bills

It is stated that the rebating of December municipal power bills in Norwalk will amount to about $16,000. The average consumer's bill for the month is about $2.50, but the rebates for the larger users in some cases will run up into the hundreds of dollars. Rural district patrons are to have one-third of their bills rebated.

There will be no rebate for the village of Milan and the Rural Electrification Cooperative, Clarice, customers. It is said that Monroeville village councilmen are considering rebating of December power bills there, as has been done in the past.

Two Receive Service Pins

LOCAL PEOPLE GET MEDAL FOR SERVICE AT PARSEL AIR SUPPLY DEPOT.

Two Plymouth residents, Betty Deats, R. 2, 1, near Ashbrook six Lowery, of Plymouth, received recognition by the War Department for "faithful service to their country in time of war" at colorful ceremonies held yesterday at the 931st AAF Specialized Depot at Shelby, Ohio. They were presented with the "Emblem of Civilian Service," which is similar to military campaign ribbons. It is a blue ribbon bearing the red, white and gold insignia of the Air Corps.

Major W. M. Ewing, Commanding Officer of the Depot, which is the largest specialized Air Corps Depot in the world, presented the award to sixty-three of the installation's employees who were eligible for the emblem, having completed six months or more of satisfactory service with the War Department.

The ceremony was held in one of the depot's huge warehouses. As the name of each recipient was called by the Adjutant, they received the awards mounted the stage on which Major Ewing and his staff were grouped. The Commanding Officer then presented the emblem along with an official citation which read as follows: "By direction of the Secretary of War, in War Department Orders "N", dated 5 October 1943, establishing the "Emblem of Civilian Service" for citizens who, for more consecutive months of satisfactory service, you have been cited as recipient of said award.

The Commanding Officer of this headquarters takes pleasure in presenting to you the Award for Civilian Service in recognition of faithful services to your country in time of war. With it go the wishes of the Adjutant, congratulating your Commanding Officer and his staff.

A gala dance honoring the men and women whose service distinguished them for citation was held last night at the depot. In recognition of the importance of the occasion, the Commanding General of Headquarters, Fairchild, of the Service Command, furnished a seventeen piece band for the dance.

SIX NAMED AS FAIR DIRECTORS

Agricultural Society Voices Its Willingness To Continue Junior Exhibit.

Six directors of the Richland County Agricultural society, sponsor of the Richland County Fair, were re-elected at the group's annual meeting Saturday at the Richland county court house where most members of the society expressed a willingness to continue the junior fair until the war's over and a larger program can be resumed.

Named to the board were C. H. Hout, Millin township, who is president; Charles S. Henry, Weller township; H. E. Zofy, Monroe township; H. C. Shaffer, Springfield township; Harry E. Miller, Washington township, and G. W. Page of Shiloh.

While no action was taken on Saturday to map plans for 1944, R. D. Hale, secretary of the fair board, said most members of the association indicated they were well pleased with the 1943 one-day junior fair and believed a similar show should be held next year.

The junior fair, which gives Future Farmer and 4-H club members a place to display their projects, was described by association members as ideal for keeping young people on the farm and interested in agriculture.

Hale said the board probably will decide on its 1944 program when members meet Dec. 31 at the court house to elect officers.

SELLS FARM PROPERTY

A farm sale of unusual interest was made Friday when Huron county sheriff, Jesse W. Mellott sold two parcels of Bronson town township including 199 acres to M. E. Hamer for $14,300. The appraisal was $10,400.

Title of the case was Marion I. Smith, wife of former Sheriff H. D. Smith against Karl S. Schneider et al. The farm includes tracts of 14, 18 acres and 125 acres, the land being the former Gardner McPherson farm.

'For Whom the Bell Tolls'

Car Wrecked

As he was driving his car on Route 61, south of Shelby Sunday shortly after noon, Harry Vandevort was struck by an oncoming motorist, causing injury to Mrs. Vandevort and doing considerable damage to his car.

The accident happened on a curve, when a machine, driven by Frank Grasso of Willard, hugged the wrong side of the road. A number of local people including Mrs. Vandevort, Miss Florence Danner, Miss Margaret Briggs, and Miss Luella Vandevort were occupants of the car, but none was injured other than Mrs. Vandevort who sustained a fractured collarbone and cuts and bruises. The party was enroute to Crestline.

He has donated the house to the community for a museum and library, where related historical articles and information may be preserved and placed on display.

A group of citizens recently met and elected the following officers: President, C. D. Harvey; vice president, Clarence Stevens; secretary, Mrs. Helen Woodworth; treasurer, Mrs. Pearl Everett; trustees, Stanley Woodruff, R. M. Cherry, Mrs. Clara Whitright, Arthur L. Burras and Mrs. Edith Tilton; historian, Rev. Frank Irwin; and custodian, Miss Lena Adams, a retired teacher.

Young and Young represented the plaintiff and G. R. Craig, the defendant.

POWER OFF NEXT MONDAY!

Weather permitting, routine equipment tests by the Ohio Power Company will be made in Plymouth next Monday. Consumers of electricity will take note that the power will be off between the hours of 1:00 and 2:00 p. m.

This announcement was made last week, but inclement weather cancelled it. Be sure and take the necessary precaution and check all electrical appliances at this hour.

House Burns

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the rear part of the Bert Snyder home on West Broadway Thursday night. Firemen were called to the scene of the blaze shortly after 7:00 o'clock, but not before damage estimated at $500 had been done to the home.

Fire Chief Stewart states that the cause of the blaze has not been determined. There was no electric wiring in the house, and there isn't any gas connections. It is believed that matches in old clothing laying about a chair in a room, started the blaze.

Chief Stewart again pointed out the hindrance caused by local motorists driving cars to the fire. Traffic again blocked and hindered the work of placing the fire truck into position. So heavy was traffic at last Thursday evening's blaze, it was necessary for fireman Floyd Sheely to direct the cars into a drive way to prevent a jam at the blaze.

Mr. Snyder, was not at home, as he resides in the Richland County Home.

MIDWEST PUBLIC WORKS PLAN COLUMBUS MEET

A battery of national speakers is being invited to take part in the program which will be divided into several sections, according to topics.

IMPROVING

Plymouth Five Drops Game

A capacity crowd witnessed the defeat of Plymouth to Shiloh last Friday night in the first tilt of the season between the two private teams. From the very start of the referee's whistle which started the game, there was high interest and enthusiasm from the audience that proved to be very loud in noise, but exceptionally clean in sportsmanship. Score for the game was 31-21.

The Shiloh boys played a wonderful game, as well as Plymouth, but it wasn't in the cards for the Plymouth boys to attain their ambition of the evening—to win the game. With ease and accuracy the Shiloh Drummers apparently worked a piece of magic on the basket, for it seemed that they could never miss. The Pigmans got the ball to the basket a sufficient number of times to win the game.

Around the Square

(By Phineas Whittleseed)

IN A REMOTE sort of way, Plymouth was officially represented at the historic conference at Teheran with President Roosevelt, Stalin and Churchill mapping plans for the downfall of the Axis.

Col. Cornelius V. Whitney, husband of the former Miss Eleanor Searle of Plymouth, was among the party accompanying President Roosevelt to his session. During his absence from the States, Mrs. Whitney is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Searle in Bradenton, Fla.

JUST WHAT kind of a welcome would Plymouth residents give to an American-born Japanese family, should one be sent here? Is the feeling so bitter toward all Japanese that it would be out of the question, or would an effort be put forth to see that a living could be made and not completely isolate them? This is not a question for a post-war situation but one of today. A letter was sent this week to Rev. Haines, pastor of the Methodist church, from the War Relocation Authority to see what the possibilities are of having one Japanese family in the community. The matter is to be taken up among the churches to determine the outlook for such a possibility.

"JUNE IN DECEMBER" could very easily be Mrs. O. Lamoreaux's theme song this month. On Friday, Dec. 3rd she wore red violets in full bloom in her garden. The unusually warm weather for this time of the year has caused a number of spring flowers to miscalculate the season.

DIDN'T HAVE to guess—a captain and the colonel were walking down the drill hall. They met many privates, and each time the captain would salute he would mutter, "The same to you."

The colonel's curiosity soon got the better of him and he asked: "Why do you always say that?" The captain replied: "It was once a private, and I know what they are thinking."

NOW WE'VE heard everything—the West Coast, which has claimed superiority over the East on any number of scores, came up with a new one today.

A Pacific coast clothing manufacturer, protesting OPA limitations on dress for women's slacks and coveralls, declared: "Women on the west coast are not built the same as women on the east coast."

WHEN ATTEMPTING to open a jar of chocolate last Friday Weldon Cornell had the misfortune of badly cutting his right hand when the glass jar collapsed. He was taken to the hospital.

He was at the soda grill for a couple of days, so Luther Brown pitched in and helped with the job, including the making of ice cream. "Lute" knows his flavors, for the ice cream retained its delicious flavor and taste."

THE LADIES who prepared and served the supper at the Presbyterian church last Friday evening deserved to be complimented for their splendid menu, the preparation of the food, and the manner in which it was served. We heard some mighty fine remarks about all of them!

TWO WEEKS before Christmas, but judging from the stocks of local stores, it's never too late. A few toys can be found—but they're probably not what you'd want; candy is a little scarce, and merchants are not certain of any additional stocks before Christmas.

WE'VE been a long time in giving Ben Johnson a little praise for the work he did during the Hallowe'en festival. He donated his truck and services in moving the piano from and to the Presbyterian church, when it had been on the public square for the celebration. It's appreciated.

Shiloh School NEWS

Shiloh Drummer Boys were really sending it solid, Friday night, and there's not one person who will deny it. That was one game they wanted to win and they showed the whole world they could do it.

It was a close game from beginning to end. At the beginning we took a 6-2 lead. The second we tied point for point, 7-7, and in the third 6-6. But in the fourth Plymouth had a couple out on fouls, and Shiloh came through to win 31-21. Swartz and Daup were high point men for Shiloh, and Derr and Thom-

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Never knew that before, Judge...I would have sworn it was just the other way 'round."

"No, Arthur, the grain used in distilling war-alcohol is not wasted. In an efficient distillery up to 29% of it is reprocessed and is returned to farms like yours in the form of premium-quality livestock feed.

"Remember, this nourishing remainder is plumb full of protein, vitamins and carbohydrates and becomes a highly-prized feed concentrate.

"By developing new products from this processed grain, the modern distilling industry has taken a leading part in solving the vital shortage of cattle and poultry feed ingredients which are rich in vitamins B-1 and B-2, so essential to satisfactory growth and production.

Private Ross is one of the approximately 1,400 men studying at the Louisiana State university in the Army Specialized Training unit. LSU, located in Louisiana's capital city and now in its 84th year, has a distinguished record in the nation's military history. Its first president was William Tecumseh Sherman, later General Sherman of the Federal Armies, and, according to the late historian, Dr. Walter L. Fleming, it sent 100 per cent of its students into service on the outbreak of the Civil War, a record probably unequalled by any other American institution. Dr. Fleming wrote: "It thereby won its present name, Ole War Skule. In the present services, it is represented by more than 3,000 officers, 15 of whom are generals. The University's ASTU members are assigned to it for engineering study, its college of engineering being one of those selected by the War Department to train army engineers."

Season's Greetings
The Season's Greetings from Italy arrived at the Advertiser on Monday morning from Ben Smith. A photographic picture of Italy from the 308th Fighter Squadron, 31 Fighter Group, is shown with its insignia and a short note from Ben as follows:

"As it is practically impossible for me to write all my friends back home and to my many buddies scattered throughout the world, I wish to convey to them through you and the Advertiser this following greeting.
"A very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."
"Yours sincerely,
"Ben Smith"

More Greetings
Another Plymouth boy, Freddie Keeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Keeler of West Broadway, writes from way down "under." His letter is an expression of gratitude for the home town news and a Christmas greeting with best wishes to members of the Fate-Root-Heath Co., the business men around the Square and to all in Plymouth and vicinity, who are behind the war effort.

A special message to Jake McIntire is included: "I may still be the 'Indian' he always thought I was, but I would probably be a better fighter against the Japs if I was an Indian for sure."

Freddie also had the pleasure of looking up and visiting with Vincent Lybarger, Tony Jenner, and Bill Moore. Dates were not disclosed and he stated he had to hunt for the boys which is sometimes a hard job.

Dear Tommy:
Well, this is Thanksgiving morning and what a beautiful day. As I lay here in bed, how I wish I could eat a good dinner, but they have me beafast and the worst of all on a strict diet. The latter is the killing part of my life. But I know I will have to abide by their orders to keep my old ticker going. Through X-rays they have found a definite enlarged heart and enlarged left ventricle leading from the heart. One day my blood pressure is way up, and the next day way down. I got the medical scientists stumped as for the condition and the real cause. Some days they wonder what keeps me alive. The only thing I have to attribute to the cause is a couple of beautiful brunettes taking my blood pressure six times daily. And of course a twinkle of their brown eyes hasn't escaped my fading eyes. I am taking 40 pills every eight hours and if I keep up that rate "Carter" will soon be out of business.

Each day I manage to sit up in bed long enough to get a couple of letters out and on their way. My mail has been running in on a large scale, and I surely appreciate it so much. This is my 52nd day in and as I see it there will be twice that many before I can step a foot on mother earth again. They keep me very quiet and I will be moved into a private room Friday, away from the other patients and noise. I didn't realize I was in such bad shape until three weeks ago. I have had plenty of pain, and being confined to the bed, makes me restless. But there's not a thing I can do about it.

The "Red Cross ladies come in to see me every day and they stop and have a chat for about five minutes. I have some friends in Salt Lake that come and see me for a 15-minute stay each week. I am not allowed very much company, but every one is just grand to me.

You may tell anyone that cares to write that the letters will be well received and in due time they will get an answer.

I hope the old town will get some life in it, even tho the spirits are curtailed.
Today my little twin nephews are five years old. Ho w! wish I could be with them. But there is many a lad in foreign soil that would like to be at home for this day as well as the two coming up.

I am completing my twentieth month and have been turned down twice for overseas duty. It is something to be able to pass a good physical test for foreign service, and it's heart-breaking to feel a refusal after you have wanted action for so long a time. But I feel as if I have fulfilled Uncle Sam's orders by going and going as he has directed.

Well, it's time to lay down for a few hours, and the bed to do every one. I'll be back in a few days.

The ancient Hebrews had many names for God and each name had a special meaning. They called God "El," meaning the Mighty One; "Eloah," the One to be feared; "El Shaddai," the Omnipotent One; "Odonai," the Owner and ruler of the world, the "Shepherd," the watchful guardian and keeper of his people. Besides these names there are many attributive words which reveal the character of God. We speak of Him as being just, holy, merciful, gracious, truthful, almighty, all-wise, all-present, etc. God is all this and more. The dearest name for us is Father. But why should God's name be abused. The second commandments tell us how to use God's name.

There's an appeal about the handmade and homemade Christmas gift that can't be disputed so if you have the time get out your thimble and make something for that friend who has everything.
Aprons stand high this year and they are easy to make. The old-fashioned kind gathered for a belt with straps over the shoulders edged with a wide ruffle have come back and are both practical and attractive. Make of dimity the effect is quite pretty and any woman could use such an apron. To sure to put a pocket on the skirt and make broad ties for a perky bow in the back. You can edge the ruffles and the ties with a narrow lace for extra daintiness.
All the pattern houses are showing excellent apron patterns from regular coveralls and pinnefers to very diminutive affairs. Your own choice of material and workmanship will determine the charm of the apron. It is either very gay or very dainty.
Bags of all sorts are another acceptable gift. A young girl would like a taffeta or satin bag for parties. Patchwork makes an unusual bag for knitting and sewing.
Bright colored felt with a black monogram or black felt with a bright colored monogram would make a smart shopping bag. You can make the bag with a drawstring or put it on a wooden top if you are lucky enough to find one.
Shoe bags are another good gift. Less than half a yard of 30 inch material will make a pair of these bags for traveling. A strip of material 30 inches long and 7 inches wide is needed for each bag. Round off one end to make a 4 inch flap, sew up the sides, making a case 6 1/2 inches wide and 12 1/2 inches deep finished. Sew half a yard of ribbon or tape on the end of the flap for ties. If you make a pair of these bags of satin quilted by hand with a contrasting lining they are quite impressive. If you make them of chintz or some other sturdy cotton fabric they are just as useful.
Patchwork pillows are another gift sure to please. Choose a pattern that is complete in one block, such as the "carpenter's wheel." Make the block, quilt it on sheet wadding and use a small figured calico or percale for the back. Any friend who has an "early American" living room will love one of these pillows, or one would be charming on a chaise-longue. You can make a box for the top of these pillows but in any event finish the top with a bright colored chintz cording.

DEER SEASON ON

Ohio's first open season on deer in 50 years got under way Monday, Dec. 6, in three Ohio counties in southern Ohio—Scioto, Pike and Adams counties.
There has been much speculation on just how big the deer population in Ohio is, particularly the herd of whitetails in the Roosevelt Game Preserve — Shawnee Forest area and no doubt Ohio nimrods will be able to answer this question one of these days.
The season will extend through December 18.
It is likely that the hundreds of hunters who signed up for permits will get a surprise. There undoubtedly are some "first timers" in the crowd who will find that deer hunting is quite an art and there should be no surprise if the number of bucks bagged during the season do not number so very high.

In the first place, the terrain over which deer in Southern Ohio may be hunted is next to mountainous and is quite different from that in which the average nimrod hunts rabbits and pheasants. Besides the deer is a wary critter and the first few shots that resounded in the forest areas are certain to put the men on guard.
The Roosevelt Game Preserve was dedicated on December 5, 1922. It is located in the "Little Smokies" region — a section that Ohioans who have not visited it will marvel at from a scenic standpoint.

FHA To Be Initiated
Thirty-one members of the F-H-A of Plymouth will be initiated next Monday evening, Dec. 13 by the team from North Fairfield. This announcement was made on Monday when the local group met in regular session, giving the pledge and theme song. Among other things taken up was the question of a Christmas exchange and the group will have a grab bag.

LOCAL AIRPORTS

In reading the editorials in other small-town newspapers, we are impressed by the great interest being shown, even in the smallest towns, in the need for a local airport...

For both fast freight and transportation, planes will be used on a huge scale. Just how long it will be before all of the public takes to the air will depend on the safety factor...

SHATTERING NERVES

As a result of the gigantic air raids on Germany, we should soon know how much punishment the human nervous system can take.

If we picture the effect it would have on the people of this town to have a few bombers come over every night and drop bomb-busters on our homes, our stores and our buildings, it is hard to imagine that we would be able to put up with it for very long.

The people of London took terrific punishment for a few nights, but they will admit now that they couldn't have stood it much longer—that they might have given up if the Germans had been able to continue their night-after-night raids.

In many German cities the punishment doled out by the Allies has been much greater than was ever inflicted on any city of England.

If the Allies continue their heavy raids, and there is no reason to think they won't, it shouldn't take very much longer before Germany will shatter.

Some people predict that the German phase of the war will end by Christmas. We doubt if it can be quite that soon, but by Christmas we expect that the Germans will at least be ready to admit that their defeat is inevitable.

Dale Carnegie Author of "HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE"

FOUR PRINCIPLES OF SALESMANSHIP.

Few men in the United States know more about why salesmen succeed and why they fail than does Professor H. C. Nolen of Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

He has found there are four general reasons why some men succeed in the business of selling and why some fail. Here is the story in Professor Nolen's own words:

"1. The chief difference between good salesmen and poor salesmen is chiefly a matter of procedure and application. In studying salesmen, I found that the top-notch men were accomplishing results because they did certain things; the poor salesmen because they didn't. I found the following differences between the ten best men and the ten poorest:

"1. The good salesmen averaged 25 minutes a day in general conversation. The poor salesmen averaged 140 minutes a day.

"2. The good salesmen averaged 15 minutes in the actual selling operation; the poor salesmen averaged less than three minutes in the actual selling operation. The difference between the two groups was largely this: the good salesmen applied themselves directly to their tasks; the poor salesmen talked about the weather, football and other general topics of conversation.

"3. I found that eight out of the ten best salesmen planned their work in advance. I found that only one out of ten of the poor salesmen planned his work in advance.

"4. Good salesmen used their time while waiting for interviews in checking stock. Poor salesmen wasted their time."

Professor Nolen then tried an experiment. He took the two best men in a company of 53 salesmen, and had them apply the four principles above for three months. Then the two men were checked, and it was found they had raised themselves to sixth and fifteenth places, respectively. They were working the same territory and calling on the same merchants as before.

Why don't you apply those four principles arrived at by H. C. Nolen? Don't apply them just a day, and then let me hear enthusiastically about your results. Then check yourself and see what you've done. Don't wait till next week to start your new method. Begin TODAY.

Doings in Washington By CONGRESSMAN WILLIAM LEMKE

WE SHOULD know the truth. TO Ostrich-like stick our heads in the sand and remain silent is part of the 49 billion lend-lease is a crisis does not and will not be our Republic. There are many in high places in Washington who know what is going on, but, who dare not speak. That there is an unhealthy condition.

America. No apologies from Mr. Wallace are acceptable. The voters will pay their respects to him in November, 1944.

WE MEAT ration our people, but Hollywood stars tell of thick American steaks abroad. In addition, millions of pounds of meat are spoiling in our markets. It would be more intelligent to ration the foreign nations who are fleecing from us through lend-lease. Why not give these nations points? Then if they abuse our friendship and give our goods away to make good fellows of themselves, we should reduce the points or take them away entirely. Lend-lease was intended for war-effort.

THE OTHER day I called up the Department of Agriculture in connection with getting feed for dairy herds. The person answering the phone told me that the Army had just called and demanded about 163,000 bushels of oats and a large quantity of alfalfa hay for Britain. He said that we were buying hay and oats from Canada and that Britain could do the same. The Army officer suggested that Canada had no lend-lease and that we would be lucky if we had a shirt left when we got through with lend-lease.

ANOTHER UGLY truth is that we are permitting three million Norwegian, French, Danish, Polish, Dutch, Belgian and other children to starve. If we would feed them we would win the friendship of their countries for thousands of years. Herbert Hoover and others have shown that to feed these children would help our war effort—not hinder it. They have shown that we are feeding the Greeks under identical conditions.

TO COVER UP this false propaganda the OWI feeds us foreign bungle. It has not only misrepresented this nation, but has brought shame upon it in foreign lands. With its fairy tales, it has made our President appear ridiculous. It has lowered our dignity abroad. The time has come for the OWI to stop making fools and clowns of the American people and of their President by the cheap alibi that they have been sending to the foreign press.

WE ARE in this war for humanity's sake and in the name of humanity we ask that some of the lend-lease funds, we are so lavishly giving away, be diverted to the starving children of our friends and Allies. That is true Americanism.

It was Tuesday, the Waters' father day. She had asked Toni Fitts to spend the afternoon with her, but she could not get away from her telephones. They solved the problem by placing one of the extensions on the window sill of the living room which overlooked the garden. Toni was expecting to hear from the newly organized office of the Civilian Defense. No one knew what the duties of the volunteers would be, but Toni was firm in her determination that there must be no becoming informants.

"About refrigerators," Mrs. Waters explained. "It seems to me that if there is any to be short, it might be good thing to ask for new refrigerators now."

She had been talking to Sarah Daffodil, Mrs. Waters revealed. "I pointed out that while the ice cream was melting, it was fair to ask for new refrigerators now."

"You mean here?" Sarah Daffodil, Mrs. Waters revealed. "I pointed out that while the ice cream was melting, it was fair to ask for new refrigerators now."

Toni Fitts stared absently at the top of the list had no more to say slowly. "I'd like a larger box. I may have to do considerable entertaining this summer. In a way it's up to me to get the women arranged in civilian defense."

"Well, you know how Sarah is," Mrs. Waters slapped at a fly. "I father hasn't been getting on, and she agreed to replace the old boxes for her. The new ones were going to pay five dollars more a month, beginning in October when the new ones would be ready."

"You mean she would raise the rent?" Toni glanced toward the speaker in a questioning voice. "Well, in time—why, that isn't fair. It will improve her property, won't it? Who should pay more?"

Wendell Thane, who was sitting next to Toni, studied the initials on her smart cigarette case. "It's not a bad idea."

"You don't think—"

Offhand she'd said that even a couple of dollars increase would be worth it to bring a child into the world in its present distracted state, Toni thought. She really hoped she was doing the Thanes an injustice. With him likely to be called for training, she might as well try to get the best out of him.

"King says it's perfectly dreadful, and I don't know how many are having babies for no other reason than to have the man deserted. They don't know any other. Thanes are like that—still this is certainly no time for them to be planning a family."

As Emma Waters had foreseen, neither the Thanes nor the Peppers were going to increase their income of five dollars a month in their rents. The present refrigerators were going to be replaced, and it was positively wasteful to think of replacing them. "Of course you'll have to increase your income, we ask for new, expensive equipment, but we don't ask," old Mr. Peppers said.

Andrew Thane was equally firm. "We can't possibly consider any uncertain."

By the middle of June the garden was lush with white lilac and wine and white peonies and the silver and gold of Mrs. Daffodil's pride, had triumphed over the city's dust and soot. The Thanes, who had taken their vacation at the time of their marriage and would have no time off for another year, stood in the open space in fervent gratitude. An unreasonable blanket of heat had been lifted from the month of the beaches began to report record week-end crowds.

One hot, sunny morning Candace Thane came to Sarah and announced that they had engaged a maid. "I wanted you to know, we'll have to leave the key with you."

Rev. T. C. Henderson Will Be Guest Speaker Sunday Night

The next Community Gospel meeting is to be held at the Mt. Hope Lutheran church this coming Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, and will feature a lot of informal, congregational singing under the leadership of Mrs. Lenna M. Henderson. The Shiloh mixed quartet will sing some selections, and Rev. Thomas C. Henderson will speak on "Short Weight."

The newly reorganized committee which sponsors these meetings expect to have some interesting announcements for this next meeting relative to the Christmas Sunday night service. An urgent plea is being made for all in the community who are willing to try to sing in a chorus to be present this coming Sunday evening that a Community Chorus may be formed. This invitation is to all regardless of age, church relationship or anything else. The 8:15 Sunday night's Community meeting was certainly a high-water mark in the series. The address on Puerto Rico, by the Rev. John Genzel, was thrilling, interesting and impressive.

The discussion following the AT CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL On Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Hord accompanied Mrs. Russell Dick to the Children's hospital in Columbus where the six-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick, Hazel Irene, is being treated for a spine curvature. The little child was hurt in play. Friends will be pleased to learn address brought out added information and interest. Rev. John Genzel is the pastor pro tem of Mt. Hope Lutheran church and is making for himself a very high and large place in the affection and respect of the entire community.

The large attendance in the meeting last Sunday night was not only a tribute to the influence of the speaker, which it was in a generous way, but it also was evidence that a large number of our citizens are interested enough in such meetings as to justify the efforts which the committee expects to make them possible.

Every one knows these excellent people will give us an inspiring evening.

that the condition can be corrected. Mrs. Dick visited her little daughter on Sunday.

Harvey Leslie of Ashland spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Koehenderfer. Mrs. Ella Orwalt of Mansfield was a guest at the Koehenderfer home the week-end.

Joseph Gilger Sends Gift To Local Group

Ben, by the boys who knew you did it gratis, but we just wanted the public to know about it, too. It's that kind of cooperation that makes Plymouth a good town to live in!

FROM WHAT we hear about Neal Slessman, down New Haven way, he is a very proud farmer, and he has a right to be. Mr. Slessman, it is said, has one of the nicest, blackest, fattest steers ever seen in this section of the country. It is reported that the steer will go to market at an early date, and doesn't it make my mouth water when I think of a steak!

IF THE PARTY who left two pounds of hamburger at The Advertiser office Wednesday afternoon will call, same will be re-imbursed 70 cents and 12 points. We ate it. Can't have meat spoiling in these days of points.

DIDJOKNOW that a number of queer designations have been given animal and bird groups? For instance it is: A covey of partridge; a NIDE of pheasants; a WISP of snipe; a FLIGHT of doves or swallows; a MUSTER of peacocks or herons; a BUILDING rook; a BRIG of geese; a PLUMP of wildfowl.

PLYMOUTH FIVE

game, but there wasn't enough magnetism to draw the ball thru the net.

It was one of those games that brought back the days of many of Plymouth's former stars. Pinky Becker, Bill Caldwell, Johnny Root, LuVier Barber, Kenny Myers, Bumme Payne, and other feet-footed, quick-thinking players; Plymouth had had on the floor.

One of the referee's Friday night after the Reserve game was finished, in which Plymouth won over Shiloh, stated that the Reserve tilt was one of the post even and well balanced games he had ever seen. The variety game was fast and clean, but to put it in a nutshell, Plymouth was out of luck, for the home boys did a good job throughout the entire game.

CARD OF THANKS
I greatly appreciate the many cards, flowers and acts of kindness shown me during my recent illness. Thank you all.

Mrs. Earl Cashman spent yesterday (Wednesday) in Galion with Miss Helen Cashman. She will return home today.

CHANGE OF RESIDENCE
Mrs. Mary Reeder and children of Willard are the new tenants in the home of Lt. and Mrs. Vance Snyder.

Misadventures of 1943. An English baby is called to colors, burglars are scared stiff by the things they stole, a bus driver stands up all his customers—and other very queer instances of the old year's most curious happenings are told in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's Sunday Chicago Herald-American.

C. R. Davis Resigns Clerkship of Auburn
C. R. Davis, veteran clerk of Auburn township, has informed the township trustees of his intention to resign the clerk's duties on January 1. Mr. Davis told the group that the press of private employment caused him to decide to terminate his long period of service as clerk. He was not a candidate for re-election at the recent election, but was elected by the write-in method.

Bird Season Over
The migratory waterfowl season, based upon federal regulations and the pheasant, ruffed grouse and Hungarian partridge season, fixed by state regulation, are over and now Ohio's hunting season is confined to the deer season in three Southern Ohio counties which extends through December 18 and the rabbit season which continues through Jan. 11.

The season on hunting and trapping of raccoon does not close until January 15 while the inland trapping season for opossum and skunk runs through January 15, as it does in the inland trapping district for mink and muskrat. In the Lake Erie trapping district the last day for trapping of mink and muskrat is March 15.
