

Observe Boy Scout Week in Plymouth; Activities Planned

"Toughen Up! Buckle Down! And carry on to Victory!" has been chosen for the slogan for this year's Boy Scout Week, which marks the 33rd Birthday of the Boy Scouts of America. Special emphasis is being placed on the Scout Troops and Patrols to build physical health, mental alertness and moral strength for growing boys. Along with this program, Scout leaders are re-educating their Troops and Patrols to the Civilian Defense, salvage and kindred tasks which Scouts have been performing as their share in the war effort.

Approximately 400,000 Boy Scouts are aged fifteen or over, and it is entirely possible that they may see military service before the conflict ends. Army chiefs have praised Scout training as an ideal pre-induction preparation, and both the Navy and the Merchant Marine have asked national Boy Scout headquarters to help enlist former Sea Scouts as special officer material.

The theme is designed to make better soldiers and sailors — as well as better citizens — by emphasizing the outdoor hikes, the camps and cruises which develop stamina. Scouting practices which develop mental alertness, such as stalking, tracking, observation, signalling, compass and map work, will be stepped up, along with night "command" hikes and message-to-Garcia hikes which build self-reliance, resourcefulness and initiative.

Scouts In Plymouth

Troop One celebrated its fifth year as an organization in the community. Sponsored by the Laymen of the Methodist church for the past year, under the leadership of Mr. E. E. Markley, Lay Leader.

To honor Scout Week, Feb. 6-12 local Scouts will start Saturday with the setting up of displays in store windows around the Square. Each window will be sponsored by an individual patrol, with some Scouters as the supervisor. Saturday morning, the 6th, the Scouts will call at your homes to gather papers and magazines you have saved all winter and will want to get rid of with Spring not far away.

In the school auditorium Sunday at 8:30 p. m. Troop One will hold its Fifth Anniversary Party. This will be in the form of a pot luck supper, so bring your own.

THE FIRST ROBIN

Elmer Groundhog couldn't possibly help seeing his shadow on Tuesday with the sun shining full force for the first time in a many a day. Of course, the groundhog didn't crawl into his underground domain, thus telling the world that we are in for six more weeks of cold weather.

Now on the other side of this forecast is the report of seeing the first robin, harbinger of Spring. Somebody sure has their forecasts mixed up, leading the weather man is using strategy "to the Axis."

Well, anyway, when you see the kids with skates on you know at least that Spring isn't too far away.

Plymouth To Meet Shiloh

Once again the annual Richland County Basketball Tournament is beginning to take form. The drawings have been made and each school knows whom it shall meet as a contestant. From this contest, two teams will be selected to represent Richland County at the district tournament in Plymouth next Shiloh, which starts on Monday, Feb. 22 at 1:30 p. m. These two schools have always been friendly rivals and there will be plenty of excitement when these teams meet.

Other pairings are: Madison vs Ontario; Union meets Butler; and Lexington takes on Lucas. Shiloh plays the winner of the Bell-Willoughby game.

The officials for the games are McCullough, manager; McClintock and Wrigley for referees.

Season tickets are $1.25 and 60 cents for adults and students respectively. Single admissions are 50c for adults, and 25c for children.

Grants Divorce

Common Pleas Judge C. H. Huston of Mansfield, on Wednesday, granted a divorce to Grace Heath in her suit against Earl W. Heath, allowed her custody of the five minor children, $200 a month for their support, and a one-third interest in property holdings valued at approximately $125,000.

Included in the property given Mrs. Heath is about $41,000 in property, of which the former family residence in Plymouth was a part, a $11,500 life insurance policy for her and $10,000 policy for the benefit of the children and shares in the Fats-Root-Heath company, and Heath retained 290 one-third shares in the company.

No numerous and detailed were the ramifications of the settlement that the judge had written into his opinion the fact that he would be available any day until the end of his term of office, Feb. 8, to adjust errors or matters not included. The defendant retains full ownership of farm properties.

MIDNIGHT SHOW

Another midnight show will be featured at the Plymouth Theatre starting at 11:30 Saturday night. "Dangerous Journey" is the main feature and will no doubt be well attended. Manager Ramsey states that the midnight shows are proving popular, and that a splendid program has been planned for the show this Saturday night.

COLES DISCONTINUED

Due to a shortage in the essentials of the manufacture of ice cream most local confectioneries and soda fountains have discontinued the sale of ice cream cones.

BILLS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Rule of W. Broadway, have sold their home by Mr. and Mrs. George Chesman of near Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Rule will continue to reside there until Fall.

Mrs. Lyman Wakeman Dies In Ripley

Funeral services for Mrs. Lyman Wakeman, 86, were held on Tuesday afternoon at her home in Ripley with interment in North Fairfield cemetery.

Clara Louise Knight, daughter of James Russell and Louise Fuller Knight, was born Oct. 17, 1856 at Benson, Huron county. In September, 1881, when only four years of age, she accidentally fell from a fence and sustained injuries which resulted in the paralysis of her arms. In spite of her handicap during the remainder of her long life, she carried on the usual duties pertaining to her home with such remarkable ability that she was ever a marvel to all who knew her.

On November 15, 1924, she was married to Lyman Wakeman, who died December 26, 1931. Last August Mrs. Wakeman suffered another stroke of paralysis which ultimately caused her death.

She was a member of the Baptist church and a life member of the Firelands Historical Society. She was descended from a long line of American colonists.

Mrs. Anna Belle Knight attended the rites from Plymouth.

New Haven School Sponsors Stamp Drive

The New Haven school sponsored a War Savings Stamp drive on Jan. 28. A total of $81,800 was sold, with the 8th and 9th grades, under Mrs. McCullough, having the highest returns, $27,80.

The 3rd and 4th grades rated second with $17,30, and the 1st and 2nd grades came third with $10,80.

The school turned in $25,80.

The Stamp Sales were started on Nov. 3 and during the first two months $112,80 was turned in to defeat the Axis. A total of $252,70 has been turned in to date.

Miss Gerry Steele, president of the Senior Class, is our representative, and has been a very capable salesman.

Rep. Peirce Introduces Bill To Aid Small School Districts

Introducing a bill before the General Assembly last Thursday in Columbus, Representative Frank Peirce of Huron county, will no doubt receive support for the Bill which would penalize the small school districts in regard to tuition of high school students.

The Bill, proposed by Representative Peirce, will repeal the objectionable feature of House Bill No. 21, enacted by the 93rd General Assembly and gives to the city schools the same amount as they received prior to the passage of House Bill No. 21.

The smaller school districts of the State will be greatly benefited should Peirce's Bill be approved by the General Assembly.

The Bill to amend Section 7505 of the General Code is self-explanatory, and is as follows:

A Bill to amend Section 7505 of the General Code in relation to the liability of the State for Tuition, House Bill 172.

This Bill is aimed at the inequalities of the school foundation program as amended in the

YOUTH, 19, DIES

Paul Phillips, 18, senior in the Bellevue high school, died Sunday afternoon at the home of his uncle, Michael Phillips, in Norwich township. He had been ill with pneumonia.

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Phillips and ten brothers and sisters. They are Herbert, who is in the navy; Vincent, Jerome, George, Joseph, Andrew, Michael, Mary, Helen and Amelia.

The family is well known here. Mrs. Phillips being the former Flossie Carpenter.

Officers Are Elected For Telephone Company

The annual meeting of the Northern Ohio Telephone Co. was held in Bellevue and officers and directors of the company were elected as follows:

President — Allan G. Aigler; vice president, John E. Wise; secretary and general manager, W. C. Henry.

Directors: Gustav Hensch, A. W. Surrill, Frank L. McKinney, Columbus; John E. Wise, Willard; A. W. Uhlman, Bowling Green; H. A. Erf, Cleveland; H. H. Thornton, Oberlin; Allan G. Aigler and Wm. C. Henry.

In the annual report it was shown that toll calls had increased during the past year 10.7 percent and long distance operators completed a total of 1,729,547 calls.

93rd General Assembly which places a penalty on the school districts which might send their high school pupils or sight-seeing children to other schools having a high tax rate. In order to clearly show the inequality of the present law, here is a letter addressed to the clerk of the Ripley School District, and dated January 1, 1940, which reads:

Under the provision of House Bill No. 21 we have charged your district with $1566.25, which amount must be assumed by you (covering tuition) on the 1940 Foundation Program, before the State will pay your tuition under the provisions of the Foundation Program Law. Dick Smith, Asst. Director."

Richmond township schools in 1941 secured only $185.17 from the state when they should have received $1987.07.

The districts in Huron county now affected by the present H. B. No. 21 are Ripley, Richmond, Hartland, Sherman, and Norwich school districts, as well as hundreds of other school districts throughout the State.

Mr. Peirce says: "The only excuse for House Bill No. 21, passed four years ago, was to compel school districts to build a new high school or raise their tax levy to equal nearby city school levies."

"I am opposed to bureaucracy, either federal or state. If our great Foundation Program of Education means anything to us, let us keep it free from bureaucratic methods. Let us educate and persuade, not dictate. Let us forever preserve our township government, for after all, this is the foundation of Democracy."

Miss Strong Dies In Calif.

MISS MARJORIE STRONG SUCCEDES IN WESTERN STATE AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Funeral services for the late Miss Marjorie V. Strong, whose death occurred Thursday, January 28, after an illness of six months in the Burlingame hospital, California, were held in Burlingame with details of burial to follow.

Miss Strong had gone to California over a year ago for a visit with her nephew, Henry S. Culp and family, 2008 Easton Drive, Burlingame, and Captain Ross S. Culp, U. S. N. and family of San Francisco. In July, she injured her hip, which injury caused her death.

She was a daughter of the late Elijah and Emma Kirkland Strong and the last member of the family, having been preceded in death by four brothers and two sisters and is survived by five nephews and three nieces.

A broad and ardent worker in Plymouth and Shelby public schools and in Long Island, N. Y. The past twenty-five years she has devoted her time to Miss Marjorie Stuart, spending the winter in the South and the summer in her home on Sandusky street. Miss Strong was most charitable and her gifts and acts of kindness were innumerable.

Graduates As Second Lieut.

Herschel Dinninger of the U. S. Army, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dinninger, was commissioned Saturday, January 23, to the rank of second lieutenant. Dinninger's commission was awarded him after completing three months' training at Ft. Knox, Ky.

Following his graduation at Ft. Knox, Lieut. Dinninger was given a ten-day furlough, and he spent most of his time with his parents. He left Tuesday for active duty at Camp Campbell, Ky., in the heavy armored tank division, the same camp he entered when he first signed up with the army.

A broad and ardent worker in the army, Dinninger, who entered service two years ago, came home still enthused over the fact that the army is a great place for any young man. Of course, he didn't have much conception of army rules and regulations when he went in as a buck private. But he soon found out. This, he admitted, both Shiloh, Harold E. Johnson, Shelby; Vance C. Hoffman, 14 Railroad street, Plymouth; David E. Clark, Shelby; Harry J. Brown, R. D. 2, Shiloh; Edwin S. Beeching, R. D. 1, Plymouth; Robert J. Andrews, Shelby; Raymond M. Simon, Shelby; Gilbert F. Heubarger, Sr., R. D. 2, Shelby and Paul E. Berrier, Shelby.

He said he was probably motivated by the fact that after he had "crashed" he failed to report in within the time limit. For this act he was grounded for six months.

"It was a good thing, for I did a lot of thinking," said Herschel. "I decided to try out for the heavy armored tank division, and I made it. The school was Dinninger's, but it was worth the effort." And we think so, too, for it was through his determination and ability that Dinninger graduated with high honors and a commission.

Lieut. Dinninger, within the two years he has been in the service, has travelled through 25 states, and has been stationed at a number of camps from California to Maryland.

During his visit here he was entertained by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dinninger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dinninger, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moore of Mansfield.

SHILOH NEWS

Miss Evelyn B. England Married Sunday To Mr. John Gage of Mansfield

Mr. and Mrs. George England announce the marriage of their daughter Evelyn B. to John Gage of Mansfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gage, Sr.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, January 31.

The impressive single ring ceremony was read by the bride's pastor, Rev. E. R. Haines of the Methodist church. They were unattended.

Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. E. R. Haines sang "Dearie Beloved" and "I love You Truly." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ethel Roth, aunt of the bride.

The bride wore a powder blue princess style dress and black accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias and Talisman roses. Her only jewelry was a rock crystal necklace, the gift of her sister Marjorie.

Mrs. England was dressed in black and wore a corsage of gardenias and her sister, Mrs. Roth, wore a similar corsage. Besides the pastor and his wife, the guests included Mrs. Roth of Gages and Mr. and Mrs. Mason Boot and daughter Martha Jean of Shelby.

The bridegroom's parents were unable to be present on account of illness. The bride is a graduate of Shiloh high school, is an efficient young woman and popular.

Mr. Gage is employed at the Metal Vault company. They will reside at the home of Mr. Gage's parents on the Park Avenue West road, Mansfield. An incident that gave the occasion added happiness was a phone call from the soldier son of the Englands, Mr. and Mrs. England, and nearly all of the family had attended church service as usual in the morning and just as they returned home, Marjorie called to them to come quickly, which they did, and heard the voice of their son Gordon England at Camp Carson, Colorado. He had called to have a part in this particular event at his home and give his congratulations to the happy couple. He also has a few words with each member of the family, and the Advertiser joins Gordon in extending the best wishes for a successful life.

The lovely wedding cake with the usual decorations was made by Miss Pearl Darling.

ABOUT OUR SOLDIER BOYS

Delmar Lee Nesbitt wrote a long letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Nesbitt. He commenced when his train left Columbus and continued until they reached El Paso, Texas. On the train taking the boys south were a number from surrounding towns who were well known to each other. Included besides Delmar, were (Dobbin) Elmer Montgomery, (Tuck) Dean Ruckman, (Brownie) Junior Brown, Ray Simon, Bob Andrews, Harold Johnson, Dave Clark, Eddie Beeching, Bennie Hurst and Vance Hoffman. Quoting form Delmar's letter: We left Columbus at 2 p. m., Jan. 25. We are headed in some direction and trying to figure out which way we are going. If you want to try something, get on a train, when you don't know your destination. Well, we just stopped at a station and we recognize Cincinnati. (Delmar gave a splendid description of the states they passed through).

We eat out of our mess kits, and we are not allowed off the train. They put sugar in my coffee and I don't like that. Dobbin Tuck and I are in the same car. Ray Simon is taking notes too, Ray got his fatigue hat on and had trouble getting it off.

We went to bed in Indiana at 8:30 a. m. and were in Missouri, but I didn't see any Missouri mules. In that state and Oklahoma we saw lots of hills, oil wells and big airplane factories and bombers they make. We got the pullman, the boys in the other 14 cars slept in their seats. The other guy really treats us fine. I hope I get close to Robert Dawson. I think we were lucky to all be together. Here in southern Oklahoma, everyone gets out on their porches and waves to us. We saw some cotton fields. We still don't know where we are going, but can tell where we are by the auto license plates. We look at them, then at the map, and then we argue. We are now in Texas but don't know what day or date it is. My throat is much better and I can talk better.

Dobbin and I sleep together and Tuck sleeps across from us. Everyone is out of cigarettes but me and I have two left. This was the largest shipment of soldier boys to leave Ft. Hayes. We passed through Abilene, Texas and Sweetwater, a town of windmills, and Big Spring with a lake covered with more ducks than I ever saw. Tell Elliott there are a lot of grouse here. There seems to be more cars here than in Ohio, the roads are fine. The boys are singing, "I got Spurs that Jingle Jangle, Jingle," and "I'm headed for Texas. I guess they don't know they are in that state.

Tell dad to send me a razor with lots of blades, for it will be a long time before I get home.

You know now, why soldiers never tell where and why they are being shipped. The Lieut. just told us we were going to Ft. Bliss and we are in the Anti Air Craft corps. Don't worry about me, I'm feeling fine and having fun. I guess I'd better sign off as we are nearing El Paso and we are getting in our camp and not allowed to leave our huts. Archie Garrett just came in to see us, and he looks fine. Harlow Nesbitt and Junior Roberts are not here any more. Clark Gable is here and if he can stand it I guess I can.

VALENTINE SOCIETY

MISS DORIS JUNE HATCH TO BE MARRIED ON VALENTINE'S DAY
Miss Doris June Hatch expects to leave Plymouth on Sunday for Norfolk, Va., where she will be united in marriage to Mr. Thomas DeWitt on Sunday, Feb. 14th. Complete details have not been received.

Miss Hatch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hatch, and a graduate of Plymouth High school, class of 1934. She also received two years in Music at Ashland College, but at the present has been assisting her mother in the Hatch Dress Shop.
Mr. DeWitt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur DeWitt of Plymouth, a graduate of the local schools, class of 33, and for the past two years has been in the U. S. N. R. At present he is an instructor in the radio department at Norfolk, Va.
Both Miss Hatch and Mr. DeWitt have a large circle of friends in the community who extend their best wishes.

MARRIED 51 YEARS
Mr. and Mrs. Fay Ruckman quietly observed their 51st wedding anniversary on Tuesday, February second. No special festivities marked the day other than family calls, cards and best wishes from their many friends. It was also the birthday anniversary of Mr. Ruckman.

UNITED WORKERS CLASS ENTERTAINED
The United Workers of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cramer on North street. Mrs. Helen Sams had charge of the devotions. At the president, Mrs. Smith was ill. Mr. Smith had charge of the business. Miss Florence Danner, co-hostess, was also ill and unable to be present. A very delightful evening was enjoyed by all. Lanny Gooding sang a solo composed by his mother and in honor of the father, who is in the army.
The hostess served delicious refreshments and the group adjourned to meet March 2, and at that time officers for the coming year are to be elected.

FOUR BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED
Thursday, Plymouth members of the D. of U. V. Shelby Tent, motored to that city for the usual meeting and social hour. Concluding the business and routine work the surprise of the evening was the serving of a beautifully decorated birthday cake and ice cream to the group in observing the birthdays of four members, Mrs. Mabel McFadden, Mrs. Straub, Mrs. Carman and Mrs. Hart whose birthdays fall in the month of January.
Those from Plymouth attending were Mesdames Judd Keller, Ed Phillips, Clifford Stevens, Mabel McFadden and Miss Florence Danner.

ALPHA CLASS HOLDS VALENTINE PARTY
Mrs. Chris Sheedy and her associates, Mrs. Frank Davis and Mrs. Tena Merriam, greeted 24 members and two guests Tuesday evening when the Alpha Guild met at the Sheedy home for their regular session.
The evening's program included devotions by Mrs. Lizzie Trauger, business presentation, and a quiz contest, introduced by Mrs. Trimmer. In the Valentine contest, Mrs. Bartholomew came out first, and Mrs. Pugh, second, with the group then matching Valentines.

A very nice lunch suggestive of Valentine's Day was served. The February hostesses are Nellie BeVier, Mrs. Scrafield and Mrs. Clayton Pugh, to be held at the BeVier home.

C. E. CONEVENS IN SHELBY

"PASS THE LIGHT ALONG IS THEME OF C. E. MEETING; TO MAKE AWARDS.

An interesting and inspirational program has been prepared for the Christian Endeavor convention to be held in Shelby in the United Brethren Church, on Sunday, Feb. 7th.
Registration opens the day's service at 2:30, followed by an interesting afternoon session which has been planned and will be presided over by our young peoples' societies.

Two conference periods will be conducted; one for the Junior and High school societies, led by Rev. Ward of Ashland, Ohio, and one for the Senior society, to be in charge of Rev. Crowe of Shelby.
Supper at 5:15 will be the customary social hour at which time United Brethren and other programs will be presented under the directorship of Alice Flickinger of Shelby, song director of the county.
The evening session commencing at 7:00 will be presided over by the adult societies; the Shendoah Christian church conducting the devotions and the Shelby United Brethren's Men's Chorus bringing the special music.
Rev. Russell Ward of Ashland, speaker of the evening, is well known, having been connected several years with the "America Back to God" quartet, and we believe this young man of high Christian standards, will bring us a challenging message.
The awards consisting of shield and loving cup, are again to be presented for the greatest number of registrations and largest attendance. They surely merit striving for.
Supper tickets are 25c, and registration, 10c.
Remember the date, Feb. 7th, at the Shelby U. B. church.

JUNIOR CLASS ANNOUNCES PLAY

"HER NAME WAS AUNT NELLIE" CHOSEN BY CLASS; TO BE GIVEN FEB. 11.
(BY JIM RHINE)

Something new, something different is the cry that goes out from all community groups when seeking a new play and the Junior Class believe they have found just that in "His Name Was Aunt Nellie." This New York success which has now been ceased for masters by Samuel French, the well-known publishers.
Written by Andrew Jameson, this play is a side-splitting farce, and tells what happens when Aunt Nellie, a good old "lady" comes to live with her prim New England relatives, the Baldwins.
The play, coached by Miss Scofield, is now in rehearsal and will be presented at Plymouth high school, Thursday, Feb. 11, 1943, at 8:00 p. m. Admission is 15c for students and 30c for adults.

Plymouth Donates $52 To Infantile Paralysis Drive

Approximately $52.00 were contributed by Plymouth towards the tenth annual campaign to raise funds for the fight against infantile paralysis.
Containers were picked up on Monday and while there are still a few more to be turned in, $52 was the amount reported Monday. The funds that have been raised will be divided, 50 per cent to the local chapters for work in the community and the other 50 per cent to the National Foundation to carry on the research.
The plea is nationwide and this year Plymouth is classed in the Buro county, proceeds from both sides of the village going into this fund. This simplifies matters greatly and does away with dividing of funds because the town is in two counties.
Mrs. Mabel McFadden again acted as chairman for Plymouth and conducted the campaign in a splendid manner. She is to be commended for the part she played in raising the funds as well as a vote of thanks to all who contributed.

News From the Himes Family In Cambridge

Rev. A. M. Himes, former pastor of the Lutheran church, writes an interesting note to the Advertiser, which we are passing on to our readers and their many friends in Plymouth and vicinity.
Leaving Plymouth some twelve years ago, the Himes family have been located in Cambridge, Ohio, where Rev. Himes is pastor of a large church. In addition to his regular work, which hasn't slackened a bit, Rev. Himes is doing his bit as Chairman of the local Gas Rationing board. Now any body who serves on a ration board knows its trials and tribulations, so in his humorous way, he says "a sissy is a guy who resigned from the local gas rationing board to join the commandos."
Both the Himes boys are in the service. Tom graduated from the Officer's Candidate School at Belvoir, Va., and received his commission as a second lieutenant on January 6 in the Engineering corps. Jim is a laboratory technician in the Medical Corps and is stationed at Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio, Texas. Tom has been in the army about two years and Jim 4 1/2 months.
Ruth will graduate from Muskingum college near Marietta, Ohio, her husband is living in Akron where he is connected with an aircraft factory of the Goodyear Corporation.

He concludes with best wishes and regards to all former friends.

MAPLE SYRUP IS NOT A WAR CROP

Not On Preferred List. Has No Supporting Price and Cans Are Scarce.

Of interest to many farmers in this area is the fact that maple syrup has not been included as a war crop by the War Production Board order, all syrup cans manufactured before Dec. 9, 1942 can be used for canning syrup this year. In other words the ruling only applies to tin cans manufactured after Dec. 9.

Sugar bush operators who are fortunate enough to have cans on hand or who can still buy them are safe in canning their syrup in the usual containers, county agents throughout northern Ohio have advised.

Addresses of Local Boys in the Various Services

Dear Pa: If you want me to come back to the farm when Uncle Sam says he don't need me any more—here's what you'd better do. Buy two of the meanest mules you can find. Name one of them "Corporal" and the other "Sergeant". I'll be glad to spend the rest of my days just telling them two jackasses why I made a mistake when I didn't join the Navy instead of falling for this soldier stuf. Home On Short Leave

First Lieut. Wm. Miller was an overnight Saturday and Sunday visitor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller of Willard, Saturday evening he stopped in Plymouth for a short chat with his brother E. B. Miller at the hardware store.

Lt. Miller graduated from the Willard schools in 1929 and in 1935 from the University of Alabama, taught in Plymouth and Cleveland Heights high schools and was with the General Motors Acceptance Corp. when he enlisted two years ago.

He is assigned to the Davis-Monthan Field, Tuscon, Arizona, but for the past thirty days has been on special duty at the Patterson Field, Fairfield, Ohio. Several weeks ago he flew over Plymouth in a B-24 bomber enroute from Cleveland. Last week at Springfield, Ohio, this same bomber figured in a crash, in which the pilot and co-pilot were killed. The bomber was demolished.

LETTERS from the BOYS IN SERVICE

Dear Tommy: Well, I guess it is about time I wrote and let you know that I haven't forgotten all of my friends back home. I sure wish I was back home with you all. Say, did you notice that you all? After nine months in the south I begin to talk like a rebel.

By the way, Tommy, you came from Georgia didn't you? Well, I know a fellow at Keeler Field that came from Georgia and he said he went all the way through high school before he learned that "Damn Yankee" wasn't one word. I wonder if all the people in Georgia go that far through life making the same mistake? All kidding aside, Tommy I think all the southern girls—damn this pen, I mean all the southern fellows are swell.

I have been shipped to Gulfport Field, Miss. It is just a new field and is not all completed yet. We are eating out of our mess kits now but we will have trays in the mess halls soon. I will sure be glad. Did you ever eat mashed potatoes, green beans pickled beets and cole slaw all mixed together? Well, it's not so hot, but I should kick, we get all we want, horse meat is not so bad either, of course the cooks said it was beef but brother it was the funniest looking beef I ever saw, I could be wrong though. Well, I'd better close and get to bed, I just got out of the hospital Wednesday and I have to give my hip plenty of rest or I will be too lame to go to work in the morning. I hope you get back home to see you all soon.

As ever, "Stew" Fackler

LEMKE CHARGES AAA CORRUPT

WASHINGTON — Rep. Wm. Lemke, R. North Dakota, said today he would continue efforts to bring before the Supreme Court a case testing whether "you can throw a farmer in jail and make a criminal out of him for feeding the nation."

Lemke is chief counsel for four wheat farmers who are seeking to test the constitutionality of production control and marketing provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act. Yesterday a special tribunal of three Federal Judges ruled that no "substantial constitutional question" was involved in the suit and remitted it to a district court. The judges gave Lemke a week to submit proof to the contrary as a basis of appeal.

Whatever happens, Lemke said, he and the farmers he represent are determined to get the case before the Supreme Court. His clients, he said, will refuse to pay penalties under the law for excess wheat acreage and will let the Secretary of Agriculture, Claude Wickard "go ahead and sue."

"Then," Lemke said, "we'll find out who's who in America. We'll find out whether you can throw a farmer in jail and make a criminal out of him for feeding the nation."

Lemke said the administration of the AAA was "nothing but a corrupt machine—there's no honesty in it; they threaten the farmers with a 50c wheat if they don't vote right."

The three judge tribunal refused to hear the suit on the grounds that the Supreme Court in November, 1942, already had ruled in another case that the AAA was constitutional. Lemke contended that the ruling was based on "erroneous stipulation of facts" presented unilaterally by the Agricultural Department and that the present case was "entirely different." His clients are seeking to enjoin Wickard from them under the AAA.

Lemke said that under penalty provisions of the AAA more than fifty million dollars had been assessed against the American farmers who exceeded acreage allotments.

"That's a nice little bunch of cash to steal from farmers who are trying to feed the nation," he said.

Lemke's clients, all of whom have refused to abide by the AAA allotments, are Kenneth Bender, Clinton, Ohio; H. H. Beckman, Clay Center, Kan.; Clyde Snodgrass, Muddy Creek Forks, Pa., and Alfred Lindaur of Chelsea, Mich.

436 PASS THROUGH PROBATE OFFICE IN YEAR; MARRIAGE LICENSES HIT 488

Biggest business of the Richland county probate court in the past year was the administration of 436 estates, according to the annual report which has been filed with the secretary of state.

There were 143 wills probated, 147 letters of administration issued and 123 testamentary letters, according to the report.

Issuance of marriage licenses was highest in number of the items of work accomplished with 488 licenses issued during the year. June as is normally expected, led the months in number with 52 licenses issued, September second with 44.

Guardianships of the year totaled 73 with those involving incompetents numbering 34, minors 31, insane seven and feeble-minded one. There were eight trusteeships authorized.

The probate court authorized commitment of 63 persons to institutions of the state. Of this number 40 went to the Insane hospital at Columbus, four to the Hospital for Feeble-minded at Columbus, three to the Ohio hospital for Epileptics at Gallipolis, five to the Boys Industrial School in Lancaster and 11 to the Ohio State Reformatory.

DALE CARNEGIE
 Author of "How to Win Friends and Influence People"

In a small tobacco town in North Carolina there was a family of six children. They were all singers—except one, and he couldn't even carry a tune. This one was a boy. All the others shone at anything to do with music, except the one whose first name was Jimmy.

Jimmy felt it keenly because the rest of the family could sing and he couldn't. He longed to shine. Wanted to be somebody. But how? Everybody told him that even if he didn't shine, he had personality. He made a pleasing impression on people. So Jimmy did a bit of thinking. He decided to develop his personality.

His full name is James Kern Kyser; the town where he was born and still lives (calls his home) is Rocky Mount, North Carolina. But the world knows him as Kay Kyser. It was during his high school days that Jimmy decided to try out his idea. He threw himself into the students' activities, and at once began to make an impression on his fellow students. Soon, he was elected cheer leader. Now he was being brought before the whole student body and could exert his personality. He did. He worked out new cheers and new ways of presenting his new cheers. He put showmanship into his cheer leading. Everybody liked him.

Entering the University of North Carolina, he decided to carry out the idea which had worked so well in high school. So he became a cheer leader there, too, and achieved his ambition to be recognized as the best organizer of cheering that had ever graced the N. C. campus.

The students needed a dance orchestra. Jimmy Kyser wanted to organize one. But he knew very little about music. He loved to listen to music but he wasn't a musician. However, the university did need a campus orchestra; so he organized that. He was chosen leader. He decided to put his personality into his orchestra, and it became so popular that he took it to other colleges to play.

Radio grabbed him. He added touches of his own. You've heard them: "Evenin' folks, how y'all?" "So long over body." And his song titles. "Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge" became famous almost overnight.

Why don't you consider developing your personality? If you grab it the right way, it may be your biggest asset. Dr. Henry C. Link says a good personality is developed by practice. Why not develop yours?

SHILOH-ONTARIO GAME
A large crowd was present at the Shiloh high auditorium on Friday night, Jan. 29, to see Shiloh knock off Ontario by the score of 24-21. The Drummer Boys led the scoring all the way. A last minute spurt by Gagny and Elliott for Ontario had the crowd very much excited but the Shiloh quintet held them back.

Since Ontario brought only one team, the lady teachers played the Mansfield Athletic Supply team. The score of that game was 27-7 in favor of the lady teachers.

After the varsity game, the exchange team of Shiloh played the Mansfield Athletic Supply team. The score of that game was 39-32 in favor of Mansfield.

San Joaquin, Robert Pittenger, Sara Colyer, Hudson, Delores Predmore, Dixie Kepple.

SHOOTER !!!

Mrs. Roe: (Speaking of Milton's lines "While the plowman whistles o'er the furrowed land") Do you think many plowman do whistle?

Dean Arnold: Yes! Till they hit a rock!

What's this I hear about a certain Eighth grade girl winking at all these handsome fellows around here. Can't you decide which one you would like, Jerry?

The pupils in chemistry lab the 7th period the other day had a busy time dodging a fly which Mr. Joseph let fly. It seems that the test tube was a little HOT. That's one way to get out of a test—burn his fingers so badly that he can't use one out.

NOTICE!! All you kind people who attended the P.T.A. meeting last Monday night and saw a girl with a bag of money (without instruments!) This is to inform you that these people are not naturally morons. It's just the environment.

PLYMOUTH WINS OVER NEW HAVEN

Plymouth won its annual visit to New Haven by a score of 47-45. Both teams played a clean game. New Haven scored a total of 20 field goals by 10 scored by Plymouth, but Plymouth committed less fouls. Each team showed greater improvement in passing, shooting, and ball handling since their previous encounter. At the end of the first quarter Plymouth was leading by the score of 7-2. New Haven displayed sluggish ball during the first half, the score at the end being 27-11, but came back in the second half with more speed and cooperation. The 'Pilgrims' led the 'Yellow Jackets' 33-27 at the end of the third quarter and 47-45 when the final whistle was blown.

The 'Pilgrim' Reserves downed the 'Yellow Jacket' Reserves 20-23. Stearns was the official and both teams were satisfied with his decisions.

The high man for New Haven was Snyder with 17 counters and Berberick for Plymouth with 12 counters.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY
NORWALK—Lindie Cole, 42, charged with cutting Mrs. Erwin, 60, with a knife at Willard, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Les Hudson and Willis Setigo on a warrant sworn out at Willard. Cole was given hearing before Judge E. L. Wolff at Willard and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500. He is to be held in the county jail here. The arrest was made at Cole's home about two miles south of Peru. It is stated a wound about an inch deep was cut in Erwin's thigh.

NEW CLERK
Miss Doris Roberts has accepted a clerkship at the Clover Farm market. Richard Rule is also working there temporarily.

NEW HAVEN NEWS
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, the John Newman family of Wyard and Mr. and Mrs. George Murray and daughter were dinner guests Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller. It was a birthday anniversary dinner for Earl Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cooper of Amherst, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. James Zimmerman, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nestor of Norwalk, Ohio, and Mrs. Robert Miller were Sunday supper guests of Mrs. Glenn Babcock. They also called on Mr. Babcock, who is ill at the Willard hospital.

The Mary Imlay Taylor

Released from prison after serving fifteen years for a murder he didn't commit, Mark Grant goes to the office of a lawyer named Teddy Banks to see if for a legacy left him while he was in prison. Teddy tells him he will have to wait until tomorrow, but he will be there when he comes. When the well-dressed young man offered him five hundred dollars to go with them to the city. One of the young men, Archie, has let the other, Archie, that he can be the only one to be an exclusive party being given by a woman famous for her careful selection of guests.

Mark considered it, a faintly malicious twinkle in his eyes. There was an element of risk in it that appealed to him. He was to see one of his uncle's old friends, by this odd chance, but the man—old, fifty years ago—would have forgotten him. Men forget the boys they help send to jail! As for that, Mark thought, was little more than a boy, an idle young fellow spoiled by wealth, he imagined, but he had a good temper and fair. The older and taller of the two he did not make out so easily. "I'm bargaining for nothing else to do—nothing but to try to pass a famous hostess and spend an hour at a social function."

"That's all, absolutely all, on my honor, unless you hit the bull's-eye and get a bully dinner," said Teddy. "I'll do my best to get you a party. I'll do my best to get you a party. I'll do my best to get you a party."

You Might as Well Confess!

Almost everyone likes a mystery—almost everyone enjoys the thrilling excitement of tracking down a criminal with an ace detective. But some are a little ashamed to admit reading mysteries. Well—you needn't be.

Maybe you didn't know that many college professors, and presidents, great scientists, captains of industry, even the President of the United States all like their mysteries. In fact, millions of Americans are reading more mysteries today than ever before. Why? Mainly because these fast-paced, easy-reading stories are both relaxing and refreshing. It is for them—and for you—that we are publishing

ELERY QUEEN'S MYSTERY MAGAZINE

Edited by Ellery Queen, famous detective of the radio, the movies, and best-seller books. It is devoted exclusively to the best in detective crime short-story literature. The fact that a story owes its plot to crime and detection need not prevent its being well written. Short detective fiction that is well written is not too readily available. But we are finding them—in books, in magazines, in the files of famous authors, and by arrangement with other publishers as well as with authors, we reprint in the approved Reader's Digest manner the best detective fiction to be procured.

Such masters as Dashiell Hammett, Agatha Christie, Stur Palmer and Ellery Queen are to be found in it. But stories are selected on their merits, not on authors' names. Tough and suave, casual and swift, comic and tragic, they are mingled with refreshing variety and stimulating change of pace. Rare gems fit for the most critical, delightful to the most naive. You will find the new magazine well printed—sharp and clear, kind to the eyes. You will find the size same as The Reader's Digest.

Isaac Bevier Passes Away

Funeral services held on Monday, buried at Tiro cemetery. Isaac E. Bevier, 81, passed away Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sherman Pressel, three miles south of Plymouth. He had been ill for the past ten months.

In his younger days, Mr. Bevier had been a dealer in hardwood lumber and was the father of a son Harry of Shelby. Services were held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Barkdull funeral home of Shelby and burial was made in the Tiro cemetery.

GRADUATES JOINS NAVY

Donald Ellis Smith, grandson of and Mrs. E. W. Smith of Sandusky street, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest F. Smith of Columbus North High school, on Monday, January 25, 1942, immediately enlisted in the United States Navy, Division of Officer Procurement and begins his course of study and preparation at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware on Monday, February 1, 1943.

While Don was a student at Columbus North he made a good record for scholarship and leadership. He graduated in the upper third of his class. He was also a Judge on the Student Court; President of the Toastmasters Club; member of the International Relations Club; Program Chairman of the Hi-Y Club; member of the Press Club and Associate Editor of the Polaris, the school paper.

Don also played Right End on the basketball team, Football Team during the 1942 season. Many Plymouth people will remember Don as a lad who spent a number of his summer vacations in Plymouth with his grandparents.

In 1942 Don was selected as one of two boys to represent his school at Buckeye Boys State, sponsored annually by the American Legion of Ohio, for the education of High School Juniors who have shown ability in scholarship and leadership, in the actual practical operation of government. While at Buckeye Boys State Don was selected President Judge of the Court of Appeals.

THEY DO IT AGAIN!

Two more Plymouth boys received promotions the past week in the Service. Donald Fox, who is stationed at Madison, Wisconsin, writes home that he can now address him as Corporal. George Henry (Hank) Watts, who anticipated a furlough with a visit in Plymouth, regrets that it has been cancelled but is elated over the fact that he has again been promoted—this time to Sergeant.

VISITS HERE

Lt. Vance Snyder of Camp Lee, Virginia, is enjoying a few days with his wife and daughter and other Plymouth relatives. Lieut. Snyder received his commission Friday, having completed his training in the Quartermaster Training School. His wife attended the graduation exercises and accompanied him home.

UNDERGOES EXAMINATION Mrs. A. F. Cornell was in the Shelby Memorial hospital the latter part of the week for examination.

A NEW DAUGHTER Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carrick of Mansfield, formerly of Plymouth, announce the birth of a new daughter, Thursday, at the Mansfield General hospital.

BRINGS CAR HOME Mrs. P. H. Root returned home Monday from a 700-mile auto trip from Sedalia, Mo., where she went to drive back her son Paul's car. Enroute by train she stopped over in Chicago and made a side-trip to Rockwood, Ill., where she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwingling.

HEADS DRIVE

Raymond Pugh has been named chairman of the Shelby Red Cross War Fund Drive for a quota of approximately $12,000 starting on March 1st. Mr. Pugh is a former Plymouth young man.

Observe Boy Scout Week (Continued from Page One) sandwiches, coffee or other drink, table service and whatever main or side dishes you think the majority would like. All the main or side dishes are to be placed on a table and everybody can have their choice. So come one, come all! We are extending this invitation to all former members of the Troop, Merit Badge Counselors, Troop Committeemen, parents of Scouts and friends, and any person interested in the Scout movement in the village. Come and bring the whole family.

Court of Honor will be held at 7:30 p. m. This will also be held in the auditorium. Second Class badges will be awarded to Russell Baker; Merit Badges will be awarded to Paul Scott, Gordon Seaholts, Junior Davis, Bill Derr, Warren Wirth and Jim Moore. First Honors as an Explorer Scout will be presented to Junior Davis, Paul Scott and Sid Thomas. Sid Thomas will also receive Scout Citizenship Specialization Award. Star Scout badges will be given to Junior Davis and James Moore. Life Scout Badges will be given Sid Thomas, Gordon Seaholts and Bill Derr. Five year veteran award will be given to Willard Ross, Jr., and the Five Year Veteran Award will also be given the Troop. Floyd Dent, Area Scout Executive, will award all Johnny Applished Area Court awards at our Court of Honor and local scouters will award the other badges. This will be a very impressive procedure and one you will remember. These boys have worked hard for these honors and it is our privilege and duty to back them to the fullest extent in their advancement.

Monday evening Scout will be the guests of Mr. Edward Ramsey at the Plymouth theatre. Tuesday evening is regular meeting night. During the meeting Robert Hale will be taken in as a Tenderfoot Scout. Parents and friends are cordially invited to witness this investiture.

SCOUT NEWS Thursday evening, Feb. 4 (tonight) the troop committee will meet in the scout rooms for the regular monthly meeting. This is a very important meeting and all members are asked to be present. Meeting will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Scouts to appear before Board of Review this evening are Paul Scott, Gordon Seaholts, Junior Davis, Warren Wirth, and Russell Baker. Members of the Troop Committee met with Area Executive, Floyd Dent, in the Troop Rooms Monday night to go over plans for the coming Court of Honor.
