HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

In a recent issue of the News-Palladium of Benton Harbor, Mich. and received by L. D. Wolfcrberger of the Cleveland Plain Dealer staff is an article of interest about a former resident.

"A family picnic for 12 relatives was given Sunday, Sept. 5, at Jean Klock park in honor of Samuel C. Hench, who celebrated his 82 birthday on that date. The outing and beach picnic being a red letter day in the life of Mr. Hench, one of the interesting pioneer residents of the city. The party was arranged by his children and grand children.

Mr. and Mrs. Hench are the parents of one daughter and two sons. The youngest present was a great grand son, two years old. There was a large pink and white decorated birthday cake inscribed with the greeting "happy birthday dad" and Mr. Hench was presented numerous beautiful birthday gifts.

Mr. Hench who is known as "dad" by all his friends, believes that good health should be credited mainly to daily walks and fresh air.

He has lived here since 1910 and was formerly employed at the Superior Steel, Inc., for many years. He prizes his good health and enjoyed the party immensely.

Mr. Hench was reared in Shiloh and was named after his grand father who was postmaster here for several years. The post office was on the corner now occupied by Pittenger's garage.

The Hench home is standing where it was built, the first house south of the garage.

BUY WAR BONDS

NO right thinking people want a war, but they will fight one in order to have peace. They know that only while there is peace can there be real freedom, and that happiness and progress are the fruits of peace. The happiness of home and family is destroyed if it is haunted by the constant fear that fathers, sons, husbands and sweethearts may have to sacrifice their lives, no matter how noble the purpose.

We in America are engaged in a great world struggle . . . not just because our peace was treacherously violated, but because threatening forces were gaining strength in the world to carry out their long laid plans for the destruction of all peace-loving and liberty-loving people. We are in this war to win it, not just for America, but for all the peoples of the earth—both for those whose governments safeguard the individual's rights and liberties and for those who have helplessly and unwittingly become the victims of vicious and unscrupulous leaders.

The people of warlike nations or those who are forced to live always in preparation for war are inevitably doomed to privation and misery and to the loss of their liberty. They become underprivileged and unhappy and fall easy prey to the deceptions that are practiced upon them. Compare this with our country which has lived most of its national life in friendship and in peace. We have been able to devote ourselves almost continuously to the pursuits of self-development and constructive projects, with the result that America has been the pace-setter of world progress and become the leader of the nations.

With the world drawn closer together through commerce, communication and aviation, it is clear that amicable neighborliness, economic freedom and mutual assistance must be the order of the day if we are to have permanent peace and continued world progress. Then all people can live free of the frustration that comes from the fear that war may put an end to all their hopes and ambitions. America will see to it that the United Nations win the present war and that all the peoples of the world win the peace that will follow. It must be a world where all people shall be free of fear, where "swords will be beaten into ploughshares" and where there will be "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

Last Rites For E. Whatman

Edgar Whatman, 85, died Friday evening at the home of his son, Charles, southwest of Plymouth, following an illness of about two weeks.

He was a native of England and came to this vicinity at the age of 25.

He was a farmer by profession and lived and operated his farm northeast of Shiloh until his wife's health failed, and then he bought a property on West Main street, where he has since resided.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. H. Lutz of Willard, and Mrs. John Noble of Plymouth; two sons, Charles, at whose home he died, and George of near Adario; two brothers, Charles of Mansfield and Theodore of Greenwichten grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, one great grand child.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the McQuate funeral home. His pastor, Rev. E. H. Messinger, of the Methodist church, officiated.

Burial was made in Edward's Grove cemetery.

Start On Third War Bond Drive

In cooperation with the national, state and county program for the third bond drive, the chairs of town and townships are busy with the plans to meet the necessary quota. Solicitors have been appointed by Mrs. Fern Reynolds, chairman for the town and by Boyd Hamman, chairman for the township.

Courtesy to these solicitors by our citizens is a patriotic duty, and it always pays. These people are doing this work gratuitously and deserve recognition. Let's back them morally even if we haven't a penny to give. Let's bring our community to a high standard with the least we have, a kind thought for the feelings of these volunteers.

Those selected for the town are Mrs. Clay Bixler, Mrs. W. W. Pittenger, I. L. McQuate, Mrs. E. C. Geisinger, Mrs. C. O. Butner, Mrs. E. J. Stevenson, Mrs. Carl Smith, Supt. W. H. Miley and Mrs. Harley Kendig.

Those selected by Mr. Hamman for the township are: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wagner, Roscoe Swartz, John Adams, Mrs. Forest Van Wagner, Mrs. F. P. Downend, Leslie Russell, Darley C. Arnold, Elroy B. Pettit, H. B. Paine, Cloyd Sloan and Mrs. Arthur McBride. There will be a meeting of both these groups at the school house Thursday evening of this week for full instructions, which they will receive from county officers. G. B. Ganyard, Paul Elliott and Marshall Moore.

NEWS OF OUR SERVICE MEN

1/Lt. James Ruckman holds a certificate of inestimable value and one which we hope will be preserved for posterity. It is a certificate of Pilgrimage given him when he visited the holy sepulcher in Palestine.

It contains a picture of the sepulcher and with his name in print and the date he was permitted to visit it, and on it is the seal and the name of the custodian of the gate. Above the gate is the inscription, "The Garden Tomb" and a scripture verse, the writing of which is plain and can be read without a magnifying glass. On the certificate also is an impressive and fervent blessing for the welfare of James.

He has almost completed a trip around the world.

It is unfortunate for many of us that we must come in contact with folks who grumble and find fault with everything and especially rationing. Here is some food and something that will be good for all of us. Excerpts from a splendid letter written by James Ruckman when he returned to his home base after a trip to India. They ferried nine ships which were constructed from salvaged parts of wrecked planes at the plant in Central Africa. Out of the nine ships in the convoy, all arrived safely, but one. He says, "All nine of us were hospitalized somewhere along the line with fever dysentery, and even others of the stomach. If I could understand why we got sick. One place in Arabia we were all poisoned on chickens which we bought from natives and ate about dead when we got them. We baked our bread from flour which was mixed with other meal and bugs. We did not notice the bugs so much until we started eating it, and there were too many to pick out so we ate bugs and all.

In another place in India the temperature reached 140 degrees in the shade and the heat got a few of us down and caused queer ailments. The ship that we lost, ran out of gas and dropped in the water, but the natives fished the pilot out as it happened to be close to shore. My only mishap was over some mountains. Ten thousand feet up my motor quit. I turned around and headed for a pass and lost two thousand feet before getting it started again. I was about 50 miles from the place I had just left and my motor kept quitting on me all the way back but I had enough altitude that I made it. O. K. only wish the people who gripe about hard times could be here with me. They would soon learn to be thankful for what LITTLE they have back in the U. S. It's hell, but I wouldn't miss it for the world."

Thank you, James, we need more jobs.

SCOUT NEWS

L. E. Brown has completed two years with Troop One as Troop Committee Chairman.

At Tuesday night's meeting, re-organization of the Pine Tree patrol was completed. Leland Cole will serve as patrol leader for a probationary period of 2 months and Ronald Trauger will serve as assistant patrol leader for the same period. Donald Cunningham and Kenny Donohoe were asked to join the patrol as soon as they have completed their Ten derfoot tests.

Scoutmaster Don Einsel was a visitor at the Area Scout office on Monday morning. Future plans for Troop One were discussed with Area Executives, Floyd Dent, Al Fendrich and Charlie Kimmel. Troop One ranks high in the area in number of Senior Scouts registered and leads in the waste paper collections.

Members of Troop One enjoyed a "Fall Road-up" party in the scout rooms to start the fall season. Eighteen scouts were present. Games, a picture show and refreshments made up the major portion of the evening.

John Seaholts, merit badge counselor in athletics, automobilizing, pioneering and machinery was awarded his Five Year Veteran insignia at the Area Court in Mansfield, Thursday, Sept. 30. Mr. Seaholts was formerly registered with the Scout troops at Jacksonville, Fla., before coming into the local troop.

The annual Father and Son Hike will be held next Sunday. Fathers and sons are asked to meet in the Scout rooms so that we can start at 3:00 p. m. The boys are out for revenge this year in the indoor game, so dads, beware. An afternoon of fun has been worked out. Many returns have been received by Committeeman L. E. Brown, saying: "Sure, I am going." Area Executives Floyd Dent, "Al" Fendrich and Charlie Kimmel will be with us. G. L. Rogers has kindly offered to fire some talkies. Last year some 50 fathers and sons attended this affair.

Senior Scouts are asked to meet in the troop rooms tonight at 7:30 o'clock for very important meeting.

The last salvage drive put on by Troop One netted enough paper to make 200,000 boxes for 30 calibre ammunition, enough fats for 60 anti-tank shells, enough tin for over 5000 incendiary or smoke grenades, and enough silk stockings to fire the big gun on a battle ship one time. Let's get behind these salvage drives so that Plymouth can be a 100 per cent salvage village.

I cannot say, and I will not say that he is dead; he is just away! With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown land, And left us dreaming how very fair, It needs must be, since he lingers there. And you—Oh you, who the wildest year For the old time step and the glad return, Think of him, faring on, as dear In the love of there as the love of here; I think of him still as the same I say: He is not dead—he is just away!

Beverstock Rites Held Monday In Lexington

Funeral services for Frank Beverstock, 69, retired secretary of the Richland county Automobile club, who died Saturday in Mansfield General hospital, following a brief illness were conducted Monday at 3:30 p. m., at the Snyder funeral home in Lexington. Burial was made in Lexington cemetery.

Mr. Beverstock, secretary of the auto club for 24 years made many friends throughout the county and this community.

This is Let Thomas Weaver, first SOHIOAN to give his life for his country in World War II.

The least we can do for TOM WEAVER

HE WAS FRESH OUT OF THE NEWS when the day he came in to see us about a job. His face read that he had spunk . . . and "git-up" . . . and faith. We had an idea he'd fit into the SOHIO family. We were right. In only a short time, he was given a promotion in the pipe-line department. The future looked bright for young Tom Weaver.

Just about then, war clouds started to rumble. The Navy issued a call for fliers. And young Tom came in to say goodbye. We wished him good luck. Gave him a routing send-off—and the promise of a job after the war.

That was all we could do for him—then. The Navy sent Tom down to the great flying base at Pensacola. The day his mother went down to visit him should have been a very happy one. It wasn't. Shortly before she arrived, young Tom Weaver had crashed to his death . . .

What can we do for Tom Weaver today? Tom Weaver is not the only SOHIOAN to have laid down his life in this war. But he was the first—and so is a symbol of all of SOHIO's men now in the armed forces. Those men are risking lives and limbs and futures so that the rest of us may keep on enjoying a peaceful, secure existence. What more can we do for these men? Well, when we at Standard Oil think of Tom Weaver—we know very well what more we can do! And it's the least we can do . . .

BUY MORE BONDS! Let's all dig a little deeper, put aside a little more, get along with a little less, and—buy an extra Bond!

For the money that's in our pockets now . . . and the money we have saved up—can help save the precious life of some young Tom Weaver in the fighting forces. And what more can we get for our money than that?
