

PLYMOUTH TO SHARE IN HUGE XMAS PARTY FOR SERVICEMEN

The world's largest Christmas party for hospitalized servicemen and women is being planned by the American Legion and its Auxiliary. The 12,065 posts of the American Legion and the 4,999 units of its Auxiliary, with their combined memberships of more than two million, will seek in cooperation with Eddie Cantor's new radio show, "Time To Smile" to collect 500,000 Christmas gift boxes for delivery to every wounded and sick fighting man and woman in a government hospital in the United States on December 25th.

Suggestions for gifts for GI Joe are books, (no war stories), stationery, games, toiletries, wearables and smokes. For GI Jane, stationery, games, toiletries, notions, wearables.

Ehret Post, American Legion, and the Ladies Auxiliary, are sharing in the plan and have placed a box in Dr. LaBarre's office at Webster's Drug store for those desiring to assist in the project. The deadline is Dec. 10th.

Gifts collected in the state of Ohio will go to soldiers and sailors located in this state.

The slogan for the campaign is "Christmas Gifts to Yanks Who Gave."

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY FRIDAY

GOOD COMEDY—GOOD CAST—GOOD EVENING OF ENTERTAINMENT.

A record breaking attendance is anticipated tomorrow night when the Junior class will present their annual play. This year's "Grandpa's Twin Sister" is a three-act comedy, full of fun and frolic and a good evening of entertainment. The curtain will rise at 8:00 p. m.

Scopias

Grandpa enjoys poor health and the thrill of ordering people about, but he worries over how to escape the persistent efforts of the Widow Williams to catch her fourth husband. Living with grandpa are Clara and her henpecked husband Edgar, who want him to let Edgar act as his guardian in charge of his money.

Then, there is Louise, his grandniece, who wants his money too, and her prospective bridegroom, Henry Collins who wants Louise only if she has the definite prospects of being an heiress.

There is Betty, his granddaughter, who doesn't want anything from grandpa, but she does want Dr. Watt to stop considering her child and to pay some attention to her for herself alone. And the cook, Maggie, who wants a husband and is willing to pay a mail order matrimonial bureau a considerable husband, Adam McPherson.

Grandpa and Betty take matters in their own hands instead of letting nature take its course. Come and see them get out!

CURPEN MOVES TO NEW LOCATION ON EVE OF STORE'S ANNIVERSARY

Announcement of the opening of the Curpen Jewelry & Gift Shoppe in their new quarters in the Peoples National Bank building on Saturday, Nov. 25, marks the completion of thirty-one years of business in Plymouth under his own name.

It was in November, 1913, that E. B. Curpen took over the store which the late F. A. Curpen had conducted for thirty-five years at its present location, No. 9 Public Square. The senior Curpen came to America from Germany and before going into business for himself, had clerked for the Hoffman Jewelry Store. Learning the jewelry and watch repair business from his father, Ed has increased his trade, until his present quarters are no longer adequate for his present volume, and it is with a marked degree of pride that he announces the opening of his new store for Saturday, Nov. 25.

The room, located in the north part of the bank building, and facing the east side of the Public Square, is ideal for his business. The interior of the room has been painted a beautiful shade of turquoise blue, and all show cases and shelves are constructed and finished in light sunray oak. New indirect lighting fixtures permits the customer to see at a glance the well displayed articles and gifts.

Warlike conditions have, naturally affected to a certain degree, the jewelry and gift line, but due to far-sightedness on the part of Mr. Curpen, he has many items on hand that are scarce in cities and towns much larger than Plymouth.

It is a well known fact that customers for miles around have come to Plymouth to purchase several lines in the better brackets, such as Elgin, Bulova, Hamilton and Gruen, from Mr. Curpen. He is also an authority on diamonds of quality and many-a-bride-to-be counts herself lucky if her engagement ring comes from Curpens.

Lovers of fine crystal will find familiar names among crystals on display at Curpen's foremost being such names as Imperialcandledwick, and Heisy and altho production in this line has been greatly curtailed, many of their most beautiful patterns are available at Curpen's.

Among the dinnerware patterns being displayed are distinctive American designs including genuine Fiesta Ware, LuRay and Crookville China. Pottery from Ohio's best known pottery, such as Roseville, Hull and Gonder occupies a prominent place in the display.

Shoppers for bridal gifts, show-ers and Christmas gifts will find a really wonderful selection to choose from at Curpen's and a cordial welcome is extended the public to attend their opening or to call on Curpen's at any time and look around, without feeling obliged to buy.

Mr. Curpen will be assisted on the sales floor by Mrs. Curpen, and Mrs. Ernie Rooks.

GRANGE TO HOLD FESTIVAL SALE

HAROLD CASHMAN TAKES OVER M. ROGERS & CO. SHOE STORE

A business transaction involving one of the oldest establishments in Plymouth was closed last Thursday when Harold Cashman purchased the M. Rogers & Co. local shoe firm, from Harriet and Carroll Robinson.

This store is the oldest business place in town, being started by Wells Rogers over 75 years ago, and following his death the store was operated by his son Mack, who carried on the business until his death a few years ago.

At the death of Mack Rogers in 1934 his daughter Mrs. Harriet Rogers Robinson and husband purchased the store and they conducted the business up to the present time.

Mr. Cashman, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cashman, is well known in Plymouth and vicinity. He is a graduate of Plymouth High School and Blue Business College, Columbus. He was formerly employed in the accounting department of the Fate-Root-Heath Co., for a period of seven or one-half years. For the past year he has been employed as a public accountant in Mansfield.

Mr. Cashman states that he expects to continue the business as usual, and that additional stocks of shoes will be added as soon as they are available. "It is my intention to build up a line that will please the entire community. A complete line of shoes and rubber footwear is already on hand,

LETTERS FROM OUR BOYS

News From India
It's nice to receive mail in bunches, but it's the in-between times that "get you." Mrs. E. E. Dawson of Shiloh, formerly of Plymouth, received several letters recently from her son, S-Sgt Ray F. Dawson.

The first was written aboard ship with destination unknown. He speaks of a calm sea but the "swells" are large. Also of a ship holiday because of crossing the Equator. They are still initiating the new members of the "shell back" club, a Navy, Marine tradition.

The next two letters are from India in which he says, "these last three days have been the strangest, most different, exciting days of my life. We walked the several miles from the train out here without even stopping, and in a hot sun.

In the A. M. I had sweated nearly all the salt out of my system, but the train ride and K type of food picked me up and I made the hike OK, and even worked all that night in the mess hall. Cooked canned sausage, scrambled dry eggs, India coffee, and beans. Also baked chocolate cake and peach cobbler for the permanent party men. Used local flour, beet sugar, dry eggs, over-seas grease, vanilla tablets, canned milk, and leed the cake with thickened fruit juice and sugar.

Today, we had local buffalo beef stew, with local peppers for flavor, and it hurt my feelings to think of eating that stuff.

"We are here in the finest part of the year. The country on every side is the most beautiful I have ever seen and such clouds and sunrise. Today we have had some showers and the roads mush up like North Carolina clay. There are six of us in our dormitory, all swell fellows, and we pitched in and have a nice neat looking place to live.

"Mail call was an event, especially since the last mail was in August. All the fellows received many letters, some thirty or forty. I got thirteen letters. We were asked to change our money for Indian rupees. I changed $16 and got 54 rupees. Bought many things I needed."

In another letter Ray says: "Our rail trip to this place was very interesting. Rode in cars designed to carry India's working people. The seats are wooden benches, we also slept on them when there was room. Saw hundreds of miles of rice, some corn, barley, coconuts, bananas and monkeys. The homes were very primitive, of mud, and bamboo with thatched roofs. Have enjoyed bartering with the natives. I can speak a little Hindustani, and they speak some English. I bought a sun helmet for 90c, four wooden hangers, 48c, a special type pocketbook for $1.20. We use only Indian money. A hair cut is 24c.

"The PX has plenty of candy, gum, tobacco, beer, writing paper, cookies, juices, Yank Magazine and soap, so we get along."

"Love—Ray"

Commenting on Italy, he says that they live in tents, some even in stone houses with a tent top. They expect to get a stone house built soon. At present they are living in a tent which has a metal floor, running water, electric light and a stove burning that precious fuel—gasoline.

He has been on missions over Yugoslavia, Hungary, Austria and the Reich. The Swiss Alps and the mountains in southern Germany and Austria are very beautiful this time of year, very rugged and plenty of snow. Even Italy is very pretty from the air, but as viewed from the ground it's another matter. The towns are very dirty and "smell for miles."

He signs off with best wishes.

Bundles From Heaven
Sophie, a nondescript female dog, whose lineage dates so far back that the record stops, really knows the inside dope of this Japanese-American situation.

Acquired by members of the 37th Division in a campaign against the Japs, "Sophie" evidently knows a good thing when she sees it, going with the group from island to island. Adopting Bud Van Wagner of Plymouth for her master, she has become quite adept in jumping into fox holes when Jap dive bombers fly ever and always manages to get in the safest place she thinks — Bud's lap.

She has become quite a mascot of the Plymouth group in the Southwest Pacific, and was Bud surprised one morning when he discovered the Sophie was no longer alone — but had given birth to quintuplets under his bunk. As Wayne Gebert so aptly put it, "Bud was as surprised as a father," but anyhow, Sophie and her family are in good hands and provide much entertainment for the local boys from the grim horrors of war.

A movement is on foot in Plymouth to organize a chapter of Blue Star Mothers of America, Inc. Mrs. E. A. Brown of Plymouth street was instrumental in obtaining the information from the Methodist chapter regarding the organization, and we submit to our readers a portion of rules and regulations.

Mothers interested in becoming members of this organization may contact Mrs. Brown at the home of Mrs. W. C. McFadden.

The necessary steps are as follows:
Eligibility to Membership—A mother, adopted mother or step-mother of a son or daughter serving in the armed forces of the U. S., or United Nations, or a son or daughter who has been honorably discharged. The term "Armed Forces" include all branches of services of the U. S. and its Allies.

Application for Charter shall be made to the department president. A chapter must have a membership of 15. Dues are $1 per year. No chapter shall be named after any living person.

Election of officers to be made when charter is approved. With almost two hundred boys in service Plymouth mothers can easily organize a chapter if they so desire. The next step is to signify your intentions as to whether you are interested by contacting Mrs. Brown.

NEW SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES INSTALLED AT PEOPLES BANK

The Peoples National Bank announces the installation of the past week of 132 new safety deposit boxes which are now available to its customers. The boxes are moderately priced, and is the ideal place for keeping valuables safe from theft and fire. Two keys are furnished with each box and patrons may gain entrance to the boxes any time during banking hours.

The demand for these boxes has been great during the past few years, and although the order for them has been placed for quite a while, it was only until last week that shipment and installation of the boxes was made. The local bank counts itself very fortunate in securing the additional deposit boxes, and if you contemplate renting one, better do it now!

The Cook's Wash-Out

Another tale is being told that emanates from the Southwest Pacific in which local boys had a part — it's the "Cook's Wash-out." It seems the cook washed his trousers and hung them on a line to dry. However, they simply weren't there when he went to get them. Greatly aggravated, he kept his "weather eye" out and began noticing other things disappearing such as food, a bowl he had hammered out of metal, and various other things. Thinking the thief was among his own group they posted guards, but no luck. Five weeks later, a very small Jap was rounded up and brought into camp, and lo-and-behold—he had on the cook's trousers which made him the guilty party. They discovered he had lived in caves for more than five weeks, foraging what he could from the nearby camp. The group couldn't help but laugh, and at that, the Jap grinned, too, but he was taken before the commanding officer and later to a prison camp. The mystery was solved.

A CHANGE IN OWNERSHIP

It is with genuine pleasure that I announce to my friends and patrons the purchase of The M. Rogers Shoe Store, a firm that has served Plymouth and vicinity for almost a hundred years.

While I do not anticipate a drastic and sudden change in policy, I do intend to give you the kind of Shoes you want. It will take a little time to become familiar with your particular desires in Footwear, but you're invited to stop in and look over our splendid line of Shoes for the entire family.

Of course, restrictions force the manufacturers to make many war time alterations and substitutes, but when Victory is ours and shoe production again becomes normal, you can be certain that our Shoes will be the best at the lowest possible prices.

In taking over the Rogers Shoe Store I am confident that Plymouth and vicinity will give loyal support to a store that renders a complete service — that satisfies its customers with style, comfort and appearance — Shoes that will please you in every way. We have a future ambition to work toward, and with your cooperation and patronage, I believe Plymouth will have a Shoe Store of which it can be justly proud.

A GOOD HUNTER

E. C. Geisinger returned Thursday from a very interesting hunting trip. There were sixteen in the party and their destination was fifty miles north of Trout Creek, Ontario, Canada.

Big game was their objective, and they were not disappointed. Nearly all came home with deer, and Mr. Geisinger is to be congratulated on having the third largest deer to his credit.

Mrs. Geisinger met her husband at Crestline when he returned with some friends who drove home. She said the sight was worth seeing as one of the travelers had six deer in all. The result was good for only one week of hunting.

Nothing on venison is a very ordinary meal in the Geisinger home.

Deer haven't travelled so far after all when we think it was a few years over a century when they were common in winter meat in our own country.
