

DOINGS in CONGRESS

By Cong. Wm. Lemke.

Washington, Feb. 9, 1944.
THE FURY OVER THE BOBBAL ball — the bobtail subterfuge — has subsided. The Members refused to violate their oath of office. They refused to insult the soldier's intelligence by handing him an unconstitutional blank piece of paper. How would you feel if on election day you were handed a piece of paper and asked to write in the names of your candidates? If you were in a Canadian would you know who the nominees were?

WHY TRY TO PRACTICE SUCH a fraud on our soldiers. Why violate the Constitution when Congress and the States can give the soldier a complete constitutional ballot with all the candidates' names — State and Federal — on it? It is rumored that London and Moscow were all set to print this bobtail, albeit with kind-essence function. Congress refused to be a party to fourth term ambitions. They stood up and were counted in favor of giving the soldier an opportunity to cast a complete and honest ballot.

LET US QUIT TRYING TO POOL the soldiers. A week ago Congress accepted the Administration's niggardly master-out-pay plan. Those who received 60 days received $100 to buy civilian clothes with. Those who served overseas received a maximum of $50. With such crumbs how can these veterans readjust themselves into civilian life? A day in Congress voted $1,250,000,000 for the Administration's International WPA. We were told that this International WPA was agreed to by 45 nations.

LET US SEE WHAT THIS agreement is. The American taxpayer is to pay 60 per cent of $1,250,000,000 — while all of the other 44 nations together are to pay only 40 per cent. Russia, China and Brazil each possess more of the world's resources than do 44 nations combined. It is a claim that their share of the 40 per cent is too large. Fourteen others are still to be determined. It is the agreement that it was not binding on their government until it was approved by legislative or other action.

YES, A NIGGARDLY $300 FOR the veterans that fought on Guadalcanal and the Breiten Battlefields — not even civilian clothes for those who served all the way from 80 days to two years — and then were discharged because they were over 38 — but, $1,250,000,000 for an International WPA. Do you think that is a bargain? Then, in addition, the soldier was offered a blank piece of paper with a red line through it and the name of his candidates. Is that the Administration's idea of not letting our sons in the armed forces down or of giving them an idea of manipulating a fourth term out of the bobtail ball?

I APPEAL TO THE FATHERS and mothers of the boys in the armed forces and to their wives to insist that their sons be treated as the veterans and soldiers decently and with respect. That they insist that the States cooperate with the Federal Government and give them an intelligent ballot. Our soldiers must not be relegated to second place. And now they are being given their first American program if they come first.

NEW DEPUTY SHERIFF Kenneth Murr of New London has been appointed Huron county deputy sheriff by Sheriff Jesse W. Mellett. He has been marshal of New London for two years and in that year has served as a county deputy sheriff in the New London territory. Murr is a native of Lexington, Ky., who is to enter the army Feb. 12.

LEXINGTON WINS! What's that? Yes, it is true. The Plymouth Pilgrims took it on the nose again at the hands of the Minutemen. The first game was a very hard game to lose as the Plymouth team had its heart set on winning this one. It seems to be a character of this team that they lose out in the second quarter. After holding the advantage throughout the first and most of the second quarter, Plymouth lost out by missing three pot shots. From there on, the Lexington group went to town. The final score was Lexington 28, Plymouth 22.

VISIT MOTTER Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brumback and Mrs. Stella Barr of Mansfield, and LeRoy Brumback of Plymouth were in New London, Sunday, visiting their mother, Mrs. M. J. Brumback, who is recovering from an illness.

Public invited To Attend Boy Scout Court of Honor tonight

WILL INSTALL AIR SCOUTS AND MAKE AWARDS HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

We rarely prize such things as schools, library books, running water and electricity. They are part of our daily lives, and we accept them automatically, as we do fresh air and sunshine. But when the anniversary of their invention or donation comes around, we wonder who could do without them.

This is Boy Scout Week, the 34th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. It makes us realize that Scouting too is one of those good things which we take for granted. Yet, through two World Wars and a world-wide depression, this organization has never once relaxed its efforts. It has helped make millions of boys into better, happier Americans. You can't be a boy in an Axis country, or one dominated by the Axis, and have the right to be in the United Nations fighting forces are now defending their country on the battlefield.

Air Scout Investiture This evening in the High School auditorium at 7:30, residents of the community are invited to attend the Shelby District Court of Honor. One of the highlights of the affair will be the installation of the Air Scouts, the only one of its kind in the entire United States Area. Scoutmaster Floyd Dent of Mansfield will be the sponsor of the new Air Scouts, Charles Kimmel, also of Mansfield, will be the installing officer.

The local Air Scouts were registered on Oct. 31 under Squadron Leader Harry Kemp, and was organized from the senior group through Troop One. The troop is headed by the Squadron Headquarters in the rear of the Phillip Moore residence on West High street, and has recently been incorporated in a two-tone blue and gray. Meetings are held every Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The troop has 45 members: Warren Wirth, Russell Becker, Richard Wharton, Jack Hampton, Eldon Williams and District Commissioner, Luther Brown, George Hermscher and Elton Robertson. The Air Scouts are a unit, known as the Parsel Air Scouts, Squadron No. 1, honoring the late Capt. W. H. Parsel.

Ex-Scouts now in service, and home on leave, will also be in attendance this evening. Scoutmasters Don W. Ruppel and recently been given a special invitation to every member of the armed forces to be present at the meeting. Ex-Scouts are invited to bring their guests. The Air Scouts are now known as the Victory Patrol and in the Johnny Appleseed area alone over 3600 Scouts are serving in the armed forces.

Other Guests In addition to the above guests, Rex Snyder and Arch Kirkpatrick of Shelby, and other members of the court of honor and all parents of Scouts to receive awards or special recognition are asked to be present.

Theatre Party Tomorrow evening the Troop will be guests of Ed Ramsey at the Plymouth theatre.

Sunday Progress The Scouts, in uniform, will be the honored guests at the Methodist church at 11:00 a. m. The local organization was sponsored by the laymen of the church and all members of Troop One will be sworn in by a representative of the sponsoring group. Scouts will also usher, and the community is invited to attend. In the evening the service will again be held at Forest Avenue church at 7:30 the Air Scouts will usher and Clifford G. Hillier of Mansfield, Scout Master of Troop 6, will be the sponsor.

Monday Night Meeting Monday evening in the Scout Rooms the Tenderfoot Investiture will be held. Forest Avenue and Herbert M. Hillier are the candidates.

PLAY WELL ATTENDED A capacity crowd had a full evening entertainment when the Junior Class presented the comedy, "Peck's Bad Boy," last Thursday evening at the High School auditorium. The colored maid with her "Ah's" quitting, "Ah's" still in the room, and the trouble keeping their servants from leaving them and going into a more profitable line.

How many people remember when they used to (7) play tricks on people or how they got up enough courage to ask some certain one to marry them? Miss Ruth Burger of Canton, a former classmate of the Junior class, had gone back to Canton to resume her studies after spending some time in Plymouth. She was her serenade to make a successful evening of entertainment. Miss Burger, who is a major in the army, is a pianist, danced and twirled her baton between each act. It is unusual to see anyone tapping an air twirling a baton at the same time.

Before the play, a short program of music was presented by Miss Joy Benson of the Varsity. Jump, just before curtain time. Pt. Crane of the Wacs, spoke in behalf of the Fourth War Loan Drive.

Many thanks go to Miss Josephine Miller for her capable direction of the play, and to Miss Pipkin who assisted in staging the production.

Legion Auxiliary To Offer Hands In Resignation As Mayor

LEGION AUXILIARY VOLUNTEERS SERVICES FOR FEB. 27TH AT CRESTLINE.

Mrs. Dave Sraefield, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, has received word from Mrs. John Moran of Crestline, that Monday, Feb. 28, has been reserved for the local organization to serve at the Crestline Service Center.

Between 800 and 1000 service boys are served daily at the Center, the first train arriving at Crestline about 6:30 a. m. and leaving by every 20 minutes thereafter. Between 175 and 225 men are on each train and the cost of serving every day runs between $40 and $60.00.

Baked goods consisting of doughnuts, cup cakes and cash are being solicited to aid in the work. No LAYER or SQUARE cakes should be sent as these are too hard to handle. The Crestline ladies will aid in ordering bread, sandwich filling, coffee, milk or any other manner in which they can, but the Legion Auxiliary will do the serving and all attendant funds are raised to meet the bill.

Coming on a Monday it will be a little hard to see that every-day in a game, but the greater must be in Crestline at 9 o'clock, slow time, or 10 o'clock, fast time, on Sunday afternoon and if interested, call Mrs. Sraefield, and she will give further information. The mayor and church groups have already been contacted and agreed to help with funds. It is a work in which all can help, and until someone asks YOU, YOU ask what you can do.

PLYMOUTH WINS TWO GAMES HERE

With determination written all over the faces of the boys, both teams in each game, one of the best games was played on Plymouth's hardwood court Tuesday evening. At the outset, the boys apparently had the jitters, but as the game progressed, they were able to make the points go. As time went by the uneasy stage passed and some real basketball was played.

In the first game, Ream, Hampton and Ruckman parted the meshes for 8 points each, while Hulse and Dickson played a defensive end of the floor. For the New Haven Reserve, Mr. Wirtz piled up 10 points, and Clark made four points. The final score was, Plymouth 29, New Haven 14.

In the Varsity game, the floor work of both teams was quite outstanding. Ream was everywhere, at once, apparently, while Berkeley and Hulse were in the front. Rhine and Thomas were constantly on the drive making the defense play very hard to follow. Although Crockett was yanked from the game, Scott came to the rescue and played very well for having been out of the Varsity but a few minutes before.

Snyder of New Haven was outstanding in his scoring, making in all 14 points. The scoring was quite evenly divided with Ream and Berkeley each making 8 points, Rhine and Thomas making 7 each and Scott and Wirtz making 6 each. The score of New Haven was 2 points each for Don Dickson, Clark, Mitchell and Cok with Snyder making 14 points.

The final score: Plymouth 32; New Haven 22. The game was efficiently handled by the coach of Shelby high school.

VALENTINE DANCE

One of the days celebrated and remembered is St. Valentine's Day. Just two days early, on Feb. 12, the dance was held at the High School and sponsored by the Junior Class. A ten-piece orchestra has been engaged for the evening. It is hoped that many will be present to enjoy the evening. Admission will be 40 cents per person.

WILLARD WIRTH SWORN IN AS NEW MAYOR TUESDAY; OTHER APPOINTMENTS

Elected Mayor of Plymouth last November, B. Derr resigned this position Monday night when council met in general session. After Clerk James Rhine read the mayor's resignation, members of the council made individual expressions of regret in losing their leader, but wished for him and his family continued success in their new home in Cincinnati, where Mr. Derr is employed in the school system there. In a few well chosen words Mayor Derr expressed his appreciation for the splendid reception he received from his fellow council members, and of his regret in leaving Plymouth.

Immediately upon reading the resignation Mayor Derr turned the chair over to Willard Wirth, newly elected council member, and president of the body, who officially became Plymouth's new Mayor Tuesday morning when he was sworn in before C. M. Lofland, notary public. Under existing laws, when a vacancy occurs in the mayor's office, the council takes over, and must take his oath either before a justice of the peace or notary public.

Other Appointments Before retiring as mayor, Mr. Derr made several appointments and transacted other legislation. One of the major appointments was that of Clay Hulbert as village marshal. Hulbert, who has served in that position for months, taking the place of the late Otis Moore, received a permanent and life-time position as village marshal. Under the state law, after serving six months of probation, a marshal is either reappointed or reappointed and appointment by Mayor Derr, members of the council unanimously elected Hulbert as village marshal. There were no other applications filed for the vacancy.

In addition to being marshal, Hulbert received an appointment as street commissioner for a two-year term. Dick was re-appointed as a member of the cemetery board. He succeeds himself, and will continue to serve with Mrs. J. A. Root and J. W. McIntire, present board members.

The vacancy on the Mary Fete Memorial Park board caused by the death of Steve Wirtz was filled. James Root was filled when Mayor Derr appointed P. W. Thomas as a member of the board. Steve Wirtz made a report to the council Tuesday night which involved several complaints. The men have volunteered to wash, scrub and paint up the place, thereby causing a serious fire hazard. The matter was referred to the paper committee and action will be taken at the next regular meeting to prohibit such practice.

Buy Bonds

An ordinance was passed by council whereby several trust funds will be invested into government bonds. The funds are derived from various sources of the cemetery trusts and total approximately $1,300. Under the stipulations of the ordinance, the funds to be invested in bonds, and inasmuch as the money has been in use for some time, it was deemed a good investment to place it in bonds.

The appointment of a deputy marshal came up for discussion, but was referred to the police committee which will make a recommendation on Tuesday night. The position pays approximately $400 a year. The purpose of a deputy is to relieve the regular marshal occasionally, to assist in handling traffic on Wednesday and Saturday nights. The name was revealed at Monday night's session as to who may fill the vacancy on the council caused by Wirth's promotion. However, a nomination may be in order at the next meeting.

All members of the council were present at Monday night's meeting and included Members Lash, Nimmons, Fetters, Kinsey, Steele and Wirtz. Mayor Derr presided over the meeting and transacting routine business. Clerk Rhine and Solicitor Robert Vetter were also present.

LEAVES FOR SOUTH

Mrs. Lash is expected to leave Sunday for Atlanta, Ga., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. T. Landers and her son, Ralph, who is serving in the army at Miami, Fla. She will also visit a brother, J. H. Durr at Miami, before returning home around March 10th.

JUST RECEIVED SHIPMENT OF CLOTHES BARS, $1.50 Each.

Around the Square

(By Phineas Whiteshead)

AFTER ALL the income tax is just a matter of addition, subtraction, division, multiplication and mistakes — now you can go on from there.

AN AIR OPERATIONS officer unwittingly recommended to the cardinal principles of newswriting when he was being thoroughness, he posted the following sign at air headquarters on Boulevard: "A complete order or report contains: Who, What, When, Where, Why, How."

That sign might have been taken from nearly any newspaper office in the United States but the instigator, Lieut. Col. William K. Stinger, U. S. M., La Jolla, Cal., said he was aware of the coincidence when he drew up the poster. He added, however, that he had several newspapers in our group, and they all seem to do a good job. Maybe that's the reason.

WITHOUT the aid of solicitation, Plymouth hopes to reach its quota in the 4th War Loan Drive which ends this week. The first of the week over $100,000 has been raised, according to J. E. Nimmons, chairman. This did not include pledges of the workers at the FRH plant. It isn't a sacrifice to save and buy bonds but our boys will sacrifice if we don't buy them. They have no choice, they have to save it all — we must LOAN our money. Don't delay, buy today!

PLYMOUTH'S share in the March of Dimes amounted to $95.51, according to Mrs. W. C. McPadden, chairman of the committee. The drive here One half of this amount will remain in the county and the other half sent to the National Headquarters. McPadden said to it that the little boxes had a part in every church, church, school, lodges and theatre and thank all who helped to put the drive over.

MAIL DOES catch up with our S. Moore states she had a letter from the Greenwalds, now evergreens of Greenuch, now evergreens in which he says that he received 156 pieces of mail at one time, and soon thereafter 22 more pieces.

TONIGHT members of the Plymouth Order of Mechanics are going to do a housecleaning job at the Youth Recreation Center. The men have volunteered to wash, scrub and paint up the place and anyone wanting to assist in the matter, please contact solicitation was made this week for cash, and articles of furniture which proved very helpful in establishing the Center.

THE YOUTH CENTER is being designed to place young boys and youngsters of Plymouth may stop in for games and amusement, or indulge in an hour or two of reading. Plans are for a sponsored program, and the various committees will make detailed reports at a later date.

PASTOR'S WIFE DIES OBEILYN Funeral services were held Tuesday for Mrs. Vernon W. Wagar, 73, wife of Dr. Vernon Wagar, retired Methodist minister. Mrs. Wagar was known throughout the Norwalk district of the Methodist church where her husband was district superintendent. Plans for a memorial service were held in 1939.

Mrs. Wagar Smith was released Tuesday from the Shelby Memorial hospital after a week's rest and treatment.

Tradition Gives Lincoln Three Birthplaces But Historical Research Establishes the Fact There Was Only One, It's Near Hodgenville, Ky.

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

Released by Western Newspaper Union.
ONE of the most famous of all newspaper cartoons, appropriate to the annual observance of Lincoln's birthday, was drawn by H. T. Webster while he was on the staff of the old New York World. It has become a Newspaper Classic, i. e., annually it is "reprinted by request." It is:

HARDIN COUNTY, KY., 1820

In this log cabin near Hodgenville, Ky., Abraham Lincoln was born on February 12, 1809.

Civil war. It was first photographed, apparently, for "The Campaign Document," in which William Thayer, 1864, told of "the Character and Birthplace of Abraham Lincoln." Thomas Lincoln did not build this cabin, and Abraham was not born there and never lived there. The actual birthplace of Abraham Lincoln was a log cabin which, after many removals, now stands on a farm in the town of Rock Springs farm on Nolin creek, 2 1/2 miles south from where the village of Hodgenville now is, in what was then Hardin and now is Larue county, Kentucky.

A Romantic History

This cabin, which was the true birthplace of Lincoln, has a romantic history. It stood on a tract of 300 acres, known as the Sinking Spring farm, which Thomas Lincoln bought in December, 1808, for 65¢ per acre. Here little Abe Lincoln lived until he was four years old, when his father abandoned the place because of litigation involving a flaw in the title and moved his family 10 miles northward to another farm of 20 acres on Nolin creek, which he had previously purchased.

Several years later (two different dates, 1817 and 1838 are given for this event) a certain Henry Brother bought the Sinking Spring farm and lived in the Lincoln birthplace cabin for several years. Then, according to Beveridge, who quotes J. T. Hobson's "Footprints of Abraham Lincoln" as his authority for the statement, in this article it has been referred to as the "Lincoln birthplace cabin" and used the logs for firewood. There seems to be good reason to believe that the cabin was still standing on its original site in 1890 when Lincoln was elected President. Soon afterwards it was purchased from the man who then owned the farm by George Rodman who moved it to another farm about a mile and a half from the Sinking Spring farm. There it remained during the turn-of-the-century war and after being used a number of years as a shelter for Negro families and as a tenant house, it was used as a school house in 1872 and 1873.

A certain John Davenport married the girl who was the daughter of Rev. J. W. Bingham who took it down and shipped the 143 logs in to Nashville, Tenn., for a centennial celebration there. Next it was moved to Central Park in New York city where it was on exhibition for a time and in 1901 it was exhibited at the Buffalo exposition. The next owner was Rev. J. W. Bingham who stored it in the old Pottenhausen mansion in Long Island City, N. Y.

Bought by Collier

In 1903 Robert J. Collier bought the Sinking Spring farm and presented it to the Lincoln Farm association, "a patriotic organization formed by American citizens for the purpose of preserving the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln," which Abraham Lincoln was born. The president of this association was Joseph W. Folk, governor of Missouri. It had a number of trustees were a group of distinguished citizens, including Mr. Collier, who also bought the Lincoln birthplace. The logs were taken to Kentucky, accompanied by a guard of honor sent by the state, for a homecoming celebration in Louisville and then taken to the Lincoln farm.

"The cabin, I am reliably informed, originally stood near to the spring," writes Barton. "After its first removal, it was reerected on the top of the slope leading up from the spring. When it was taken down for exhibition purposes, this site was marked by a post; and when the cabin was purchased and rebuilt, it was erected around the post which still stands in the middle of the cabin lot.

... Once he had six plays running at the same time—all well selling hits. He followed through with "Of Human Bondage" and many other best-sellers. . . . And critic Gosse continually met Maughan at dinners and parties for twenty years and always said: "Mr. Maughan, that wonderful book of yours. How wise you are never to write another line!"

A legend in Cuba (the home of the famed Bacardi rum) is this. The rum was originally owned by ten brothers, but only three survived. Every time one of the Bacardi brothers passed on he was buried with a case of the rum—"knowing the brothers in Heaven were waiting for some!"

Pod's Round Shoulders: Margie Holiday tells of the chap who took out a lovely looker, who was unbelieveably dumb. When he delivered her from after an endless eye he sighed: "You're very beautiful, but so stupid!"

"If you think I'm stupid," she gazed, "you should see my mother. She's all bent over!"

Yes, Indeedly! In the newreels from the war fronts our brave commander in front usually leading their men to the attack. We saw a closeup like that last night. The General facing the camera. A very girlish usually poor leading "He's certainly brave—but how about the unknown photographer who has his back to the enemy?"

The Magic Lanterns: "The Lodger," a classic among blood-curdlers (based on the sinful Jack, the Ripper), loses none of its shudders in the war. "Where Are Your Children?" deals with juvenile delinquency. It skips the preacher angles and assumes its audience is more than eleven.

Willie Collier is dead. There was a comic. He had wit and showmanship and a style of offhand clowning that has never been equalled in days of stum-and-peasants technique. You remember him best from one of the first Music Box Reviews, "The Little Boy Who Let Sam Bernard. That was where Willie polarized the word 'nifty.' A couple of seasons later he produced a show that, instead of a cry, elicited "Nifties!" It died, but nothing of Collier's deserved to.

Another time Collier was a last minute replacement—for Lew Fields it turned. On his first entrance he turned to the audience and exhibited his shaking hands—and won the house. Then, making an exit, he was asked by the heavy where he was going.

"Back to the dressing room," roared Willie, "and study my lines."

Quotation Marksmanship: Barbara Nix: The minutes crawled by like wounded mice. . . . Mgr. Fulton: . . . Blah! . . . Peace officer: . . . called this is painting rouge on International check. . . . J. M. Barrie: In love-making, as in the other arts, those do it best who cannot tell their own names. . . . Pachelbel: Pride is a one-man parade. Somerset Maugham: They simply lived in one another's pockets. . . . Sam Gold: The revolution has been won. . . . Anon: It's not the crowd, it's the dog.

Sallies in Our Alley: Benny Goodman and a chap who just signed a Hollywood contract were discussing Movie Town. . . . "How's the weather out there now?" asked the Hollywooder. "I'll be leaving for Hollywood shortly. What about the weather there?" "You might take along," said Benny, "a knife-proof vest!" . . . Congressman Clark was asked by a reporter about the new playwright Frederick Lonsdale and producer Gilbert Miller. . . . Lonsdale asked her: "If you had a choice, kissing me or Miller, whom would you choose?" . . . Clark hesitated. . . . "I'll never," said Lonsdale, "forgive you for that pause!"

Somerset Maugham's first book was "Liza of Lambeth" . . . England's great book critic, Edmund Gosse, whose opinions made or broke a writer, once published a notice about it. . . . The next day Maughan was on the road to fame. . . .
