

"JAKE" MCINTIRE ROUNDS OUT 60 YEARS IN MERCANTILE STORE

Many names and changes in establishments around Plymouth's Public Square have occurred since J. W. "Jake" McIntire first became associated with the mercantile business. Just 60 years ago Mr. McIntire, who was then in his teen years, started work for the D. B. King mercantile store, then located at the present site of the Kroger Store.

When, as a youngster, "Mac" started in working at the King store, there were many names that will be recalled by the older residents, such as Sol Spear and M. Shield & Co., Plymouth clothiers; H. S. Nelson and Mack Rogers were operating individual shoe stores... E. K. Trauger and Sherman Culp were attorneys... W. A. Clark was in the real estate and insurance business... Alspach & Hill were selling fine furniture...

The Root Brothers Co. were selling brushes in a yellow front store on the north side of the Square, as well as other household items; D. & J. Wyand were in the grocery store, and Tommy Webber's granddad was operating The T. J. Webber & Co., selling skin flaps, wallpaper, drugs, etc. Yes, many changes have taken place around the old Public Square just since 1900. The Peoples Bank was in its infancy, but they advertised resources at $260,188.50 including loans and discounts at $151,180.80; capital stock at $50,000, and a surplus of $10,000... Easley Smith was driving some mighty fine horses and good looking buggies back in 1900 and he'd take you where you wanted to go for only a few dollars.

So in the period of sixty years around the Square, "Mac" has seen many changes, and he has also become one of the best men in the store and continued doing business at the old stand for a period of 12 years. In 1912 McIntire moved his store to the present Plymouth Dry Goods location, where he has since continued.

One department which this store has built up is that of garden seed. Every spring thousands of gardeners come in to look over their line of seeds, and so great is the demand for them, that the volume of seeds sold each year runs into the tons.

family at a later date. Robert graduated from Plymouth High in 1924, attended Ohio Wesleyan, where he graduated with high honors, and later attended Harvard University. He has been connected for a number of years with the Kreege Stores, but more recently has been in Washington on government work. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McIntire and their two daughters, will reside on Plymouth street in the property formerly owned by E. E. Baldorf, name "Mac" slips out of the harness for a real rest to which he is entitled, we extend our best wishes on his 60th anniversary." And at the same time the community welcomes Robert and his family, and feel gratified in knowing that he will continue the business which has fathered so successfully built.

Not an older but neither an infant is the hardware firm of Brown & Miller for this store changed hands just 20 years ago. The firm of Nimmons & Nimmons Hardware, had been on the Public Square for many years, but in 1925 B. H. Nimmons and Fred Nimmons, father and son, sold the store to Stacy C. Brown and E. B. Miller of Willard. Since April, 1925, Plymouth's only hardware store has been operated under the name of Brown & Miller. They started on their twentieth year here the past month.

Both, Stacy Brown and E. B. Miller, were associated with the old A. S. Hunter hardware store in Willard before moving to Plymouth. Since taking over the store and during the past 19 years, they have enjoyed the reputation of conducting a complete hardware store, drawing many customers into Plymouth for miles around the territory.

At the outbreak of the war, and during the past two years, this store has enjoyed a great volume of business due to the large stock they had on hand. One department which this store has built up is that of garden seed. Every spring thousands of gardeners come in to look over their line of seeds, and so great is the demand for them, that the volume of seeds sold each year runs into the tons.

The 'Hull' Story, Briefly Stated

APRIL GOT OFF TO BAD START BUT MAKES GOOD SHOWING AT FINISH

April, 1944, gave every indication of being the start of another cold, wet Spring. During the first half of the month it rained, more or less, every day except for three days, making the outlook for Spring plowing and planting very discouraging. During the last half of the month, however, and especially the last week, rainfall was light so that conditions greatly improved. Farmers have been working long days, nights and Sundays plowing and fitting the soil for Spring planting, but there is still a great deal of plowing to be done.

The total precipitation for the month was 3.16 inches or 0.31 inch above normal, but this is one inch more than April a year ago. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours in April of this year was 1.28 inches on the 11th when many low fields looked like "lakes." There were 16 days with .01 or more of rain or snow. Snowfall measured 1.5 inches.

The average temperature for the month was 46 degrees, or 1.5 degrees below normal, but a persistent raw northeast wind for eight days made it seem still colder. The lowest was 16 degrees on the 5th. Heavy frosts occurred as late as the 28th and 29th although no appreciable damage has been reported.

It was not until Sunday, April 23th, that it really began to warm up, with a high for the month of 68 degrees.

We shouldn't forget that May, June and July were the really wet months last year with 6.82, 4.34 and 7.94 inches recorded, so here's hoping it doesn't happen again this year when foodstuffs are so badly needed. Anyway, wheat and pastures are looking fine which is some consolation. J.A.R.

COLLECTION OF SCRAP PAPER TO BE MADE ON SATURDAY

Boy Scouts of Troop One will call at homes in Plymouth, Saturday morning, May 6, in conjunction with the city-wide Clean-Up Week. This is the opportunity you have been waiting for, to get all those old newspapers and magazines, cardboard and old waste-paper gathered up. It might not seem like a few pounds of paper would amount to much, but only five pounds of paper per home will net about ONE TON of paper. Plymouth's quota for this Spring drive has been set at 7,000 pounds so let's every one pitch in and reach this goal, set up for us by the WPB.

One way that many people can increase the amount of paper saved, is to get an old carton and put those little pieces in that are ordinarily thrown away—such as envelopes, wrapping paper, paper sacks, advertising matter, etc. A small carton will hold quite a bit of this type of material if you will take some time to save it. Simply drop it in and every once in a while, tramp it down!

This may seem like a big job for such a small amount of paper, but when there is such a critical need for scrap paper no extra effort should be spared to help the boys from Plymouth, and every other town and city who are in there pitching for you and me. Every shell must be wrapped in paper and put into corrugated cartons before shipment. Suppose your son did not get that carton that was necessary to seize that last bill!

Let's back the boys to the limit and save every piece of scrap paper and reach the goal of 550,000 tons that has been set each month for the U. S. We shall have to do better than we have in the past, for just gathering up what is handy is not enough, get up in the attic and out in the garage or barn and put EVERY PIECE of scrap in the fight! Scouts will solicit each home and will start about 8:30 a. m. If you are not going to be at home, place the paper on the porch so it can be seen from the street.

CLEAN-UP WEEK

Starting next Monday the annual clean-up campaign in Plymouth will start rolling. All residents are asked to cooperate by gathering up all rubbish, and putting it in suitable containers on the curb, where it will be collected.

The route of the city truck has not yet been made up, but in any event, the rubbish should be ready for collection as early as possible. The entire week, Monday, 8 to Saturday, 10, will be spent in making Plymouth a really clean-looking town. Won't you do your part by helping as much as you can?

Around the Square

(By Phineas Whittlesed)

AGNES KNOWS what she's writing about — A teacher called little Agnes to write a composition on the subject of "Men." She did. This is what she wrote: "Men are what women marry... They drink and smoke and swear, but don't go to church much. Perhaps if they wore bonnets they would. They are more logical than women and also more zoological. Both men and women sprung from monkeys, but the women sprung further than the men did."

"NEXT!" The barber shop at the Army Ordnance Training center at Arcadia, Calif., recently gave birth to six balls of various shades. The infants have been named Haircut, Shave, Massage, Shampoo, Trim, and Getting-a-Little-Thinner-Top-Soon-I-Put-Something-On-It!

WHY THE PRINTER LEFT—WE have heard some strange reasons why he left. Some workers are to take jobs in other places, but this story, related by J. F. Austin, publisher of the Claiborne Progress at Tazewell, Tenn., has a different angle. A printer operator, a mite, wrote on his note pad one day that he was going to leave immediately for another town to take a job for more money. Editor Austin at once offered to meet him, but the operator said he was still determined to leave. After Mr. Austin had explained that the same amount of money was worth more in a smaller town, the mite wrote on his note pad: "Big pay; more girls!" That settled it. For, as Editor Austin says, "An editor can do most anything to hold help but even an editor cannot supply an operator with feminine companionship just to get him to work."—Tennessee Press.

I WAS very, very happy this week with the first real signs of Spring, but my joy suddenly vanished when I heard my neighbor's carpet-beater! Why do they have to start so early?

IT WAS a great thrill to most of us around the Square to watch Ott Kinsell, Joe Crispin, Dave Williams and Harry Shutt at their work in the new Grocery of the front of Shutt's Grocery by moving over the side door in the front entrance to the center of the building. A good job, a fine improvement, and we are all well-pleased!

PEGGY is no more — the black discoupled belonging to Harry Hays was sent to dog heaven on Tuesday via the news. Harry's constant companion for the past 12 years, life became too much for Peggy because of a tumor, old age and other infirmities. So with a twinge of his conscience and many regrets, Harry returned his back and within two minutes the "doc" pronounced Peggy out of her misery.

IF YOU want a darn good cardboard you can get them now at Miller's Furniture Store. Earl McQuate hollered at me Wednesday, and was excited about their arrival, but when he opened them up and saw their fine quality... well, he couldn't keep it to himself. He wanted to advertise them, but it was too late. So we're giving you the tip to go in and see them!

THOUGHT for the week — Ambition to do a job is a fine thing — but doing it is another!

40 Dogs Picked Up

In his monthly report, Huron County Dog Warden Clair Church states that he has been successful in following: G. E. Moss, Greenwich, two lambs killed; R. J. Jarrett, Norwalk, R. 2, two ewes and three lambs killed; Gordon Stotzer, Norwalk, R. 1, one ewe and one lamb. During the month 40 dogs were picked up, six given homes and 34 disposed of.

DRIVE IS ON

LETTERS MAILED TO LUTHERANS ASKING HELP IN WORLD DRIVE.

Letters are being mailed out to all members of the First Lutheran church this week and appeal is made for gifts to carry on the work of World Action. The appeal does not only come from the church at home, but the appeal comes from our men overseas and from the camps where they are in preparation for war work.

They have been called from their homes, their work, their churches. They want the prayers of their loved ones, the ministry of their churches, to follow them where they go. They are grateful for the work of their chaplains. They have made good use of the Service Centers near their camps. The program of Lutheran World Action has met their spiritual needs. The men who have seen these things are eager that this work be continued under the difficult conditions of today. Do not fail this emergency ministry to a world at war!

THE BOY WHO HAD NO CHANCE

Meet a boy who had no chance. He is Robert Daly, who was born on the East Side, New York, one of four children. His great ambition was to have a camera of his own, but his parents were too poor for such a fancy thing as that.

But Bob Daly wasn't going to let that hold him back. He joined one of the "Boys' Clubs" in New York—and entered the photography class where he studied the rudiments of focusing, lighting, and dark-room developing.

One day, when Bob was 16, the March of Time showed up at the club to make a motion picture of the club and the boys. Bob was all ears and eyes, absorbing information like a blotter. He asked such intelligent questions that he attracted the attention of the manager of the outfit. When Bob told the man that he had no camera of his own, the man was astonished; and asked how Bob knew so much.

One day later, the telephone at the boys' club rang and a voice at the other end asked for Bob Daly, the boy who didn't have a camera. Bob was put on the phone. Good news. Exciting news! The March of Time people needed an office boy and would Bob come? Bob was up there at the office in about the time it would take the fire department to make it.

He still studied photography and continued to ask intelligent questions. The camera crew wanted to take on a new man. One guess as to who got the job!

Bob enlisted in the army and because of his expert knowledge he was placed in the Signal corps. He is now 24 years old—and now comes the surprise—he has charge of the most expensive camera in the world! It is a Mitchell. Value? Seven thousand dollars.

One of his recent assignments was to photograph the Jap internment camp near Los Angeles. You probably saw some of his pictures in the news reels.

So that is the true story of a boy who could not afford to own a camera!

And now I want to add a good word for the boys' clubs of America which have produced Bob Daly, and more like him. These clubs are giving a pre-servicing training for boys who are not yet 18. This training is for boys from 14 to 18, and is exceptionally good. There are 380 of these boys' clubs in the United States and they have a membership of 400,000 boys. They are under the direction of David W. Armstrong.

paying a ten thousand dollar income tax." I am satisfied that this ten thousand dollar income tax is paid by some insurance company that took the farm away from the farmer during the depression. In fact, I doubt whether there is an individual farmer in the State of North Dakota, or elsewhere, that paid a ten thousand dollar income tax. It is exaggerated statements of this kind that are harmful.

This year, when the farmer will be asked to pay over 20 per cent income tax, he will realize just what is going on. By the juggling under the Ruml Plan, the evil day was postponed for one year, but this year the farmer, as well as the wage earner and small business man, who is in debt will feel the shock of a 20 per cent, and up, income tax. This tax does not permit him to deduct any part of his income to pay indebtedness with.

My advice to the farmer is "do not buy more land until you have paid all your indebtedness, and then, buy no more than you have the money to pay for in cash." There are danger signals ahead. Our government, through the W. P. B., is furnishing agricultural implements and other farm machinery to foreign nations with which to produce agricultural products to compete with our farmers. They are not only sending implements, but sending people to teach the natives of South America, and other countries, how to use them in order to produce the crops that will compete with our own farmers after the war.

Again, we have a certain element who think more of foreign people than of our own. These will attempt to sell our domestic market, that is the farmers' and the laborers' home market, to the people of foreign nations in order to buy "good neighbors." These prefer to bask in the sunshine and smiles of foreign people rather than that of their own people.

These are the ones that would substitute a mongrel flag for the Stars and Stripes. They would ask that the American farmer compete with the underfed, malnourished and non-housed people of Latin-American and the cooler of the Orient. They would bring our farmers and laborers down to the standard of living of these people rather than lifting them up to our standard of living.

Doings In Congress

By Cong. Wm. Lemke.

This war has not solved the agricultural problem. It will not solve it. The truth is that many farmers are again spreading their wings and going in debt buying high priced land. They forget that when the war is over, there will again be deflation—low prices. This unless Congress passes our Cost of Production Bill. The bill, and this Bill alone, can protect the farmer from deflation. It is the solution to the farm problem. Unless this class of legislation is passed, the farmer will again be the shock absorber. He will be the first one deflated.

Unfortunately, some of the city people have been misled, and made to believe the false propaganda that the farmer is rolling in wealth. The uninformed here even use expressions like this—"Why, I know farmers who are

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Dorothy Sourwine. Miss Sourwine wore a light blue dress with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of sweet-peas and gardenias.

Best man for Mr. Kimes was his brother, Eugene Kimes, of Akron.

A reception from three until six o'clock was held at the home of the bride following the wedding.

After the reception the newlyweds left for a wedding trip, the destination of which was not disclosed.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimes are both employed in Gallion.

Mother-Daughter Tea Successful Affair

Approximately seventy mothers-daughters, members of the faculty and wives of the Board of Education, attended the Mother-Daughter tea held Monday evening in the school auditorium.

The affair was sponsored by the Future Home Makers of America, a club under the Home Ec department and supervised by Miss Josephine Miller. This is the first attempt to have a public exhibition of the year's projects and no doubt will set a precedent for the years to come.

The auditorium was resplendent in Spring colors and a circle underneath a canopy of multi-colored crepe streamers from a large maypole. After a short social visit in which the daughters acted as hostesses and introduced their mothers to other visiting mothers, a buffet lunch of cookies and punch was enjoyed.

A program consisting of a short one-act play in which the good and bad points of what a young lady should wear and enacted as a scene in a court room before a judge and jury, was read good. "Green Cathedral" was sung by a trio of girls followed by a style show in which members of the various classes modeled dresses, aprons, skirts, and suits.

Many favorable comments were heard on the work of the classes and Miss Miller is to be congratulated on her supervision.

NEWS OF OUR SERVICE MEN

Tribute to the Seniors
In a recent letter from Cpl. Ben Smith, now somewhere in Italy, he writes: "It also touched me to read about the boys of the Senior class enlisting in the Navy. A grand, patriotic gesture—but a sad one. I only wonder if they realize what lies ahead. Surely not—-at that age. Never-the-less, my hat is off and I shake their hands."

Joe Hunter of the Navy spent the first of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hunter.

LESSON FROM SMALL TOWNS

Out of the genuine concern which most government and business leaders feel for the welfare of this country in the postwar period, is growing a recognition of the need for the kind of deep cooperation which has long characterized the activities of a small town.

Country people know that they must often rely on each other's help in times of hardship and trouble, and just so, it is now apparent that a large nation is dependent on the combined strength of all its people.

Mr. Donald Nelson, chief of the War Production Board, has long been an outstanding advocate of real national unity. He has made one more step forward—the appointment of a nine-man advisory board on the problems of reconverting our economy to a peacetime basis. This advisory committee includes representatives of labor, management, heavy industry, distribution, consumer groups, agriculture, public opinion researchers and financiers.

The problems of changing our geared-to-war economy back to one keyed to civilian life will be numerous and complex. But the only possible solution for them will come from just such a group as this—a group aware of the varied needs of all the people, and a group working for a harmonious and balanced adjustment of those needs.

THE PRIVATE AND THE GENERAL

After reading the latest story about Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, one could paraphrase another famous American's signature, "William Allen White of Emporia, Kansas," to read "Dwight D. Eisenhower of Abilene, Kansas."

A young air force mechanic, Pvt. Walter J. Thorpe, recently walked into general headquarters in London, and said casually that he would like to see the general. Military aides in the office were considerably startled when, a few minutes later, General Eisenhower stepped out, and escorted the young man into his office. They chatted for a while about home doings and people. Then the private asked for a note to show his comrades, and General Eisenhower wrote:

"Dear Thorpe:
I'm delighted that as a fellow citizen of Abilene, Kansas, you called at my office to see me today.
Sincerely,
Dwight D. Eisenhower."

That kind of simplicity has made American democracy a living thing. As long as there are great leaders who, even with the enforced rank-consciousness of the military life, are sufficiently humble to do such a gracious thing, we do not have to fear for the continuance of our philosophy of living.

NEW HOURS ON ELECTION DAY

The Huron County Board of Election calls attention to the voters of this community to the time that the polls will be open at the Primary Election on May 9th. The polls will open at 7:30 a. m. and close at 7:30 p. m. under the TIME being USED by this community.

One of the lightest presidential primaries in years is predicted by the Huron County Board of Elections.

BUTTER POINT VALUE REDUCED

The ration point value of creamery butter has been reduced from 16 to 12 red points a pound, the CPA has announced. Margarine has been lowered from six to two points per pound. The new values are effective through June 8, '44. This reduction was made possible by seasonally increased production.

TO REDUCE HOG PRICES

Ceiling prices on hogs weighing more than 240 pounds live weight will be reduced 75 cents per 100 pounds on and after May 15, the OPA said. The action is designed to discourage the use of corn and other essential grains in bringing hogs up to heavy, uneconomical weights.

TO RESIDE IN ARIZONA

Harry M. Donovan, who has been residing at 10 Main Street, Plymouth, has sold his property and expects to leave May 15 for Tucson, Ariz. Mr. Donovan, a retired policeman, came here from Cleveland three years ago, and expected to make Plymouth his permanent home. However, he has encountered poor health, and is forced to seek a drier climate.

Helen L. Krueger Receives Degree From Denison

Helen L. Krueger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Krueger of Sandusky, received her bachelor of arts degree this week from Denison University during commencement exercises at which Dr. C. J. Hambro, president of the Norwegian Parliament for 18 years before the Nazi invasion, was the commencement speaker.

A Sandusky High school graduate in 1940, Miss Krueger obtained her major in economics at Denison. She was president of Alpha Omicron Pi, social sorority, senior representative to the Pan-Hellenic Council, a member of the YWCA, the Women's Athletic Association and the Quating Club. She is a niece of Messrs. H. F. P. H., and John A. Root of Plymouth.

WORKING ON B-25 BOMBERS IN CALIF.

Earl Moore, formerly of Plymouth and Shelby, is now helping to "beat the Axis," by working on the new B-25 bombers being built in Inglewood, Calif. In a letter the past week to his brother, C. C. Moore, he enclosed a clipping, giving detailed information on this bomber, the world's most heavily-armed airplane.

"Waxes" is really the word for this new bomber, manufactured by North American Aviation, Inc. in California. A 75 mm. cannon and four .50 calibre machine guns protrude from the nose of the bomber. There are also four other fixed guns firing forward, two on either side of the fuselage. Other armament include two waist guns, two tail guns and two upper turret guns, making it the most heavily-armed bomber in the world.

Some idea of this hitting strength may be gained from the fact that eight .50 calibre machine guns can fire more than 9,000 half-inch slugs per minute. The B-25's have been a headache to the enemy from the outset of the war. One of the B-25's was the first United States Army Air Force bomber to sink an Axis U-boat, after the start of hostilities. Among notable actions in which the B-25s have participated were the raid from Australia to the Philippines, the bombers later returning to their base, the attack on Tokyo, the Bismark Sea Battle, and all of the bombing raids on Rome.

The New B-25s with their mighty array of armament promise no less trouble for the Axis. Mr. Moore states that the Aircraft company hires around 100 a day, but approximately that number leaves, so they keep about even. He is located about eight miles from Los Angeles, and six miles from Hollywood, and it is like being in the army with the Army and machine guns on the go all day.

He is the son of Mrs. Amanda Moore and has been working in the western state since Christmas.

SISTER DIES

Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning from the Catholic Church in Canton and burial made in that city. Mrs. Reno is a native of Plymouth, but had left here many years ago.

She is survived by four sons and three daughters and two brothers, M. F. Dick of Plymouth, and Frank Dick of Michigan, besides a number of nieces and nephews.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS
Last Tuesday morning we 8th graders came to school worrying and thinking about our eighth grade state tests. When the time came to take them, remarks like these could be heard: "I brought some aspirin, did you?", or "How long will it take?" "Is it hard?", etc. We were finished with them at noon. Aren't we glad we are only in the eighth grade once, kids?

On April 14 we had an eighth grade class party. We played base ball until dark. Then we played ping-pong and other games after which we ate a lunch consisting of sandwiches, ice cream and pop. We had a very nice time and hope we can have another class party before the school year is out—Alice Seaman.

The Senior Class wishes to announce the betrothal of Henrietta Abigail Mitilda Jenkins to Honorable Lemuel Esau Bumpkin III. The ceremony is to be held in the high school auditorium on May 11, 1944.

Things We'd Like To Know:
If Spring is really here—at last? Who the little mouse was that stole some cough drops in Physics Monday?

If Denver wasn't really the funniest thing, Friday evening?
Where Mr. Miley learned the fine art of continually running around in square circles? (Not that we want to learn!)

If Dick knows the best way to remove lipstick from hankies, shirts, cheeks, etc?
Just who is this "Henrietta Abigail Mitilda Jenkins"? Who the great baritone is? (any relations to the "great prof"?)

HIT PARADE
"Suddenly It's Spring" — how true!
"I'm Gettin' Sentimental Over You" — Marge's took "Ted!"
"You've Got Me Chasing Rainbows"—the Seniors, Mr. Miley?
"It's a Sin to Tell a Lie"—So I've been told!
"After the Ball"—les' see—that would be Sunday morning, would n't it?
"Later Tonight" — 'twas sorta early in the evening, wasn't it, Denver?

SNOOPER'S' FILE:
During the performance of the Senior chapel program you will be honored by a solo by our great baritone! Be there and hear it!
Janice's latest title is the "editor's daughter" What, no questions asked?

Just where is Ted headed for in the west end of town? I don't need to repeat that question twice do I?

That was a very sweet pose you gave me, Monday, Miss Mayne. I appreciated it very much!

Little Willie fell down the elevator;
There they found him six weeks later.

All the folks exclaimed, "See what a spoiled child Willie is!"

The Battle of the Balkans is important not only for territorial gains, but also because it unites American and Russian military operations for the first time. American bombers based at Foggia provide an air arm for advancing Red armies, ripping Nazi supply and communication centers. Russian ground forces thus push forward against weakened opposition, in a united drive, one of whose chief objectives is the Ploesti oil fields. Photo shows an airfield at Foggia as it looked when the Nazis abandoned it. Americans cleared the air strips, and Liberators use this base for Balkan raids.
