

PRESBYTERIANS TO OBSERVE 125TH ANNIVERSARY ON SEPT 24

February 22nd, 1819, a few pioneers in the little settlement of Paris met in the home of Abram Van Houten. Most of them were from New York state, and several were of Dutch ancestry. They scarcely noted that they were meeting on the birthday of the Father of His Country, for they had more serious business on hand. They were meeting with the Reverend William Matthews to consider the organization of a Presbyterian church in the new settlement. After due consideration and prayer, plans were made for organization of the first church to be founded in the township. For several years the 42 members constituting the bought from the Congregationalist the church building near the Square and remodeled it. This building was dedicated in 1820 and is the church now in use by the congregation.

The first musical instrument used by the church was a melodeon, but due to financial opposition to such luxury. This, however, proved inadequate and in the 1870s a pipe organ was purchased and Miss Nora Reed became the organist. Nora Reed is now Mrs. Wyandt and is still living and keenly interested in all the activities of the church.

On September 24 the church will celebrate the 125th anniversary of the founding of the church. In the morning Rev. W. Bloomfield, D. D., will be the preacher. In the evening an historical pageant in four episodes, written by Miss Florence Danner and Mrs. Gladys Vandervoort will be given, culminating with the dedication of the new organ just purchased and installed and the consecration of the church officers. A reception will follow. Everyone invited.

CORN SHELLER IS INSTALLED

Looking forward to continuous years of service to farmers in this section, George Rogers, proprietor of the Plymouth Elevator, is installing a new and modern corn sheller this week at the local elevator.

The sheller is manufactured by the Barnard & Leas Co., and is of the most modern design with a capacity of shelling and cleaning 175 bushels of corn per hour.

In addition to the loading dock of the elevator a six by eight pit and conveyors take it to the sheller and the sheller is then transferred by conveyors to an overhead bin under which the farmer may drive and load the corn onto his truck or trailer.

One of the outstanding features of the new sheller is its ability to shell corn cobs. After the corn is shelled, the cobs are conveyed to a huge bin in the loft of the building, and those farmers desiring the cobs may conveniently drive under the bin and have them loaded. In former years the disposal of cobs has been a problem. The elimination of dirt and dust from the portable sheller is also appreciated by those who reside in the vicinity of the elevator.

Mr. Rogers spent Monday and Tuesday in Plymouth supervising the installation of the new equipment. Frank Best of Mansfield and Ralph Darron of near Plymouth are doing a splendid job in constructing the chutes, bins and the installation of the machinery.

John Ganzhorn, manager of the elevator, states that the new sheller will be saved and that the farmer is assured of prompt service in the shelling of corn or custom grinding.

Since taking over the elevator some two years ago, Mr. Rogers and Mr. Ganzhorn have tried in every way to render a complete service to this farming community. The installation of this new equipment proves that they are succeeding.

COUPLE IN JURED

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Harry are recuperating from injuries received last Wednesday evening in a motorcycle accident that occurred at Newman's Corners, about three miles north of Plymouth.

Coming east from Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Harry, who were riding the motorcycle, took to the ditch to avoid hitting or being hit by a car which failed to observe the stop sign at the intersection. The first impact caused painful injuries to Mr. Harry's neck and legs, and Mrs. Harry received cuts on her head which required several stitches.

No damage was done to the car or motorcycle.

HUMANITY'S HOPE FOR PEACE AND SECURITY

AUTO LICENSE TAX IS ISSUED

PLYMOUTH RECEIVES ONLY 3125.50 OF ALMOST 1100.00 SENT INTO COUNTIES.

Auto license tax receipts to the extent of $5,226,552 are ready for distribution to cities and counties for the building, repair and maintenance of city streets and county highways, a report to H. G. Sours, director of the Ohio Department of Highways, from Cylon W. Wallace, Registrar of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, revealed today.

This is the second disbursement of auto license returns to cities and counties by the state highway department this year. The first distribution, amounting to $9,394,380 was made in May. This brings the total amount to $14,620,932, with a further disbursement to be made later in the year.

Here is how the county fund of the tax money was made: Bellville, $287.50; Butler, $150; Lexington $150; Lucas, $125; Mansfield $10.250; PLYMOUTH, $212.50; Shiloh, $1,800; SHILOH, $150; 25th Boulevards, $91.25; county's 25 per cent fund, $3,575; county's 47 per cent fund, $35,308.75. Total $54,000.

Huron county—Bellevue, $875; Greenwich, $400; Monroeville, $500; New London, $600; North Fairfield $425; Norwalk, $7,500; PLYMOUTH, $100; Wakeman $100; Willard, $950; county's 25 per cent fund, $4,125; county's 47 per cent fund, $28,905. Total, $44,280.

Not knowing what basis the budget commissions of both counties hand out the money to the villages, the figures clearly show that Plymouth has turned in a lot less registrations than figures of the Huron county towns. Sixty of the totals of Richland and Huron county payments, and we have a total of $312.50, compared to $400 for Greenwich, and $425 for North Fairfield.

Just another example of how our village suffers by being on the county line—no one worries about our votes, and we feel satisfied.

HEAR NEW ORGAN
A number of interested people gathered Monday evening in the Presbyterian church to hear the electric organ. The first hymn played was "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow". All agreed the new organ is satisfactory as to appearance and tone.

TWO FINED

Arrested Tuesday night by State Highway Patrolman Goodheart of Mansfield, Stanley Adams and Reuben Goss, who gave their homes as Shiloh, paid fines in Mayor Wirth's court Wednesday morning totaling $38.20.

Patrolman Goodheart found the two men asleep in a sedan which was parked on State Highway 178, about a mile east of Plymouth. The car had neither head or tail lights. Adams, who was fined $20 and costs of 7.60, was owner of the car. Goss, who was with Adams, was charged with unlawfully being in a state of intoxication. He was fined $5 and costs of $7.60.

Both men paid their fines and were released from the village jail where they had been kept overnight.

REPORT DEER IN MARSH

Lester Hutchinson, Lee Dawson, Evann Moore and others of the Willard Marsh region, report that a family of wild deer has been seen frequently in the marshlands west of Plymouth.

START WORK ON COUNTY LINE

Work of improving the County Line road from Little Pittsburgh west of Plymouth to the New York Center tracks, east of here, was started this week by the Huron County Highway department. Inclement weather threatened operations Wednesday, but indications are that clear skies will allow work to be in full progress this week-end.

On the strip of road which was built east and west of Plymouth a couple years ago, a "sealer" of stone and tar will be placed. This includes the highway from Little Pittsburgh to a point about a mile and a half east of town. In addition to this the road will get a "base" from this point east to the railroad tracks, a distance of approximately four miles. This improvement will not only be appreciated by Plymouth, but those who reside east of here and use the County Line frequently.

The first part of the program of the county highway will be the resurfacing of a number of streets in town. Work was started on this project Wednesday afternoon and includes Birdsfield Avenue, Mulberry, West High, East High, Railroad, Bell, Park Avenue, Dix streets and possibly others.

OUT OF TOWN—William Timblin, Fort Clinton druggist, has his reasons for going on a vacation. They are according to his and local newspapers: "No cokes, no pop, no candy, no cigars, out of cigarettes, out of 1,001 other things and out of patience."

AN OUT-OF-TOWN salesman stopped in the other day and inquired what kind of wearing apparel "Jumps" were. Mystified, we inquired further to find out that he noticed the wording "Rule Clothing Company" on the upper panel of the window and in the lower window the fluorescent word "Jumps" beside a rack of young men's jackets. His sister "guessed" it some new fangled name for the jackets.

HEN FACKLER isn't a "lame duck" but he's walking around like one. He had the misfortune of slipping and strained the ligaments in his right hip. Hen says isn't the most pleasant thing in the world, but guess he'll grin and bear it.

AFTER being off from work six weeks with torn ligaments in his left ankle, Howard Gilmore hopes to return to work at the FRH within the next ten days. Howard was baling paper when the handle of the baler slipped—Howard slipped—and the ankle slipped the wrong way. As a result the use of crutches and the old hop method have been used by him in getting around.

PASSED by the old stone quarry today. 'Twas so peaceful and quiet. I loved just like it was pining for some of its old friends who now are strung out all over the world. Just how many of you boys ever think of the old stone quarry?

GORDON SEAHOLTS started to work this week out at Jud Morrison's Shio Station. "Snay" succeeds Jim Crenett, who has gone to work at the bank. Crockett, however, is seriously thinking of changing his work to the army or navy... just wait!

SEAHOLTS says he'll probably blow out a couple of shatters but he learns the proper use of a gauge, but that he can tell when the radiator is full!

THE FIRST wounded soldier of World War II to come home on furlough was Clarence Barnes. He was inducted in March, shipped out in June, wounded in July, was brought home in August. Barnes is now stationed at Camp Artburry, Indiana, where he is receiving treatment. Fighting near St. Lo, France, Barnes was struck in the right side of his face by shrapnel, shattering his jawbone, miraculously passing the jugular vein and emerging on the back of his neck. He praised the use of sulfa drugs and blood plasma, which he stated has saved thousands of lives on the front, and prevented any infection from setting in on his own injuries. He was in Plymouth Saturday and Sunday on a pass, and states that on his return he will undergo plastic surgery which will remove practically any trace of the wound.

TIME is an element over which we have no control. But Time, during the past few years, has been greatly interfered with as far as the clocks are concerned. We've been on "slow time" and "fast time" but so far we cannot change the rising and setting of the sun. However, on Monday, Sept. 25, the Fate-Root-Heath Co. is going to operate one hour later—Eastern Standard Time. Practically the entire state will change over on Sunday, Sept. 25 from Eastern War Time to Eastern Standard Time. There is every reason to believe that the entire village will turn its clocks back one hour on this date.

church met in the homes but in 1825 a log church was constructed. It was located one mile south of Plymouth on the Bucyrus road. No doubt these pioneers were proud of their church, crude though it was. It afforded a suitable place to worship God and for Christian fellowship.

By 1837 the log church, so far from the village, seemed inadequate and under the leadership of the Rev. Rogers, a building program was begun. After several efforts, a frame building was constructed in front of the Pioneer cemetery and services were begun there in 1840. This building was modeled after the one at Steubens and was well adapted to the requirements of the membership. In the 1880s the church

IN HOSPITAL

While assisting in the loading of freight from a truck at the plant of the Fate-Root-Heath Co. Saturday afternoon, Otis Downend sustained injuries which sent him to the hospital. Downend was in the act of handling a barrel when it started to topple with him. In his effort to hold it, he strained the muscular cords near his heart, which is believed to have caused a heart attack a few minutes later. He was taken to a local physician for treatment and later removed to the Willard hospital where it is said he will be confined for several weeks.

CASE DISMISSED

The Hummel case, which involved the wheat tax penalty, and set for hearing in the United States court in Toledo for Sept. 25, has been dismissed. This step was taken after the U. S. Department of Agriculture had reinvestigated the charges.

It is reported that the five men who are charged with violations of the war powers act at Dayton, were given a hearing Wednesday, fined and the fine suspended.

Both cases had attracted statewide attention of farmers, and their outcome was well received by the opposition of the AAA.

A Letter From Keith Dawson
Here's an interesting letter from Sgt. Richard K. Dawson, better known as Keith. Keith has been in the service three years and five months and overseas since July. Until recently he was stationed in England but as his letter discloses he is now in France.

Another brother, Dean, is at Oahu, somewhere in the South Pacific.

Somewhere in France Sunday, Aug. 20
Darling Wife:
You can tell by the heading why I haven't written in some time. The trip was pleasant and was made without any opposition whatsoever, much to everyone's disappointment. Just where we started from and where we landed are two things that will have to be left for the future. So many things are taboo that it gets increasingly difficult to write, so my letters will get correspondingly short as time goes by, leaving me more to talk when I get home.

The country, what I've seen of it, is just as Ernie Pyle has described it in his column. The hedgerows are numerous and they are flat, something like it is in Ohio. I can imagine what a time the first boys had getting rid of the Germans in terrain like this.

How long has it been since anyone has heard from Dean? Is he still in Aahu or has he gone to parts unknown? All I know is that he will have to hurry if he wants to get in the first lick at the enemy, for our time can't be far off. It would be a good joke if I were to get in there ahead of him because of the way he used to razz me about not being able to get out of the states. Just wait until I see him.

I didn't see Bob any of the other relatives while in England as time didn't permit me getting around much, although I did get to London, Birmingham, Liverpool and almost a complete circuit of the United Kingdom, but this was strictly business.

Hope you and everyone are well and are not worrying too much about me. Write soon.
Lovingly yours,
Keith

PTZ PASTURE MIX

The effectiveness of the phenothiazine and salt combination for control of internal parasites of sheep has been clearly demonstrated by many research agencies and extensive experience in the field.

In response to insistent demands, we now offer PTZ Pasture Mix which is a combination of PTZ Bowdler, salt and minerals. Salt and phenothiazine are present in this product in the generally accepted ratio of 10 to 1. Calcium, phosphorus and iodine are also present at recognized levels to provide adequate supplies of these elements in areas where they are deficient.

PTZ Pasture-Mix is self-fed to sheep while on pasture and should be constantly kept before them. This will prevent the development of worm eggs within the animal's body. It also prevents worm contamination of the pasture and provides effective control.

PTZ Pasture-Mix is not meant to replace individual treatment of animals that are heavily infested. These should be treated with PTZ Pellets or PTZ owdar used as a drench. Individual treatment should precede putting sheep on pasture.

Sheep will consume, on the average, about 1/2 pound of PTZ Pasture-Mix per month.

PTZ Pasture-Mix is packed in 50 lb. bags and is available at your Dr. Hess dealer's.

INSTALLATION OF ORGAN MAKES DREAM OF CHURCH COME TRUE

(By Mrs. Harold Sama.)

It was altogether lovely and fitting that the Sunday School class which bears the name of Catherine Taylor should have adopted the idea of procuring an electric organ at the Presbyterian church of Plymouth. Anything that would enhance the beauty of the services and point to the improvement and program of her beloved church was sincerely encouraged by Mrs. Taylor, and the dream of possessing a fine organ some day is very near her heart.

The actual birth of the idea, however, took place so long ago that no one can lay his fingers on just the person or time responsible for its inception. Only a few of us were interested for some time, but the spark of desire grew and occasionally was fanned into flames when some out-of-town, one-time member, the Rev. H. H. Taylor, of the dream, would send a letter of encouragement and enclose a small pecuniary nest egg. A bank account was therefore established which stagnated for a number of years at $77.00. Still, the idea remote and faraway as it seemed, grew and spread slowly. It would be a grand thing for the church, most of our members agreed, and someone should do something about it. There were the several organizations in the church, several definitely interested individuals, and, of course, there was the bank book labeled "Presbyterian Church Organ Fund," and containing the $77.00. But the leader hadn't arisen, as yet, to take the proverbial bull by the horns.

Not until June, 1943 at that historic meeting of the Catherine Taylor Class did some one (not a member) suggest that that organization sponsor and promote this, vast, vague, misty, stupendous organ project. Now our class is not a large class, nor is it very active, but is a very good class and no member ever refused to do what she can be reasonably expected to do. But this was a big thing to her, however near it was to the heart of most of us, and every heart, I suspect, gave a little flop, and every throat a little glop, as the vote was taken — all ayes — and there we were, with the tremendous joy of raising over $2,000 for an electric organ dumped into our laps!

Well, the organ committee was appointed and started to function. The musty, old bank book was examined for some time, and the $77 dollar nest egg aired before the anxious, wondering eyes of the committee. It seemed suddenly to have assumed microscopic proportions. It was decided to write letters to all former out-of-town members, informing them of the great idea, and inviting them to present gifts in memory of departed loved ones who had been affiliated with the church at some time, for this was to be a Memorial Organ.

And we prayed. We prayed to Him to help us in this thing. We were so very sure was good and pleasing in His sight.

In the 125th year of our church we started praying and working for our organ. The 125th year was fast approaching, and plans were already being made to celebrate the great occasion. September, 1944, was the date set. Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could have our organ for dedication at that time! But how could this thing be? There was the war, and organs were not being built. Good, salable, used organs were as scarce as eggs in England. The money was coming in in response to our letters, but slowly. And so in 1944 came the Spring passed, and Summer began to wane, our hopes of an organ for the September celebration waned, too. The money kept coming in slowly, but wonderfully. And that we would have the funds and be able to procure an organ eventually, was never doubted in the least, but although we still prayed for it to materialize by September, it was with more faith that our prayers went up.

And then, as if to test our small faith, at the eleventh hour it happened! On the memorable night of the 21st of August a member of the class that happened to glance through the want ads of the Toledo Blade. Unable to believe her eyes at first, she looked again to see the words: "Hammond organ for sale," etc. Telephone buzzed, a letter was sent, and then we waited. A whole week we waited, but before the end of it we had given up hope.

It was too good to be true, anyway. But on the 28th of August came a letter inviting us to come to see the organ, and stating that churches were to have the preference in purchasing it. Three members of the committee, accompanied by an accomplished organist and a mechanical expert, went up to Toledo two days later. We came, we saw and heard, and we were captivated. We purchased it on the spot, agreeing to pay for it following the satisfactory delivery and installation.

Albeit, we were exactly $1000 short of the price at the time. In just ten days it was to be in our church! We came home as folks having had a dream, unbelievable and unreal, but filled with the faith that we would raise the money now!

It has come in miraculously — some of it without being asked for, or going after. Tonight, on the eve of its installation, we have the means at our disposal to pay for this fine instrument. Who will say that Providence has not had a hand in the realization of this great, long-time dream of ours? In the firm belief that God is pleased when we sacrifice of our money and time and efforts to endow His house with the best we can afford, and that He blesses those efforts with success, this fine organ is being presented to our church.

Truly, all things come to them that wait. Prayers ARE answered. Dreams DO come true!

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS SATURDAY, SEPT. 16, 1944

Our motto: Back to the Bible and Not to the Opinion of Men. 3:00 P. M. Worship. Subject: "Heaven, What and Where?" Many questions have been asked on this subject among them, which seems to be the chief ones: Is Heaven a Real Place? and Are the People Real People? Will We Know Each Other There? What Will We Do, and Where Is It Located? The author of the Bible is also He who made the heavens, so we can not only get a description of heaven, but we may also locate it.

The Bible does make it known where the righteous are to be rewarded.

The public is invited to come out Saturday afternoon and learn more about this place that Jesus has gone to prepare.

LEGION TO AID IN S. A. FUND

Several weeks ago a representative of the Salvation Army was in Plymouth and contacted Mr. J. E. Nimmons regarding support for the Salvation Army work overseas. Mr. Nimmons presented this project Monday evening to the post and was assured they would do what they could in this community. A goal of $360 was set for Plymouth and donations will be accepted by Mr. Nimmons at the bank or any Legion members. There are 17,000 Salvation Army posts abroad and 1600 in the United States. During 1941 when the Nazis overran Europe more than $750,000 worth of equipment was confiscated and has been replaced since that time. During World War I, the Salvation Army earned a reputation unequalled in history for the good they did on the front lines, and are continuing to do good work whenever and wherever the need arises.

LOOSEN LID ON STOVE RATIONING

The rationing of coal and wood stoves to consumers will end on Oct. 15, the War Production Board and OPA have announced, although rationing of oil and gas stoves will continue. Supplies of coal and wood stoves have grown sufficiently since nation-wide rationing started in August, 1943, to make continued rationing unnecessary.

BLUE TOKENS, FAREWELL

If you've got some blue tokens in your purse, better use them now, because after September 30 they will be good only for the kids to play with. Until next Sunday, the Office of Price Administration says you can use them just as you always have used them. Beginning Sunday, Sept. 17, retailers will cease giving blue tokens to consumers as ration change, and shoppers will be able to spend them only in lots of 10. If necessary, shoppers may pool tokens to make up groups of 10. Removal of practically all canned and bottled vegetables & fruit spreads and specialties from rationing Sept. 17 makes use of blue tokens unnecessary. Beginning Sept. 17 point values on canned fruits, canned juices, tomatoes, catsup and chili sauces will be designated in multiples of 10.

Excerpts From Letter Written By S-Sgt. Norman McQuown
L. Z. Davis received a nice letter this week from S-Sgt. McQuown, who will be of interest to Plymouth people in general.

He says in part: "Well, I'm almost through Flexible Gunnery School and will graduate this week. I've had to learn a lot and will get more combat crew training when I leave here."

"I'll be an aerial engineer-top turret gunner and probably be assigned to a heavy bombardment group."

"Suppose you might like to know something about Laredo, Tex., so I'll tell you a little about the town. It's a sleepy town of some five thousand or more. The Mexicans outnumber the white people. We are directly across from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. It's a very dirty town and I mean dirty. I've been across several times and got a few native things. The stores are well stocked with alarm clocks, electric irons, nylon stockings and many other rationed items. A lot of the fellows buy them but I think the prices are too high. The merchants are always looking for a sucker."

I hope you are keeping the 'ole square under control these days. Suppose everything is about the same in Plymouth and rather envy you being there. There is nothing I'd like better than not have to move some place every few months.

Well, I'll close now and hope to hear from you again.

As ever,
Norm

Rulings Handed Down By Attorney General

It is the duty of Cuyahoga county and not the city of Cleveland to care for the permanent poor at the infirmary at the Warrensville city farm, Attorney General Thomas J. Herbert ruled this week in an opinion to the Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices.

Relief of the aged poor is a state function and has been delegated by statute to the county and not the city. It is the city's duty to care for temporary disabled and impoverished persons.

A county may contract with a city for the care of the county's poor in an infirmary maintained by the city, but in the absence of a contract the city has no recourse against the county for the expense incurred in their maintenance.

In requesting an opinion, the bureau stated that the City of Cleveland has operated an infirmary for the past 108 years and has operated the present institution since 1909. There are at present approximately 650 inmates there. The state and county reimburse the city for care of mental cases which constitute 40 percent of the infirmary's inmates.

maintain its telephone cables across the Ohio Canal at Akron. Attorney General Thomas J. Herbert said this week in an opinion to Frank L. Raschig, State Director of Public Works.

The telephone company has been running its cables across the canal over the Ash street and Bowery bridges at Akron without a lease and payment of rental for several years. Summit county and the city built the bridges, but had no permit from the state to bridge the canal.

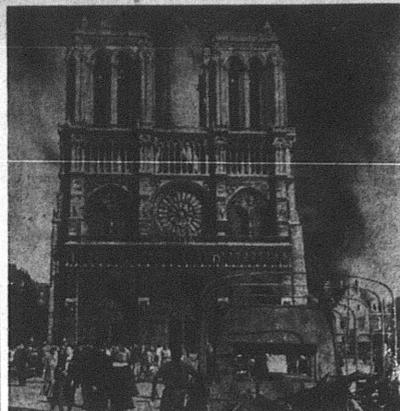

Parties desiring to cross canal property of the state must have authority either by special act of the legislature or by obtaining a lease from the Department of Public Works, Mr Herbert said.

Any funds remaining after payment of all taxes, assessments, penalties and interest and court costs in a tax sale of real estate must be paid into the county treasury to be held for the former owner of the land, Attorney General Thomas J. Herbert said this week in an opinion to Ralph Finley, Tuscarawas county prosecutor.
