

14 TO GRADUATE AT NEW HAVEN FROM SCHOOL

A class of fourteen, nine girls and five boys, will receive their diplomas this evening when the 1945 commencement exercises of the New Haven School will be held in the auditorium. Guest speaker for the occasion is the Hon. Dale Stump, Columbus attorney and former state official. A record breaking crowd attended the Baccalaureate services Sunday evening with the Rev. John Scholten, pastor of the Celeryville and Ira Ross Reform church delivering the sermon. Many Celeryville students attend the school and several are in the senior class.

The school will close tomorrow, May 18. A community picnic is being sponsored by the P.T.A.

Members of the senior class are Beth Clark, Ariene Cranner, Carroll Diehl, Florence Danhoff, Helen K. Bessalan Taubee, Marjorie Wiers, Mildred Wiers, Druella Points, Lee Buckingham, Calvin Cok, Robert Shaarda, Harold Smith and Donald Stevens. The wedding ceremony will be held at Celeryville and salutation is Bessalan Taubee.

MAKE PLANS FOR MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES HERE

Memorial Sunday and Memorial Day services are being planned and from reports, they will be the best and most impressive of all.

The Memorial Service committee of the Community Club, of which Rev. H. H. Bethel is chairman, reports that all phases of the program have been completed with the exception of a complete list of names. Those in charge of the services do not want to overlook the possibility of an error, and ask that everyone check the names listed below, and if an omission has been made, it will be appreciated if Rev. Bethel is notified. The list follows:

Those who have made the supreme sacrifice are: Cecil Burr, Gene Cornell, Charles Rhine, Ray Ford, Elmer Parsek, Elwood Kuhn, Lester Willard and Russell Stiebel.

Wounded: Clarence Barnes, Stanley Shaver, Frank Fenner, Lester Willard, Allen Norris, Jr., Willard Ross, Jr., Dan Hicks, Jasper Fredieri, Robert Wiers, Ed Vanderpool, Jack Hall and Clarence Vanderpool.

Prisoners of War: Nelson McQuown, Eugene Phillips, and Perry Curtiss.

On Memorial Wednesday, May 30, the American Legion, Auxiliary and others, will participate in the usual Memorial Day parade which will form on the Public Square, and march to the cemetery, where Forrest F. Smith will deliver the address of the day. A salute will be fired to our fallen heroes. Complete details of this event will be published next week.

ATTEND FUNERAL RITES

Mrs. and Mrs. James St. Clair were in Bucyrus Saturday afternoon attending the funeral services for John Bowers. Mr. Bowers is a former Sunday school teacher of Mrs. St. Clair.

PLYMOUTH COUPLE OBSERVE 54TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The fifty-fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ross of Sandusky street, was quietly observed Monday, May 14th. No festivities were planned but the couple did enjoy a short ride with their daughter, Mrs. Jasper Fralck of Shelby and the visits and calls of friends and neighbors.

They were remembered with gifts, flowers and cards, and the wishes of the community for many more anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross were married at the bride's home west of Plymouth, about four and one-half miles, by Rev. Peck, pastor of the Methodist church. Mrs. Ross was born in Cossatot and moved with her parents when a

DIES IN WILLARD

Ira Haindel, 73, died at his home in Willard Saturday. Approximately fourteen years ago Mr. Haindel resided in Plymouth, operating a grocery store here. He left Plymouth for Boughtonville where he ran a general store and about ten years ago sold out to his son and has since lived in Willard.

He is survived by his widow, Mary E. Willard; one son, Ernest G., who now manages the store at Boughtonville and two grandchildren.

Services were held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Delphi Methodist church with the Rev. William Stewart, officiating. Burial was made in the New Haven cemetery.

WEAR A POPPY ON MAY 26TH

Once again on Poppy Day, May 26th, the members of the American Legion Auxiliary will dedicate their best efforts to the distribution of memorial poppies to the citizens of Plymouth. The Poppy Chairman announced today. It is one of the ways in which they pay tribute to and keep faith with those who died in the nation's service, saying as they fell:

"Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch—be yours to hold it high."

"The wearing of the poppy has become a silent pledge, renewed each year, that the people of America will not forget the responsibility they have been given by their fighting men of both wars. Many of these men have given their lives or their health for us, and it is with deep gratitude to them that we set aside a day on which to honor them and assure them that we remember our promise."

On Poppy day the women of the Auxiliary will offer poppies to everyone in Plymouth. There is no fixed price for a poppy—whatever is given is welcome. The little boy's pennies and the business man's dollar are equally acceptable.

It is hoped that every citizen will be wearing the crimson badge by nightfall of May 26th.

Every cent that is given for a poppy goes toward the rehabilitation of disabled fighting men and to the aid of the children of the dead and disabled. These victims of war's disaster will be glad to see a prominent badge on lapels again this year.

UNCLE DIES

Mrs. C. A. Robinson left Monday for New Bedford, Mass., to attend the funeral services Wednesday afternoon of her uncle, Jake Wehl, 72.

The deceased is a former resident of Plymouth and will be remembered by a great many here as a prominent baseball player of many years ago. Burial was made at New Bedford.

Before returning home, Mrs. Robinson will visit relatives at Martha's Vineyard Island.

OFF DUTY

K. I. Wilson is off duty at the Myers Harness Shop owing to illness.

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. McMillan and son John of Mt. Gilead were callers at the Presbyterian manse Saturday.

Coming Events Cast Their Shadow Before

15 SENIORS TO GET DIPLOMAS

Fifteen members compose this year's graduating class and will receive their diplomas tomorrow evening at commencement exercises in the high school auditorium, thus closing their school days in Plymouth.

The class will wear caps and gowns in the class colors of scarlet and gray and will be escorted to their seats by members of the Junior class.

Thomas Cunningham is valedictorian and Robert Sponseller is salutatorian, both delivering addresses. Other numbers on the program are:

Invocation Rev. Haines Solo James Mare Selection Girls' Glee Club Presentation of Class Supt. Van Brunt Awarding of Diplomas George Herbscher

President of the Board Musical Selection Triple Trio Benediction Rev. Lambertus The guest speaker of the evening is Dr. Leland Jacobs, Professor of Education, Ohio State University. At the close of the program the seniors will receive their friends at the front of the auditorium. The entire community is invited to attend these exercises.

Baccalaureate Service

Last Sunday evening, friends and relatives of this year's graduating class gathered for the baccalaureate service held in the auditorium. The class, gowned in scarlet and gray caps and gowns, the class colors, were escorted to their reserved seats by the Junior class, and with the audience remained standing until the invocation was given by Rev. Lambertus. Richard Ross, a junior, sang "Open the Gates of the Temple" and Rev. Bethel read the Scripture lesson. A girl's trio sang "Lift Thine Eyes," followed by the sermon by Rev. Bethel.

Taking a part of the Sermon on the Mount for his text, Rev. Bethel spoke on the "Deafening Voice," the voice of the Master, and delivered a very inspiring and interesting address. One of the chief things stressed was that "happiness is the by-product of other attainments." Happiness is not captured and held by seeking happiness only, but is the result of other things.

The High School Octette with soprano obligato sang "Seek Ye the Lord," and benediction was pronounced by Rev. Haines.

The Class Roll

SUPT. MAURER GUEST SPEAKER SUNDAY, MAY 27

An invitation is extended to Plymouth and community to attend the annual Decoration Day Services of the Greenfield Memorial Association on Sunday, May 27th at the Church of the Master, Steubenville, Ohio.

A picnic dinner will be enjoyed at the noon hour and meeting of former friends and neighbors will take place. At 2:30 o'clock, Harold R. Maurer, Superintendent of the Garfield Heights Schools, will be guest speaker.

Supt. Maurer is well known here, and his friends will no doubt take this opportunity of seeing him again. He and his mother made Plymouth their home for a number of years and Mr. Maurer served on the local school faculty. He resigned here to go to Willard where he taught for some time, and later went to Garfield Heights Schools, which he has supervised for the past ten years. He is a member of the State Board of Education, and has taken a prominent part in the State's educational programs.

IMPROVING

Mrs. Florence Brokaw was released Thursday evening from the Shelby Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient since the preceding Monday.

Two weeks ago today Mrs. Brokaw was walking down Mulberry Street to town, when she slipped and fell, striking her left elbow and cracking it, making it necessary to have the bones wired together and placed in a cast.

She is getting along satisfactorily but the arm will be in a cast for about six weeks.

GETS CUSTODY

Little Joyce Ann Laser, 21-month-old Plymouth child, who was abandoned in Chicago by her mother late in March, is in the custody of her grandfather, George W. Farnwalt of Plymouth after her parents were divorced in Chicago and placed in a custodial home.

Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch granted the baby's father, Harold C. Laser, serving with the armed forces in Italy, a divorce on grounds of neglect and cruelty. The child is a central figure in a sensational story six weeks ago, was placed in custody of her mother's father until Laser returns and determines what he wants to do with the baby. The divorce action against Mrs. Laser was started last fall, several months before she abandoned the child in Chicago after going there with a 17-year-old Milwaukee youth.

HUGE QUOTA IS SET FOR STATE

Ohioans are being asked to buy $403,000,000 in War Bonds in individual purchases during the 7th War Loan Drive, which opened this week, according to Harold H. Bredlow, executive director of the Ohio War Finance Committee.

Mr. Bredlow says that $238,000,000 of this amount has been assigned to sales of Series E, the people's War Bond. This quota exceeds by $165,000,000 the amount of the E Bond quota for Ohioans during the Sixth War Loan.

In pointing out the huge job to be done this year because the government must raise in two War Loan Drives almost as much money from individuals as in three drives last year, Mr. Bredlow referred to statements of Fred M. Vinson, director of War Mobilization and Reconstruction. Vinson said:

"The necessity for raising vast sums of money through the sale of War Bonds and by taxation for financing the war with Japan will remain undiminished for a considerable time. War Bonds are essential factors in price control. We must put into the war with Japan every man and every piece of equipment which can be effectively utilized. There will continue to be a great need to direct cash purchasing power from the retail market in order to keep the maximum curb on inflation."

Vinson also pointed out that there would be no significant drop in federal expenditures at present because the Battle of Japan has just begun and will be bigger, tougher and longer than most Americans expect.

"Our surveys show," Mr. Bredlow said, "that personal contribution is the most effective way to sell War Bonds. Every Ohioan should buy at least one extra bond in addition to his regular purchases during the 7th War Loan."

BROTHERHOOD TO MEET AT FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH

Monday evening, May 21st, the Lutheran men will meet in the annex of the church. A program is being arranged for the committee and refreshments will be served. Come and enjoy the fellowship of the men. Mr. Don Ford is president of the brotherhood.

GET SUGAR APPLICATIONS FROM JAMES ROSS NOW!

Housewives who wish to secure their canning sugar may secure applications from James Ross at his office at the Fate-Root-Heath Co. Mr. Ross states the application blanks will be available at local grocery stores as in previous years, and advises that applications should be secured and properly filled out at once.

Around the Square

(By Phineas Whittlesod)

YEP, SPRING is here . . . all over the country except Plymouth. One farmer, Bill Willis, told me a couple of weeks ago that in late March he was three weeks ahead with his work. Now, he's six weeks behind!

TOMORROW'S Weather Report: Showers and cool. Keep the furnace going. I hope we're mistaken!

NEED A THERMOS bottle or a lunch box? Well, Brown and Mills Hardware have just received several hundred of each. The only reason we don't have any is that we don't have time to eat, and then, too, finding sufficient food to make a lunch!

BILL ELLIS kinda sneaked up on us this past winter and has built a 50x50 machine shed out next to his home. Bill's been getting in a lot of extra work on his farm equipment lately, and we don't know which farmer comes first, but it's dollars to donuts the most of it is already sold. At any rate, if you need a piece of farm machinery better see Bill in a hurry.

JAKE McINTIRE blushed a little from the Community Club sang "Happy Birthday" to him. Mac hit the 74 mark Tuesday, and he looks good for many more birthdays. Congratulations, Mac, from your friends and thousands of customers of the Plymouth Dry Goods store.

JUST BEFORE being discharged from the Army on May 16th, Charles L. (Chuck) Moore won his Pfc rating after being in the service for 18 months. Before going into the Army Moore was employed as a P-R in the loco division. He and the Mrs. were in town Saturday meeting friends who extended him a welcome back home. They are at present residing in Shelby.

ROBERT (Red) Fogleson, who runs a pressing and dry cleaning place down on Trux street, isn't the Scotchman you might think. Fogleson is giving a bit of dress cleaning and pressing FREE to all graduates of Shiloh, New Haven and Plymouth. If the seniors don't want that, they can take $1.00 in trade any time. With the Army facing the boys, few of them have new suits, for they expect Uncle Sam to give them one. At any rate, fellows, go down and see Red and get the $1.00 in trade.

EVA BURNS of Shiloh sent in two dollars for her subscription! Of course this made me happy. The work was a bit of satisfaction in the way she expressed her attitude toward The Advertiser in a little note she enclosed. Well, Eva, thanks for the two bucks and them kind words—hope we can continue to sell the old sheet at $2.00, but you never can tell!

I THINK we all will agree that Jim Root is quite an athlete for his age, and we admire his interest in sports as coach for the basketball and baseball teams. After the day after tomorrow, it is safe to say that he will act as coach only in the future and not as a participant. Let's get the story to you as it came back to Plymouth. Jim was chaperone for the Seniors on their trip to the motor city. The gang had become exhausted and sleepy from a hard day of sightseeing. It was early in the morning, and everyone was dozing. Except Genevieve Jacobs and Coach Root. To keep time from lagging these two decided to try a foot race. The mark was set and off they went. Genevieve won by a slim margin, for in the dash Jim slipped and fell, ripping his trousers, badly mutilating his body, and suffering severe shock.

It was a awful predicament, and from here on, we have to surmise what he did, but you can get the overall picture if you ever saw Jim's face turn red!

Doings in Congress

By Cong. W.M. LEMKE

THE EUROPEAN WAR IS over. We rejoice with the fathers and mothers whose sons have won this victory. We feel sorry for those whose sons gave their lives, their limbs or their health in this conflict. We also realize that the war with Japan is far more our war than was the European war, and it is not over.

SOME OF THE BOYS WILL now be discharged. Some will return to their farms. They will need farm machinery—machinery that we are still exporting. Let us demand that the present policy of playing Santa Claus to every foreign Tom, Dick and Harry at the expense of our returned soldiers, stop.

There are many surplus war trucks and tractors. The Treasury Department had the distribution of these. It sold a large number of these to speculators. Fortunately, Mr. Flannagan of Virginia, Chairman of the House Agricultural Committee, called members of the Treasury Department before his committee for an explanation.

AT THIS HEARING, IT BECAME clear that the Treasury Department was more interested in the speculators than in the farmers. Some of the dispositions of these trucks did not look good. Mr. Flannagan did not rest here. He insisted that the distribution of the trucks and tractors, suitable for agriculture, be transferred from the Treasury to the Department of Commerce. He felt that Department was more interested in agriculture and less susceptible of being seduced by speculators.

THIS TRANSFER HAS BEEN made. These trucks will now be distributed to the local dealers. However, it is hard to beat some of these speculators. They know their game. They are now working their manipulations through the OPA. The OPA fixes the ceiling prices. These ceiling prices may be on trucks without engines or without wheels. The speculators know where the engines or the wheels are, but not the local dealer.

THE LOCAL DEALER CANNOT afford to get experts to set up a truck or tractor. He cannot afford to assemble the parts of one or two trucks or tractors at a dist. point. But the speculator, who buys a large number, can. In other words, the OPA either in its ignorance or otherwise, is playing into the hands of the speculators.

UNLESS THE OPA USES intelligence in fixing the ceiling prices on these trucks and tractors, even the Department of Commerce will find itself tricked. The farmer will again be at the mercy of the speculators. The Government should set both a floor and a ceiling on these trucks and tractors. They should be complete trucks and tractors — not parts.

MR. FLANNAGAN IS ENTITLED to the farmers' thanks for getting some of these trucks and tractors distributed to the local dealers through the Department of Commerce. Of course, some politicians will claim credit for the work that Flannagan and his committee have accomplished. They will go on the radio and claim that this is their work. Remember to take all of these claims with a grain of salt. Give the credit where it belongs — give it to Chairman Flannagan.

BACCALAUREATE

The baccalaureate services for the graduating class of 1945 was outstanding for the schools and for the community. It was characterized by the highest standards of Dignity and culture was strongly manifested throughout the program. The class program, "Revel March by Band," was most ably presented by the organizer, Miss E. Floy Rose. The march of the class was planned by Rev. Henry E. Boehm introduced the speaker with sincerity and friendliness. Dr. L. E. Bruce Young, pastor of the First Lutheran church of Shelby has often responded to the call from this community for various occasions and he has not been an exception.

He addressed the class on the subject "Building for the Future." It was a masterpiece of scholarship, convincing and spiritual. A safe guide for any young person. Then followed a solo by Mrs. Dewey Reynolds, Mrs. W. Nesbitt. It was a fitting summary of the address that had preceded the recitation. The whole soul into the words and music, and leaves you with a lasting impression of an artist's work.

The quiet benediction by Rev. Boehm and then the class march. Mrs. Dewey Reynolds, "Postlude in C" by Stults, while the large audience stood until the last student had passed the door.

He was a member of the Ganges Reformed church and the Ganges Grange.

Surviving are his widow, Mary, one daughter, Mrs. Charles Balser of Franklin-p and two brothers, Elmore of Franklin-p, and Charles of Ganges. The body was taken to the L. L. McQuate funeral home. Last rites were held Monday at the Ganges church at 2 o'clock.

Rev. Harlan J. Miller, the pastor officiated. Burial was in the Adams cemetery south of Shiloh.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL
Registration is under way for the daily vacation bible school, sponsored by the Lutheran and Methodist churches. Each child who plans to attend should register this week either through the school or church house.

The school begins June 4 and continues through June 17. A full program is planned for all children between the ages of 4 and 14.

COUNTY DIRECTOR
Stanley Huston attended the directors' meeting of the Northern Ohio Dairy Breeders Association, which was held at Tiffin on Tuesday.

Stanley is Richland county's director and there are twenty equities in the association.

PARTY HONORS J. E. HODGES
A lovely dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hodges of Plymouth on Friday evening, was given as a courtesy by Mrs. Hodges.

The occasion celebrated two events in the life of Mr. Hodges. He became 45 years of age with Shiloh Lodge No. 544 F. & A. M. fifty years ago May 13. There isn't one member surviving whose name was enrolled at that time. G. W. Shafer and J. J. Pittenger were admitted to membership the following day.

Mr. Hodges was assisted by her sister, Miss May Page and a four course chicken dinner was served. The entire evening was most enjoyable and worthy of the honors, but for all the guests.

SUNDAY PROGRAM
Mother's Day and the Day of Prayer set apart by the President of the United States, was observed at Mt. Hope Lutheran Church, Sunday.

A program for church school had been prepared by the Loyal Daughters Class. Those taking a part in the program were Mrs. Alice Clawson, Jane M. Black, Janice Clark, and Miss Pearl Darling. Vocal music was furnished by Mrs. E. C. Geisinger and Mrs. L. D. Wolfersberger with Mrs. Doris Herz accompanying them at the piano.

Pink and white roses were distributed by Miss Darling to all mothers. The oldest mother of the Sunday school, Mrs. J. B. Zeigler, was given a very pretty corsage. The youngest mother present was a visitor, Mrs. Betty Williamson, who also received a corsage. Rev. Henry Boehm delivered an effective message and all music was in keeping with the day. There were sixty in the primary department.

AT MOTHER'S DAY SERVICE
Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Beaver of Norwalk and Mr. and Mrs. Felix Ludin of Shelby attended preaching service at Mt. Hope Lutheran church Sunday morning and Mr. and Mrs. Ludin were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Beaver in Norwalk.

STUDY GROUP
The W.S.G. were entertained at dinner Thursday by a committee consisting of Mrs. Arthur McBride, Mrs. Donald Barnes and Mrs. Chester Bell. The afternoon session was opened with devotions by Mrs. Fred Cuppy.

Mrs. E. R. Haines in charge of the program, gave a talk on the subject "Christianity in the Home." Leonard Hartway spoke of the subject "Christians in China." Mrs. Clarence Miller gave a chapter review of the mission study book.

METHODIST OBSERVANCE
On Sunday the Methodist service and program for church schools were in accordance with the national program. Mrs. Jean Smith, superintendent of the primary division planned the children's part of the exercises.

Prayers were read and sung by Miss Frances Shafer's class, and Mrs. Ruth Forsythe closed the program with a very appropriate reading.

An innovation in the church service was a duet by Rev. and Mrs. Thomas C. Henderson which was dedicated to Mrs. Alice Marling, who had spent many years in the service of the church.

INTERESTING PAST MATRONS ENTERTAINED
Mrs. E. Pollock and Mrs. E. Oswalt entertained the Past Matrons' Club at the Pollock home in Shenandoah, Friday evening. The president, Mrs. E. J. Stevenson, was in charge of the routine business. The response to the roll call by the secretary, Miss Ollie Zeigler, pertained to the subject, "Mothers." Mrs. W. W. Kester directed the social features. There was a fine attendance, and two guests were present, Mrs. O. D. Fair of Mansfield, and Mrs. G. B. Jones of Indianapolis.

LETTERS FROM OUR BOYS IN THE SERVICE

At Okinawa

Easter Sunday morning found Pete Ruckman on hand for the invasion of Okinawa. Details were of necessity lacking, but in the same letter to his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Harold Ruckman, he told of attending gunnery school and of also how much he and his buddies appreciated good water when they returned to their boat.

Souvenirs From The Pacific

A box of souvenirs from the Netherlands East Indies were recently sent by Sgt. Vance Hoffman, to his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Frank Hoffman, and are now on display in the Brown & Miller windows. Included in the assortment is a miniature hand carved native canoe, an ebony fork, two hand carved spoons, and two sets of chop sticks. They were shipped in a large wooden box and arrived in splendid condition.

RETURNS TO OREGON

Cpl. Robert Cornell left Sunday for Ft. Stevens, Ore., after enjoying a visit with his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Cornell.

CAPT. LOIS HOUSE

TO ATTEND SCHOOL
Captain Lois House, WAC, who has been stationed at Fort Douglas, Utah, for the past year in charge of WAC recruiting of the 9th service command has been transferred to the Personnel Service and Education Reconditioning Branch, and will attend the school of instruction at Washington Lee University, Lexington, Va., for six weeks.

At the completion of the course Captain House will be stationed in San Francisco, Calif. Captain House came by airline to Moorehead, Ky., last week end, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Marvin George, and family en route to Lexington. Captain House was the librarian at Willard Memorial library before entering military service and was a sister of Mrs. C. W. Wilkinson and known to many locally.

Dear Mr. Thomas:

Just a line to let you now that I am fine and to see how everything is in Plymouth. I sure am getting around this Pacific ocean. This may sound kind of funny but it's true. Once a person is out here a while it seems as though the world isn't half as big as it's supposed to be.

Yesterday, we left an island (Okinawa) just 300 miles from Japan and at the rate that our forces are going we will soon have Japan.

Well, I guess that is enough about the war for a while. At present, I feel like a roasted turkey. (Ha ha.) Well I hope to be home soon; somewhere close to graduation. Have you heard much from Sid? I saw in the paper where he was in Belgium, he sure is getting around. Have more fellows been home on leave? I sure do hope that some will be home when I get there. Are the fellows going to have a ball team this year? If they do I hope that it is better than their basketball team seemed to be. Well I guess that'll sign off for now.

Tell Mrs. Thomas and Mary Ellen that I said hello. Oh, yes. Tell Sid that I said to take it easy.
Yours Very Truly
Robert F. Metcalf

NINTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, France

Sgt. Evan Richard Coe, Norwalk, Ohio, is a member of the 40th Mobile Communications Squadron of the Ninth Air Force which recently was awarded the Meritorious Service Plaque for superior performance of duty in connection with tactical operations of both the Air and Ground Forces prior to and during the invasion of the continent.

Sgt. Coe, a radio operator who is charged with transmitting weather information, works in a team with members of the 21st Weather Squadron, supplying the weather reports to all the armies.

The citation covered the period from January 1944, to July 1944, when the squadron—with detachments working in England, France, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, and Germany—furnished weather communications to all commands of the Ninth Air Force in addition to the U. S. First, Third, Seventh and Ninth Armies and the First Tactical Air Force and First Allied Airborne Army. Completely mobile and operating under combat conditions, often under fire, each of the squadron's detachments is capable of setting up and operating an hour after arriving at a new location.

Sgt. Coe, husband of Mrs. E. R. Coe, has been in England 21 months. He served in England before going to the continent. He is the son of Mrs. Florence Coe of Plymouth.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

GEORGE: "Yes, I certainly would like to hear why you call that an old fashioned idea, Judge."

OLD JUDGE: "Glad to tell you, George. Until recently, a person known as an alcoholic was generally treated as a social outcast. Little if anything was done to understand him or help him. But, during the past few years, medical research and study has developed that alcoholics are really sick people... that there is usually a deep-rooted physical, social or emotional reason behind their behavior. That's why today so much is being done to help them by finding out and correcting the condition that leads them to excess."

GEORGE: "How many folks are there like that, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Well, according to scientific research, 95% of the people who drink, drink sensibly. 5% do so unwisely, at times. Included in that 5% is the small percentage of the sick people I'm talking about."

GEORGE: "That certainly gives me a clearer picture. It's the most sensible approach I've ever heard of on the subject."

F. D. GRAHAM OF COVE ORCHARD, ORE., PAYS A VISIT TO PLYMOUTH

Leaving Plymouth 88 years ago, Frank Graham arrived in Plymouth Tuesday for a few hours' visit with old acquaintances. Of course, Mr. Graham has made a couple or so trips back home since leaving, but his last was a period of eight years ago, at which time he came on a mission of sorrow—the funeral of his brother.

For twenty years we've been stamping the name of "F. D. Graham, Cove Orchard, Ore." on the single wrapper which carries the Advertiser to this address, and for twenty years we've annually received a check for his subscription. And all through this period—from time to time—we've often wondered just what connection F. D. Graham and Plymouth had in common.

Well, Tuesday, a gentleman with the dignity of a justice, and the personality of a senator, entered our office, and as we glanced at him, he gave me a feeling that "I've seen him before," but when introduced, he was greatly overwhelmed, for at last my curiosity had been filled. . . . here was Frank Graham right before my eyes, and not the least bit of resemblance of the man I had pictured. About five and a half feet tall, a full waist, and gleaming eyes and almost bald. Mr. Graham wore a smile of happiness and satisfaction that one always carries when they come back to Plymouth.

It was only a few minutes before we started talking over old times, and here is what I found about one of our former residents.—Born on West Broadway, young Frank Graham grew up in Plymouth the same as most youngsters do. The first day of his first school was opened, it was Mrs. Nora Reed Wyandt was his teacher. Frank got his share of punishment for misdoings, but he recalled his most humiliating experience was the day Mrs. Wyandt (Nora Reed) called him up to her desk and placed him on her lap. Mr. Graham related that this incident will live with him forever, for at that time it made him feel very, very foolish, to be held by his teacher before a room full of children.

School days passed fast and furious, and it wasn't long before Mr. Graham lost his father, the former "Big" or Hiram Graham who operated a hardware store with W. B. Cuykendall. At his father's death in 1876, young Graham started clerking for the late Frank Parker, who dealt in dry goods and notions in the store room now occupied by the Jump Clothing store next to the Advertising office. Young Graham was 13 years old when he began work for Mr. Parker after school and on Saturdays. He kept this job for six years, and at his mother's death in 1888, Frank decided he'd like to go west. It was about the same time that Horace Greely was preaching Westward Ho! to all young men.

Making his first stop in Denver, Mr. Graham began work for a lumber company in the bookkeeping department. He remained in Denver for some fifteen years, and the desire came upon him to learn more about the business, and to do this he felt that he had to go up into the big timber country of Washington and Oregon, so he left Denver, and our next stop was some thirty miles out of Portland, Ore., where we find him at Cove Orchard.

In his Oregon home, young Graham went to work in a saw mill as a laborer for a $1.50 per-hour day. He wanted to learn the timber business, and after a couple of years of hard work, an opening in the bookkeeping office came to him, and he accepted. He retained this position for some time. A competitive and larger firm opened up a mill nearby offering Mr. Graham a position as head bookkeeper. This he accepted, and within a few years he was manager of the firm. It was after serving in this capacity for some time that Mr. Graham decided to strike out for himself. Let us say he was successful in this venture, for he has now retired from active service, having disposed of his business some years ago, with the satisfaction of knowing that he had accomplished what he always wanted to do—own a lumber mill.

It was when Teddy Roosevelt sent out a committee to study rural community planning that Mr. Graham decided to plot out the timber lands he had acquired previously. The planning project worked out successfully for today Cove Orchard, Oregon is a quiet and beautiful rural community located just 23 miles out of Portland on a main highway. Fruits of all kinds, nuts, truck gardening are now the main products of this community, as all timber had been cleared years ago.

At 78 Mr. Graham says he's enjoying the harvest of life. . . . the last years when a man can look back on his past with satisfaction in knowing that he has proved successful and can count scores of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Graham, although leaving here fifty-eight years ago, didn't become too busy to take time off and return to Plymouth for his brother's funeral. Nellie Wilcox, who passed away five years ago last December.

In checking over the names of those he remembers in Plymouth are Jake McEntire, Hattie Forthner, May Fleming, Elmer Trauger, Louis Gebert, Grace and Daisy Hanick and others. Mr. Graham pointed out that he remembers Plymouth most for his kindness and hospitalities, and although he has been away for these many years, he still calls Plymouth his home. Mr. Graham is a former Scoutmaster at Cove Orchard, and enquired enthusiastically of our own Scout troop; he's a Mason and belongs to the Shrine, and keeps well versed on all the latest developments and inventions.

Making an apology for looking so "spry" in appearance, Mr. Graham stated that he stopped over in Phoenix, Ariz., and the temperature there was one hundred, and so he sent his overcoat home. But arriving in Plymouth he found that he needed one not only for warmth, but for looks as well.

Mr. Graham is visiting his nieces in Cleveland and Bellevue, and expects to stop in Toledo to pay respects to his former school teacher, Mrs. Nora Reed Wyandt, and Mrs. Helen Reed Hoyt. We wish sincerely that Mr. Graham could have told his experiences personally to all of our citizens, and we know that you would have a better understanding of your own home town, and the rewards of kindness done each day.

And to Mr. Graham, in behalf of those who still remember you, we say: It was a real pleasure to have your company and we all enjoyed your visit. May you come again soon!

SENIOR NEWS

Class Will of 1945
 Know all men by these presents that we, the class of 1945 of Shiloh High School, being sound and disposing in mind and memory, our worldly estate after our departure, respectfully make, publish and declare this and none other to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all and singular and other wills by any of us at any time made.

We the Class of 1945 do hereby bequeath the following:
 To the coming Seniors, we leave our ability to agree and to set up good examples for others.
 To the coming Juniors, we wish for them to take everything away from the Seniors.
 To the coming Sophomores, we wish for them to be able to get good and give everything they can to school work.

To the coming Freshmen, we can only hope they get an initiation worse than last year's.
 As to our Junior, we leave all our old notes, and scrap paper which he may find in the building.

We wish to express the heartiest thanks to all the school board members for our journey being a pleasant one.
 To the Faculty, we give our thanks for helping us in many ways and hope the Seniors keep you as busy next year.

Each of us individually bequeath the following:
 Doris Brock leaves her way with the men to ?
 Juanita Brook leaves her swing and blue eyes to anyone who thinks they can handle them.

 Ted Ernst leaves his way with the women to Dick Clark.

Frances Feazel leaves her ability to skip study-halls to Marilyn Brunn.
 Joan Hoffman leaves her ability to get dates week nights to Dot Guthrie.

Wade Kinzel leaves his slow motions to La Vaughn Oswald.
 Martha Lofland leaves her way with the men to Mary Benedict.
 From reports she may need it.

Mabel Malone leaves her quick temper and ability to chew gum to Marilyn Van Wagner.
 Joe McQuate leaves his basketball skill to Bill Halliwell. From all reports Bill needs it.

 Janet McQuate leaves his skill to Howard Clark.

Bill Noble leaves his curly hair to Tommy Lasser.
 Dick Pittenger leaves Betty to anyone kind enough to look after her.

Denver Shepherd leaves his height to Jim Reynolds.
 Betty Sloan leaves her tall men to Betty Rose.

Bob Swartz leaves his Madison cheerleaders to anyone who has gas enough to go after them.
 Bob Wagner leaves his ability to sing to George Rinehart.

Lorna Witche leaves her short-hand skill to Naomi Wolford.
 Dean Wolford leaves his brains to Fred Barnhart.

Bob Young leaves his accent to Sadie Reed.
 All said property that has not herein been disposed of we bequeath to the class of '46 with the hope that they may dispose of it the best way they see fit.

And we do here constitute and appoint the sole executors of our last will and testament.
 In witness thereof, we the Class of '45 set our hand and seal this fourteenth day of May, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.

CLASS PROPHECY

After ten years of work in New Jersey I decided to return home for the first time. I went to the railroad to get a ticket. After getting the ticket I walked past the engine of the train I was to go home on when some one called to me. I looked around and there stood BILL NOBLE, we talked for a little while and then he told me he was the Engineer of the train, and thought it was about to go so I boarded the train.

We were about five minutes out when I heard a voice I thought I should know calling for tickets. I looked around and there was the conductor of the train none other than, DENVER SHEPHERD. We talked for some time and he said he had been home about two weeks before and told me that DORIS BROOK and JOAN HOFFMAN had taken jobs in Washington as secretaries.

After some time the train pulled into Cleveland. I saw about the train times to Shiloh and found I would have to wait till 1:33 in the morning so I decided to go to the ball game. I got a seat right behind the catcher and sat down just as they were announcing the lineups. The last name the man gave made me sit up in my seat and look at my program and there it was BOB SWARTZ, pitcher.

After the game I went to the Cleveland shower room and talked with Bob and we decided to celebrate that night. We went to a fine place to eat, we had just finished eating when the band started playing and guess who was the band leader, none other than great trumpet player TED ERNST. After a while everybody started whistling, I looked up and there stood LORNA WITCHE ready to sing. After her song we talked with her and Ted for some time before we left.

While we were walking toward the station we saw an automobile and truck collide, we rushed over to see what we could do, some one had all ready called for an ambulance, when it came the nurse got out to see if she could help any one, and we saw it was MABLE MALONE, we talked about a minute and then the door of the ambulance opened and out rolled the driver none other than IVAN MCQUATE, JR. We talked with them while the men were putting the people in the ambulance.

I arrived about 5 a. m. in Shiloh and started to walk toward the east end of town when I heard a noise that sounded like five or six cars. I looked all around and then I saw the lights, they were loading up trucks at the dairy, so I decided to go down. When I walked around one of the trucks I noticed the words on the side of the truck said, "PITTINGER DAIRY" so I went in the dairy and there stood, DICK PITTINGER. He told me he had bought out Lofland and had increased the route by selling grade D milk. When I asked him what the D stood for he told me it meant diluted.

Later I borrowed an automobile and started to see if I could find the rest of my class. While going down Route 603 at a merry clip a motorcycle cop pulled up along side and made me stop.

When he took off his goggles it was my old class mate, BOB SWARTZ. We talked for some time and when I told him I was hunting some of the class he told me he'd forget about the ticket because I was one of his class mates and he couldn't think of giving one to them.

When driving on I tried the radio, it made a funny noise and then quit. When I looked up I saw a sign that said Class Play entitled "The Old Crab" directed by Miss Mayns, was presented in the auditorium. The other event was the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held May 9th, 1944, in the auditorium. We then dropped anchor for another three month leave.

On the last stretch of our journey we sailed into Port Senior with twenty happy smiling faces left in the crew. We were sorry to see that Margy Benedict and Richard Swind did not return to continue the voyage. For the year, Dean Wolford was chosen as Captain and Ted Ernst as First Mate. Mr. Pittenger was again chosen as C. P. O. Those completing the four year voyage were:

Doris Brook; Juanita Brook; Richard Cuppy; Ted Ernst; Frances Feazel; Joan Hoffman; Wade Kinzel; Martha Lofland; Mabel Malone; Lorna Witche; Denver Shepherd; Ivan McQuate, Jr.; Bill Noble; Richard Pittenger; Denver Shepherd; Betty Sloan; Robert Swartz; Robert Wagner; Lorna Witche; Ted Wolford; Robert Young.

Our trip was hazardous, the sight of Commencementville quickened our interest. Our sturdy crew of twenty is now looking back into the future. We realize we are leaving behind one of the greatest periods of our lives—school life.

went into the service of Uncle Sam's Navy. In their places we gained Ted Ernst, Frances Feazel, and Robert Young.

As Captain we chose Robert Swartz, with Robert Wagner as First Mate. Mr. Williams was chosen as C. P. O. During the year Robert Swartz resigned as Captain so Robert Wagner took his place as Captain.

The two main social events were the Junior Class Play entitled "The Old Crab" directed by Miss Mayns, was presented in the auditorium. The other event was the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held May 9th, 1944, in the auditorium. We then dropped anchor for another three month leave.

THE SENIOR CLASS

The Senior Class of '45 of Shiloh Village School

Are quite the thing and furthermore they have never broken a race??

There's a blonde who is their president whom everyone calls Dean.
 When it comes to wrestling he's real really in the beam.
 And then there's bashful Doris who never says a word,
 She's going to be an old maid at least that's what we heard.

Joan and Lorna lead the list of boy getting gals.
 If they would tell us how they do it we would be their life-long pals.
 Of course, there's Master Pittenger who goes for Pettit street
 And when they get together their giggles can't be beat.

You have heard about the three girls, Feazel, Malone and Brook who could go for Sloan's boy friend if it wasn't already took.
 Then, there's a big six-footer who has black hair,
 We think when it comes to Hollywood Denver really should be there!

Whenever you see a sailor boy with a cork on his arm
 You can be sure that it's Martha, where does she get that charm?

Who is the guy who is quite a card though he sometimes acts so mean?
 He really wears the roads out this boy whose name is Deak.

Oh, strong and silent gen who can't do a thing,
 When it comes to brainwork Ted certainly is fine!
 Of course there always is a bang when Cuppy is around
 When his Ford coming near a cyclone hits the town!
 There's three cute boys in the class who everyone calls Bob

When it comes to heart affairs "they can really do the job.
 Someone always knows the way to talk and make you swoon
 And Casey is just the man for sweet talk under the moon.
 And then there's Sailor Joe who has the most money,
 He hopes his faithful, Mardy will be true till Victory day.
 This tale could not be finished without our Blimpy who—
 Is built like Charles Atlas and loves to wrestle,
 Denver Shepherd

RECEIVE PETITION

Norwalk—Huron county commissioners Thursday received a petition from Richard township trustees for the building of an 1,800 foot road in the Willow marsh westward from the Celeryville road between Celeryville and the Baseline road to the south. The trustees are Ed Wiers, Finance Channing and Clinton Langjahr. The commissioners are aware that within the last five years, extent of the farmed area in the 3,600 acre marsh has grown greatly and that the marsh appears destined to be one of the heaviest producers of food in the country for the acreage. The trustees say the road will prove of much benefit to growers.

To the Shiloh Seniors--we extend our

CONGRATULATIONS!

For many years we've watched you and your school activities . . . and the past four years haven't been easy . . . you deserve much praise for your determination to go forward, and we want to be the first to wish you well as you enter this new phase of life. As a tribute and honor to you, we make possible this page of school activities.

We believe the Pen-a-min Plant can help you produce production. It can give you: 1. Buy good chicks. 2. Give them good food and care. 3. Give them Pen-a-min. 4. Give them plenty of space in this plant. Its toxic elements stimulate and promote better use of food. Its carbonic acid promotes growth and better building bones. Come around when it's overgrown and pick up a supply of Pen-a-min.

PLYMOUTH CHAPTER O. E. S. HOLDS ANNUAL INSPECTION

The high point of the Eastern Star year was reached on Tuesday evening, May 8, when Mrs. Roberta Mindling of Beverly, Worthy Grand Matron of Ohio, inspected Plymouth Chapter 231, O.E.S. This is the home chapter of Mrs. Arlene Schreck, deputy grand matron, district 10, and heading the corps of officers for this year quite capably, were, Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. James McQuate, and Worthy Grand Patron Orva Dawson.

The officers were commended on their work, the chapter was congratulated on the past year's record, and a grade of excellent was given by the visiting worthy grand matron.

The evening opened with a splendid dinner at the Methodist church, where visiting and local officers and candidates were entertained. At this time gifts and flowers were presented to various officers as is the yearly custom.

The special meeting for inspection opened at 8 o'clock and was presided by prayer led by Chaplain Alberta Hoffman in the chapter anteroom, for officers and worthy grand matron.

Mrs. Mindling was attractively gowned in a brown silk and long full sleeves. The deputy and visiting deputies wore white taffeta formals, and the chapter officers also wore white formals, with the exception of the star points, who wore the colors representing herobines, blue, yellow, white green and red.

The chapter room was beautifully decorated with vases of spirea sprays and tulips.

Soloist for the evening was John Root, who sang two songs, and was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Eva Rasmussen.

The sunshine collection for the evening was taken for the veterans' hospitals of Ohio.

Out of the thirteen chapters in district 10, there were twelve represented by the worthy matrons and patrons, and the district was commended by the worthy grand matron on their record for the evening and the year.

Attendance was between 190 and 200, and there were 15 worthy matrons and 13 patrons present from district 10, and neighboring districts.

Grand officers besides Mrs. Mindling, were Grand Martha, Thelma Gardner of Zanesville; Grand Representative of Saskatchewan, Elma Stevenson of Shiloh; Grand Representative of Miss. E. Anna Root of North Fairfield; Grand Representative of New Hampshire, Martha Gephard of McCutcheonville; Dep. Grand Matrons, Florence Haggette of Wroughly, dist. 11; Anna Root of Hebron, dist. 12 and Ruth Orndorf of Zanesville, dist. 16. President and vice-president of district 10 Elma Stevenson and Martha Gephard.

Towns and cities listed in the evening's registration were Shelby, Mansfield, New London, Mt. Gilead, Upper Sandusky, Shiloh, Sycamore, McCutcheonville, Gallon, Bucyrus, Lakewood, Willard, Carey, Nevada, Greenwich, North Fairfield, Crestline, Beverly, Hebron, Willoughby, Zanesville and Phoenix, Ariz.

Refreshments were served buffet style, at a beautifully decorated table, following the close of the meeting.

Officers participating in the work of the evening were Worthy Matrons, James McQuate, Worthy Patron, Orva Dawson; A. M. Mabel Lanus; A. P. John Lanus; Cond. Clara Root; A. C. Merrienne Bevier; Chaplain Alberta Hoffman; Marshall Florence Pank; Sgt. Inga Scott; Treas. Inez Shaffer; Warden, Ruth Ruckman; Sentinel Pro-tem, Donna Dawson; Star Points, Zella Carter, Marjorie Root, Theora Kennedy, Bertha France and Viola Burns.

Refreshment committee for the evening was in charge of Mrs. Maude Points and decorating and flower committee for inspection was supervised by officers of the chapter.

Most impressive of the evening was a lovely one for all O.E.S. members and particularly for the star points of the evening and the most impressive part of all was the singing of the last stanza of the national anthem. Every voice willingly sang, and the hall resounded to this heart-lift song. It was V-E day and everyone present was conscious of this being uppermost in his thoughts, and this stanza which he has sung as their opening song this year, was thrillingly appropriate.

"Oh, thus be it ever, when free men shall stand, Between their loved homes, and the wars desolation, Blest with Victory and peace, may this Heaven rescued land Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.

Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just, And this be our motto, "In God is Our Trust!"

And the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave O'er the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave.

Past Patron, E. L. Bailey, of Plymouth, offered prayer for the evening, in thankfulness for V-E day, with thoughts for those who gathered together in happiness and for those who were brought together by sorrow. It was especially fitting at such a meeting, that he should offer our thanks for the freedom of worship and freedom of assembly which makes it possible for friends to gather from all over the state of Ohio and from all religions, and bow their heads to the Almighty in a little chapter room in Plymouth.

AT ASHLAND SUNDAY. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fortney and daughter Francine, Robert Fortney B. M. 2/c of Detroit, Mich., wife and daughter motored to Ashland Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. William Rohn.

ADMITTED TO SHELBY HOSPITAL. Mrs. B. O. Blanchard was admitted Saturday afternoon to the Shelby Memorial Hospital for treatment.

NORA WYANDT CLASS ENTERTAINS. Twelve members of the Nora Wyandt Class of the Presbyterian Sunday School met at the home of Mary Alice Weller on May 10. Miss Doris Rhodes led the devotions which were appropriate for V-E day.

A twenty minute Bible study, conducted by Mrs. Bethel, the teacher of the class, was an interesting feature. Juanita Griest reviewed a few facts about the famous women's orchestra conducted by Phil Spitalmy.

Following a spirited business meeting, games prepared by Mrs. Bethel were enjoyed. The hostess served a lunch after which the meeting was adjourned to meet June 12, with Miss Danner.

AT MASONIC MEETING. Park Mosier, Walter Wilcox and M. Burns attended the Masters' and Wardens' Annual dinner of the Masonic Order at Wooster, Saturday evening.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS MEETING. Mrs. Jacob Schneider will be Gallon on Monday evening, May 21st to members of the Friendship Class. Her associate hostesses are Mrs. T. R. Ford and Mrs. Conn. Devotions are in charge of Mrs. E. E. Markley and the entertainment committee is Miss Jessie Cole and Mrs. Sadie Ford.

Around the Square

(Continued from Page One) —JUST GOT word before going to press that the Plymouth Nine — those teen-age boys who are making a record on the diamond — will be sporting new baseball suits one of these days. A committee from the Community Club met with Supt. Van Brunt and the Board of Education Tuesday evening, and it was decided to outfit the players with suits!

ONE OF THE FINEST examples of Scouting may be seen in the Scrap Book, made up by Richard Wharton, who is working for a Merit Badge. Wharton made the cover, sewed better than two hundred pages together and made up one of the finest scrap books I ever saw. He took jet propelled planes for his theme and the contents dwell solely on the newest and latest mode of airplanes. The book is a credit to any youngster who reads his Scout manual and does the best he can. There was no question in approving Wharton's effort to secure a merit badge on bookbinding. A swell job, Dick!

I'M TOLD that Bill Root leaves today (Thursday) for the Army — he'll go to Ft. Hayes, and then onto camp. Bill stepped into the purchasing agent's job at P-R-H three or four years ago, and at that time he has become a genius on learning where and how to get things that are needed in the manufacture of locomotives, clay machinery, tractors and lawnmower shavers. Bill is strictly the business-type, a home man, and took care of his own business! If Bill does as good a job for the Army as he has done at PRH all I can say is that the Army is getting a "helluva" good man!

ROBERT SMITH, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith of Plymouth Rural, finishes up his schooling as a mechanic in the air corps on the 28th of this month. Bob's been away seven months, and he has been stationed at Keeler Field, Miss. He hopes to spend a few days home when he makes a change in schools.

TAKE 'EM AS THEY COME . . . The Seniors are loafing this week, which doesn't make them mad . . . Pee-Wee Ross and Cindy spending Wednesday afternoon in a B & G booth . . . Madge Rhine writing a book: 'Why Fork.' Bill Hough feels better all the time . . . Gertrude Cornell's thin head of hair turning RED instead of grey. Wonder why? . . . Warren Will still appears girl shy; but now for the latest: Jake B. and Pat D. are on speaking terms again. A few weeks ago Pat had a downright look on her face . . . she'd mix up the drinks wrong and get the orders confused — all of account of Jake, who was looking at another local lassie. Well, Pat double-rolled her eyes, and with Spring here it worked! She's not only beaming with joy, but she's wearing a bracelet, a class ring, and from the way it looks, everybody's going to be happy from now on, even with school ending this week. That's the end of this story until school starts again in September.

NOW, if you want to help out and make this column interesting, we'll pay for each "tip" used — one chocolate soda. And they are awfully good.

JUST BEFORE we close, I'd like to let all the kids know that Charles Hannum is a very brave youngster. He's battled the elements of the big wind, the snows and put out two rolls in his Victory Garden!

Brighton, Plymouth, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Blackford.

The crew of an Army plane forced down on a bleak island off the coast of Alaska are sure that they were saved by a ghost. Read their stranger-than-fiction version of their rescue in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with this Sunday's (May 20) Chicago Herald-American.

Mrs. Russell Norris of Shelby was a Sunday visitor of Mrs. Lulu Norris. Mr. and Mrs. Earl McQuate made a business trip to Cleveland on Thursday.
