LEAK IN WATER LINE REPAIRED

A leak in a four-inch cast iron water main caused a huge loss of water the past week, and the water-softening plant was depleted of soft water the first of the week, due to the excessive drainage of water from the reservoir.

Supt. Rooks discovered the excessive loss of water last week in taking the daily readings at the water plant. The proximity of the leak was located Sunday, and a "finder" or locater, was borrowed from Shelby. Through the use of this instrument is was possible to locate the leak within two feet Tuesday.

The broken main was found on McDonough Street, between West High and Nicholas Ave. The main was down in the ground a distance of five feet. Elmer Kieffer, Robert Hampton, Wm. Krumb, and Wm. Wolfe found the digging tough, for the ground was frozen two feet deep. Coming to the leak, the pipe had been cracked about half way, and the huge volume of water was emptying into a large drain tile which was located close by, never coming to the surface. It is estimated that more than 68,000 gallons of water were being lost every twenty-four hours.

The repairs were completed on Wednesday afternoon, and Supt. Rooks states that soft water will again be coming through the water mains in a normal manner this afternoon.

Mr. Rooks and his co-workers were greatly aided in locating the broken main and the "lay of the land" by Jimmy Alexander, whose knowledge of pipes and drains in that vicinity proved very valuable.

Delays Meter Readings

The break in the water main delayed the regular time for reading light and water meters. This lapse of time will probably show an increase in light and water for about half the customers of the village. So if your January bill shows a little increase, it is due primarily to the extra week's usage, which occurred during the break-down. However, February's statement should show a decrease to balance up the late January readings.

TROOP ONE SCOUTERS TO CAMP OVERNIGHT

At the regular monthly meeting of the Troop Committee and Scouters at the Hut last Thursday evening, it was announced by Activities Chairman, Don Ford, that the overnight camp for the Scouters will be held at Camp Avery Hand, Jr. this year.

The exact date has not been set, but Ford says "It looks like some time the latter part of February."

As in the past five years this outing has been one of the highlights of the year for Troop One Scouters, and this year promises to be better attended than last year, when fifteen Scouters "camped out."

If you missed the meeting and want more details on this camp, contact Don Ford or L. E. Brown.

NEW TENANTS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark who have been residing on the Plymouth-Shelby road have rented the south side apartment of the property of A. E. DeVore on Portner Street.

TO TEACH IN FLORIDA

Miss Grace Trimmer has accepted a teaching position in the Titusville, Florida, schools and left the past week to assume her duties. Pete Ruekman drove through for her.

INJURED WHILE COASTING

While riding a bobsled on a hill at the old Sherman Farm, "Zeke" Donnenwirth, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Donnenwirth narrowly escaped serious injury when the sled cracked.

Sunday afternoon a group of boys went out to the hill for sled-riding, and Zeke, accompanied by Tony Fenner and David Sams started down the incline when the sled cracked. One of the broken slats went through the meaty portion of Zeke's buttock for a distance of four inches. He was given medical attention, and will be confined to the home for about two weeks. None of the others on the sled was injured.

Winter sports have been in great favor here, and many of the younger folks have gathered at Sherman's Hill, located on the farm purchased some months ago by E. B. Miller.

GIVES OPINION

Attorney General Hugh S. Jenkins, during the past week, held that delegates and alternates to the national convention of the different political parties are to be elected in the year 1948 and every fourth year thereafter at the regular primary election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May.

The question arose because of a seeming inconsistency between the statute relating to the primary election of delegates to the national conventions and the new statute which now requires the holding of all primary elections on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May of each year.

The opinion was requested by Edward J. Hummel, Secretary of State.

TO PARTICIPATE IN 'PRAYER DAY'

The World Day of Prayer will be observed in Plymouth with a union service at the Presbyterian Church, Friday evening, Feb. 13th.

In the first Friday in Lent, prayer girdles the globe. The same service, or a translation and adaptation of it, is used in many lands and languages of the near and far East in Europe, Africa and in Latin America. Canada observes the day widely and there are fifteen thousand observances in the United States.

DRYS MEET AT LOCAL CHURCH

Some of the community met at the Methodist Church last Sunday and talked over plans for the educational campaign which is now beginning against beverage alcohol in Plymouth. The next meeting will be at 2:30 p. m. on February 8th. We believe that many more of this town would like to become members of this organization. Therefore, we are urging you to attend this next meeting.

We believe that many are interested in fighting this enemy of mankind. It takes food out of the months of children, clothes off otheir backs, rugs off of their floors, furniture out of their homes, poisons their bodies and minds, breaks down their inhibitions and causes them to do things which they would not do, makes drunkards of them, ruins their lives and sends them to perdition.

The Word says, "At the last it (liquor) biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder." How do you deal with a poisonous snake? The way is to cut his head off right back of his ears. No compromise will do!

Featured in Plain Dealer Articles

Bob Busbey, featured in the Cleveland Sunday Plain Dealer under the title of "High Seas and High C's are Lure for Fenn's Olympic-Minded Busbey, is a cousin of Mrs. Woodrow Utis of Trux Street.

Bob is looking forward to an ocean trip this summer and is confident that he will gain a position on Uncle Sam's Olympic tank team.

Music—drumming out chords on the piano and attending concerts—is Bob's favorite avocation and is responsible for the aquatic ace still remaining at Penn. Coach Ray, the Foxes' swimming coach, almost lost Busbey to the lure of Michigan State's former policy of room, board and tuition for natatory accomplishments. He was working at Canterbury Country Club pool at the time and finally decided to remain in Cleveland because he felt that Lansing couldn't offer the same musical opportunities.

SNOW STOPS DEDICATION

Because of heavy snow, the dedication of the new Nazarene Church at Willard was postponed until March, Rev. A. L. Milliron of Shelby, pastor of the church, states.

GOING SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Curpen expect to leave February 1st for Sarasota, Fla., for a month's vacation. Mr. Curpen will close his jewelry store during that time.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Richard Myers entered Crile Hospital Cleveland, Saturday evening where he underwent an appendectomy. He is getting along satisfactory.

MADE HOMELESS BY EARLY BLAZE

An explosion of a water heater in the basement of the Harold Scheid home, north of Willard, started a blaze which destroyed the house and contents. The fire occurred Saturday morning, just a few minutes after Mrs. Scheid had filled the fuel oil tank in the basement.

Following the explosion flames shot up so rapidly with such force that it was but a very short time before the entire house was enveloped. Mrs. Scheid, who escaped injury in the explosion, ran to the second floor of the home and awakened her five children who were sleeping. The children, ranging in age from 7 to 15, were forced out into the snow in their night clothes and barefeet. They found shelter in the family car until they were taken to homes of neighbors.

Firemen from Norwalk and Monroeville appeared shortly after receiving the alarm, but succeeded only in preventing the spread ofthe flames to nearby farm buildings. Shelter was given the stricken family in the Rockwell home in Willard.

Word soon spread of the predicament of the family, who had lost their home and entire personal belongings. By late Sunday, neighbors, and residents of Willard and nearby-vicinity, had sent in clothing of all kinds.

The Scheid home is located on Route 99, north of Willard.

It will be recalled that the blaze occurred Saturday morning, the day of one of the worst blizzards experienced in this section for some time.

SEVERE COLD CLOSES PLANTS

With Old Man Winter staging a real show this week, hundreds of industrial plants throughout the state closed down, throwing tens of thousands of employees out of work.

The foundry at the Fate-Root-Heath Co. here was shut down Monday night owing to a lack of gas to operate the core ovens. Approximately one hundred and fifty employees were affected by the shut down order. If the cold spell continues throughout the remainder of week, there is very little hope of the foundry starting up again.

The cold wave started moving in on this area last Saturday morning when driving winds whipped up huge banks of snow which fell during the morning hours. While Plymouth, along with the rest ofthe midwest, was experiencing real winter weather, this area did not record subzero temperatures which prevailed two weeks ago, as well as last week.

Readings recorded in this section show that at Galion and Mansfield the mercury dropped to six below, while at Lexington the temperature was recorded at 28 below. Loudenville had 18 below Wednesday night of this week, with Bucyrus showing 15 below, and Butler 24. The temperature as recorded in Plymouth Tuesday night by John A. Root, local weather observeh showed 5 degrees below zero here.

Saturday's heavy snow pretty well blanketed the immediate area, but county highway shovels kept the main roads opened. City traffic was a trifle mean due to snow-laden roads. Several accidents, some fatal, were reported over the week-end in this area due to icy roads.

Mansfield shut down its library and YMCA Wednesday, and it has been requested that schools, churches and other public places, including theaters, be shut down, if heated with gas, if the cold weather continues. However, with the weatherman predicting milder weather, it is likely that the closing of these institutions will not be necessary.

January has been outstanding as far as the weather is concerned, for any of the oldtimers won't deny that this has not been "an old-fashioned winter."

SLIDING PARTY

Members of the Sophomore class will hold a sliding party on Saturday, January 31st at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Nonabelle McDougal. Miss Joan Lawrence the class sponsor, will be present.

Miss Virginia Fenner and Mrs. J. E. Hodges attended the funeral rites Friday afternoon at the McQuate Funeral Home for Leicy Pettit.

Miss Busbey Named Public Health Nurse

Miss Mary Busbey, Shelby has been appointed as school nurse to replace Mrs. Jean Ann Williams, who has tendered her resignation effective as of February 1st. The position of school nurse, which was created at the beginning of the school year, has been up to the present only a part-time program. Miss Busbey will take over her duties on Monday, February 2, on a full-time basis.

Miss Busbey for the past eleven years has served with the Richland County Health Dept. and her training and experience makes her highly qualified for carrying on, as well as expanding the Health Program in the Shelby City Schools.

Miss Busbey has frequently visited Plymouth in connection with her duties as County Nurse.

COMMUNITY CLUB TO MEET

An exceptional program has been planned for the meeting of the Community Club, which is scheduled to be held next Tuesday evening at 6:30 at the Lutheran Church.

Rev. M. P. Paetznick, president of the club, urges each member to be present and to bring a guest along. The social atmosphere which is found within the group is one that cannot be enjoyed in any other group, for it includes all men of all ages, business, professional and otherwise.

Past meetings have been filled with much interest and entertainment, and the one which is coming up Tuesday night should be up to par, according to the program committee. Don't forget Tuesday night at 6:30 at the Lutheran church . . . and bring someone with you.

LIBRARY HAS GOOD REPORT

People in Plymouth and vicinity really enjoy their local library as revealed in a report this week by Miss Jessie Trauger, Librarian.

The average circulation per month averaged the past year at 1,000. This includes books of all kinds and also for school children and clubs. Most of the best sellers are on the shelves at all times, besides many of the nonfiction books currently in circulation. In case you desire one, not on the shelves, Miss Trauger will be glad to accomodate you and secure it from the Mansfield library, of which Plymouth is a branch.

Mis Lois Pennell of Mansfield, county librarian comes to Plymouth once a month and talks over the book situation here and the needs of the community. She also assists and makes suggestions regarding the childrens' summer reading club, which has been a local project for years.

In addition to improving the library with reading material this past year, other improvements include the redecoration of walls, new flourescent lights and stove made possible through the Whitney fund.

Members of the Library Board who assist Miss Trauger with her duties at various times include Mesdames P. H. Root, Harry Trauger, Harold Shaffer and Miss Virginia Fenner.

Library hours are every night from 7 to 9 p. m. excepting on Thursday; Wednesday noon to 2:30 p. m. and Saturday morning from 10-12 a. m.

WAREHOUSE DAMAGED

A blast occuring in the C. E. Ward warehouse at New London Tuesday afternoon, caused damage to the extent of $1500. Firemen confined the blaze to the office, but the force of the explosoin ripped through the building demolishing a rear concrete wall.

Thousands of caps and gowns, stored in the warehouse, and used for college graduation ceremonies, were not damaged.

Firemen state that the explosion occurred in the office, and it is believed that it was caused by a gas leak.

SUIT SETTLED

NORWALK—The trial in the $10,000 lawsuit of Harry Beebe, Willard, administrator for the Grace Eileen Beebe, estate, vs. Donald Moll, Celeryville, the outgrowth of a traffic accident Aug. 28, 1945, was halted after several hours when attorneys for the contending parties agreed to a setilement. Terms of the settlement was not disclosed.

PTA TO SPONSOR SENIORS - TEEN AGERS HERE

Mrs. Agnes McFadden, first vice president of the P. T. A. called their meeting to order last Thursday when the group met at the High School Auditorium for the January Meeting. The usual business procedure took place including the reading of the minutes.

Mrs. McFadden then introduced Edna Frances Myers, president of the Teen Agers who presented their problems to the Association. Penny Christian and Holly Pitzen each read a paper on the needs of the Teen Agers. One of the big problems is a meeting-place and at present several places are under discussion. After considerable pros & cons on this project, Mr. Clarence Riggle made a motion that the P. T. A. sponsor the Teen Ager, which was put to a vote and carried.

Rev. Paetznick then brought before the group, the idea of sponsoring the senior class each year for a trip to Washington, D. C. This problem was also thoroughly discussed, voted upon and carried. Now for the benefit of those not present, the P. T. A. is not giving either the Teen Agers or the Senior Class any money. There will be committees to meet with them and their advisors to help them plan ways to earn money. It will be up to the group themselves to do the work.

Mr. Miles then showed the plan for the new school building and the plan of consolidation was also taken under consieration. Mr. Christian and several members of the school board had been to Columbus that day and had a few things to tell which no one knew anything about before. These will be left up to the school board and presented when they have all the necessary information.

A report was given on the possibilities of consolidation. It was pointed out that the State Legislature is considering passing laws to do away with High Schools under 200 enrollments. If this happens, it means that no small school will have much to say about the matter. It is important that we do our best to bring about a consolidation of our own choosing before we are told what to do by the legislature.

A motion was made for adjournment and lunch was served by the Teen Agers, consisting of hot dogs, coffee and coke. The next meeting will be Feburary 26th in charge of the Freshman Mothers.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER HAS BEEN NAMED

Galen Starr Ross, president of Capital University, Columbus, has accepted the invitation of Supt. P. I. VanBrunt to be the Commencement Speaker in Plymouth at graduation exereises on May 20th. Confirmation was made Tuesday morning.

MOVE TO NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Arnold, Jr., who have been residing on Plymouth Street have moved to their recently purchased property on Sandusky Street, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coe.

LEE SNYDER RESIGNS AS TIRO POSTMASTER

Tiro—Postmaster J. L. Snyder has announced his coming retirement as postmaster of the Tiro post office. Mr. Snyder expects to leave his office on or about Feb. 1, thus terminating a period of nearly 12 year's service. He and Mrs. Snyder plan to go to California next month to spend some time with their daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Mayes of Monterey.

AT SCOUTERS MEETING

H. F. Sams, G. E. Hershiser and Don Einsel attended the Shelby District Committee meeting on Monday evening in Shelby.

COUNCIL TO RECEIVE APPLICATIONS

The Village Council is now receiving application for the position of Street Commissioner and Deputy Marshal. Mail your application to the Village Clerk.

The Plymouth Council will consider all applications at its next meeting, the first Tuesday night in February.

MAN KILLED IN CROSSING CRASH

A tragic accident occurred on Sunday afternoon at the Pennsylvania crossing at Tiro, costing the life of Vila Brunell, 38, of Pittsfield, Mass., wrecking the truck-trailer, and damaging the engine of the locomotive, which was pulling a string of freight cars.

Witnesses who saw the mishap stated that the truck approached the crossing, and it is evident that the driver applied the brakes causing the heavy vehicle to skid into the front of the engine. The impact tore off the cylinder head of the locomotive, halting traffic at the crossing for several hours.

The driver was trapped in the cab of the truck, and burned to death while onlookers stood helplessly by. The Tiro fire department battled the blaze for some time which ignited the truck cab seconds after the impact. The front end ofthe truck was caved in, and the engine of the vehicle was carried several hundred feet on the cow catcher.

The truck was bound from Springfield, Mass., to Chicago and carried a cargo of golf balls and other sporting goods, which were strewn for almost a hundred foot area following the crash.

The train was bound from Mansfield to Toledo when the mishap occurred. None of the train crew was injured.

The remains ofthe truck driver were removed to the Lanius funeral home in New Washington to await instructions from the family. Brunell, the victim of the crash, was the father of children.

Methodist Youth Conduct Services

Although the extreme cold weather and heavy storm curtailed the attendance, there was a good representation Sunday morning at the Methodist Church when the Youth took charge of the Worship Service.

Quentin Ream acted as chairman, with Robert Hampton leading in the Responsive Reading, Sid Thomas the prayer and Responsive and Gordon Seahols the Offertory prayer. Ushers were Jimmy Shutt and Allen Ford. A sextette composed of Connie Hannum, Emily Rose Ford, Marilyn Cheesman, Holly Pitzen, Betty Davis and Phyllis Haines presented special music.

Paul Scott who recently attended a Youth Convention in Cleveland spoke on highlights of the Convention and interesting people he met while at the conference.

The pastor thanks all who helped to make the service a success.

FINISH COURSE AT COLUMBIA

Mrs. Margarithe Anderson, a member of the Plymouth High School Faculty, left Wednesday for New York to continue her studies at Columbia University where she is working for a Master's Degree in Natural Science. She expects to complete her studies and receive her degree in August.

Mrs. Anderson is a graduate of the New Haven Schools, Ashland College and for several summers has been attending summer school at Columbia. With the exception of Supt. VanBrunt, she will be the first member of the faculty to obtain a master's degree.

During her absence Mrs. H. L. Roe has been employed as substitute teacher.

FATHER DIES

Alton Snyder, 78, retired farmer, of New Haven, passed away Tuesday noon at the Mansfield General Hospital where he had been a patient the past two weeks and where he underwent an operation this past Saturday.

Survivors include his wife, one daughter, Mrs. R. E. VanWagner of New Haven, one step-son Kenneth McGinnis of Plymouth, four grandchildren and one great granddaughter.

Funeral services will be conducted today, Thursday at 2:30, at the Fink Funeral Home at Willard with the Rev. Keller, pastor of the New Haven-North Fairfield Methodist Charge, and burial made in the Maple Grove cemetery, New Haven.

Around the Square

By Phineas Whittleseed

SEEING HIM go through many antics on the Square Monday morning, it was difficult for one to discern whether Harold Cashman was playing basketball, or doing a few football maneuvers. Everyone was wondering just "what was going on." But when the last huddle was made, Cashman made a "touch-down," when he reached down and picked up the last bill . . . a $20 spot. It all came about when he went over to the bank, and as he approacheds the corner, his bank book with quite a few hundred (thousands, we bet) dollars, fluttered freely before a soft breeze. Greenbacks softly glided through the air, and Cashman made no mean stab at retrieving them (we wouldn't?) Well, he recovered all the cash, and his deposit slip balanced with the cash on hand, and everybody's happy. It's a shame to write all of this without saying that Cashman is proprietor of the Cashman Shoe Store.

WELL, AS WE are about to go to press, the Old Square is covered with a good blanket of dirty snow, and the thermometer looks like zero again tonight. While I wouldn't doubt but what Jake Myers is enjoying that Arizona sunshine, I'd almost dare some of my friends who are in Florida to write and tell me about "how nice" the weather is down there. Oh, Yeah? What's THIRTY above in Florida?

THE FIRST of three Diesel locomotives purchased by the Akron, Canton & Youngstown Railroad, made a test run Monday, passing through Plymouth about noon. The Diesels are built by Fairbanks-Morse and are rated at 2000 horsepower. It is reported that the performance of the Diesel was satisfactory, and that while no special schedule has been made for the new engine it will be frequently seen in operation on this well-known railroad.

WHILE SPRING training is some time off, there's plenty of time for Plymouth football fans to go out and organize a school football team. True, it takes a few hundred dollars, but isn't it also true that football is the one great American sport, giving more fun and opportunity to more youngsters than any other activity? It is reported several neighboring towns are going into football in the schools, and Plymouth will not make a mistake in supporting a school football team.

HUBERT MARTIN, who holds a high place in life is bemoaning the vacation he's getting this week due to the shutdown at the foundry. Hubert, who is a crane operator, always looks down on his fellowman when he's at work. But the "Mrs." kinda looks down on him this week. She suggested a few odd jobs down in the basement at their home. But from what we hear, Martin just cleaned up the basement.

A LATE NOTICE from the Lutheran Choir cancels the Saturday evening senior choir rehearsal announced elsewhere in this issue. There will be NO practice this week.

ACCORDING TO expression made public at a recent PTA meeting in New Haven, residents there are not in favor of joining a proposed consolidated school program which would include North Fairfield, Ripley and Steuben school districts.

Communist Farm Program

Charging that Secretary Anderson's "Long Range Agriculture Policy and Programs" is full of loop holes, Tom Linder, Commissioner of Agriculture, Georgia, blasts the program from many angles. Linder says that Anderson is now putting into motion machinery through which to deceive the American farmers into voting themselves out of business.

When the Communists took over in Russia, their first act was to seize the land, comunize agriculture and kill or exile those who refused to surrender their land and conform to the communistic program. The story was the same in Poland, Rumania, Bulgaria and Austria.

Now comes Anderson, Wallace & Company with a communistic Farm program for the United States.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson has submitted to Congress what he calls a "Long-Range Agricultural Policy and Programs."

A careful reading and study of this proposal by Secretary Anderson will reveal the thinking of Henry Agard Wallace. Under its terms, the marketing and Production Act, called the MPA, would simply become another AAA, more communistic than ever.

Mr. Anderson is now putting into motion machinery through which to deceive the American farmers into voting themselves out of business. These polls of farmers would be taken and submitted to Congress as representing the desire of the farmers. They will not, as a matter of fact, represent the desire of farmers because the questions will be couched in such a way as not to reveal the intention of the Secretary of Agriculture as to steps to be taken. The questions will be couched in such general terms as to deceive the very elect, if such were possible. As an illustration, Question No. 1 is:

"Are you in favor of the Department's policy of 'organized, sustained and realistic abundance?'" Yes or no.

Of course, everybody is in favor of a policy of sustained and realistic abundance. This is especially true since the days of killing pigs, burning wheat and plowing up cotton and corn. It follows, therefore, that the farmer would vote yes in answer to this question. What the Secretary does not tell you in this question is that the Department's policy calls for power to restrict acreage and production and to fix prices, as well as the power to compel each farmer to plant such crops as the government tells him to plant, whether it suits him or not. What the Secretary does not tell the farmer is that the "abundance" spoken of here means abundance from all over the world in imports. It means abundance for consumers without regard to its effect upon the farmer who votes yes in answer to this question.

TALKING OUT OF BOTH SIDES OF HIS MOUTH

To show you the deception involved this report of the Secretary to Congress, I call your attention to Paragraph 2, Page 6, of the Secretary's report to Congress, from which I quote as folows:

" 'We must also be on guard to prevent the concentration of our productive facilities in the hands of too few persons. The efficiency we foster has within it the design for a Frankenstein that would destroy the kind of life we hold dear. We see in industry how the concentration of economic power can be used to squeeze out even those who can produce efficiently and compete successfully when the rules are fair. We see in other countries how the farm people are limited in their way of life when the land, capitol and tools are owned by a so-called upper class. In this country, we believe in family farming as a way of life and as one of the main roots of democracy. We are not willing to sacrifice it. We want to strengthen it.—That is one reason for our goal of efficiency. So we shall want to keep the rules of the game fair to the family farm.' "

Now, that sounds fair enough, doesn't it? That sounds as though Mr. Anderson is interested in trying to help the little farmer, who, with his wife and boys and girls, are trying to carry on the farm. Lets turn to the proposed program and see if the program squares with the avowed policy.

In Paragraph 2, Page 3, we find in his program the following statement regarding big farmers:

" 'Our price committee has also suggested that there is good logical argument for including the proper allowance for hired farm labor in the revised or modernized parity index.' "

The Secretary here is in favor of adding labor costs to parity for hired labor.

For family-sized farms, however, the Secretary completely reverses himself and wants to deny the little farmer labor cost for himself, his wife and children. The Secretary continues as follows:

" 'I do want, however, to say specifically that I do not believe any allowance for unpaid farm labor should be included. The parity index is not a cost of production index. Parity measures the ration between CASH prices and rates PAID and cash prices received. Let's keep it that way.' "

Now, is that talking out of both sides of his mouth or not? The Secretary says that his policy is to encourage the family-sized farm. His program says that he is opposed to allowing pay for labor on family-sized farms.

In other words, the Secretary is in favor of allowing inclusion of labor in parity on big farms but is opposed to including labor in parity on family-sized farms.

The Secretary might just as well have said that he is in favor of destroying all family-sized farms and forcing the little fellow to come to town and get a job and turn the little farms over to corporations like that which has been operated in Mississippi by the British spinners for a number of years.

Every time we move a chip we find the hand of Great Britain, not only trying to run our foreign policy, but actually trying to run our domestic policy here at home. No wonder the little hirelings squeal and rant and want me to stop revealing these facts in the Market Bulletin. Were it not for the Market Bulletin, where would you get the truth about these things?

I quote from Page 7, Paragraphs, 1, 2 and 3, as follows:

" 'As we go forward in this task, let us remember that farm purchasing power is chronically low. Much is being said about the wealth which came to agriculture during the war. It is true that in agriculture, as in many other businesses, many people have made a great deal of money during the period of big demand and high prices. But many other people have shared only to a very small extent in the prosperity.

" 'No matter how you figure it most of the people in agriculture are in the low-income bracket of the country.

" 'That is my answer to the people who would have us believe that farm people are so well off that Congress should forget about them.' "

From the foregoing you would think that the Secretary of Agriculture was in full sympathy with farmers receiving better prices and yet today and through the months of the past, the Secretary of Agriculture has continually complained of farm prices being too high and has done everything within his power to force the farmers to sell their crops at lower prices than they were bringing in the open market. He complains about the farmer getting $3 for wheat in this country, while paying nearly $6 for Argentine wheat at the same time. He is now actively supporting the President's request for arbitrary power to force prices down. What kind of double talk is this, Mr. Secretary?

For several years, from time to time in the columns of the Market Bulletin, I have repeated the charge that the hard times following the first World War were due to international trading. The parrots in Washington have continually denied this and insisted that our salvation depended on international trade.

Let me quote you from Page 2, of the Programs:

" 'We should not forget that full employment does not automatically provide a good market for everything our farms may produce. For example, with substantially full employment in 1923, our wheat prices were abnormally low because of foreign surplus production.' "

Here the Secretary admits the truth of what I have contended all the time.

The questions that are to be answered by farmers number eighteen, with a number of subquestions. It is impossible to take all of these up and comment on them in the space of the Market Bulletin. From time to time I will continue to give you additional informationa about this Red Program of the United States Department of Agriculture.

In concluding this article, let me call your attention to a few facts, all of which are fully substantiated by a study of the policy and programs outlined by the Secretary of Agriculture.

SECRETARY ANDERSON'SS PROPOSED LONG RANGE FARM POLICY

This long-range agricultural program which is being advocated by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, is being handled in this State by T. R. Breedlove, Chairman of the USDA Council, former head of the Triple A in Georgia, and now Director of P. M. A.

In the proposal by Secretary Anderson there are eighteen questions asked (as stated elsewhere) and there are one to nine sub-questions under each head. All of these questions are misleading because they do not explain what the outcome would be so far as the farmer is concerned.

As an illustration: They ask you if you are in favor of continuing an ample supply of forest products, but in the Program they tell you that if this long-range program is put into law, the farmer will not be allowed to cut any timber without permission of some Federal Agent. This similar rule applies all through the Program as to crops and other commoditie which would come under the Programs

Another illustration: if this long-range program passes, the Soil Conservation people will map your place and tell you where to plant each crop. If you do not follow their plan and plant crops as designated by them, you will not be permitted to participate in soil-building payments or subsidies or other benefits should there be any. These are just a few of the high points which are contained in the program and additional information will follow in subsequent issues.

See some of the farmers who are planning to attend some of these County USDA meetings and have those farmers find out what is under cover in this program. The best information I can get from the material I have is that this long-range program is set up to give a lot of Federal workers a job and is not designed to help the farmer. As a matter of fact, this program is designed to Sovietize the American farmer and destroy the free and independent American farmer who, more than anyone else, has made our America possible.

If you love your farm and country, get busy and defeat this Anderson-Wallace Communistic Program.

TOM LINDER,
Commissioner of Agriculture

Start here, follow the maze, and see how time-and-labor-saving electricity helps a housewife skip through her maze of tasks each day.

It's a-MAZE-ing!

Husbands, please note! The average housewife performs 70 different tasks in her normal day's work! (Frankly, women will think this figure far too low, but it comes from the U. S. Government's Office of Education!)

Yes, home-making is a big job—but dependable, time-and-labor-saving electricity helps a housewife skip through her maze of tasks. Electric service saves her steps, lightens her work, gives her more leisure, makes life healthier and happier for her and all her family!

And it costs so little! In an era of sky-high prices, that same average housewife still gets twice as much electricity for her budget dollar as she got 20 years ago!

Yes, it is a-maze-ing!

Never before have we had such a tremendous demand for telephone service. Although we install a record number of telephones each month, the demand still increases. We are doing everything possible to speedily fill all requests for service. And when we have completed our job, the tremendous number of new installations will have increased the usefulness of the telephone to every subscriber in our community.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

From Sheepskin to Sheep

There aren't too many college graduates in our town. Good honest thinking, yes ... but most folks went from high school into farming.

No harm in that! But I admire veterans like Dick Newcomb ... who's 23, but going to college under the G.I. Bill of Rights. Intends to be a sheep farmer—but a better-informed, more scientific farmer, with more know-how!

And veterans like Dick aren't letting anything interfere. What little relaxation they allow themselves is in the form of needed exercise, or books, or conversation and an occasional glass of beer with friends.

Seems as if, just by having their education postponed, they've put a higher value on it ... and on things like temperance (that glass of beer, for instance), understanding, and good citizenship. And from where I sit, when Dick gets his sheepskin—he won't have lost much time. He'll be an even better farmer than his Dad. (Exactly what Dad wanted!)

FEAR
CAN CHEAT YOU!

There is grave evidence many poultrymen will fail to recognize — UNTIL TOO LATE — the optimistic fall outlook for highest egg prices on record. Failure to get chicks EARLY can cheat many a flock owner out of good profits early this fall. Wholesale liquidation of flocks in December of 1947 was nearly double December of 1946. And continued selling is still dangerously high. Remember what old timers said, "buy when every one else sells, sell when they are coaxing for it." February and early March chicks can get stout hearted poultrymen into the high priced egg bracket this fall. Sure, it takes courage. SELL A CULL—BUY 3 CHICKS. The feed one cull will eat in the next six months will feed three pullets up to laying time.

PILGRIMS LOSE TO LEXINGTON

With Rollin Ford of Lexington netting a field goal as the gun went off to end an overtime period, the Lexington Minutemen managed to slip by the Plymouth Pilgrims 41-39 in Friday night's game at Lexington.

The Pilgrims gave the Minutemen a real fight right down to the wire but they proved a bit too much for them. The Pilgrims lost three men by the personal foul route and the Minutemen lost 2.

The Pilgrims showed the Lexington five that they meant business as they jumped to a 12-10 first quarter lead. By the end of the first half the Pilgrims had increased their lead to 24-21. The Minutemen came back in the third stanza to outscore the Pilgrims 12-3 and gain a 33-27 lead at the start of the fourth period. The Plymouth quintet turned the tables in the fourth quarter and outscored them 9-3. As the regulation game ended, the Minutemen were ahead 36-35 but a Lexington player charged into Dean Grabach and the Sophomore Sharpshooter promptly proceeded to swish the foul shot through the net which tied the game at 36 all, and sent it into overtime.

The overtime period was a real thriller. Jim Burrer garnered the 3 points for Plymouth in the overtime but Ford's field goal in the closing seconds tripped up the Pilgrims.

Rollin Ford gained scoring honors for the evening as he hooped in 22 points while Des. Donnerwirth and Dean Grabach each netted 10 points to lead the scoring for the Pilgrims.

The Reserve game was a heartbreaker for the Pilgrim Juniors as they went down to defeat before the Lexington Reserves 21-19.

The game was a see-saw battle as the score was tied at the end of the first stanza 3-3 and was still tied at the half 7-7. The Minutemen Reserves managed to forge ahead in the third period 14-12. The two teams battled on even terms in the finale as each team scored 7 points but the Lexington Juniors just managed to win by the slim margin of 2 points, 21-19.

Louie Root gained scoring honors for the Plymouth Five as he netted 6 points.

FEATURED IN CAPITAL PAPER

Urbana Junior College, Urbana was featured in a two-page "lead" article in the Sunday Dispatch magazine section for Sunday, January 25th.

A 1200-word article by Mary Louise Swickard described the program and activities of the Urbana school which, with forty-nine students and a faculty of ten, is Ohio's smallest college. The college's emphases on individual instruction is pointed out by the Dispatch writer.

With the article were seven photographs, including many members of the student body. The college's present enrollment (in addition to those from Urbana and from other states and foreign countries) includes: Patricia S. Hoffman of Plymouth, Ohio.

'HOME STRETCH'

Huron County Treasurer, Harold B. Collier, reports that his office is coming in on the home stretch with real estate tax collection for the first half of 1947, with Saturday, January 31, 1948, as the deadline. There will be no extension of time and after this date penalty must be charged in accordance with law.

The treasurer states that with the exception of Saturday and Monday of this week when the deep snow kept a few people away, the office has been the scene of a rush of taxpayers.

"With more than half the money already collected, and more in the hands of Deputy Collectors, in outlying towns, this week should finish in very good shape," remarks the treasurer, adding that the office will remain open until 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Contrary, also, to the belief of many the office never closes on Wednesday afternoons.

GUEST SPEAKER

C. K. Whistler, Director of Livestock Marketing of the Indiana Farm Bureau, Indianapolis, Indiana, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of members of Producers Livestock Cooperative Association of Bucyrus and Galion, according to William Miller, manager.

The annual meeting will be held at 8 o'clock the evening of February 2nd in the Central school in North Robinson. This site was chosen because of its central location in the area served by the Bucyrus and Galion Markets.

Members attending the meeting will elect five representatives to the Advisory Committee for the markets, Mr. Miller said. The terms of Robert Wagner, Carl Clime and Kenneth Snyder of the Bucyrus area, and of Paul Cahill of Tiro and L. J. Gledhill of Galion, expire in February.

Wilbur Kalb of New Washington is chairman of the committees. Other members are Luther Young of Sycamore; William Bayer of Crestline; and J. F. Hartwell of Bucyrus.

Refreshments will be served by the Grange ladies of North Robinson, the manager reported, and music will be provided by the Baublitz orchestra of New Washington.

BETHANY CLASS MEETING TUESDAY

Mrs. P. W. Thomas will entertain members of the Bethany class of the Methodist Church next Tuesday evening, February 3rd.

ALPHA GUILD CHANGES MEETING DATE

Members of the Alpha Guild will meet Monday evening with Miss Jessie Trauger, February 2. There will be a sack lunch. Members are urged to note the change in date, the meeting usually being held on Tuesday.

Release B. & O. Financial Report

New York, N. Y. Tentative figures in the 1947 income account of the Baitimore and Ohio Railroad, as presented at the meeting of the directors of the company, held here, indicate that railway operating revenues totaled about $360,000,000 or, roundly, $55,000,000 more than in 1946.

Operating expenses increased about $25,000,000, and net revenue from railway operations amounted to about $59,000,000, or an increase of about $29,000,000 as compared with 1946. Operating deductions, consisting principally of taxes, at about $30,000,000 showed an increase over 1946 of roundly $26,000,000, this reflecting the credit carry back on taxes of about $20,000,000 taken into account in 1946 income.

Railroad retirement and railroad unemployment taxes for 1947 increased more than $4,500,000 as compared with the preceding year because of the Crosser amendment to the Railroad Retirement Act. Income from dividends and from other securities showed an increase in 1947 of about $1,000,000 over 1946, while net income for 1947 at nearly $9,000,000 is more than $4,000,000 higher than for the preceding year.

Announce Schedule For Vets Benefit

Mr. C. D. Weidemaier, Manager of the Mansfield Veterans Ad ministration Office reminds veterans that they may receive local assistance with their Veterans Benefits and problems.

Mr. R. W. Schmunk, Contact Representative from the Mansfield VA Office is in Shelby, O., the third Tuesday of each month from 8:30 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. While in Shelby, Mr. Schmunk makes his headquarters in the Administration Building at the Shelby Air Depot.

Mr. Schmunk will assist veterans and their dependents in applying for any of the Veterans Administration benefits and will answer questions relative to: Disability compensation or pension; hospitalization, or out-patient medical or dental treatment for service-connected disabilities; education or training under the G. I. Bill of Rights; vocational rehabilitation under Public Law 16 for disabled veterans; loans guaranteed by the VA for the purchase or construction of a home, farm, or business; National Service Life and U. S. Government Life Insurance including the reinstatement and conversion thereof; death benefits for dependents of veterans; or any other benefit administered by the Veterans Administration.

Mr. Weidemaier states that, in most cases, Mr. Schmunk could handle the veterans' problems and benefits locally, thereby eliminating the veterans' expense of traveling to the Mansfield office.

3 Unions Block Labor Peace—Refuse Wage Boost Already Accepted by 19 Other Railroad Unions!

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union of North America, representing 125,000 railroad employes, have refused to accept the offer of the Railroads of a wage increase of 15½ cents an hour.

This is the same increase awarded 1,000,000 non-operating employes by an arbitration board in September, 1947.

This is the same increase accepted by 175,000 conductors, trainmen and switchmen by agreement on November 14, 1947.

Agreements have been made with 1,175,000 employes, represented by nineteen unions. But these three unions, representing only 125,000 men, are trying to get more. They are demanding also many new working rules not embraced in the settlement with the conductors and trainmen.

Incidentally, the Switchmen's Union of North America represents only about 7% of all railroad switchmen, the other 93% being represented by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and covered by the settlement with that union.

Strike Threat

The leaders of these three unions spread a strike ballot while negotiations were still in progress. This is not a secret vote but is taken by union leaders and votes are signed by the employes in the presence of union representatives.

When direct negotiations failed, the leaders of these three unions refused to join the railroads in asking the National Mediation Board to attempt to settle the dispute, but the Board took jurisdiction at the request of the carriers and has been earnestly attempting since November 24, 1947, to bring about a settlement. The Board on January 15, 1948, announced its inability to reach a mediation settlement. The leaders of the unions rejected the request of the Mediation Board to arbitrate. The railroads accepted.

What Now?

The Unions having refused to arbitrate, the Railway Labor Act provides for the appointment of a fact-finding board by the President.

The railroads feel it is due shippers, passengers, employes, stockholders, and the general public to know that throughout these negotiations and in mediation, they have not only exerted every effort to reach a fair and reasonable settlement, but they have also met every requirement of the Railway Labor Act respecting the negotiation, mediation, and arbitration of labor disputes.

It seems unthinkable that these three unions, representing less than 10 per cent of railroad employes, and those among the highest paid, can successfully maintain the threat of a paralyzing strike against the interest of the entire country—and against 90 per cent of their fellow employes.

The threat of a strike cannot justify granting more favorable conditions to 125,000 employes than have already been put in effect for 1,175,000, nor will it alter the opposition of the railroads to unwarranted wage increases or to changes in working rules which are not justified.

A glance at the box shows what employes represented by the Engineers and Firemen make. They are among the highest paid in the ranks of labor in the United States, if not the highest.

Compare these wages with what you make!

Here is a comparison of average annual earnings of engineers and firemen for 1939 (prewar) and 1947. Also shown is what 1947 earnings would have been if the 15½ cents per hour increase, offered by the railroads and rejected by the union leaders, had been in effect throughout the entire year 1947.

SURPRISE!

Edward Ramsey, manager of the Plymouth Theatre, was surprised Monday evening when his nephew P. F. C. Hugh Washburn, whom he thought was enjoying the sunny climes of Panama appeared at his back door.

P. F. C. Washburn has been stationed in Panama for the past nine months and about four months ago was joined by his wife, the former Miss Betty Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Webb of Willard.

An Army C-47 was making a flight to Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, and Hugh had a chance to fly in as Student Radio Operator. The trip was approximately 3500 miles and the plane got into Dayton last Thursday. He left Tuesday for Mobile, Alabama, where he will again board the plane for the return trip. In the meantime, he enjoyed a few days visit with his folks and relatives in the community. He states the temperature in Panama remains about 80 degrees, both day and night, and that the Army really makes it nice for their boys in service. Rent was only $16.00 per month which includes an electric stove, an electric refrigerator and electric service. Both he and his wife like Panama.

2300 CARS STOP TO VIEW NATIVITY SCENE

John Lanius of the Lanius funeral home in New Washington estimates that approximately 2300 cars stopped to view the Nativity scene at the funeral home during the holiday season.

Mr. Lanius expects to arrange another Christmas scene next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanius are former Plymouth residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ross are great grandparents for the seventh time last Thursday when a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Kuhn, R. D. 1, Mansfield at the Shelby Memorial Hospital. The new arrival will be named Samuel Steven.

HUMOROUS VALENTINES HAND LOVERS A LAUGH

LOVE is not only light hearted this year—it's positively light headed!

St. Valentine's Day is Saturday, February 14, and little Dan Cupid expects to score bull's-eyes on his customary large quota of love-smitten swains—if he can only keep from laughing!

For Valentines are full of humor this year, packed with jokes and zany cartoons. Romance certainly takes a gentle ribbing—as Adam might have punned after Eve was created

The caustic "comic Valentines" of years ago are gone, and in their place are kidding "slam messages" but whether you're aiming to provoke a chuckle or a heart throb, there are plenty of clever, carefree Valentines to choose from for brothers and sisters, school chums, and friends as well as sweethearts.

Not that the tender "hearts and flowers" sentiments are lacking. You can still send Valentines that declare "I love you truly" with satin and lace trimmings. But if you're really out to make an impression this year, you'll probably send a modern love missive that goes—

"If you won't be my Valentine,
I'll cry—Alas! Alack!
'N' wish, 'n' wish, 'n' wish, 'n' wish,
I had my own ...

S. S. MANAGER ISSUES DATA

The beginning of the new year finds many families taking inventory of their insurance policies and making plans to safeguard their family's future. To make this inventory complete, particular care should be taken to see that the social security card is included with these valuable papers.

Mr. Edward P. Blonston, Manager of the Mansfield office of the Social Security Administration, recently stated, "Too few people realize that their social security card represents an insurance policy with the Federal Government — an insurance policy which may at death pay thousands of dollars in monthly payments to survivors. This policy may also mean monthly payments to the holder at age 65 who has worked the required length of time in employment covered by the Social Security Act.

"Each worker upon attainment of age 65 should call at the local office of the Social Security Administration with his card to determine his status under this program. When a worker dies his survivors should contact the nearest social security office for assisting in filing claims for death benefits, "Mr. Blonston said.

Sales people and others who were temporarily employed during the recent holiday season should now safeguard their social security cards for use in future employment. A social security misplaced or lost causes unnecessary cost in administering the social security program and in many instances inconveniences the worker.

Mr. Blonston said that during the year 1947, 3,101 persons applied for duplicate social security cards in his office. The loss of some of these cards was unavoidable but he thinks far too many were lost because of carelessness or a lack of understanding of their value.

The Mansfield office, which is located in the Richland Trust Bldg., is open from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. Monday through Friday.

COMPENSATION GIVEN 49 VETS

World War II disabled veterans residing in Plymouth are awarded approximately $2,058.00 in government compensation each month, it was estimated by national headquarters of the Disabled American Veterans in Cincinnati.

This estimate was based on a recent survey by the DAV which shows that the average monthly compensation being paid to veterans of World War II is $42.01. In an earlier estimate the DAV placed the number of World War II disabled veterans living in Plymouth at forty-nine.

Wm. E. Tate, National Director for Claims, said monthly compensation is awarded by the government for disabilities and handicaps incurred in the armed forces of the nation.

"Disabled veterans are paid by a grateful government," Tate said, "to help them live a normal life and become useful citizens in their communities."

Pointing out that the present compensation average is far from adequate in maintaining a disabled veteran and his family, Tate said the DAV is urging Congress to enact a law which will provide dependency allowances for handicapped ex-servicemen.

"The public should be aware," DAV Director Tate said, "that its obligation to the disabled veteran is a continuing job."

He urged every eligible veteran to become a member of the DAV, stating that "only through mass membership can our voice be heard and only thru strength can we help our less fortunate comrades."

The DAV has estimated the average compensation for veterans of World War I as $53.89.

ONE CAMP SITE OFFERED VETS

Ever since the end of the war, veterans have inquired about re-enlisting into the Army and be guaranteed their entire enlistment at one post or camp. According to M. Sgt. Loren Portman, Commander of the U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Station in the Norwalk Post Office, a veteran of any of the armed forces, that have had overseas service since Sept. 2, 1945 may enlist for any one of eight permanent camps and be assured of staying there for a minimum period of three years.

Sgt. Portman said these camps are:

Fort Lewis, Washington
Fort Worden, Washington
Fort Jackson, S. C.
Fort Bragg, N. C.
Fort Knox, Ky.
Fort Ord, Calif.
Fort Dix, New Jersey
Camp Hood, Texas

Any veteran from either the Army, Navy, Marines or Coast Guard, may choose any one of these camps and will be sent directly to this camp, without first going through a processing or training station. Veterans may enlist in the grade they held at time of discharge, provided its not higher than sergeant or the 4th pay grade and were discharged after May 12, 1945.

These individuals who are interested may phone 1010 in Norwalk, for particulars or contact the recruiters in Room 5 in the Post Office Bldg.

T-B X-Rays Disclose Advanced Case

The mass X-ray held at the Huron County Fair, August 26-29, 1947, has disclosed one far advanced, active case of tuberculosis and another questionable case on which tests are not yet complete.

The mobile unit owned by the Ohio State Department of Health was brought here by the Huron County Department of Health, with the Huron Co. T-B & Health Association, acting as cosponsor. 1672 people were filmed, and there were twenty-six positives out of this number.

The follow-up work of checking the twenty-six questionable films was conducted by the Huron County Department of Health.

Plans for the tuberculosis control program for 1948 are not yet completely formulated.

2300 DOG TAGS ARE ISSUED

With complete returns not yet available the current registration of dogs exceeded previous years. More than 2300 were registered at the Auditor's Office, which was about 500 more than in 1947, as of January 20th. Miss Eunice Hall registered 440 in New London, 40 over last year, E. G. Young and Dale Stearns registered 680 in Willard, 60 in excess of 1947 and in Greenwich Loy Beveridge exceeded 1947 with 242.

From present indications about 700 dog owners more than usual registered their dogs on time. Every effort was made by the Auditor's office to bring the final date to every dog owner through publicity, so that dog owners would not have to pay penalty. While the campaign was successful, it fell short of the 5000 registrations that were expected, and it is estimated that approximately a 1000 dogs remain without tags.

From dog registration the Auditor's Office moves into the rush of preparation for personal tax which starts on February 15th.

WARNS AGAINST CHICK DISEASE

C. M. Ferguson, Extension Poultryman at Ohio State University, warns Ohio poultry producers of Newcastle Disease. According to Ferguson, there have been outbreaks in nearly every part of the state.

There are no cures—no drugs—no treatments. Vaccination is a hope but until more evidence is available, its use is uncertain.

Precautions against Newcastle, as other diseases, remains the best solution. Mr. Ferguson recently proposed nine steps in guarding against the disease:

1. Don't bring coops or other equipment from another farm into your houses.
2. Don't invite neighbors into your chicken house, particularly if they are in trouble.
3. Take your own feed sacks to the mill or buy feed in new sacks. Don't bring some other fellows trouble home.
4. Buy Baby-chicks in preference to started chicks.
5. If you sell hatchin eggs, report any serious drop in production to your hatcheryman at once. Don't deliver eggs unless you have been assured your drop was not due to Newcastle.
6. After Newcastle, don't sell hatching eggs for thirty days after the birds return to normal.
7. Get a diagnosis—be sure—talk to your local veterinarian. He may not be equipped to do a laboratory diagnosis. If he is not then—
8. Use the laboratory in the Veterinary College at Ohio State University. Dr. Ingalls is in charge.
9. FAKE, don't ship, birds which may have Newcastle Disease to the Laboratory.

Further information about this diagnostic service may be assured at the Agricultural Extension Office.

STATE PLANS PARK SITES

According to a statement issued recently by George B. Sowers, state public works director, Ohio should be the owner of one of the best beaches in the state outside of Cedar Point.

If plans go through, the state will become owner of a 500-acre lake front, located a few miles northwest of Painesville, off State Route 283. The average width of the beach is said to be approximately 200 feet, and behind it is a great hinterland of sand dunes.

After conferring with New York Central railroad officials, Sowers stated that the railroad would fix a price on Feb. 6, for the 245 acres owned by it.

The estimated cost of the beach property is said to be around $300,000.

Sowers also reported that negotiations have been started to acquire the William G. Schaeffer property at Beaver Creek in Lorain county for use as a state park.

This 33-acre tract of lake-front land will include a wide beach, a lagoon for boats, a new bath house and plenty of room for thirty-four cottages.
