Market 595 Lambs At Greenwich Pool

A total of 592 lambs, the highest number to date, were marketed at the Greenwich Lamb Pool on January 13th. Approximately 40 percent of the lambs that went through the Pool had been clipped. Sheep and lamb producers are more and more taking advantage of the approved method of finishing lambs where the pelt is removed far enough ahead of marketing for the lambs to have approximately a three-fourths clip at the time of marketing. This will do two things: 1. The producer gets the premium for the pelt. 2. The lamb will continue to gain where otherwise it may decrease in weight. The clipped lambs that went through the Pool sold for 50-cents under the price for their particular grade.

THE SQUARE

By Phineas Whitteosed HIGH WINDS Tuesday night made quite a few television antennas look like an old man bent over with age, and repairmen were busy all day Wednesday making repairs. Freakish noticed in the pictures were reported by a number of set-operators, who, at first didn't know what caused the funny-looking shapes... but examination of aerials Wednesday morning explained everything.

NOT BECAUSE he's the local

Lutheran pastor, but because he naturally fitted into a place in Plymouth which has been vacant, is the main reason for so many expressions of regret that he's leaving town. Yes, we're referring to Rev. Paul (Pat) Paetznick, who has won for himself hundreds of friends from all walks of life, including non-church members. Well, anyway, we must admit his pulpit in Bucyrus will be empty for a time, and his services and more work, and we know Rev. Paetznick will be capable of doing a good job, and an added asset to the community in Bucyrus.

ALTHOUGH it has been years since Mrs. Lottie Trego left Plymouth, she still finds the home paper "must" on her list and again subscribes to the Advertiser. Mrs. Trego resides at Pavilion, Wyoming.

WE STILL ARGUE that if the marshall is to continue his school zone speeding drive that regulation markings should be placed in the Plymouth school zone, the highway should be marked through-out the state. The bunch of jumped up lettering which is now on the pavement doesn't mean a thing to the driver, and not legible, at 20 miles an hour. A five foot white letter with the word "school" painted clear across the highway would be accepted standard for motorists to take note they are entering a school zone. We hope the mayor, the police committee and those responsible for the enforcement of the school zone speed will make an effort to let out-of-town motorists know they are entering a school zone.

THIS LITTLE item isn't publicity for Ed Hanyard of Plymouth. Theater, but for those movie-goers who have become fed up with about every type of picture. Well, just make a mark on your calendar for next week-end to see one of the best and funniest movies ever made. Get ready for laugh after laugh when you see Red Skelton as a spy in "Frank Always in a Fix". His exposure... in "A Southern Yankee." It's the laugh hit of the year and you'll appreciate the tip... that is if you remember to go to see it on Thursday, Friday or Saturday.

THE EXPRESSIONS of regret heard around the Square last Friday when news of the death of Frank Landefeld was learned definitely proves that a man can have many friends. And we know of no other who had more than Frank. Always a genial, no matter how he felt, he talked about things of interest, especially those on the lighter side of life. And when a friend died, he was always willing and ready to give suggestions... his pleasantness always made his presence a pleasure. Frank's death will be noticed for a long time to come.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Who's A Foreigner?

While I'm waiting for a haircut the other day, Slim Hartman lets slip with a crack about those "foreigners" who live by the depot.

"Now wait a minute, Slim," snaps Doc Sherman. "Don't forget we're all 'foreigners' more or less. Some of our families have simply been here longer than others. But even if they came over on the Mayflower, they were foreigners to the Indians."

Slim gets a little red and you could see that Doc had him. "And the reason they came here," he goes on, "was to find freedom to do and think as they wanted to so long as they didn't tramp on the rights of the other fellow."

From where I sit, America became the great land it is today through our being tolerant of different people and different tastes—whether it's a taste for square dancing or waltzing, radio or movies, goat's milk or a temperate glass of sparkling beer.

The lecture given by Rev. W. Torbet in the M. E. Church last Sunday evening was listened to and enjoyed by a large congregation. The subject, "Heredity and Environment" was handled in a scholarly and pleasing manner and reflects great credit on the speaker. It was the first of a series of monthly Sunday evening lectures to be delivered by Rev. Torbet.

Hallowe'en passed off rather quietly at this place this year. Much of the hilarious old time demonstration has been dispensed with, and the evening is celebrated in a manner which is progressively more fitting and appropriate to the age in which it is expected that all are to enjoy the evening, but it can be done, and is being done, without recourse to the destruction of property which once characterized the festivities.

Mrs. Josiah Dick, one of the old residents of this neighborhood at Tiffin, Ohio, October 29, 1895, aged 23 years, 7 months and 27 days. The funeral was held in the M. E. Church at this place, Wednesday, October 30th and was in charge of the pastor of the church. The text was taken from the Gospel according to John, where the Savior comforts the disciples and says so tenderly: "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me; in My house are many mansions; if I go to prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you to myself, that where I am ye may be also." Let us all so live that we may look forward to the coming of Jesus with joy, and have a place at last in one of the many mansions of our Father's house.

Under the direction of the County Auditor nearly four hundred appraisals have been made of new buildings and residences in Huron County since August. Since only a comparative few report their buildings as required, some errors have developed in placing the new appraisals on the tax duplicate in the correct tax year. It is difficult to tell the exact time the building was completed, unless there is a report from the owner. Building permits while a great help do not give the time of completion, only the approximate time when the building was intended to be started.

Only seven complaints have been registered in the entire County as to appraised values. Extreme care has been exercised in making the computations. Considerable overtime was required by Auditor office personnel to place the appraised values on current tax statements, so taxpayers could have the opportunity to meet their taxes in the two customary installments. Treasurer's office personnel also assisted.

Inasmuch as it was impossible to catch up with five years of building in six months, appraisals will continue, and those that were completed in time for the 1948 tax year will be included on the June tax statements. When all building, up to and including the 1948 tax year has been appraised, the law requiring a written report to the Auditor will be enforced.

Bellville Tops Pilgrims

The Bellville Bluejays turned back the Plymouth Pilgrims 55-46 on the Pilgrim court last Friday.

The game remained fairly close during the first half as Bellville led by only five points at half-time, 22-17. But that third quarter was what jinxed the Pilgrim again as they could find the hoop for only 7 points while Bellville hit for 13 to lead 35-24 going into the final stanza. The Jays kept right on pulling away up until the final minutes. Then the Pilgrims started to rally but it was too late, though they did cut the victory margin to 9 points.

Des Donnerwirth was high point man for the evening as he flipped 22 points through the net.

Bill Smith and Bill Balliet were high for the Blue Jays with 19 and 18 point respectively.

The reserve game also went to Bellville as they defeated the Plymouth reserves 38-28.

The Pilgrim juniors led 10-7 at the end of the first quarter but fell behind 18-13 by half-time. From there on in it was all Bellville as they were ahead 26-21 at the start of the finale and went on to win 38-28.

Tall Jack Cunningham led the scoring with 15 points. The Glen Burrer paced Plymouth with 10 points on 4 goals and 2 foul shots.

Doings in Congress

By Congressman Wm. Lemke
Lost, strayed or stolen—the United Nations Organization. This organization was formed by the so-called fifty-two peace loving nations. The designation "peace loving nations" was a deception. Some of these nations at that time or have since engaged in aggression—robbing other nations of their territory, and in many instances liquidating—murdering—their inhabitants.

Others were engaged in evicting millions of families and moving them from one country into the congested areas of another. It made no difference that these people and their ancestors had occupied these homes for generations. Millions of them disappeared during this eviction. They were starved to death or murdered on the highways and byways. This is part of the performance, since the war, of some of the fifty-two peace loving nations.

The UN started out with lofty declarations. It forgot, however, to incorporate into its charter the so-called Four Freedoms that were so proudly and loudly proclaimed by its authors, and so universally accepted by a war tired world. Then later they were conveniently lost as mere notes made on a piece of tissue paper, and handed to some flunky, who later, it was claimed, went down with a British warship in the Pacific, notes and all.

Since that time, the UN has attempted to stop some aggressors. It issued orders to Russia in connection with the Berlin blockade. It ordered the Dutch Government to stop aggression in Indonesia. It issued these orders to the present Dutch Queen, whose Government we freed.

The Dutch Government has given lip service to these orders but has continued its aggression. It is practicing all the outrages that Hitler practiced when he invaded the Netherlands. The sad thing is that our Government, by its silence, is apparently conniving with Holland and Great Britain in this brutality against the Indonesians. In face, we are supplying the Government of Holland, directly or indirectly, with the munitions of war and armaments.

Years ago a former foreman on the former queen's tobacco plantation in Sumatra told me how the Indonesian laborers were forced to work for 10c to 25c a day. Then if they refused to work, they were brutally beaten. The brutality with which the Dutch have treated the Indonesians is a sad commentary. The time has come that we back up the UN rather than remain silent or give assistance to such outrages.

Again, there is the Palestine question. The UN has issued orders that bloodshed cease. Again, apparently, we are on one side of the issue and Great Britain on the other. Since the orders of the UN have been deserted, the Holy Land has been ordered with human blood. Yet our State Department remains discreetly silent.

New London Downs Plymouth

The New London Wildcats put on a strong third quarter rally Tuesday evening to down the Plymouth Pilgrims 63-51.

The Wildcats went into the lead in the first quarter 12-9 and at half time still maintained a slim 27-26 lead.

But then in the third quarter the Pilgrims just couldn't get going and the Wildcats could. The visitors dropped in 16 points in that quarter while the local five could manage but 4.

So with their 45-39 lead, going into the final period, the New London quintet had the game all wrapped. The last stanza was a real thriller as it saw four Plymouth men one on the from the opposition ejected from the game via the personal foul route.

Ronald Trauger was high point man for Plymouth with 16 points. The Wildcats went into the lead in the first quarter 12-9 and at half time still maintained a slim 27-26 lead.

Bob Eichelberry netted 11 points and Alan Ford dropped in 8 to set the pace for Plymouth.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all those who assisted in the burial of our father and grandfather, especially to the McQuate Funeral Home. The neighbors, to Rev. Manson, and to all those who were so kind to us in our time of bereavement.

Files Alienation Suit Against His Wife's Father

NORWALK—Charles Clark, Jr., Wakeman, has been named defendant in an alienation of affection suit for $150,000 by his son-in-law, Karl E. Schauss, Norwalk. The damages sought are the largest in this type of case in the history of Huron-co.

harbored her against the consent and peaceful efforts of the plaintiff to prevent it.
Deprived of his wife, Schauss contends he has suffered "great distress of body and mind."

Rev. L. E. Smith Officiates At Wedding of Daughter, Sunday

At the Methodist Church in Doylstown Sunday afternoon at 3:30, Miss Ethel Maurine Smith, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Smith of Plymouth was married to Mr. Albert J. Pontius, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Pontius, Sr. of Doylstown. Officiating was the bride's father, Rev. L. E. Smith of Plymouth.

The church was softly illuminated by candlelight for the double ring Methodist marriage ritual. Beauty baskets, filled with red gladioli were flanked by two seven-branched candelabra against a background of palms and ferns and the altar vases were also filled with red gladioli.

While guests were being seated by ushers, Dick Johnston and James Pontius of Doylstown, Leonard A. Smith, a brother of the bride, presented two organ selections, "Largo" by Handel and "Dream of Love," List. Robert Bragg, soloist sang "Oh! Sweet Mystery of Life" and "O! Promise me" and was accompanied by Mrs. Jane Williams of Doylstown. Mrs. Williams also presented a program of nuptial music as the candelabra were lit by the candlebearers, James Smith of Plymouth, sister of the bride, and Judy Meyers, wearing skirts of white crepe and blouses of brocade satin with short peplins, and who remained standing with their lighted tapers during the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her uncle B. R. Beeler of Indianapolis, Ind., the bride wore a very beautiful gown of white satin, made with fitted basque, off the shoulder yoke with net insert, and who remained standing with their lighted tapers during the ceremony.

The bride's full length illusion veil was edged with white embroidery and was caught to a tiam fashioned from gold wire. Her bride's bouquet was an arrangement of red roses and ferns.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Madeline L. Meyers, of Niles, Ohio, and she wore a gown of aqua satin with long scalloped peplin and carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Virginia Pontius, sister of the groom and Jacqueline Languth, Doylstown, who wore gowns made similar to the matron of honor in Fuchsia and gold colored satin, respectively and carried Colonial bouquets of white carnations.

Jack Dorricot of Doylstown was Mr. Pontius' best man.

Mrs. Smith attended her daughter's wedding in a black faille dress, with matching shoes, gloves and a pink fabric hat with flower trim. Mrs. Pontius was attired in a grey crepe dress, black accessories and both wore white carnation shoulder corsages.

The wedding reception was held in the social parlors of the church where guests were served from a prettily decorated table centered with the three tiered wedding cake topped with small figurines of bride and groom and three wedding bells. The wedding party were seated at a separate table decorated in white and green and lighted tapers.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Pontius will reside in Ashland where Mr. Pontius will enter Ashland college on January 31st.

Both the bride and groom were graduates from the Doylstown High School, class of 1945, and Mr. Pontius also attended the Actual Business College of Akron and has been employed at the Diamond Hatch Company in Rittman. He is also a World War two veteran.

Mrs. Pontius has been employed as secretary in the Public Relations Department of the B. F. Goodrich Company, Akron.

Guests were present from Akron, Norwalk, Niles, Barberton, Canton, Massillon, Plymouth, Doylstown and Indianapolis, Ind.

Legion News

Activity at the American Legion home remained the same as last week, with the exception of a meeting held on Friday.

Although the meetings are for Legionnaires only, an invitation to social members had been given, in order that they may become familiar with Legion activities. It is only fair that the social members know about that of which they are a member.

Too, to know just how they stand, their duties on Friday night were as expected, but it's certainly showing promise. There seems to be so many other things doing on Friday, and of course we can't be everywhere at once. Soon the bowling and basketball games will be out. Therefore instead of the dances being a promise, they will be an actuality.

After all we have the best band in this section, and people just can't let fine music go to waste. Everyone likes music, and most everyone like to dance. Therefore, with the music and a swell place to dance, I can't see how anyone could stay away. Many don't work on Saturday, so Friday night would be the time for a night.

One SMALL item I would like to mention. Some time ago you may remember the article in this paper was included "A good way to kill your Post." Thinking this would bring results that item was printed, but it seems it did no good. Now here's the dig.

The same guys are still doing the same duties, and in turn keeping the ball going. These guys work every day, and have other duties of importance too, but still they find a little time to devote much of their time to help out. It's the same guys all the time. We have more than a hundred members, and still it's the same eight or ten fellows doing the work. After all, it's not fair. It's only fair that the rest of the members help out once in a while.

It takes more than just your officers to run a post and to keep it progressing. Remember this — "A club or post is only as progressive as its membership." If the members just don't give a darn, that's the way our club will be.
