

Survey of Village To Be Made; Committee To Study Salaries

RENUMBERING OF HOUSES AND LAND LOTS TO BE STARTED SOON

Preparatory to renumbering houses in Plymouth a complete survey of all parcels of ground within the village will be made, and a complete check-up on all street widths and alleys will be recorded. The decision to bring all village records up to date, and to make an accurate survey of all land lots and homes was approved by the village council at its first meeting of the new year, which was held Tuesday night.

Charles R. Blosser, engineer, who is connected with the Design Associates, of Mansfield, was awarded the contract for surveying the village. Mr. Blosser will make a comprehensive study of all the county records in both the Huron and Richland counties to gain the necessary information before starting work in checking the land lines, lots and residences in Plymouth.

Following the survey a map of the village will be constructed and all data collected with proper grids for determining house numbers. The map will be made, and concrete monuments will permanently mark the corner lines of lots and blocks.

Work on the project is to be started immediately, and the cost is estimated at $2,000. For many years the village has been far behind in keeping accurate records on land lines, street numbers, streets and lots.

Mayor Robinson indicated that the surveying would start just as soon as Engineer Blosser made a preliminary study of county records.

To Study Salaries Clerk Cunningham informed the mayor and council that the 1950 budget for the village would have to be ready in July so that it could be submitted to the budget commission. Salaries are set at $425, which includes the work of council, park board and cemetery board.

At present the mayor's salary is $380 per year, and councilmen receive $120 per annum. The clerk's salary is set at $425, which includes the work of council, park board and cemetery board.

Mr. Simmons has sold his 126 acre farm on the North Street Road to Virgil Fackler of near Steubenville. Possession will be given around the 21st of the month.

Rest Room Being Painted, Cleaned

If the women's rest room in the village is a criterion by which Plymouth's moral standards are to be judged, then the rating is way down below par. This is evidenced in which the work of the rest room has been marked up with lipstick with the most vulgar and vile language that can be possibly thought by the younger generation.

In fact several complaints have been received not only by the mayor, but by this newspaper, as to conditions that prevail in the rest room. The mayor's council have become incensed over the abuse given the women's rest rooms, and as a result they are being newly painted and repaired.

At the beginning of the new year the mayor's council reported that both departments are well supplied with everything needed for complete operation of the milliding line with Mr. Rooks pointed out that the light and water department can be operated successfully and efficiently without any interruption from any source for a period of several years.

Painting of the rest rooms, and necessary repairs are now in progress and the work should be completed by the end of the month. The village wants to continue the facilities of a comfort station, it is going to be maintained in a decent manner for public use, so that the mayor and council and youngsters should keep this in mind, that the officials are going to do more than just TALK.

Light & Water In Good Shape

A review of the year's work was given at the first meeting of the year held Monday night by the Board of Public Affairs, composed of Harold Cashman, president, E. Scott and W. Thomas, and Clerk Guy Cunningham.

At the close of the year, inventories in both the light and water departments were down to rock bottom. There were very few light and water meters on hand, transformers were scarce, poles, and other equipment were missing in the stock pile.

One of the outstanding improvements made in recent months is the new "outdoor" switch that has been installed on the lines of those of the Ohio Power Co., which supply electrical energy to the village.

McQuate's Store Gets New Floor

The old wavy wooden floor at McQuate's furniture store has been replaced with a new concrete floor. Work has already started and is being done by Messrs. Paul Koonitz and Joe Lillo.

Earl McQuate, proprietor, states that the floor will be all concrete and will be four inches lower than the present height. The new floor will give a new appearance to the store, and will enable a better display of the fine furniture for which McQuate's has gained a wide reputation.

There is no basement under any portion of the building, which is one of the oldest structures in the village, but the general condition of the upper portion of the store is excellent in shape.

For the next two weeks the store will be closed on Wednesday and Saturday nights due to the renovation.

Mr. McQuate is to be congratulated for this improvement, and with other features he expects to continue to attract business.

Butler 5 Win Over Pilgrims

The Butler Bulldogs won over the Plymouth Pilgrims 45-34 last Tuesday.

The Bulldogs, winless in their first five starts in league play this season, jumped into the lead and just refused to give up, as they trounced the Pilgrim quintet.

The game in one way was an improvement for the Pilgrims as they allowed the Butler five only ten attempts from the free throw line.

The Pilgrims just could not hit the basket Tuesday night as they attempted 62 field goals and made good just 14 of them for an average of .225, while the Bulldogs attempted 48 and made 20 of them for a mark of .437.

Donneman and Tilton led the scoring for the evening as each dropped in 15 points.

The reserve game was a different story however as the Plymouth boys did bring this one home by the score of 22-15.

Donathan paced the Plymouth scorers as he wished 8 points through the nets.

Area In The Square

By PHINEAS WHITLEDGE THE CHINESE WINTER shortage which has prevailed on numerous farms in this section should be ended by now. With the continued rainfall over the week-end, and through Wednesday, the ground has become well saturated.

E. B. MILLER, Don Ford, Earl McQuate and Ye Editor made an inspection tour of the jail on Wednesday morning through the courtyard of Bob Meiser. No doubt some of the populace will agree that we all should be locked up, especially seeing the many improvements which lack only a shower and smoking stand, we agree that it isn't a bad place to be, even with nice weather prevailing.

JUST IN CASE some of our male readers are getting "thin seats" it might be of interest to note that Jumps is offering an extra pair of pants with each suit ordered. A sales inducement has been absent a long time, and we assume it's an indication of forthcoming low prices, not this year, but possibly next. Anyway, look into the trouser deal... it's a cinch you won't lose your pants.

STARTING IN AS A CARPENTER back in 1902, today Albert Eckstein is still following his trade... and holding his weight, too, at around 140. Married in 1909, Mr. and Mrs. Eckstein became the parents of three daughters, Mrs. Seffeld of Youngstown, Clara Bell Cole of Tiro, and Mrs. Alice Raubaug, Willard. In 1911 Mr. and Mrs. Eckstein moved to a farm west of Plymouth, and here they resided until 1914, then Mr. Eckstein went on the Skinner farm, north of Tiro, in 1920. The family moved to Willard, and Albert took up the saw and hammer again, and since that time he has been busy. He was in Plymouth this week doing a job over at the telephone office.

There's one feature we admire about Albert... his "sub" expired 1-1-49, and he paid up to January 1950... that's taking Frank Lamoreaux's name, especially the way we feel at times... must be that age is having its effect. Thanks, Albert... good seeing you again.

Private funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock from the Bender funeral home in Greenwich for Daniel H. Lamoreaux, an infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lamoreaux, who was born Dec. 21st. Burial was made in Edward's Grove cemetery.

The baby passed away suddenly Tuesday morning at the home from an attack of virus flu. Survivors include her twin sister, Lucille, one brother, Gene, paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamoreaux of Greenwich, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Manley Cole of Norwalk.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McCormick of Plymouth attended the rites.

Fined $200

The only New Year traffic accident reported by the police department occurred on Saturday morning at 3:00 o'clock, when a Mercury driven by Ernest Pratt, Shelby R. P. plowed into the 1936 Chevrolet, belonging to Quentin Ream, while it was parked in front of the R. L. Hoffmann home on Plymouth Street.

Policeman Meiser, who investigated the wreck, arrested Pratt and charged him with driving while intoxicated. He was brought before Mayor Robinson Tuesday and fined $200 and costs, which came to $146.50.

Pratt was coming in from the north on Route 61, when the crash occurred. He received a black eye and sprained wrist from the impact, but both cars were badly damaged. Mr. and Mrs. Ream were attending a New Year party at the Hoffman home when the wreck happened.

Upon graduating from high school in 1927, Mr. Bachrach entered the meat business with his brother Sol, and they continued in business on the south side of Square until 1929, when they moved to John W. and Bill Houch, who moved the equipment at that time to the building now occupied by the post office.

For the past six years Mr. Bachrach has been employed at the Red Front Market in Shelby. In making the announcement that Mr. Bachrach will take over the meat department in his new market, Mr. Suttles stated: "I am happy to secure the services of Mr. Bachrach, and he will be a great asset to the department. I believe that the patrons of our Super Market will be accorded every courtesy possible in securing the finest meats at all times, and I know that as far as experience goes our trade will be benefited through Mr. Bachrach."

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Bachrach, who come his appearance back in Plymouth, and best wishes are extended him on his new job.

He was engaged in farming until about three years ago when he took employment with the Attica plant of the Pioneer Rubber Co., remaining there until ill health forced his retirement.

Before moving to his present home, Mr. and Mrs. Lebold resided north-west of Plymouth on Route 98 and is well known locally.

Farm Inventory Forms in Mail

The new Farm Inventory forms the first step in preparation for personal tax filing are being mailed to the owners of farms in the plan of the County Auditor's Office to mail the inventory forms between Christmas and New Year's, but they were several days late arriving, not coming until last Friday morning. As soon as one township is addressed they will be placed in the mail, so delivery can be made as soon as possible.

The inventory consisting of four pages is self explanatory. It is mandatory to take an inventory of all farm items as of January 1st. The inventory will be returned until the personal tax return form is received on February 15th. The statutory filing period for personal tax is February 15th to March 31st.

Two copies of the inventory will be mailed to each farmer, dairyman, orchardist, producer and farm custom worker. The copy for the auditor will be filed with the personal tax return with the County Auditor, and the other retained as a reference for future years. Care is being taken to insure that forms are not lost or misplaced, as the ever increasing costs of forms is a major expense of County Government.

The Auditor's office will assist all who require assistance in the filing of personal tax returns, they are not allowed to help with the inventory, except during the year. While the form is new, there is no change in personal tax procedure. An inventory was always required as of January 1st, tax lien date for personal property. Now the taxpayer is furnished for the inventory that was always required.

January 1st is tax lien date for a good story, but was will be a clerk from 1944 to 1950, and the outfit was purchased during his term in the office.

N. M. Mitchell was mayor and Joseph Weck clerk marshal. The reason was to make sure that who would or could not pay a fine be taken to the stone quarry and work out the fine in the jail room at night and received so much per head. The loafers in Mittenburgh's barber shop claimed Jo put in a bill for the 31st of February.

The Weather

December, 1948 was a very mild month, with no zero weather and very little snow.

The average temperature was 33.8 degrees above normal. The highest was 58 on the 4th; the lowest 5 above zero on the 29th.

Precipitation totaled 2.76 inches, or 0.68 inch above normal. Of this total, 2.55 inches was in rainfall, of which amount 2.23 inches fell on three days - the 12th, 15th and 29th. Snowfall measured only 2 inches for the entire month. There were 10 clear days, 8 partly cloudy and 13 cloudy.

With such a mild December the common expression was: "We go to Florida when we have weather like this?" Nevertheless, it was not so good for wheat due to freezing and thawing during the past few days, snow would be very beneficial.

Doings In Congress

By Congressman Wm. Lemke

The Eighty-first Congress is in session. During the campaign there was much political oratory — many promises, some that are not and were not intended to be kept. One subject widely discussed by all parties was housing. It was a vote catching subject. The deceptive Tax-Wagner bill was greatly over-rated and glamorized.

The truth is that there is no great shortage of houses, but there is a real shortage of ability to buy and pay for them. The high cost of building makes it virtually impossible for the average person to own a home. Also rent control — which does not control — has interfered with the construction of new apartment buildings. It also has prevented the repair and upkeep of existing apartments.

In order to test the sincerity of the advocates of housing — of homes — I shall introduce an amendment to the Federal Housing Law. This amendment will enable those with moderate incomes to buy some of the many hundreds and thousands of new homes that are now vacant and for sale throughout the Nation. This amendment will enable any person to build or purchase a home, or refinance an existing loan on his home, by borrowing up to $15,000 from the FHA. This provided the builder, purchaser or refinancer matches the loan to the extent of ten percent, and that the FHA finds the cost or price of the home to be fair and reasonable under the existing cost of material and building. The loan shall be secured by the transfer of the title to the FHA until it is paid.

The loan is to be amortized over a period not to exceed forty years. There shall be no interest for the first five or ten years — after that three percent. To protect the Government the amendment provides that if there is any loss sustained because of these loans, that then the borrower shall be liable for an additional sum not to exceed ten per cent of the amount he borrowed. It provides for monthly payments on the loan, and in case of failure to pay the FHA may cancel the contract and enter into a contract with another purchaser.

The ultimate stability of our Government depends upon home owners. A home gives a feeling of security — a feeling that you are a somebody. It gives you something that you are willing to protect. Let us make America a nation of home owners. Let us abolish the slums. Slums have no business in America. They cost billions in crime and disease each year.

LAMB POOL SETS RECORD

The Greenwich lamb and sheep pool had its biggest day Thursday at 588 head were sold, County Agent C. N. McGrew reported. McGrew said the sales have shown a gradual increase, with 194 head sold at the first sale, Sept. 9; 183 at the third sale, Oct. 7; 465 at the fifth sale, Nov. 11.

The pools are sponsored by the Richland-Huron County Lamb and Sheep Improvement committee. Pointing out that the sales encourage an improvement in grades, McGrew said that of Thursday's sales, 296 were either double blue or single blue, the top grades.

Ninety-nine head of double blue were sold at 27 cents a lb.; 197 single blue at 26 cents; 55 link blue at 24 cents; 177 red at 25 cents; and 10 yellow at 23 cents.

McGrew said all were purchased by Armour and company for shipment to New York City. Balance of those taken to the market were feeders and culls.

The next pool will be held on January 13th and there will be five more after that.

To the Editor

Dear Editor:
There has been a lot of "mudslinging" at our basketball team, lately since they have had a streak of bad luck. Some times a little bit of encouragement at a time like this might help.

In the first place, there is too much jealousy among the players, and a little less said, by some of our parents, might help to eliminate part of this. We can't expect them to win all of their games, but we can hope they will not can we expect one individual to do it all. Why run one guy in the ground, when there are four other guys out there playing just as bad; or why give one guy all the credit, when the other four are trying just as hard? We need team work to make a good team. We have a fine bunch of boys, and the makings of a good time. Let's use it.

It seems like, a few stricter training rules, should be laid down. Such as, individual checking up of each player, after the coach designates it, the night before a game. And secondly, a little more cooperation on the part of the parents, in watching their sons during training season. A light lunch on the eve of a game would help a lot, instead of letting them stuff themselves with fancy pie almondes and doughy thick milkshakes. They won't starve to death, for they can always eat after the game. And they have all next summer to break their training.

What we need is the cooperation of the coach, the players, and their parents, or we are not going any place.
Close the door, and buckle down and give good old Plymouth high, all we've got.
AN ARDENT FAN

Tags will be mailed upon written application. Owners may take advantage of this service.

Prize Awards For Xmas Lighting

Tuesday evening, December 28th, the Christmas lighting project of the Auditor's office was viewed and evaluated by out-of-town judges. Our town has been complimented as being one of the most elaborately and beautifully decorated in the townships of the state of Ohio. The cooperation of the townspeople has made this true. The Christmas Spirit prevailed in our town and sent its rays out to the surrounding towns as is evidenced by the many visitors with congratulatory remarks.

The judges, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Shaw of Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Park Arter of Crestline and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Neff of Bucyrus, accompanied by Garnetta and Emma Lee Heydinger who served as guides, toured the streets of New Washington several times, then met and discussed their views as to which they considered the best from the standpoint of uniformity, uniqueness and balance. They acknowledged it was hard to decide as all the homes were beautiful. After carefully discussing each they decided upon the following three winners but did not know the names. They gave the others the consideration, honorable mention. They did not know the home owners and their decisions were uninfluenced. They all remarked about the beauty of the business places and requested they be given honorable mention.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

For the first time in many years Plymouth people had the privilege of celebrating arrival of the New Year in their own little town. It was a gala evening and I don't believe there is one person who did not enjoy himself. Noisemakers and hats were not passed out until late in the evening, then the racket started. Until then people were concerned with talking and just plain visiting. But it didn't take them long to get into the spirit of New Year after each one had gotten his noisemakers. Of course we cannot forget the orchestra. Without them, we couldn't have had such a wonderful time as all enjoyed their fine arrangements and rhythm were outstanding. The crowd was asked their honest opinion of the orchestra, and they received a big ovation.

Luncheon was given in a cafeteria style. The patrons lined up and had their choice of ham, cheese deviled eggs (macaroni salad), pickles and others. We all agreed it certainly hit the spot, especially after one had consumed a quantity of liquors. There was a lull for a time, but then the New Year arrived, and every one ushered in the New Year with noises and revelry. Surprisingly enough there was no great trouble at any time. The people were interested only in having a good time, and of course that is what happened. Troubles are always unwanted, and it certainly was swell to see the people were not interested in any. Just a reminder to Legion members, social members and auxiliary there will be dances on Friday nights hereafter. Each member has the privilege of bringing a friend. No admission charges. It's for the benefit of the members and friends to get acquainted.

Flower Show Opens March 5th

In a hundred communities within a 200-mile radius of Cleveland, some four hundred city garden clubs and other organizations are already arranging parties of their members and friends to attend the annual Greater Cleveland Home and Flower Show at Public Auditorium, March 5th thru 12th. Announcements of advance ticket sale arrangements have been mailed to these organizations this week, according to Ralph P. Stoddard, Managing Director of this "most beautiful show of the year," which transforms the huge Public Auditorium into a spring festival of flowers to rival the mid-summer garden atmosphere.

As in past years, special trains, special buses, and special automobiles will be called into action to transport the visitors from Canton, Akron, Pittsburgh, Greenview, Columbus, Dayton, Sandusky, Erie, Buffalo and many other cities to Cleveland for the Home and Flower Show.

The Florists Association has planned an even more spectacular floral garden display to fill the Main Arena than in the past shows. The competitive garden section is being enlarged and flowers from all parts of the world will have their places in the show.

Three full-scale and completely furnished houses, one of "Home of Ideas" sponsored by the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, will be built in the Home and Flower Show. All the great halls of Public Auditorium are to be utilized in the coming Home and Flower Show for the display of the newest in home equipment items, with South Hall housing the most complete television display ever seen.

ICE ACCIDENT PREVENTION AND RESCUE OUTLINED BY RESCUERS.

With the freezing of ponds and the skates that were given the children for Christmas, your American Red Cross is reminded of the many accidents that have taken place in different communities throughout the past years. Through recklessness, carelessness, or merely lack of knowledge of ice conditions, literally hundreds of persons break thru the ice each winter, and of these, some are drowned. In order to keep this great sport free from tragedy, the Red Cross is advising these hints to skaters:

Stay off thin ice. Remember that contrary to the popular belief, skaters in motion do not plunge straight downward into the water when the ice gives way beneath them; instead, they are tripped by the edge of the unbroken ice before them and are sent sprawling. If this should happen, the skater should hug the surface of the thin ice in the
