Complaints On Gambling

Three separate and individual complaints about gambling in Plymouth, were referred to Mayor Robinson and council last Tuesday night by Police Chief Meiser. The complaints specifically charged that money losses were incurred by those who could not afford to gamble.

There is an ordinance in the village covering gambling, and it reads as follows:

SECTION 234. CHEATING AND GAMBLING. PENALTY. No person within the limits of the Village of Plymouth shall use or practice any game, device, or deceit, or assist the same to be done, nor occupy any house, room, outbuilding, or lot, for the purpose of gambling or playing any game of chance, for the purpose of cheating, defrauding or obtaining money, property, or other valuable thing from any other person; and any person who shall, in any way, violate or attempt to violate any one of the provisions of this section upon conviction before the Mayor, be fined in any sum not more than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor less than five ($5.00) dollars and also serve a term of imprisonment not exceeding thirty days at the discretion of the Mayor.

Show New Fords Here Wed. Night

The new 1950 Fords will be on display on the Public Square tonight (Wednesday). The Laubie Motor Sales of Shelby will exhibit two new models.

While the lines of the new car have not been drastically changed the company states that "road noises" have been eliminated, and that the engine has been greatly silenced. Many refinements to the interior have been made.

Jim Southard, well-known in this area, invites all his friends to take a look at the new 1950 Ford.

NEED A PROJECT?

Are there any clubs, organizations or church groups looking for a project at this season? The teachers at the local grade school have a milk fund started and would appreciate any help received. The purpose of the fund is to purchase milk for any child or children who are unable to pay for same.

At present $10.00 a month would be sufficient.

Local People At National Girl Convention

Mrs. George Hershiser of Plymouth, Miss Betty Hollenback and Mrs. Gertrude Connelly of Shelby attended some Sunday afternoon sessions at the national convention of the Girl Scouts in Milwaukee, Wis. from the 15th to 18th.

More than 6000 Girl Scout leaders, council members and other volunteer workers representing the 1,400,000 membership of the Girl Scout organization were in attendance at the largest convention in the history of Girl Scouting.

Featured at the convention was the announcement of the 1950 international program to send school supplies to children in twenty-eight countries where there is a shortage of the tools of learning.

Mrs. Shaffer, librarian at the library, each group received a short lecture on current popular children's books and also library procedure.

On Wednesday that week the children of the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th grades of the Plymouth Elementary school visited the local library. Each group received a short lecture on current popular children's books and also library procedure.

Several splendid posters were submitted by Junior Hi students Virginia Bevier's poster won the first award and one by Patty Chromier second.

Both of these posters were on display in the children's room, along with many colorful book jackets of the new Juvenile books now on the shelves.

Book Week Observed By Local Library

November 13-19, 1949 was National Childrens Book Week, sponsored by the Children's Book Council of New York. The aim of the council was to focus attention on the estimated 11,000,000 children in this country who seldom see a good story book.

The poster on display all week at the Plymouth Public Library was in connection with the 31st anniversary of this national program.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ross Will Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Ross will receive friends and relatives at their home on Bell Street Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m., from 7 to 9 p. m. at open house, in observance of their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary.

An account of their wedding as it appeared in the Bloomfield paper and written by a guest has been included in their souvenirs and is as follows:

Wedded
Wednesday evening, November 29, at 6:30 o'clock, Miss Edith Snyder and Mr. Fred R. Ross were united in holy wedlock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Snyder, on Scott street, in the presence of a few near relatives and friends.

To say it was a pleasant affair, would be putting it mildly. At the appointed time the guests took their places in the double parlor and Rev. F. Keiser, in a short but beautiful ceremony, "tied the knot."

Following the ceremony and congratulations, came an elegant supper, to which all did ample justice except the author of this article, who, through mistake, took a dish of olives for persimmons.

Soon time came to go home and all the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ross a happy and prosperous life.

The happy couple will make their home near Plymouth, where Mr. Ross is engaged in teaching and farming. Mrs. Ross as is well known, has been a very successful teacher in this community, and for some time has been teaching one of the departments in the Melmore school.

Going ... going ... gone! Down went the hammer 165 times on as many articles Friday night at the Fall Festival sponsored by the P. T. A. and the Mothers' Club.

H. H. Fackler, auctioneer, sold everything from live ducks and chickens to washing machines, hats and overcoats. Pie cakes, butter and eggs, all went for good prices and at the close of the evening $189.89 was taken in for the evening's proceeds.

Time went so fast, that there are considerable prices left for Bingo which will be featured at the January P. T. A. meeting.

Door prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fenner and Mrs. C. A. Robinson. The lucky winners of the dolls was Mrs. Helen Thompson, which was made and donated by Mrs. D. K. McGinity.

The high school auction was decorated for the occasion and the audience enjoyed purchasing at the many and varied booths.

The fish pond delighted the little folks, the boys tried their skill at the dart game and everybody was eating both pop corn and candy.

The committee in charge wishes to thank Mr. Fackler for his splendid auctioneer, those who donated, those who attended and purchased and all who helped to make it such a success.

Plymouth Loses Final Game

The Plymouth Pilgrims lost their final game of the season to the Lima St. Rose Cardinals in the Lima Stadium at Lima, Ohio, last Friday night 14 to 0.

Plymouth drew first blood in a close and hard fought game, when Larry Schreck climaxed a 71 yard drive of the Pilgrims plunged over from the one for the touchdown. Plymouth led at the end of the first quarter 6 to 0.

But the St. Rose Cardinals came back late in the second quarter when Kevin O'Conner scored on a 3-yard run. They scored again in the third period when Don Cogan went over on a 28-yd. sprint.

Tom O'Conner converted on both touchdowns for the extra points. There was no more scoring in game for both teams and the game ended in favor of St. Rose 14-6.

It was Homecoming night for St. Rose. The king, Billy Fraumiller and queen, Bill Shamberger, were crowned during the half time ceremonies by Don Cogan.

The Lima Central High Band put on a very fine pre-game and half time show.

Because of the great distance between Plymouth and Lima and consequently a small following, Supt. Dennis phoned the score at the end of each quarter to P. T. A. Festival at the High School.

The Football Squad, Managers cheerleaders, student reporter, coach Doc McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis and the drivers of the cars that carried the group to Lima enjoyed a fine Swiss steak meal at Sam's restaurant after the game.

It was the last football game of the year, it was the final appearance in a football uniform of P. H. S. for the following season.

So, Plymouth ended its second year of 11 man football with a 3 wins and 6 losses record and a 2 year and 11 record for over a two year period.

Around THE Square

"GONE WITH THE WIND" will also be gone with the close of the year for at that time it will be taken off the list, according to Edward Ramsey, owner of Plymouth Theatre. It will be shown for the eighth and last time in Plymouth at the local Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 6 and 7th. It will be the full 4-hour show, with absolutely nothing cut from the original and you haven't seen it or wish to refresh your memory of it, here's your chance.

IF YOU SEE MAJOR Alfred Parkinson wearing a new leather jacket, possibly Indian style, you'll know it is conclusive evidence that he got his deer. Deer-Deer, the past several hunting trips, he took a lot of good natured "ribbing," but this season he got a four point buck near Chippewa, Mich. One of a party of six, they returned home Sunday morning from a ten day trip. Major Parkinson is stationed at the Shelby Air Depot.

MIGHTY GLAD to learn that Howard Smith was able to be out around the Square last Friday. Howard has been several weeks recuperating from a little tucker trouble which kept him in the Shelby hospital for some time. He's looking good and feeling fine, for which his many friends are happy for him.

ALTHOUGH he lost his left hand a week ago last Friday, Levi McDougal has a lot to be thankful for, Mac's getting out of the hospital in the morning, the brighter side of life. He's thankful, too, that his two sons are going to pitch in and help him continue his coal business.

THURSDAY WILL no doubt be rather a dull day in Plymouth, at least around the Square. The bank, post office and stores will observe Thanksgiving, which means it's not mean that villagers will be lacking entertainment, for Plymouth schools have a way of enjoying themselves. Local schools will remain closed Friday, but the Fate-Root-Heath plant will operate Friday.

FOR THANKSGIVING we'll be indebted to Ott Krinke, who keeps his confectionery store open a little while in the morning and possibly in the afternoon, so that we may get our morning paper ... to Robert ... after all, it's these little things in life that make it worth while, but which the public as a whole generally accept with our praise.

WELL, WITH THE turkey looking bright and the turkey looking slim, we wish all our friends, and our subscribers a very happy Thanksgiving. And, by the way, if you really want to enjoy the day, leave the table hungry. Foolish to say, isn't it?

A NEW FLAG POLE has been placed by the American Legion in front of the West Paper and Print Shop. Practically all the material and work was donated by the boys. As one wit remarked, "maybe we can find a pole stier."

ONE OF THE MOST thankful guys we know of at this Thanksgiving is Jerry Miller of West High School. Released last week from the Mansfield General Hospital following a operation for an old ailment, he was unaware that another minor operation had been performed at the same time and place. Practically all the material and work was donated by the boys. As one wit remarked, "maybe we can find a pole stier."

Organize Club To Support Athletics Here

Plymouth must give a lot of cooperation to the thirty men who met Monday night at the grade school to organize a booster club and to look into the possibility of lighting up the athletic field.

Bob Martin was chosen president of the newly-formed organization with John Helbig as vice president, and Miles Christian, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Frazer was appointed chairman of a committee to check on details for lights, and Dan Grabach is chairman committee for bleachers. Other committees were appointed to work in connection with the two main projects—lights and bleachers.

It was decided to hold a meeting one hour following each game which is played on the first Friday night of the month. In order to raise necessary funds with which to properly support the basketball squad at the gym has been planned, and Harold Cashman is in charge of this venture.

After costs have been determined the club will make plans for financing lights and bleachers. In the meantime, there will be no let down in working up enthusiasm and support for our basketball squad. All committees were appointed to work in connection with the two main projects—lights and bleachers.

PLYMOUTH ASSOCIATION OF COMMERCE MAKE PLANS
Twenty-two members of the Plymouth Association of Commerce attended their monthly meeting, Thursday, at the Black & Gold Soda Grill. A delicious chow-meat dinner was served.

The group made plans to flood the park for ice skating this winter and also made plans to hold the Christmas party for the children. $40.00 was contributed toward the fund to assist Judith Bowman, a polio victim.

James Davis, president, was in charge of the meeting and announced that all projects to date had been completed.

CALL AT ASHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bailey of St. Johns, Ohio, and former Plymouth residents attended the Plymouth-Lima Football game last Friday evening at Lima.

Need Name For Fall Festival Is Successful

What's in a name? In this instance it is $10,000 in cash, if you are clever and lucky enough to name the new low priced car, the low priced field contest being sponsored by the Kaiser-Frazer Corporation.

J. O. Schreck, local dealer, states he has the official entry blanks with rules and regulations and that all that is necessary is to stop at his place of business and secure one.

There are lots of prizes ranging from $25.00 to the grand prize of $10,000 with January 15th set as the deadline. Just to make it more interesting, should you have your car approved at the local agency, and win the grand prize of $10,000 Kaiser-Frazer will double the prize. In addition the company will match the grand prize by donating a similar sum to the Cancer Fund.

It isn't necessary to own or buy a Kaiser-Frazer car to enter the contest. You can't lose, and you might win ... at least you can dream ... up a name, maybe.

Stolen Car Found In Paris, Ill.

The Frazer-Mahattan car belonging to Ray McCarty, and which was stolen from the parking lot at the Fate-Root-Heath Co., on Monday, Nov. 14, has been located.

Police at Paris, Ill., notified Marshal Meiser in Plymouth on Saturday, Nov. 19 that they found the stolen car in a parking lot there. They also reported that it was while Paris police were looking for a stolen Ford that they came across McCarty's car. They told Chief Meiser there were no articles of any kind in the car, and stated that it was in running condition.

McCarty had several valuable articles in his machine, including a 12-gauge single barrel trap gun, which is said to be valued at $750. Other items included an overcoat, sleeveless shooting jacket, fly rod, shell case, Beacon blanket, Indian sweater, shells and tools.

McCarty left Monday for Paris to claim his car. Paris is within thirty miles of Mr. McCarty's old home place.

POLICE AND FIREMEN'S BALL SATURDAY NIGHT

Don't forget to attend the police and firemen's ball Saturday night to be held in the Legion Hall. A good orchestra will furnish music, and a special attraction will be featured. Proceeds are to go in sponsoring a dance for the school at a later date.

Cut $185,000 Off Lakeside Resort Debt

LAKESIDE — Indebtedness of the Lakeside Association, which operates this Methodist resort, has been reduced from $300,000 to $115,000 during the past seven years. Dr. H. W. Courtney, general manager, has announced. Of this amount, $17,000 was paid off during the past year.

Since Lakeside is chartered as a non-profit corporation and all income must be used as provided in the charter (for debt reduction and improvements), the Association has spent during the past year more than $40,000 in capital improvements. Dr. Courtney said. K. E. Miller, business manager, said the past year had been very good financially with a net operating income of more than $20,000 and an additional $30,000 in contributions for special improvements. Net operating income for 1949 was nearly $12,000 more than in 1948, he said.

At the recent annual meeting in Marion, all officers of the Lakeside board of trustees were re-elected for the coming year. They are: Dr. R. J. Humbert, Youngstown, president; E. S. Mason, Cincinnati, vice-president; Henry Werner, Rossford, treasurer; and K. E. Miller, Lakeside, secretary and assistant treasurer.

Dr. Courtney was retained general manager, with K. E. Miller as business manager and Harry Knorr, hotel manager.

Polio Fund Is Growing

Through the generous contributions of the citizens of Plymouth and people working in Plymouth, $264.09 to date, has been turned in for Judith Farnwalt Bowman. Judith, you will recall, is a four year old Plymouth girl who is taking Polio and Cerebral Palsy treatments at Bowling Green University. The Huron County Welfare Department had to guarantee the University $40.00 per week for treatments and care for Judith. As the Welfare Department's funds have been exhausted for nearly eight months, the local Plymouth Association of Commerce accepted the responsibility to raise money to enable Judith to continue her treatments.
The Association of Commerce wishes to sincerely thank the following persons and organizations for their contributions, and also anyone who contributed through means of the containers placed in the various business places:
F. R. H. Company Employees, $106.00; Lambda Chi Omega Sorority, $40.00; Plymouth Fire Department, $25.00; Richland Lodge No. 201, F. & A. M. American Legion, Fate-Root-Health Company, W. S. C. S. of the Methodist Church, Plymouth Order of Eastern Stars, Lutheran Sunday School, and Girl Scouts.
It is understood that several other organizations intend to contribute, but have not held a meeting to vote as to the amount they should give. Several of the organizations which have already given, stated that they would gladly contribute more if necessary.

how are you on riddles?

You can't see it,
Carry or weigh it,
You buy it each day,
But stores don't display it—
It's made and delivered
The instant you need it!
What is its name?
Look below, and you'll read it!

It's as much a part of your daily life as the air you breathe. You find it in every room of your house. You order, receive and use it all in just the twinkle of an eye.

There's not a second of your day when it isn't making life easier, healthier, more comfortable for you. And it's just about the biggest bargain in your family budget.

What is it? Why—electricity—of course! What else does so much—for so little?

THE PLYMOUTH STORY

Famous Message Inspires War Song

"Either Mrs. Russell or a relative brought a traveling medium to our house one evening. Her powers were exhibited in our dining room. I do not remember the stunts except one: our big drop-leaf table alone in the middle of the room—no one near it—lifted its legs and moved as gracefully as a dancing bear. Groups gathered around center tables on which they laid their hands 'to see what they could do.' One evening my father was one of such a group; John W. Beckman the lawyer was another. Father accused him of tipping the table. A number of years afterward, Mr. Beckman being dead, Father received a message from a Seance in New York City purporting to come from John W. Beckman; tell Henry Wooster I did not tip the table! Towards New Haven

"Returning to the street and road running to New Haven I will name the families that are next to the last on my list of people in old Plymouth.

"I have already spoken of the home of William Case, the Ready-made shoe dealer and afterward Auditor of Huron County, which office moved him and his family to Norwalk. There were six children, Fannie, Eloise, Will, Charlie, Sarah and Ada. The boys died a good many years ago; so did Mrs. and Mrs. Case. Eloise (Mrs. Corland Kenman of Norwalk) died in the old Kenman home about thirty years ago. Ada (Mrs. Wigham) died in Cleveland within the last decade; Fannie and Sarah (Mrs. Vail and Mrs. Scott) are in New York City; Mrs. Vail is wealthy, her husband having been one of John D. Rockefeller's early associates in Standard Oil.

"Next north, close to the street was a small house, for a time the home of Mr. Royce, the Superintendent. We children regarded the family as queer because they ate no meat.

"Next or nearly next, on the same side of the street was a foundry; and next, about opposite our front gate, was a long two story building containing three homes, something like the building on the street running south from the Square where the Gumps and others lived. The homeopathic doctor lived there at one time.

"A few doors north of our front gate was the home of the Houghs; there was a boy called Turner Hough. Across the street but farther north was a brick house, the home of the Light's; there was a boy called Phil Light. "I do not remember the residents until we get about a quarter of a mile out of town. There were two or three Poplar trees set about a quarter of a mile apart. Here, at the first tree, I think was a family by the name of Brant. A quarter of a mile farther on was the farmhouse of Mr. Sherman (Edward?) he married Polly Cunt whom I heard spoken of as 'Aunt Polly'.

"A little farther, north, on the west side of the road and opposite the last poplar tree was the farm and home of Rouse By. He was a fine old man with several boys. But the only thing I knew about him was that he was an Underground Railroad agent, sheltering runaway slaves, aiding them on their way north to Canada, probably turning them over to Lemuel Sherman, of Norwalk, who was the final agent who got the slaves to Sandusky. (This may be the residence where Ambrusbers live.)

"Across the road from Mr. By's was the farm and home of my uncle George Adams who was also an agent of the Road to Freedom. George Adams lived there until he was elected Probate Judge of Huron County when he moved to Norwalk. There are still three daughters, Jeanette (Mrs. William Wickham), Frances (Mrs. Bealmin Breckenridge), Susan (Mrs. Frederick C. Wickham). These ladies are widows. There was one son, John Q. Adams. John served during the Civil War in the Signal Corps; he it was who sent from a tall pine tree near Atlanta, Ga., the famous message that inspired the famous song 'Hold the Fort for I am Coming.' After the Civil War John entered the regular army and rose to the rank of Major. He died in 1918 or 1919.

"North of the Adams farm was the farm and home of Abram York on the east side of the road. "Quite a distance farther north, on the west side of the road was the only other house I remember on the way to New Haven. It was architecturally, dreary, ugly looking building, made of blue gray stone. We children called it 'Blue Beard's House'; I don't know why. (Does anyone remember any building of stone on the west side of the Plymouth-New Haven road?) "Besides the citizens of Plymouth, already mentioned, there were farmers who really belonged to the village; they were pillars in the Churches or related to some of the residents. There were the Brinks and Brinkerhoffs and the Nims and the Nimmons; (it may be that the Brinks were the Brinkerhoffs and the Nims were the Nimmons; but my child cars caught those names as belonging to separate families.)

"The boat was correct in that the above mentioned were four separate families, their names being listed in an early Presbyterian church record as such.) "I think Robert McDonough's first wife came from one of these families; and may be his second wife did, but it seems to me she was a Patterson.

"Speaking of Haunts "Then there were the Grahams and the Bodines already spoken of and the Toppings and the Tysons. In my memory is the name of Lofland. There was John McDonough, brother of Robert. He had a daughter Sarah who died way back there in those dim years. More than in the case of any death outside of my own circle the memory of the name of this dead girl abides with me. I cannot say that Sarah McDonough 'haunts' me, for it is only her name, not her personality, which I never knew, that recurs; every once in a while I think of the name 'Sarah McDonough'; the thought comes of itself; there is nothing to suggest it. It may be a mental habit; it may be Sarah herself.

"Then there were the Bevers. A granddaughter of this family has come twice in the last thirty years within my ken. The first was at Lake Erie College, Painesville, O., where she was on the Faculty as head of the Department of Science as applied to Domestic Life. Lake Erie College did not keep her long; so excellent was she that the University of Illinois called her to its service. The next time I saw Miss Bever was about 1919 at Mills College, Oakland, Calif., where she represented her Institution at the Installation of Mills' new woman President.

"Stentz and Baughman "There were two other families in town who have places in my memory though I have no idea where they lived. One was the Stentz family. Henry was the one I knew best; he became a wealthy banker in Monroeville; died on his farm east of that town about twenty years ago. And there was a Mary Stentz who married a man by the name of Starr; and went with him to California in an early day probably in 1849. There was something of which my little ears could make nothing definite, about Mr. Starr killing somebody before he went away; but if it was my elder who spoke it, the sentence of the story was never finished in my presence.

Shiloh News

MANY ATTEND HOLIDAY DISPLAY

Quite a number of ladies from Shiloh and vicinity were among the five hundred or more who attended the display and program held at Liberty Park, Mansfield on last Tuesday.

The Home Demonstration Council of Richland county was the sponsor and all groups and clubs in the county participated in the displays and demonstrations. Shiloh was represented by Mrs. Vera Chaffield with her display and demonstration of "Dolls and Dressing Dolls."

There was a wonderful display in all departments, all pertaining to Christmas: The Meaning of Christmas; General Decorations; Home Made Tree Decorations; Doorway and Entrance; Mantle & Table Decorations; Gift Wrapping; Wreaths, Tea Towels and Aprons for Gifts; Plaque Making; Stuffed Animals and Home Made Toys; Christmas Favors; Christmas Candy and Cookies, with recipes for all to be cared to take them.

Many clever ideas were on exhibition, fashioned by very deft fingers. Cookies and punch were served to everyone.

The Home Demonstration Council of our county planned the program and it is a part of the Agricultural Extension service, which is made possible by the U. S. D. A., O. S. U., and our county commissioners.

Club Enjoys Good Meeting

The Get-To-Gether club met Thursday, Nov. 17, at the home of Mrs. Edna Dawson. A pot luck dinner was served at noon to the seventeen members and one child, attending.

Roll call was answered by "Holiday Traditions At Our House." Mary Brook had charge of the program, the subject being "Preparations and Entertaining for the 'Holidays'."

Mrs. Juanita Huston showed pictures, mostly of scenes in the Eastern states.

The members spent the afternoon stuffing toy animals for the children's hospital.

Carries Picture Of Updyke Family

A recent edition of the New London paper, carried a picture of five generations of the Updyke family. It may be of interest to our readers that the oldest living member of this family, Edwin S. Updyke, was a native of this vicinity, was born and lived until his marriage on his father's farm west of town, the farm on which Warren Franks now lives.

He was married in December 1885 to Mary Hodges. The ceremony was performed in Mansfield and the couple ate their wedding dinner at the old Wiler house, the same place both his parents and grandparents had eaten their wedding dinners.

Mr. Updyke now makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. Opal Jackson in New London.

The five generation picture shows other than the likenesses of Mr. Updyke and Mrs. Jackson, her daughter, Mrs. Irma Martin, her daughter, Mrs. Shirley Halden.

Mrs. MAUDE RUCKMAN Correspondent

and her one year old son Paul, all of Kenton. Mr. Updyke celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday September 18th of this year. He enjoys good health and mind, and plans to spend this winter in California with an old schoolmate.

He visited the State Fair this fall, to see, as he said, "if there was anything new." On his way from the fair he spent the night with his sister, Mrs. Mattie Blaziers in Plymouth, and the next day called on an old acquaintance and neighbor, Mrs. T. A. Barnes, in Shiloh.

Merchants To Sponsor Basketball Team

This year Shiloh's merchants have decided to promote a basketball team. There are a number of local boys concerned with this venture in Plymouth, and the only way this can be made possible is by the people of our community coming to our games. We expect to have our first game on Saturday, November 10, held at McCutchinsville, Saturday.

When you come to Shiloh visit the local merchants and show us that advertising pays off in the end.

The following merchants have aided us and we certainly appreciate it:

- Tower Restaurant
- Seaman's General Store
- Seaman's Meat Market
- Teveyn's General Store
- The Smoke House
- The Shiloh Garage
- Don's Barbershop
- A. W. Firestone
- The Shiloh Inn

- Stan Moser's Body Shop
- Voisard, Inc.
- The Farm Bureau

START CHICKS ... IN DECEMBER

YES, start chicks NOW to get the highest prices for eggs in late summer and fall — have YOUR egg flush when prices are tops, not bottoms. That is just common sense. Sell off this flock of hens on the Christmas market and again grab off the top price.

Here's another way to make an extra profit from your poultry equipment. There won't be many broilers on the market in March. Run a brood of GOOD BROILERS thru, now, in the off season. Collect a top price for them. Then your brooder house will be ready for that spring brood.

CHICKS AVAILABLE, DEC. 6,

on hand, for sale, a large selection of chenille, woven, and crocheted rugs, and will hold a rug sale at Fackler's Juvenile Shop on Saturday, Dec. 10th. The class appreciates the splendid patronage accorded them and trust that many people will think a Friendship rug of some kind will make a good Christmas present.
