2,875 Workers in Richland County Draw S. S. Benefits

The year of 1951 brought about an increased workload under the new "Social Security Program," said William W. Martin, Manager of the Mansfield office. Social Security protection was provided beginning January 1st for certain self-employed persons, domestics, farm hands, employees of non-profit organizations, and some government workers.

The Mansfield office of the Social Security Administration has had a busy year along with the other 500 offices throughout the country, continued Martin.

Over 2180 applications for Old-age survivors insurance payments were received in the Mansfield office during 1951, 937 of these were from Richland County alone. The remainder from Ashland, Crawford, Knox and Morrow Counties. This was the first time the 2100 mark had been reached during a calendar year.

4152 account number cards were issued to workers in the Richland County area. This figure includes new cards to workers who had never had a card, and to persons who had lost their original card or changed their name.

We've had 1871 inquiries about Social Security from Richland county residents, both by letter and in person. Talks were made before several groups in the county. There are approximately 2875 persons drawing $105,999. in monthly benefits in the Richland Co. area. This number includes retired workers, who are 65, or older, their wives, widows with small children and dependent parents, widowers and husbands over 65. The total number of persons receiving monthly benefits in the five counties served by the Mansfield office is 6597.

IN THE MAIL BAG

In the Mail Bag this week comes Christmas greetings from Jim Burrer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burrer, who is stationed with the armed forces in North Korea.

Jim is now Sergeant, first class, and the notation of his card states "We finally got hold of a few Christmas cards and I thought of all of you there at the office because I received my very welcome Plymouth Advertiser."

It is something I really look forward to. In fact, I even have to pass it around when I get through with it. All the men in my platoon, like to give me the old razzbery about how small a town I come from, but for some strange reason, I have to fight them off, to even get to read my paper first, and then they have to fight over it when I am through, no kidding. That's the actual truth. All I can say, is keep them coming. So long Jim."

Thanks for the card Jim, and we'll do our best to keep you posted on the home front.

MEET THE PILGRIMS

This week we introduce to you Tom Meiser, Junior of PHS. He is a very important guard on our varsity basketball team this year. He is an important factor. He stands at 5'10". For playing guard, he has a very good corner one hand set shot, which he has used quite frequently for the 32 minutes he served two years in the army and there is bound to be plenty more.

This season he has played 36 quarters of nine games and has made 61 points. He has connected on 32 out of 122 shots and has attempted. This gives him a percentage of 26. He has the highest percentage in the foul shooting department by making 11 of 13 for a comfortable 87%.

Tom also played guard on the varsity team in his sophomore year. He played 62 quarters making 52 points, which 21 were field goals. He has played one year reserve and two years of varsity basketball, three years of football, which entitled him to belong to the varsity club in two years.

He played end and halfback on the football team. We welcome him back again with us next year.

GOSSIP COLUMN

Back to school. Well, it was nice while it lasted, wasn't it? What a silly question it would be to ask if everyone enjoyed his vacation.

When asked what you did on New Year's Eve, what did you say? Who would baby sit on New Year's Eve. Jessie Steele says it depends on who you baby sit with.

That was all the riot in the South End of Town. New Year's Eve? (Don't Parties-Huh!) Who you don't like parties try a show, says Fay.

Who's the nicest dog in the Junior Class Speak up, Lanny. Who ring is Shirley Bradford wearing? The initials are B. M.

What kind of Book was Feveryth Bewell reading in study hall last week? Well, what could be more interesting than Daher Huzovich's Diary?

What do the initials "T. M." stand for? Tom Meiser's better be. Ask Marilyn Cheeseman how she spent New Year's Eve. A card party at your aunt's house never hurt anyone, does it?

What you don't find on study hall floors these days. Want to see what we found? Well, listen to this: "I got a letter to see Alice the ring yet. He said Saturday she would probably get it before he went back. He got a ten day leave. I could only get eight. I think it's unfair."

(Reply)—"Hope I got a letter today, but I probably didn't." Sounds good, doesn't it? Sure, it's awfully to know what height has to do with going steady. (Nothing, Sandy, nothing at all.) Do you suppose the Plymouth Girl's basketball team will keep up their undefeated record this year? Well, we'll find out next Tuesday.

PERCENTAGES OF PLYMOUTH PILGRIMS

The Plymouth Pilgrims went down to defeat at the hands of the Lexington Minutemen. It was a night, by at 66-47 score. This was the third defeat in county play for the Plymouth team, and the second in a row. Their record now stands at 3-3 in county play and 4-5 as a seasonal record.

The following is the individual shots taken and shots made record as they were charted Friday night:

In directing the verdict in favor of the Railroad, the court found that the decedent was guilty of contributory negligence, as a matter of law, in operating her motor vehicle across the tracks of the defendant.

The decedent, daughter of the plaintiff, lost her life March 30, 1950, when the vehicle she was driving was struck by a Nickel Plate train on the Franklin crossing near Bellevue.

DRAWS JAIL TERM

Paul A. Sourvine, 28; Willard, arraigned before Judge Luther Van Horen entered a plea of guilty to the charge of petty larceny, and was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail and assessed court costs. The youth was charged with stealing blankets from a home he had entered. His case was remanded to the court from Willard's mayor court.

DROPS DIVORCE

The court granted the request of Dorothy Holman Squire, Norwalk to dismiss her divorce petition filed Dec. 14, last, against her husband, Amos.

CONTINUED DIVORCE

Trial of the contested divorce of Margaret S. Meyer, former owner of the Star Diner, Norwalk, vs. David H. Meyer, rural Clyde, is set for Jan. 14. They were married April 15, 1943 at Clyde and have one child, whose custody is sought by the father.

CLERK OF COURTS

During the past month a total of 37 new cases were filed in common pleas court, including 22 civil and five criminal. In December the clerk's office issued 780 certificates of lien, 425 receipts of notation of lien, and 364 receipts for cancellation of lien.

Mr. Fort not having to clean up the school at the end of the day. Mr. Kirshner not whistling or singing when walking through the school.

EDDIE AND KIT

COURTEOUS STUDENTS

Well, let us see what you do in school. Your schedules may vary, but in all probability they permit the same faults. You go to your locker, which is along the hall. Do you open it gently, or do you twist and fumble with the lock, finally yanking it open so it bangs against the next locker, or perhaps even hits somebody? Do you close it with the same abandon? How long do you think those lockers will last if you continue to treat them in a slipshod way and who do you think provide the lockers? Your parents help by paying a school tax, and you probably heard many a complaint about rising taxes. Tomorrow morning remember that you are helping to raise taxes by ruining school property—not only the lockers, but desks, books, chairs, tables, anything you come in contact with. You carve your initials on the desks and tables for no reason except to make yourself seem important. You put your name in contact with the detriment of the school. You write snappy sayings on the walls of the rest rooms, yet you don't have a thought in your head if you are asked to write something in English class.

After leaving your locker—and let us hope that you remember to take the proper books—you saunter off to your home room. You may go quietly, or you may have a sudden urge to whack somebody on the back, or to trip somebody. If you have any such inspiration, kindly control it, for your companions will think that a wild animal is in their midst. Can you imagine your father entering his office with such a display of gusto? Then think of yourself as a dignified person going to business, because that is really what you are doing. School is the training ground for your future work. Get in the habit of treating it in this manner and it will become a habit.

If by any chance you feel a stinging or whistling spore coming on, kindly suppress it. It probably wouldn't be worth listening to, and can you imagine what it would sound like if 50 students stumbled to the same impulse and started warbling? If you must sing, join the chorus or glee club.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS BY STUDENT BODY

3. I resolve to be with Fern more often in 1952. Parks.
4. I resolve to go to Texas. Neil Kennedy.
5. I resolve not to make any New Year's resolutions, because I know that I won't be subject to breaking them. Donald Frail.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The Seventh grade class would like to take this opportunity to welcome to our class, Sarah Willet. Due to the weather and our Christmas vacation we held our Christmas exchange on Friday, Jan. 4.

PERSONALITY COLUMN

It seems as though there are some individuals that should never grow up—persons that the majority just can't see as adults and yet have captured the hearts of many people. Elsie Reed is one of these.

Although Elsie is 16 and a junior in high school, she has never grown very tall and her height is only 5'3". The P.H.S. students will always remember Elsie by her sense of humor. If you should be walking down the halls of P.H.S. and should hear someone laughing or see a crowd of people gathered around, Elsie is surely to be in the middle.

Teasing is another of Elsie's fine traits, especially a teacher which she has nicknamed Mr. Tadpole. Guess who? Not only does she tease the teachers, but also the students and members of her family.

Elsie loves both outdoors and indoors sports, but roller skating is her favorite. Basketball comes next with her. Softball and volleyball are other sports which she participates in school. In all of them she does a fine job.

Julie Patrick is her ideal. Julie as you probably know, is a famous member of the Lewy's family. Elsie's ambition is to skate like her. The way Elsie became acquainted with Julie Patrick was through television. Just ask Elsie what program is the BEST on TV and she will most likely say, "why the roller derby."

The movie is another source of entertainment for Elsie, she must see at least one movie every night. Elsie is the number one item in Elsie's life. Well, isn't it true that without it she might not survive? When asked what food she liked the best, this is what she replied: "I like CHILI the best, but will eat anything as long as it is food. It all tastes good to me."

HISTORY

265 YEARS AGO TODAY

Two hundred sixty-five years ago today Sir Isaac Newton discovered the law of gravitation. He said, "All objects attract each other and that the force of their attraction depends on the size of the objects and the distance between them. The force of attraction is in direct proportion to the product of their masses. The larger the bodies, the greater their attraction. The force is also in inverse proportion to the square of the distance between the two centers of mass. The farther apart the objects are, the less the gravitation."

Gravitation acts between either the large or small bodies of matter. The earth attracts a stone and makes it fall on it, but the stone attracts the earth. Each moves toward to meet the other. Since the stone is much smaller, it moves through a greater distance. In other words, the earth, being that it is so great, its motion toward a stone cannot be easily detected. If the earth were closer to the sun, it would be drawn to the surface of the sun.

Only bodies that are outside each other apply to Newton's Law. An example would be it a pound of mass is buried below the earth's surface it would be drawn toward the earth's center. But the force of attraction in this case would be in direct proportion to the distance from the earth's center. The closer the object is to the center of the earth, the less attraction is.

By the help of Newton's Law, astronomers understand our universe better. The planet Neptune was discovered by the movements of Uranus through Newton's Law. From time to time Uranus moved in a peculiar path through the heavens. Astronomers calculated that some force was pulling on Uranus and caused its movements to vary.

Monday morning, before we knew what was happening, we were flying down the stairs at the sound of the old fire bell. Even though we didn't know why we were flying, we were out of the school building in exactly one minute.

Mr. Coon congratulated us because this was the fastest time recorded this year, except for Mr. Poling.

THINGS UNLIKELY TO HAPPEN AT P. H. S.

Doug Theaker frowning. Helen Fox keeping still. Shirley Goldsmith not talking about B. C. Students not enjoying vacation. No one having to serve a detention. No one going to lockers between classes. Students receiving A's on their grade cards. Students satisfied with their assignments. Kay Breitch not smiling when Elsie Reed is mentioned. No cars parked of north side of the high school during school day. The girls wearing their own class rings. Elsie Reed and Mr. Poling not arguing.

By this movement, astronomers were able to discover the planet Neptune.

COURTEOUS STUDENTS

Well, let us see what you do in school. Your schedules may vary, but in all probability they permit the same faults. You go to your locker, which is along the hall. Do you open it gently, or do you twist and fumble with the lock, finally yanking it open so it bangs against the next locker, or perhaps even hits somebody? Do you close it with the same abandon? How long do you think those lockers will last if you continue to treat them in a slipshod way and who do you think provide the lockers? Your parents help by paying a school tax, and you probably heard many a complaint about rising taxes. Tomorrow morning remember that you are helping to raise taxes by ruining school property—not only the lockers, but desks, books, chairs, tables, anything you come in contact with. You carve your initials on the desks and tables for no reason except to make yourself seem important. You put your name in contact with the detriment of the school. You write snappy sayings on the walls of the rest rooms, yet you don't have a thought in your head if you are asked to write something in English class.

After leaving your locker—and let us hope that you remember to take the proper books—you saunter off to your home room. You may go quietly, or you may have a sudden urge to whack somebody on the back, or to trip somebody. If you have any such inspiration, kindly control it, for your companions will think that a wild animal is in their midst. Can you imagine your father entering his office with such a display of gusto? Then think of yourself as a dignified person going to business, because that is really what you are doing. School is the training ground for your future work. Get in the habit of treating it in this manner and it will become a habit.

If by any chance you feel a stinging or whistling spore coming on, kindly suppress it. It probably wouldn't be worth listening to, and can you imagine what it would sound like if 50 students stumbled to the same impulse and started warbling? If you must sing, join the chorus or glee club.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS BY STUDENT BODY

1. I resolve to help my wife with the dishes more often in 1952 than I did in 1951. Mr. Coon.
2. I resolve to be a better secretary in the coming year than I was in the past. Mrs. Myers.
3. I resolve to be with Fern more often in 1952. Parks.
4. I resolve to go to Texas. Neil Kennedy.
5. I resolve not to make any New Year's resolutions, because I know that I won't be subject to breaking them. Donald Frail.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The Seventh grade class would like to take this opportunity to welcome to our class, Sarah Willet. Due to the weather and our Christmas vacation we held our Christmas exchange on Friday, Jan. 4.

PERSONALITY COLUMN

It seems as though there are some individuals that should never grow up—persons that the majority just can't see as adults and yet have captured the hearts of many people. Elsie Reed is one of these.

Although Elsie is 16 and a junior in high school, she has never grown very tall and her height is only 5'3". The P.H.S. students will always remember Elsie by her sense of humor. If you should be walking down the halls of P.H.S. and should hear someone laughing or see a crowd of people gathered around, Elsie is surely to be in the middle.

Teasing is another of Elsie's fine traits, especially a teacher which she has nicknamed Mr. Tadpole. Guess who? Not only does she tease the teachers, but also the students and members of her family.

Elsie loves both outdoors and indoors sports, but roller skating is her favorite. Basketball comes next with her. Softball and volleyball are other sports which she participates in school. In all of them she does a fine job.

Julie Patrick is her ideal. Julie as you probably know, is a famous member of the Lewy's family. Elsie's ambition is to skate like her. The way Elsie became acquainted with Julie Patrick was through television. Just ask Elsie what program is the BEST on TV and she will most likely say, "why the roller derby."

The movie is another source of entertainment for Elsie, she must see at least one movie every night. Elsie is the number one item in Elsie's life. Well, isn't it true that without it she might not survive? When asked what food she liked the best, this is what she replied: "I like CHILI the best, but will eat anything as long as it is food. It all tastes good to me."

Council approved the necessary legislation for closing the alley and will be given a final hearing on March 4, this year.

Clerk Gives Report
Harry Trauger, the new village clerk, gave a financial report to the mayor and council, with a complete breakdown of all funds in the various departments. The report was very favorable, and while the village has no large surplus, yet it is in fair shape for the coming year.

Board Organizes
Members of the Board of Public Affairs held their first meeting Tuesday night, and Mrs. Donald Gurney, 268 Plymouth St., son, Donald Alan.

the Board, the motion was seconded and approved.

The Board hired Harry Trauger as clerk for the next two years. The clerk presented routine business before the Board including current operating bills; Supt. Lincoln Sprowles stated that he had a detailed report of all work performed the past year and will be giving to the Board at its next meeting.

A brief resume of the improvements made during 1951 included the installation of many light poles and transformers and general line improvement over most of the village. Heavy buying of much needed material and equipment in 1951 depleted the light fund considerably, but with the improved service it is expected that the financial status of the light department will be greatly improved within a few months.

Continued price increases during the past year on all materials for the light department finds the Board faced with the problem of keeping the distribution system efficient at present rates. A survey of electric rates is being made of nearby towns such as Atica, Willard, Huron, New London, Monteville, with the purpose of comparing them with prevailing rates in Plymouth. If present operating expenses cannot be reduced the Board may have to ask for a small rate increase. However, no definite decision of hiking rates was made at Monday night's meeting.

Paul Root, Wm. Miller and R. W. Thomas comprise the Board of Public Affairs.

Shiloh School Notes

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM
Shiloh High School enjoyed an assembly program the first day of school in 1952.

The main feature of the program was Rev. Smith's message to the students wherein he admonished them to "fill their lives so full of worthwhile things that there would be no room for evil things" and portrayed the tale of Ulysses and other ancient Grecian heroes' adventures to illustrate the message.

The girls' glee club sang several numbers and the entire audience sang "America."

Next, the superintendent, W. B. Firestone, called attention to the objectives of education, entreated the audience to set their goals in life as high as they could so that they would always be trying to reach a higher rather than selecting a lower, poorer goal which might be reached too soon. The students were advised to make the best of every opportunity while in school and afterwards, so as to preserve the strength of our democracy and further their own personal development.

Elsie Dick Shiloh's representative to Girls' State last summer, and Dick Garrett and Bob Elliott who went to the Boys' State convention at Port Clinton, gave interesting accounts of their experiences.

The above students attended these activities under the auspices of the American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary of Garrett-Riest Post in Shiloh.

Collection Boxes Placed for March Of Dimes Drive

Coin collection boxes, replicas of an iron lung and carrying the March of Dimes poster, have been placed in all business houses by Supt. M. J. Coon, chairman of the drive.

Mrs. Kenneth Myers, secretary of Mr. Coon is sending out letters this week to all organizations, churches and classes in the village asking for their support in this worthy cause.

Last year's campaign ended with a total of $262.78 according to a release from Norwalk, Plymouth although lying in two counties, has been placed in the Huron county area, and has received benefit in return.

Folio is no respecter of persons, old or young, strikes quickly and the after-effects while not always fatal, results in a long drawn out series of treatments which are very costly. So each and every one is asked to contribute generously. No house-to-house campaign is staged and the donations are all voluntary, so when you see the container in the various business houses, drop a coin with a "Thank You" that it is not your youth that need help at the present time.

WE CAN TAKE SNOW OR LEAVE IT ALONE

We can take snow, or leave it alone. We prefer to leave it alone, say, on the slopes of the Rockies, of the Appalachians, of the Himalayas or any other reasonably distant place.

Poets have written often about snow, the sparkle of snow, the whiteness of snow, about snow bowing down the branches of the beautiful trees, of snow lining the banks of the little flowing creeks . . . of snow and its lovely sculpturing, etc., etc.

No poet has written of snow on the walk, of snow on the drive, of snow before the garage doors, two feet deep; of snow dirty and sooty and churned up by traffic; of snow down rubbers and in shoes; of snow tracked into halls and kitchens . . . of snow as it really is.

Yes, we can take our snow or leave it alone. We'll leave it alone, thank you.

In a world where dangers lurk on all sides, "Creeping Socialism" is one of our most dangerous enemies.

Americans are alert to the menace of Communism—even Stalin's stooges know we'll have none of it.

But many of us have been and still can be fooled by socialist proposals advanced under the so-called "welfare clause" of our Constitution.

It is a fine thing, for instance, to aid the unemployed, but it is something else to pass laws that enable idlers to winter on Southern beaches while drawing unemployment compensation in the North. To protect the aged is a noble objective, but in doing so we must not discourage all saving for a rainy day. There are many other objectives—good in theory, but in practice leading to "Creeping Socialism."

Let us firmly resolve to detect all such menaces to our liberties, and fight to save the nation from them before it is too late.

A PROFIT IS NOT WITH HONOR

A prophet is not without honor
Save in his own country, they say;

And profits are something like prophets
(But spelled in a different way.)

They're held to be lacking in honor
By some who, regardless of facts,

Would have them abolished entirely
Or taken completely by tax.

A prophet can live without honor,
His forecasts of joy or of gloom

May come true or not, and no matter—
Who cares with the coming of doom?

But profits, come leaner or fatter
Or none—then that matters, son, boys:

No profits, no venture, no money—
No money, no business, no jobs!

NOPE, NO BRAZILIAN TAXES

No, says our government, we won't collect no Brazilian taxes, not by nobody!

Well, goodness gracious! After all these years of collecting all the taxes that could be thought up right here in the United States, our fatherly government says it won't collect taxes in Brazil for the Brazilian government or for any other agency. Neither will it collect Canadian taxes, believe it or not; and as for collecting New Zealand taxes . . . why, who ever thought of such an idea.

Comptroller General Lindsey C. Warren has told all branches of our government that the proper agencies will collect U. S. taxes, but that as far as we will go—no Brazilian, no Canadian, no New Zealand taxes.

U. S. Armed Forces have people working for them around the world—citizens of the nations in which we have bases or establishments. These nations want us to deduct taxes from the pay of these foreign citizens and send the deductions on to the governments in question. Individual states in the U. S. (which have state income taxes) want the Federal government to deduct for these taxes, too. No, say the Federals, we have taxes enough of our own to collect. You do your own collecting.

That is what comes of building up one of the biggest tax burdens on earth—the government is so busy collecting taxes from us that it can't help foreign governments collect theirs.

Question Box Brings Out Good Discussion

The Question Box at the Mothers' Club brought out some interesting points Tuesday when the group met at the Elementary School building. On the panel discussion was Mrs. Robert McIntire, Mrs. Chas. Hockenberry and Mrs. Roy Carter.

Several of the questions covered: "At what age should the child be permitted to enter school?" At present any child who is six years of age before Jan. 1st is permitted to start in the fall term. Should this age limit be set back to Oct. 1st or should it continue as now enforced? Another question was the idea of new report cards for the first grader. This question will be continued next Monday, January 14th, when all mothers of first graders are asked to meet in the first grade room away to 2 o'clock. Mrs. Vera Weller is the teacher and would appreciate the cooperation of mothers.

Children in the grades are asked to discuss bringing out stamps, proceeds from them being used for film rentals.

Supt. Coon was present and explained the ratings and how they were graded on the two recent tests.

The February meeting will have a guest speaker from Willard and the discussion will center around Dental Hygiene.

Lexington Rips Pilgrims 66-47

The Plymouth Pilgrims went further down the ladder of the Richland County League standings by losing to Lexington Friday night, 66-47.

When the Pilgrims went into the game they were in third place, but by losing dropping to fourth, behind a two-way tie for third. Unless the Plymouth squad defeats Lucas tomorrow night on the Plymouth hardwood they will drop to fifth.

High Score
The first quarter was one of the highest scoring eight minutes seen this season as the Minutemen raced away to 24-0 lead. The Plymouth defense could do nothing to stop the Lexington team from getting their own rebounds and scoring.

In the second quarter the Pilgrims played even basketball with their foe only outscoring this commanding 38-29 margin as the horn was blown for the half to end.

The third quarter found Lexington continuing to pour them in as they again outscored the Plymouth squad.

In the fourth quarter the Pilgrims found life as they again "just-about" outpointed the Minutemen; the Pilgrims had 10 to Lexington's 11 for their efforts during this canto. The final score was 66-47 with Lexington retaining second place in the R.C.L.

Dale Ford took game honors with 19 points while his brother, Fred, followed him with 14. Larry Hampton led the Plymouth attack with 11 counters while Duane

Plymouth's Cranbrook Four-Door Sedan for '52

Here's the new Plymouth for 1952, a more beautiful, smoother operating, easier riding, safer car, which features 46 important improvements. There is new beauty in the car's road-hugging, sweeping appearance, and color harmony perfection in the new interior, which are new Plymouth features for quality fabrics. The luxurious interior is blended beautifully with the exterior colors. The car has all the features for comfort, economy, safety and durability which have become traditional with Plymouth. Shown above is the new four-door Cranbrook sedan.

Smooth, Easy Performance Featured in New Plymouth

The new Plymouth for 1952 will go on display in dealer showrooms throughout the United States, Friday, January 4.

A long list of improvements—46 in all—has been incorporated in the engine, the brakes, the electrical system, the chassis, and to the inside and outside of the body.

The new car, according to D. S. Eddins, president of Plymouth, has been improved and refined to provide "the most gentle ride, the smoothest engine performance and the greatest safety ever built into a car for the lowest price field."

Exceptional engine smoothness is produced through a newly designed combustion chamber; brakes are improved and long-life; Plymouth's famous Safety-Flow ride has been made even more comfortable by improvements in the springing and to the Orloff shock absorbers; and the car's beauty is enhanced by numerous styling refinements.

The Plymouth has a road-hugging, sweeping appearance, accentuated by changes in the external adornment.

Interior is attained with the high quality upholstery fabrics in harmonious colors which blend beautifully with the instrument and door panels.

The smart hardtop club coupe, the Belvedere, is the pace-setter in the lowest price field with its new concepts in styling and beauty. The car has gleaming, lively two-tone colors which set it apart and give it the continental look. The color used on the roof follows the Belvedere's streamlined contour around the spacious rear window and down over both the front and rear brakes; an improved drum design on the front brakes for smoother operation and better cooling; an easier operating brake pedal travel spring; and a redesigned steering knuckle to provide more positive protection from road jolts.

Passenger and driver comfort has been increased with improvements to Plymouth's "Safety-Flow ride." The cushion-type seats in the Orloff shock absorbers, increased travel in the front springs and a new interliner for the rear springs provide quieter operation, reduced

There are ten body types in the new Plymouth line, available in an array of eight regular, and two special sparkling new colors. The traditional interior roominess and the many "high-priced car" features for which Plymouth has been distinctive have been retained throughout the new line.

SMOOTH PERFORMANCE
A new, smoother flow of power system in the newly designed combustion chamber in Plymouth's famous floating power engine. The six-cylinder, 97 horsepower engine has a 7 to 1 compression ratio. Longer life for both the main and rod bearings is achieved through an improved type of base metal.

To further insure smoothness of performance and faster getaway, several refinements in the new Synchro-Silent transmission permit faster, easier shifting, and more rapid and positive engagement of gears.

The rear axle is improved, and there are provisions which permit more accurate gear and bearing adjustments.

Operating temperatures up to an additional eight degrees without the hazard of losing water or antifreeze result from further improvements to the pressure-vent radiator cap, which provides a pressurized cooling system.

STURDY BRAKES
The traditionally sturdy Safe-Guard Hydraulic brakes have been given greater ease of operation, and much longer life. New Cyclobond brake linings provide greater braking area and longer braking life. There are heavier backing plates on both the front and rear brakes; an improved drum design on the front brakes for smoother operation and better cooling; an easier operating brake pedal travel spring; and a redesigned steering knuckle to provide more positive protection from road jolts.

Passenger and driver comfort has been increased with improvements to Plymouth's "Safety-Flow ride." The cushion-type seats in the Orloff shock absorbers, increased travel in the front springs and a new interliner for the rear springs provide quieter operation, reduced steering wheel shock, less friction and an improved ride.

Quicker starting in hot or cold weather with less drain on the battery is assured by the new "Follo-Thru" anti-kickout feature of the starter, the foremost among numerous changes in the electrical system. Greater visibility under adverse driving conditions is provided by a ten per cent increase in the sweep of the electrically-operated windshield wipers.

BEAUTIFUL STYLING
Luxury and color harmony are the keynote of this beautiful new Plymouth. A fine selection of long-wearing, quality fabrics is available in shades which blend beautifully with the car's exterior colors. An attractive "Lustru-Tone" instrument panel features controls which are conveniently grouped and instruments which are colored and lettered for easy reference while driving. Newly designed to further beautify the Plymouth are the ornament, the top molding, and the meridian on the hood, and the license light and name plate on the rear deck lid. The sweeping, low appearance of the car is further accentuated by the lowering of the year's fastest molding.

Solex tinted safety glass is available throughout the Plymouth line as optional equipment at small extra cost. The glass reduces interior temperatures on hot summer days, minimizes fading of upholstery or seat cover fabrics, and reduces sun glare.

Among the many features which have been retained in the new Plymouth are the wide, deep chaise-lit seats, the ease of entrance and exit, the combination ignition and starter switch, automatic electric choke, super-cushion tires, and safety-twin wheels.

Huron County Tax Statements Mailed

Tax statements for the first half 1951 real estate payments were mailed Monday of this week in a statement released by Harold B. Collier, Huron County Treasurer.

The time for payment has been extended to January 31, 1952. The Treasurer states that in most instances there is an upward trend in tax rates. These were levies or bond issues for various subdivisions voted at last November election. The re-appraisal of property now in progress is only a small part completed and the new valuations therefore will not apply until the first half 1952 tax which will be one year hence.

The last session of legislature removed from the statutes the partial penalty provision which now makes it mandatory by law that the full 10 per cent now apply immediately upon closing the tax books. Here-to-fore a graduated penalty was in effect for 30 day periods until it reached the maximum of 10 per cent penalty.

The Treasurer wishes to remind, as the former Miss Alphine Doyle may be made in person at the office, by personal check or postal money order, or by payment to various deputy collectors throughout the county.

THEY GET AWAY WITH TOOLS AT ROBERTS SAW MILL
When Bradley Roberts opened up his place of business Tuesday morning on the Bucyrus Road, he discovered that thieves had entered his saw mill and made off with a valuable drill, hawk saw, chisel, wrenches and some gasoline.

The thieves had sawed off the staples to the tool box and carried the tools to a waiting car going north as indicated by tire tracks in the snow. The robbery took place sometime after midnight, possibly between one and two o'clock.

Fingerprints were secured and Chief of Police Meiser had a number of other clues which he hoped would clear up the robbery within a few days.

County-wide Juvenile Installation Held
Approximately 150 honorary and Juvenile Grange members attended the recently County wide installation of Juvenile Grange officers for 1952. The members of Union Juvenile Grange with their matrons, Mrs. Dessie White were hosts for the affair.

Officers from Union, Plymouth, Grange, Hazel Grove, Shennadoah, Butler and Oliveburg Juvenile Granges were installed.

The installation team was from Grange Juvenile Grange with Paul Mellick as installing officer. So far as is known this is the only Juvenile installation team in the state which makes them outstanding in that field.

The following Juvenile Matrons were installed by the county Juvenile Deputy: Mrs. Dessie White of Union; Mrs. Grace Switzer of Grange; Mrs. Catherine Aumend of Plymouth; Mrs. Earl Stina of Shennadoah; Mrs. Helen Kissel of Oliveburg; and Mrs. Janice Tennis of Butler.

The youngest Juvenile Grange in the county is Plymouth Juvenile Grange which was organized during the past year. Gordon Riggles is serving as their first Master. Mrs. Catherine Aumend and Mrs. Geraldine Riggles are their Matrons.

Among the ten top Juvenile Granges in the state, winning recognition for their achievement in 1951 were three from Richland county. Achievement banners were presented them by Deputy Master Charles Oberlin.
