

Court Ruling Halts Fire Truck Purchase in New Haven Twp.

Judge Robert J. Vetter of the Huron-co common pleas court has granted a temporary injunction restraining the New Haven townships from purchasing a fire truck.

The action was taken by the court following the filing of a petition by Walter E. Cummings, New Haven farmer and business manager. Signing of the petition by over 385 residents of the township outside of the village of Willard, was in protest to the trustees proposing a fire protection arrangement that had been in effect between the township and the Willard volunteer fire department for several years.

The split in the four-way partnership which included Willard and two other townships followed a recent $10,000 purchase of a fire truck for more money per fire run. All agreed to the request except New Haven trustees, who stated that they would purchase their own fire truck and man it.

The approximate cost of such an arrangement would be about $12,000.

TRAFFIC ACTION ILLEGAL The petition filed in common pleas court and signed by residents of Willard Heights, New Haven village, Celeryville and New Haven-twp declares that the action taken by the township trustees is illegal because the purchase of the truck did not have approval of the prosecuting attorney before the purchase agreement was entered into, (the trustees had already placed an order and entered into an agreement with Harry Stupphen and Associates Manufacturing Co., Columbus, for the purchase of the truck) arrangements had not been made for an adequate township department, the defendants had not created a fire district; and that ordinary township funds cannot be legally used for the purchase of a truck, and have not been lawfully appropriated.

The temporary injunction enjoined Charles A. Wyandt, William Lisk, and Charles Willoughby, New Haven trustees, from offering, purchasing, taking delivery, accepting, acquiring a fire truck, apparatus and other equipment described in the petition herein, and from paying therefor any or all of the purchase price, and from the order of the court. The trustees have already set up a temporary fire unit at Heister's Inc., which is at the extreme boundary line of the township and which has already proved a nuisance factory for when a recent fire occurred in the township the unit could not be reached and the Willard fire department had to be called.

With the removal of all equipment from the old North Street location to the Scher building at the corner of West High and 22nd Street, across from the Schneider Lumber Co., C. M. The new home of McPherson's Body & Paint Shop is at an ideal location, and much more room is afforded for the expanding business of this firm.

McPherson not only specializes in body and fender work and car painting, but he also maintains a day and night towing service. So if you need help at any time give this enterprising firm a "buzz" and you'll be with you in a matter of minutes.

Along with his varied line of auto finishing and repairing, McPherson will carry at all times a good selection of used cars. At the new location, there is a large lot across from the building on which used cars will be found at all times.

Improving News is meager regarding the condition of Joe Lee Kennedy, who had been released from the hospital in Tokyo, and states he was feeling a little better. The Red Cross advised that he had a new address and that by the end of the week they hope for more details.

Hard luck seems to run in streaks, for a daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Robert Kennedy, was transferred by Memorial hospital last Thursday for an appendectomy operation. However, her condition is much improved and she hopes to leave Friday to her home on Porter street.

On the bright side of the picture, another son, Neal, who is in Seattle, Saturday evening arrived home last Thursday evening unexpectedly for a short leave and will return to his base on Saturday. TO TRAVEL IN EUROPE

Above are shown Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erickson of Mansfield, associate with the Plymouth Library through the County Bookmobile and reference library. They will leave the States on September 2nd for a year and a half of travel through Europe and plans call for a bicycle tour of several European countries.

Turning a dream into a reality is a matter of work, thought, and long range planning. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erickson, of the Mansfield Library staff, will assure you.

This young and very interesting couple handed in their resignations at Mansfield this month, and September 2nd will sail aboard the great ship, Queen Elizabeth, eastward bound for foreign ports and a year and half of experience and adventure. A part of their plans call for a bicycle tour of several European countries.

Mr. Erickson has been our County Librarian out of Mansfield and will continue his county work until the summer bookmobile schedule is completed. He has served the local library most competently. Mrs. Erickson has been with the Mansfield library as reference librarian.

Robert and Janice Ganyard Erickson met in college over at Wooster, and found that they were not only compatible but had a dream in common — that of travelling in lands foreign to us, and of living among the people of a time. Robert, Janice and the dream, continued their education at Western Reserve University and became librarians. Mr. Erickson continued his studies at Ohio State University and the University of Cincinnati, and in August 1951 both he and his wife began their work at Mansfield.

A matter of years ago, the Ericksons began the actual planning and correspondence necessary for an extensive tour in Europe, and that long look ahead has saved them many a mistake, and made it possible for them to realize their dream.

Erickson is not a stranger to Europe, having served for two years in the service of Uncle Sam as a machine gunner and later as interpreter in Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters. As a serviceman he was in France, Germany, Belgium, and Italy.

Some of the places they will become acquainted with, and which sound thrilling to a chair-bound middle-aged, are Luxembourg; the towns and countryside of Holland where they will actually see the Delft blue is like; Belgium; Germany, where they will perhaps make an attempt to visit in East Berlin; and on, on with England, Scotland, all four of the Scandinavian countries, as Mr. Erickson is of Scandinavian extraction; Normandy and Brittany.

They will also see some of the magic-potent names until one's head whirrs as the cycle wheels. Besides visiting, and for Mr. Erickson, the most important part of the trip will be the battle areas of Europe. Continued on Page Five

WELL-KNOWN NEW WENTZ RITES HAVEN RESIDENT PASSES AWAY

Funeral services were held Friday, August 11, at 2 p. m. at the Quaker Funeral home in Plymouth for Mrs. Hattie Garrett, 77, of New Haven, who was found dead in her home the preceding Wednesday afternoon. Rev. C. R. Meek of Plymouth officiated and burial was made in the New Haven cemetery.

Mrs. Garrett while not in the prime of life, had not complained of feeling worse and her death came as a distinct shock. She frequently took her son Carl's dinner to him at the noon hour to the General Store, and when she didn't appear Wednesday noon, Mr. Davison sent a youngster down to inquire if she was in the store. He answered, the child returned home and told her mother. Investigation found that Mrs. Garrett had evidently suffered a heart attack for she was found lying on the lawn, her glasses in her hand.

Mrs. Garrett was born in Huron county, the daughter of Ralph and Anna Snyder of New Haven and had lived in the New Haven vicinity all her life. She was a member of the New Haven church.

FARMERS TO VOTE ON WHEAT QUOTAS FRIDAY

There are 450 farmers in Richland county who are eligible to vote on the wheat quotas Friday. They have been notified as such, and voting places are the Shenadoah Grange hall, Lucas township office, Bellville Farm Bureau, the Mansfield PMA office and at the Mansfield School, one mile west of Shelby.

Guy Taylor, chairman of Richland PMA, points out that two things are of the great growth in wheat production. One is to set up in cooperation with other health agencies in the community. She said the purpose of the exhibit is to show the functions and resources available to the public through the various health agencies located in our own community. Groups are being set up in the health exhibit are the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, the Society for Crippled Children, Muscular Dystrophy, American Red Cross, Mansfield - Richland Co. Around THE Square

WITH A head cold striking Monday, poor Ole Phinias just could not get settled down to writing a column this week. However, the cold is better Wednesday, and at the last minute we might put in an interesting paragraph or two.

THOSE WHO had a garden this summer are somewhat indifferent to their success. Tommy Webster says he has a big crop of tomatoes, corn, etc., and others report unusually good yields. Frank Williams, who has been taught "diet conscious" there is always a surplus of wheat, and from reports of the Agricultural Department quite a number of us aren't eating bread.

THE FRANKS of Hazel Grove enjoyed a picnic southwest of Plymouth, enjoyed an old-fashioned picnic at Seltzer Park, Shelby, last Friday. Grange members are assisting on Friday of this week at the Richland Junior Fair.

WE UNDERSTAND that the necessary signs have been ordered by the village council, and upon their delivery they will be erected at the proper locations. Chief Bob Meiser states that as soon as the markers are placed they will begin to tell the trucks to slow down and keep quiet. Plymouth isn't the only town that's up in the air over unnecessary truck noises, and we hope that all communities will get up there enough to do something about it!

F. NISWONGER of Cincinnati, Ohio, paid the Advertiser a surprise visit last week as he was passing through our village. Mr. Niswonger, years ago as a child, resided just south of Plymouth on Lake Erie and lived here about 1922. Now married, he and his wife and two daughters were on a motor trip over the eastern part of the state, visiting for a few days on Lake Erie and stopping at all the historical points of interest along the way. From Plymouth they went to Malabar Farm, home of author Louis Bromfield, Lucas, Ohio, and will make other stopovers before returning to Cincinnati.

STARTING next Monday, August 17, Bob Lewis will close his barbershop for a week. He and his family are taking a trip down through the southeastern part of the country. We hope they have a wonderful visit!

SOME OF OUR advertisers are surprised at "repeats" they see in the paper. Last Saturday Koser's market ran out of chickens - he's repeating it this Saturday. Well, just take the grocery store on Lake Erie and stop at them - and you'll find that you can buy as cheaply here as going out of town - if you count the gas in the deal!

PLAN HEALTH EXHIBIT AT COUNTY FAIR

It was announced today by Mrs. Howard Forbes of Bellefontaine, Chairman of the Richland County Health Council that there will be a health exhibit at the Richland County Junior Fair, August 12 to 15.

According to Mrs. Forbes the health booth, which is to be sponsored by the Richland County Health Council, is to be set up in cooperation with other health agencies in the community. She said the purpose of the exhibit is to show the functions and resources available to the public through the various health agencies located in our own community. Groups are being set up in the health exhibit are the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, the Society for Crippled Children, Muscular Dystrophy, American Red Cross, Mansfield - Richland Co. Health Department, American Cancer Society, Richland Co. Tuberculosis Association, Community Chest, and the Home Safety Program of the Mansfield-Richland Co. Health Department, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Heart Fund and Retarded Children.

The attractive health booth will be located in the steel building at the fair grounds.

AMBUANCE TRIPS Mrs. McQuate will be riding the bus to the fair grounds on Monday, August 17, to see the fair. She is being accompanied by Mrs. Herr from Shenadosh to the Ashland Hospital.

Mrs. Carl Pittinger from the County Line Road, east on the Richland Greenway Road to the Shelby Hospital.

Billy Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Miller, of the Cleveland Hospital.

Visitors from Pa. Mr. and Mrs. William Brougher of Carlisle, Pa., and Mrs. Wayne Brougher and two sons of Harrisburg, Pa., were entertained from Saturday until Tuesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brougher.

MOVING TO LOUDOUNVILLE

Harold Stover, manager of the local Farm Bureau branch, for the past seven years, is being transferred to the management of a new branch opening in Loudounville, Saturday will be his last day here.

Mr. Stover came here from Shelby seven years ago this month, and has been associated with the Farm Bureau organization for the past sixteen years. Since coming to Shiloh, he has made an enviable record for himself in the community, greatly increasing the firm's business since assuming management and has never been one to shirk responsibility in community affairs. He has been a member of the Shiloh fire department for the past several years and last February was nominated a candidate for council by his party in the coming election.

He says he leaves Shiloh with regret. He likes the community, and the people and will miss his many friends here, but feels that he must go when opportunity calls.

"We'll miss you too, Harold, and feel certain that the community joins us in wishing you every success at your new location."

THRILLED WHEN SHE MEETS TELEVISION STAR

Miss Mary Keesy of Prospect St. got the "thrill of a lifetime" last Friday night when she, in the company of some other young people, motored up to Crystal Beach and met Miss LaKeyne Dahl, television star appearing with Dick Lumley's orchestra.

It appears that Miss Dahl first appeared on television on WEWS in the Sunday program called "Giant Tigers", and the letter Miss Keesy sent her following her appearance in the program was her first fan letter she received. Miss Keesy was her first fan, and she was, apparently, as thrilled as Miss Keesy at the meeting. She and the orchestra dedicated a special number to "my first fan", entitled "A Red Kiss on a Blue Letter."

Back In States After Practice Cruise

David Wichie, YNSN phoned his mother, Mrs. Edna Gieseman, Thursday evening from Jacksonville, Florida, telling her that he had docked at Norfolk, Va., the previous evening after a two month trip to South America.

David was aboard the carrier Saipan which left Norfolk June 8 for a two months practice cruise and visited eight ports in the Caribbean and on the east coast of South and Central America.

Among the ports visited were Rio de Janeiro and Santos, Brazil, Havana and Barranquilla, Columbia; Naval Station, Trinidad, Willemstad, Curacao, and others.

The summer cruise scheduled, which included the Saipan, 30 ships participated with 3232 midies aboard. The fleet proceeded from Santos, Brazil to the operating area at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, for gunnery exercises, before returning to Norfolk.

Moves To Indiana

Norris (Squire) Gilger, who has been making his home at the VFW Trailer Camp near Eddyville, Ky., for the past three or four months, apparently got his fill of catching big catfish in Kentucky and has moved to Liberty, Ind., where he is engaged on construction of a big chunk of his new home.

In a recent letter to his niece, Mrs. Monroe Van Wagner, he writes that he arrived at Liberty on July 30 and has his trailer located in a nice spot with water and electricity available. He laid off work that morning to pipe the water into his trailer.

The church construction job he says will probably last several months. His address is: Norris Gilger, 306 Eaton St., Liberty, Ind. ☐ C. R. Stafford.

"MASKED BANDITS" TAKE OVER GARAGE

Alva Laser, who lives on the Free road east of town, was just a little startled and not a little apprehensive when he started to drive into his garage one night last week and saw three masked bandits of wood and field waiting for him there.

The rascals were "whopping" fellows, Alva said, and they did not want to leave when he attempted to drive them out. He left the garage door open and went into the house to bed. The next morning they were gone.

For one startled moment, we thought the town was under bombardment.

ECHOES OF YESTERDAY

Through the courtesy of Mr. L. D. Wolfersberger of High St., we are in possession of several issues of the old "Shiloh Review", dated 1895-'96 and '98 and published by F. Wolfersberger and G. W. Page.

The papers are dusty and yellowed with age and somewhat crumbling to the touch, but we are in possession of several issues of the old "Shiloh Review", dated 1895-'96 and '98 and published by F. Wolfersberger and G. W. Page.

The papers are dusty and yellowed with age and somewhat crumbling to the touch, but we are in possession of several issues of the old "Shiloh Review", dated 1895-'96 and '98 and published by F. Wolfersberger and G. W. Page.

FOR EXAMPLE, WE TAKE THE ISSUE DATED FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1895.

The paper is one big sheet, folded to make eight pages with the folds between the second and third pages and sixth and seventh pages uncut. The first page contains two full length columns of railroad time tables and the remainder of the page is made up entirely of news of national interest. Apparently in those times the weekly printings of the daily newspapers and weeklies of today. One full column was devoted to items such as this: (The caption is ours)

Wonder If Jim Culler Can Top This

Edwin Russell of Manistee, Mich., is displaying a prize squash. It would need a derrick to raise it into his show window, so small just let it remain on the floor. The squash was raised by a farmer, Bradford, near Bear lake and weighed 138 lbs.

On page five are listed the persons and news of local interest, containing the Shiloh markets. We list them below:

Oats	60c
Wheat	18c
Corn	20c
Clover	3.00
Timothy	2.50
Butter	1.00
Eggs	16c
Salt	1.00
Hay	10.00

The paper appeared to be well patronized by the advertisers. Among Shiloh firms listed are: G. O. Dickerson, butcher; Fenner & Prame, druggist and oil stores; I. Maring, insurance and loans; Dr. Motley, dentist; E. S. S. clothing; and J. Page, dry goods. Among the Plymouth advertisers were: Plymouth Stone Co.; Sol Spear clothing; Tyson Bros., grocers and gravestones; and M. Shield & Son, clothing. A number of Shelby firms advertised, too.

From time to time, as space permits, we will come up with some more items from these old papers. The contents are rather fascinating once one starts digging into them.

PACKLER FAMILY REUNION LAST SUNDAY

The 15th annual reunion of the Fackler family was held Sunday, August 9, at Mary Fater Park in Plymouth. A picnic dinner was served at noon to the 45 members of the family present.

The business meeting was called to order by Harley Kendig, president, and it was voted to retain the same officers for another year. They are: Harley Kendig, Shiloh, secretary; Floa Kendig, Shiloh, president; and Ray Fackler of Ashland, remainder. The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially.

The 51st reunion of the family will be held at the Katatowa Club house east of Ashland the second Sunday in August, 1954.

THRILLED WHEN SHE MEETS TELEVISION STAR

Miss Mary Keesy of Prospect St. got the "thrill of a lifetime" last Friday night when she, in the company of some other young people, motored up to Crystal Beach and met Miss LaKeyne Dahl, television star appearing with Dick Lumley's orchestra.

It appears that Miss Dahl first appeared on television on WEWS in the Sunday program called "Giant Tigers", and the letter Miss Keesy sent her following her appearance in the program was her first fan letter she received. Miss Keesy was her first fan, and she was, apparently, as thrilled as Miss Keesy at the meeting. She and the orchestra dedicated a special number to "my first fan", entitled "A Red Kiss on a Blue Letter."

NOTICE

"MASKED BANDITS" TAKE OVER GARAGE

Alva Laser, who lives on the Free road east of town, was just a little startled and not a little apprehensive when he started to drive into his garage one night last week and saw three masked bandits of wood and field waiting for him there.

The rascals were "whopping" fellows, Alva said, and they did not want to leave when he attempted to drive them out. He left the garage door open and went into the house to bed. The next morning they were gone.

CLOSING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS

Moser's Hardware store has fallen in line along with a number of other Shiloh business places, and starting yesterday, August 12, is closing its doors on Wednesday afternoons until further notice.

LOUD BOOM

The jarring boom heard by residents of Shiloh shortly after 8:00 Monday evening was caused by a dynamite blast set off by Ernest Cole under a tree near his residence on Church St. Mr. Cole wanted to get the tree out of the way so that he can erect a garage on its site. For one startled moment, we thought the town was under bombardment.

Marvin's MUSINGS

By AL MARVIN

In baseball, as in everyday life, a change of scenery is good. For Ray Boone, Tigers' new third baseman, it's been a lifesaver, anyway a job saver. The 29-year old player was washed up in Cleveland. In Detroit, he's a new man and beginning to enjoy the career precipitated for him when he first came up to the majors in 1948.

Boone was unhappy in Cleveland. He hated to play ball there. Indeed, he played very poorly. "I felt pressure all the time," he says. "Everytime I went to field a ball, I'd think about what a boeing I'd get from the stands, and the criticism in the papers if I missed it. I just couldn't play ball there."

Ray was a shortstop during his four full seasons in Cleveland, and was a little leary about moving to third when the Tigers obtained him in the June trade which sent pitcher Art Houtteman to the Indians. But the Bengals have a rising young star in shortstop, Harvey Kijenn, so they had to find a place for Boone.

It has worked out fine and the curly-haired infielder plays the hot corner well. Most important, he's hitting hard. In a month with Detroit, he lifted his batting average, 241 to over 300.

Boone wasn't always an infielder. He started as a catcher in 1942. In '47 while with the Indians' farm at Oklahoma City, the regular shortstop was hurt and his replacement didn't arrive in time.

Ray asked to play the position. He did, for the last 14 games that season, and continued in the field the following year.

Cleveland brought him up in time for the World Series in '48, and he was tabbed as Lou Boudreau's successor when the manager's legs gave out. To follow such a star was pressure enough.

When Boone failed to measure up to the standards of Boudreau, the customers "got on" him.

Ray says it has worked out fine, now and beams happily. Detroit agrees. Now he's the most popular Tiger, and cries for Boone instead of boos come rolling out of the Briggs Stadium stands when he comes to bat.

TO TRAVEL IN EUROPE
 rope, the travelers will investigate Elsinore, Castle, Denmark, and there will be to us if they see the famous ghost.

They hope to fit their time schedule so that they may attend the Wagner Festival and the Mozart Festival and for the Christmas Holidays and holy days, if all goes well, they will be in Rome, Italy.

Bicycles will be used when practical, and when weather and political red tape interfere, they will use other means of transportation. Sometimes during their sojourn, Robert and Janice Erickson will be in Yugoslavia, to get a little first-hand information on that Tito-land. Duri gets colder months they may be in sunny Spain or Portugal. Somewhere off the southern coast, on the sunshine side of Madeira, there is a white villa awaiting them. These accommodations, the furnished villa, and four servants established there, is theirs for the period. It overlooks the bay of Palma.

Speaking further of financial adjustments, the travelers have found that in Holland, it is possible to find room on the hoteling tour, for two people, for two dollars.

Further travels and adventures will take them on the road to Greece, Turkey, Israel, and in fact they will trim the blue Mediterranean Sea before they turn Northward again. We do not know their exact plans for Egypt, but we certainly hope that they strike up a speaking acquaintanceship with the Sphinx, and perhaps solve some of the mysteries of the pyramids and the ancient Nile. Mrs. Erickson is also probably interested in the silken veils of Tunisia.

Into what adventures and experiences this traveling dream will lead them, Mr. and Mrs. Erickson do not fully know, but a good many of us are wishing that they could be planning years back. We wish them both happy and worthwhile months ahead, and hope they keep in touch with us from time to time.

Mr. Erickson, who is from Youngstown, Ohio, has many friends in his work throughout the country, and he and Mrs. Erickson will be missed in Mansfield, where his home was in Mansfield, will be remembered by some as the daughter of Mr. Ganyard, one-time Extension agent for the county about 15 years ago.

To both of them — bon voyage!

"Old Times" At National Air Race On Sept. 5 to 7

Jimmy Doolittle, who won the Bendix Transcontinental Trophy at the National Air Races in 1931 with a speed of 223 miles an hour, and who went on to take the Thompson Trophy in 1932 with 212 miles an hour in those old propeller plane days, will head a reunion of fifty aviation pioneers for the 1933 National Aircraft Show in Dayton on Labor Day week end, Sept. 5, 6 and 7, when the same trophies will be won by modern jet planes flying more than three times as fast.

As Sohio's Salute to Ohio's Sesquicentennial, old-time players such as Doolittle, Roscoe Turner, Eddie Rickenbacker, Gen. Frank P. Lahm (who was taught to fly by the Wright brothers), David S. Ingalls (World War I naval ace), and a host of others will be present, with the throngs at the air show by Governor Frank J. Lausche and A. M. Stambaugh, chairman of the board of Sohio.

The Sohio Oil Company (Sohio) served the Wright brothers the world's first purchasers of aviation gasoline, back in 1903 and this year marks the fiftieth anniversary of powered flight.

The Aircraft Show, sponsored by the Dayton Chamber of Commerce, Air Foundation of Cleveland and the Ohio Sesquicentennial Commission, is an outstanding event of the state's 150th birthday celebration. Arrangements at the field are being made for more than 20,000 visitors for the three day show and tickets are on sale all over the state.

Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps and Army Airmen will take part in the big events in the air each day, with more new planes on display than ever before in aviation's history for half a century. There will be the traditional events of the world record speeds in the Allison, Thompson, Bendix and other dashes, as well as the largest ground display in the world—300 exhibits in five hangars of the nation's leading industries in the aviation field.

FORMER PLYMOUTH RESIDENTS PLAN GOLDEN WEDDING
Fifty years ago this coming September 3rd, Miss Mary Kirkpatrick became the bride of Mr. Fred Charboneaux at one of the grandest and finest weddings held in the community. All of Miss Kirkpatrick's classmates attended the ceremony which was performed in the home of her parents on Mills Avenue in the brick house now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker. After living in Plymouth for sometime, the young couple went to Detroit, Mich., to make their home where they have since resided.

Periodically, Mrs. Charboneaux has returned to Plymouth to visit with former friends especially at commencement time and the alumni banquet and only last year returned to celebrate the golden anniversary of her graduation from the local schools.

This year, she and her husband planned to hold an open house to mark their 50th wedding anniversary but the early part of the summer, Mrs. Charboneaux suffered a heart attack from which she has not recovered sufficiently to hold the affair. So, the day will be marked with only her three children and their families home for the affair.

Friends in Plymouth who remember Mr. and Mrs. Charboneaux who may wish to send them greetings on their 50th anniversary may address them to 101 Hilltop Ave., Highland Park, Mich.

FAMILY GATHERING
