

Community chest to seek $3,300 in campaign to start Nov. 11

Establishment of a community chest, with a goal of $3,300 for its first fund drive November 11 to 25, was announced by the board of directors Monday night.

H. James Root, personnel director and assistant secretary of Fafe-Roo-Het Co., has been elected president of the chest. Married and the father of three sons, he is a graduate of Denison university at Granville.

J. Elden Nimmens, chairman of the board of directors of Peoples National bank, is vice-president.

dent of the board; James C. Davis, assistant cashier of the bank, will serve as secretary-treasurer.

OTHER MEMBERS OF THE BOARD are Mrs. Samuel Robertson, appointed for a three-year term; John T. Dick and Glenn Hass, two-year terms; Mrs. J. A. Morrison and Martin W. McConaughay, one-year terms.

Mrs. A. L. Paddock, Jr., wife of the editor of The Advertiser, will direct the drive this year. She is a graduate of the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis, where she majored in pedagogy and social welfare, and has long experience in public welfare, both here and abroad.

"This drive will be conducted principally by mail," the board said Monday. "This will eliminate the bother of having solicitors call door-to-door."

Proceeds of the campaign will be divided thus:

Heart fund	$125
Health fund	$600
Girl Scouts	$250
Boy Scouts	$450
Plymouth Midget League	$250
Salvation Army	$500
American Red Cross	$500
HVHS band	$350
Mary Fafe park recreation	$100
Overhead	$125

"WE FEEL SURE," MRS.

which is intended to be supported from the proceeds of the chest drive and will continue to contribute toward services for people of Plymouth.

"is to help the band along in its needs and to get it out of door-to-door solicitation of merchants, businesses and the public. The annual festival and a bake sale or two will make up the balance of what's needed."

The red feather, symbol of community chest, during the nation over, will be used this year, the board said. A thermometer chart will be erected on the bank building to indicate progress of the drive.

So you're having a few guests to dinner? Don't be ruffled, don't be frazzled. Be prepared. Start at dawn. Have a car, with motor running, parked outside the back door, ready to dash off for everything you forgot to buy the day before, when all the stores were opened.

I have become lately a gluton for articles on how to be the perfect hostess. And I am developing a great desire to meet the characters who write them. They must live in little glass cages which do not have football games, people, cats and telephones.

NOW THAT SOME OLD friends have come and gone, we can break down and admit what a lousy hostess I really am. Being good friends, they even let us know they were coming, what day, and almost what time. So we started to be prepared and on our toes.

Finally the day dawned. We woke up feeling that a great weight was holding us down. A closer look proved we were right. Two cats were sleeping like babies, stretched full-length down the front of my bed. Cat fanciers know that Siamese cats are not ordinary; they weigh more than most. You don't even have to look at the beasts, just a glance at their food bill shows it plainly.

ABOUT FIVE HOURS LATER, in between listening to football games on the radio and reading a new novel which is irresistible, we start dinner. By then, I realize I did not include some very essential items in our shopping the day before. That hurdle is jumped because everyone in the house is in a happy mood. They too, like the friends who are coming, and do not mind combing the countryside for what I forgot.

Finally, the guests arrive, one of them. The other seemed to have wandered off in the wrong direction. A search party found them. By nine at night, you will eat most anything and it will taste good, since one roast beef sandwich is all you have had all day.

Ten hours to this meal is tricky. If you are just plain dumb about it, less than an hour will turn it out. We like the long way about. (What else would there be to write about?)

While you put the last minute touches on in the kitchen, sit your guests down with a bowl of potato chips with a dip which is nothing but a pint of sour cream mixed with a package of dried onion soup. Let them dip. They can drink tomato juice while dipping.

FOR DINNER, START WITH bouillon which comes in cans. Drop a thin slice of lemon in each cup, and serve, piping hot. At least you can try. Next comes the dinner plate, with a piece of beef filet. Buy a whole one, and slice the pieces the size you want them to be. About an inch thick is best. On this, a sauce. The sauce must be just right. Make one cup of stock by boiling four cups of water, two bouillon cubes, a little piece of celery, carrots, and peppercorns until it cooks down to one cup. Add one cup of real cream to this and keep simmering. In another saucepan, one you love and trust, melt two tablespoons of butter with a small handful of peppercorns, melt two tablespoons of butter with a small handful of peppercorns, add three tablespoons of flour, when blended, add the stock and cream, stirring constantly. It will make a beautiful, smooth, creamy looking sauce. To this add a little brandy.

The sauce is poured over the filet, which should be finished in the broiler. Serve with tiny peas and mushrooms. By then, I realize I did not include some that looks pretty, like red crab apples. With a tossed salad, rolls, and sherbert you have a good meal.

The recipe for the sauce was given to us by some young Swiss friend who got it from a little restaurant somewhere in France. The peppercorns make it hot, but it is tasty, and we love it.

WE COMPLETELY FORGOT to say Happy Columbus Day to our friends this year. We know they must have enjoyed it. Columbus has always been close to our hearts.

For several years we lived just up the hill in Genoa, from his little house. He was supposedly born in it, although historians do not agree. Nevertheless, hardly a day passed that we didn't pass it. It was not much to look at, but the fact that it was so darn old and still standing was marvelous.

Just 465 years ago, he took a terrific chance of sailing the ocean blue and right smack off into space when he left with his three little ships to prove the earth was round, not flat. I suspect that many hoisted and laughed. Now when someone says we will soon reach the moon, we ought to have the good grace to keep quiet. We might.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Paddock:

Writer wishes to compliment you on your excellent editorial in your issue Thursday, October 10th, with reference to closing of the Shelby Air Force Depot. Your editorial is to be commended for its good judgment and sensible point of view.

I am today writing to Congressman J. Harry McGregor, offering him my personal services in case I can be helpful in any way, in account of our business interests in Shelby, Ohio.

Sincerely,
Louis S. Bing

IT'S NICE TO HAVE THE SCHOOL DISTRICT welcomed into Huron county, but not so nice that none of the candidates for the three vacancies — and there are six such — has shown his face hereabouts. Not in our shop, anyway.

Anyway, a pat on the back to the affable Wayne Stire, able high school principal, who's set Thursday night for the time when candidates for Board of Education posts can give their views as to how the school situation should be solved.

THE BEST WAY, SAYS WEATHERVANE, to see how good a candidate is or will be is to pin him down to a platform, and then see to it he sticks to it. If a candidate has no platform, no views on specific issues, no specific changes he wants to make, says W., he's not worth while.

LEE CAVIN, THE CAPABLE EDITOR AT Seville, complains that he averages two visitors a week who seek rental accommodations, but they don't seem interested enough to run down the housing leads he gives them, albeit they're supposedly desperate for living quarters. The pad and pencil he keeps on the front counter are seldom used by anyone but him, and then when the callers ask him to write it down.

He says he wouldn't rent his own property to folks who think so little of the lead they won't write it down.

They're our sentiments exactly, and his experience parallels ours. This office has been a sort of clearing house for rental properties for many months now, and occasionally you find somebody who's keen on finding a place to live and will run down all leads. Brother Tepicovic of New Haven was one such and it was a pleasure to help him.

R. J. W. AT THE PUMP TELLS US ABOUT a chap who was rewarded with a bottle of joy juice, which he thrust into the pocket of his overalls. En route home, he was bumped by a car and thrown to the pavement. Unhurt, he rose and started home.

In a trice, he felt something warm running down his leg.

"Migosh," he mighoshed, "I hope that's blood."

Warriors collapse as Lodi wins, 6 to 0

Relentless pressure applied through 46 minutes broke down the Huron Valley High school defenses Friday night and Lodi's Tigers marched home with an upset 6 to 0 victory.

The injury-riddled Warriors — Ray Eisel is out for the season after an appendectomy, Ed Taylor missed the game because of a shoulder injury and Dick Fidler has a sprained ankle — played poorly. Only one did the vaunted Warrior offense penetrate Lodi territory, and that occurred after recovering a Lodi fumble on the first kickoff.

IT WAS A COSTLY VICTORY for the Tigers, whose shifty halfback, Bruce Pope, broke a collarbone in the second period and had to leave the game.

It was clearly a case of too much Lodi. The Tigers raked up 13 first downs to Huron Valley's four and lost another touch-down in the second quarter on a penalty.

After Pope left the contest, Coach Ben Spechbach relied upon Jim Allen and Jim Nicholas for most of the mail carrying and they did not let him down.

ALLEN RIPPED INTO THE end zone in the fourth quarter after the Tigers had marched 67 yards in 10 plays. A third down pass, Jim Nicholas to Gene High, good for seven yards, sparked the advance. Allen and Nicholas alternated in getting it down to the four and the former belted in with a minute and four seconds left on the clock.

Lodi should have rolled up a bigger score. In addition to the touchdown called back because of penalty, the Tigers had four other opportunities. Each time they stalled on a sustained drive, missing first downs by inches.

Be it said for the Tigers, they charged defensively. Although greenness of the reserve Warrior backs showed up in indelible ink, it is doubtful that experienced

On the Sidelines

By THE OLD TIMER

DEPARTURE OF PLYMOUTH school district from Richland county, whether fair or foul, has resulted in realignment of basketball competition for the Warriors.

They'll take the place of the old New Haven Yellow Jackets in the Huron-Erie league and meet up with the likes of Monroeville Eagles, Berlin Heights Tigers, Greenwich Shamrocks, Milan Indians and North Fairfield in the loop.

SHOULD BE A DINGER OF a league. Seems to the Old Timer there's just as much attraction to playing these schools as to playing schools in the southern part of Richland county, with whom HVHS has never had athletic relations save in basketball and, occasionally, in baseball and track (although only very few, in these two activities) and which are a good many miles over difficult roads, especially in winter when the roads are icy.

Greenwich has already started practice and Coach Dick Imhoff ought to have one of the top quintets in the loop this year.

Young Bill Bachrach is still breaking records. In a triangular cross country meet among Yale, Brown and Harvard freshmen, Bill, son of Dave and grandson of Mrs. Belle, went out and set a new record in winning For God, for Country and For Yale.

This goes with a track and school record for the mile run which he set at Howe Military academy last year.

For Good Used Cars — Read Our Ads Each Week

When Johnny started Sunday School . . . the Devil thought he had his man in the bag.

The teachers must have been at their wit's end—but they never showed it. The Superintendent faced many a crisis—but always he was patient. The Pastor even smiled as he remade the confiscated pa-shooter. "You've got a bad shot, Johnny," he said!

Claire and I soon began to realize that Christians do turn the other cheek, in the Junior Department it's standard operating procedure.

TO DAY, Johnny is a freshman in college. Every Sunday he attends the church of our faith on the campus. And, recently, he confided to me his ambitions:

He wants to become an engineer. Then he wants to marry a girl with a sweet heart, Jane. And as soon as they're settled, he wants to teach a class of "real gone" kids in the neighborhood.

Now Claire and I realize what the Church means to the life of the "black sheep"—of your family or ours!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the development of character and good citizenship. It teaches the principles of justice, truth, and democracy, nor civilization can exist without them.

Without a strong Christian foundation, no civilization can survive. The church is the rock on which our nation rests.

For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his wife, (4) For the sake of his home, (5) For the sake of the Church, (6) which needs his moral and material support.

Plan to go to church regularly, and pray the Bible daily.

on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1957, the question of levying taxes for the years 1958, 1959 and 1960 at the rate for each year of one (1) mill on each
