

Warriors take road Saturday at Berlin

Shocked to their bootstraps by plucky, fired-up Seville, Huron Valley's Warriors go on the road for the first time this season at Berlin Heights Saturday at 2 p. m. in a North Central conference battle with Coach Snag Sanders' Tigers.

And make no mistake about it, the Tigers are hungry for Injun meat.

COACH SANDER'S HAS personally scouted the Warriors three times this season and he is keen to upset the visitors.

The Tigers have had a fairly successful season so far, despite a 21 to 6 loss to Seville two weeks ago.

They would firelanders, 12 to 6, in the opener, but were tripped by Lodi in a conference game Saturday afternoon, 12 to 6.

If the Warriors play as they did against Seville, look for an upset.

If they play as they can play, spot Berlin Heights 12 or 13 points and put your bets down on Coach Lew Pettit's eleven.

GOING TO THE GAME? Follow East Main street to New State road, turn left thence northward across Route 224 through North Fairfield to Route 20, then turn right to strike Route 61 in east Norwalk, continue to where Route 113 joins Berlin Heights, three miles from the junction. The field lies to the rear of the high school building. Admission is 75 cents for adults and 40 cents for students. Drivers having room for students are asked to notify the high school, telephone 57.

The Tigers have Bill Werner back to correct their offense. And he can pass. In Bruce Burnham, they have at least one top-grade receiver.

They showed at the preview at Medina they can move wide ball.

It should be a bang-up, wide-open dog-eat-dog battle. If the Warriors will settle their minds to the task at hand, they should go. They have the stuff, potentially, but haven't shown it this season.

IF THEY CAN CONVINCINGLY trounce the Berlin Heights entry Saturday, they'll re-establish themselves as favorites to repeat in the conference. But Townsend-Wakeman is coming along fast, despite last week's defeat by Maumee Valley Country Day school, and Seville isn't through yet.

The Barbers have a cinch schedule, league-wise, beginning this week.

It'll take big guns to silence the Barber threat. First maneuver: outflank and destroy Berlin Heights.

County courts 'step for improvement,' Dush tells local club

"Administration of justice depends on standards set by judges", Joseph F. Dush told the Community club Tuesday, "and since all candidates in Huron County for the office of county court judge are members of the bar, the county's people are sure to profit in the long run."

Dush is one of four candidates for county court judge in Huron County. He is a Willard attorney of more than 10 years' experience.

The new statute passed by the 102nd Ohio General Assembly "is a step in the right direction," Dush said.

"IT ESTABLISHES LOCAL justice by officers trained in the law in place of courts administered by untrained persons. I feel sure that, despite the anomalous situation apparently created by the legislature, wherein candidates are required to run on a county-wide basis for the judgeship of a single area, the electorate will choose experienced persons who reside in the court area to serve its court."

Two areas of jurisdiction have been established in Huron County by Common Pleas Judge Robert Vetter, one at Norwalk, the other at Willard.

"WHEN THE JUDGE OF AN area lives in it, and especially in its seat," Dush claimed, "the disposition of traffic violations and small commercial claims is facilitated immeasurably. This makes for more efficient government and, in the long run, cheaper government. For one thing, when in a traffic case or in a small claims suit, he has less distance to travel and less time to wait because he finds the judge immediately available, he saves time and money."

County to pay

Huron county commissioners have voted to pay $2,130 for emergency repairs to West Roadway as part of a three-way cost-sharing move to fix that street.

Mrs. Hackett dies of accident injuries

Injured Sept. 2 in a three-car collision in Route 61 north of here, Mrs. Emma Mae Hackett, 58, died Tuesday afternoon at Willard Municipal hospital, where she had been a patient four weeks.

Born in Huron county Aug. 17, 1899, Mrs. Hackett is survived by her husband, George, three daughters, Mrs. Edith Mae Stanton, Cleveland; Mrs. Doris Nichols, at home, and Mrs. Edna Edmondson, Vermilion; a son, Donis Starks, Mansfield; four brothers, Harold Goldsmith, Plymouth; Fred Goldsmith, Fitchville; Jay Goldsmith, Litchfield, and Raymond Goldsmith, Ashland, and a sister, Mrs. Herman Colbert, Ruggles.

The Rev. Moses Rutan, pastor of First Presbyterian church, will conduct last rites from the Mcute Funeral home today at 2 p. m. Burial will be in Fitchville cemetery.

Recruit Brownies, Girl Scouts set year's opening

Girl Scouts, Brownies and prospective Brownies will meet at 3:30 p. m. Monday in Plymouth demary center.

Second graders are eligible to become Brownies. Girl Scouts must be 10 years of age. New members are cordially invited to attend this meeting, with their parents, if possible.

They will be welcomed by Mrs. William S. Griffiths and assigned to groups.

The game committee appointed by Mrs. Samuel G. Schroeder for includes Mrs. Harold Ruckman, Mrs. John Foss, Mrs. Moss Ruckman and Mrs. Robert Kennedy.

Refreshments to be served after the home meeting will be supervised by Mrs. Kenneth Echebryer. Working with her are Mrs. Gerald W. Caywood, Mrs. Louis Lillo, Mrs. David Cook and Mrs. Clyde Lash.

Forget-me-nots were sold Saturday by the four older Scout groups. They were supervised by Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Ruckman, Mrs. Echebryer, Mrs. Lash and Mrs. Thomas Moore.

The next council meeting has been arranged for Thursday night at First Presbyterian church. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Ruckman and Mrs. Joseph Lash, Jr.

Mrs. Nimmons and twin grandsons, Girard and Gregory Cashman, inspect a quilted treasure.

Quilts reflect times, Mrs. Nimmons says

Memories of grandmother's day and the housekeeping vogue of the Victorian era are treasured by Mrs. J. Elden Nimmons in a collection of quilts.

"Not a quitter herself, but a connoisseur of the multi-colored, vari-patterned bed cover ("You don't need to be a good cook to tell good cooking"), Mrs. Nimmons has studied the religious and social influences underlying her collection.

TAKE, FOR EXAMPLE, the Crazy Quilt, or the Roman Stripe, or the Drunkard's Path.

"Quilts used to be made in quilting bees, often of bits and strips of yardgoods saved from dressmaking in the days when most women made their own clothes or hired a dressmaker to do them," Mrs. Nimmons says.

They were popular in grandmother's day because they afforded women an opportunity to wear their Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes in public, whereas the Sunday-bee couldn't very well be worn to apple parings, corn huskings or threshings.

Not all of the cloth assembled into quilts came from left-over yardgoods, she reports.

"IN THE OLD DAYS THERE were itinerant weavers, people who went about from farm to farm or house to house to weave pieces by hand. Much of their produce went into quilts, and while they were weaving they told the news and gossip they had picked up at the last place. They were really vocal newspapers."

Formerly Ruth Finrock, a school teacher for six years before she married an aspiring young banker, Mrs. Nimmons remembers a quilt from the Finrock family.

McDougal quits as fire chief

After 10 years as fire chief here, Dalton F. McDougal has resigned, effective Thursday, to become deputy state boiler inspector with headquarters at Cambridge, where he will be in charge of a six-county area.

He handed in his resignation Monday. McDougal succeeded the late Dr. C. W. Babcock as chief in 1947. Dr. Babcock had only a few months before acceded to the post upon the resignation of the late Forrest (Bud) Stewart.

Assistant Fire Chief Ray Bright is in line to get the post.

A veteran plumbing and heating contractor, McDougal is a licensed boiler inspector.

He will dispose of his house and business here and move with his family to Cambridge as soon as is feasible, he said Monday.

Nazarenes buy new church site

Site for a new church has been acquired by Plymouth Church of the Nazarene at Park avenue and Hoffman street.

The church will now commence, says the Rev. C. H. Laird, pastor, a full-scale fundraising program.

The congregation and Sunday school of the church have been gaining so fast, "the Rev. Mr. Laird said Monday, "that we shall have to find new quarters soon."

The church meets in the Heck building, East Main street.

"Each large square was applied with a weeping willow tree, a mourning Quaker woman, dressed in brown, a white tombstone and an outstretched hand offering flowers for the grave. Can you imagine sleeping under such a thing?"

The Album Quilt, Mrs. Nimmons says, has often been used as documentary evidence of genealogical confections to establish membership in the DAR and such.

EARLIEST QUILT IN HER collection: one made in 1845, handed down through the Trauger family.

Most quilts made then dealt with bucolic and nature subjects: Snail's Trail, Four Frogs, Bear's Paw.

Later, the patterns now known among devotees as Hit and Miss, Bridle and Honeycomb, Moses, All-Whistle Counterpane, Widow's Choice, Robbing Peter to Pay Paul, Old Maid's Ramble, Catch Me if You Can, Star of Bethlehem and Rose of Sharon became popular.

AS THE WESTERN RESERVE territory was settled (the Mason and Dixon line went right through Plymouth, is today the Base Line road), various religious and sociological influences affected quilt design.

Got an old quilt in the attic? Mrs. Nimmons can probably tell you what it means.

'Battle Hymn' set here

Dean Hess, the Marietta minister who put aside the clock to fight the Communists in Korea and then organized an orphanage program, is the feature at Plymouth Drive-in theatre today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Maid of Mist hosts to county parley

Maid of the Mist club will be hostess to the Federation of Farm Women's club of Richland county Wednesday.

Club members will register at 9:30 a. m. in the Methodist church. The meeting will begin at 10 a. m.

Participating in the program will be the Rome County club, Sunshine, and Be Square clubs. Mrs. Wilber Upson of Mansfield is the president of the Federation. A noon luncheon will be served by the WSCS of the Methodist church. Reservations should be made by today to Mrs. Ira Ross. Working with her on the committee are Mrs. George W. Chestman and Mrs. Robert C. Hosen.

MRS. ROSCOE HUTCHINSON, president of the business club, has announced the following committees: Mrs. Glenn Frakes, chairman, tables; Mrs. Herbert Martin, Mrs. Robert Gilger, and Mrs. Ralph Hatch; Mrs. Ray Amund, chairman, ushers and welcoming; Mrs. Myron Lasher and Mrs. Moberst Studer, Mrs. Jesse Predomre, chairman, corsages; Mrs. Raymond Willett, Mrs. Ira Ross and Mrs. Clarence Rigglet; Mrs. Floyd Heider, chairman, name cards; Mrs. Ralph Willett, Mrs. Edward Kless and Mrs. George Roberts.

The welcoming address will be given by Mrs. Feener. The Rev. Thomas S. Taylor, pastor of the church, will give the invocation.

At 1:15 p. m. the club will hear a talk by Prof. W. H. Milley of Ashland college.

Local chest OK'd

If 72 cents of each charity dollar given the Mansfield United Appeal leaves Richland county, the village council said informally Tuesday night, it would be better to establish a community chest.

John T. Dick told the council he and four others of a special investigating committee met with Mansfield U.A. managers to determine if additional services could be obtained for Plymouth residents.

"SEVENTY TWO CENTS out of every dollar is paid by Mansfield U.A." Dick said, "out of the county to such as American Cancer society and American Red Cross. Only 28 cents stays in the county, to support Boy and Girl Scouts, a free dental clinic.

Friendly House, which is primarily for Mansfielders; the Richland County Association for Retarded Children, the Richland County Mental Health association, the Salvation Army, the St. Vincent de Paul society, a Catholic aid group, the Visual Aid society, the Visiting Nurse association, and the YMCA and YWCA."

New London, on the other hand, has a no-pressure community chest which raised a bit over $3,000 last year for the support of that town's Little League, Boy and Girl Scouts, a special Christmas fund, supervised summer play, the Salvation Army and other local charities.

Brief illness fatal after surgery to Paul O. Marvin

Ill only a week, Paul O. Marvin, 57, died early Monday in Willard Municipal hospital.

A bachelor, he lived at 531 1/2 North street here. A brother, Cleveland V. 42 Birchfield avenue, is his only survivor.

Born in Shelby June 17, 1900, he was a member of the FOEagles lodge there, of Plymouth Order of Mechanics and of First Evangelical Lutheran church.

Mr. Marvin had been a machinist at Fate-Root Bath Co. for many years.

His pastor, the Rev. Robert F. Hall, conducted last rites from the Mcute Funeral home yesterday at 2 p. m. Burial was in Greenlawn cemetery.

Elevator robbed Sunday of $443

A raffle ticket stub found on the scene may lead police to burglars who entered Plymouth Elevator early Sunday morning and made off with about $443 after forcing the office safe.

Police Chief Robert L. Meiser said entry was apparently gained through a window in the upper storey of the building after crossing over the top of a box on the Baltimore & Ohio siding.

THE WINDOW PANE WAS broken in, Meiser said. The intruders then made their way to a storage room, where they took up a sledge hammer and chisel, and then went to the office, where they broke the combination dial and forced the safe door.

Cheeks were not touched, but some cash in the register and currency in the strong box were taken.

Richland county sheriff's deputies are cooperating in the investigation.

Crews found by them and the police chief include fingerprints and fingerprints.

"It's helping adults, too," he said, noting that the junior fire marshal program has resulted in between 16 and 20 million home fire inspections during the past decade.

Pupils to inspect for fire hazards

Elementary school children will spark local observance of National Fire Prevention week next week when they launch the fall phase of the year-round junior fire marshal campaign.

Celebrating its 10th anniversary in 1957, this gigantic fire prevention and safety education program is expected to enroll more than three million boys and girls in 48 states, Canada, Hawaii and the Philippines. The program is sponsored nationally as a public service by the Hartford Fire Insurance Co.

Highlights of the anniversary campaign were announced today by James C. Davis of the Lofland Insurance agency, sponsors of the local program, in cooperation with elementary schools and the fire department.

KEYNOTE OF THE 1957-58 program is the traditional junior fire marshal home inspection report, which boys and girls will receive at school during fire prevention week. This report appears in the new fall issue of the 12-page Junior Fire Marshal magazine provided by the Lofland agency.

"To qualify as a junior fire marshal," Mr. Davis said, "a boy or girl must complete a fire hazard check of his own house and return the home report signed by a parent, to his teacher."

"Children who complete home reports during the forthcoming campaign will receive official junior fire marshal sash rings, being introduced this year, and red plastic firemen's helmets."

Calling attention to this year's 10th anniversary of the junior fire marshals, Mr. Davis pointed to the program's growth and wide acceptance as "an indication of its value in teaching children how to protect themselves against the danger of fire."

"It's helping adults, too," he said, noting that the junior fire marshal program has resulted in between 16 and 20 million home fire inspections during the past decade.

Rep Baumhart announces academy exams

Rep. A. D. Baumhart, Jr., is accepting applications from young men of the 13th Congressional district who wish to be considered for nomination to the U. S. Air Force, Merchant Marine, Military and Naval academies.

One principal and four alternate candidates are to be nominated by the Congressman to the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, N. Y. Two principals and five alternates for each will be nominated for appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.

Congressman Baumhart says that under the Air Force and Merchant Marine Academy provisions, he is permitted to nominate up to 10 young men from the 13th district to participate in a statewide competition with the nominees of Ohio's 22 other congressmen and two senators. Ohio has a 1958 statewide quota of 18 vacancies to be filled in the Air Force academy, Denver, Colo., and 14 vacancies in the Merchant Marine academy, Kings Point, N. Y.

In the 1957 competition for admission to these academies, two 13th District nominees were selected by the Air Force academy and three by the Merchant Marine academy, the congressman revealed.

Academy nominees must be citizens of the United States; at least 17 years old as of July 1, 1958; of good moral character, and must never have been married. They must be in excellent physical condition, and should have 20-20 uncorrected vision (although certain waivers may be granted to unusually promising a specially those interested in attending West Point). Academy officials indicate that any physically qualified young man who will have graduated from high school by July 1, 1958, in the upper portion of his class, with good grades in mathematics and English, stands a reasonable chance of passing academy entrance examinations.

Candidates for all four service academies must not have reached their 22nd birthday before July 1, 1958. Each academy has its own height limitations: Air Force (64-76 in.).

As in the past, Congressman Baumhart will base his nominations on the results of preliminary open competitive examinations to be conducted by the U. S. Civil Service Commission at Elyria and Sandusky on November 18, 1957.

M. P. Davis joins USAF; veteran of Navy service

Michael P. Davis, 21, 103 Trux street, enlisted in the Air Force Sept. 26, 1957, for four years.

He has been assigned to Selfridge Air Force base, Mich. With his wife, Janice, he will move to Michigan and live on or near the air base.

He intends to make a career of the Air Force. He said the good pay, opportunity for advancement, and early retirement were the main reasons why he enlisted.

Davis served in the U. S. Navy for nearly four years, from Aug. 20, 1953, to June 29 last.

Selfridge Air Force base is at Mt. Clemens, Mich. 22 miles northeast of Detroit.

The Davises are expecting their first child in November.

She is the former Janice Allwine, Shelby.

His father, Ernie Davis, lives at 103 Trux street.

There is nothing nicer than having old friends appear at your doorstep for a visit. In the last few weeks, two families we had not seen in five or six years came for short visits.

We caught up on the gossip of people we know in Europe and down the east coast of Africa.

Some nice, some tragic, and some not printable. Being human, we enjoyed the latter immensely.

AFTER THAT WAS POLISHED off, we somehow got down to discussing living here and there. I guess we are downright lucky.

One family had lived in Kenya colony at the height of the Mau Mau problem. Their son was about three at the time. They had to teach him never to open a door or a window lest a native would come in. When they ate their meals the height of was always on the table.

They could trust no one. That little boy still has those fears, and they worry that he will never forget them. That wasn't enough.

The Goodyear people then sent them to Canada to live. They were in the middle of the Suez crisis. I can remember back in 1952 when the monarchy was overthrown. Anyone not Egyptian was in grave danger of losing his life for no reason at all. Some did. We passed through Cairo a month later, and machine gun nests were poised on every corner.

I remember when we rode into the city from the airport. The last two people on the bus were soldiers carrying attractive machine guns.

We were all more than happy to have them with us. That is what mob rule can mean.

The last few weeks, we seem to be getting quite close to that sort of thing ourselves. Thank heaven, there are good, sane people everywhere who can see ahead to stop it.

FALL IS HERE. EVERYTHING seems to be starting. Clubs are clubbing again. There are all-day meetings when you must bring a special dish, or there are meetings that last so long there is barely time to prepare dinner for your family. This is a recipe to remember for those days.

It is a nicely dressed-up version of macaroni and cheese. Mix two cups of cooked macaroni with one cup of soft bread crumbs. Add one half cup of milk and one half cup of melted butter mixed together. To this add three fourths cup grated cheese, two tablespoons of pimento, three tablespoons of chopped green pepper and three of chopped onion, and three beaten eggs. Bake at 350 degrees in a baking dish which has been placed in a pan of water. A slightly diluted can of mushroom or cream of chicken soup can be poured over as a sauce.

THERE IS REALLY SOMETHING wonderful about autumn and makes you feel aglow. The leaves are slowly beginning to turn and will start dropping to the ground faster than you can rake them. At night there will be the smell of their burning hanging close to the ground.

FOOTBALL GAMES ARE underway in stadiums and in backyards. Fathers are finding they are not so agile as they thought. A little bit of rubbing alcohol seems to fix them up so they are like new again. With football comes the fun of singing school songs again. I wonder how many small high schools across our country are indebted to the Notre Dame victory march. It is by far the song of more schools than any other. It also has more parodies to its rousing notes than the Railroad or "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon Us". There must be an answer somewhere. Someone must know what it is, any we know.

FOR SEVERAL YEARS AT this time of the year, I give deep thought to a little mystery. Which came first, 'I've Been Working This is the Time of the Year' that new wardrobe pop out. Mostly for those younger ones who dared to grow two whole sizes during the summer. Under the circumstances, their mothers must make every attempt not to grow sideways so they will be able to get into last year's models.

Generally, one cubic foot of space in your freezer will hold approximately 35 pounds of food.

Russian art to be subject of lecture by Mrs. Nimmons

Mrs. J. Elden Nimmons will discuss the art collections of Russia Monday night before the Twentieth Century circle.

Her talk will describe the treasures housed in the old and new Hermitages and the old Winter Palace in Leningrad, which was formerly known as St. Petersburg before the Russian revolution of 1917.

The circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Edward O. Ramsey, Mrs. R. C. McBeth will also discuss television personalities during the program. Colored slides of the "River Queen" will be shown by Mrs. J. Harold Cashman as part of her subject of show boats. Formerly a river boat on the Mississippi, it has now become a restaurant at Bradenton, Fla., in dry dock.

Clover Farms sold to Defiance firm

R. Harold Mack was among 65 Clover Farm retailers who met at BPOE's club, Findlay, Sunday, to learn of the change of ownership of Ohio Clover Farm division from David Kirk Spoons Co. to Defiance Grocery Co.

Defiance Grocery Co. purchased the merchandise inventory of David Kirk Co., which will leave the wholesale grocery field. It has sponsored the Clover Farm enterprise for 31 years.

Major employees of David Kirk who were engaged in servicing the Clover Farm business will be employed by Defiance Grocery Co.

Estate $248,188

An estate worth $248,188 was left to his wife, Flo, by the late J. Carleton Stambaugh, publisher of the Daily Globe at Shelby.

Mr. Stambaugh founded the paper with a partner in 1900 and died Aug. 9 after a long illness.

He was 81. Inventory of the estate lists goods and chattels worth $35,000, stocks and securities worth $193,063 and real estate worth $21,235.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir: Your article of Sept. 19, "Don't Volunteer", should uncover a few facts.

Mr. Farr and I are the best of friends. Mr. Farr, like a lot of men, thought he had been paying for insurance that would pay me for the time I lost from that injury.

It seems the insurance company, . . . would rather pay a lawyer than pay a claim or part of it. Had the insurance company paid part of the claim, it would have made the policy holder, Mr. Farr, feel that the insurance company would have been doing what he intended the insurance to do.

It is what the lawyers call a "friendly case". As for the jury, I cannot answer. I ask for nothing unjust. I have a family to support. I lost the time after helping a friend, who was misinformed as to the kind of company he had his insurance with.

Better check your insurance. Very truly yours, George H. Peacock, Jr., Bellevue Rt. 1, O.

By THE OLD TIMER

OHIO IS FINALLY WAKING up to the advantages of a vigorous home-owned standard-bred breeding industry.

The Ohio Fair fund has been established by law. One half on one per cent of all moneys wagered on Ohio's running and harness tracks will be paid to the fund to provide:

$2,500 to each county agricultural fair or independent agricultural fair.

$50,000 to the Ohio State fair, to be divided four ways as purse money for two trotting and two pacing derbies, one each for two-year-olds and three-year-olds, bred and owned in Ohio. Entry fees not to exceed $200 will increase the value of the purses.

$2,500 to each county fair which stages harness racing plus $500 for track upkeep.

An additional $2,000, at the discretion of the director of agriculture, to at least 50 per cent of the fairs which stage harness racing, to establish purses of at least $1,000 for the same kind of home-bred, home-owned racing.

This means at least $537,500 annually into the harness racing business.

THE LINE, FOLKS, FORMS at the right. This should weight interest in yearling sales, breeding and such. Ohio is well equipped to sustain it. And it's about time!

THE O. T. NOTES Richland county fair authorities are considering building an auto racing track. With the impetus of state-supplied funds, and the 100,000 population area to draw from for the pari-mutuels, why can't Richland county fair have a harness track?

Our friend Clarence Stroup, Shelby harness horse devotee, is a member of the board. Tell him when you see him that a harness race program would be desirable.

The Huron county fair this year staged better racing, and with encouragement of this sort will do better in the future.

Coach Lew Pettit must be taking a lesson from Iowa's successful Forrest Evashewski, who was billed for three lost footballs by Bennie Oosterbaan of Michigan after Iowa's defeat by the Wolverines at Iowa City last fall. Oosterbaan complained the grass of Kinnick Memorial stadium was too long.

The turf at Mary Fete park either needs a violin or a dog license.

There were those who wouldn't take the O. T.'s word, for it that Woody Hayes doesn't have the horses at OSU this season. They paid Saturday night.

And some of 'em collected Sunday night, because we ploughed it back on the Giants. We're still backing the New Yorkers, for the division championship.

Vince Baria, Army's starting fullback in Saturday's conquest of Nebraska, has Plymouth roots. His grandparents used to live here — the Sykeses.

Warriors lucky, tie Seville in poor show

Outgained, outpassed, outplayed and outscored by Seville's Barbers, Huron Valley's Warriors were all but outscored by the visitors in a North Central conference struggle here Friday night.

The Warriors were colder than the below-freezing weather. Final score: 19 to 19.

BUT THE SCORE IS NO INDEX of how badly the Warriors were whipped. In the last half, the Warriors never advanced beyond their own 45-yard-line and without three gallant goal-line stands would have been beaten by as many touchdowns.

Once again it was the weakness of the air umbrella that spelled trouble for the Panthers. Even the second time Seville got possession, doughty Warren Clapp dropped back to the Warrior 49 and threw to Bob Eby, good for 44 yards and a score. On a fake placement attempt, the Barbers were stopped.

The Warriors came right back. Ed Taylor, certainly not up to all-state performance Friday night, returned the kickoff 15 to the 50. Seville lost 15 yards for one of three slugging penalties. The Warriors ground out two first downs before Ray Einsel completed a 16-yard toss to Ted Fox for the touchdown.

FOX KICKED OFF TO Armstrong, who ran it back to the Seville 32. On third down, Clapp let fly with one directed for Eby. It never got there. Young Fox nailed it and sped 50 yards down the north sideline for the second Warrior touchdown.

At this point, the Barbers bounced back. They began a 71-yard sustained drive that rolled up six first downs before they struck pay dirt from nine yards out. Bob Eby was the digger.

With the score tied, Huron Valley came upfield to the Seville 36 before incurring a holding penalty. Then Seville was socked with another slugging penalty. Here, on second down, Taylor burst off left tackle for 65 yards and the final Warrior score.

THE LAST HALF WAS ENTIRELY a Seville show. Early in the fourth quarter, after recovering one of seven Warrior fumbles, the Barbers sent Eby in a full-screened punt off his own left end. He reversed his field to the Warrior 10. Armstrong took a pitchout from Clapp to the one and here the veteran quarterback sneaked over for the score.

Clearly, the Barbers were up for this one. And by contrast, the Warriors were down. There were no excuses, there could be none. The home eleven was at full strength physically but probably not mentally.

Ball-handling was shoddy. The line did not charge well. The vaunted Taylor, try though he might, couldn't get loose for his devastating open-field running. On three occasions when the fourth down situation suggested a punt, the Warriors elected to run it out. They made it on only one.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN ?

Frightening, isn't it? You see a picture like this and suddenly you feel as if you are standing at the edge of a chasm in the dark. You are confronted with the threat of the unknown, and you don't like it.

Why, you wonder, does it have to be like this? Why can't men live together in peace?

We all need the courage to face the unknown future unafraid. We need to find and to develop love, understanding, and peace of mind. But to attain our goal, we need help. That help can be found in the Church, which gives us Faith.

On World Wide Communion Sunday—millions of men and women will unite in solemn observance of one of Christianity's holy sacraments. There will be new faces at thousands of altars, men and women who have only recently begun to realize where man's Hope is to be found.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four thousand services regularly and spontaneously held in the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Gallon band plays for Shiloh post here

Lodge rooms of Garrett Riest post 303 were crowded Sept. 24 when members of Scarborough Post 243, Gallon, and its marching band appeared to attend the meeting of the local post.

The band entertained with a concert in the lodge rooms, and later, under police and highway patrol escort, marched up and down Main street, serenading the town.

Their appearance was a good will gesture on the part of the Gallon post in appreciation of past favors granted by the local post.

Garrett Riest post will stage a square dance Saturday in the Legion hall at 9 p.m.

Mrs. Brook set to lead WSCS

Women's Society for Christian Service will hold its regular monthly dinner and business meeting in the Methodist church Thursday.

Arthur Noble summoned after crash

A 20-year-old Shilohan was slightly injured Sunday when his car struck another in Rome-South road, 350 yards south of Rome, at 4:50 p.m.

Arthur R. Noble, Shiloh route 2, received scratches, cuts and abrasions of the head and face when his machine collided with the rear of another owned by Denzil Gearhart, 19, Shiloh route 2, and careened into a bridge abutment. He was treated at Shelby Memorial hospital and released.

Gearhart had stopped his car to talk to another driver, Lawrence Shorer, Shiloh route 2.

Noble was summoned by state highway patrolmen for unsafe operation and the other two for parking in a highway. All three will appear in Mansfield Municipal court tomorrow.

This is National Newspaper week. It's the time when newspapers take time out to tell everybody what good they do, in informing, guiding and leading the communities where they are published.

For us, it is also birthday week. The Advertiser was founded 104 years ago come Saturday. It is the oldest continuous business serving Plymouth.

We are proud of this newspaper. It represents the work and sweat and sincere effort of its owner and his wife and their several employees, who take great pride in their work. They honestly try to do the best job every issue. Sometimes it doesn't work out that way.

But they labor in the best traditions of American journalism. In the steps of Benjamin Harris and Ben Franklin, of John Peter Zenger and Joseph Pulitzer, of Greeley and Henry Raymond, of William Allen White and Adolph S. Ochs.

Their first obligation is to remain financially solvent. This they do by turning out a product that people want to buy, because it is presentable, it prints the truth, it covers all of the news — at least all of the news that can be set into type by 11 a.m. on Wednesdays —, and it publishes fair-minded accounts of what goes on without fear or favor.

Occasionally, a mistake is made. For this the staff is sorry. But it renews its pledge to do a better job next time out.

The sum and substance of it all is that we are trying to do our job so that the best traditions of American newspapering will be done great honor and respect.

A friend of ours said the other day, "Not everybody agrees with you, but nobody can say you don't call the shots as they are."

We're proud of that. And in saying "Happy birthday" to this enterprise, we do so with the thought that every newspaper in America which is doing its job well deserves similar salutations this week, National Newspaper week.

NOTICE OF ELECTION ON ISSUE OF TAX LEVY
 Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a Resolution of the Council of the Village of Plymouth, Ohio, passed on the 18 day of June, 1957, there will be submitted to a vote of the people of said Village of Plymouth at the General Election to be held in the Village of Plymouth, Ohio, at the regular places of voting, thereon, on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1957, the question of levying taxes for the years 1958 and 1959 at the rate for each year of one (1) mill on each dollar of the tax valuation of the taxable property within the Village in excess of the rate authorized by Revised Code Sec. 5705.02 for the purpose of providing additional funds for current expenses, two-wit: the proper and necessary care of Greenlawn Cemetery in said Village.

Those who vote in favor of the proposition of making such additional tax levy will have written or printed on their ballots "For tax levy" and those who vote against such additional tax levy will have written or printed on their ballots "Against tax levy" as provided by law.

The maximum number of years during which such levy is to run is 2 years.
 The estimated average additional tax rate amounts to 10c for each one hundred dollars of valuation, which is 1 mill for each one dollar of valuation, outside of the limitation imposed by Article XII, Section 2, of the Constitution of Ohio and the section of the Revised Code hereinabove mentioned.

The Polls for said Election will open at 6:30 o'clock A. M. and remain open until 6:30 o'clock P.M. Eastern Standard Time of said day.
