Strine heads March of Dimes

Wayne H. Strine, principal of Huron Valley High school, will direct Plymouth's 1958 March of Dimes, under the auspices of the Huron county chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

"The annual porchlight drive will be conducted by pupils of the Huron Valley High school," Strine said Monday. "on the night of Jan. 29. This is the anniversary of the birthday of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, who did so much to organize and give force to the infantile paralysis foundation."

CANISTERS AND POSTERS have been placed in most business houses, he announced. "We hope that citizens will realize that infantile paralysis isn't beaten yet — the theme this year is 'survival is not enough' — and we will be happy to receive donations in coin in the canisters. Other donations, which cannot be made in coin fashion, may be sent to the high school or left at Peoples National bank."

All over-the-counter sales of The Advertiser this week and next will be given to the March of Dimes, the publisher announced yesterday.

TO RESPOND TO inquiries of destination of funds collected in Plymouth, Chairman Strine had these answers:

"It's an administrative decision that Plymouth for infantile paralysis fund purposes falls in Huron county's jurisdiction. Anybody in Plymouth whether he lives in Richland or Huron county, is entitled to — and will get — assistance."

"Last year, most of the money collected in Huron county was given over to treatment rather than prevention of polo. For example, the Huron county chapter paid for 19 corrective operations on persons who have had polo. Four persons had three operations each. Ten temporary splints or braces for these persons were bought and paid for by the Huron county chapter. Total cost: more than $19,000."

"Seven permanent braces for patients recuperating from polo were obtained, at a cost of $185 to $285 each."

"SEVEN PERSONS WERE examined by the orthopedic specialist retained by the chapter. These were persons who were thought to have polo, but were found to be negative. "Seven persons were admitted to city hospital, Cleveland, on order of the Huron county chapter. Only one had polo. Cost of this treatment was $4,000."

"The county organization provided a home appliance for one little girl, who requires a respirator to sleep at night. Her family cares for her at home. Cost of this service was $600."

"THE COUNTY LAST YEAR raised a bit over $19,000 in its March of Dimes drive. It is plain from the figures covering the year's operations that every penny raised was needed right here at home. As a matter of fact, the county chapter needed more than what it could raise at home. These funds were granted by the national foundation."

"Finally, although most school children who received permission from their parents received Salk vaccine injections, there are many who ought to be vaccinated. Experts recommend that all persons under 40 receive polo shots. None of the cost of furnishing free Salk vaccine to schoolchildren of Plymouth or Huron county was paid for from local funds. See your family doctor now to get protection before the critical season begins."

Brownies to visit bird sanctuary

Gloria Clark, Kathy Willett and Nancy Allen became Brownie Scouts in a troop 197 in investiture ceremony Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Harold Ruckman presented 11 membership cards to girls who have been Brownies for the last year.

The troop agreed to donate $1 of its dues money toward the March of Dimes.

Troop 196 will drive to Castalia Sunday for a bird study tour conducted by Robert C. Hines.

Brownies will meet at 2 p.m. in front of the First Evangelical Lutheran church. Cars will be driven by Roger Ross, Kenneth McDougall, Harold Sloan and Graydon Williston.

They will return at 5 p.m. to their own homes. No Brownie will be allowed to make the tour unless she exhibits a permit signed by her parent or guardian.

Monday Brownies saw pictures of various types of ducks which they will see in real life during the tour. They also completed electing officers during the afternoon meeting.

Chosen for the game committee are Linda S. Washburn, Lou Ann Oney and Nancy Sloan. Members of the cleanup committee are Susa Moore, Phyllis Neeley and Susan Koontz.

Color guards are Karen Levering and Mary Jo Pazio. Color bearer is Sue Ann Williston. Lou Ann Oney and Phyllis Neeley are the newest members of the troop.

Heart fund turns down $125 check

American Heart fund in Norwalk refused a check for $125 sent by Plymouth Community chest.

The fund says it plans a drive of its own late in February.

Treasurer of the chest, James C. Davis, forwarded the check to the JayCee Heart fund in Mansfield. This fund had already received a check for $125, which was accepted as its share of the local chest drive.

McCormick gets post in Chamber

Franklin W. McCormick was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night to succeed R. Earl McQuate, who was elected director for one year.

R. Harold Mack succeeded William E. Root as first vice-president. Milton E. Mellott is second-vice-president, succeeding Mack. Miss Madeline H. Smith was re-elected secretary. Carl M. Lofland is treasurer, succeeding A. L. Paddock, Jr.

Karl Lindauer was elected director for two years. Chamber voted to stage its annual Easter egg hunt Apr. 6.

Council declines raise for Trauger

An economy-minded council doesn't have much intention, apparently, of boosting the pay of Plymouth's street supervisor.

Henry Trauger's application for an increase of $400 annually, to $4,000, came before the council again Tuesday night. He said he'd accept $3,600 if he were assigned solely to streets but he wanted $1.50 an hour for any time over 40 hours a week.

TO THIS WHITNEY J. Briggs, chairman of the finance committee, responded with figures of how the council exceeded its appropriations in the last fiscal year.

The total was $5,528. His associate on the committee, Donald E. Akers, flatly demurred on a raise. He said the money isn't available and he is opposed to spending funds not likely to be available.

The whole matter was left up in the air for another two weeks, in part because Councilman Elmer E. Markley was absent and in part to allow councilman opinion to jell.

Until the council makes up its mind, Trauger will get $1.50 an hour for work over 40 hours a week.

THE LONG-STANDING sewer situation was brought to a head again. The Water Pollution Control board at Columbus notified the council its application to dump raw sewage into the Huron river has been renewed, but with the same old catches: a bond issue on the ballot in November and revision of the plans.

It was plain there was no enthusiasm for the proposal on the council. To a man, the impression seemed to be that no sewer bond issue stands a chance of passage.

Mayor Thurman R. Ford allowed as how the issue must be presented to keep the state happy. Alden E. Stilson Associates, Columbus, consulting engineers on the project, said by mail there is the possibility of federal assistance, such as Shiloh received. The firm did not suggest the possibility is any stronger than that.

Solicitor Joseph F. Dush, whose new contract at $600 a year for two years was approved, recommended the matter be broached in May, when there would be sufficient time to obtain space on the ballot.

To this the council agreed.

IT WAS A FAIRLY BRIEF session of two and a half hours. There developed a discussion of the sewer connections of the Jameyon property in the rear of John Pfeil's residence in Maple street.

After litigation over the boundary between the two properties,

Miss Grabach wins Homemaker award

By RUTH FITCH

Patricia Ann Grabach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Lyle Grabach, 320 East Main street, is the Betty Crocker of Tomorrow at Huron Valley High school. She received the highest score in a written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes, administered Dec. 3, to senior girls. Her examination paper will be entered in competition to name Ohio's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will also be considered for the runnerup award in the state.

THE NATIONAL WINNER in the fourth annual Betty Crocker each conducted among 377,000 young women in 11,800 of the nation's public, private and parochial high schools will be named Apr. 17 at a banquet in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York city.

EACH STATE BETTY Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive a $1,500 scholarship and an educational trip with her school advisor to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, Virginia, and New York city. A $500 scholarship will be awarded the second ranking girl in each state. The school of the state winner will receive a set of Encyclopedia Britannica.

THE SCHOLARSHIP OF THE young woman named All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be increased to $5,000. Girls who rank second, third and fourth in the nation will receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships, respectively.

Lutherans alter Sunday services

Resumption of the regular hour for Sunday school and Sunday worship is set for the first Sunday in February, the Rev. Robert F. Hall, pastor of First Evangelical Lutheran church, announces.

Sunday school will convene at 9:45 a.m. Morning worship will be at 11 a.m.

Two church council members, H. James Root and Whitney J. Briggs, and officers of the Luther league will be formally installed Monday.

James Vogel heads the youth group. Dixie Fortney is vice-president, Margaret Dawson secretary, Maryellen Briggs treasurer.

Dininger files charge

A 27-year-old Willard route 1 man awaits action by Huron county grand jury on a charge of larceny by trick filed by a Plymouth service station operator.

Ray E. Dininger charges Robert Dyer with the offense, unusual in Huron county. He posed $100 bond in Willard mayor's court pending action by the grand jury.

Two of the four men killed Oct. 5 in the crash of a light aircraft near Toledo left estates aggregating at least $127,708.40.

Administrator of the estate of the late Norman J. Weirs has filed a bond of $100,000 (it us used in probate cases to require a bond double the anticipated value of the estate). Frank M. Weirs is administrator. Nicholas Mull, Jacob Weirs and Gerry Burma appraise.

Estate of the late Henry Burma has been appraised at $77,708.40. Surviving partner has filed with Huron county probate court a surety bond. He has filed an election to take partnership assets at appraised value with the court.

Howard asks board to pay expenses of mandamus suit, gets no for answer

If Ronald R. Howard thinks the cost of litigation initiated by him to upset the transfer of Plymouth and Shiloh school districts to Huron county is to be paid for the public purse, he's sadly mistaken.

At least, that was the decision of the outgoing Shiloh Board of Education Saturday afternoon. Howard included in a batch of bills for the board's consideration one drawn by Kennedy, Kennedy and Kennedy, Bucyrus attorneys for $900. This represented the cost of legal fees in carrying the case to the Ohio Supreme court.

THE BOARD — FOUR members were present. Raymond Wells having resigned effective Jan. 1, said it never allowed any such expending from official funds. The clerk could not produce any records or minutes to indicate this had been done. At the same time, an invoice drawn by Howard in the amount of $123.69, covering travel to Columbus (three times), to Mansfield (10 times), to Bucyrus (seven times), to Greenwich (once) and to Ashland (once) — 1,246 miles at eight cents a mile, miles, $15 for telephone service and $3 for parking — was rejected, for the same reasons.

WITH THESE MATTERS disposed of, the board turned to more serious ones. South-Central school district asked for $46,017.65 as Shiloh's share of the cost of operating the outlawed Iroquois district.

This precipitated a discussion of just what the Shiloh district owes in its close-out operation. Some of the South-Central bills were found to be duplicated by bills in hand at Shiloh.

A total of $52,000 is a close figure for what the Shiloh district owes, the board decided.

Funds on hand amounted to $64,657.66. "There's a little bit more, perhaps $1,000, from miscellaneous funds," the board was told.

THIS SHOULD RESULT in a favorable balance of about $13,000 to hand over to Clerk Earl C. Cashman of the Plymouth district.

But the $23,000 in bonds which were sold to First National bank of Mansfield to pay for the school addition in Main street, Shiloh, was never consummated. A legal hitch in the wording of the resolutions precluded their safe sale. The First National is thus left holding the bag for the money until the matter is regularized.

What is involved is approval of new resolutions to regularize sale of the bonds and establishment of a recurring partial payment to settle the indebtedness.

Life easier, say Keesys, but has problems

"It's a lot easier than it used to be," says Mrs. P. B. Keesy of farm life after 38 years at the same stand in Richmond township, "but the $64 question is how do you get anybody to pinch-hit for you over a weekend."

The Keesys — he was clerk of the Richmond Board of Education until that district merged with New Haven and Greenfield districts — came to the 93-acre farm at Section Line and Bull-head roads in 1920. They had been married two months. His father and her father started them out with a horse apiece.

FROM A TWO HORSEPOWER farm, it's grown so much and so well over the years that with less muscle — and more brain — applied to a good many more horsepower, the farm pays.

But it has its drawbacks, Mrs. Keesy says. "It's hard to get anybody to look after your stock if you want to go away for a weekend. It isn't fair to ask your city relatives, because they don't know much about it even though they're willing. You can't have stock and vacations both."

Another $64 question, the Keesys contend, is how do young folks get started on a farm. "Nowadays," they say, "a young farm couple has to invest as much in machinery as in farm land. If they've saved up or had given to them as much as $6,000, they might get started with used equipment. But they'd have to rent a farm and skimp for a while until the machinery was paid off before they could acquire the farm."

But what's to be done, about encouraging boys and girls to take up farm life? "Well, the 4-H and FFA programs help a lot," the Keesys answer, "but they don't reach everybody. It's hard to say really, because it's done to encourage more young people to live on the farm. It's not that we don't have conveniences — radio, TV, kitchen appliances, gas or oil heat, electric pump for water — we've got 'em all."

THE KEEYS RAISED A son, a 1939 graduate of Willard High school who matriculated at Miami university, Oxford. After three and a half years he responded to a call of the colors, served as a lieutenant in the Air Corps, finished up at Ohio State university in engineering. Today he's an engineer at Berea.

Mrs. Keesy served as clerk of Judge Vetter says he's candidate

Incumbent Robert J. Vetter, common pleas judge of Huron county, has announced he will be a candidate for the office in November, subject to the Republican primary in May.

Judge Vetter, formerly probate judge of the county, is completing his first six-year term.

Married to the former Corinne Outman, he is the father of a son.

Judge Vetter lives in Willard and was formerly village solicitor here.

the Richmond Board of Education. "We've nothing to be ashamed of in Richmond," he says. "Our district turned over a stronger cash balance, in proportion, than any of the other districts in the consolidation."

OFFHAND, THE KEEYS don't think the high school program offered today is the equal of what was offered their son.

Instruction not up to the 1939-40 standard, they think, and the program given over to too much fringe material without enough emphasis upon basic subjects.

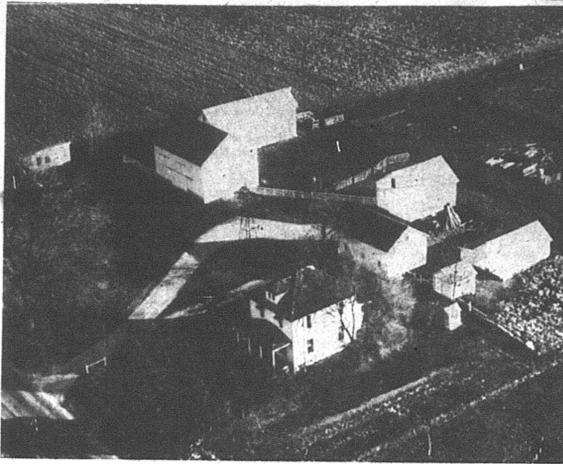

What's the situation in the elementary school. "Good teachers, we're well satisfied with them, they work hard and long to do the job."

ONE WAY THAT SCHOOL — and others — might sell farm life to young pupils is to show them how the Keesys live, in a tiled kitchen with inlaid tile floor, comfortable, warm downstairs, airy, roomy upstairs.

"But the farmer has to do it himself," warn the Keesys. "There's not enough to go around to pay a person to do it. And even if you could, you can't find the workmen."

That's farm life in Richmond township, Huron county, 1958.

THE DAWSONS — Alta and I. L. — all but tied in identifying the Keesys' farm, but Alta won by a smidgeon and can get a free quart if ice cream by calling on R. Harold Mack, Plymouth.

New milk now offered

Recent introduction to this area of a new multi-vitamin, multi-mineral milk represents the latest advance in the dairy industry, says R. L. Hamilton, Willard Dairy president.

The new milk promises an advantage to the consumer mainly because it is fortified to supply the minimum daily requirements of the more important vitamins and minerals, except Vitamin C. (Easily obtainable from fruit and vegetable juices.)

"The new milk is homogenized milk with the natural vitamin and mineral content increased. Three glasses per day will give an adult the minimum requirement of the nine vitamins and minerals used in the milk. The addition of vitamins and minerals does not in any way detract from its good flavor," the dairyman reports.

This vitamin-mineral-fortified milk is bottled in a new special container, designed to keep out light and protect the vitamin content. Consumer cost is one cent more per quart than plain, non-fortified milk.

"This is a rather thrifty investment, when it is considered that three glasses a day of vitamin-mineral-fortified milk provide important amounts of almost all vitamins and minerals needed for normal good health."

The new vitamin-mineral-fortified milk is being distributed by Willard Dairy under the brand name Multi-Vitamin milk.

Muck growers set 1958 short course at Celeryville

Annual muck crop growers school will be conducted in Celeryville Christian Reformed church today and tomorrow.

Today's program will be highlighted by a panel discussion on lettuce production this afternoon.

DR. FREEMAN'S. HOWlett, chairman of the horticulture department, Ohio State Agricultural Experiment station, will speak this morning on a foliar analysis completed last year.

J. L. Mortensen, Ohio State university agronomy professor, and J. D. Wilson and J. P. Slesman of the experiment station will discuss research on cover crops and crop symptoms and insect vector problems relating to aster yellows disease this morning.

TOMORROW, DR. GEORGEJ. Raleigh, Cornell university's muck soil specialist, will discuss crop production in muck soils.

E. K. Alban, Ohio State university horticulture department, will review weed control chemicals.

Walter N. Brown, professor of vegetable crops at Ohio State, will discuss new celery, onion and potato varieties.

Mr. Wilson and Orve K. Heden will close Friday's program with talks on soil fumigation and application equipment.

RAYMOND WEIRS AND J.Harris Postema will register delegates in the church at 9:30 a.m. today.

Soil Conservation service experts will review progress of the survey now being conducted in the Celeryville marsh area at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Richard Buurma is chairman of the banquet committee. It will be served in the church today at 6:30 p.m. Ben Van Zoest will be toastmaster. Margaret Brouwer, talented young violinist, daughter of Willard Publisher and Mrs. Mark N. Brouwer, will play.

William Twarogowski, international farm youth exchange student, from Geauga county, will speak at the banquet. He spent last year in Burma.

Baker in $3,200 job

Carl Baker, editor of the Tiro World since 1941, is Crawford county's new commissioner.

He was appointed by a special panel to succeed Vance Hoover, Democrat, who resigned because of poor health.

Baker, also a Democrat, is circulating a nominating petition for the short term, which expires in 1960.

A native of Crawford county, Baker is married and the father of three children. He is also employed by the Galion Inquirer.

The new commissioner served in the General Assembly from 1948 to 1950 and was in his third term as mayor of Tiro. He resigned that post last week.

A discussion series: Current school issues

The first step of the long and steep stairway to better schooling for our children has been surmounted.

Shiloh school district has ceased to be, as such. The Plymouth school district and its board of education has assumed jurisdiction and responsibility for it and the 500-odd pupils who attend its classes.

There are many administrative and procedural problems to be solved. We feel sure that, with time and diligent effort, a just and proper solution will be forthcoming.

There are, however, some cold facts that need to be reviewed.

The first is that tax valuation of the enlarged Plymouth district is insufficient to allow bonded indebtedness large enough to build needed new school space.

The second is that, while there was no legal commitment, a moral obligation to assist the New Haven district to solve its problems is outstanding. And New Haven is now part of the Huron Valley district — Richmond, Greenfield and New Haven have united — and its problems are indistinguishable from those of its two partners.

◆ By Phineas Whittleseed

IKE PROPOSES A BUDGET OF NEARLY $74 billion. How much is a billion?

Well, friend, it's like this. If a person started to spend $1 a minute from the first breath taken by Jesus Christ at Bethlehem, and faithfully did so up till now, he'd have just spent his billion yesterday.

Or if you can't visualize that one, consider this: a billion dollars is equal to a solid 25-foot roadway of dollar bills, stretching from Van Wert to New York.

And if that's too difficult, think of this: give Harry Aumend all the time he'd need, and he still couldn't staff a billion dollars of $1's in the high school gymnasium. It's not big enough. Nor could he get that much in the whole first floor.

And when you add it all up, consider that it'd take the whole work staff of Fate-Roat-Health Co., at its present wage scale, over 940 years to earn that much.

Multiply that by nearly 74, and you have a rough idea of what Ike thinks the government ought to spend next fiscal year.

OUR FRIEND JAY DEE IS WORKING hard on his monumental tome, "Dee on Esso-bees". He's approaching it from both the domestic and the foreign angle. Says if we're nice about it he'll let us look over the final draft, with the understanding we can add a few names of our own.

Speaking of tomes, the Little Woman has nearly two-thirds of a novel completed. She threatens to call it "Plymouth Place". But she's always threatening. Phin tells her it's all right, so long as the frontispiece reads, "Any reference to any person living or dead is entirely intentional." She balks at this.

HOW TO RAISE JUVENILE DELINQUENTS (By Judge Philip B. Gilliam, Juvenile Court, Denver, Colo.)

DON'T GIVE your son any spiritual or religious training. Just take care of his bodily needs.

In his presence, don't be respectful of womanhood or government and of law, the court, the police, and business. It's all a racket!

Never look for the real cause of untruthfulness in your child. You might discover he learned the art of lying from you.

Never try to answer the endless "WHYS" and "HOWS" of your children because they are to be ignorant.

BE SURE to humiliate your child in the pre-

The third is that in both elementary and high school education we have in the past strived for minimum standard or only slightly above. Only a fool would insist that is enough. Our children deserve better than what is an admittedly low standard.

Finally, a new law has altered procedures in effecting transfers of school district.

With these facts in mind, it behooves all of us to consider whether we can provide the education which the children deserve without a second step on that long, steep stairway.

Either the Plymouth district, as it is now constituted, will have to go to Huron county or the Huron Valley district, as now constituted, will have to go to Richland county.

ence of his friends. It adds to his respect for you.

If a conflict in wills arises between you and your child, don't try to reason with him... just knock him down... your father was boss of his home and the kids may as well learn the "hard" way.

Don't give any constructive discipline, and disagree with your wife or husband in the child's presence so that the child will learn on whom to depend.

Be sure to criticize departed guests in the presence of your child. He will inspect your integrity. Never give your child a reason for commiseration laid upon him; let him guess... it's much easier.

DON'T CONSIDER his educational and emotional development a parental responsibility. What are schools for?

Don't let him discuss his plans, problems, or pleasures with you. Just be too busy, so he won't develop affection or security or trust in you.

Don't open up your home to his companions; they will mess up the place. And don't be concerned where he spends his free time.

Don't teach your child to be tolerant toward people who differ from him in race, creed or color. Teaching unfairness in others is an excellent method for training a bad citizen.

DON'T GIVE him an allowance because he might learn how to save or spend. Don't ask him to give to community needs, charities. Just "dig down" yourself. That's the easiest way.

Don't be calm and poised. Be shocked and explode when he tells you he has done something wrong. Then he won't confide in you the next time.

Don't make a pal of him. Go alone to your sports and entertainments. He would only be in the way.

Always buy your children the most expensive games and toys because if you get them something simple they might have to use their own imagination and who wants that side of child development?

NEVER LET your child forget that only for you he would not have a roof over his head. You will become a pain in the neck to your child, and he loves to hear about the many sacrifices you make for him.

Be sure and keep your home from being a center of cheer. Make it a dumping ground for your grouches. Your child will love your thoughtfulness.

Be sure to forget the promises you make to your child because he will forget the promises he makes to you later, and children have no sense of appreciation.

Always accuse your daughter of being promiscuous with every date she goes out with so she will be impressed with the fact that you were a "good woman" when you went out with the boys.

Always leave your car keys in the car. This encourages stealing, and since 98% of the car thefts are caused by this method, it proves that you are doing your part to encourage delinquency.

NEVER PRAISE your child for his worthwhile effort because he might take advantage of your effort and try harder to please you in the future.

Never give your child any affection, and never tell him how much you love him. He will get the idea you are a softy and you wouldn't want him to get that impression of you.

If you forget all the above, just remember this one. Be a poor example yourself. You know, "Do as I say, it's no one's business what I do."

If you follow these steps faithfully I will guarantee that your son or daughter will end up in Juvenile Court as a juvenile delinquent. Your child is no exception to these rules.

BUC says don't panic if you've lost job, cites procedure

Increase of unemployment is result of stricter application of the state law requiring applicants for unemployment compensation to seek jobs from at least five establishments each week, Bureau of Unemployment Compensation officials said this week.

But, they cautioned, if you lose your job, don't panic, don't give phony reasons about why you left your last job, don't expect miracles overnight, and be sure you get professional help.

PANIC IS COMMON, BUC officials say. "Particularly with older men, who make the serious mistake of becoming frightened when they are forced to look for a new job. Too often they adopt a chip-on-the-shoulder attitude to cover up the fact."

How does BUC do about this? "We tell 'em to go home, cool off, and come back in a better frame of mind. We're here to help, not hinder, but we can't help when the applicant hinders himself."

If you left your last job with bad feelings, the best way to combat this is on an interview for a new job is to denounce your ex-employer, office politics, or a biased personnel manager. Don't do it, says the BUC. Be honest. You'll get credit for it.

Don't expect miracles overnight, says the BUC. It's not easy to find a job that fast. Be patient. The BUC pays compensation to those who qualify for a maximum period of 26 weeks.

HOW CAN YOU AFFORD professional help? It's paid for. The BUC is professional help and will assist the unemployed. Nearest office is at Mansfield.

Other professional help, which you pay for yourself, is available in larger communities — Elyria, Lorain, Sandusky, Toledo, Tiffin, Mansfield, Maumee.

What to do when you're laid off? Go to the nearest BUC office. Fill out the required form. List your employers for the past 15 months. It's important to be accurate about this. Benefits run from $10 to $33 a week, depending upon the applicant's earnings in the highest quarter of the year prior to filing a claim. An allowance of $3 for each of two minor children is permitted. The maximum benefit, therefore, is $39 for 26 weeks.

TO MAINTAIN THE STATE benefit, the applicant must visit the BUC office each week, swear that he looked for employment week, list their names and addresses.

It's this requirement that is being more rigidly enforced. As the applicant files for unemployment compensation, he also must register for employment.

"We classify people as they register according to type of work they can do, and classify job listings in the same way," the BUC says.

So long as the job pays the "going rate" in the community, the unemployed person is expected to take it if referred by BUC, provided it is a "suitable" job for him.

Here is where the more rigid enforcement of the law pinches. "We don't refer persons to jobs who aren't suitable, ordinarily," says the BUC. "But the longer the individual is unemployed, the wider the 'suitable' definition becomes. He may eventually wind up in a porter's job if nothing else is available."

FINALLY, THE RANGE of search is being increased. If you're out of work and looked only at home, in Shelby, and Willard, during its week and visited five places, you can get by for now.

But, warns the BUC, the time is coming when you'll have to look farther afield to warrant payment of unemployment compensation.

the woman's side of it

by aunt liz

For years we have been making and eating what we call "curry". Just accidentally we have discovered that it should be "kari" and that it is the Hindustani word for sauce.

Some folks might think it is something very exotic and different. It isn't. It is nothing but common old stew, which everyone makes with a few things added. Actually, over half of the world's population eats it every day. It is the standard dish of the Middle East and the Far East, and have you seen their population figures lately?

THE FORM DOES DIFFER from country to country. The one basic thing to it is that all forms are slightly hot in flavor. Many husbands might be pleased to know that beer is the recommended chaser for the hotness. Water, only makes the situation worse.

If you have never eaten anything flavored with curry powder, start off simply to see if you like it. Lately, we have been shaking a little into the fat before making home fried potatoes. It gives an added touch and a flavor everyone seems to like. You can't miss it.

From there, try a basic sauce which is in every cook book. When you brown the onions in the beginning, really brown them. An Indian friend taught me that. It brings out the flavor which is lost otherwise. Into the sauce you can throw all the left overs, meat and vegetables alike. It is a wonderful Saturday night dish when you want to clean out the refrigerator.

REAL CURRY HAS WHAT you would call side dishes to accompany it. In small custard cups put coconut, crushed peanuts, a pepper relish, finely chopped hardboiled egg, and chutney. A little of each should be piled on each portion.

If you want to be a fancy hostess, you can really go to town on this. Once we were guests at a dinner in an Indian home, and before each place was a round silver tray which held about five or six small silver bowls of the various toppings. It was beautiful. Then if you want to go whole hog, you could seat your guests cross-legged on the floor and let them eat from a low table, which is also done in some parts of the world.

Now that may sound utterly foolish, which it is. And how silly can we get? It seems we have already gotten so.

JUST BECAUSE SOMEONE got the jump on us, everyone is running around like chickens with their heads cut off. For the past month, we have been reading like mad. Things we ordinarily don't read because, like too many others, we are lazy. In a magazine called Foreign Affairs, which is a very weighty thing to read, we found the answer.

No one, and that includes our acquaintances of the salt mine country, is ahead of us. We have more of everything than they do. They apparently know it, and made a great effort in our small field. Some one was going to do it, eventually, anyway. Maybe it could have been us. Maybe it is the best thing which could have happened. We have become a little lazy in our thinking. But, the thing we have and they don't, is that we are free to think. Would any of their people be able to pop off by voice or pen as we have in the past few months? When people are free to think, then there is no limit to what they can really do.

Presbyterians set youth day

Westminster Fellowship day will be observed during the morning worship service Sunday in the First Presbyterian Church.

All members of the Senior High and Junior High Westminster Fellowship groups will participate.

Sermon will be presented by Miss Susan Weaver and Deryl

Hampton, who will explore "Which is more important, what, or in whom, we believe?" and "What problems are encountered in responding to Christ?"

Others participating in the program are Vaughn D'Lee Faust, Nancy Miller, William Strine, Lorna Lee Lake, Alice Armstrong, Dan Carter, James Strine.

Cheryl Faust, Thomas Fetters and Judy Fetters.

Junior High Westminster Fellowship group of the church elected new officers to serve the second half of the year. Those elected are Jean Weaver, president, Royann Cunningham vice-president; William Young, secretary, Peggy Reed, treasurer.

Lutherans to go to synod election

Monday The Rev. Robert F. Hall and H. James Root will attend a special meeting of the synod at the First Lutheran church in Mansfield to elect a new president. Mr. Root is the lay delegate of the Plymouth church and a member of the executive board of the synod.

The process of thawing and refreezing does not make fruits and vegetables unsafe. But thawed foods spoil more rapidly than fresh foods and may quickly become unsafe to eat if not refrigerated. The thawing and refreezing will usually result in lowered quality and loss of flavor.

Two under-age-girls arrested for theft

Two under-age girls, Bonnie Ramey and Beatrice Robinson, are in the Erie county detention home at Sandusky awaiting action by Huron county juvenile court on a charge of car theft.

A warrant to this effect was filed at Willard by Grover Picklesheimer, son of Willie, who alleges the girls took his car without his permission and made off with it for several days.

Because Huron county has no detention home for under-age girls, they are held at Sandusky.

THE GIRLS ARE ALLEGED to have taken the car Jan. 14. When they were apprehended by Police Chief Robert L. Meiser, who had kept close watch on their activities for some time after receiving reports they required watching, eyewitnesses said they were brazen about what they had done.

The Ramey girl, who lives at 221 Sandusky street, broke into tears. Her companion, these eyewitnesses reported, rebuffed the police officer, who obviously was trying to help them.

When parents of one of the girls was confronted by police with the details of the offense, another rebuff occurred. "Take her," they said, "we can't do anything with her."

They will be heard by Juvenile Judge Don J. Young, Jr., at Norwalk tomorrow.

Jump to run again

Rep. Harry V. Jump, Huron county's representative to the General Assembly, will be a candidate to succeed himself, he said this week.

Nominating petitions are already being circulated.

A former Huron county commissioner, Jump was elected to the Assembly to succeed Kenneth Weaver of New London. He is completing his first term.

A Willard insurance broker and real estate developer, Mr. Jump received his early training in pedagogy. After some years of teaching, he entered business at Willard. He is a product of Ohio Northern university, Ada.

Married, he is the father of five children.

Warriors to meet Indians tomorrow

Huron Valley's Warriors tackle hapless North Fairfield in a Huron-Erie league game here tomorrow, with signs of slight improvement on what otherwise is a dismal season record.

The Warriors have won four contests, all in league play, and lost seven. The Indians of North Fairfield haven't won a single game yet.

HURON VALLEY COULDN'T connect from the penalty mark at Lucas Friday and went down before the Cubs, 67 to 56. The winners outshot the visitors, 19 to 8, at the foul line. Ted Fox was high man for both sides with 30 points, his top for the season so far. Paul Kelsner had 24 for Lucas.

how to attack and defend, how to penetrate defenses and how to organize defenses. With the time available, the coach has little opportunity to teach shooting. The boys will have to get theirs on their own.

But already it is apparent there is a difference in techniques. Fred teaches, or allows, one-handed set shooting, which is certainly neither revolutionary nor unusual. The O. I. nor allow it, on the belief these boys are too young, too unskilled, too small to learn that skill until they've mastered the two-handed set shot.

IN THE DRILLS THAT have been held so far, it's apparent the boys worship the dribble. Without it they can't do a thing. In a special drill organized Saturday, when dribbling was banned, seventh graders were paralyzed in attack. They couldn't get off a dime without dribbling.

Phog Allen's excellent book, "Better Basketball," says "passing is the core of basketball. Without good passing the game is not played properly."

That's what these youngsters are being taught, regardless of how they're allowed to shoot: pass, pass, PASS. Make 'em good. Bad pass, sit down, think it over, when you can make a good one, get on the floor again.

Over and over again. We don't shoot at the basket very much. But we're learning basketball.

Cub Scouts plan 'motion pictures'

"Modest Movie Making" is the theme of the January Cub pack meeting slated Thursday at 7 p.m. in the elementary center. Den 2 will present a skit. Den 1 will conduct the opening ceremony. Den 3 will conduct the closing ceremony.

A special motion picture feature will be presented by Richard M. Smith of Toledo. All Cubs are requested to attend, with at least one parent. "Boys over eight who wish to become Cub Scouts are invited to come to my office Saturdays at 10 a.m. to discuss membership," says A. L. Paddock, Jr., Cubmaster.

Communicants' class set at Presbyterian church

A communicants' class for prospective members of the church will begin Saturday at 10 a.m. in First Presbyterian church, the pastor, the Rev. Moss Rutan, reports.

Herman and Delbert Schwartz and Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Schwartz, who live near Grand Rapids, Mich., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Albin O. Habler Saturday after they attended the funeral of Louis Wise in Monroeville, Mr. and Mrs. Max Phillips of Havana were also guests.

Art club presented the program at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting Jan. 16. Dixie Fortney spoke on self-portraits. Beatrice Burma explained outdoor scenes made with charcoal. The subject of James Pasquali's talk was the color wheel. Nancy Miller president of the club, talked on tempera paintings.

Richard Prater explained the Halloween decorations and paintings made on the Square.

Karen Webber's subject was the Homecoming float and decorations. Gary Levering spoke on live models. Patricia Grabach explained painting still lifes.

Nora Dorion's subject was the Christmas decorations at the high school.

Gary Levering also spoke on perspective drawing.

of the Spanish club, has appointed Myra Brinson chairman of the committee to draft a constitution for the club.

Working with Miss Brinson will be James Vogel, Jan Pizzen and Barry Fetten.

James Wasserman, Lorna Lake, Cheryl Faust, Nancy Lewis and William Archer are working on the parts and script for the play to be presented by the Latin club. The play will be presented before the student body at Huron Valley High school Jan. 29.

Members of the college club ratified the constitution prepared by President James Wasserman, D. Richard Akers, William Archer and Donald Barnhouse. Miss Estella M. Easteaday is adviser.

WORRY

It is worse than many a disease. It can make you old before your time. It can even kill you. And before it does, it can destroy all your happiness.

We know all that... why then, do we worry? We worry because we have too many fears for our shallow supply of faith. A man or woman needs faith enough to brush aside his fears.

God is ready to give you all the faith you need. But you'll never get it worrying all week...

In Church next Sunday, you can renew and strengthen your faith. In so doing, you will be able to face life unafraid.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in our search for the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should join the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and mental support. (4) To go to Bible study.

NOW! FOR HEALTH— FOR FLAVOR— A BETTER MILK TO DRINK!

Homogenized VITAMIN-MINERAL-FORTIFIED milk supplies practically all your daily vitamin and mineral needs. You already know about the nutritional qualities of milk. But now... for the first time... here's an even better milk. Amazing new VITAMIN-MINERAL-FORTIFIED milk!

Our VITAMIN-MINERAL milk is fortified with all of the more important vitamins and minerals, except Vitamin C. (Easily obtained from fruit and vegetable juices.) Drink just one quart—and get the minimum daily adult requirement of nearly all vitamins and minerals needed for normal good health!

"LOOK AT THE COMPARISON"

MINIMUM DAILY ADULT REQUIREMENTS CONTRIBUTED BY ONE QUART

Better flavor, too! Our VITAMIN-MINERAL-FORTIFIED milk is homogenized! More creamy smooth. Easily digestible.

BETTER TASTING... SO MUCH BETTER FOR YOU

Our new VITAMIN-MINERAL-FORTIFIED milk is a thrifty way to be more certain your family gets the vitamins and minerals they need. Costs just 1c more per quart than plain, non-fortified, milk!

Crusher Nease loses mother at Fitchville

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon for Nora Margaret Nease, 71, at the McQuate Funeral Home.

Mrs. Nease died Sunday noon at the Chronic hospital in Fitchville.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Flossie Smart of San Diego, Cal.; six sons, Crusher of Shiloh, Scott of Cincinnati, Buford and Arnold of Norwalk, Cletus and Wick of Jackson, Mich.; 16 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; and one brother, Chester Ross of West Liberty, Ky.

Mrs. Nease was a member of the Church of Christ and had lived in Plymouth for some time. Burial was in the New Haven cemetery.

Consolidated OK

Huron Valley local school district organized at Norwalk Saturday and appointed Allen R. Wiles, Greenfield; Neil Slessman and Edward Postema, New Haven; and Lauren Eitle and Arthur Capell, Richmond, to the board of education.

Wiles, Slessman and Eitle served on the outlaid Huron Valley board. Wiles was narrowly defeated by Donald P. Markley for a seat on the elected Huron Valley board.

Butler township slates annual farmers' institute

Sixty-second Butler township Farmers Institute will open Thursday at 8 p.m. with the home talent play, "Zeke and Daisy". Children of the Adario elementary school will present the Friday morning program. Frank Eastman, president, will preside. A picnic luncheon will be served at noon.

Mrs. Harold Robison, Ashtabula, a delegate in 1946 to the International Cooperative alliance in Zurich, Switzerland, and a more recent visitor to Europe in 1953, will be the principal speaker of the afternoon session. She will be introduced by Ronald Tennis, vice-president.

Chester McGrew, Richland county farm agent, and Mrs. Marion Kirk, county home demonstration agent, will conclude the Friday afternoon program.

Randy King's TV entertainers will highlight Friday night's program when John Nebergall will preside.

Ray Koehenderfer will open the Saturday session at 10 a.m. The Rev. R. Reinhard Wabus, pastor of Spring Creek Christian church, Sidney, will be principal speaker.

Savannah High school musicians will play. A cafeteria luncheon will be sold by women of Butler township.

Leo Fair will conduct the business meeting at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Pries for hobbies, baked good, crop and antique will be awarded.

The home talent play will again be presented Saturday night. Miss Pauline Seibert direct. Door prizes will be awarded on both nights.

154 oppose merger

Opposition to the Huron Valley school merger developed at the Huron county school board meeting Saturday when James Pemberton, Greenfield township, presented a petition with 154 signatures of residents who prefer transfer to the Willard elementary village system.

The petition, apparently, was too late. Lovell Hilemen, president of the board, said under new laws effective Jan. 1 the county board has no authority to effect transfers.

Lyle Smith was elected vice-president of the board.

Better Eating

BY JEAN ALLEN

Are you faced with a "little of this and a little of that" in your refrigerator? Then maybe it's time to "raid the refrigerator."

A little imagination can transfer leftovers into interesting meals, tempting enough to be served as company dishes.

Spanish Ham and Noodles is perfect for a buffet supper—and easy on the budget, too. Serve it with a tossed salad, hot rolls, and your favorite dessert. A prize meal!

- Spanish Ham and Noodles
- 2 cups broad noodles
- 1/4 cup minced onion
- 2 tablespoons diced celery
- 2 tablespoons diced green pepper
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 2 cups tomato juice
- 3 1/2 cups cooked dried ham
- 1/2 cup sliced stuffed green olives

3/4 cup grated Cheddar cheese
Boil noodles, onion, celery, green pepper and pepper in tomato juice until noodles are tender. Add ham and olives; pour into a two-quart baking dish.
Sprinkle with cheese. Bake in slow oven (225° F.) one hour.

Yield: Four servings.
To add a glamorous touch, garnish with sliced stuffed green olives.
