

Council orders water extension

(Ed. Note: Action of the village council in directing Board of Public Affairs to install a six-inch water main at public expense for 1,700 feet in West Broadway is unusual but not illegal. It derives from anomaly in Ohio law: because trustees of public are elected, they are generally cloaked with policy-making powers, yet they have no power to tax or raise money without approval of the council. This action, therefore, is a case of the supervisory authority undertaking to do what the action authority could or would not do.)

Board of Public Affairs was directed to lay a new six-inch water main in West Broadway at public expense Tuesday night.

By 5 to 1 vote, the village council approved an emergency ordinance drafted and presented by Councilman Donald E. Akers authorizing the Board to lay the line, have its water superintendent prepare the list of specifications and to do the work itself if it seems feasible to do so.

No assessment of any kind will be permitted, the ordinance decreed.

Clerk Carl V. Ellis reported a surplus of $18,765.02 in the water fund with October billings not yet credited.

The dissenter was Councilman Lowell E. Keith, who said he favors water extension in West Broadway but only with assessment.

Woodrow Smith, Fate-Root-Heath Co. employee, was nominated and unanimously confirmed as assistant fire chief, succeeding Ray Blyight. His salary is $150 a year, plus $2 for the first hour and $1.50 thereafter when actually fighting fires. Harold Ross, Percy Dean and George M. Lesho were confirmed as regular firemen, R. Harold Mack, Lace Williamson and Quentin Ream as alternates.

A confidential report from the Ohio Inspection Bureau, recommending a long range program for improvement of fire protection, was recorded by the council. It refused to allow the report to be examined. Local fire insurance rates are based upon it.

Architect Thurman J. Peabody told the council he will be away from Oct. 15 to Nov. 4 and nominated two assistants to act in his stead. He said the survey by Arthur Burras, North Fairfield, is 90 per cent complete.

Solicitor Joseph F. Deas presented drafts of legislation to initiate the $39,000 councilmanic bond issue, but the council elected to postpone its consideration until a special session Tuesday night.

Mrs. Mae Sourwine reported to the council that damages amounting to $20 in an electric fence were incurred when the Huron river bottom was cleaned. The chief of police will investigate the claim.

Mrs. Rooks loses brother in Virginia

Brother of Mrs. May Rooks, Clarence Rettig, 70, died at noon Friday in West Point, Va.

As a boy, he lived near here. His wife, three sons, three daughters, and a brother, Robert, New York, N. Y., also survive.

A funeral service was conducted in West Point Monday afternoon.

Ramsey elected to head bands

Charles E. Ramsey, son of the Edward O. Ramseys, has been elected president of the Plymouth High school marching and concert band. He will be graduated in 1960.

Shirley Hawk, Class of 1961, is vice-president, Ruth Ann Frisby secretary - treasurer, Nancy Lewis sergeant-at-arms and Diane Williams librarian.

The latter three are seniors. H. R. Davenport is director and adviser.

Susan approves of two kinds of milk

To Susan Cook, eighth grader in Shiloh Junior High school, there're two kinds of milk: the lactic secretion of the cow and the milk of human kindness.

Conscientious in her study of Ohio history, she persuaded her parents, the David E. Cooks, to take her to Chillicothe, there to see and study Indian mounds.

Somewhere in that historic city, she mislaid her purse, containing money and the impedimenta characteristic of eighth grade girls.

Some miles from the first capital of Ohio, Susan noticed her loss. Bachtzacking, the Cooks failed to find the purse.

Resigned to its total disappearance of all time, the family returned to Plymouth.

No sooner had they opened their door than a long distance telephone call from Cincinnati reported that a service station attendant had found it in his trash container.

Next year, Susan says she's going to study some course that'll tell her how the purse got from Chillicothe to Cincinnati.

Meanwhile, she asserts, all people are kind, only some are not

Chamber to stage pancake supper

Proceeds of a pancake and sausage supper to be served Oct. 21 by Plymouth Chamber of Commerce will be contributed to the 1959 Community chest.

Preliminary plans were laid Monday night at the chamber's dinner meeting. George Lesho was appointed chairman of the dinner and Luther R. Fetters ticket chairman.

Lindy anything but lucky with law

A 25-year old Plymouth route 1 man is in Huron county jail awaiting charges of contributing to the delinquency of a young Trux street girl.

Lindbergh Toliver will meanwhile serve 10 days on a charge of driving without a license, on which he also paid a fine of $150 and cost to Mayor Thurman R. Ford.

Toliver was also convicted of unsafe operation, for which he was fined $25 and costs.

He was arrested late Saturday after taking the 14-year-old local girl to a tavern in Centerton and allegedly plying her with beer.

Fred Ramey, Sandusky street, was bound over to the Huron county grand jury Monday after being charged by his wife with assault with intent to kill.

Child finds Civil war soldier's letter

A letter dated Oct. 31, 18-62, addressed to his parents by a Union soldier, was found recently by a redheaded schoolgirl browsing in a barn.

To young Constance Davis, daughter of the James C. Davises, the letter is the beginning of a mystery she hopes to unravel some day.

"I found it in the old Holtz barn," the girl says. My daddy and mommy copied what it says."

But any student of Civil war history can ascertain some of the facts.

The letter was probably written at Buckhannon, W. Va., shortly after Rebel troops were evicted after a foray which took the town and flew the Stars and Bars for three weeks.

Here is such of its text as the Davises can distinguish:

"Dear Father and Mother: I take my pen in hand to write you a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope that this letter will find you the same. I and Crury has (sic) both wrote a letter and we have not had an answer to them. So I take the opportunity of writing to you again. In the other letter I wrote the route that we came, but we will let that go. We are in a town that was taken by the rebels (sic) about 4 weeks ago. The name of this place is Bachannon (sic). It is about a hundred miles from the west part of Virginia. I expect that we will go from here before a great while. We are under Millray and he is a great commander. He says that he is a going to send us all home at Christmas to eat a turkey. The telegram dispatch has come in for three mornings that MacClelan (sic) has taken one hundred thousand prisoners. It is confirmed now. We have had nice weather all but one day and night it rained very hard. The weather looks as if we might have some rain before a great while. We have good tents to sleep in. We can build a fire in them . . ."

To whom the letter was addressed, and by whom, is what mystifies the Davises. Any suggestions?

Risking 'whammy', Plymouth favored to down Barbers Friday

"You may be putting the whammy on us" is how Coach Lew Petik looked upon Phil the Filbert's prediction that Plymouth is a one-touchdown favorite to down Seville in an NCC game here tomorrow.

But he did not conceal his pleasure with Friday's win over Black River.

The visitors, not having won a league game so far, have desire going for them. But they're also crippled — John Armstrong, a top back, having been injured in the Lodi contest two weeks ago.

Still, Coach Dick Brockett has a set of the fastest backs in the conference to throw at the Big Red, which must be up to its best defensive performance to win.

Bob Chidsey, Bill Oberli, Roscoe Devore and Russ Hewitt will probably get the starting call for the Barber backfield.

Upfront, the Big Red outweighs its opponents by perhaps five pounds a man.

Neither team is deep in reserves. Brockett has been feeding

Plymouth meat to his squad all week, according to reports from the Medina county town, and the Barbers have a notorious repete for being hardnos

YESTERDAY'S MEDICINE, TODAY'S COW FEED

A short time ago, people thought blackstrap molasses was effective treatment for anemia and rheumatism. Today we know better. We wouldn't think of relying on "home remedies" when we have so many fact-acting, reliable modern medications available to us. But remember—most medicines should be taken only upon the advice of your physician. The next time you're not feeling up to par, see your doctor first. Then, if he orders medication, come to us for quality prescription service.

Suzie sez

Pop keeps telling me that a person can be successful if he will learn to communicate well (that is, to write and speak convincingly) and if he will learn to get along with the right people at the right time.

He is a stickler for spelling and punctuation. He says if you can't write it right, don't write it.

Well, my friend Mr. Miller handed me this, which just shows Pop is all wet. A new salesman of a business firm wasn't very smart. He sent this report to his office: "Dear Boss: I seen this outfit which they ain't never bought a dime worth of nothing from us and I sole them a couple hunner thousand dollars of goods. I am now goin to Cheawgo."

The sales manager was all set to fire this man but he got another letter from Chicago. "Dear Boss: I cum hear and solem them haff a millyun dollars in the goods."

The sales manager didn't know what to do so he took the letters and records to the president.

The president then wrote this letter, which was posted on the bulletin board for all to see and read:

"We have been spending to much time trying to spel a-round hear insted of trying to sel. Lets wash those sails. I want everybody shud read these letters from our new salesman, who is on the rode doing a grate job for us, and you shud go out and do like he dum."

I just know what Pop is going to say. He will say "The exception proves the rule." (Ed. Note: Dear child, you are so right!)

D. C. Hunter weds Williamsport girl

Duane C. (Buck) Hunter became a benedict Saturday before the altar of Williamsport's Evangelical United Brethren church.

He took Miss June M. Suttler of Shelby, daughter of Mrs. Stella Pearce of Mt. Gilead route 2, as his bride in a double ring ceremony performed at 2:30 p.m. by the Rev. Paul J. Strouse of Shank.

Only one son of the Martin A. (Bert) Hunters of Plymouth route 1 now remains single.

A half hour of nuptial music on the piano was presented by Mrs. Margaret Hanna before the bride approached the bronze and yellow chrysanthemum-bedecked altar in a blue velvet dress fashioned with scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves in the princess style. She wore a corsage of white rosebuds to offset her white hat and gloves.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Shirley Bachelder of Mt. Gilead route 2, who wore a sheath dress of a berry hue with pink accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

Roger Daron, Plymouth, was best man. Groomsmen were the bridegroom's brother, Richard, and Lloyd Pearce, Mt. Gilead.

Mrs. Hunter watched from the front pew in navy blue with pink rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Pearce occupied the bride's pew in similar attire.

A reception in the Williamsport Grange hall followed the ceremony. Fall flowers decorated the room. The cake, a three-tiered creation festooned with pink rosebuds, was served by Mrs. Harry Andrews, Mrs. Charles Pearce and the Misses Carolyn and Marilyn Love. Marlene Kay Pearce registered guests in the bridal book.

After a trip through the east the Hunters will live at 68 North street.

Testimony was that Ramey came home from Greenwich, where he had been drinking, early Sunday morning. Finding the house locked, he pried a window with a screwdriver. He entered the bedroom with the screwdriver in his hand. His wife took this for a menacing gesture and dove for a 20-gauge shotgun. He wrested it from her and beat her with it.

AFTER RUSH TRIP TO COLUMBUS FOR TREATMENT

Mrs. Bauer succumbs to crash injuries

Rushed Sept. 30 to St. Anthony's hospital in Columbus for treatment of her severe injuries received in a head-on collision in Route 598 Sept. 27, Mrs. Earl Bauer died shortly thereafter.

The 26-year-old former Shiloh woman became Huron county's 14th traffic fatality of the year.

Her husband, a son, Michael, and two daughters, Cheryl and Jodene, and her parents, the Hallie Kaylors, Shiloh, survive.

The Rev. C. H. Schieman, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Willard, conducted last rites Sunday at 3 p.m. from the Secor Funeral home. Burial was in Maple Grove cemetery, New Haven.

Only a few months after he married, Theodore Henry West 61, Oberlin, husband of the former Mrs. Agnes McFadden, died suddenly at his home there Monday morning.

He retired from the Oberlin post office in October, 1958, after 40 years of service, 20 as assistant postmaster.

During World War II he served as a Navy recruiting officer at Cleveland from 1942 to 1945.

A sister, Mrs. Beulah Haggard, Oberlin, also survives.

The Rev. Joseph Kind conducted a funeral service Friday at 3 p.m. Burial was in Westwood cemetery, Oberlin.

Mother of Mrs. Woodrow Huston and of Mrs. Fred Van

Zest, Mrs. Russell Baker, 73, died early Thursday at her home near Shiloh.

Her husband, another daughter, Mrs. William Heintz, Mansfield; a son, Russell, Des Plaines, Ill., a brother, Donald Barnes, Shiloh; and five sisters, Mrs. Byron Mohr, Milledotown, and the Misses Amy, Elsie and Elda Barnes and Mrs. Alfred Stewart, all of Columbus, also survive.

The Rev. Thomas S. Taylor conducted last rites Saturday at 1:30 p.m. from the McQuate Funeral home, Shiloh. Buri always in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Aunt of James C. Davis, Mrs. Muriel Davis, 56, a former teacher in Plymouth schools, died in Akron Thursday. She had been treated for a fracture of the hip.

A brother, F. Glenn Lucas, in Florida, is her only immediate survivor.

Graveside services in Greenlawn cemetery were conducted Saturday at 2:30 p.m. after funeral services had taken place in Akron at 10 a.m. ED-ST.

The late Mr. Davis was for many years terminal dispatcher for the B&O railroad at Willard.

Lake county, raises more 'nursery stock than any other county with the possible exception of Los Angeles county, California.

McQuown girl hurt in freak accident, Mrs. Henry fractures hip in fall at home

Sheryl McQuown, daughter of the Norman B. McQuowns, was painfully injured in a freak accident Thursday afternoon.

A football thrown by Lee LaFollette struck her bicycle, causing her to upset. She cut her lip and mouth and lost four teeth in the fall. She was taken to a hospital for emergency treatment and allowed to go home.

Steven Kennel, son of the Frederick Kennels, entered Shelby Memorial hospital Sept. 30.

Mrs. Mabel Shoup and Jane Goodye were admitted to Shelby Memorial hospital Thursday.

A fall in her home in West Broadway resulted in a fractured hip for Mrs. Edith Henry.

She fell Friday afternoon while alone in the house and was unable to move. When her grandson, Tommy, arrived from school, he immediately went for help. He found Postman Kenneth Myers, and several neighbors to help move her to a more comfortable position. Later she was taken to the Willard Municipal hospital in McQuate's ambulance, where x-rays showed the fracture.

Mrs. John Lanus underwent a gitterectomy in North Shore hospital, Miami, Fla., Friday. She is assigned to Room 109.

Simple as ABC

A new world is growing up before your young man—the world of ABC . . .

He's had his blocks for some time. But today's the first day he's gotten interested in the big letters on their sides. Those big, round eyes just focused on one a moment ago. What was it there for? He picked up the "C" block and looked at it again. Still a puzzle . . .

That's when you felt the light, little tug on your arm. And when you turned, there he was, with the block clutched tightly in the tiny, pink fist and a big question in his eyes.

He knew his mother would have the answer . . .

Yes, the questions will be coming thick and fast from now on. That's the reason for choosing his Sunday School—now.

For his Sunday School is ready to help you with the ABCs of his religious education—an education that should begin with the fundamentals of faith and teaching and belief. He's ready for this early in his life—yet the knowledge of God's word that he receives in Church will support him all through his life.

Yes, they'll welcome his questions in Sunday School. And he'll get the answers to them there. It's that simple . . . as simple as ABC.

Butch Baker scores 20

Lodi-Berlin Heights tops slate

It was Duane Baker's night to shine and that's what he did in Mary Fate park Friday before a near-capacity Homecoming crowd, as Plymouth won its first victory of the season.

The Big Red downed Black River, 22 to 8, leading almost all the way and showing better football than it has exhibited all season.

Baker scored 20 of Plymouth's 22 points. It was a gem of a performance by the squat speedster.

Black River was several degrees a better ball club than Berlin Heights Friday night, yet aside from one penetration in retaliation for the first score and a couple of mistakes, Plymouth contained the Pirates admirably.

THE BIG RED'S AERIAL game was a flop, more or less, but its ground attack rolled up 180 yards, 127 of it in the first half.

Big play of the night was one for the book. In the second period, with the Pirates leading 8 to 6 on the strength of John Nagy's buck for the PAT after the young quarterback had punched in for the score, Billy Strine booted 31 yards to the Black River 45.

Here the Pirates launched an aerial attack. Benford tried one to Blessing, but it went for naught. Black River was detected in offensive holding, and Baker as co-captain of the Big Red refused the penalty.

It was evident this decision displeased the Plymouth bench. On the next play, Nagy got off another pass and Black River was again nabbed in a holding offence. And Baker again refused the penalty.

He must have known what he was about, for when Nagy tried a third pass, Baker nailed it on the Plymouth 42 and with the help of a magnificent cross body block by Doug McQuate, he sped 52 yards down the near sideline for the touchdown which established a Plymouth lead. Baker danced in for the PAT.

Earlier, during the first period, it seemed for a time that Plymouth would win hands down. The home eleven scored on the 11th play of the game, after driving from its own 40. Baker's dash around left end with a pitchout was good for 24 yards in the big gainer.

He finally piled in from eight yards out.

A minute after the fourth quarter started, Black River failed to make a first down and surrendered possession on its 41. Fate Christian belted for a yard and Dayton Reed swept end for 22. From here Baker required two plays to haul it in.

THE SCORER WAS AN 11 yard pass in the flat. Strine to Baker. Strine hit McQuate for the PAT.

These opponents were evenly matched, for the most part, and total yardage gained by all means was about even.

But if the football eleven were about even, the bands showed otherwise. A Plymouth boy, Louis Root, is director of the Black River band, which put on a splendid half-time show.

But this was not to be the pirate band's night. Director H. R. Davenport's 60-piece aggregation broke out its new cap lights and with the stadium darkened up on a show that, while overlong, delighted the fans and for originality and ingenuity stamped this unit with the reputation of class.

Black River: ends: Blessing, Waltz - tackles: Beach, Fitzgerald - guards: Van Meter, Myers, Findley, Pfeiffer, Stewart - center: Weidrick, Harnsworth - backs: McMillen

Nagy, Benford, Haswell, Howe

Shelby Reserves wallop Plymouth off single wing

Shelby Reserves rode from the single wing formation to a 36 to 0 victory over Plymouth Reserves here Monday afternoon.

The local eleven couldn't move off a dime. Its two first downs were, in part, the result of a penalty.

The season's record now: one loss, one tie. The Plymouth eleven meets Bucyrus there next Monday.

It could blow higher than a kite this week.

That's the story of North Central conference play for tomorrow and Saturday.

Lodi is a clear two touchdown favorite to down Berlin Heights on the Erie county grounds. Saturday afternoon, dethrone the Sandersmen and stomp onward to the 1959 championship.

Western Reserve ought to have a fairly easy time of it with Black River at Spencer Saturday afternoon. With a lack-lustre squad in the preview, Coach Tony Aiello has come up with a steadily improving group which has won two games and knocked off Westfield at home Saturday.

If Plymouth's Big Red can take heart from its defeat of Black River last week and continue winning ways by downing Seville Friday night, the Big Red stands a chance of winding up in second place.

BUT SHORT OF A MAJOR calamity, Lodi is in like Flynn.

The Tigers have rolled up 96 points and allowed only 14, all of which were toleration scores allowed by scrubs late in the game.

Berlin Heights dropped Seville Friday night, 26 to 12, as Bruce Burnham broke loose for the first time this season. The rangy 185-pound Berlin Heights end got three scorers, plus two-point conversion, to lead the defenders to their second victory.

Roscoe DeVore, heretofore unheard from as a Barber backfield performer, scored both Seville touchdowns. It was plain the Barbers were weakened by the loss of John Armstrong, whose leg was broken in the Lodi scrap.

NORTHERN OHIO TELEPHONE COMPANY

On the Sidelines

By THE OLD TIMER

W. Woodrow Hayes proved once again, Friday night, that he's just what the Old Timer has contended all along -- a busher.

Sure, he's had a winning percentage at Ohio State. But, as Ol' Case's detractors said in the past seven or eight seasons, who wouldn't with all them horses?

His conduct after State got the ears beat off it by Southern Cal shows two serious shortcomings: first, he's got a dreadful inferiority complex, and second, he's never learned self-control.

But leave us here now and expect to build character and coach our finest young men with such shortcomings. As the eminent University of Wisconsin professor said, "I like football. I like its pageantry. I like the game. But let's hire the Chicago Bears as artists-in-residence and stop pretending our football is college-boy amateurism."

From the way the Bears behaved Saturday, it wouldn't be a bad idea.

THIS IS A NATION THAT'S all but ready to fling a man into space to fly to the moon and, we hope, back.

But isn't it ridiculous in a society which has learned to calculate and measure mathematical certainties that'd take a Chinese with an abacus a lifetime to figure out that we haven't developed some accurate way to measure yardage on a football field?

The poles-and-chain technique is as outdated as your grandmother's bustle. Its inaccuracies are so manifest even a blind man can see them.

The rules committee tinkers with the game each season, widening the goal posts, lengthening the number of time outs, and such. But it has never, to our recollection, undertaken to correct this remarkable shortcoming.

Just how important it is can be attested upon reflection. Item: Wittenberg lost its shirt to Heidelberg at Tiffin Saturday night because it missed a first down by an inch. Now try to tell us the system of measurement was accurate. And please let us have no refutation that what's fair for one side is fair for the other. The truth is either side is entitled to accuracy.
