

As Coolidge and a good nylon, Van Buskirk declines to run

A bombshell was dropped into Huron county politics this week.

Veteran Commissioner Harry Van Buskirk, completing his fourth term, said he won't be a candidate for reelection.

Incumbent Arthur F. Herner, Monroeville route 2, who served 21 years as clerk and trustee of Peru Township before winning election to the commissionership in November, 1937, says he'll be a candidate to succeed himself.

Herner plans to initiate his nominating petitions shortly.

Married and the father of four sons, he has been a farmer near Monroeville most of his adult life.

Herner succeeded Harry V. Jump when that veteran commissioner was elected representative to the General Assembly.

He served as chairman of the commissioners last year. Present chairman is O. W. (Bill) Leech, New London.

Van Buskirk, an auctioneer by calling, has been conservative in his leanings as commissioner. He has for some time expressed the desire to "slacken off in my activities — I've got too many of 'em" and decided this is the time to call a halt to his political career.

In the corridors of Norwalk's face-lifted but still grotesque courthouse, where political matters are discussed more than anywhere else in the 497 square miles of Huron county, talk was the primary will be a lively campaign. At least two other Republicans and a pair of Democrats are said to be anxious to file for commissioner.

A primary fight is certain for the office of sheriff.

Herner is bound to have opposition for the $3,400 a year post. James Ferris, Norwalk, and A. H. Peppera, rural New London, are reported to be circulating nominating petitions.

Incumbents who're running again are Don J. Young, Jr., incumbent juvenile and probate judge, or the Democratic ticket; Dr. Charles Edel, coroner, and Harold E. Collier, treasurer, on the GOP slate, and Dana Call, veteran clerk of the courts, also a Republican.

Two Democrats reportedly seeking signers to nominating petitions for sheriff are Paul

McIntire compiles by filing amended statement of costs

An affidavit amending his statement of Nov. 6 of payments and promises made by him and by his associates while circulating the firehouse initiative petition was filed Monday by Robert L. McIntire. The first statement was held to be insufficient.

He revealed formerly for the first time the identity of his associates. They are Ray A. Dininger, Ira D. Brougher and William C. Enderby.

In the statement, the four said they made no promises of any kind to anybody and paid a total of $50 for legal advice to Depler & Poland, Shelby attorneys. No other expenses were made, the quartet swore, and no persons were retained on a fee or salary basis to circulate the petitions, of which only four were filed.

Enderby clarified rumors that he had been summoned by some councilmen to support his stand on the petition. He acknowledged he was questioned by two councilmen but denied emphatically that he said he backed the petition because he understood it objected only to the price of the Ramsey theatre property.

Said Enderby: "I did not tell anybody that I didn't understand the petition or that it was misrepresented to me. I signed the petition and carried it to other signers because I believe the Hubach site is superior to the theatre site for a firehouse."

Dumper nabbed

A second Plymouth resident has been arrested on a charge of unlawful dumping.

Almost two years after Mrs. John Pfeil of North street was arrested and fined for dumping garbage illegally in Hasbrouck road south of Norwalk Hobart Thornsberry, 57 Plymouth street, was apprehended by Huron county sheriff's deputies on a similar charge.

Neighbors in Ma' road, Willard, complained: "From clues supplied him, Deputy Sheriff John Borgia traced Thornsberry to his home here, located at the northeast intersection of Mills avenue and Plymouth street."

Thornsberry will be heard by County Court Judge Robert Wiedemann.

PAY RAISE TO $2 HOURLY AUTHORIZED

Santa is early for firemen

Christmas came 24 days early for Plymouth volunteer firemen Tuesday night.

A raise in their pay was approved by village council. Strongly supported by the fire committee, Omer G. Burkett and John T. Dick, the raise amounts to 50 cents an hour for each hour engaged in fighting a fire after the first one.

The old rate was $2 for the first hour, $1.50 for each hour thereafter. New rate is $2 an hour straight.

Acting Fire Chief Judson A. Morrison told the council "we're not after any personal gain but the loss of working hours and damage to our clothes is barely covered by $2 an hour."

This came after Councilman Donald E. Akers took the position that it is hardly fair that a lame-duck council should deal with wage levels of firemen when the whole salary picture is being reviewed. He thought it would be "the mark of fairness to postpone this until the new council is seated."

QUESTION OF WHETHER the one-mill levy approved on Nov. 3 for the fire department to purchase a new apparatus was then debated.

Solicitor Joseph F. Dush said he thinks the council can use the fire levy for new equipment, but in the event it cannot, the proceeds of the new levy can be applied to operating expense of the department.

ment and funds for a new truck can be appropriated from the general fund.

Clerk Carl V. Ellis asked for, and got by acquiescence, approval to appropriate $4,000 from the general fund earmarked for a fire truck, and $1,500 earmarked for a new police cruiser.

Some councilmen took the dimmest view of the statement filed by Robert L. McIntire in consequence of his circulation of an initiative petition.

Solicitor Dush, in response to inquiry from Councilman Akers, reiterated his opinion the petition is lawful in every respect. He acknowledged, however, that had he drawn the petition, it would have been less "vague than it now is — for example, I would have put the price to be paid for in-lot No. 31 in the petition."

But he made clear in forceful fashion that Clerk Ellis has no alternative under the law but to forward McIntire's statement to the Board of Elections had to await action.

MRS. MERLE ELLIS, Greenwch route 2, is considering installation of a self-service laundromat at 19 Sandusky street and had previously approached the council with regard to sewer and water facilities and rates.

Borgia would sweep differently from Broome, seeks GOP nod

A six-plank platform supports the bid of Deputy Sheriff John Borgia for the Republican nomination for Huron county sheriff, he said yesterday.

Borgia said he will, if elected, institute an active juvenile delinquency program for school pupils, bring immediate response to complaints lodged with the sheriff's office, have regular meetings with township trustees to discuss complaints, establish regular night motor patrols, build good public relations and develop an active police civil defense program to cope with calamities and disasters such as the flood last spring.

A lifelong resident of Huron county, Borgia was graduated from Norwalk High school in 1949, where he was vice-president of his class.

An active Republican, he is house chairman and member of the executive committee of the Huron County McKinley club. A past president and secretary of the Huron County Young Republican club, he now serves as its treasurer.

Borgia has attended training schools conducted by the FBI and other law enforcement agencies and is a past vice-president of the North-Central Ohio Crime clinic, which now has a membership of 3,000 police officers.

"I am experienced in crime scene investigation, including the taking and lifting of fingerprints, and I have helped to solve a large number of breaking and entering cases in the past five years," Borgia said yesterday. "I am a trained typist and am familiar with the office duties of the department."

He will circulate nominating petitions this week.

Combined age of Mrs. Shields' hams is 51--- but you can't eat 'em

Critic of paper ailing

One of The Advertiser's kindest critics is at home this week, having — of all things — measles.

He's Ronnie Lahmon, No. 2 son of the Milton E. Mellotts, Plymouth street and Mills avenue.

Mrs. Ellis' mother dies at 92 in Akron

Mother of Mrs. George D. Ellis, 92-year-old Mrs. Carrie Ratcliff died at 4 a.m. Tuesday in an Akron Rest home, where she had been for treatment of a fracture of the left hip received a year ago.

The widow of John Ratcliff, who died in 1936, Mrs. Ratcliff was a member of Main Street Methodist church in the Rubber city.

Three daughters, Mrs. E. C. Hostetter, Kent, and Mrs. G. E. McVay and Mrs. E. J. Beachy, both of Akron, and a son, Kyle, Akron, also survive. There are six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be conducted today at 1 p.m. from the Prentice Funeral home in Coburn street, Akron, with burial in Crown Hill cemetery, Hudson.

SCHOOL OUT DEC. 23

Christmas recess in Plymouth public schools will begin at 2:30 p.m. on Dec. 23, Supt. M. J. Coon said Tuesday.

Classes will resume at 8:30 a.m. Jan. 4, 1960.

Mrs. Emerson D. Shields is a smiling brunette who keeps house for her husband and son at 218 Springmill road in a one-floor plan home which is unique because it boasts two hams that are together 51 years old.

But you can't eat 'em — unless you're a cannibal.

Her husband and son are the village's newest amateur radio operators, having received licenses from the Federal Communications commission in October and November.

A license for call letters KN8RHC was issued Oct. 15 to Emerson D. Shields. Three weeks later, on Nov. 9, a license for call letters KN8RLE was approved for his 11-year-old son, Daniel Fenner Shields, a sixth grade pupil in Plymouth Elementary school.

The licenses issued upon successful completion of an examination in Morse International code and in theory of radio transmission. Within 12 months, the holder of a novice license must execute — and pass — a second examination or default his novice ticket.

UP TO NOW, THE Shieldses communicate by CW — radio jargon for code transmission and reception. When they've received a message from another amateur, who's required by law to transmit and receive within a wavelength band set aside by the FCC, they verify it by completing a colorful card which is the hallmark of hams the world over.

The "shack" — and hams refer to their small sending and receiving stations a "shacks" whether they're palaces or hovels — is in a corner of the basement. The wall is beginning to be covered with cards. Acknowledgement of receipt of transmission has been received from stations KNOVNA and KNOWTT, both somewhere in Missouri, the greatest range to which the Shields' signal has so far reached.

To pass the novice examination and qualify for that license, Em and Dan Shields had to prove they could send Morse International at the rate of five words a minute. For the general license almost a year from now, they'll have to show they can send and receive at 13 words a minute.

So during the forthcoming winter months, when transmission and reception is better than during summer months, the Shieldses will be sending their signal — and their messages — across the Great Plains from the Appalachians to the Rockies and speeding up their "reading". (That's another special term of "hams", if you can "read" it means you can send and receive Morse International code.)

YOUNG DAN SHIELDS finds his hobby to be rewarding at school. "It sure helps in geography — when we talk about Missouri, I know more about it because I just talked to Missouri."

The Shieldses bring to five the number of licensed hams in Plymouth. The others are, alphabetically, D. Guy Cunningham, Jr., Thomas DeWitt and Donald E. Fetters, each of whom has a general license and transmits and receives by voice in clear.

INEDIBLE HAMS and proud of it, Emerson and Daniel Shields were all but surprised by the cameraman Tuesday night as they talked over (in Em's grasp) their novice licenses and (in Dan's) colorful cards of acknowledgement of receipt of transmission from other hams.

Group still seeking Willard schooling

Defeat of school board candidates who plumped for annexation to Willard school system hasn't eliminated sentiment for such action in Huron Valley school district.

Huron Valley Better Schools committee, headed by Maurice Thomas, Richmond township, met in Greenfield Elementary school at Steuben Monday night to examine how the move can be effected.

Special committees are seeking data from executive heads of school systems in Plymouth, New Washington, Attica, South Central and Monroeville to develop answers to these questions:

1. Is there room for 135 pupils in grades nine through 12, whether on tuition basis or by annexation?
2. How many vacant rooms exist now?
3. Is the school class A or

AA?
4. What's the present curriculum?

5. What's the condition of buildings, when were they built, what's under construction?

6. What're building needs during next five years?

Committees named to obtain these data are the John Shercks and the Leon Steins, Greenfield township; the Claude Bauers and the Melvin in Holes, New Haven township; the Frank Buurmas and the Maurice Thomases, Richmond township; the Anco Buurmas, Celeryville.

Willard school district tax rate is 22.3 mills, the Huron county auditor told the committee. Tax rate in Huron Valley district is 21.3 mills.

Huron county personal tax delinquents will be advertised once weekly for two successive weeks today and next week, as required by law, reports Auditor Bernard F. Keen.

The auditor was required to certify liens on the county recorder's lien records. All payments are made these items will be removed.

While payments are being credited on 1959 personal tax duplicate, the mechanism of starting the 1960 filing is being set in motion by Kenneth W. Reed, personal tax supervisor, in the auditor's office. First step will be the preparation of farm inventory forms for mailing.

The conclusion set forth in the ultimate sentence made it even more so.

In the gathering dusk of late autumn the capital's street lights come on early. The starlings wheel in the sky, and the Washington monument, viewed from the press building window, is softly lit with floodlighting.

As one regards this gentle city of parks and marble buildings, of White House and Congress and Pentagon and State Department and Central Intelligence Agency and all the rest, the thought comes: Is this brief span of world leadership which Washington has fortuitously exercised since World War II soon to be snuffed out, as an alien materialistic system displays its larger sense of direction and, thought muted slightly in the process, begins to command, or demand, the allegiance of the vast majority of mankind?

Will this happen as the Soviet Union, its economic growth rate twice that of the United States, perhaps catches up with, surpassing, the free world leader? And will this be calamitous, not because pride has been affronted but because the goals of individual dignity and individual advancement have been darkly overcast?

There are those here today who forecast the decline and fall of what might be called the American dream, the dream which is far brighter than chromium and wider-horizoned than a television screen. There are many others who believe that the United States, and its partners in the West, will alert themselves in time, will establish a driving purpose, will make the necessary readjustments to hold the coexistence lead against the Soviet chairman who forecasts: "We will bury you."

What are the portents today? Certainly it is hopeful to discover—20 years ahead of the supposed Soviet triumph—the voices already raised in warning, in plans and proposals. The presidential candidates for 1960 are beginning to discuss the shoals ahead. Economists and other professional thinkers, hired by the great foundations to make their scholarly studies, are talking out. Members of Congress, the majority of them Democrats but some Republicans and no radicals, are speaking up.

Read the newspapers — carefully — and the signals are visible. Senator Kenneth B. Keating (R) of New York declares the economic struggle with Moscow may be "the greatest challenge of our history." The National Industrial Conference board's economists warn that the American desire for leisure may be supplanting the country's economic growth rate — that perhaps we should put a higher priority upon output than upon obtaining more leisure hours. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States suggests that government make available to business the industrial and trade "intelligence" which would enable it better to cope with the Soviet competition.

What is the central need for the United States? Surely, first of all it is for the people — public opinion — to be aware of the challenge, what it means, what it can portend unless vigorously handled. Then there is need for action — on the part of government, business, labor, the arbiters of opinion, the schools of learning — every sinew of American strength to do what is necessary to meet the challenge.

A superb essay of the whole problem, soon to be issued, comments that without a long-range sense of destiny the people can become the victims of their own affluence. But the society which exerts the greatest control over its rate of progress and its response to problems will win out in the long pull.

Can the United States control its destiny? It is unlikely to submit to a totally planned economy. But certain economies are being advocated from many quarters, and we shall hear more of them as the months roll by. These include: "Forced draft" government assistance to basic industries, to enable them to expand and produce without strikes and without dislocations.

Bigger aid to education, the factor with the longest lead time, which trains the leadership of tomorrow.

More government-financed research and more attention to research generally, and a larger graduation of trained engineers and scientists, based on awareness that the Soviets are relying on proficiency here, above all, in their bid for world leadership. And no downturn in foreign aid projects (though more long-range programming) and no downturn in defense (unless Mr. Khrushchev agrees to arms control and inspection, signing on the dotted line).

We can begin to see the first indications that concern is striking home — a realization that this Soviet challenge is not something dreamed up, by the pundits and the professors, but is formidable and visible. It will be no simple task to swerve the ponderous rudder of national purpose — there is vast work yet to be done — but the signs of an arousing are faintly visible.

Sir:
Taking sides in a controversy of public affairs in a small village, one can feel sure he will lose some friends. I learned this many years ago when we had the battle against using the quarry for the village water supply. William Fetters should be given great credit for showing the futility of this water source.

Suzie sez

Pop makes me watch the idiot box when programs he likes are on.

This is especially true Sunday afternoons. One of the mis called "College Bowl". I think it's because he likes to show me that he can answer those questions faster than the college students.

Well, I watched Army against Navy Sunday. Navy beat Army about as bad as they did at football the day before. I didn't think this was such a good program. When I told Pop this, he turned to me and said, "Which is exactly what I hoped you would say, young lady."

Since I had put my foot in it, I had to listen. He said that small colleges are proving they can do a better job than a big university. Swarthmore is the champion now and it got there by beating Holy Cross, Southern Methodist and some big ones. Next week it plays Missouri. Pop says he will bet that Swarthmore whips them. I thought all this was sour grapes on Pop's part because he didn't get to go either Army or Navy.

Then Pop showed me a piece in the Saturday Evening Post by an admiral who built the first atomic submarine, who Pop says is a very smart man. I didn't read all of what he wrote but I read enough to see that the admiral agrees with Pop about small colleges.

Gosh, can it be that Pop is right? Just when I was making him believe egg whites may be good for some but they aren't good for me!

I SAW IN A PAPER I READ every week that customers of some grocery stores were mad because the owner didn't take cranberries off the shelves after it was said they cause cancer.

And the editor of that paper asks if the same people hollered when it was said that cigarettes cause cancer. Did they get mad at the owner because he didn't take cigarettes off the shelf?

This editor is pretty smart on most things but he is off base on this because he doesn't realize that cigarettes, like leaving your clothes in a pile on the floor instead of hanging them up, are habit-forming.

Out of it all came the pure and ample water supply from the two drilled wells. A third well is now in reserve. Now we have another "has-sle" over a new building for our fire apparatus, which should include space for our college bowl, clerk's office, mayor's office, jail, and council rooms.

The council wants to purchase a building 44 years old, with sloping floor and windows too high for commercial use. Also a new front will be required. With a fire house built at the side, what will we have but another make-shift?

I hear that the Hubach property can be purchased at a very reasonable sum, with the house removed. On one side of this property, which has a roughly some 40-foot frontage, is our decrepit old jail built in 1868. On the other side is our ill-suited and cramped city building of cheap construction.

With these combined fringes, what a fine municipal building we could have, housing fire department city offices, jail and council rooms.

It looks to me that with the height of the alley in the rear, it would need only a slight ramp to reach the second floor and have rooms for our service vehicles, everything under one roof and fireproof.

Air-conditioning today of offices and public meeting rooms is essential. Will we hang unsightly air-conditioners out the windows, or have built-in ventilation and heating combined?

Wouldn't a new building with modern aluminum sash, in the best location in the village, be a far greater credit, and something that we could look to with pride, rather than another make-shift?

Let's have no more details on the square feet available. For once, let's do things right.

Yours sincerely,
P. H. Root

(Ed. Note: Linear measurements of in-lot 31, taken from the Huron county tax plat, follow:

Jail site: 28 ft. frontage x 30 ft. depth.

Village hall site: 22 ft. frontage x 28 ft. depth.

Hubach property: 36 ft. frontage x irregular 135 ft. depth.

Sum total of square footage of three sites, "as is", is 5,102 square feet.)

Red sinks Sailors in fourth quarter

Plymouth's Big Red opened its 1959-60 cage season with a 77 to 64 victory over Savannah here Tuesday night, but had to come from behind to do it.

Backing two points of a 27 to 27 tie at half time, the Big Red pounded 25 points through the nets in the third quarter and 27 in the final eight minutes to outdistance the Sailors.

The winners could have won by a bigger score. The tall, rugged Sailors fouled heavily but Plymouth could not convert sufficiently from the penalty line. While bagging 21 free throws, the Red missed 18.

Coach Harold Daup inserted eight players into the lineup in this first outing. Two of them, the veteran Steve Patterson, playing in a forecourt spot, and Craig Harnly banged in 19 points apiece.

But Doug Cameron, Sailor forward, was high for the night with 21.

Plymouth outscored Savannah from the floor by one bucket, 28 to 27. The Sailors bagged 10 of 22 tries at the free throw line.

Plymouth's reserves started off on the wrong foot, dropping a one-point decision, 36 to 35.

Shelby 'browns' Willard, 58 to 49; Ontario wins

Shelby whipped Willard, 58 to 46, as John Brown, formerly of Plymouth, netted 21 points for the Whippets. Jim Langhurst, Willard junior, was the only Crimson Flash player in double figures. He scored 19.

Ontario had an uphill fight of it to down North Robinson, 60 to 53. Rickey Rupp is apparently the Warriors' big gun this season. Jack Gage, formerly of Plymouth, hasn't hit his 1958-59 stride.

Nevertheless, the doughty Gage scored 15.

Butler won its first game of the season, at Mt. Vernon, by downing the St. Vincent's parochial high school club, 51 to 47. Al Morton dumped in 24 for the Bulldogs, the only player in double figures.

Club seeks to boost interest with gimmick

Beset by poor attendance and lack of enthusiasm, Community club has adopted a new format for its monthly meetings, Dr. Pierre E. Haver, its new president, announces.

First program in the new format was presented Tuesday night, when Glen Morris, chief of the Tiffin office of the Soil Conservation service, discussed the Celeryville Conservation district's plans to install a flood control and irrigation system, with 75-acre lake, in Base Line road west of here.

"We are essentially a service club with the object of making our town a better place in which to live," Dr. Haver said. "This is why we sponsor the Boy Scout and Cub Scout movement here. How better can we help our town to go forward than to furnish a forum in which its problems can be discussed in friendly fashion by people who know what they're talking about?"

January meeting will be a debate between a proponent of the Ramsey theatre site for a firehouse and one who believes the Hubach site should be chosen. Supt. Maynard J. Coon has agreed to be moderator of the debate, whose principals will be announced later.

"We believe," Dr. Haver said, "that these discussions will develop greater interest in our program and therefore produce stronger attendance at our meetings."

GOLD

NEW BORON® WITH ICE-GARD® STOPS FUEL LINE FREEZE-UP BEFORE IT STOPS YOU

Fuel line freeze-up could happen to you! And if it does, you're stopped cold! You're stuck until the tow truck comes!

A SOHIO EXCLUSIVE! New Boron with Ice-gard ice-proofs your fuel automatically! No other gasoline sold in Ohio gives you this protection! You don't need special canned anti-icers whatever the weather. You get protection with the very first tankful, and each additional tankful keeps that protection going strong. Best of all, there's no extra cost!

HERE'S THE BIG DIFFERENCE! Other gasolines are now offering protection against a different driving problem—carburetor icing. For several years, Sohio gasolines have protected against this problem. But Boron with Ice-gard is the only gasoline in Ohio that protects against both carburetor icing and the real winter problem—fuel line freeze-up!

How Boron with Ice-gard stops fuel line freeze-up! In winter, water condensed from air in your gas tank can settle in low points in your fuel line and freeze solid. Fuel can't flow through. But Boron with Ice-gard lowers the freezing point of water. Ice can't form. Fuel flows freely.

Dear Mom,

Did you get the sweater OK? I mailed it last Tuesday.

Blenna Sue is out to play and Jimmy has been diapered and bottled and I've got time to sit down and write you this note. We are all five here. Speaking of time, I've got so much more of it since we moved into our all-electric home. I can really notice a big difference. I seem to be able to keep ahead of the laundry and cooking. Even have time to read to Blenna Sue and get all of us cleaned up before Blenna gets home.

It just seems like I can be more of a wife and mother - and not just a household servant. Must be a lot better now than when you were my age. We just love our electric heat. It's so wonderful, hot with it. Last winter was colder than usual, but the low cost has surprised us! We plan to drive over and see you next Sunday - not this coming Sunday, but the one after.

ORDINANCE NO. 21-59
 AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS OF THE VILLAGE OF PLYMOUTH, OHIO, FOR THE PURPOSE OF ACQUIRING LAND AND THE EXISTING BUILDING, REMODELING SAID BUILDING, CONSTRUCTING A FIRE-PROOF ADDITION THEREON, AND MAKING SITE IMPROVEMENTS, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.
 WHEREAS, the Clerk as fiscal officer of this Village, has heretofore certified the estimated life of the improvement and maximum maturity of the bonds proposed to be issued, which estimated life is at least five (5) years and which maximum maturity may not exceed twenty (20) years;
 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the Village of Plymouth, State of Ohio:

Section 1. That it is necessary to issue the bonds of the Village of Plymouth in the principal amount of $39,000 for the purpose of acquiring land and the existing building thereon for use as a Municipal Building, remodeling said building, constructing a fire-proof addition thereto, and making site improvements; and that such bonds shall be issued in one lot, and notes shall not be issued in anticipation thereof.

Section 2. That said bonds shall be in the denomination of $1,000 each, numbered from 1 to 39, both inclusive, shall be dated the first day of November, 1959, shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum (4%) per annum, payable June 1, 1960 and semi-annually thereafter on the first day of June and the first day of December of each year until the principal sum is paid; provided, however, that if said bonds are sold bearing a different rate of interest than hereinbefore specified, such bonds shall bear such rate of interest as may be provided for in the resolution of Council approving the award thereof.

Section 3. Said bonds shall mature as follows: $4,000 on December 1st of the years from 1961 to 1970, inclusive, except that $3,000 shall mature on December 1, 1961, which maturities are hereby determined to be substantially equal annual installments.

Section 4. Said bonds shall be executed by the Mayor and Clerk and shall bear the corporate seal of the Village. The interest coupons attached to said bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of the Clerk printed or lithographed thereon. They shall be designated "Municipal Building Bonds" and shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the legal depository of the Village, presently The Peoples National Bank of Plymouth, Plymouth, Ohio.

Section 5. That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of bonds, promptly when and to the same full due and also provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said serial bonds at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in said Village of Plymouth, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period said bonds are to run in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said bonds as when the same falls due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said bonds at maturity, which tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11 of Article XII of the Constitution.

Section 6. Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, levied and extended upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officer, in the same manner and at the same time that taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in preference to all other items and collected by the same officer. The funds derived from said tax levies hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund, which, together with all interest collected on the same, shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds when and as the same fall due.

Section 7. Said bonds shall be first offered at par and accrued interest to the offer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund in his official capacity, and if said officer refuses to take any or all of said bonds, then said bonds not so taken shall be advertised for public sale and sold in the manner provided by law. The proceeds from the sale of said bonds, except the premium, accrued interest thereon and capitalized interest shall be used for the purpose aforesaid and for no other purpose and to be allocated to the purpose herein described. The premium, accrued interest and capitalized interest received from such sale shall be transferred to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied to the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds in the manner provided by law.

Section 8. It is hereby determined that all acts, conditions and things necessary to be done precedent to and in the issuing of these bonds in order to make them legal, valid and binding obligations of the Village have been done, happened and performed in regular and due form as required by law; that the faith, credit and revenue of said Village are hereby irrevocably pledged for the prompt payment of the principal and interest thereon at maturity; and that no limitation of indebtedness or taxation, either statutory or constitutional, has been exceeded in issuing these bonds.

Section 9. The Clerk is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor of Richland County.

Section 10. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, safety and welfare of said Village and its inhabitants, and for the further reason that immediate acquisition of the property to be financed by the issuance of these bonds is urgently required to afford necessary facilities for the proper conduct of the affairs of the Village and the inhabitants thereof; wherefore, this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and immediately after its passage. Rutherford B. Hayes, born at Delaware, Ohio, entered the Union forces as a Major of Volunteers in the Civil War and ended the war as a Major General. He later went on to succeed General Grant as President of the United States.

Among the battles where General Hayes had a prominent part are the battles of South Mountain, Fisher's Hill, Cedar Creek, Cloyd's Mountain, the raid on Lynchburg and others. For "gallant and meritorious service in the battles of Winchester, Fisher's Hill and Cedar Creek," he was promoted from Colonel to the rank of Brigadier General. During the Civil War, General Hayes was wounded four times and had several horses shot under him in battle.
