

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Waines

Waineses wed 60 years ago

When you've spent 70 percent of your life married to one woman, you've acquired some status as an expert on marriage.

That's just what Mose Waines is this week — an expert on marriage, to one woman, the girl he took as his bride in St. Botolph's church, Boston, Lincolnshire, England, Aug. 21, 1900.

She was a mere slip of a girl of 24 and he a year older. The church awed them. In it they had been baptised, confirmed and now married. To fit their thoughts and memories were ever to turn. And those thoughts were the stronger because they married in the same ceremony as her sister and his brother, the Henry Waineses, Toronto, Canada.

They went to the overseas dominions of the great monarch who was then in the twilight of her reign. By the time they reached Canada, Victoria had died, and Edward VII sat upon the throne.

After a year, the Waineses came to Ohio. They lived in Shelby after 1907, where he was employed by what is now Shelby Seamless Tube division of Copperweld Co.

Eight children were born to them. Seven remain. They include Mrs. Judson A. Morrison, near whom the Waineses live; Mrs. Robert Stock and Mrs. Zeno Hursh, Shelby; Mrs. Harold Wilkinson, Mansfield; Mrs. Ralph Ebersole, Spokane, Wash.; Jack Waines, also of Spokane, and Mose Waines, Jr., Brunswick.

Mrs. William Bittinger

Mrs. Bittinger to mark 100

Grandma Bittinger will be 100 years old Friday, Aug. 26. But she'll celebrate on Sunday.

In the boom of her family, she will dine on white cake and ice cream, garden produce she has grown herself, and the simple but sustaining fare she has adhered to for almost a century.

Born Eliza James, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas James, near Crestline in Crawford county on Aug. 26, 1860, she came to her present home in Route 61 north of the village 79 years ago, when she married the late William Bittinger. He died in March, 1937, after they'd been married 79 years.

Mrs. Bittinger's three daughters, Mrs. Mabel Mathews, with whom she lives; Mrs. George Sicket, wife of a Swarthmore, Pa., pathologist, and Mrs. Leslie Megargee, San Diego, Cal., will be present.

Her grandson, Gilbert Mathews, farms the home place of 156 acres abutting the Huron river.

Mrs. Bittinger is the oldest member of First Evangelical Lutheran church.

Her family established something of a record for longevity. Two sisters lived to more than 90. Her parents to 78 and 88.

Mrs. Bittinger starts on the second hundred years with the same formula that's sustained her thus far: "early to bed and early to rise."

School board holds to present status on religious training

Status quo on religious instruction in elementary schools will be retained, Plymouth Board of Education ruled Aug. 10.

Instituted a number of years ago by the Northern Richland County Council of Christian Education, the instruction has been given to pupils unless their parents spoke against it. Classes convene during school hours in the all-purpose rooms.

Spokesman for the Council, the Rev. Robert F. Hall, pastor of Plymouth First Evangelical Lutheran church, appeared before the board to offer an alternate plan.

Alluding to an opinion given to the Black River School district, Medina county, by Attorney General Mark McElroy, saying religion taught during the school day in the public schools is not constitutional. Hall said, "We know the handwriting is on the wall, that is why we are offering this plan."

The plan is to excuse children from the school in Plymouth and take them to classes in the churches, and return them to the school so they may have bus transportation to go home.

It was agreed the Rev. Mr. Hall will put his request in written form to Supt. M. J. Coon, who will ascertain if the superintendent of school administration and the state office of education will endorse Schools to open Sept. 6 - all day!

Public schools will open for the 1960-61 term at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 6. Supt. M. J. Coon announced this week.

Classes will convene for a first session that day. Cafeteria lunches at the same rates as last year will be served at the regular hours.

All first graders must submit birth certificates and evidence of successful immunization against poliomyelitis, diphtheria, tetanus, smallpox and whooping cough.

Buses will follow the same routes as last year. Pupils who ride buses should be ready 15 minutes ahead of schedule on the first day.

No sessions will convene on Oct. 28 (NEOTA meeting), Nov. 24 and 25 (Thanksgiving), Dec. 22 through Jan. 2 (Christmas recess), Mar. 31 (Good Friday) and Apr. 7, 1961 (county teachers meeting).

Eight spans set for Rt. 162 here

Eight bridges in Route 162 between the Seneca county line and US 250 will be replaced before June 30, 1961, at a cost of $220,000, Everett Preston, director of highways, reported.

A bridge in Route 250 near Norwalk costing $34,000, will also be installed.

The bridges are part of a $2.106 million program to replace bridges in Northwestern Ohio.

Spectacular fire levels sawmill; cause remains undetermined

A spectacular fire that occupied firemen for nearly seven hours destroyed K & K Lumber Co. sawmill in Route 98 Friday.

Discovered by Roger Ross, who lives nearby, the fire had good headway when firemen arrived. Ross turned in the alarm from the George Roberts residence immediately north of the sawmill.

Liquid fuel stored in small tanks was ignited, some of it intentionally, and the blaze thus enhanced. Patrolman Fred Lewis shot holes in some of the tanks with his service revolver.

Trucks and a tractor belonging to the owners, Virgil and Robert Kaple of New Washington, were removed from the fire with little or no damage. But equipment of the sawmill and the shed which housed it went up in huge pillars of smoke and flame visible as far as Shelby.

Local unit of Ohio Civil Defense corps, which had its equipment on display at the Richland county fair, was summoned. It arrived at high speed and threw its pumper and reserve tank into the fight. The fire spread to an adjoining refuse and sawdust pile but was promptly brought under control there.

A water line was laid from the Vandevort property in Route 61 through the creek bottom and along Route 98 to assist in extinguishing the blaze. Firemen estimated some 2,000 feet of hose has been laid. They were occupied until 2 a.m. cleaning up the pumper and rolling hose.

There was no insurance on either the building or its contents.

Proprietors said they had recently installed $4,000 in new equipment in the sawmill, which hires five persons.

Cause of the fire, Chief Judson A. Morrison said Monday, will remain "undetermined, as the height of the heat and flame by the time we got there prevented us from making an examination that would lead to determining the cause of the fire."

Ross estate $17,500

Estate of the late Mrs. Russell R. Ross apparently is worth about $17,500, bond of double that amount having been exacted by Huron county probate court of Raymond Knoll, administrator.

Roy W. Carter has been appointed administrator with the will annexed in the estate of his father, Floyd B. Carter. Bond of $19,000 was required.

38 TURN OUT

Thirty-eight candidates got practice uniforms Tuesday night as Coach Lev Pettit set down rules for his 1960 Big Red football squad.

S. H. Wagner dies

Sylvester H. Wagner, 85, who lived at Spring and Porter streets, died Thursday in Willard Municipal hospital.

A native of New Riegel, near Tiffin, he lived most of his life here. He was a retired Fate-Root-Heath Co. employee.

His wife, Nina; two stepsons, Harold Burdge, Houston, Tex., and Cloyce Burdge, Plymouth; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Ray Black, New Haven; two sisters, Mrs. Agnes Switzer, Cleveland, and Mrs. Ross Freese, Tiffin, and a brother, Jacob, Tiffin, survive.

Last rites were conducted Saturday at 2 p.m. from Secor Funeral home, Willard. Interment was in Maple Grove cemetery, New Haven.

By THE OLD TIMER

It may not be so easy for Plymouth's Big Red to produce the record of wins chalked up last season.

Coach Lew Petit's crew won five and dropped four in 1959, not a bad season by and large. It was obviously outmanned against Vermilion in a 42 to 13 defeat. The Sailors don't have Cliff Bartome this year, but they'll be tough. Berlin Heights had too much for the Red. No matter his material, Spec Sanders always has a formidable entry from that Erie county stronghold. Black River's Pirates are mostly juniors this year and ought to do well. Lodi, Westfield and Seville are no longer on the Big Red schedule. Western Reserve should be so-so and Butler figures to be as strong as last year.

Bellville is moaning the blues because nine of its seniors are gone. But Henry Schroth doesn't win coach-of-the-year honors off peanuts and Bellville will not be easy. It enjoys the advantage of playing at home.

Of Mohawk little is known right now. It's a consolidation of McCutchenville and Sycamore and hasn't a long history of gridiron competition.

THE FOOTBALL PROGRAM in PHS should be coming of age about now and there ought to be a greater consistency in performance. When a junior high program is a year old, the record should improve.

Certainly, when enrollment increases and size of squad is enlarged proportionately, it means the slackers will have to quit slacking or start deplinting their blubber. Because they'll be riding the bench. The coach'll always have some other body he can toss in there.

Time was, and it wasn't so long ago, when the coach's hands were tied; he played what he had, and took their lip, and had to like it.

Then days, we are happy to say, seem to be gone forever. If the coaching staff of any school can steer clear of those lippers, who by reason of the fact that when material was thin they got to play because they had to, half the battle is won.

Petit to coach track

Guy Flora will coach cross country only, school authorities reported this week. Lewis J. Petit will continue as track coach.

Helen Heitsche and Marsha Williams are SATT operators at Norwalk. On all calls dialed directly from Plymouth, a SATT operator asks caller's number after he has dialed the complete number he is calling.

Bowmen to stage August outing here

Registration for competitors in Huron Valley Bowmen's annual August outing will be from 7 until 9 a.m. Sunday.

Shooting will start at 9:30 a.m. Drawing for the camp trailer and for other door prizes will be conducted during the day. Spectators are invited to attend.

Registrations will be executed by Roger Miller, Francis Dorion, Mrs. Robert Kennedy, and Mrs. Paul Kale.

Art Kale is in charge of the lunch to be served at noon.

Ox roast to begin Saturday night

Volunteer firemen and Legion members tonight will erect the tent in Jacobs' grove in preparation for the 12th annual ox roast.

After 600 pounds of beef are put into the pits Saturday night, the meat will be taken out and served Sunday noon.

During the afternoon, guests will be entertained by Baker's orchestra, which features Marty as vocalist.

Firebelles headed by Mrs. Francis Guthrie will again have a tent with sandwiches, soft drinks and favors for children. It will also be the debut of the pert blue pin-stripe uniforms which auxiliary members have recently purchased.

Proceeds of the affair will be divided between the Ehret-Parsel American Legion post and the Plymouth Volunteer Fire department.

Lesho appointed to raise $35,000

Planning commission which met Thursday night with PML board of directors to discuss the proposed ball field in Mary Fate park also made plans to install a swimming pool in the park.

Mayor William Fazio appointed George Lesho in charge of the fund-raising project for it. An estimated $35,000 will be needed for a 35 x 75 feet pool. During the ball field discussion, it was pointed out that if large machinery is brought in to grade a field, it could be used to dig the pool at the same time, thus saving costs. The exact location of the pool was not determined. There was a suggestion that it be put in the center of the park and also to one side, on land which belongs to Luther B. Fetters, if he is willing to sell.

PML, families to picnic in park Sept. 1

Plymouth's Midget league, Pony league and the farm team will end their season with a family picnic at Mary Fate park Sept. 1 at 6 p.m.

Each family is asked to bring a covered dish and its own table service. Weiners, pop and baked beans will be furnished.

James C. Davis and M. E. Mellott will be in charge of games. Graduating players from the PML will receive their miniature baseballs.

During the board of directors meeting Thursday night, it was agreed to buy 10 uniforms for each of the four Midget league teams. At a cost of $10 each, they will be worn by the players for three years. Businessmen wishing to sponsor a team and provide the uniforms are asked to call George Lesho. In a short, friendly "grievance" session, team managers agreed that next season they will "stick to the book" and not allow any Midget league players to play on the Pony league team. This season a player from each of the four teams played with the older group.

The proposed baseball field, which will probably be located in Mary Fate park subject to approval by the Park board, was discussed. James Phillips was asked to arrange with a company which has earth moving equipment to borrow that necessary for grading the field.

Treasurer J. Ben Smith's report showed that the cotton candy machine donated by Gerald Claywood, who also furnished the sugar during the Sidewalk sale, made a profit of $111.76. It was agreed that a small, appropriate gift be given to him. Bake sale held the same weekend brought in $71.50, and the motion picture ticket sale donated by the Plymouth Drive-In theatre made $239.50.

3 3/4% INTEREST ON NEW U.S. SAVINGS BONDS NOW IN EFFECT

Congress makes the Bonds you buy and Bonds you already own better than ever!

Now U.S. Savings Bonds are a better buy than ever in three important ways:

- All Series E and H Bonds bought since June 1, 1959 now earn 3 3/4% interest when held to maturity.
- Older Bonds will also pay more—an extra 1/2%, from June 1 on, if you hold them to maturity.
- All Series E Bonds, old or new, now carry an automatic extension privilege; they'll keep paying liberal interest for 10 years beyond maturity.

Three big new dollar benefits that make it smart to buy new Bonds—and hang on to the ones you have!

40 million Americans now own Bonds!

But a good return isn't the only reason so many people buy Bonds. They've discovered that there's no easier, safer, more American way to save.

You can buy Bonds automatically, through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work; you can buy them where you bank; your youngsters can even buy them at school, through the School Savings Plan for U.S. Savings Stamps.

The U.S. Government guarantees that the cash value of your Bonds cannot drop; it can only grow. And if your Bonds should be lost, stolen, or destroyed, the Treasury will replace them free.

Finally, every Bond you buy does a big job for America. Because today peace costs money—money for military strength and for science; and money saved by individuals to keep our economy sound.

Your Bonds help provide this money—help America keep the peace. So, to build a brighter future for yourself and your family—and to protect it—save with U.S. Savings Bonds. They're better than ever.

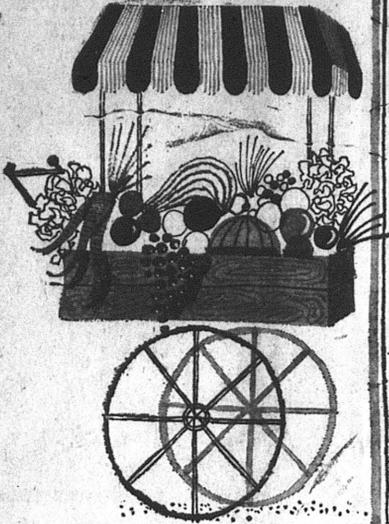

YOUR MONEY GROWS 3 3/4% IN JUST 7 YEARS AND 9 MONTHS WITH NEW SERIES E BONDS!

A good plan will work!

The figures prepared by the village's fiscal consultants demonstrate nothing so clearly as that a sewer system, or anything else of a similar nature, is expensive. And it becomes more so the longer it's put off.

We take it that it's pretty well established by now there's no question but that a sewer system is necessary. But is it feasible financially?

Not with the program submitted by the fiscal consultants.

But we submit an alternative financing plan, which we've worked out by consulting some experts in the matter and applying our own common sense, is sound, within the reach of everybody, and would work.

Its cost: $72.70 per family per annum for 25 years.

Probable sewer rate: $4 per family a month.

This is four times what we're paying now.

For those who're interested in the details (and we doubt there are more than a handful), here they are:

$150,000 in general obligation bonds.

$90,000 federal grant.

$200,000 in mortgage revenue bonds.

$158,000 in special assessment bonds

$598,000 raised by financing.

$3,000 balance in sewer service fund

$636,000 cost of project.

Cost of settlement of general obligation bonds per family per year for 25 years is ($2.24 per $1,000 valuation x $5,000 average valuation, exactly $11.20, rounded off to) $12.

Cost of settlement of $200,000 in mortgage revenue bonds at 5.5 per cent interest is $17.15 per family per year for 25 years.

Cost of settlement of $158,000 in special assessment bonds is $20 per family per year for 25 years (albeit bonds themselves must be paid in 10 years.)

Cost of connecting with laterals is $10 per family per year for 25 years.

This plan is, we think, worthy of study by the village council. There are some of us who realize we've played footsie with this problem long enough. Some sound planning, for which the village hasn't been particularly distinguished in the past, and some vigorous salesmanship will convince almost everybody that now is the time!

The Leo Kendigs returned from a vacation on Crystal Lake, Mich., with the Don Bell family, Willard. Saturday the Kendigs took their son, Richard Bookwalter, to Peoria, Ill., where he will enter Bradley university to study engineering.

Marriage license has been applied for by Thomas Alva Laser, son of the Alva Lasers, and Sara Mae Seaman, child of the Elmer Seaman family. Miss Gertie Lettmer, Noble road, was found in her home Aug. 9 after a heart attack. She was taken to Willard Municipal hospital and later to the home of her sister, Mrs. Chester Van Scoy, where she is confined to her room.

Mrs. Gladys N. Crall, Rome-Greenwich road, was found at her home last week stricken with apoplexy. She was taken to Mansfield General hospital and later to a Columbus hospital for the removal of a blood clot.

A daughter was born Saturday in Willard Municipal hospital to the Kent Knauses. Mrs. Knaus, the former Nancy Barbour, has been nurse for Dr. C. O. Butler. Mrs. Frank Ferrell, Sherandoah, is filling the post with Dr. Butler now.

Mrs. Walter Chatfield was in Cleveland last week as general chairman of the annual convention of the United Federation of Doll Clubs, Inc. The Lake Erie club, of which she is immediate past president, was host club. Over 1,000 dolls got display room.

A doll buggy used by Miss May Page is now in Stirling, Linder, Davis & Co. windows.

Mrs. C. O. Bauer was in the "A" buggy which belonged to exhibit room filled with small dolls of that period. Mrs. Chatfield had 60 dolls on display and showed some in a TV interview on WEWS Saturday. Nola Ramey, formerly of this place, has dropped her action of divorce against her husband, Fred, in Huron county common pleas court.

Suzie sez

Pop and Mom are about to quit going anywhere.

Every time they go some place, either for business or pleasure, some calamity happens.

Friday night they went away to a newspaper meeting. The big fire burned the sawmill. They weren't around to take pictures or cover the fire.

Three years ago they were at Columbus to another news meeting and there was a bad accident that killed some boys. Two years ago the same thing happened.

Pop says he supposes that's how it went meant to be in the weekly newspaper business — the best story always happens when the press is going.

He wishes deaths and fires and big fires burned the sawmill. They weren't around to take pictures or cover the fire.

I asked him why there should even be deaths and fires and such. Wouldn't he rather print nice stories like wedding and births and other people finding hundred dollar bills?

He says he would, but his job is not to make the news, only to print it. And he says people want to read bad news just as much as they want to read good news. (Editor: Not quite so, child, but they need to know bad news just as much as they need to know good news.)

THIS IS THE SEASON FOR hay fever and sunac poisoning. If you have ragweed or sunac growing in your yard, you should pull it out. And be careful how you get rid of it. The smoke of burning sunac will infect some people. Sunac poisoning is like poison ivy only worse. You swell up and itch like the dickens.

I certainly feel sorry for anybody who gets it, or has hay fever. It's simply awful!

Mrs. Whitney tells ULCW of visit to Middle East

United Lutheran Church women and their guests heard Mrs. Eleanor Searle Whitney speak of her visit to the Holy Land in an illustrated talk Aug. 10 in First Evangelical Lutheran church.

The Bible, the wall where Paul was lowered out of the city, and the spot on the road where he fell while traveling toward the city.

She briefly touched on her travels through Africa, citing Ethiopia, which is a Coptic country, where she spent several days and Egypt, where she saw a meeting of 10,000 persons who stood to hear Billy Graham.

Mrs. Whitney vividly described her visit to the caves along the Dead Sea where the library of the Essenes has been found. Slides were shown of the caves, the jars in which the scrolls were hidden, and the scrolls themselves, which are being slowly translated.

Highlight of her talk was her description of Holy Week in Jerusalem and the various churches and ceremonies which she saw.

Mrs. Whitney said that from her travels and observations she feels there is a "Renaissance in the belief in Christ", and that new interest in Biblical subjects is beginning everywhere. She spoke of the Lutheran church in Bethlehem, which has a school alongside for orphans, refugees and day students. "Every dollar sent to missions is well spent," she added.

Mrs. Whitney was guest soloist in First Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday morning.

Methodists mark pastor's birthday

The Rev. Irving M. Farnsworth was honored at a surprise birthday party Tuesday night by the WSCS in the rooms of the Methodist church.

He and his family were dinner guests of the Friendship class preceding the affair.

Mrs. R. Earl McQuate spoke on behalf of the church membership and Maynard J. Coon gave the greetings from the Sunday School classes, of which he is superintendent.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Donald P. Markley, Mrs. Coon, Mrs. Daniel Henry and Mrs. Ray Aumend sang Mr. Farnsworth's favorite hymn, "I Am Thine, O Lord" during a short musical program. Leslie Henry and Janis Coon also played a piano duet.

Miss Weaver wed to Deryl L. Ream

Deryl Lamar Ream took Miss Lana Sue Weaver as his bride in a double ring ceremony in First Presbyterian church Saturday at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Moss Rutan read the vows before the church altar, decorated by baskets of white gladioli lighted by candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown designed with a fitted Dior bodice with a Sabrina neckline embroidered with tiny pearls and sequins. Long sleeves extended to points at her wrists. The full skirt extended into a chapel train. Two small lace poppins fell over the skirt. A crown of pearls and sequins held her full veil, which fell to her waist. Her wedding bouquet was an arrangement of white carnations and lilies-of-the-valley with long white streamers on a white Bible.

Her sister, Jeanne, was her only attendant, in a ballerina gown of light blue. The lace bodice had a low rounded neckline ending in short cap sleeves. The skirt flared out. A circular matching veil on a small velvet band was her headpiece. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Gary D. Levering was best man. J. Raymond Willett and Charles H. Dick ushered. Mrs. Dick played a prelude of organ music.

The bride's mother chose a beige shirtwaist satin with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy chiffon with a small white hat decorated with a band of sequins.

A reception followed in the church rooms. Sharon Dull, Karen Moore, Mrs. Willett and Mrs. Dick assisted guests at the bride's table. A four tiered cake decorated with yellow roses was served. Beverly Wenning of Shelby registered guests.

After a wedding trip through New York state and Canada, the young couple will live at 1373 Michigan avenue, Columbus. Both plan to attend Ohio State university this fall.

The new Mrs. Ream is the daughter of the Arthur Weavers. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Ream.

Grandchild of P. H. Roots becomes bride at Elmira, N. Y., church

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday afternoon by Miss Margaret Ruth Baxter and Charles Martin Streeter, Jr., in First Presbyterian church, Elmira, N. Y.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rexford Baxter of Elmira and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Root of Plymouth.

The Rev. John F. Stearns performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with bouquets of white gladioli and pompons. The Rev. Oliver B. Francisco played a prelude of nuptial music.

D. J. Grabach wed to Elyria teacher in church there

Donald J. Grabach took Miss Gale Marie Krugman as his bride in First United Presbyterian church, Elyria, Aug. 6 at 4 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of the George Krugmans, Elyria. The bridegroom is the younger son of the Daniel Grabachs, formerly of Plymouth, now of Cocoa, Fla.

White and lavender beauty baskets and palms in the chancel were lighted by candelabra as the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white Schiffli embroidered lace over bridal satin, featured by fitted bodice cut with V neckline and short sleeves. The floor-length skirt was fashioned in three tiers. She wore matching mitts. A finger-length veil of imported silk illusion lace fell from a crown of seed pearls.

Her only jewelry was a diamond and pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom.

Her flowers were white, with a lavender-tipped orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Richard Johns, the bride's cousin, was matron of honor. The Misses Cassandra McAuley and Lou Ann Blackstone, college chums of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Each was attired in white silk organza of a ballerina length with plum and lavender cummerbunds of taffeta.

A. Dean Grabach Plymouth, was his brother's best man. William Burns Wooster, and Thomas L. Meiser, Plymouth, ushered.

Mrs. Grabach, who came north from Florida for the wedding, wore blue lace set off with blue accessories.

The Misses Shirley Averbrook and Patricia Grabach were hostesses during the reception in Wesley house which followed the ceremony. A four-tiered cake topped with crystal candelabra was served to guests.

After a wedding trip into Michigan, the Grabachs will live in Elyria, where each will teach in the public school system, she in an as yet unassigned elementary post, he in the sixth grade.

had lace motifs and ended in a chapel train. Her full veil of illusion was fastened to a small Venetian lace cap. She carried a cascading crescent shaped bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids arranged with stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Carolyn Garrett, Elmira, was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Constance Streeter, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Gail Zoller of Scarsdale, N. Y., Miss Gail Bengler, Clark's Green, Pa., and Miss Susan Gage of South Braintree, Mass.

They wore pink ballerina length gowns designed with full skirts and snug round-necked bodices. Embroidered roses in a deeper shade with green sleeves were scattered over the skirts. The waistlines were held with cummerbunds of pale pink, rose, and green matching the embroidery.

Their headbands were small bands with a rose and leaves attached at the side, and they carried bouquets of tiny rosebuds with ivy.

Susan Root, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Root, and another cousin, Margaret Wheadon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weadon, Elmira, were junior bridesmaid and flower girl. They wore gowns of white organza over pink underskirts. The same pink was carried out in the small cummerbunds around their waists. They carried small bouquets of rose buds and their headpieces were bands of fresh rosebuds.

John A. Streeter was his brother's best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Paul G. Baxter; Bruce K. Miller of Pennington, N. J.; David D. Doyle, Evanston, Ill., and David A. Boyd of Newton Highlands, Mass.

Mrs. Baxter wore a pale green silk sheath with matching accessories. Her hat was made of pale pink feathers and she wore a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Root chose a light blue afternoon gown, to which she added a small hat of American Beauty and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's mother wore beige net with matching accessories and white orchids.

A reception followed in the Elmira Country club.

After a wedding trip to Virginia, the young couple will live in Ithaca, N. Y., where Mr. Streeter will continue his studies in Cornell university school of civil engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Streeter of Elmira and a graduate of Mount Hermon school in Massachusetts, where he is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity.

The new Mrs. Streeter is a graduate of Mary A. Burnham school, Northampton, Mass., and Centenary College for Women, Hackettstown, N. J. She has recently been appointed secretary to the dean of the student body at Cornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Root and the Paul Roots of Shelby were also among the wedding guests.

"If there were only something we could do about the children's schools!"

Something? There are lots of things we all can do about our local schools! First of all, we can attend school board meetings and discuss problems with the board members we've elected. We can go to Parent-Teacher Association meetings and work directly with the teachers we've hired. And we can form other community groups to aid in solving specific situations —new bond issues for building or repairing, for example. In short, we can have the schools we want—if we're willing to work personally for them! The way to start is by writing—today—for a free booklet and other helpful information. Send your card or letter to Better Schools, 9 East 40th Street, New York 16, New York.

Loaded for trouble?

To the youngsters, a drive with the gang is great fun. But driving is serious business, too. Last year, nearly 40,000 people died in traffic accidents —many of them killed by drivers whose minds weren't wholly on their job. So stay alert every minute when you drive. Keep driving fun—and safe!

Help stop senseless killing on our highways. Drive safely yourself. Insist on strict law enforcement for your own protection. Work actively with others to support your local Safety Council. Remember—where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go down.

Ohio Fuel begins new pipe job

Ohio Fuel Gas Co. pipeline replacement projects costing more than $20,000 to improve natural gas service here began Monday.

C. V. Mesenger, Shelby local manager for Ohio Fuel, said almost 5,000 feet of new pipeline — three and six inches in diameter — will be laid to replace sections of existing Ohio Fuel lines in these locations:

 Plymouth street between the water tower and West Broadway, three sections totalling 1,700 feet of three-inch diameter pipe, $8,700;
 Sandusky street from North street to the high school, 1,600 feet of six-inch diameter pipe, $6,625;
 West High street between Bell and Plymouth streets, 1,000 feet of three-inch diameter pipe, $3,500;

Mills avenue between Railroad and Plymouth streets, 625 feet of three-inch diameter pipe, $1,300.
 Wirt & Starn, Inc., Wooster, is installing the new pipelines. Traffic will be maintained as work goes on. Completion is set for early September.

Presbyterians . . .

Regular worship service will revert to 11 a.m. Sunday in First Presbyterian church.

Ralph G. Young, dean of men, College of Wooster, will be the guest minister.

The Rev. Arthur J. Hall will conduct worship services for the next three Sundays at the First Evangelical Lutheran church while his son, the Rev. Robert F. Hall, vacations with his family at New Richmond.

The elder Mr. Hall, now retired lives in Orrville.

Nora Wyandt class . . .

Mrs. James D. Cunningham will hostess to the Nora Wyandt class, First Presbyterian church, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Devotions and Bible study will be conducted by Mrs. Adam L. Muma. Mrs. Cunningham will give the missionary section of the program, devoted to African missions.

Council votes to buy air conditioner

"Too relieve what it called "poor conditions" in the council room, village council voted Tuesday night to purchase an air conditioner.

Offer of Robby's for $257 got the council's approval.

Mayor William Fazio said he thinks installation of an air conditioner will "make the room more bearable in the hot weather and less odorous in the winter, and this will attract more citizens to attend the council meetings."

Village hall will be painted and tuck-pointed. Council will divide the cost with the Board of Public Affairs, which occupies the lower floor.

Councilman Omer G. Burkett won approval of a request to post speed limit signs in Mary Fate park, if a search of the files shows no ordinance covering that area.

Mayor Fazio asked for money to sustain the planning commission, which he said is in need of aerial photographs to support a zoning ordinance.

A long and tedious discussion after three agents presentation about insurance developed bids on specifications prepared by Mayor Fazio, himself an insurance agent. Because the bidders said they met discrepancies in the specifications the council named a committee of Donald E. Akers, Donald H. Levering and John T. Dick to study the proposals for report Sept. 6.
