

Summarizing

The citizen who visits the polls Tuesday has some important decisions to make.

We have here suggested before how the good citizen ought to vote.

To summarize, we believe that Frank J. Lauseche should be re-elected to the U. S. Senate.

Rep. Charles A. Mosher is so superior to his opponent that no voter of the 13th district should deprive him of support, regardless of politics. He has shown the qualities of a genuine statesman in his first term and should be returned to the Congress.

Rep. John M. Ashbrook's record has been conservative. In these times, the term is sometimes regarded as a bad word. It should not be so. Ashbrook's votes have not always exactly suited us, but in the main we feel his record is wholly satisfactory, superior to the previous record of his opponent, and the 17th district should accord him willing support for a second term.

Robert A. Taft, Jr., is cut from the cloth of his distinguished father and should receive broad support for congressman-at-large.

It is time for a change in the governor's chair. The incumbent speaks loudly and lengthily about progress but is patently unable to obtain it. His opponent, James A. Rhodes, has a sound record and an equally sound program. That he is of the same politics as the majority of the Assembly assures the voter that progress will be made. Vote for Rhodes.

We believe that neither candidate for lieutenant-governor is outstanding. We make no recommendation.

Roger W. Tracy served with distinction as treasurer of Ohio and we feel he would show the same abilities as auditor.

Ted Brown has no equal anywhere as secretary of state and should be reelected.

Ohio has had enough of the Fergusons in the treasurer's office, whether father or son. Vote for John D. Herbert.

William Saxbe is a personable and engaging fellow without, we think, much depth. He is making a good living as an attorney and we think the electorate ought to keep him there. Vote for Robert E. Sweeney.

That judicial candidates appear on a ballot as non-partisan when they are anything but that is the biggest joke in Ohio. In the absence of a formal endorsement by the Ohio bar as a whole, we make no recommendation for any candidate for the state or county bench. Each voter should decide for himself whether the character and conduct of the incumbent are superior to the challenger's. If so, he should vote for experience.

Locally, there are two issues.

Mary Fate park came to the village on the promise that it would be maintained.

To do so from its earnings has proved impossible. The request of the village council that one-half mill of general taxation be raised for its maintenance seems reasonable to us and we recommend its support.

Plymouth local school district seeks 3.1 mill of fresh operating funds. An elector should consider whether the schools are being managed efficiently and economically, whether such educational progress — if any — as is being made now is consonant with the money being spent on it, and particularly whether more educational progress could not be made with the funds presently supplied.

If the answer is favorable to new funds, vote for them.

Red underdogs in home finale with Warriors

"If we play like we did at Fredericktown, we're all through before we start. But I just don't think that's how it will be."

Thus Coach Richard Carpenter speaks of the Big Red's chances against Ontario in the season's home finale here tomorrow.

A BANNER CROWD IS anticipated, largely because Ontario has a strong following for its single-wing outfit that sports a 3-1-3 record in its first full season.

It will be Band Parents' night, when musicians will honor their families.

For eight seniors and one junior who won't be eligible next season by reason of age, it will be the last performance interscholastic football at Plymouth. One more game, against mighty Bellville, remains after this one.

They are Co-Capt. Jimmy Hamman and Gary Utis, Alren Arnold, Earl Hess, Bruce Wells, Walter Hall, Roger McQuown and DeWitt Cunningham, seniors, and John Echeberry, junior.

Carpenter was plainly disgusted with the performance of the Big Red at Fredericktown, which he insists is "no 36 points better than we are."

But after reflection he was willing to change it up to "just one of those things that go down better next time — we hope."

By comparative records, Plymouth ought to be favored for this one, if one assumes the Crestline contests were a veritable performance for both the Big Red and the Warriors.

But Ontario has speed and depth and rules a one touch-down favorite to win its first Johnny Appleseed conference struggle.

BELLVILLE MUST GET by Fredericktown tomorrow to lock up the title in this first season of JAC play. The Blue Jays are undefeated, albeit tied, over 22 games. Fredericktown has a 3-1-1 record in the loop, having lost to Crestline and H&O Ontario. Crestline is also 3-1-1 and is a cinch to take Butler tomorrow.

Plymouth's record of 2-2 is good for fourth place, ahead of Loudounville, Ontario and Butler.

Duke Sammons won't be available for this one, an injury having forced him to sit the rest of the season out.

Otherwise, the Red is at full strength, physically, and if its mental attitude is as good, Ontario may be in for a rough evening.

Band to honor group of seniors

Plymouth High school band members will honor their parents at pre-game ceremonies tomorrow night.

Senior members of the band who will graduate in the spring will also receive special recognition. They are Gail Aumond, Susan Smith, Dorothy Stoodt, Carolyn Dague, Janice Smith, Robert Guthrie and Sharon Dye.

Fellers boy struck

A 17-year-old Plymouth youth was treated in Mansfield General hospital Oct. 24 after he was found unconscious in Bartley avenue there, victim of a hit-and-run driver.

James W. Fettes, youngest son of the Donald E Fettes, is a student in Mansfield branch of Ohio State university. He rooms in Mansfield YMCA.

He told police he parked his car in Bartley avenue and walked to a place in front of 40 Bartley avenue, where he stepped between two parked cars and was struck by a passing vehicle. He said he only saw the headlights of the car. He was treated for forehead cuts and bruises.

Park, school levies on ballot; Fazio underdog for Assembly

Only two local issues will appear on Tuesday's general election ballot.

Plymouth Board of Education for the third time seeks fresh tax money for operating purposes.

Electors will decide for or against a new 3.1 mill operating levy for school use. A five-mill proposal has been twice defeated.

Although no detailed accounting of how the proceeds of the new levy has been spent has been issued, the Board has consistently argued it needs additional moneys for such purposes as program maintenance, improvement of instructional materials, including libraries, and raising of teacher salaries.

A SOUNDING OF RUN-of-the-mill opinions taken by The Advertiser this week showed the issue stands only a 50-50 chance of approval. General objection it took two lines: "Taxes are too high already, and we are living on fixed incomes" and "The school board hasn't done anything to pull in its horns on wasteful and unnecessary expenditures, so why should we give them any more money?"

How far this reasoning will affect balloting Tuesday remains to be seen.

Whether Mary Fate park should be supported to the extent of a half-mill levy appears on the ballot for the second time. It was narrowly defeated before Tuesday.

MAXOR WILLIAM FAZIO is a candidate for state office as a Democrat, decided underdog in a race against incumbent Harry V. Jump of Willard for Representative to the general assembly from Huron county.

Electors will choose a United States senator, two representatives to the Congress, a governor, lieutenant-governor, a state senator (Huron county voters only), an assemblyman, a county commissioner, a chief justice and a justice of the supreme court.

Incumbent Frank J. Lauseche, Cleveland Democrat, is opposed by John Marshall Briley Toledo Republican, for senator.

Incumbents Charles A. Mosher (R-Oberlin, 13th district) and John M. Ashbrook (R-Johnstown, 17th district) seek second terms to the Congress. They are opposed by J. Grant Keys, Elyria Democrat, hand-picked a candidate of Governor Michael V. DiSalle in the 13th, and Robert W. Levering, Fredericktown Democrat, whom Ashbrook defeated in 1960, in the 17th.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's political future is squarely on the line. He is opposed by James A. Rhodes, state auditor, reported to be leading the governor in straw polls on a statewide basis.

John W. Brown, Medina Republican, opposed John J. Gallagher, Cleveland Democrat, for lieutenant-governor. William B. Saxbe, Mechan-isburg Republican whose decision as attorney general precipitated Plymouth's difficult school alignment, seeks election to that office. He is opposed by Robert W. Sweeney, Cleveland Democrat.

Roger W. Tracy, Republican who has served as treasurer, seeks to succeed Rhodes as auditor, opposed by John W. Donahay, son of the late Vic Donahay.

ROBERTENNIAL TED W. Brown, GOP secretary of state, is opposed by Charles L. Babcock, mayor of Canton.

Robert A. Taft, Jr., Cincinnati, is regarded as a certain winner for the congressman-at-large post. He is opposed by Richard D. Kennedy, Cleveland, whose party has repudiated him.

State Sen. Tennyson Guyer, Findlay Republican, seeks reelection by Albert R. Anness, a Perrysburg Democrat.

At the county level, these races are in store:

Incumbent Harry V. Jump (R) vs. William Fazio (D), general assembly, Huron county.

Incumbent Richard M. Christiansen (D) vs. Harold Arlin (R), general assembly, Richland county.

Arthur M. Leak (R) vs. Clayton F. Bick (D), commissioner, Huron county.

Incumbent Fred DeWitt (D) vs. Michael Smith (R), commissioner, Richland county.

Incumbent Bernard F. Fazio (R) vs. Marie Rith (D), auditor, Huron county.

Incumbent Clifford Brown vs. Mrs. Philip Wagoner, Huron county judge.

Incumbent Carl W. Gandt is opposed by James J. Kingsley A. Taft for chief justice of the supreme court. Incumbent John M. Mathison is opposed by James J. Kingsley for justice of the court. Incumbent Paul M. Herbert is opposed for the same office by Richard T. Cole.

Whose dog? A large German Shepherd dog which has been roaming about the village for several weeks is now at the Huron county dog pound in Norwalk. The owner may call this week to claim him.

Transfer of electric funds fails of approval at Columbus

The "borrow-from-Peter-to-pay-Paul" theory of municipal finance pursued in Plymouth for nearly two years came a-cropper Monday.

The village was told it will not be permitted to transfer $20,000 of surplus in its electric fund to the water fund to pay for a second water tower.

Application for the transfer had been filed with Huron county common pleas court. But prior approval was required at Columbus, where the state board of tax appeals ruled against it Monday.

Officials there said today it is the first time in their memories that such a request was turned down.

The electric distribution establishment in Plymouth has an estimated value of $400,000, and the village ought to maintain at all times a cover, or surplus, of about 10 per cent of value to provide for emergencies.

The surplus now is between $40,000 and $50,000. To transfer $20,000 from it to the water fund — an irrevocable loss to the electric fund — would deplete the electric fund below what the state board regards as a safe level.

What the decision means is that the village must develop alternate means of financing the water tower, construction of which can hardly be halted since the board of public affairs has already spent $6,000 for engineering fees and $4,000 for land.

LUTHER R. FETTERS, president of the board of trustees of public affairs, said Monday he will call an emergency meeting to discuss what may be done now.

Two courses seem open: 1. To raise water rates sufficiently to provide a cushion against which short-term bonds could be issued to pay for the water tower, an estimated $80,000. Since water rates will need to be increased substantially to pay for sanitary sewer charges when — and — the system is finally installed it may be that raising of the rates to the point both sewer and tower charges is an impracticability.

2. To obtain approval of the electorate for a bond issue to pay for the water tower.

It was out of fear that the electorate would not approve a bond issue that village council two years ago began the "borrow-from-Peter-to-pay-Paul" technique. The council decided to erect a new fire house. It issued councilmanic bonds in the amount of $39,000 — the maximum of 10 per cent of the tax valuation of the village, as provided by Ohio law — and bought them with surplus or idle electric and sewer moneys. Since the fire house cost about $5,000 more than that, other funds were similarly raised, by pledging some idle fire apparatus funds.

The board of public affairs dropped its plan to seek diversion of fire apparatus funds for the water tower when the fire department insisted it needs a new truck next year and cannot spare the money now.

Evacuation drill by schools 'successful'

A second evacuation drill, this time without warning to principals or pupils, is planned soon. C. Todd Strohmenger, executive head of Plymouth schools, said Tuesday.

The first, on Friday, was orderly and "successful," he said. Pupils dispersed rapidly. Bus pupils reached their homes in one hour 25 minutes, "somewhat too long, and we are going to work on that."

A plan of evacuation in event of nuclear attack was approved by Plymouth board of education in emergency session at 11 p.m. Oct. 24.

The meeting did not convene until 10 p.m. because the board attended a farewell dinner for Maynard J. Coon, former executive head, now serving as assistant executive head of Madison schools, at Ashland.

"Plan A," said to be feasible when there is at least one hour of warning, was adopted unanimously.

Pupils would be dismissed from the four buildings in orderly fashion. Pupils living in Plymouth and Shiloh villages would be released first, to go home at once on foot. Bus pupils would be released next, followed by pupils driving their own cars and by the teaching and administrative staff.

Emergency bus drivers have been assigned to each bus, in place of regularly assigned drivers, to save time.

A PLAN OF EVACUATION to apply when there is less than an hour's warning is being worked out.

C. Todd Strohmenger, executive head, said he plans a rehearsal of the evacuation technique.

Jerry Bishop, physical sciences instructor, is completing a short course in civil defense techniques, paid for by the federal government, at Mansfield. He will teach a required course, labelled "in service training", to members of the staff, two hours daily for five days. Teachers who do not attend will forfeit five hours of pay.

A fence removed from a site in Mansfield operated by Edward J. DeBartolo, shopping center developer in P. E., Youngstown, has been obtained by the board, which is installed to transport and installed it elsewhere.

This link fence is being installed at the Shiloh property. Donations of $200 by the Shiloh P-TA and $250 by the Boosters Club of Plymouth have been received to defray expenses. Volunteer labor has completed about 80 per cent of installation.

SEPTIC TANK AT PLYMOUTH High school is too small for needs, the board was told, and sewer gas is backing up into the home economics suite of the old wing. To correct this, a new trap will be installed.

Strohmenger was authorized to accompany other Richland county administrators to the annual school administrators' convention at Atlantic City, N. J., next month.

Hobart A. Garrett has resigned as regular bus driver, Mrs. Kenneth Myers, clerk of Plymouth Board of Education, reports.

Applications will be received by her in her office until 4 p.m. on Nov. 14, when the board meets in regular session again, for the post, which pays $105 a month.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Writer calls attention to endorsement of Rep. Mosher

Recently the Americans for Constitutional Action announced their endorsement of Congressman Charles A. Mosher for re-election.

This endorsement amounts to more than a political gesture. This group is made up of such outstanding men as the former Democratic Governor of New Jersey, Mr. Charles Edison; the former president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, Mr. Allan B. Kline; former president of the American Bar Association, Mr. Lloyd Wright, and also Edgar Eisenhower, former President Herbert Hoover and Admiral Ban H. H. Ladd, who is chairman of the Board of ACA.

A handsome window planter awaits the claimant in The Advertiser office, it having been deposited on the editor's porch.

This makes a person proud that we have such a man as Congressman Charles A. Mosher representing our district. Keep in mind that this is Congressman Mosher's first term in office and already he is placed in the highest esteem of notable people throughout this great country of ours. We can look forward to a great statement in Charles A. Mosher, our Congressman. Sincerely yours, John Borgia 21 Benedict Avenue Norwalk, Ohio

Mrs. Irene Forquer, wife of William, dies in hospital

Mrs. William Forquer, 81, 187 West Broadway, died at noon Oct. 24 in Shelby Memorial hospital, where she was a patient 12 days.

Born Minnie Irene Baker June 19, 1881, in Crawford county, Mrs. Forquer celebrated her 60th wedding anniversary Dec. 21, 1961.

A member of the Evangelical Lutheran church and of Plymouth Chapter 231, OES, she is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Howard Dickerson and Mrs. Donald Kaufman, Mansfield, and four sons, Walter Toledo; Burton Lakewood; Earl, Chicago, Ill., and Ernest, Dayton. There are 17 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Her pastor, the Rev. John H. Worth, conducted a funeral service Friday at 2 p.m. from the McQuate Funeral home. Burial was in Greenlawn cemetery.

Peter Schlarb, Sr., dies suddenly

Father of Peter Schlarb, Plymouth, Peter Schlarb, 72, died suddenly of a heart seizure at his home in Homer township, Medina county, on the morning of Oct. 24.

Born in Yugoslavia, he came to the United States at 17. When he lived in Akron, he was a deacon of the High Street Reformed church. In 1919 he moved to Homer township to engage in farming.

His wife, Elizabeth; two daughters, Mrs. Henry Welker, Cleveland, and Mrs. Carl Hurnung, Rome; four sons, Jacob, Brunswick; Steve, Bedford; Henry, Ashland, and William, Greenwich; a sister Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, Homer, and a brother, Jacob, in Germany, also survive.

The Rev. Robert Holmes, Homerville, conducted a funeral service Saturday afternoon from Parker Funeral home, Lodi. Burial was in Maple Hill cemetery near Homerville.

YE INTELLIGENT BUYER'S GUIDE TO FINEST LIQUORS

Like Fine Scotch, Canadian, Rum & Brandy... KENTUCKY WHISKEY TASTES BEST AS A BLEND!

There's only one way to make a good Kentucky Whiskey taste better... blend it with other Kentucky Whiskeys and grain neutral spirits.

For years, the secret behind the famous smoothness of Scotch and Canadian whiskeys is the fact that they are actually blends of several different types of Scotch and Canadian whiskeys. Most Rums and Brandies are blends too, of several different types of these well-known liquors.

Now, Mr. Boston actually improves on the natural rich flavor of good Kentucky Whiskey by selecting several of the best and blending them together with choice grain neutral spirits. Result: smooth flavor balance and mildness that straight Kentucky just can't match. Try a bottle of Mr. Boston's Rocking Chair soon!

ACTION FOR
RICHLAND COUNTY

IN A RECENT BROADCAST, I INVITED MY OPPONENT TO JOIN ME IN BRINGING YOU OUR PLANS FOR POSITIVE ACTION IN RICHLAND COUNTY THROUGH THE OPEN FORUM OF THE PUBLIC PRESS: A METHOD THAT BEST PROVIDES THE INFORMATION YOU NEED TO MAKE AN INFORMED DECISION AT ELECTION TIME. THIS IS THE SECOND OF MY PROPOSALS FOR ACTION.

My Proposal Is:

MY PROPOSAL IS a vigorous attack on the sponsors of the plan to decrease Richland County's proportion of votes in the state legislature. This plan — promoted by the national Democrat party — would give a greater share of power to large cities in our state at the expense of all rural and small-town areas like our own. "Re-apportionment", as this plan is called, is a major objective of the national Democrat party. If it succeeds your home-area will suffer as cities take a larger and larger share of the taxes you pay in Ohio. For example, it can cost millions to construct just ONE interchange on a city freeway . . . the same money can build MILES of new highway in open country. I will work to see that our tax dollars are returned to improve the areas and help the people from which they came.

Action:

ACTION is needed to organize effective resistance to this insidious plan to "re-apportion" OHIO'S vote. I believe no rural or small-town county such as Richland can be properly served by a representative who does not fight to keep our present proportion of representation . . . as a result, I will work to get support from members of BOTH parties so that a successful way can be found to continue Richland County's strong influence in state affairs.

VOTE Results:

RESULTS: You will keep your proper voice in how your tax dollars are spent.

High school site of ballot booth in Precinct B

Huron county voters will cast their ballots in a brand-new precinct station Tuesday.

Thorr E. Woodworth, presiding judge of the precinct, says the voting machines will be placed in the band room at Plymouth High school.

Previously—for one election, anyway—they were in the new fire house. Complaints by poll watchers that activities of the fire department and civil defense unit interfered with the orderly counting of ballots resulted in a dispute between Mayor William Fazio and the board of elections, which in turn removed the machines and chose the school as voting site.

Richland county voters will cast their ballots in First Presbyterian church basement.

ON THE RECORD

Attended all sessions of the General Assembly, served effectively on three committees; sponsored or co-sponsored 33 legislative measures of which 18 were enacted into law, including bills against commercial gambling which resulted in Ohio now having the toughest anti-racket laws in the nation.

Was the only speaker AGAINST the bill which would have permitted County Commissioners to issue bonds for construction of court houses WITHOUT a vote of the people; after which the bill was defeated.

Voted outstanding first term legislator by fellow Representatives.

Roof falls in at Fredericktown, Red humiliated, 56 to 20

The roof fell in on Plymouth's Big Red at Fredericktown Friday night.

"We played like a bunch of sissies," said Coach Richard Carpenter, "but there's no taking it away from them — they've got a good team."

His comment was absolutely accurate.

It was a miserable night and a miserable game played before a crowd that was equally miserable by its size, interest and temperature.

Al McQuigg, a 195-pound senior halfback, scored five touchdowns in the 56 to 20 rout. He is a smooth operator but not that good!

The trap play off the Freddie's right guard was working to perfection and the winners deceived three different operatives at that hole in getting five touchdowns there.

McQuigg dashed 49 yards for a score on the Freddie's first play, off that trap. Les James converted and Fredericktown was never thereafter headed or in any trouble.

On the second play of the second period, McQuigg sprinted 37 yards on the trap play. James again converted. Four minutes later, Fredericktown had its third score, this one on a three-yard jaunt by McQuigg. Fredericktown recovered a Plymouth fumble on the Big Red 19 and took four plays to score.

James converted and the lead was 24 points.

PLYMOUTH'S OFFENSE which was almost as bad as its defense, managed a touchdown at this point.

Earl Hess got a 24-yard runback of McQuigg's deep kickoff and Plymouth moved in seven plays to the Freddie's 29. Here, off the single wing formation, Phil Fletcher passed to Jimmy Hamman for the score. Fletcher ripped off tackle for the PAT.

It took Fredericktown four plays to retaliate. John Echelberry's kickoff was short. James got 14 yards on the runback, then 24 yards off tackle. McQuigg carried half the Plymouth team on his back for 25 yards and a first down on the Big Red's 12. After a loss of two yards, McQuigg sped through guard for the score.

The doughy halfback was to shine once more this bitterly cold night. He took the second half kickoff and raced 85 yards through the entire Plymouth team for a touchdown.

Save for this play, and another at the end of the quarter, Plymouth controlled the ball in the third period. The ball control produced a touchdown. The Big Red moved 77 yards in 18 plays, two of them passes, as Gary Utiss scored standing up.

Plymouth simply came apart in the fourth period, when second stringers afforded the opposition and scored almost at will.

JAY RONK HIT PAYDIRT from three yards out after a poor pass from center on fourth down had to be downed on the Plymouth 12.

Plymouth retaliated with a 77-yard drive, highlighted by some desperation gambles on fourth - and - plenty, before Hamman booted into the end zone from the five.

With 35 seconds left, a mediocre exhibition of defense permitted Ronk to dash 72 yards with the kickoff for the final score. Rozelle converted.

WHY DID PLYMOUTH LOSE? The question is academic. Plymouth could not have beaten this team on a good night. But it's worthwhile to inquire why Plymouth was so badly beaten.

Veteran observers, in hindsight, cited these errors:

1. Plymouth's veterans, save for two exceptions, did not really want to play football this grisly night. There was no desire.

2. Notably poor performances were obtained from key players, many of them seniors.

3. Blocking was all but non-existent.

4. Bob Young was booted from the game early in the first quarter for slugging. His defensive skills and kickoff abilities were sorely missed.

5. His replacement, Chip Paddock, was too light and too inexperienced to contain the Freddie's.

Lineups:

Fredericktown: ends—Frazier, Tennant, Gaddis, Stevens; tackles — Doup, Reid, Darling, Hulse Diehl; guards — Williams, Cunningham, Shafter, Roberts; center — Davis,

Wilson; backs — Carter, Greg, Phillips, Ronk, Ewers, James, Rozelle, McQuigg;

Ohio Can't Afford Four More Years of the Present Administration

No Ohio governor ever promised more — and delivered less — than the incumbent Governor. His administration has collected and spent more than any other administration in state history.

He mentioned not a word about increasing state taxes as a candidate for governor in 1958. "The Democratic Party of Ohio," he said, "firmly believes that its state government can live within its PRESENT TAX SOURCES AND IS OPPOSED TO THE IMPOSITION OF ANY NEW TAXES."

What happened?

Soon after the Democratic 103rd General Assembly convened in 1959, the present administration rammed through more than a dozen different tax increases and NEW taxes.

UP-UP-UP IN TAXES

The sales tax was expanded to cover sales in the lower price levels and to include new products and services. Gasoline tax was hiked from 5 to 7 cents, a jump of 40 percent. Cigarette tax was upped from 3 to 5 cents, a sharp rise of 67 percent. Tax on 3.2 beer jumped from 12 to 36 cents a case — from $1.50 to $2.50 a barrel.

Corporation franchise tax tripled, hiked from 1 to 3 mills on share value. Inheritance taxes increased $6 million a year. Prices at state liquor stores rose 13 percent plus another 3 percent in new sales tax.

$500,000,000 MORE TAXES

In three years — from July 1, 1959 to June 30, 1962, the administration's new and increased taxes cost Ohio's citizens almost half a billion dollars. But even these increased taxes did not bring in enough additional millions of dollars to provide the governor the money he said in 1961 he needed for his inflated spending programs for the next two years.

So he proposed to the Republican 104th General Assembly in 1961 appropriations totaling $150 million more than the anticipated state revenue. Recognizing

VOTE FOR SOUND MONEY MANAGEMENT

FOR GOVERNOR

X JAMES A. RHODES

Issued by HURON COUNTY REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
Bernard W. Freeman, Chairman, 29 Forest Street, Norwalk, Ohio

the unpopularity of his increased taxes, he refused to propose or recommend the new or increased taxes necessary to produce this added revenue, as required by Ohio Constitution and state laws. In the absence of such recommendations, the legislature refused to sponsor additional tax hikes or new taxes.

On March 23 of that year the Cleveland Press stated in an editorial, "The governor's attitude — has been a stubborn insistence that he is right and everyone else is wrong."

BUT THAT IS NOT THE WHOLE STORY

Instead of keeping his "pay-as-you-go" promise, the governor has been the —

FIRST ever to borrow Liquor Department funds to make up operating shortages in general funds.

FIRST ever to borrow from the Public Employees Retirement System to purchase highway right-of-way land.

FIRST ever to defer payments to the Ohio Teachers Retirement System trust fund — the same as borrowing — and to use that money for operating costs.

FIRST ever to juggle self-replenishing (rotary) funds with General Revenue funds in an attempt to change operating balances from red to black.

HOLD YOUR HATS- HERE WE GO AGAIN

Now the governor is claiming that taxes should be substantially increased AGAIN at a time when personal income is declining and the cost of living is at an all-time high.

What has any Ohio taxpayer to show in the way of state services for this $500,000,000 tax hike?

Ohio just simply cannot stand four more years of such extravagance. Let's vote AGAINST more tax abuses this November 6th.

Father of Robert Young and a former Plymouth resident, 70-year-old Clarence C. Young of Port Clinton perished Thursday when he drove his car off the open lift section of the Bay bridge at Sandusky.

The car was raised with its victim inside it. But during the maneuver, the body slipped from the grasp of state highway patrolmen and Coast Guardsmen and slipped into the icy waters, whence it has not yet been recovered.

Young was said by his wife to have left home earlier that morning to have the car repaired at Sandusky. Aiden Krafty, 47, bridge tender, said the traffic gates had been lowered and the bridge raised to allow a west-bound Coast Guard cutter to pass through at 9:10 a.m.

The bridge tender said he was standing on the Bay View side of the bridge waving a red flag when Young's car approached. He said it went under the gates, traveled 25 feet to the opening and dropped to the water, striking an abutment of the bridge.

The warning lights on the bottom of the gate were smashed. Krafty said the gates were down as far as they would go when Young's car struck. It fell into about 10 feet of water.

Grappling equipment from Marblehead Coast Guard station was rushed to the scene. The sedan was raised and a state highway patrolman climbed into the car while it was still suspended and sought to pass the body through a back window. Young had presumably been pushed to the rear of the car by the impact as it struck the water. During the intricate maneuvering of the body, it fell from the grasp of rescuers and dropped into the bay.

Skin divers have fruitlessly searched for it at intervals since the tragedy.

The Youngs formerly lived at East High and Mulberry streets here. They moved to Port Clinton about six years ago.

Upward Thinking INDIANS

Prof. Stumble: "Why can't Unc make up his mind, for Heaven's sake?"

Academe: "Quiet, aren't you just a neophyte?"

Dean Fuddy Duddy: "Why not learn to read and comprehend just a wee bit? Guessing may be suitable for birdies.

Hunters are not required at Hunter's, Maple and Myrtle, Willard, for any desired article, although you Maytag a much superior Tappan next door for future delivery.

Indians once inhabited all of Ohio and beyond shadow of doubt used genuine Arrows. Palefaces on Nov. 6th will be shooting errors all over Heck but shouldn't make a casualty of Heck's Cleaning window.

Tidbit of thought: Perhaps after four years have passed some will gather that it was their own errors that caused migraine for 48 months. Indians cared little for roads and never needed an Indian guide, although Indian paths were somewhat tricky. Man has pathfinders of indisputable value. They may stone them all the way when the best Rhodes have been selected.

It's nice when we think we are innocent sheep but by heck, why become a regimented herd?

Poor Unc was delighted with his first "Crimson and White" and stored in his noggin many favorable and cogent comments for future use. Although "Thunderbirds" seems more forceful than "Crimson Flashes", nevertheless a good guess would be more teamwork, including Dave.

All you WHS boys and girls may be pleased when you read Unc's column the week after.

What this country needs is not a 5-cent seegar but more realistic editors and not users of newspaper space alone.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

You, too, can help put down a threat to freedom

Uncle Sam has had some pretty conscientious help in the "freedom department" over the years.

Some of the best-known contributors were an expert horseman named Revere . . . a group of amateur stevedores who made iced tea in Boston Harbor . . . and a party of revolutionaries who created an unsplitable nation under the shadow of a cracked bell.

Today the freedom which these patriots won for us is being challenged. And freedom will always need brave men to defend and preserve it. Men and women, like you.

You can do your share toward defending freedom by buying United States Savings Bonds today. The dollars you invest this way go right to work for your country now, as well as for your future.

How about buying a $50 Savings Bond (the most popular size) next payday? The cost is only $37.50.

Best known for his midnight ride to Lexington, famous patriot Paul Revere also designed the first Continental currency, the first official seal of the Colonies, and the state seal of Massachusetts, still in use today.
