Council deals with three hot potatoes

Three hot potatoes were dropped into the lap of village council Tuesday night. During the three hour 12 minute session, the council ate one, left a second on the table and sent the third to Columbus with its blessing. The board of trustees of Greenlawn cemetery, accompanied by Lyle Biddinger, cemetery sexton, appeared en masse to force action on its resolution submitted in April recommending a raise of $250 a year for Biddinger. This would put his salary at $4,000, the same as the street supervisor.

A heated debate ensued, during which Trustees Charles G. Lookabaugh promised that if Biddinger's raise is not forthcoming, Biddinger will not assist the street crew during the winter. Councilman Charles Vanasdale told Lookabaugh that "the village may very well be broke by Christmas. Let two decisions take place and we will be broke." He was referring to adverse decisions in two court cases involving the village, a damage suit for $40,000 filed by Mrs. Helen Iceman, in which Royal W. Eckstein, Sr., is co-defendant, and another for $18,300 filed by Alden E. Stilson & Associates, Ltd., Columbus, sewer engineers fired by the village.

When Councilman John T. Dick told the trustees he would support the motion on the understanding that when the cemetery funds run out the board will need to seek other revenues, the board refused.

Carpenter hired to coach Big Red eleven at $5,400

Richard Carpenter, 34, with a strong record in intercollegiate and semi-professional athletics, was hired yesterday as head football coach, track coach, social studies and biology teacher. His combined salary as teacher and coach will be $5,400.

Married and the father of three children, he comes here from Bloomville, where he taught three years. Prior thereto he was at Avon a year, at Marengo three years, and at Townsend High school, Vickery, three years.

A graduate of Willard High school in 1946, he holds the bachelor's degree from Ashland college, where he played varsity football.

He was a guard and tackle on the Crimson Flashes at Willard. While in the Army at Ft. Sill, Okla., he was a member of that post's championship eleven. He is now playing centerfield on the New Washington club which is vying for the state semi-pro championship at Mansfield.

"If the cemetery is broke, you know you'll have to bail us out," Vanasdale retorted that "you can't bail if you don't have any bucket — what if the general fund is broke?"

Reluctantly, Dick moved the approval of the ordinance, which was passed on first reading by 5 to 1 vote, Councilman Donald E. Akers voting no.

Before it could disperse, the board was summoned again. Should an additional half-mile of digging levy for the cemetery be sought in the general election? After a private consultation, the board reported it disapproves such a move, will instead recommend increases in charges for out-of-town users of the burial grounds. Present fees are $75 per lot for non-residents, $70 for residents. Grave-opening charges are the same for either.

RUSSELL KAMANN PRESENTED again an omnibus petition against the raising of a section for the vacating of a calling 10 by 853 feet in the south side of Lofland street, an east-west alley abutting it, measuring 15 x 733 feet, and a north-south alley contiguous, measuring 12 x 135 feet.

The council sought to find technical reasons for disapproving the petition, but Solicitor Joseph F. Dush said it "has sufficient merit in its present form, although it is very difficult to cause you to take action on it."

Here Mayor William Fazio urged favorable action. He said "I was given to understand that if we do not approve this petition, we are apt to have difficulty with it every year to enlarge the village to the north and east." He said a supporter of the petition is in a position to advance the future of the village and the council should not forget his importance.

Two councilmen, Vanasdale and Willard W. Wirth, concurred against any response to pressure and after heated debate Councilman Clarence O. Cramer said he wasn't sure of the distances and locations involved and wished to examine the site personally. The council seemed grateful for this solution, temporary that it is, and unanimously moved to table the petition.

Carl H. Gerken, Napoleon, consulting engineer for the sanitary sewer project, presented preliminary drawings and cost report of the oxidation lagoons to be installed north of the outlet sewer, $13,680 for a six-inch force main and $25,000 for a pumping station. The drawing and report were sent to Columbus.

Night traffic in Greenlawn cemetery and Mary Fate park, complained of by the mayor, will be regulated by Mrs. Anna M. Weithman, 85, of the park and a new ordinance in the cemetery.

A private parking stall for Dr. V. Dragunas was authorized.

Mayor Fazio reported fine of $70 and costs of $20.40 collected during June.

Mrs. Neidermier loses mother, Mrs. Weithman

Mother of Mrs. Harold Neidermier, Plymouth route 1, and of Mrs. Junior Pracht, Norwalk, formerly of Shiloh, Mrs. Anna M. Weithman, 85, New Washington, died there Saturday at 2:15 p.m.

Born in Frankenstein, Mo., she was a member of St. Bernard's Roman Catholic church, New Washington, of its Rosary and Altar society and of the Sacred Heart of Mary auxiliary.

Her husband, Edward; two sons, Edward, Jr., Columbus, an Joseph, New Washington; another daughter, Mrs. Jerome Phillips, New Washington; three brothers, Dennis Roetten, Glasgow, Mo., and a sister, Sister Mary Connata, O.S.F., Milwaukee, Wis., also survive.

A requiem mass was sung Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. in her church. Burial will be in the M. Mehling Interment was in the church cemetery.

THE STROHMENGERs posed for The Advertiser's camera shortly after he signed a two-year contract Tuesday morning.

Strohmenger new school head

C. Todd Strohmenger, executive head of Hopedale schools in Harrison county, will be the new executive head of Plymouth schools.

He signed a two-year contract at $8,500 annually.

A native of Mansfield, he was graduated from Senior High school there in 1942. He attended Ohio State University from 1942 to 1945, served 21 months in the military, then entered Ashland college to complete his degree in 1953. He received the master of arts degree from Ohio State in 1959.

The 38-year-old educator taught 11 years at Lucas High school, served as principal there his last year, and has been at Hopedale two years. He is married and is the father of two children.

William Eberly, Monroeville, a 1962 graduate of Bowling Green State university, was hired to teach social sciences in Shiloh Junior High school.

The twice-defeated additional school operating levy will be resubmitted in abbreviated form in November, the board of education decided July 11.

The board will seek 3.1 instead of five mills. Approval of the addition will produce $32,656.06, which will cover the additional expense in the 1963 budget, which was also approved. The new budget calls for $451,152.56 to maintain and operate the schools. It is $32,160 more than the current budget.

The addition is earmarked solely for maintenance of buildings and teachers' salaries. Donald F. Markley, president of the board, said, "We have cut off long range plans and are only taking care of immediate needs."

FIVE TEACHERS WERE hired, each of them at less money and with less experience than those they replace.

Supt. Maynard J. Coon, who leaves his post Aug. 1 after 11 years to become assistant executive head of Madison district, told the board only four vacancies exist now. But he warned they will be difficult to fill.

Five new teachers are: Miss Gloria Sharkey, Shelby, at $3,250, to teach second grade in Plymouth Elementary school. She has two years of training in Ohio State university.

Mrs. Jo Ann Coleman, Ashland, at $3,990, to teach fifth grade at Shiloh Elementary school. She has 116 semester hours of training in Ashland college.

Dave S. Savage, Willard, at $4,000, to teach high school mathematics. He holds a bachelor's degree from Bluffton college.

He is Dr. Arch Evans Cole, 67, a professor of medicine in the University of Louisville's college of medicine, Louisville, Ky.

Dr. Cole, driving alone in a late-model compact car, was struck head-on by Everett Wayne Suber, 24, Prospect, and crushed chest. Marion post, state highway patrol, presumed Suber was exceeding the speed limit, which is 60 miles an hour at the point of collision, but found he was not in violation of any other traffic regulation.

Dr. Cole was coming here to meet his younger brother, Clarence, Akron, who had arrived earlier with his wife at the home of their late sisters, Jessie I. and Margaret H., both deceased. They were to deal with the probate affairs of Margaret Cole.

A third driver, William Dennis Nelson, 24, Maumee, following Dr. Cole, collided with the wreck of the other two cars. But he was not hurt.

A WIDOWER, DR. COLE was born in Erie county, one of the children of the late Dr. Henry and Isabelle Cole. The family moved to southern Huron county when he was a boy. He was graduated from New Haven High school in 1912 and from Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, in 1916.

After service with the AEF in World War I, he entered the University of Wisconsin at Madison, where he received the doctorate of philosophy in his chosen field in 1920.

Hereafter he served as assistant professor of anatomy in Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill., before joining the staff at Louisville in 1928.

A widely-respected and admired teacher, five separate groups of students voted him

Two men injured in crash at Rome

A driver and his passenger were painfully but not seriously injured at about 4:10 p.m. Monday when their car struck a utility pole east of Rome in Route 603.

They are James Eckles, Shiloh route 2, driver, and Jimmy Crouse, Shiloh route 2 passenger. Eckles received facial lacerations which necessitated his removal to Willard hospital by ambulance.

PROSPECT YOUTH DIES IN HEAD ON COLLISION

Prof. Arch E. Cole killed in three-car crash

After service with the AEF in World War I, he entered the University of Wisconsin at Madison, where he received the doctorate of philosophy in his chosen field in 1920.

Hereafter he served as assistant professor of anatomy in Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill., before joining the staff at Louisville in 1928.

"pre-clinical professor of the year." A colleague said of him Monday, after the funeral, "Another will be found to fill his job but nobody will ever be able to take his place."

A member of Sigma Xi, international scientific scholarship society, he was also an elder of the Presbyterian church.

In addition to his brother, Clarence V., Akron, a son, Dr. Arch E. Cowle, Madison, Wis., and two daughters, Patricia, now Mrs. Henry S. Collier, and Mildred, now Mrs. Gilbert Kempf, both of Louisville, and 10 grandchildren survive.

The Rev. Harland L. Dague conducted a funeral service Monday at 1:30 p.m. from McQuate Funeral home. Evidence of the esteem in which he was held was produced by several colleagues, who made the trip from Louisville to attend the service.

After cremation in Cleveland, his ashes will be interred in the family plot in Greenlawn cemetery beside two maiden sisters who devoted their entire lives to education, the Misses Jessie I. and Margaret H. Cole.

Mrs. Ross' kin deils

Brother of Mrs. Willard Ross, organist in Plymouth First Methodist church, Donald F. Hassler, 58, 9 Grace avenue, Shelby, died in Shelby Memorial hospital Sunday noon of diabetes.

He operated a concession stand in Shelby's Seltzer park. Born in New Washington, Sept. 30, 1903, he was employed as clerk by the Nickel Plate railroad in Cleveland after graduation from Tiffin Business college. In 1931, with his wife, Lillian, who died a year ago, he went to Shelby and entered business.

He operated Don's Lunch, the Red and White grocery and the South Side market.

A member of First Baptist church, he is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Dale Wyson, Kenton, and a brother, Leon, Cambridge.

The Rev. Melvin O. Welch, his pastor, will conduct last rites today at 3 p.m. from Dye Funeral home. Burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

Mrs. Flanagan, 64, stricken at show grooming horse

Sister of Gordon Brown, Mrs. Barbara Brown Flanagan, 64, Broken Sword, died suddenly of a heart seizure Thursday at the Rev. Frederick's show grooming horse for entry in a western horse show.

Mrs. Flanagan was a member of the Bucyrus Bar B Saddle club and the Ohio Western Horse association.

Her husband, Ernest; a daughter, Mrs. L. H. Oppenheim, in California; another brother, Chloé Brown, in West Virginia, and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Golen, in California, and Mrs. Rosie Anderson and Mrs. Ette Bell, in West Virginia.

Base pay for school teachers was set by the board of education thus:

Minimum $1,800 annually for teachers with two years of training.

Maximum of $2,600 annually for teachers with baccalaureate degree.

Maximum of $2,800 annually for teachers with 18 years of experience and master's degree.

This week, in history: Sir Francis Drake defeated the Spanish Armada, July 21, 1588.

Suzie sez:

My friends always say their fathers or mothers have "flipped their wigs" when they get angry. Pop says when he was young they said "blew their stack".

Now I read that flipping the wig may be literal as well as figurative.

Wigs are very much in style. All of the magazines have pictures of girls and how to wear them. They say it's easier to take care of the hair with a wig, probably because you don't have to do any more than comb it once a day.

But wigs are not new. The Egyptians wore them back before Jesus was born. The Romans used to try to capture blonde prisoners of war so the Roman women could have blonde wigs. Queen Elizabeth I of England had 80 red wigs, because she was as red as a billiard ball. During the 1700's men and women both wore wigs. George Washington used powder on his. After the revolution in France 173 years ago on July 14, wigs went out of style. Pop says this is because in some neighborhoods heads went out of style, because they were cut off.

Most of the wigs sold now, I have read, are in the beehive or bouffant hair style, which I do not like. If a wig is made from real hair, it may cost as much as $500. A woman really needs at least two, one to wear and one to send to the hairdresser for a wave and set. But you can buy cheaper wigs that are made of synthetic fiber.

Pop says that when the public — that part of it that has to set its hair each night and that part of it that has to lie there and wait while the light is on because she is setting her hair — gets fed up with Mrs. Kennedy's hair-do, wigs will go out of style.

I still would like to have one blonde one and one red one. Then I could have my cake and eat it too. I could see how I look with yellow and red hair and if I don't like it, I wouldn't have to wait for my own hair to grow out and replace the dyed hair.

Assessment for sewers likely to be about $2.10 per foot

A special session of Shiloh's village council last night was to settle the burning controversy of the monthly how much per front foot for special sewer assessment.

Signs were the figure will be $2 a foot, or within 10 per cent thereof, probably about $2.10.

The fact of special assessment has been established for a long time, but public opinion has lagged behind the fact. It was about to boil this week, as householders came to realize that the long-delayed sanitary sewer project is all but final reality and the time has come to pay for it.

Councilmen privately reported some grumblings about the assessment, but they responded that no other course seems possible and the assessments will have to be made and in time — paid. Already a delay has been authorized in the requirement to connect with the sanitary sewer. The tap-in fee of $50 is only a part of the cost. Each householder must pay for the connection between his household conduit and the sanitary sewer trunk.

Everett Pry, Jr., turned in his resignation as councilman July 11, on the grounds that he will be attending a barbering school for six months. It was tabled.

A reduced budget was approved. The general fund will dispose of $11,905 during the next fiscal year, as compared with $12,399 in the current one. Principal expenditures anticipated are $6,860 for streets, $171 for highway improvement, $12,100 for sewer rental, $3,320 for water services, $20,000 for electricity services, $6,466.35 for bond retirement and interest.

Pitfingers to visit Yellowstone park

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pittenger and their son, Richard, and his family of Alma, Mich., are on a trip to Yellowstone National park and the Grand Canyon.

Shorthouse and Mrs. Dora Traxell and daughter, Connie, Greenwich, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Dick Sunday.

Mowana, near Mansfield. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Barnd whose 25th wedding anniversary was July 5, were honored on this occasion with a family picnic at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnd were married in the Methodist church in Plymouth by Rev. J. C. Campbell.

A. W. Firestone has recently sold 10 acres in Blainburg-George township to John R. Kirkpatrick and others.

Their children include a daughter, Mrs. Patricia Kennard, and a son, Tom, Shiloh, and a son, Larry, Shelby.

They also have four grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. David Dick, Mrs. Grace Barnd, Carol Keesy and Merry Lou Mahle, a granddaughter of Mrs. Dick, spent July 1 afternoon and evening at Van Buren.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kemp and two sons of Dayton spent June 30 - July with Mrs. Stella Arnold and all were guests Sunday at the Varran-Nixon wedding in Pavonia Methodist church.

The bride is the former Cedar, Colo., where the young couple expect to make their home.

Miss Carol Ann Company, a junior at Ashland college, left June 29 by bus for Jacksonville, Fla., where she will spend an indefinite time with her aunt, Lieut. Commander Eleanor Company, a nurse at the Naval hospital there.

When driving east July 2 from Shiloh, Ralph Frisby, Rome, lost control of his car near the Sohio service station. It swerved left and hit a utility pole near the Bell residence. Lights were knocked out and the front end of the car was extensively damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson and family were in Gary, Ind., June 30 to attend the wedding of Miss Roberta Jean Eley and Robert Anton Nelson at Marquette Park Methodist church in Gary.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eley and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawson.

The young people will make their home in Gary, where the bridegroom is associated with Nelson warehouses and also in Chicago, Ill.

The Harold Russell family left July 2 for their home in Macon, Ga., after spending a few days here for the funeral of Mrs. Dewey Reynolds. Mrs. Reynolds was the mother of Mrs. Russell.

Becky Russell remained here for a longer stay with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kosef and daughter, Darlene, Plymouth and son, Roderick, and daughter, Karen and Miss Anetta Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson, were at Winona Lake, Ind., last week, where the girls were contestants in a Youth Christ national vocal contest.

Past Matrons club met Friday evening. Mrs. Marguerite Pittenger and Mrs. Dietha McBride were hostesses.

Miss Cecil Sturtz, who has been making her home near Delphia, has rented the first floor apartment in the McQuate building in East Main street and will move there soon.

Estil G. Coleman and her family have sold 175 acres of land in Union township to Merle M. Barnd and others.

Mrs. T. A. Barnes and Mrs. Howard Long of Canton recently spent a few days at the former's home here. Mrs. Barnes, with the help of Miss Lois Seaman, will remain in her home indefinitely.

Albert Berberick and Georgia Berberick have applied for a Richland county license. Always shop at home first!

Lutheran Faith

Spiritual sensitivity is expressed by the use of the material.

One example which makes that statement clear: in worship most people make use of a building, pews, hymn books, lights, bread and wine, money.

All are material substances! That's the way God intends it—that man should express his spiritual sensitivity by using the things God has placed in his hands.

Along with the Good Samaritans, Lutherans don't despise the material; they use it to serve their neighbor and praise their Lord.

Ponies boots cost 3 games

It was a grim week for Plymouth Ponies. Flying high on an undefeated season, the Ponies hit turbulence of the worst order. They lost three contests, bringing the season record to 10-3.

Willard downed the Ponies 6 to 4 there and Shelby All-Stars won, 5 to 2. Greenwich edged the local entry, 8 to 7.

Errors paved the way. Plymouth made more errors in these three games — a total of 14 — than were made in the previous 10 games — 11.

Eric Akers was the loser at Willard, Nero Howard the loser at Shelby.

Akers' triple scored three runs in the seventh at Greenwich but th rally fell short. Rod Huston had two hits.

Reds trim Yanks, lead by two games

Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris et al, take heed!

If what happened to PML Yanks is any harbinger, you are in for a rude awakening!

Manager Bill Forquer's Yanks met only one team during the first week of second half play in PML, gave up 32 runs in 12 innings, scored only seven themselves and are lodged firmly in last place in the standings, if for no other reason than that "y" comes after "c" in the alphabet.

By a scheduling freak, the Cubs also met only one team in the first week of play. In the first contest, the Cubs almost won their second game of the season. But the Indians prevailed, 12 to 11. And two nights later, the Indians walloped the Cubs, 19 to 2.

Why the contests should be so one-sided after half a season of relatively close games, nobody knows.

Standings as of Monday at 9 a.m.:

	W	L	Pct.
Indians	2	0	1.000
Reds	2	0	1.000
Cubs	0	2	.000
Yanks	0	2	.000

Pirates seeking young players

A tryout camp for young baseballers at least 16 years old will be staged in Jaycee park, Sandusky, Monday and Tuesday under the direction of Curt Hammerbeck, Bob Behnfeldt and Kean Beardlee, scouts for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Players are expected to furnish their own gloves, shoes, and uniforms. The Pirates will furnish bats, balls and catching gear. Any player signed to a Pirate contract will be reimbursed for his traveling and living expenses.

Larry Schreck, who learned his baseball on Plymouth sandlots, was a Pirate farmhand once. Now living in Mobile, Ala., he was signed as an infielder for a Class D club in Kentucky, but the loop folded and he never played.

Kendig in bike race

Allen Kendig, son of the Leo Kindigs, former Shiloh residents who now live in Columbus, placed seventh Sunday in the state bicycle meet in Columbus.

Entered in the junior division for the one mile and two mile dashes, he placed in both.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

You, too, can help put down a threat to freedom

Uncle Sam has had some pretty conscientious help in the "freedom department" over the years.

Some of the best-known contributors were an expert horseman named Revere . . . a group of amateur stevedores who made iced tea in Boston Harbor . . . and a party of revolutionaries who created an unsplitable nation under the shadow of a cracked bell.

Today the freedom which those patriots won for us is being challenged. And freedom will always need brave men to defend and preserve it. Men and women, like you.

You can do your share toward defending freedom by buying United States Savings Bonds today. The dollars you invest this way go right to work for your country now, as well as for your future.

How about buying a $50 Savings Bond (the most popular size) next payday? The cost is only $37.50.

Best known for his midnight ride to Lexington, famous patriot Paul Revere also designed the first Continental currency, the first official seal of the Colonies, and the state seal of Massachusetts, still in use today.
