

Bounce?

Can Big Red recover poise
after two thumpings? fans ask

Can the Big Red get up off the floor?

Sideline fibbers have serious doubts, which may be confirmed or allayed at Loudonville Saturday afternoon when Plymouth tackles the Redbirds, winless so far in a Johnny Appleseed conference contest.

"Our defense isn't bad, but we just ain't got no offense," one player said ruefully Saturday morning, licking his wounds after a 36 to 8 thumping by Crestline the night before.

This wounds Assistant Coach Bob Rahall terribly. He coaches the backs. It is painful for him to admit the offense hasn't performed well this season. Even in the Big Red's only victory, over undermanned and inexperienced Black River, the offense was no great shakes.

What changes will be made will depend on the health of some key players, notably Phil Fletcher, the senior halfback-cum-quarterback, whose leg and back are ailing. It is likely that if Fletcher is hale, he will again play behind the center, with Gene Crouse and Mike Ruckman at halfbacks and Bob Foreman at fullback.

Considering it has no depth and not much size, the line has done fairly well. For the past four seasons, linebackers have been called upon for all but superhuman efforts because the defensive line has not

Trio escape injury as station wagon demolishes bridge

Mrs. Karen Ann Day, Angola, Ind., and her niece and nephew, Teresa and Joseph Bauer, escaped serious injuries Saturday night when their car hit a bridge in Plymouth-Springmill road.

Mrs. Day, who is visiting the Fred Bauer family, was en route home with the children from Mansfield, where they had attended a motion picture.

The car struck the end support of a 90-foot steel bridge spanning the Black Fork.

Mrs. Day, niece of the late Mrs. Bauer, received knee and head injuries. Seven-year-old Joseph was treated for head cuts. Teresa 12, was not injured.

County authorities said the bridge is a loss which totals between $40,000 and $45,000. The impact of the car snapped a steel truss of the 65-year-old span. The car, completely demolished, was wedged into the girders and did not fall into the creek.

Mrs. Day has been cited by the state highway patrol for excessive speed unwaranted by road conditions.

W. J. McDowell dies in Ashland

William J. McDowell, 87, a retired carpenter who lived long in Petit street, Shiloh, died Tuesday morning in Good Samaritan hospital, Ashland.

Of late he was a resident of the Good Shepherd Lutheran home there.

Born Sept. 14, 1876, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ruth B. Dessim, Kent; a son, Frank, Mansfield, a grand-daughter and two great-grandchildren.

He was a member of the Macabees lodge.

The Rev. Harland L. Dague, pastor of Plymouth and Shiloh Methodist churches, will conduct a funeral service from McQuate Funeral home today at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Mt. Hope cemetery, Shiloh.

charged as well as it might.

The linebacking is a shade better than the up-front defense, so far, but the Big Red can ill afford to let Loudonville four-yard it to death.

The Redbirds were licked handsomely by Fredericksburg last week but gained 198 yards rushing, showing they can move the ball.

On form, Loudonville has to be rated the favorite in Saturday's contest, which will be played at 2 p.m. in Redbird stadium.

EASIEST WAY TO GET THERE:

Proceed east from Plymouth in Route 603 to Mifflin,

'Fuzzy-Wuzzy' may tell how bad winter will be!

It's that time of year again!

A slight frost Tuesday morning prompts those who forecast weather by the palms in their corns, the flocking of birds and the reading of almanacs to consider the lowly caterpillar.

It's an old wives' tale, admittedly, but it goes like this:

The distance between the black bands around the belly of the caterpillar varies indirectly as the probable bitterness of the forthcoming winter: if they're close together, the winter will be cold, if they're not so close, it won't be so cold.

The number of hairs on the caterpillar is supposed to be an indication of how bitter the winter will be: many hairs, cold winter.

And finally, the speed by which he crosses the road (where this one was found) is said to indicate the speed by which the forthcoming winter will descend: if caterpillar is in no hurry, there'll be a long autumn.

To all these suppositions, our weather expert gives the brushoff.

"What," he snorts, "does a caterpillar know about winter? He doesn't live long enough to be around when winter comes, anyway. And how do you compare distance between bands on his belly? They're not so long, anyway, and who can make 'em hold still long enough to measure distance on his belly, or count hairs? It's buncombe!"

Whereupon he puts a grimy hand in the small of his back and observes, "My old football injury is starting to act up, must be gonna rain!"

Whichever method you choose, herewith an caterpillar. It wasn't an easy job to catch him, and when he was caught, it was harder to catch — and hold — the young lady whose hand kept him within camera range.

Neither Dean nor Meiser could give any reason why he sought to enter the station, since he had over $200 on his person at the time.

Tuesday morning he was fined $45 and costs and ordered to pay for damages estimated at $400.

She just can't S-T-A-N-D the things!

turn east (left) in Route 30 to Hayesville, turn south (right) in Route 60 to Loudonville, turn west (right) in Route 39 in the village to the stadium.

Sideliners spent much of this time this week figuring out why, with 40 or 45 players suited up for junior high games, the varsity squad can only count on a handful of freshmen come September.

A number of explanations is offered, perhaps the most cogent that young players feel "I'll never get to play and why should I ride the bench and take the beating when if I wait a year or two I'll be big enough to play."

Coach Richard Carpenter says this is simply not true and points in rebuttal to a 13-year-old freshman, Billy Goth, who has already seen enough service that, barring injury or accident, should win him a varsity letter.

"We don't use these smaller boys for 'cannon fodder,'" he says, "but you can't teach boys the game of football without some contact. We try to keep that contact within reason and we don't allow a little 'weenie' to scrimmage with a giant."

He adds that knowledge of the system and experience in play are helpful to these first-year players and points to the center and linebacker of the Big Red, Chip Paddock, who is in his third year of play on the varsity squad.

"When he started out he was very small but he was willing. I wasn't here then but they tell me he learned the plays and was faithful at practice. He got to play only a little bit his freshman year."

"Last year he didn't look like much when the season started but we found a place for him in the third game and he has played every one since then, sometimes not so well, but mostly better than average for a boy his size and he has done some good work for us. We think he will do more good work in the future. But this is an example of what a boy can learn by turning out in his first year, regardless of his size. If he wants to play and if he comes to play, he'll get to play."

Marine tears up station

A 21-year-old Marine Corps man who lives in Bevier road near Willard was arrested by Police Chief Robert L. Meier at 3:10 a.m. Tuesday as he sought to break into and enter Morrison's Soho station, a Sandusky and Brazilian streets.

He is Robert K. Dean, a veteran of four years services in the Marines who has just re-enlisted.

Meier said Dean had broken several small windows and a large plate glass pane in his fruitless efforts to obtain entry.

Taken into custody with extreme difficulty, owing to his inebriated state, Dean was lodged in the village jail, where he took up a bench weigh about 50 pounds, flailed it about his head and broke all of the windows in the central lockup pen. Thereafter Meier threw him into a cell.

Neither Dean nor Meier could give any reason why he sought to enter the station, since he had over $200 on his person at the time.

Tuesday morning he was fined $45 and costs and ordered to pay for damages estimated at $400.

Chest seeks $1 a month from each contributor

"A Buck a Month" will be the slogan for the 1963 Plymouth Community Chest drive, President William Miller announces.

A goal of $4,000 has been set for the seventh annual drive.

"If every residential contributor will make his contribution just $1 a month," Miller said, "we will make our goal."

Last year the chest made only 88 per cent of the target.

The 10 participating agencies are unchanged. They are the Cub and Boy Scouts, Salvation Army, Cancer fund, Plymouth High school band, Plymouth Midget league and Pony leagues, Girl Scouts, American Red Cross, Plymouth Branch library and Mary Park park.

A small sum is set aside each year for operating expenses to start the yearly drive. This year's operating expenses will be considerably under $100.

THE DRIVE WILL BEGIN
Oct. 14 and end Oct. 31. Every village resident and those living in Plymouth route 1 will receive the official letter with the pledge card and return envelope.

Joseph McCurdy is the newly appointed director of the chest. Mrs. Carl V. Ellis, Mrs. Thomas DeWitt, Stanley E. Condon and James Gullett continue with their terms.

Specifications to be met by developers of new building sites were laid down by village council and board of public affairs Thursday night.

A 50-foot right-of-way with side drainage is required. The roadway must be established at 18-foot width covered with seven inches of washed gravel. Contour must be to establish standards.

Specifications to be met by developers of new buildings will accommodate sewage deriving generally from the area west of Bell street, would be cheaper than gravity flow because of terrain difficulties, the engineers said.

COSTS WOULD GO UP BY about $28,000 if gravity flow were used, they asserted. Real differences of grade amount to as much as 25 feet in some places, which would necessitate about 2,500 feet of sewer line to be laid that deep. Installation of a lift station, costing about $12,000, would reduce the deep excavation to a distance of less than 325 feet.

Additional requirements of the developer of a new apartment sanitary sewer installed to meet the inspection requirements of the council and the county and state may be connected to the village system upon payment of $350. An inspection fee of $5 will be due from any applicant for sewer service.

The regulations were formalized at the request of Postmaster Raymond L. Brooks, who proposes to develop 12 building sites in West Broadway.

LOVING CARE IS NEEDED when you're driving, too!

There are so many ways to express your love for a child—amuse him, care for him, understand him, protect him from hurt and harm.

Because drivers kill and cripple more children than any disease, a car is potentially one of the most dangerous places your child can ever be. So protect him whenever he is in the car—with a seat belt.

If every car owner in America had seat belts in his car—and used them—we could reduce severe injuries by one-third, deaths by 5,000 a year!

It's terribly important to drive with loving care, always. And to support strict law enforcement in your town, for where laws are strictly enforced, accidents and deaths go down. But can a parent who wants to protect his loved ones and himself possibly overlook the protection afforded by seat belts?

Crestline overpowers Plymouth, 36 to 8, in first conference engagement

Crestline spoiled Plymouth's Homecoming with a convincing 36 to 8 victory here Friday night.

A capacity crowd watched as the Bulldogs capitalized on Big Red mistakes and, with superior manpower, wore down the home eleven in the last half.

The first period was a stand-off, each team staging a drive into the other's territory only to see it fizzle out.

Late in the second quarter, Phil Fletcher sought to punt from the Plymouth 27. The pass from center was poor and he passed to avoid entrapment. It fell incomplete and the Bulldogs took over.

Six plays later Billy Schreck was in the end zone from three yards out for the score that broke Plymouth's morale. Dick Allaire passed to Britton for the PAT. There was only 1:35 on the clock in the half.

UNABLE TO ADVANCE after the second half kickoff, the Bulldogs fumbled. Plymouth recovered and had a golden opportunity to even the score. On third down, Fletcher sought to pass. He chose the right flat. Here Ciro Cochran snagged the ball and sped 62 yards for the score, one of three he made during the game. Allaire passed to Schreck for the PAT. At 4:55

Crestline had a comfortable lead.

This was the first game in which Bob Young was assigned punting chores and he did well. But the Plymouth defense against runbacks was shoddy and late in the third quarter this led to another touch-down.

Rowland fielded Young's boot on the Crestline 48 and got 32 yards in his return. The Bulldogs scored in five plays, the big gainer Thorpe's punch through right tackle for 13 yards. Cochran supplied the score, on a three-yard shot. Allaire rushed for the PAT.

Young's punt of 42 yards early in the fourth period did little good. Crestline got a 17-yard runback and was back in business.

STARTING FROM THEIR 45, the Bulldogs scored in nine plays, helped by one five-yard penalty. Cochran got his third TD on a five-yard burst at 6:17.

Hopelessly beaten, Plymouth stopped a Crestline drive of 51 yards on its eight. With only 27 seconds left in the game, Fletcher sought to pass. Ted Eich intercepted and went eight yards for the final Bulldog touchdown. The rush for PAT was no good.

On the ensuing kickoff Plymouth fans had their only opportunity to howl. Hardings's boot went deep to Mike Ruckman at the near sideline on the Red 14. He evaded one tackler, cut to his right and sped down the far sideline for 86 yards.

At that, a foul by a Plymouth tackle, who was ejected from the game and then permitted to re-enter, with only seven seconds left, all but nullified this splendid run.

Gene Crouse, who carried the ball fewer than five times all night, rounded right end for the PAT and that was it.

It was neither a satisfactory showing for the Big Red, which lost its first game in the Johnny Appleseed conference, nor was it a satisfying one. The Bulldogs have an identical season record — one win and two losses — but are one up in the JAC.

THE REASSIGNMENT OF BACKS may pay off in time. Phil Fletcher asked for and got a shot at quarterback. In full health, this lad will do well. But he is so crippled up the wonder is that he is able to play at all. He was the only Plymouth player downed for injuries all night.

Bob Foreman ran at full-back. He will improve with experience.

There were many mistakes. Be it said for the Plymouth linebackers, without their efforts the score would have been out of sight. Fletcher, Ruckman and Paddock made half of the tackles against the Bulldogs, who in Schreck showed a fine young defensive player and a better-than-fair runner, despite his small size.

Willie Woods, a big half-back, ran well for Crestline and the strong Cochran was, of course, impossible to contain for the Red forwards.

Expect great things from Chevrolet again-for '64

Today...Jet-smooth Luxury '64 CHEVROLET

*'64 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan—one of 15 Jet-smooth luxury Chevrolets.

Chevrolet was luxurious before, but you should see it now. With smart new styling, the '64 Chevrolet looks even longer (but isn't). There's even a whole new series this year—the Impala Super Sports—with front bucket seats as standard equipment. (The new Impalas and Bel Airs are more luxurious, too. Even the lowest priced Biscaynes have new foam-cushioned seats front and rear and are fully carpeted.) Of course, you expect more than just luxury from Chevrolet. A choice of 16 power teams, for instance—a 6 and six VS's up to 425 hp (optional at extra cost). And quieter transmissions. Jet-smooth ride with Full Coil suspension. Flush-and-dry rocker panels, Delco-tron generator, self-adjusting brakes and other low-upkeep features. If you've ever wondered how luxurious Chevrolet could get—with all the extra-cost options there are to choose from—that seems to be entirely up to you.

Take your first look at the first CHEVELLE!

CHEVELLE! by Chevrolet

*New Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe—one of 11 models in three great series.

You've never seen anything like this totally new line of cars before. Chevelle is new in everything but Chevrolet quality. Chevelle is a good foot shorter than the big cars, so it parks easily. Yet the interior dimensions of its body by Fisher provide a generous amount of head, leg and shoulder room. (Chevelle's trunk is big and roomy, too.) The ride is surprisingly smooth with a rugged coil spring at all four wheels. And not so surprisingly for Chevrolet, the new Chevelle offers a choice of engines ranging from an economical 120-hp 6 to a 220-hp V8 (optional at extra cost). Choose the Chevelle you like best from the three series—the Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300 Series, eleven models in all—at your Chevrolet dealer's. (Like this good-looking Malibu Super Sport, maybe?)

Squirrels abound at state site in 113

Squirrel hunters are reminded that the 296-acre Milan Wildlife area, Erie county, is open to public hunting by Walter McGilliard, district game management supervisor, Ohio Division of Wildlife.

In Route 113, three miles west of Milan, this area provides good hunting for fox squirrels. McGilliard said stiles have been installed for ease in crossing fences. He counseled users to be careful of farm crops which have been planted by a private farmer on a share-crop basis.

The reported hunting success rate by district in terms 1 (Lake Erie area), 20.9; District squirrels killed per 100 hours of hunting was District 2 (northwest), 26.3; District 3 (northeast), 21.3; District 4 (southeast), 27.8; District 5 (central and southern), 33.4, and District 6 (southwest), 32.

The squirrel season opened Sept. 6 and closes on private land in the north zone Nov. 2. In state public hunting areas, it closes Dec. 1.

READ THE ADVERTISER

Always shop at home first ! !

Columnist going to dogs, perhaps?

By AUNT LIZ

Reading is such a joyous pastime.

The nice part of it all is that it is always filled with little, unexpected surprises.

Anyone can go to a library and borrow a perfectly good book to take home and read.

You can be a wonderful pa-rency everywhere, or you can borrow one from a friend.

A book is the sort of thing to read if you are going to read, but you are missing a great deal if you just stick to books.

National Newspaper week is still a few weeks off, so I really shouldn't be blowing my horn about them. But don't wait until then to start reading all the choice tidbits you can find.

I find the classified ads absolutely fascinating. Several months ago a nearby

daily carried an ad for several days of the great mastiff which a couple wished to sell.

There was nothing so strange about that, really, they sounded young, and he was probably eating them out of house and home. The strange thing was the price tag they had put on him.

It was a flat $496. We spent hours discussing why they knocked him down from $500. That seemed like a logical price. The worst part is that we are never going to know the answer.

Then the other night I happened to turn the page

over and there was the Pets for Sale column again in another paper.

About three inches down in it were a batch of the most beautiful beagle pups for sale. They were of various ages and markings, all had shots and all sounded ad-able. Then came the last line.

"Used carpet for sale".

The picture which flashed into my mind was very vivid.

Those poor pups were to be thrown at people who didn't suspect a thing.

Dogs try so hard to be popular and it can be so sad.

This time of the year it shows up so much.

Try to avoid getting behind school buses in the morning when they are stopping to pick up little ones.

THREE bedroom house. We'll trade up or down on property, house, trailer, nearly newcar, boat or acreage. Make offer. House is one floor withroom up for recreation or apartment, ½ acre, three miles out, near highway. Terms. Inquire about this one if you like a home in the country.
