

Trailer fire leaves six homeless

Fire of uncertain origin destroyed a house trailer in Henry road south of here Monday at 7 a. m. and left a family of six homeless.

The premises were occupied by the family of E. N. Smith, who is employed as a mechanic by a new car dealer in Shelby.

Mrs. Smith and their four sons, ages 12 down to 18 months, were compelled to flee the building in their nightclothing.

The Robert Schrimers, who live in Route 61 south of here, took them in until housing can be found.

Relief operations were organized by Wayne E. Strine of the fire department and Mrs. Harold Laser of its auxiliary.

The children were clothed by 10:30 a. m. with the cooperation of Mrs. James D. Cunningham and the Rev. John H. Hutchison, Jr., and the Upstairs Store.

Police break theft ring at Shiloh

Shiloh police have been working with the Richland County Sheriff's department for 10 days and have cleared up eight burglaries and one theft in Richland county and Shiloh.

Steven Poth, 18, 35 Bremen, a road, Shiloh, and Arnold Hall, Jr., 18, 65 Pettit street, Shiloh, were arrested. Both are free on $1,000 bond.

Two juveniles were also picked up and are being held in the juvenile detention center at Mansfield.

Through the same investigation some merchandise that was stolen in Plymouth was recovered.

These items were one toaster, one electric can opener and knife sharpener and one multi-speed mixer.

Police have also recovered property reported stolen in Huron county.

Howard VerBurg reported the property stolen to the Huron county sheriff's department Jan. 1. Items recovered by the Shiloh police are eight gallons of maple syrup, one 15 gallon crock, one brace and bit set, one pair of pruning shears and one box of assorted dishes. The items were recovered in Shiloh except for one gallon of maple syrup, which was recovered in Shiloh.

The case was turned over to the Huron county sheriff's department. There were four persons involved, two minors and two adults, all from Shiloh.

Waivers for speeding were paid by Ellen Bonfiglio, Ashland, $17.50; Orville, Shepherd, New London, $17.50; Charles B. Warrington, Greenwich route 2, $21.50; Rich L. Shepherd, Shiloh, $17.50, and Rexford Argo, Shelby, $17.50.

In Mayor's court fines were paid by Ronald Lira, Celeryville, $50 for a stop sign violation and no operator's license; Carl A. Pizzen, Tiro route 1, $10 for speeding; Edgel D. Thornsberry, Mansfield route 1, $21.50 for speeding, and Kenneth Bailey, 43 High street, stop sign violation, $10 fine and court costs suspended.

Kenne to face former mayor for commissioner

Norene J. Kenne, who lives in New Haven township, will seek the Republican nomination for furor county commissioner in the May primaries.

He is the second GOP candidate. Kenneth G. Salisbury, former mayor of Monroeville, also is circulating a nominating petition.

The seats of Commissioners Arthur E. Herner and Donald Robertson will become vacant at year's end. Neither will seek reelection. Each is a Republican.

All incumbent office holders in Richland county whose terms expire at the end of the year intend to seek reelection.

These include Richard McFarland, Republican, and Freeman Swank, Democrat, commissioners; William McKee, Republican, mayor; and George Griffiths, Democrat, treasurer; Richard Orewiler, Democrat, recorder; Thomas Waike, Republican, sheriff; Gene Coffey, Democrat, clerk of the common pleas courts.

Richland county Republicans nominated their man on the county board of elections. He is Ralph Stanton, who is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Donald E. Apley.

Huron county Republicans dumped their member of the county board of elections, Mrs. Helen Hopper, who was replaced by Mrs. Teddy Niedzwiecki.

Surety promises answer on sewer repair work

American Finance Insurance Co. will say this week if it has found a contractor to repair the newly installed sanitary sewer lines, Mayor Elizabeth G. Paddock and Solicitor Robert A. McClellan said Tuesday night.

Eugene C. Gerken, engineer for the project, has been informed it is likely that the bonding company will approve the bid of McDaniel Construction Co., Amherst, to install both the lift station and force main, providing an agreement can be reached to combine the two projects. Gerken informed the mayor by telephone Tuesday afternoon. He said if this came about, a special council meeting should be called for Tuesday night so the council can approve the necessary legislation.

Final approval was given to the issue I project for the Square. The project formally began in 1971, although in 1969 the village received $5,000 from the Richland county fund. But no action was taken to start the project until later.

The project is estimated to cost $1,000,000 with Richland and Huron counties sharing the cost and the village paying the engineer. A sum of $3,152,13 is due him. A resolution is being prepared to request the Huron county commissioners to authorize payment of the fee from the permissive tax fund. No action was taken on increasing electric rates. A committee was chosen by the mayor, consisting of Councilmen Hubert V. Akers, Toy C. Patton and John Ray. They will study the costs of the utility to see what increase is actually needed.

The village has bemoaned the Ohio Power Co. has been granted a 25 per cent rate increase by the Federal Power commission, effective Jan. 16. The village has not been charging its customers enough for the past two years to offset the added fuel clause charges.

Councilman D. Douglas Brumback has suggested that a fuel clause charge be added to local bills, along with a percentage increase. At the Jan. 13 meeting the mayor suggested a 100 per cent increase would be more apt to cover the additional costs. It would also give the village "something to work with and also allow money to be put into the reserve fund, which was not possible last year."

She said that both proposals would almost amount to the same, since the fuel clause charged the village is just about equal to the monthly rate charge.

The village will advertise for a village administrator who holds both sewer and water certificates.

Applications will be received in the clerk's office until Feb. 3.

The mayor again suggested returning to a board of public affairs. The council was adamant in its refusal. The mayor said that meeting after meeting is spent with foolish complaints and discussions that prevent the council from doing what it was elected to do.

She said a small business is to be opened in a home in the Fenor allotment, which can be considered purely residential, and that the village has no power to prevent it because zoning has not been passed. Brumback said zoning should be placed on the ballot. Jacobs said zoning entails too many hearings and expense. He said the ordinance prepared several years ago was inadequate.

Red wins at Crestline

Plymouth survived a scare in the fourth period at Crestline Tuesday, when the Bulldogs crept to within a point of tying, and went on to pound out a 73 to 57 victory.

Mike Weaver and Holly Tuttle had 18 apiece for the Big Red. Tuttle has 17 in the first half and 13 in the first period -- and Mike Garry 14 as Plymouth shot fantastically well: 27 38, or slightly over 48 per cent. The Bulldogs weren't so bad, either. They shot 25 of 62, or 40 per cent.

Plymouth outbounced Crestline and had more chances at the foul line. Herb Chamman was game high with 24.

Store aided 102 children

P. TA met Jan. 12 at 7:30 p. m. in Shiloh Elementary school.

Principal Edward M. Kinsel announced in February the junior high pupils will sell magazines. Subscribers who don't get their magazines should call the school basketball season will close Feb. 5. Kinsel said about 4,000 more Campbell soup and bean labels are needed to meet the quota, 21,000 having been collected already. The labels will help get equipment for the girls' basketball teams.

Police-Principal Sandra Roth said more help is needed at the Upstairs Store in Plymouth, which is now out of clothing. Donations through 12. Pants and winter coats are especially needed.

Anyone able to supply clothing may drop it off at the store, school or his church. The Upstairs Store has helped a total of 102 children in the Shiloh-Plymouth area. President Harriet Thompson said a cake walk is being planned for Feb. 14 at the elementary school. Mrs. G. Daming Seymour's room won the count for January. Mrs. Doris Chandler won first prize for having more parents signed up for P. TA with Mrs. Sloan winning second place and Mrs. Seymour third. Mrs. Fari Huston and the Community Gospelettes sang several songs. Flowers were sent to Mrs. Ruth Wallen, who was confined in Ward area hospital. A donation was sent to Gerald Strong, Sr., family. Next P. TA meeting will be Feb. 16 at 7:30 p. m.

Trailer tax due Jan. 31

Mobile home owners must register their homes by Jan. 31, to avoid penalties, loss of work to appear in court, plus fines and court costs.

In 1975 there were 1,501 mobile home owners registered in Huron county. Only 547 have registered to date for 1976 even though the auditor's office computed each mobile home tax and mailed the registration certificate to the respective owner.

The certificate also stated it is necessary to present an Ohio certificate of title, or memorandum certificate of title at the time of making payment to the Huron county treasurer. Registrants wishing to mail their check, title and pink registration are reminded to enclose a self-addressed manila envelope for the return of their title, sticker and paid receipt.

Taxes on mobile homes are calculated in a manner similar to real estate property taxes. The tax rate used is the same millage property owners pay in that district. The tax monies are used for mobile home owners is returned to the taxing district where the mobile is situated. This is a means of supplementing the revenues of the school, townships, municipalities and county.

The auditor periodically checks throughout the county to inform mobile home owners of registration requirements. All mobile home park managers are required to keep a register of owners and occupants in their parks. It is their responsibility to report changes to the Huron county auditor's office each month.

The Voice of The Advertiser -

Is this the time to spend?

The village council is wrestling with a rate increase for electric power because the advance accorded the supplier means the village's bill is higher than we can now pay.

We are between a rock and a hard place. The council has no choice but to raise retail rates. And whatever they are, or will be, we'll have to live with them.

But when everybody knows that the administrator's salary comes mostly from the electric fund, which is all but on its uppers, and requires an immediate transfusion of your money and ours, isn't it strange that the council should be talking about hiring another at whatever salary to perform duties that we can't really pay for?

We have always questioned whether there is enough administrative work in one week to occupy a professional for 40 hours. And we have also questioned if we would not be farther ahead with trustees of public affairs, who would cost us less than five per cent of the administrator's salary.

We do so again, today.

Ontario downs Big Red, leading after second minute

Ontario improved an earlier performance against Plymouth by nine points there Friday night and ran off with a 68 to 55 Johnny Appleseed conference victory.

Plymouth did not play well, did not rebound adequately, couldn't get inside and was shot out.

Nevertheless, its shooting record wasn't all that bad. The Big Red made 24 of 62 tries for field goal and seven of 16 free throws. The Warriors were slightly better from the field, with 28 of 61, and at the foul line, with 12 of 26.

Plymouth never led. The score was tied in the early moments of the game and again late in the first period, when the visitors managed to knot the count at 12. Then the Warriors began to get the second shot and they led by five at the half, 28 to 23.

The Big Red crept to within three of a tie early in the third period only to run into a three point play by Doyle Brannham, who had been such a thorn in Plymouth's side in the first engagement but didn't even start this one. This pushed the Warriors into a lead of 45 to 35 and it was strictly catch-up from then on.

Plymouth's defense simply could not box out Doug Dawson, who scored 19, mostly from underneath, and Jeff Koozer, who scored 12, mostly along the end-line in back-door plays.

Kevin Scott and Bruce Duffner added 10 apiece for the winners. That the Warriors had four of five starters in double figures shows how clearly they dominated offensive play.

Mike Cary had 19 for the Big Red, most of them in the second half. He finished the first half with six points.

Plymouth was unable to get much scoring from its two big men, Brad Turson and Mike Weaver. Weaver scored 10 and Turson just seven. Weaver fouled out with two seconds left. He got off 13 shots and made four. Turson fired nine times and made three.

Holly Tuttle, after a poor start -- he missed his first four shots -- and a thin first half, finished with 12 points, with six successes in 16 tries.

Girls win over Flyers for second

Diane Russell scored 15 points to lead Plymouth girls past St. Paul's, 37 to 25, here Jan. 14.

Plymouth held the Flyers scoreless in the first period and coasted thereafter. The Big Red ripped the Flyers' zone defense early in the game and had a big lead when they switched for man-to-man coverage.

Plymouth led by 10 going into the final period.

Some people believe the natural gas shortage is over.

Because that's what they want to believe.

The hard fact is—the natural gas shortage can only get worse unless Congress acts NOW.

1. Delusions of adequacy. Thus far, the heating season has been warmer than usual. This, plus a general slowdown in industry, has eased the demand for natural gas — temporarily. Do not be lulled into a false sense of security. The natural gas shortage is very real. Columbia is working hard to get additional supplies of gas because we know there simply is not enough gas currently available to meet all customer needs. We cannot afford to be complacent over a temporary easing of the problem. This chart, showing the declining gas reserves in the lower 48 states, demonstrates America's gas supply crisis:

2. You're paying for the shortage. Industries that cannot get enough gas are forced to use more expensive fuels. These higher costs are passed along to you in the form of higher prices for their products. Some companies simply cannot afford the high costs of alternative fuels. In those cases, the price could be more than money . . . it could be jobs.

A new homeowner who can't get gas service must pay almost twice as much to heat with oil; four times as much to heat with electricity.

3. How will your Congressman vote? The quickest, the surest, the most effective way to increase the vital supply of natural gas is to end the present outmoded system of government control over the price producers are allowed to charge for their new gas. This outmoded system simply doesn't work. It discourages drilling when drilling should be encouraged. This outmoded system has created the natural gas shortage despite all our efforts.

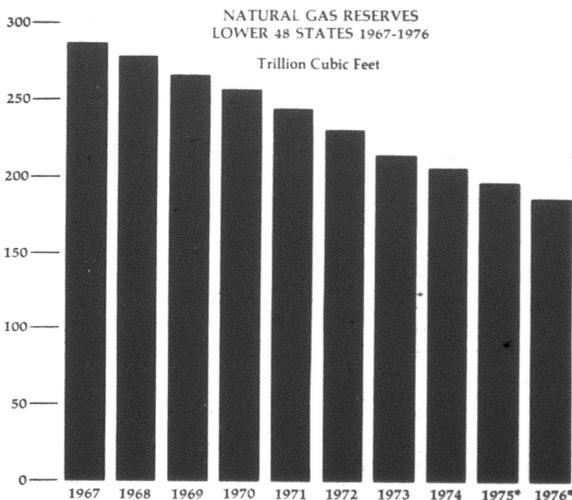

Example: The current ceiling price on new gas is 52¢ a thousand cubic feet (Mcf). Columbia knows from its own experience drilling in the Gulf of Mexico, that the cost of finding and developing new gas is at least $1.50/Mcf. Would you spend $1.50 for something you could sell for only 52¢?

This month the House of Representatives will vote on a proposal to end federal controls on the price of new gas. The Senate has already passed this much-needed bill.

4. What are the choices? A government energy official recently summed up the gas supply and cost problems when he said, the choice is between paying more for less gas . . . or paying more for more gas. Unfortunately, the one thing the government can't seem to control is inflation. It continues to push up all costs, and these higher costs will be reflected in higher gas bills . . . decontrol or no decontrol.

We agree with the Federal Power Commission that "deregulation of new natural gas at the wellhead is the single, most effective measure that can be taken to alleviate the nation's severe supply-demand imbalance."

If you agree, let your Congressman know of your concern. Time is running out.

Unless action is taken now, the future looks grim.

Sillimans to mark 50th wedding day

The Walter Sillimans, who married at North Fairfield Jan. 27, 1926, will celebrate their 50th anniversary at an open house in the American Legion hall at North Fairfield.

The affair will begin at 8 p. m., with dancing to start at 9:30 p. m. Their three daughters, Lois, now Mrs. Neil Garrett, Warner Robins, Ga.; Janice, now Mrs. Paul Seidel, Shelby, and Nancy, now Mrs. Michael Mill-iron, Shelby, will be hostesses.

Mrs. Silliman is the former Violet A. Neuman. They have 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

He has retired after 30 years as a farmer and auctioneer. The last 15 years he was in charge of the yards of Producers Livestock association at Greenwich.

Having sold their farm, the Sillimans now live in Delphi.

They request that no gifts be sent.

Raising money for new band uniforms continues to be major project for Plymouth Band Mothers.

A donation from the American Legion auxiliary has been received. Proceeds from the karate demonstration and basketball game between Mack's Foodland and members of the Cleveland Indians at the high school Jan. 24 will go to the uniform fund.

A free shopping cart of groceries will be given away by Mack's Foodland.

Daughter born to Woodmansees

An 8 lb. 10 oz. daughter, Karina Marie, their first child, was born Jan. 14 in Mansfield General hospital to the Charles R. Woodmansees, Mansfield. She is the former Patricia Clawson, daughter of the Keith Clawsons, Tiro. He is the son of the Charles J. Woodmansees, Plymouth.

fornia do get, a Jacuzzi. There actually was a Mr. Jacuzzi, who was a real estate developer in Orange and Los Angeles counties who had a great imagination. He probably has done more for back ailments than any one in California. If they exist elsewhere, I do not know.

You have got to sit in one to know how great they are. They look like a small children's swimming pool, only they have a couple of steps you walk down, then a ledge to sit on, which puts you in 105 degree water up your hips. Then you sit down and there are strong jets of hot water coming out from behind where you are sitting. The whole thing is like a whirlpool. It is really unbelievable and feels so darn good. You should only sit in one of these things just before you are ready for bed, because there is a great tendency to completely relax and you have had it for the day.

Anyone, no matter what age, should pack a bathing suit if he is going to Southern California. It can be kind of embarrassing in your under-panties and your son-in-law's longest T-shirt. But it works. Along with the Golden Gate bridge, it is one of the experiences of the whole place. Who got a pet rock or a boulder for a holiday gift? The little booklet on how to care for them is so funny and we all must give some person credit for dreaming it up and making a mint. Like many, we have acquired a pet rock, only ours is free, ocean tossed onto Laguna Beach. I really wanted a nice seashell from the Pacific but had been assured one simply has to buy them in a shop. All of a sudden a large wave dropped off a small, beautifully smoothed rock. It kind of looks as though it is granite, and maybe some day I will be able to get its genealogy. Still it behaves like a dream, sits on the buffet, does not have to go outside at exactly 5:45 a.m. like our new pup, does not chase cats, chew rugs or slip-pers and does not require a dog biscuit for good behavior. I could write a whole book about it now, and we have only had it three weeks. It is great to talk with because it simply does not answer a thing, doesn't mind that the house is a mess and has absolutely no interest in how many socks are in his drawer. This is the answer to how to find a good friend and everyone should have one. In fact, that silly rock doesn't give one lola who is over-embarked. Can anything be any better? Maybe this is a way to keep one's cool and not get all shook up over such things.

The only sad thing about our pet rock is that he, she or it (this we have not determined yet) takes no interest in food. It seems to be on a permanent diet. Not us.

This should be saved for those very special friends who drop in for a cup of tea or coffee, not for general eating in your family, or they will be gone immediately. It is a very old German cookie recipe that has been handed down for several generations in the family of a dear friend.

Measure a cup of sugar and take out four tablespoons. Mix the remainder with a half pound of unsalted butter. Then measure out a half pound of ground-up almonds with skins, and from this take out three tablespoons. Mix the sugar, butter and nuts together. Then add two eggs and one and a half cups of flour. Mix very well.

Sprinkle your bread board with flour and pat the dough out. Chilling a little will help. Then beat up an egg white and use it to spread over the dough. Sprinkle the reserved nuts and sugar that have been mixed together over it and cut out in shapes. The best would be a round cutter or small glass.

Bake in a buttered pan at 300 degrees for about 40 minutes. They should be delicately browned.

Fire levels barn, kills four animals

Shiloh Fire department was summoned Jan. 14, at 2:05 p. m. to the Reuben Neuwanger farm, a mile south of Route 96 in Plymouth - Springmill road, where a barn was ablaze. In addition to the barn, two milk cows, two work horses also used for transportation, 300 bushels of soybeans, 1,000 bales of hay, a combine, grain drill, pickup baler, and the family's water supply were lost in the fire. The firemen protected the house, a corn shed and a silo that was covered by plastic. Damage was set at $20,000. A barn raising has been planned for the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Strong, Sr., and family have moved from Rome to North Walnut street, Shiloh.

Several local women have formed volleyball teams. They meet Wednesdays from 7 to 9 p. m. at the junior high school. Mrs. Ray Badridge or Mrs. Dennis Batley, Jr., will give further data.

Shiloh Rescue squad was summoned Jan. 15 at 12:55 p. m. to take Mrs. Rolland McBride, 82, Noble road, to Shelby Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dent, High street, spent a week with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moffet, Toledo.

Councilman Harry Foster is resting after being dismissed by Mansfield General hospital.

Shiloh Town & Country Garden Club met with Mrs. W. W. Pittenger Jan. 12 with 11 members answering roll call by naming their favorite place to visit. Money raising plans were discussed. A bake sale will be staged in April. Bazaar items will also be sold. The president suggested assistance for shut-ins for Valentine's day. Carnations will be ordered with each member bringing a vase and then making something to go with the project.

Ganges Flower was invited to join the flower show two days during the annual Firemen's ox roast in July.

The club is planning to plant shrubs at the new fire house with several other organizations helping with the project. Odorless marigolds and tetra snapdragon plants will be the flower project this year. The club will plant red, white and blue petunias at the cemetery, in honor of the bicentennial. Kingwood report showed this year was the best for Christmas workshop. There were 232 volunteers this year. Tumbling Tom is good for outside hanging baskets. Mrs. John Barnhart spoke on "Covered Bridges," Pennsylvania ranks first, Ohio second and Indiana third in the number of covered bridges. She said there were several battles fought on covered bridges. She illustrated various kinds of bridges along with pictures she has taken of bridges in Pennsylvania and Indiana when she visited there last summer.

Next meeting will be Feb. 9 with Mrs. John Barnhart with each member bringing in a homemade Valentine.

Mrs. Robin Dent Conley, Mansfield, will be married Feb. 14 to Jeff Worner, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rexford Worner, Mansfield. She is the daughter of William Dent, Main street, Shiloh. The wedding will be in Bethel Bible church, Mansfield. The bridegroom-elect is a sailor at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Thirteen members of the Jiffy Mothers club met Thursday, Jan. 15, at the home of Mrs. Everett Fry. There will be a bake sale at the Mansfield Square Shopping center Feb. 13 and 14. After the meeting there was a dessert smorgasbord. Next meeting will be at Mrs. William Flaherty's home in Plymouth on Feb. 19.

Tamara Boock, 15 Superior street, will celebrate her seventh birthday anniversary Friday.

Shilohettes 4-H club met at its reorganization meeting Jan. 13 at Mrs. Paul Kranz's home. Beth Kraft was elected president. Other officers are Debbie Gibson vice-president; Laura Kraft, secretary; Angela Tallman, treasurer; Amy Eichelberger, news reporter; Karen Russell, health chairman; Kay Pittenger and Margaret Flora, recreation leaders, and Nancy Ritchie, historian.

The meeting was in charge of last year's president, Karen Russell. The club will donate five dozen cookies for the Bloodmobile visit at Plymouth High school Feb. 9. Girls also voted to have a group project in first aid training if arrangements can be made.

New officers will be trained at the officers' and advisers' training workshop at Madison Junior High school Feb. 9. Next club meeting will be Feb. 10 at the home of Mrs. G. O. Seymour, when new officers will be installed.

Junior leaders for the Shilohettes 4-H club are Maureen Flora, Jennifer Kranz and Dianne Russell. Advisers are Miss Eleanor Company, Mrs. Guy Flora, Mrs. Kranz and Mrs. Seymour.

On Jan. 19 the Shiloh Pals 4-H club met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Von Stein, adviser. Roll call was answered by introducing themselves and the number of years each had been in 4-H. Three new members were added to the club.

Officers elected are Sally Von Stein, president; Pamela Crabbs, vice-president; Jill Von Stein, secretary; Anita Seaman, treasurer; Cynthia Lawrence, news reporter; Corinna Snipes, health chairman; Lisa King, Julie Von Stein and Brenda Wireman, recreation leaders. Cookies will be donated to the Bloodmobile visit at Plymouth High school Feb. 9. Next meeting will be Feb. 18 at 7 p. m. at the home of Corinna Snipes.

January meeting of the Get Together Club was at the home of Mrs. R.

Eugene Russell Jan. 15. Devotions were given by Marie Lewis. She read articles titled, "The All-Seeing Eyes of God" and "Take Time", and closed with prayer. Mrs. Carl Smith was in charge of the meeting. Each member shared a favorite recipe for roll call. Thank yous were read for remembrances at Christmas time. Craft projects were shared with other members. A special project for the bicentennial year was discussed but no decision was made.

Plymouth Advertiser, Jan. 22, 1976 Page 7
Plans are pending for a March meeting. Each member is to bring an item of interest to the group.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Seaman and daughter, Larry Mock, Mrs. Evelyn Noble, Mrs. Alice Owens, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chronister, Shiloh; Mrs. Vernice Myers, Greenwich; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palmer and daughter, Mansfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Noble and sons, Shelby, dined in Willard Saturday night to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Chronister and Mr. Noble, twin children of Mrs. Evelyn Noble.

Facts about PHARMACY...

NEW DRUGS HAVE INCREASED LIFE EXPECTANCY BY 20 YEARS
In 1900, the life expectancy of an individual was nearly 50 years. Today in the United States, life expectancy is nearly 70 years and still increasing, thanks largely to the new miracle drugs.
