Red whips Bucks in second half

Plymouth patched its defense and shot splendidly in the second half Tuesday to defeat Buckeye Central, 65 to 54, and win its first game of the season.

The Big Red converted on 15 of 28 tries for field goal in the second half and held the Bucks to just 26 shots and only nine successes.

It was a team effort. Seven of the nine players on the floor for the Big Red managed to score, although only one of them got only two points. But the Big Red came from behind by four at the half to surge to the front and outscore the visitors, heretofore undefeated in two outings, in the last 16 minutes.

Plymouth had three players in double figures, led by Mike Weaver with 16.

HoHy Tuttle had 14 and Mike Carly 11.

The Big Red produced this victory with a stout defense, especially in the second half, when it limited Ken Krebs, the Buck star who was averaging better than 20 points a game in two outings, to just four points, two of them on field goals, and just seven shots from the floor.

Krebs was the game's high scorer with 20, but he got 16 of them in the first half, before the defensive adjustments were made by Coach William K.

Northrup, 2nd. Whereas Buckeye Central shot the eyes out of the basket, with 14 of 32 in the first half, Plymouth held the visitors to just nine of 26 in the last half.

Cliff Gochenour was the only other Buck to break into double figures. He had 15.

Plymouth was less satisfactory at the free throw line, making nine of 16 tries.

But its field goal shooting was superb. It bagged 28 of 61, certainly better than satisfactory for a first outing.

Mike Carly got 11, Jay Haver, a carry of strength through most of the going, nine, Steve Shuty seven and Blane Baker six.

Man, 31, charged in murder

A 31-year-old Plymouth West road man is charged with murder in the death of a Michigan man on Nov. 20 at a tavern near Coldwater, Mich.

Merlie Hall, who lives in a trailer on the Richland-Crawford county line, was taken into custody by Richland county sheriff's deputies Nov. 24.

Hall told Deputy Gilbert Frantz he will waive extradition to Michigan and ask the court there to appoint a lawyer to defend him, as he is indigent. He is unemployed.

Hall and four others are accused of murder in the death of Wesley McClint. Three of them are adults, one is a juvenile. They are held in the Branch county jail in Coldwater, Mich.

Hall has handed over to Michigan authorities Nov. 24.

The dead man was owner of Mack's Airport Inn, west of Coldwater.

Sheriff's deputies said he was shot several times with a small caliber weapon.

It is from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanline.

New bids sought for billing machine

With two councilmen absent Nov. 24, village council voted unanimously to reject bids to furnish a new billing machine for use by the utility department and the village clerk-treasurer and seek new bids.

must open them then, verify that they meet the requirements stipulated in the notice, and read them aloud.

Councilmen D. Douglas Brumback and John A. Ray did not attend the special session.

Two bids were received Nov. 19 by Miss Anita L. Riedlinger, clerk-treasurer, for a new utility billing machine.

The apparent low bid was from Benchmark Systems Office Machine Co., Mansfield, in the amount of $11,868.50 for an outright purchase. A deferred payment plan would raise the cost to $12,910.

It will allow $400 on the present NCR machine now in use and the Burroughs machine.

The breakdown of its bid is $9,374.50 for the machine, $2,800 for programming and $95 for freight.

The other bid came from National Cash Register for $12,330 plus $2,100 for programming and $165.50 for freight. It will allow a discount of $1,285.

No turkey at home? Try this casserole

By AUNT LIZ

'Tis not the season to gripe, but gripe I will. With all the things people and cities and villages need, can you believe that our government has a quaint custom going way back for years that sends every cabinet officer who may choose his own artist to have his portrait painted for posterity and it will hang some place in a public building in Washington?

Some of them have already been stashed away in basements because of wall space.

The going rate is somewhere between $6,000 and $12,000 a portrait, which is a lot of moolah to me. The worst part is that there all 11 members of the cabinet. If you cannot multiply it by hand, then get out your trusty calculator. But do not trust those critters too far. A couple of months ago I sent out a perfectly wrong bill, which I blame entirely on my trusty calculator.

A beautiful oil portrait can be a thing of beauty, but in this day of such fantastic photography, why can't those guys simply have their pictures taken? If they would like to defate an oil painting of themselves, they should have that privilege, but why eat up our tax dollars? In our national budget this is such a drop in the bucket, but what it means to a small community is fantastic. If someone in Washington said we are giving you about $70,000 scot free to use as you see fit, it would be such a comfort. Instead, we get nothing but official letters saying do this and do that, for which we do not have the money.

Another thing that gets me is that the big advertising agencies are paying something like $4,000 a second for commercials during the 'Super Bowl', which is coming up. Don't they realize that is when everyone dashes to go potty or to get another beer? We really waste money in this country. WE SIMPLY HAVE TOO MUCH. I even caught our father's dog ready to chew up some dollar bills which he (the dog, that is) carefully removed from my jacket pocket last week. I had draped it over a kitchen chair while I was attacking some cleaning and fortunately caught him in time. He was ready to start in on the first one.

Now that Thanksgiving is over, we have no leftover turkey recipes to pass on because we did not have a turkey. We went out to a restaurant, the first time in a lifetime. It was so good.

The only catch was that about 10:30 Thursday night, while finishing a good mystery book, I could have dived into a turkey sandwich and was very tempted to start calling neighbors to see what they might have. I am very certain that if I had, we would have come up with four nice slices. That is what neighbors are for. I will never forget the night we were watching a Jack Paar show, years ago, about 12:30 a. m. when a knock came on our front door and a visiting son-in-law from up the street was standing there with an ice bucket asking for ice cubes.

Now that the holidays are coming, there are going to have to be days when you tighten the belt a little so everything fits within your budget. And you still have everyone to feed. Inflation is broadly discussed except at the dinner table, and where it is simply assumed things should be as before.

They are not. You can do so much with canned soups. In a bowl pour a can of cheddar cheese soup and stir it, add a can of ordinary tomato soup, a half cup of water, a fourth of a cup of minced onion, two tablespoons of mustard, the processed kind, and four cups of cooked macaroni. Mix it up and pour into a casserole. Top it off with six or eight wieners, depending on how many people are to eat. Figure two apiece. Bake it for about a half hour at 400. You should get four nice servings of it.

Extension phones.

They're well within your reach.

Highlighting it from your living room or bedroom to answer the phone in your kitchen is inconvenient, inefficient and a pretty amusing sight to onlookers.

So why not add an extension or two? It's easy enough to arrange. Just call your General Telephone business office.

We've got desk phones, wall phones, decorative and pushbutton phones. In plenty of styles and colors. Which makes our extensions as easy to look at as they are to get at. GTG GENERAL TELEPHONE

Mary Beth Huston becomes bride of Mansfielder at Shenandoah

A double ring, candle-light wedding ceremony Nov. 13 at a newly-united Mary Beth Huston and Will E. Barber, who wrote and spoke their own vows.

The Rev. Leonard Filler performed the ceremony in Shenandoah Christian church.

He is the daughter of Mrs. Mrs. M. Huston, Shiloh route 2. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Winford Barber, Mansfield.

Music was by Roger Jenny, organist, and Melissa Tonkovich, soloist. Miss Tonkovich sang "Sunrise, Sunset" as the mothers of the couple were seated. She sang "The Lord's Prayer and "Wedding Song" during the ceremony.

Two candleabra flanked the altar, which was set with a bouquet of fall-colored chrysanthemums and three candles. Large fireside baskets of dried fall flowers were on each side of the chapel and each window contained lighted candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory satin gown with attached train. The long, full sleeves, which were hand embroidered, were gathered to lace trimmed cuffs with pearl buttons. The underbodice featured a sweetheart neckline and the overbodice a cameo look with stand-up collar edged in lace. The long, full skirt was edged with wide, scalloped French lace. Her train-length veil of illusion was trimmed with lace matching that of the gown. She carried a cascade of straw flowers, star flowers and baby's breath.

The bride's dress was designed and made by the bride and her mother. JoAnne Huston was her sister's maid of honor, attired in a floor-length dress of all floral underlined in yellow with V neckline and shaped belt that gathered the dress and tied in the back. The dress was flounced with the white ruffle.

Bridesmaids were Judy Huston, sister of the bride; Debbie Showalter, Greenwich route 2, and Mary Ellen Lawrentz, Ashland, who wore dresses identical to the maid of honor but underlined in orange.

All attendants carried hurricane lamps surrounded by straw flowers, baby's breath and brown oak leaves. Attired as the maid of honor, Michelle Sessor carried the rings on a heart shaped pillow made by the bride's grandmother.

David Brandt, Mansfield, was best man. James Sessor and Kenneth Schneider, Lucas, and Charles Huston, brother of the bride, ushered.

Ms. Huston wore a floor-length green dress with long full sleeves and a corsage of ivory sweet-heart roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Barber chose a full-length rust-colored dress with an Empire waistline and long cape-like sleeves.

Green, orange, and yellow crepe paper, white bells, and candles decorated Ehet-Parsel Post 447, American Legion, where a buffet dinner and dance reception took place. Music was by the Denzli Bandy orchestra.

Guests were registered by Jody Phillips and Davida Yudin, former college roommates of the bride.

Janice Ramsay, Cindy Kissel, Kim Tanner, Mrs. Sessor and Mrs. Schneider assisted guests.

The couple is living in Chew road, Mansfield. A teacher at Empire Elementary school, the bride graduated from Crestview High school and Ohio State university.

The bridegroom graduated from Shelby High school and served in the U. S. Air Force. He is owner of Mid-Ohio Roofing.

Friends of Kids to see film, install officers

Friends of Kids, successor to Plymouth Mothers' club, will meet in the elementary school Monday at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Charles E. Fritchard will be installed as president, Dr. Allan Raymond as vice-president. A film about children with learning disabilities will be shown. Public is invited.

J. M. Compton succumbs at 86

Former Plymouth resident, James Mark Compton, 86, Chesapeake, died there Nov. 22. He was a retired employee of the Fate-Root-Heath Co. and a member of the Rockwood Masonic Lodge and of the Masonic order.

He is survived by his wife, Mary; four daughters, Mrs. Garnet Holland, Huntington, W. Va.; Mrs. Olga Sumpter and Mrs. Connie Clark, Chesapeake, and Mrs. Ernestine Lovell, in Tennessee; five sons, Howard, Shelby; Richard, Chesapeake; Don, Charleston, Va.; Burr, Logan, W. Va.; and Oscar, in Florida.

There are 18 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted from his church Nov. 24.

The Hospital beat

Roger Hampton is a patient in the Medical Center, Bessemer, Ala., treated for heart seizure Nov. 24. His condition has now stabilized. His sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Powers, have been with him.

Interment here for W. H. Mielke

Interment took place here Monday afternoon for William H. Mielke, 68, Norwalk, who died in Fisher-Titus Memorial hospital there Friday of a two year illness.

Born in Germany, he fought as a German soldier in World War II. He lived in Norwalk from 1965, having previously lived in Warren and Ashland. He retired in 1971 after 18 years with Ohio Edison Co.

He was a member of Aerle 711, FOEagles, Norwalk.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy; two step sons, Ronald and Randy Board, Norwalk; a stepdaughter, Renate, now Mrs. Earl Callow, Bristolville, and four step-grandchildren. The Rev. Dr. J. Perry Prather, retired minister of the Church of the Brethren, Ashland, conducted services in Norwalk Monday at 1:30 p. m.

Red to face Crestview

Can Plymouth win the Johnny Appleseed conference championship this year, for the first time since 1968 and only the second time in history? There is some confidence that, with luck, this may occur.

The confidence lies mostly in the players and the coach, who's hoping to turn the program around and to reestablish the habit of winning that he brought here.

Lexington appears to have the horses and is the prohibitive favorite to win it all. Loudonville is strong. Plymouth must challenge these two and hold its own with the other five.

Its first opportunity to do so comes here tomorrow, when Crestview, with whom the Big Red has already locked horns in a scrimmage, comes here to open play.

Coach William K. Northrup, 2nd, will rely on seasoned players as starters. Mike Weaver, Mike Carry and Holly Tuttle will form that nucleus, with Jay Haver, Steve Shny and Bob Davis as the swing men. Northrup is looking to John Niedermeier, a 12th grader who hasn't competed before, for some rebounding help. And he expects great things, obviously, from Blane Baker, up from the reserves, a muscle man with some jumping skills, for work in the pivot.

Plymouth has been plagued by minor injuries during the training season. At Crestview there were four players ailing. At Shelby Saturday, the Big Red defended narrowly, by as little as is possible, a single point.

To advance in the conference, Plymouth must produce better results than last season, when it won just four of 14 contests, two of them against lowly Crestline. The others were over Fredericktown and Crestview, both in Plymouth. And the Big Red won only five all told, the fifth over Buckeye Central here in the last game of the season. Game time is 6:45 p. m.
