

Big Red underdog tomorrow when Loudonville plays here

Based on what each team did with Lexington, Loudonville should win tomorrow night's game by seven points.

But don't count on it. Both Plymouth and Loudonville are victims of the Minutemen this season, Loudonville by 26 to 7, Plymouth by 21 to 0.

The Redbirds managed 122 yards rushing against the Lexington defense and got 53 yards through the air. Plymouth, by comparison, netted just 15 yards on the ground and seven yards in the air at Lexington.

Each team is coming off a losing streak. Loudonville is 1-2.

There is no doubt that the word in the Johnny Applesseed conference is "Key on Mike Messer". That's what Ontario did, that's what Clear Fork did and that's what Lexington did. And there's no reason to think that Coach Mike Warbel will do anything else.

Plymouth's offensive line simply hasn't played over the last three weeks as it played in the first four. And the burden on the defense has been too great.

PLYMOUTH IS WINNING in league play. Loudonville has a single victory. Both clubs are 4- and 3- going into this one.

If the Red defense can handle Mumper, it'll be up to the offense, which has been shut out for two games and which has managed just eight points in three games.

The Voice of The Advertiser -

On Nov. 8

Three money issues appear on the Nov. 8 ballot. Two of them concern the Village of Plymouth exclusively.

One of them is a request for a fresh tax of three mills to run for five years to benefit the fire department. The ballot language, unfortunately, does not spell out what this money is for.

It is to be husbanded, which means saved, with accrued interest, to be applied to the purchase of a new pump for the fire department so that the village can comply with state law.

The tax, amounting to about $16,500 a year, will produce during the life of the levy about $92,500, which includes accrued interest. This may be enough to pay for what we will need by then (City of Shelby received quotations on a new pump last week: lowest, about $85,000.)

We were disappointed that the fire department didn't bestir itself last time around to petition for the levy. If a fireman doesn't know or won't say what's needed, then who can?

Pay as you go is part and parcel of American life these days. And this levy makes sense. Consider that 75 per cent of all housing in Plymouth was erected before 1930, when fire safety standards were much less rigid than today. Consider that all but six commercial buildings in Plymouth were erected before World War II. To do our lawful duty by them, we've got to provide sufficient fire protection that can, in emergency, cope with whatever may transpire. The fireholder has a right to expect that this government will furnish adequate fire protection. It's what they meant when they wrote the Ohio Constitution and allowed for 10 mills of taxation without a vote of the people.

Now everybody knows that those 10 mills, split as they are, aren't within prayer of meeting the needs of fire protection. Which is why there are other taxes to benefit the fire department. And which is why this one should be, MUST BE, approved. Vote YES on Issue No. 7, current expenses (which they really aren't, and won't be until 1985) for the fire department.

We have said before that the practice of burial is anathema to us. We prefer another, more sanitary, less expensive method of disposal of the dead.

But the practice is here, it's established and we have a substantial investment in carrying it out.

The trustees of Greenlawn cemetery deserve some kind of medal for serving so faithfully and efficiently for so little pay, the while bearing up under often vicious and unfair criticisms of the cemetery conditions that are beyond their control. Like when it rains for two weeks before May 30.

The trustees have resolved to ask for more money, specifically, about $5,500 a year, to run the two cemeteries.

Everybody knows that costs have risen. Everybody knows that the number of deaths diminishes each year, as medical science improves. Wages have risen. Cost of mowers and supplies has gone up. The present tax revenues of one mill plus whatever the cemetery can earn from selling its services simply aren't enough to foot the bill.

The cemetery is entitled to another mill and it should be accorded. Vote YES on Issue No. 6, current expenses, cemetery department.

TOM MUMPER HEADS THE REDBIRD OFFENSE.

He runs from fullback. The quarterback is Rex Conway, but it's doubtful if he'll be available for full-time duty. He hurt his hand against Crestview. Before this occurred, he produced a touchdown pass to Brad Browning, another in a long line of Brownings at the Ashland county school.

Mumper produced 109 yards in 20 carries against Lexington in 20 carries against the Cougars.

If Conway doesn't start, Rick Beans will get the call. He started against Crestview, because Conway had the flu and his hand, which was hurt earlier, was painful.

Bob Combs plays in middle of Big Red line, which has its work cut out for it tomorrow when Loudonville comes here.

Seven plots sold in school district

James M. Smith, who recently sold his farmhouse in Plymouth-Springmill road, has bought part of Lot 148, in the south side of West High street, from Holly Tuttle, Richland county recorder reports.

Kenneth Roethlisberger bought five acres in Bloominggrove township from his step-father, Harold Cobb.

Adam L. Mumea sold his premises in Franklin street, described as Lot 239 and Outlot II, to Bruce R. Binstline.

Isabelle Cobb acquired five acres in Bloominggrove township from Ina Boyce.

Eric C. Heden bought from Hubert V. Akers Lot 257 and part of Lot 258 at West Broadway and Bell streets.

Edd Wireman acquired 74.26 acres in Cass township from Loreta J. Wireman and deeded to her 3.74 acres in the same township.

Caudills drop divorce suit

Divorce suit of Connie J. Caudill, 66 North street, against her husband, Jerry Caudill, same address, has been dismissed, a journal entry in Huron county common pleas court shows.

Shilohan jailed on DWI charge

Herbert J. Cantrell, Shiloh, convicted in Mansfield Municipal court of drunken driving, was fined $150 and court costs, sentenced to seven days in jail and to suspension of his driver's license for 30 days. If he completes the jail alternative program, jail sentence is suspended.

Youth, 18, held on three charges of forging checks

Accused of forging a signature on checks taken from a friend, Daniel J. Ireland, 18, West Broadway, was arrested Oct. 18 by Warden police on three counts, a common pleas court at Newark that day, bond was set at $3,000 cash or $6,000 property.

Caudills drop divorce suit

Ireland is accused of stealing blank checks belonging to David Gasparec, Plymouth, and of forging Gasparec's name to them on Oct. 3. One check was for $15 and the other for $5. The checks were passed at Willard United bank.

Ireland's case was submitted to a Huron county grand jury Tuesday.

Brumbach's dispute with clerk lays siege to village hall

Village hall took on the atmosphere of a high-altitude airliner Oct. 18. The highjacker was the members of the village council, grim-faced, headed by Councilman D., Douglas Brumbach.

With no weapons except his mouth, he managed to gather them all together. From noon on, they came and went, as they had to report back to work. He stayed his ground and remained in the village hall from about noon until the utility office closed at 5 P. M.

Brumbach was claiming the village clerk had done a great wrong and should be prosecuted.

Sometime before the noon hour, he asked the clerk, Anita L. Riedlinger, for some information.

Apparently the manner with which he did it upset her, and she simply walked out on him and did not return until evening.

Meanwhile, Brumbach was telling the mayor and councilmen that the check which was to have been sent to Ohio Power several weeks ago in the amount of $16,304 had not been sent. The clerk had told him it was sent on Oct. 6. This was before she walked out.

Mrs. Alexander dies suddenly

Mrs. Catherine Alexander, 71, 127 West High street, was dead on arrival at Willard Area hospital Saturday night.

Born Sept. 9, 1906, in Cleveland, she was the widow of Vincent Alexander. She lived here 50 years.

She was a communicant of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church and a member of its Altar & Rosary society.

Willard Garrett succumbs at 73

Willard O. Garrett, 73, 79 West Broadway, died Oct. 18 evening in Shelby Memorial hospital.

He was ill several months.

Born in Crawford county Feb. 11, 1904, he lived his whole life in or near Plymouth. He retired as founding foreman of the Fate-Road-Health Co., now Plymouth Locomotive Works, Inc.

He was a member of Ward, Erie, Eagles, and a social member of Ebert-Parrel Post 447, American Legion, which he served as steward for several years.

O. C. Gullett dead at 67

Orville C. Gullett, 67, 388 West Broadway, lost a gallant fight with a lingering illness early Monday morning.

He died in Shelby Memorial hospital.

Only a few days ago he celebrated his 50th wedding anniversary.

Born Nov. 25, 1909, in Salyersville, Ky., he was a retired lumber dealer and later worked as a maintenance employee for Salschbach Cattle Co.

He was a member of Richland Lodge 201, F&AM.

During the regular council meeting Oct. 18, a myriad of matters was dealt with in haste.

And those who discussed them were Councilmen Edward O. Ramsey, James L. Jacobs, Sr., Douglas Brumbach and V. Duane Keene.

A goodly part of the discussion developed about the surface water problem at Plymouth street and Route 98.

Ramsey reported he visited Division 3, ODT, Ashland, and was told that the water problem in Route 98 at the Car Wash was the village's responsibility. The mayor received the same answer when she asked last summer.

Brumbach says it is the state's problem and that Keene's backtapping of his service area was a better job than what the state did in Route 98.

For a number of years, water has accumulated in the roadway just before the intersection of Route 61. All councilmen agreed this is a dangerous situation and that a serious accident could result when it freezes.

C. Reed Schreck succumbs at 45

Brother of Mrs. Herbert Beeching, Shelby, formerly of Plymouth, C. Reed Schreck, 45, Shelby, died there Saturday of a lengthy illness.

Born there Apr. 3, 1932, he was headyographer in West Park Kroger store, Mansfield. He was a member of First Christian church and of the Junior Order of Mechanics.

He is also survived by his wife, Ruth, a daughter, Janet, a son, Edward, and a sister, Mrs. Don Monn, Shelby.

Burglars get liquor here

Burglars entered Weber's cafe in broad daylight Sunday about 5 p. m. and took 15 bottles of opened liquor.

The theft was discovered by the manager, William H. Goth, who entered the place shortly after 5 p. m. to do some book-keeping.

The cleaner had left the building shortly before 5 p. m.

suggested that catch basins and tiles be installed.

Keene maintained it was not his problem because the west side of Route 98 is higher than the east side, where it borders his property, and that the problem is in the roadway and not on his property.

The mayor reported that when he attempted to find village records regarding Lonnie Caudill's suit against the village, she could not do so.

Caudill sued the village about six years ago concerning being charged a sewer fee. He maintains he is outside the corporate limits of the village and would never be served on a sanitary line.

An ordinance still in effect says that every water user must pay the sewer charges.

The law suit, which has laid dormant for so long, has surfaced again.

Upon a request from the solicitor to go back and recheck village records, the mayor told the council she found the minutes of the Board of Public Affairs to be missing. This covers a period of the

Minutemen shoot Red to third loss, 21 to 0

Apr. 19, 1975: The Minutemen, unproven and with a dismal record, stood on the sidelines at Concord to test the red-clad invader with an impressive score of four victories, fired their best shots and walked away with a signal victory.

Oct. 22, 1977: The Minutemen, unproven and with a dismal record, stood on the field at Lexington to test the red-clad invader with an impressive score of four victories, fired their best shots and walked away with a signal victory.

History repeated itself Saturday as Lexington soundly whipped Plymouth, 21 to 0, in Johnny Appleseed conference play.

By its defeat, Plymouth went to the bottom of the league standings, without a single victory.

It was no contest, really, the Lexington defense simply dominated the game and shut down Plymouth's offense, which was held to zero in the first half and a net of 15 in the second. The Big Red aerial game, never a factor in previous games, was not improved. Plymouth fired the ball 12 times and completed one. The net gain was eight yards.

Two middle guards of the Purple defense stood out. These were Darrell Cory and Fred Thompson, who spent the afternoon in the Red backfield.

And two backs, Edgar Megger and Mike Marzetti, simply tore the Red defense to ribbons.

Marzetti, a 12th grader who scales 174 pounds, gained 109 yards in 11 tries and scored two touchdowns.

Megger gained 64 yards rushing and scored a touchdown.

Marzetti's first score, and the first touchdown of the game, came in the first period.

LXINGTON KICKED off and after Jim Wallace ran for six yards, Tom Miller was hit behind the line, fumbled and lost possession.

In business at the Red 41, Lexington lost no time. Jamie Hester gained 11 with a pitchout, Megger ran for three and on fourth down with two to go, Coach Bill Stoner elected to gamble. "I figured we had to show Plymouth what we were made of," he said.

He called for another plunge by Megger, who got two and first down. Whereupon, on first down, from the Red 31, Marzetti simply ran through the Red defense for the score. Ted Glorioso's kick for PAT was good.

Plymouth did not register a single first down until 10:23 of the second period.

Toward the end of the first quarter, Lexington started its one sustained drive of the afternoon. Fielding John Ross's punt at 11:30, Lexington marched 70 yards in nine plays. Marzetti ran the last two yards. Glorioso again kicked the PAT.

The clock read 11:23 of the second period.

Lexington kept the Plymouth offense deeply contained during the remainder of the half.

PLYMOUTH TOOK advantage of some stiff penalties against the Minutemen to drive to within the shadow of the Lexington goal late in the first half.

After racking up its first down, Plymouth was aided by two consecutive penalties of 15 yards and another of five. From the Lexington 26, Ross was socked for a two yard loss. Mike Messer got three, then Miller sought to pass. Bret Young took care of that idea with a sack.

On fourth down, Miller faked a punt and passed. It was incomplete but a roughing the passer penalty gave Plymouth first down at the Lexington 14.

Messer got four, then lost two. Mary McKenzie on an end-around play was natted for four. On fourth down, Tom Crawford was detected in a foul and Plymouth had first down at the Lexington seven.

Three plays later, from the Minuteman 16, Plymouth having been penalized five yards and lost five on a running play, Messer was hit hard and lost the ball.

Plymouth never got closer.

With 6:13 left in the game, Lexington scored a third time.

After Terry Tash had staged a brilliant safety blitz against Paul Billman, Lexington punted, a measly 13 yards from scrimmage.

On first down, the Lexington forwards swarmed all over Tom Miller behind the line, forced a fumble and Thompson, who was the red dogger, recovered the bobble.

A pass play from Billman to Dave Goettel was good for 10 before Megger and Marzetti alternated up the middle. On the third play, Megger ran in from three yards away. Glorioso again kicked the PAT.

GLORIOSO PUNTED out of bounds at the Red 48 toward the end of the game. But on first down Miller's pass was intercepted and Plymouth never again had any opportunity to be a threat.

Methodists plan dedication for repairs to two churches

Plymouth-Shiloh Young United Methodists Women

Their first child, a daughter, Leanna Jean, weighing eight pounds, was born Oct. 18 in Wood County hospital, Bowling Green, to Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Gleisig. Mother is the former Dorothy Hawk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hawk. Child is the Hawks' seventh grandchild.

will conduct a bake sale on Saturday, from 11 a. m. at Poodland. Homemade candy items will be available. Candy will be regular or colored white chocolate suckers shaped as pumpkins, owls, witches and cats for 35 cents each. These items will be made in marshmallow covered chocolate for the same price. Assorted miniatures in various colors will be sold in half pound bags for 70 cents each. Shiloh United Methodist church will conduct a service of dedication Sunday during the 9:30 a. m. service. To be dedicated will be the new roof, the rewiring of the entire building, and the remodeling and redecoration of the auditorium and church school area on the main floor and the updating of the parking lot with a new entrance, parking curbs and additional stone. These projects cost nearly $20,000 and have been entirely paid for. As part of the service the board of trustees will be honored for its efforts on behalf of the church to secure and complete these projects. To be honored will be those former members of the trustees as well as those currently serving. These are Woodson W.

Arnold, John Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Chandler, Mrs. Harold Company, Russell J. Moser, Mrs. Harland R. Neese, Terry Pore and Kenneth Roethlisberger. Plymouth United Methodist church will conduct service of dedication Sunday at 11 a. m. In addition to the dedication there will be the burning of the bank note, which was paid in just over two years instead of five. The money was borrowed to underwrite two projects that began in May, 1975. The first project was to repair and cover the two large, leaded, stained glass windows in the east and north sides of the church building. The second was to apply siding to the parsonage and replace all of the gutters and downspouts. The two projects cost over $9,000 and were completely paid for this summer. In addition those church trustees then and serving currently will be honored for their endeavors to plan and complete these projects. These are Dale McPherson, Robert A. Lewis and Perry McKenzie, the chairmen of the trustees from 1975-1977. Other members were Hubert V. Abery, Mrs. Raymond Bevier, Robert Beck, Mrs. Raymond L. Brooks, Mrs. Arthur Jacobs, Paul Long, Jr., Mrs. Norman B. Quinn, Mrs. Richard Rettig and W. Roger Ross. Also to be remembered will be Mrs. Peyton W. Thomas and Mrs. F. Lofland, who provided bequests to the church for its use. A special thanks will be noted to the members of Plymouth United Methodist Women who made a generous contribution to the building repair fund.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir: In regard to the proposed bond issue in the Plymouth school district Nov. 8: the officials can estimate fairly close on the cost of the bonds and probably underestimate actual building cost in the period of inflation. The land reappraisal is a ripoff. My last two reappraisals doubled each time. In seven reappraisals to cover the bonds, we may be paying double or triple in the overall tax collected. Reporter John Gray quoted a school official in an example. (Ed. Note: The annual cost for a property valued at $20,000 would be only $31, Fazzini said.) Some one erred; the yearly tax is three times that quoted. I would suggest you read the official election notice in this newspaper and compile your own figures. I believe the current building can continue in use. Yours truly, John M. Brook Shiloh route 2 their minds. Such a letter would give them the chance to put those thoughts before the public and help us decide whom to support at the polls. Respectfully, William Van Wagner station for tornado and storm watch until an all clear was sounded. Twenty-two men put in 251 hours. This was the storm that struck Charles Myers' barn and some firemen went there to extricate his horses. The fire department has two T-81 instructors trained at Willard for 20 hours at no pay. They have set up a 12-month training school in the department, attended by 24 men who gave 511 hours of their time at no pay. For the first time in many years, men were sent to Bowling Green fire school, where nine men spent 48 hours in training. Nine men spent 54 hours at the Upper Sandusky training school. Last weekend there was a fire school at Madison High school, where nine men spent 78 hours without pay. We do not count the hours spent on maintaining our equipment. We want to let the taxpayers know that a lot of time is spent working for them. Will they spend a little time to go to the polls Nov. 8 and vote for the fire levy? About letters to the editor . . .

Letters to the editor are always welcome, subject to some rules. They must deal with a subject of common interest, be free of libelous, obscene and impertinent matter, be limited to 250 words, and be signed by the writer.

The name of the writer will be concealed on request. Letters that have been previously published elsewhere are not acceptable. The newspaper does not customarily accept letters written by persons not usually residing within its circulation area.

Letters that are typewritten, double spaced, on one side of the sheet, normally receive greater consideration, but others will be accepted.

The newspaper reserves the right to edit all letters to conform with good taste, its rules of style and its brevity.

Letters arguing one political question or another are not accepted after two weeks before an election in which the question is pertinent.
